

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

FISCAL YEAR 2024 PERFORMANCE PLAN

NOVEMBER 1, 2023

The legitimacy of government depends on the fair, impartial, and reliable administration of the laws. Courts serve the people of the state by resolving disputes, protecting individual rights and the public interest, and delivering justice in criminal and civil cases. To ensure a just society, courts must tailor the fair, effective, and efficient delivery of justice to fit each individual case.

For citizens to trust the judicial system they must believe that justice is truly for all. The courts are a fundamental government service and should be easily accessible by the public. The Department's recently revised Mission Statement below embodies the important work of courts and probation and their fundamental function in Colorado.

Mission

The Judicial Department works to provide equal access to justice, contribute to public safety, and strengthen the rule of law across Colorado. Together our courts and probation departments are committed to impartial and timely dispute resolution; support for families, litigants, and victims; client rehabilitation; and meaningful community engagement.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: The authority for Colorado's Courts is at Article VI, Colo. Const. and §13-4-101, C.R.S.; and for Probation Services is at §§18-1.3-201 and 18-1.3-202.

Major Functions of the Department

COLORADO SUPREME COURT

The Colorado Supreme Court is the state's court of last resort. Decisions are binding on all other Colorado state courts. The Supreme Court is composed of seven justices who serve ten-year terms, and the Chief Justice is selected from the membership of justices. The Chief Justice also serves as the executive head of the Colorado Judicial System and is the ex-officio chair of the Supreme Court Nominating Commission. The Chief Justice appoints the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and the Chief Judge of each of the state's 22 judicial districts (including Denver Juvenile and Denver Probate, which are separate courts in the 2nd Judicial District, each with their own Chief Judge) and is vested with the authority to assign judges (active or retired) to perform judicial duties.

Requests to review decisions of the Colorado Court of Appeals constitute a majority of the Supreme Court's filings. The Supreme Court also has direct appellate jurisdiction over cases in which a statute has been held to be unconstitutional, cases involving decisions of the Public Utilities Commission, writs of habeas corpus, cases involving adjudication of water rights, summary proceedings initiated under the Election Code, and prosecutorial appeals concerning search and seizure questions in pending criminal proceedings. All of these appeals are filed directly with the Supreme Court, and, in these cases bypass the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court also has exclusive jurisdiction to promulgate rules governing practice and procedure in civil and criminal actions.

Colorado's attorneys are licensed and disciplined by the Supreme Court. The court's attorney regulation system, funded by attorney registration fees, helps the Colorado Supreme Court regulate the practice of law in Colorado through various programs. The office oversees attorney admissions, attorney registration, mandatory continuing legal and judicial education, attorney diversion and discipline, regulation of the unauthorized practice of law, and inventory counsel. In addition, the court oversees the State Court Administrator, Board of Continuing Legal Education, and the Board of Law Examiners.

COLORADO COURT OF APPEALS

The Colorado Court of Appeals is the state's intermediate appellate court and consists of 22 judges who serve eight-year terms. The Court sits in three-member divisions to decide cases. The mission of the Court of Appeals is to provide the citizens of Colorado with clear, impartial, and timely resolutions of appealed orders and judgments as provided by law. The Court of Appeals has initial jurisdiction, with exceptions, over appeals from the Colorado District Courts, Denver Probate Court, and Denver Juvenile Court. In addition, the Court of Appeals has appellate jurisdiction over decisions originating from several state administrative boards and agencies. Review of the Court of Appeals' decisions are directed to the Colorado Supreme Court.

COLORADO TRIAL COURTS

Established pursuant to Article VI of the Colorado Constitution, Colorado's state trial courts consist of county courts, district courts, and water courts. Colorado is divided into 22 judicial districts. District boundaries generally align with county borders; however, except for four districts, most districts are comprised of multiple counties. There are currently 196 district judges serving within Colorado's 22 judicial districts. District judges preside over felony criminal matters, civil claims in any amount, juvenile matters (including adoption, dependency and neglect matters, juvenile delinquency, and paternity actions), probate, mental health, divorce proceedings, and water cases. Additionally, district judges handle appeals from Colorado municipal and county courts, and review decisions of some administrative boards and agencies. Within the 2nd Judicial District, Denver Juvenile and Denver Probate courts operate independently from the District Court. These two courts have limited jurisdiction over juvenile and probate matters respectively.

