applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

Section 1 of the bill clarifies and expands the current property tax exemption for property acquired by nonprofit housing providers for low-income housing. The bill clarifies that property may qualify for the property tax exemption, through construction on the property, until the property is sold or transferred. The bill expands the definition of "low-income" applicants to include individuals or families who are at or below 100% of the area median income, rather than 80% of the area median income.

Section 2 deems certain property held by community land trusts and nonprofit affordable homeownership developers to be used for a strictly charitable purpose, and to consequently be exempt from property taxation in accordance with the state constitution. To qualify for the exemption, the property must be split into a separate taxable parcel from the improvements on the property and leased to the owner of the improvements as an affordable homeownership property.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 39-2-117, amend

9 39-3-113.5, and 39-3-116, AND 39-3-127.7 shall be made on forms 10 prescribed and furnished by the administrator, ~~shall~~ MUST contain such

1 accompanied by a payment of one hundred seventy-five dollars, which 2 shall MUST be credited to the property tax exemption fund created in 3 subsection (8) of this section. The administrator shall examine and review 4 each application submitted, and, if it is determined that the exemption
5 therein claimed is justified and in accordance with the intent of the law, 6 the exemption shall MUST be granted, the same to be effective upon such 7 date in the year of application as the administrator shall determine, but in 8 no event shall the exemption apply to any year prior to the year preceding 9 the year in which application is made. The decision of the administrator 10 shall MUST be issued in writing and a copy thereof furnished to the 11 applicant and to the assessor, treasurer, and board of county
12 commissioners of the county in which the property is located.

13 (b) (I) Any users of real and personal property for which 14 exemption from general taxation is requested pursuant to any of the 16 required to provide such information as the property tax administrator 17 determines to be necessary. If a claim is made for an exemption under 18 section 39-3-110, and the child care center is operated by a person other 19 than the owner of the property, then the other person, or the other person's 20 authorized agent, must:

21 (II) Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph (II)
22 SUBSECTION (1)(b)(II), any application filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of

1 the name and telephone number of the agent of such property; the date the 2 owner acquired such property; the date the owner commenced using the 3 property for religious purposes; a complete list of all uses of the property 4 other than by the owner thereof during the previous twelve months; the 5 total amount of gross income specified in section 39-3-106.5 (1)(b)(I) and

12 purposes of this ~~subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (1)(b)(II), if the owner did 13 not own the property being claimed as exempt during the entire 14 twelve-month period prior to filing such application, the application ~~shall~~ 15 MUST contain the required information for that portion of the 16 twelve-month period for which such property was owned by the owner
17 making application. Such application ~~shall~~ MUST also include a 18 declaration that sets forth the religious mission and religious purposes of 19 the owner of the property being claimed as exempt and the uses of such 20 property that are in the furtherance of such mission and purposes. Such 21 declaration ~~shall~~ MUST be presumptive as to the religious purposes for 22 which such property is used. If the administrator is unable to determine 23 whether the property qualifies for exemption based solely on the 24 information specified in this ~~subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (1)(b)(II), the 25 administrator may require additional information, but only to the extent
26 that the additional information is necessary to determine the exemption
27 status of the property. The administrator may challenge any declaration

3 of such property, that the property being claimed as exempt is not actually 4 used for the purposes set forth in such application, or that the property
5 being claimed as exempt is used for private gain or corporate profit.

7 being exempt from taxation pursuant to the provisions of sections 8 39-3-106 to 39-3-113.5, ~~or~~ 39-3-116, OR 39-3-127.7 in any year unless 20 SECTION, and signed under the penalty of perjury in the second degree.

21 Each such annual report ~~shall~~ MUST be accompanied by a payment of 22 seventy-five dollars, which ~~shall~~ MUST be credited to the property tax 23 exemption fund created in subsection (8) of this section. Each such 24 annual report filed later than April 15, but prior to July 1, ~~shall~~ MUST be 25 accompanied by a late filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars; except that 26 the administrator ~~shall have~~ HAS the authority to waive all or a portion of 27 the late filing fee for good cause shown as determined by the

1 administrator by rules adopted pursuant to subsection (7) of this section.
2 On and after January 1, 1990, every owner of real or personal property for 3 which exemption from general taxation has previously been granted

6 39-3-113.5 AND 39-3-127.7 for less than two hundred eight hours during 7 the calendar year or if the use of the property for such purposes results in 8 annual gross rental income to such owner of less than twenty-five 9 thousand dollars ~~shall~~ MUST not be required to file any annual report 10 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (3). In order to claim such 11 exemption, in lieu of such annual report, the owner shall annually file

13 such purposes for less than two hundred eight hours during the calendar
14 year or THAT such use results in annual gross rental income to the owner 15 of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

16 (II) In the event an annual report is not received by June 1 from 17 an owner of real or personal property for which an exemption was granted 18 for the previous year pursuant to the provisions of sections 39-3-107 to 19 39-3-113.5, ~~or~~ 39-3-116, OR 39-3-127.7, the administrator shall give 20 notice in writing to such property owner by June 15 that failure to comply 21 by July 1 shall operate as a forfeiture of any right to claim exemption of 22 previously exempt property from general taxation for the current year.
23 Failure to timely file such annual report on or before July 1 ~~shall operate~~
24 OPERATES as a forfeiture of any right to claim exemption of such property

26 application is timely filed and an exemption granted pursuant to the 27 provisions of ~~paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section~~ SUBSECTION

1 (1)(a) OF THIS SECTION. The administrator shall review each report filed 2 to determine if such property continues to qualify for exemption, and, if 3 it is determined that the property does not so qualify, the owner of such 4 property shall MUST be notified in writing of the disqualification, and the 5 assessor, treasurer, and board of county commissioners of the county in 6 which the property is located shall MUST also be so notified.

7 (b) (I) Any user of property which has been exempted pursuant to 8 the provisions of sections 39-3-107 to 39-3-113.5 AND 39-3-127.7 may 9 be required to provide such information as the property tax administrator 10 determines to be necessary in order to ascertain whether the users and 11 usages of the property are in compliance with the provisions of said 12 sections.

13 (II) (A) Except as otherwise provided in ~~sub-subparagraph (B) of~~ 14 ~~this subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (3)(b)(II)(B) OF THIS SECTION, any

27 39-3-127.7. Such annual report shall MUST also include a declaration of

1 the religious mission and purposes of the owner of such property claimed 2 as being exempt and the uses of such property that are in the furtherance
3 of such mission and purposes. Such declaration shall be IS presumptive

5 property. If the administrator is unable to determine whether the property 6 continues to qualify for exemption based solely on the information 7 specified in this ~~subparagraph~~ (H) SUBSECTION (3)(b)(II), the 8 administrator may require additional information, but only to the extent
9 that the additional information is necessary to determine the exemption
10 status of the property. The administrator may challenge any declaration 11 included in such annual report only upon the grounds that the religious 12 mission and purposes are not religious beliefs sincerely held by the owner 13 of such property, that such property is not actually used for the purposes
14 set forth in the annual report, or that the property being claimed as exempt 15 is used for private gain or corporate profit.
