electronically by e-mail, or at the court's discretion, through an e-filing system; and authorizes either party, if the party is pro se, to file a motion or other documents electronically by e-mail, or at the court's discretion, through an e-filing system;

- Prohibits the court from assessing an e-filing fee or service fee on a motion to waive filing fees, or from assessing an e-filing fee, service fee, or any other fee associated with the electronic filing or e-mailing of motions, answers, or documents for an indigent party; and
- Requires the court to comply with federal and state law or regulations, including supreme court directive or policy, regarding the provision of accommodation for people with a disability or for people with limited English proficiency.

If a party is appearing remotely and the party is disconnected, the bill requires the court to make all reasonable efforts to contact the party and allow reasonable time for the party to reestablish connection. If the party is unable to reestablish connection, the bill requires the court to reschedule the hearing for the first available in-person date after the date of the originally scheduled hearing, but no later than one week after the originally scheduled hearing, to the extent practicable. The bill prohibits the court from entering a default judgment if a party is unable to participate remotely due to a technological disconnection or failure.

The bill requires the complaint to include a designation of whether the plaintiff elects to participate in any hearing in person or remotely, and a box indicating if the eviction is for a residential or commercial tenancy.

The bill requires the summons to include a statement in bold-faced type notifying the defendant that either party has a right to appear in person or remotely, include a place for the defendant to indicate whether the defendant will appear in person or remotely, and provide information for how a pro se party can electronically submit documents related to the case.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds and declares that:

4 (a) Many renters face significant barriers to appearing in court for 5 an eviction in person, including work, child care, transportation, and 6 living with a disability. Attending court proceedings in person can require 7 renters facing eviction to miss work, find and fund child care, and incur

1 transportation costs.

2 (b) Renters living in rural parts of Colorado may be particularly 3 challenged in appearing in person for an eviction, as county courthouses 4 may often be located dozens of miles away;

5 (c) When renters do not appear for an eviction court proceeding,
6 a default judgment is automatically entered against them, and the renter 7 is evicted without a hearing;

8 (d) Data shows that parties are more likely to participate in an 9 eviction proceeding if there are options for remote participation. One 10 study in Arizona found that when a county adopted processes for remote 11 participation in eviction hearings, the percentage of renters who did not 12 appear in court decreased from 40% to 13%.

13 (e) Ensuring that parties to an eviction proceeding can participate 14 in the legal process is in the best interest of all parties and a responsible 15 use of government resources. A survey of litigants, attorneys, and other 16 court participants on remote participation in court proceedings found that 17 92% of defendants cited reduced travel time, 76% cited taking less time
18 off work, 72% reported reduced costs, and 55% reported increased safety 19 as benefits of remote participation.

20 (f) Some Colorado courts have already adopted processes for 21 remote participation in eviction hearings, which remove barriers to the 22 parties' ability to appear in court. However, many courts throughout the 23 state have yet to adopt such processes. This creates an inequitable and 24 arbitrary procedural patchwork where access to the legal process depends 25 on geography.

26 (g) Allowing parties to an eviction proceeding to choose how to 27 appear at a hearing bolsters due process by increasing participation and

1 reducing barriers in access to courts.

2 (2) The general assembly encourages the Colorado supreme court
3 to review the necessary forms associated with filing an eviction case for 4 efficacy and clarity, and determine whether the forms would be suitable 5 for plain language updates.

6 (3) Therefore, the general assembly intends:

7 (a) To create uniform access to court processes by establishing 8 statewide standards for remote appearances in residential eviction
9 proceedings;

10 (b) To expand participation in residential eviction proceedings in 11 order to decrease the number of evictions by default judgment caused by 12 a party's inability to appear in court; and

13 (c) For any interpretation regarding the implementation of this act
14 to be weighted toward expanding access to the judicial process and easing 15 barriers to participation in residential evictions.

16 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 13-40-113.5 as
