Stan Gelb Against themselves	This proposed reduction in state income tax is STUPID, STUPID, STUPID! The sponsor seems ignorant or oblivious that 1) Colorado now has a 12-month wildfire season, and 2) Colorado is one of the 3 or 4 worst states in the USA for funding public education, and 3) Colorado's front range - where most Coloradans live - has terrible air quality, and 4) Many Colorado communities have sizeable homeless populations. All of the above require sizeable government spending to deal with. So to reduce gov't resources now would be STUPID! Please vote NO on HB23-1063.
