1 WHEREAS, The drafters of the United States constitution
2 envisioned the guarantee of a republican form of government entailing a 3 representative democracy in which legislative bodies determine policy by 4 enacting laws through deliberation and compromise; and

5 WHEREAS, Section 20 of article X of the state constitution
6 removed fundamental legislative authority and power in matters of 7 revenue and expenditure from the institutions of representative
8 democracy, namely, the General Assembly and the policy-making bodies 9 at all levels of local government, and instead subjected that authority and 10 power to direct democracy, namely, plebiscite; and

11 WHEREAS, Section 20 of article X of the state constitution has 12 removed necessary and essential powers of its representative institutions 13 and so deprived the state of a republican form of government; and

14 WHEREAS, It is necessary for the General Assembly to determine 15 the scope of and protect both its role as a representative institution and the 16 proper extent of its legislative authority and power in matters of revenue 17 and expenditure; now, therefore,

18 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-fifth 19 General Assembly of the State of Colorado, the Senate concurring herein:

20 (1) That, in the judgment of the General Assembly, it is a matter 21 of extreme importance and critical to protecting the core functions and 22 interests of the General Assembly to determine whether section 20 of 23 article X of the state constitution violates the "Enabling Act of Colorado" 24 and the guarantee of a republican form of government set forth in the 25 Guarantee Clause of section 4 of article IV of the United States
26 constitution by nullifying the authority of the General Assembly to assess 27 taxes and infringing upon the plenary authority of the General Assembly 28 to appropriate money for public purposes; and

29 (2) That the General Assembly authorizes and directs the 30 Committee on Legal Services to engage appropriate legal counsel to file 31 a lawsuit in the name of the General Assembly in state district court to 32 determine the constitutionality of the Taxpayer's Bill of Rights, section 20
33 of article X of the state constitution.
