2023-1 Colorado's Child Welfare System  Representative Michaelson Jenet	The policy issues to be studied are Colorado's child welfare system, as a whole, rather than taking a siloed approach to trying to improve aspects of Colorado's child welfare system. This interim committee would take a holistic look at Colorado's child welfare system to address the major factors facing the system in order to serve our state's children and families in the best possible way. The interim study committee will receive presentations from the numerous existing task forces, commissions, and boards related to child welfare. An opportunity for input from parents, children, relatives, and foster parents with lived experience in Colorado's child welfare system will be provided.	10	11 members of the General Assembly:  • 4 members of the Senate : 2 appointed by the President; 1 appointed by the Majority Leader; and 1 appointed by the Minority Leader  • 7 members of the House of Representatives : 2 appointed by the Speaker; 2 appointed by the Majority Leader; and 3 appointed by the Minority Leader	5	No	No
