1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 holds in high regard the role of the Peace Officer Standards and Training
4 Board in ensuring that law enforcement serves Coloradans in a manner
5 that promotes the safety of every Coloradan through the establishment of 6 clear standards for peace officers.

7 (2) The general assembly relies on the P.O.S.T. board to review
8 applications for peace officer status and to make recommendations for 9 statutory recognition of peace officer status for individuals and groups in 10 Colorado. The P.O.S.T. board's expertise in this process is invaluable.
11 The general assembly takes this extraordinary step of expanding the peace 12 officer status for the administrator of judicial security in advance of the 13 sunrise process established in statute due to the extraordinary
14 circumstances facing the judiciary today.

15 (3) The general assembly finds that alarming events have occurred 16 in recent months that have threatened the security of courthouses in 17 Colorado and placed at risk the safety of litigants, lawyers, staff, judges,
18 and the public as a whole. These events have hindered access to justice
19 for Coloradans.

20 (4) The general assembly finds that the Colorado judicial 21 department has demonstrated an immediate need for more peace officers
22 who are qualified to help coordinate with federal, state, and local law
23 enforcement agencies to ensure the safety of the public, staff, and judges
24 at courthouses throughout Colorado. The general assembly encourages 25 the P.O.S.T. board to review as quickly as possible an application from 26 the judicial department and to work cooperatively with the judicial 27 department on its efforts to expand the number of personnel who serve as

1 peace officers under the position of administrator of judicial security.
2 (5) The general assembly finds that in 2017 the P.O.S.T. board
3 approved the position of administrator of judicial security, and in 2018
4 the general assembly codified the position in statute. The general
5 assembly finds that the office of the state court administrator needs
6 multiple peace officers to address the growing and immediate security 7 threats facing the state in order to ensure that courthouses throughout 8 Colorado are safe places for Coloradans to find resolution to their legal 9 disputes. The general assembly further finds that ensuring the safety and 10 security of courthouses provides a clear and obvious public benefit, 11 ensuring access to justice for all Coloradans.

10 PERSONNEL UNDER THE TITLE OF JUDICIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATOR, THE
