SENATE
Final Reading
March 17, 2025

1 companies, including Boom Supersonic, BAE Systems, Blue Origin,
2 Boeing, L3Harris, Lockheed Martin Space, Maxar Technologies,
3 Northrop Grumman, Raytheon, Sierra Space, and United Launch
4 Alliance, and close to 500 additional companies that support the 5 aerospace sector by providing services and developing products,
6 including spacecraft, launch vehicles, satellites, command and control 7 software, sensors, and navigation operations; and

8 WHEREAS, Colorado is a strategic location for national space and 9 cyber activity, with five key military commands: North American 10 Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD), the United States Northern 11 Command, the Joint Functional Component Command for Integrated 12 Missile Defense, the United States Army Space and Missile Defense
13 Command/Army Forces Strategic Command, and the permanent home of 14 United States Space Command and three space-related United States
15 Space Force bases: Buckley, Peterson, and Schriever; and

16 WHEREAS, The United States Air Force Academy, along with 17 Colorado's colleges and universities, including the University of Colorado
18 Boulder, University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, Colorado School
19 of Mines, Colorado State University, Metropolitan State University of 20 Denver, University of Denver, Colorado Mesa University, and Fort Lewis 21 College, provides access to world-class aerospace-related degrees and 22 offers aerospace companies one of the country's most educated 23 workforces; and

24 WHEREAS, Various organizations are key to Colorado's
25 prominence in aerospace, such as the American Institute of Aeronautics 26 and Astronautics, the world's largest aerospace technical society; the 27 Colorado Space Coalition, a group of industry stakeholders working to 28 grow and promote Colorado as a center of excellence for aerospace; the 29 Colorado chapter of Citizens for Space Exploration, housed within the 30 Colorado Business Roundtable, whose mission is to promote better
31 understanding of aerospace and its importance in our economy and daily 32 lives, as well as promoting the importance of human space exploration;
33 and the Colorado Space Business Roundtable, an organization that works 34 to convene stakeholders from industry, government, and academia to 35 advance aerospace business and workforce opportunities throughout the 36 state; and

37 WHEREAS, The Colorado Air and Space Port seeks to serve as 38 America's hub for commercial space transportation, research, and

1 development. This horizontal launch facility will have the potential to 2 become the foundation for a global suborbital transportation network
3 connecting Colorado globally; now, therefore,

4 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-fifth General Assembly
5 of the State of Colorado, the House of Representatives concurring herein:

6 That we, the members of the Colorado General Assembly:

7 (1) Strongly urge and request the government of the United States
8 of America to take action to preserve and enhance American leadership 9 in space, spur innovation, and ensure our continued national and 10 economic security by increasing funding for space exploration and 11 activities;

12 (2) Recognize that Colorado's aerospace industry plays a pivotal 13 role in NASA's Artemis program, with numerous companies contributing 14 critical technologies and expertise to enable human exploration of the 15 moon and beyond. Lockheed Martin Space, headquartered in Littleton, is 16 a prime contractor for the Orion spacecraft, the crew vehicle designed to 17 transport astronauts to lunar orbit. United Launch Alliance, based in 18 Centennial, provides the second stage, which propels the Orion spacecraft 19 to the moon after launch. BAE Systems, located in Boulder, contributes 20 advanced spacecraft instruments and sensors for Artemis-related 21 missions. Similarly, Raytheon Technologies' Colorado operations supply 22 precision navigation and control systems, ensuring the accurate trajectory
23 and landing of lunar missions.

24 (3) Congratulate the Colorado Department of Labor and 25 Employment, in partnership with the aerospace industry and key space 26 organizations, such as the Colorado Space Business Roundtable, in its 27 newly established teacher externship program aimed at bridging the gap
28 between K-12 education and industry needs. This initiative provides 29 educators with hands-on experience that enables them to bring real-world 30 applications back to their classrooms and enhance their understanding of 31 the skills and knowledge required in today's workforce, particularly in 32 STEM fields, and to inform curriculum development that aligns with 33 current industry standards.

34 (4) Hereby declare March 17, 2025, to be "Colorado Aerospace 35 Day".

1            Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Resolution be sent 2 to President Donald Trump; Vice President JD Vance; Speaker of the 3 House of Representatives Mike Johnson; House Minority Leader Hakeem
4 Jeffries; Senate Majority Leader John Thune; Senate Minority Leader
5 Charles E. Schumer; Senator John Hickenlooper; Senator Michael 6 Bennet; Congresswoman Diana DeGette; Congressman Joe Neguse;