Colorado's county courts serve the citizens of each county in the state. County judges handle cases involving serious public safety issues such as misdemeanor cases, felony advisements, setting bonds, and preliminary hearings. There are 114 county court judges. County judges also issue restraining orders in cases involving domestic violence arrest, issue search warrants, and preside over traffic cases and civil actions involving no more than $25,000.

The Water Right Determination and Administration Act of 1969 created seven water divisions according to drainage patterns of various rivers in Colorado. Each water division is staffed with a division engineer, appointed by the state engineer; a water judge, appointed by the Supreme Court; a water referee, appointed by the water judge; and a water clerk, assigned by the district court. Water judges are district judges appointed by the Supreme Court and have jurisdiction in the determination of water rights, the use and administration of water, and all other water matters within the jurisdiction of the water divisions.

PROBATION SERVICES

Adult and juvenile probation supervision is provided in all 22 of Colorado's judicial districts. This includes 23 probation departments with over 70 separate probation offices throughout the state. Probation also provides victim services and writes presentence investigation reports for Colorado's Courts. Probation continues to work to identify and utilize assessments, processes, and programs that enhance public safety, are cost effective and lead to positive outcomes for the probationer and the community.

OFFICE OF THE STATE COURT ADMINISTRATOR

Colorado Courts and Probation, with more than 300 judges and 3,600 support staff members, is centrally administered by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. To assist the Chief Justice, the Supreme Court appoints the State Court Administrator (SCA). Each of the State's 22 Judicial Districts (and Denver Juvenile and Denver Probate courts) also has a Court Executive and a Chief Probation Officer, and each of the 64 counties has a Clerk of Court.

The State Court Administrator's Office (SCAO) provides administrative support and services to the trial courts, appellate courts, and probation to assist them in providing the citizens of Colorado meaningful, speedy, and economical forums to resolve disputes. It also supports the management of probation services to enhance public safety and offender rehabilitation.

In executing its constitutional and statutory duties, the office has the following functions: to provide administrative and technical support to the appellate courts, trial courts and probation; to provide centralized policy guidance; to develop and implement standards and guidelines; to serve as an advocate in obtaining necessary resources from the legislature; to provide services in an accurate, timely and equitable manner. Business processes and technologies are consistently under evaluation for improvements throughout the Department to improve efficiency and to make the courts more accessible to the citizens of Colorado.

Principle Strategies & Goals

PRINCIPLE 1: Provide equal access to the legal system and give all an opportunity to be heard.

Barriers to access range from difficulties navigating court and probation facilities to a lack of information on how to obtain accommodations for people with disabilities or those with limited English proficiency to inadequate resources to assist self-represented parties with their procedural questions. Such barriers may compromise effective and meaningful access to the court system.

GOAL 1a. Identify and address barriers to effective participation.

GOAL 1b. Maintain safety in all court and probation facilities.

GOAL 1c. Assist self-represented parties.

PRINCIPLE 2: Treat all with dignity, respect, and concern for their rights and cultural backgrounds, and without bias or appearance of bias.

As Colorado's population continues to diversify, so does the population that participates in the court system. It is important that judges and judicial staff be aware of the values of a wide number of cultures and life experiences, and, when appropriate, make accommodations. Courts and Probation are working to ensure that the courts are free from both bias and the appearance of bias, meeting the needs of increasing numbers of self-represented litigants, remaining receptive to the needs of all constituents, ensuring that court procedures are fair, understandable and accessible, and providing culturally responsive programs and services.

GOAL 2a. Collect feedback from court users, victims of crime, and those on probation regarding their experience with court and probation services.

GOAL 2b. Train all court and probation employees in communication, cultural competency, and customer service skills.

PRINCIPLE 3: Promote quality judicial decision-making and judicial leadership.

