HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 25-1011

101 CONCERNING HONORING GOLD STAR FAMILIES.

1 WHEREAS, Since the Revolutionary War, more than one million
2 American soldiers have died in battle and military conflicts; their 3 families, who have endured these losses and the accompanying grief, are 4 known as Gold Star Families; and

5 WHEREAS, Gold Star Families were named for the practice of 6 families hanging service banners in the windows of their homes, with a 7 star for each family member serving in the Armed Forces: Deep blue stars
8 were displayed for each living member serving, and they were replaced 9 with gold stars if the loved one was killed in action serving our country 10 and protecting our freedom; and

11 WHEREAS, While George Vaughn Seibold was fighting abroad
12 during World War I, his mother, Grace Darling Seibold, channeled her

1 worry into visiting hospitalized veterans. When the letters from her son 2 stopped arriving and she learned of his death, she took action in her grief
3 and, with a group of mothers, established American Gold Star Mothers, 4 Inc., in 1928; and

5 WHEREAS, Since 1936, Gold Star Mother's and Family's Day has 6 been honored, through presidential proclamation, on the last Sunday of 7 each September; and

8 WHEREAS, The acts of heroism and the stories of courage of 9 fallen soldiers are forever remembered in the minds and hearts of their 10 families; and

11 WHEREAS, While national monuments and memorials serve as 12 strong visible reminders for the service members who made the ultimate 13 sacrifice in service to our nation, Gold Star Families are a living legacy 14 of each fallen soldier and can help us all remember and honor these 15 heroes by name; and

16 WHEREAS, Long after the battles have ended, as our stars and 17 stripes of liberty fly, the families who have at home a folded flag and at 18 the table an empty seat deserve our respect and our support; now, 19 therefore,

20 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-fifth
21 General Assembly of the State of Colorado, the Senate concurring herein:

22 That we, the members of the Colorado General Assembly, honor 23 the pride and the pain of the parents, partners, children, and siblings of 24 our fallen heroes and recognize the families of these proud patriots with 25 an expression of profound gratitude and respect.

26 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Resolution be sent 27 to the commanders of the American Legion Posts in Colorado; the 28 commanders of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts in Colorado; the 29 commanders of Colorado's active military bases; the Pikes Peak Chapter
30 of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc.; the Denver Chapter of Gold Star
31 Wives of America, Inc.; and the Colorado chapters of the Blue Star
32 Mothers of America, Inc.
