law allows a metropolitan district to levy a property tax to provide services; however, a metropolitan district can also levy a sales tax for safety protection, street improvement, transportation services, and fire protection. Both property taxes and sales taxes require voter approval. The bill allows a metropolitan district to also levy a sales tax to provide parks or recreational facilities or programs within the district in which the tax is levied.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2           SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 32-1-1106, amend
3 (1) introductory portion, (1)(b)(III), and (1)(b)(IV); and add (1)(b)(V) as 4 follows:

5           32-1-1106. Special financial provisions - metropolitan districts
6 that provide fire protection, parks or recreational facilities or 7 programs, street improvement, safety protection, or transportation
8 services. (1) In addition to the powers specified in section 32-1-1101, the 9 board of a metropolitan district organized with fire protection, PARKS OR 10 RECREATIONAL FACILITIES OR PROGRAMS, street improvement, safety
11 protection, or transportation powers as described in section 32-1-1004
12 (2)(a), (2)(c), (2)(d), (2)(f), (2)(h), and (5) has the power, for and on 13 behalf of the district, to levy a uniform sales tax, at a rate determined by 14 the board, upon every transaction or other incident with respect to which 15 a sales tax is levied by the state that occurs within any area of the district
16 that is not also within the boundaries of an incorporated municipality
17 subject to the following limitations:

18           (b) The net revenues of any sales or use tax levied may be used
19 only to fund one or more of the following:

20           (III) Transportation, as described in, and limited by the provisions 21 of, section 32-1-1004 (2)(h) and (5); ~~or~~

22           (IV) Fire protection, as described in section 32-1-1004 (2)(a) in
