

Which of these recommendations provide the greatest opportunity to transform the lives of people experiencing disparities exacerbated by COVID and in need of behavioral health supports?

Looking at the criteria in front of you, is there anything from this recommendation set that should be clarified or modified?