Court practices and case management procedures should be as uniform as practicable to avoid confusion and uncertainty. Courts and Probation must provide ongoing professional development, education, and training to address many concerns including the increasing complexity of court practices and procedures in court operations and interactions with the public. Maintaining professional excellence will promote public trust and confidence in the judicial system as a whole.

GOAL 3a. Employ effective case management strategies.

GOAL 3b. Incorporate evidence-based principles in judicial decision-making.

GOAL 3c. Employ accountability methods to ensure court orders are being enforced and monitored.

GOAL 3d. Develop systems that assure court-appointed persons are providing quality services.

GOAL 3e. Train and educate judicial officers on an ongoing basis.

GOAL 3f. Implement professional development and leadership programs for staff.

PRINCIPLE 4: Implement quality assessments and community supervision of adult and juvenile probationers to demonstrably enhance public safety and respect for victim rights.

The Division of Probation Services strives to reduce offender recidivism through the application of the Eight Principles of Effective Intervention. Probation Services promotes accountability and responsiveness in its enforcement of the court's orders while affecting long-term behavior change in offenders.

GOAL 4a. Ensure the accuracy and efficiency of pre- and post-sentence assessments; and provide comprehensive assessment information to assist judicial officers in making more informed decisions, leading to improved and less costly outcomes.

GOAL 4b. Employ evidence-based practices in all applicable areas of probation.

PRINCIPLE 5: Cultivate public trust and confidence through the thoughtful stewardship of public resources.

In serving the people of Colorado, Courts and Probation must also exercise its constitutional and statutory authority and responsibility to plan for, direct, monitor, and support the business of the system and to account to the public for the system's performance. The fulfillment of this role is only possible when the other branches of government and the public have trust and confidence in the system. In order to retain trust and confidence, the system must be accountable to the people it serves by providing a fair and open process, communicating clear and consistent expectations for all who participate in that process, and being good stewards of the resources appropriated to it for the fulfillment of its mission.

GOAL 5a. Utilize the most effective and cost-efficient methods to conduct the business of the courts and probation.

GOAL 5b. Employ new and enhanced technology solutions for managing judicial business.

GOAL 5c. Share information and data with other governmental entities and the public, while balancing privacy and security concerns.

GOAL 5d. Ensure transparency of court and probation services operations.

GOAL 5e. Maintain a strong and well-trained workforce.

Environmental Scan

Mission, Vision, and Values Updates

Between January and July 2023, a team of 50 Judicial Department employees and judges met to create new mission, vision, and values statements for the Department. The group included court and probation personnel from every judicial district and from every level of the organization. The group met 6 times and worked collaboratively to create the final statements. After the first draft from the workgroup was complete, it was shared with leadership in every district and at the State Court Administrator's Office (SCAO) for feedback. Feedback was incorporated into a final set of statements that garnered the support of leadership around the state. The mission, vision, and values statements were approved by the Supreme Court during the summer of 2023. The Judicial Department is now working on plans to bring the statements to life in its day-to-day work. The new statements are as follows:

- Mission: The Judicial Department works to provide equal access to justice, contribute to public safety, and strengthen the rule of law across Colorado. Together our courts and probation departments are committed to impartial and timely dispute resolution; support for families, litigants, and victims; client rehabilitation; and meaningful community engagement.
- Vision: The Colorado Judicial Department strives to be a trusted and transparent leader in the pursuit of justice across the state, serving our communities with integrity, and providing fair and equitable access to the judicial process.

We are committed to empowering our employees through open communication, fostering a community of trust in a supportive and innovative workplace.

- Values:

To act with...

- Integrity- To be trustworthy, diligent, and accountable, holding ourselves to a high standard of excellence in service.
- Fairness- To be impartial and respectful in our actions, procedures, decisions, and treatment of all.
- Transparency- To provide visibility on how decisions are made to stakeholders both inside and outside of the Department through regular and clear communication.

To be...

- Inclusive- An organization that is compassionate and accessible to the public, and that provides our employees with safe and equitable working environments.
- Collaborative- An organization that works with our partners and prioritizes operating with a cooperative mindset to achieve Department goals.
- Innovative- An organization that is designed to be flexible and creative to meet the ever-changing needs of the public and our employees.

