REGULATORY

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

PATTY SALAZAR

Patty Salazar was appointed by Colorado Governor Jared Polis as Executive Director for the Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA). As DORA's Executive Director, she leads a Department of roughly 695 employees with a $141 million budget and provides support to DORA's 10 distinct divisions, as well as the Colorado Office of Policy, Research and Regulatory Reform (COPRRR), and the communications, legislative and operational services located within the Executive Director's Office.

In 2018, Executive Director Salazar was appointed as the State Bank and Financial Services Commissioner and oversaw two separate financial divisions at DORA — the Division of Banking and the Division of Financial Services. The Division of Banking is responsible for the regulation of state-chartered commercial banks, trust companies, and state licensed money transmitters as well as the enforcement of the Public Deposit Protection Act. The Division of Financial Services, where Patty previously served as the Commissioner in 2015, regulates state-chartered credit unions and savings and loan associations, and certain financial activities of state life care institutions.

In 2016, she served as DORA's Deputy Executive Director, where she directly supervised the agency's collective legislative efforts, performance and strategic planning, and external affairs for the Executive Director's Office as well as provided direction to its regulatory divisions. Additionally, she oversaw COPRRR which is responsible for providing legislative and administrative recommendations for least burdensome regulations while still ensuring consumer protection for regulatory programs across the state.

She came to DORA from the California Department of Business Oversight where she served as a deputy commissioner responsible for policy development, performance planning, statewide outreach and managing the department's consumer services office. Previously she served at a financial services trade association advocating for legislative and regulatory issues regarding financial services and consumer protection. Prior to joining the trade association, she served as a consultant to the organization as well as other clients on community relations and strategies related to local, state and federal legislation.

WHO ARE WE

HISTORY

The Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) was created in 1968, yet several of the Department's divisions have been protecting Colorado citizens since the late 1800s. In 1877, just a year after Colorado became a state, regulation of Colorado banks began. Six years later in 1883, insurance began being regulated through the State Auditor's Office; in 1913, the Colorado Department of Insurance was formed, now called the Division of Insurance. The same year, the Colorado Public Utilities Commission was created. Ten years later, in 1923, regulation of the offer and sale of securities to investors began through the Division of Securities. Soon after, in 1925, the real estate industry began being regulated by what is now known as the Division of Real Estate. In 1930, Colorado began chartering Credit Unions, now regulated by the Division of Financial Services. Colorado became the third state to establish a civil rights agency in 1950, now known as the Colorado Division of Civil Rights. In 1968, the Department of Regulatory Agencies was created and the aforementioned agencies were moved into one umbrella agency. That year also yielded the creation of the Division of Registrations, now called the Division of Professions and Occupations, and several existing boards moved under its purview. One-hundred years after Colorado's statehood, in 1976, Colorado passed the first Sunset Law in the United States, requiring periodic review of various agencies throughout state government, which are now conducted by the Colorado Office of Policy, Research and Regulatory Reform. In 1984, the Office of the Utility Consumer Advocate (formerly the Office of Consumer Counsel) was created, originally housed within the Office of the Attorney General. In 2018, the Division of Conservation was created as DORA's tenth division.

STRATEGY

In connection with the Governor's Office of Operations, each principal Department is charged with identifying major department-wide goals, or "strategic policy initiatives" (SPIs) that drive our organization towards our mission and vision, as well as the high-impact strategies we must employ to achieve our priorities and goals.

This focus on performance allows us to determine what is working and what needs improvement, and we believe that planning, monitoring, and reviewing data about our service delivery and work objectives yields the most effective government service to the people of Colorado.

Through FY25, we will continue to focus on three major SPIs, which incorporate all the strategic work we're doing. The Venn Diagram below illustrates the overlapping target audiences for each of our SPIs.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S WILDLY IMPORTANT GOALS

The State has gone through a comprehensive strategic planning process, relying on the framework of the “Four Disciplines of Execution (4DX)”; this approach emphasizes focusing on select wildly important goals or “WIGs” to effectively manage and achieve strategic priorities in the midst of extensive daily responsibilities. The Executive Director’s WIGs are intended to support the Governor’s “Bold Five” initiatives as well as other high-priority policy areas, while also integrating with the department-specific goals and objectives that are captured in the DORA performance plan.

DEPARTMENT-WIDE GOAL/PRIORITY: BALANCED REGULATION TO ENSURE EFFECTIVE ENFORCEMENT TO PROTECT CONSUMERS WHILE REDUCING UNDUE BURDEN

One of DORA's primary responsibilities is to protect the public from predatory practices, which is done through licensing those who are qualified to provide services in Colorado, taking complaints from individuals regarding standards of practice, investigating service providers that may be acting illegally, performing regular examinations and inspections of the institutions and businesses we regulate, reviewing and analyzing service rates, representing consumers when utilities companies request to increase rates, and educating the public about their rights as consumers.

