specifically trained in deafblindness, building language and communication skills, and intervention strategies with children who are deafblind and their community, families, and environment. The Colorado commission for the deaf, hard of hearing, and deafblind (commission) shall contract with an intervener program manager (manager) who has oversight over the program, the intervener activities, and the outcomes for children who are deafblind.

Starting in 2025, and upon the approval of the department of health care policy and financing, the commission shall have the manager direct eligible children to receive intervener services through the home- and community-based services provided by the community first choice option of the federal "Social Security Act".

The program is funded through the Colorado telephone users with disabilities fund.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds and declares that:

4 (a) Children who are deafblind have incomplete, distorted, or 5 unreliable access to visual or auditory information, or both;

6 (b) The term "deafblind" does not refer to total deafness or total
7 blindness but rather degrees of hearing and vision loss;

8 (c) Children who are deafblind need a clear and consistent flow
9 of visual and auditory information for learning, interaction, and overall
10 development;

11 (d) Many children who are deafblind have other disabling
12 conditions, such as physical disabilities, health problems, and cognitive 13 challenges;

14 (e) Children who are deafblind are diverse and have unique needs,
15 yet they share similar learning, communication, and social and emotional 16 challenges; and

17 (f) Learning through independent observation and exploration is

1 difficult for children experiencing deafblindness because they have
2 difficulty detecting their environment, and when essential information is 3 missed, incidental learning is greatly limited.

4 (2) Therefore, the general assembly finds and declares that it is in 5 the best interest of the state of Colorado and, particularly, children who 6 are experiencing deafblindness and their families to:

7 (a) Create and fund the family and community intervener
8 program, housed within the commission for the deaf, hard of hearing, and 9 deafblind in the department of human services; and

10 (b) Support the program's work with children who are deafblind
11 and their families and its values of facilitating critical connections
12 between family, community, people, and environments that promote 13 social and emotional well-being.