Weighted Caseload Studies and Updates to Models

The Judicial Department utilizes weighted caseload models to assess the number of judicial officers and staff required for efficient court operations, minimizing delays, and ensuring high-quality public service. The Department contracts with external vendors to conduct studies that produce these models. A weighted caseload study analyzes and evaluates the amount of time that different types of cases take to process. A weighting system is applied to assign different workload values to cases based on specific criteria or factors. For example, higher weights are assigned to specific categories of cases that require significantly more time (e.g., homicide).

The Department utilizes five weighted caseload models to assess workload impacts and personnel needs: the Court of Appeals model, the district judicial officer model, the county judicial officer model, the court staff model, and the probation model. Two of these—the Court of Appeals and district judicial officer models—were actively studied in FY23 and are moving towards implementation. The court staff model study is currently underway, and the county judge model is preparing to undergo a study in FY24 for implementation in FY25. These efforts are significant undertakings for the Department, which aims to refresh the weighted caseload models at intervals of five to seven years. The weighted caseload studies will provide valuable information on personnel needs and shifting workload impacts from legislation across the state.

Implementation of 23rd Judicial District

Effective January 1, 2025, a 23rd judicial district will be created through the division of the existing 18th judicial district. The 23rd judicial district was created by House Bill 20-1026 and will include Douglas, Elbert, and Lincoln counties, leaving Arapahoe county in the 18th. To aid the transition, the Chief Justice appointed an administrative judge for the 23rd judicial district who serves a role similar to the chief judges for existing judicial districts. The administrative judge has filled the two senior employee positions for 23rd by hiring a chief probation officer and court executive. The 23rd judicial district's leadership team is meeting with leadership in the 18th judicial district, SCAO leadership, and an SCAO project manager on a regular basis to discuss and strategize for the transition. SCAO Information Technology Services has made significant progress setting up systems to be ready for the 23rd judicial district going live. SCAO Court Services, Probation Services, and Financial Services continue to meet with leadership in the 18th and 23rd districts to review staffing and budget splits. Finally, an independent consulting firm has been contracted to assist with change management in both districts and serve as a liaison between SCAO and the districts.

Senior Judge Program

Senior judges are retired state court judges and justices who contract with the Judicial Department to perform temporary judicial duties in the trial courts and the Court of Appeals. At the request of the courts statewide, the Senior Judge Program assigns senior judges to hear cases in which the sitting judges have recused themselves under C.R.S. §13-1-122; or to provide coverage so the court's docket is not interrupted due to the illness, unexpected absence, parental leave, judicial vacancy, judicial training and education, or an overscheduled docket when a judicial officer is double set. The program added thirteen new senior judge contracts between July 1, 2022, and June 30, 2023, representing an increase in 540 senior judge contract days to be utilized in the trial courts and 120 senior judge contract days in the Court of Appeals. The program will continue to add new senior judge contracts in the months to come as additional retirees become available to serve. In the month of June 2023 alone, senior judges provided approximately 1,500 hours of coverage for courts statewide. This means that on any given workday, there were roughly eight senior judges providing coverage to the courts across the state.

During FY23, senior judges presided over 150 court trials and jury trials in judicial districts statewide. In addition, senior judges support trial courts by covering dockets to allow sitting judges to handle trials. During FY23, senior judges supported over 64,000 cases in trial courts statewide.

Court User Survey

From FY07 through FY19, SCAO—in partnership with judicial districts—distributed a paper “Access and Fairness Survey” to parties, attorneys, witnesses, jurors, law enforcement, observers, and others to ask about their experience of procedural fairness and access in the trial courts. The survey process previously involved court employees handing out paper surveys to court users inside courthouses for a set period of time. The survey was temporarily suspended during FY20 and FY21 due to the COVID-19 public health emergency. In FY22, the survey was redesigned based on extensive research on survey methods, interviews with staff who distributed the survey, and analysis of available tools. In FY23, the Department piloted the redesigned survey in five judicial districts: the 1st, 4th, 8th, 9th, and 12th. The survey was expanded statewide on October 1, 2023.