We are dedicated to ensuring that DORA provides the public with professional, accessible and reliable service. We strive to continually improve our operations, streamline processes and improve interfaces with the public that we serve.

STRATEGIES & MEASURES

Strategy: Deliver Timely Resolution Of Complaints And Investigations

Every division within DORA receives complaints from consumers, guiding our ability to identify and carry out enforcement against individuals or businesses that are out of compliance with Colorado laws and regulations. Providing responses to those consumers who file complaints is not only good customer service; it also ensures that we are able to investigate and provide resolution on the matters, effectively removing those regulated entities from the marketplace. It's critical to note that there are major variations in the complexity of researching complaints across divisions, leading to significant variations in the timelines associated with complaint resolutions.

In order to reduce resolution times for complaints, divisions are updating case management systems, developing new team lead measures to ensure individual accountability, improving training programs for new employees, and employing checklists to ensure consistency.

Measure:

- 90% of real estate complaints resolved within 60 days, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DRE)
- 99% of public utilities complaints and inquiries resolved within 15 days, sustained through June 30, 2025. (PUC)
- 95% of investigations of real estate professional applicants with criminal history completed within 60 business days by June 30, 2023, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DRE)

Strategy: Uphold Effective Pathways For Alternative Dispute Resolution

Alternative dispute resolution is usually less formal, less expensive, and less time-consuming than a trial, and includes mediation and conciliation. DORA looks to utilize alternative dispute resolution where appropriate to decrease the time to resolve a case, reduce legal expenditures and achieve more expedient resolutions.

In order to provide customers with improved alternative dispute resolution, divisions are running Lean projects to improve hand-offs and update processes, as well as explore ways to maximize mediation spaces to make certain that customers get services as quickly as possible.

Measures:

- 90% of real estate cases resolved through the Expedited Settlement Program, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DRE)
- 10% increase in civil rights cases pursued to be resolved through alternative dispute resolution by June 30, 2024, and an additional 5% increase by June 30, 2025. (CCRD)

Strategy: Protection of Consumers through Effective Enforcement

As part of DORA's charge to protect consumers, many divisions are responsible for ensuring that regulated entities are compliant with Colorado Laws. We protect the public from predatory practices, protect at-risk communities and victims, and hold perpetrators of fraud accountable. In the coming year, we aim to carry out effective enforcement by expanding partnerships with law enforcement and engaging in broader outreach.

Measures:

- Increase financial audits from 10 to 15 per month by June 30, 2023, sustain through June 30, 2025. (DRE)
- Decrease percentage of backlog complaint investigations from 28% to 10% by June 30, 2021, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DRE)

- The Division of Professions and Occupations will increase remote inspections by 5% by June 30, 2024, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DPO)
- The Division of Conservation will go from an average tax credit processing time of 120 days to an average processing time of 90 days by June 30, 2025. (DCO)
- 150 gas pipeline inspection days per quarter sustained through June 30, 2025. (PUC)

DEPARTMENT-WIDE GOAL/PRIORITY: ACCESSIBILITY THROUGH EDUCATION AND OUTREACH

In order to achieve our mission of protecting consumers, it's critical that DORA not only make Coloradans aware of those regulations that protect them, but also to collaborate with local communities to share how those regulations affect them. In addition, DORA understands its responsibility to foster open dialogue with small businesses and service providers.

STRATEGIES & MEASURES

Strategy: Division Stakeholder Outreach and Engagement Plans to Ensure Inclusive, Meaningful, and Focused Engagement

"Stakeholder engagement is about much more than simply reaching out for feedback and then taking our engagement no further. Instead, we need to be mindful that the way we approach these conversations needs to be meaningful, empathetic, and focused on finding the best solution possible after truly engaging those who will be impacted. Stakeholder engagement is a process of continual improvement, and we strive to better serve our customers each and every day." -- Executive Director Patty Salazar

At DORA, we understand that the process of crafting meaningful regulation that helps achieve our mission cannot occur without the vital input and participation of our stakeholders. We believe that stakeholder outreach and engagement is a process of continual improvement, and we strive to better serve our customers each and every day.

Our Divisions will continue to develop and implement stakeholder engagement plans to ensure inclusive, meaningful, focused engagement with respective industry and community stakeholder groups.

(DOB & DFS)

DEPARTMENT-WIDE GOAL/PRIORITY: MODERNIZED AND BOLD OPERATIONAL IMPROVEMENTS TO BETTER SERVE STAKEHOLDERS

Though our primary responsibility is to protect the public, we also have a duty to treat the industries we regulate fairly and in a way that doesn't create unnecessary administrative burdens or "red tape." We strive to set clear expectations and act as effective regulators, and recognize that we must collaborate with regulated entities so that regulatory processes don't cause unnecessary delays in their ability to do business.

