The bill requires an adequacy review of senior services funding. The bill increases state workload on an ongoing basis.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation is required.

Fiscal Note Status: This final fiscal note reflects the enacted bill.

Summary of Legislation

By August 2024, and every three years after, the Department of Human Services (CDHS), the Office of State Planning and Budgeting (OSPB), and Area Agencies on Aging must review the adequacy of the appropriation for state funding for senior services and report the findings to the General Assembly by November.

State Expenditures

The bill will increase workload to the CDHS and the OSPB to complete the required adequacy reviewed. This work can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

Effective Date

This bill was signed into law by the Governor and took effect on May 24, 2024.