Now called the “Court User Survey,” the revamped version surveys court users on procedural fairness, service quality, and asks for input on actionable improvements. The research-based questions were tested and approved by a cross-sectional group of judicial personnel.

The Court User Survey is distributed electronically through automatic emails to parties after hearings, QR codes on business cards and signs in courthouses, weblinks on local courts’ webpages, and judicial personnel directing people to the survey. Distribution using requestable paper surveys was piloted, deemed unsuccessful, and abandoned. Additional distribution methods are being tested for potential implementation after statewide rollout. The results of the survey during the FY23 pilot are represented in the management strategies and measurements section of this report. Over 70% of survey participants had a positive view of the interactions they had with the trial courts.

Implementation of Mediation in Eviction Cases

On June 6, 2023, Governor Polis signed House Bill 23-1120 (HB23-1120) into law. HB23-1120 requires a landlord and residential tenant to participate in mediation prior to the landlord commencing an eviction action in Colorado courts if the tenant receives supplemental security income, federal social security disability insurance, or cash assistance through the Colorado works program (collectively, “cash assistance”). The bill requires mediation to be scheduled within 14 days of a request by a landlord.

The SCAO Office of Dispute Resolution (ODR) immediately began implementing the Act by updating Judicial Department forms and scheduling mediation with trained ODR contract mediators. ODR is currently implementing an improved application for ensuring eligibility and scheduling mediations within the 14-day timeframe. During the month of June 2023 (the end of FY23), ODR contract mediators conducted mediations in 30 cases. From June to September 2023, ODR contract mediators conducted mediations in a total of 175 cases with varying degrees of effectiveness.

One unforeseen challenge for ODR staff has been the need to provide disability accommodation for a significant proportion of parties before a case is filed. Generally, the courts only provide accommodation support after a case is filed. ODR is working on how to continue to address these challenges.

Sealing of Criminal Records

SCAO has already implemented much of Senate Bill 22-099 (SB22-099), Sealing Criminal Records and is working on implementing the remaining components. Currently, SCAO Court Services and Information Technology Services staff are working on implementing the automatic process for the sealing of some criminal convictions outlined in CRS 13-3-117. Requirements, exclusionary criteria, sufficient points of reference for identification and validation, and procedural components have been established for the entire sealing process. Although non-drug felonies do not need to be included until July 1, 2025, these cases have been incorporated in the process design ahead of schedule. The logistics of the process for district attorneys to object to the record being sealed is also complete. Currently, programming work is being done by SCAO Information Technology Services to generate the list of eligible cases, and to create the automated process that will seal the cases, transmit data to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation, and generate and serve the order to seal. Steps have been taken to establish clear protocols for data sharing with external stakeholders to ensure transparency, consistency, and efficient communication. This includes creation of forms for the Judicial Department and the public to use, coding for automation and tracking purposes, and communication with Colorado District Attorney Council (CDAC) to ensure the process is also available to district attorneys. SCAO is also working to ensure proper data is collected to fulfill annual reporting requirements on implementation progress, and to convey information between Denver County Court and Denver District Court. One aspect of the reporting requirement is to list how many cases result in objections to sealing, and the reasons for those objections. Based on conversations with CDAC, data regarding objection reasons cannot be provided to SCAO in a way that is reportable. Therefore, at this time, SCAO does not anticipate being able to report on objection reasons, but it will report this information if it is provided in a reportable format. SCAO will report data on the number of objections.

The creation of the website where a defendant can confidentially check if their case has been sealed under 13-3-117 must be complete by July 1, 2024, and some work has been done on this. Sufficient points of identification have been established to ensure proper use of the website. Website elements including the structure, verbiage, and FAQs that cover issues such as what to do if a record is not returned in a search have been created. The website will use plain language and a glossary for terms that may not be commonly understood. The website will also refer defendants who have Denver County Court cases to Denver County Court directly.

Expansion of Virtual Proceedings and Livestreaming

The Judicial Department continued to solidify its use of virtual proceedings in FY23 by significantly expanding infrastructure and creating parameters around the best uses of virtual proceedings outlined in Chief Justice Directive 23-03.