STRATEGIES & MEASURES

Strategy: Provide Simple And Fast Licensing To Colorado Professionals

As new professionals enter our state economy, getting qualified professionals licensed quickly and easily means Colorado is a better place for them to do business. DORA has taken critical steps in the past few years to accelerate the licensing process, and we seek continual improvement of those processes to support economic development and a balanced regulatory framework.

DORA continues to improve licensing times by redeveloping all DPO occupational license application checklists, overhauling our Customer Care team to triage calls and emails from customers to allow licensing teams to focus on processing applications, replacing our largest licensing system, and making it easier for customers to pay licensing fees electronically.

Measures:

- 95% of real estate license applications processed within 5 business days, sustained through June 30, 2025. (DRE)

Assistance for military spouses who may currently hold a professional license in another state is also available. More information can be found at <https://dpo.colorado.gov/Military>

Measure: $50,000 savings to military personnel and veterans and their spouses applying for licensure by June 30, 2025.

Spouses of veterans seeking Colorado licensure for DPO's professional licenses: The Division strives to support the mobility and transportability of military spouses' professional licenses. EVALUATION

Internal Scoreboard

DORA utilizes an enterprise agency Scorecard that provides an executive summary of DORA's strategic and operational progress. It includes all the performance metrics from this document, and is collectively reviewed by division leadership on a monthly basis.

Over the last several years, DORA has seen progress across our Strategic Policy Initiatives. In our continuous effort to protect consumers through effective enforcement (SPI#1), in fiscal year 2024 the division of Real Estate has resolved over 90% of cases through the Expedited Settlement Program (ESP). In addition the Colorado Civil Rights Division has accomplished great works by pursuing resolution for over 450 cases through the alternate dispute resolution process, and obtaining over $ 3.3 million dollars in relief for complainant through mediation/conciliation felicitation.

DORA has made significant strides in enhancing education and outreach (SPI #2), the department in support of stabilizing and expanding Colorado's healthcare workforce for the future has completed its second year of the three-year Healthcare Workforce Recovery effort, in which the Division of Professions and Occupations had focused resources in its efforts to retain 10% more licensed and ready direct care healthcare workers for Colorado's workforce. In fiscal year 2024 the division conducted an average of 7 monthly licensee/employer outreach initiatives focused on healthcare licensing renewals. Another noteworthy outreach accomplishment came from the Division of Securities in the development and launch of a microsite which focuses on enhancing education and knowledge of consumers who are looking to invest their hard earned finances. Although new investors are younger, more diverse, more tech savvy and more risk tolerant, they are also less knowledgeable about safe investing. The microsite is intended to help investors spot investment red flags, while providing resources like using a smart investing checklist, Investing 101 learning, real life investment scam stories, while at the same time providing a place for investors who have been scammed to file a complaint.

With a focus on providing simple and fast licensing to Colorado professionals (SPI #3), and the department's efforts to streamline occupational licensing for veterans, the Division of Professions and Occupations strives to support the mobility and transportability of military spouses' professional Licenses. This year over 170 individuals gained licensure through the military spouse program, professions included cosmetologists, vet techs, dental hygienists, social workers, medication aides, marriage and family therapists, massage therapist, nurses aides, occupational therapists, pharmacist, licensed practical nurses, physical therapist, registered nurses, nurse practitioners, advanced practice nurses, licensed professional counselors, clinical social workers and many more. Programs like this one have played a key role in the support toward stabilizing and expanding Colorado's workforce.

Governor's Dashboard

Continuing into the second term, Governor Jared Polis and the administration is committed to building upon the successes and progress made over the past five years, as well as addressing emerging challenges. Governor Polis is focused on bringing down the high cost of living in our state and creating a Colorado where everyone has an opportunity to succeed. By working to provide free full-day kindergarten for every Colorado student, reduce the cost of health care, and harness the economic and societal benefits of clean energy, we can ensure our economy works for everyone while preserving Colorado's unique way of life.

The Governor's Dashboard has been established in an effort to provide the public with a transparent view of the state's performance in the executive branch on major goals and initiatives. Metrics that DORA is contributing to the Governor's Dashboard include:

- In support of stabilizing and expanding Colorado's workforce for the future, DORA will implement strategies to reduce average licensing times by 10% by June 30, 2027.
- In an effort to facilitate and improve access to energy assistance programs, the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) will establish a navigational resource for all energy assistance programs in the state of Colorado by June 30, 2026.