By September 1, 2023, the Judicial Department brought 355 livestreaming channels of criminal proceedings online to implement the requirements of House Bill 23-1182 (HB23-1182), which requires criminal proceedings to be remotely observable if there are sufficient resources and the proceedings are not privileged or protected. As the Department's web conferencing platform did provide sufficient resources to hold virtual proceedings and to allow remote observation, the Department implemented a livestreaming platform that allows non-participatory observation of proceedings. To facilitate the effective implementation of HB23-1182, the Chief Justice issued Chief Justice Directive 23-02 to provide a framework for livestreaming criminal proceedings, protecting the integrity of proceedings, and providing appropriate levels of privacy for participants in the criminal justice process. Livestreams are open to the public for virtual viewing of criminal proceedings without participation in the proceedings to facilitate public access without interruption or decay of virtual proceedings. Since September 1st, as many as 84 channels have run concurrently, with as many as 142 viewers at one time and 31 viewers watching a single channel. The Judicial Department expects livestreaming to be a valuable tool to enable public access to proceedings while ensuring high-quality processing of cases. However, the Department has begun to experience periodic issues with its network bandwidth. The Department will continue to evaluate the source of the bandwidth issues, but at this point it is believed that the rapid expansion of livestreaming is contributing to bandwidth interruptions that impact court proceedings.

Implementation of Accessible Website

The Judicial Department has been running a multi-phase project to meet the requirements of House Bill 21-1110 (HB21-1110), Colorado Laws for Persons with Disabilities. Currently, under the Colorado Anti-discrimination Act (CADA), it is unlawful for any person to discriminate against an individual with a disability. HB21-1110 adds new language that specifically applies this standard to government information technology and expands the state's information technology accessibility standards to include all individuals with disabilities, as defined by the ADA, instead of just people with vision problems. All technology, hardware, and software, that is both public-facing and internal-facing including any technology provided by or procured by a government entity that is used by the public or used by a government entity employee is subject to these new requirements. This includes websites, applications, kiosks, digital signage, documents, video, audio, and third-party tools. The Office of Information Technology (OIT) has statutory authority in C.R.S. 24-85-101 to establish statewide accessibility standards that all state agencies, including Judicial, must comply with by July 1, 2024.

The Judicial Department provides services to constituents through online services, applications, and third-party tools. The Judicial Department was not adequately prepared, skilled, or budgeted for the digital transformation necessary to comply with HB21-1110 and has been working to update all technology used by the 22 judicial districts, SCAO, and the appellate courts. The scope of changes will impact every employee and member of the public who interacts with the courts or probation. In FY23, a supplemental budget request was approved for contractual help with expertise in the field of accessibility to inventory digital assets, assess remediation needs, and determine training needs for Judicial staff.

The contractor has found over 8,000 digital assets that must be made accessible, with more being created daily. The inventory has content of all formats that will require their own remediation needs and methods with specialized training and tools. Ownership of the inventory is scattered across the Department, which will require a significant and strong focus on change management, governance, and training to meet the requirements of HB21-1110.

To address this multi-faceted, complex, and large project, help is once again being contracted from industry leaders in accessibility to implement the change management, governance, remediation, and training. This will occur at great expense and under expedited timetables to make a conscious effort to comply with requirements by July 1, 2024, although Judicial will continue to adapt, learn, and implement improvements in years to come to ensure the courts and probation are accessible to all.

48-Hour Bond Hearing Implementation

In 2021, House Bill 21-1280 (HB21-1280) was passed and required courts to hold bond hearings for arrestees within 48 hours. House Bill 23-1151 (HB23-1151), Clarifications to 48-hour Bond Hearing Requirement, was signed into law April 20, 2023, clarifying when the 48-hour requirement applies. Under the bill, the requirement applies if the arrestee is held in another jurisdiction but does not apply if the arrestee refuses to attend the hearing or experiences a health emergency. To faithfully implement HB23-1151, the Judicial Department worked with courts and stakeholders to ensure there was shared understanding of the changes and made necessary updates to references. Furthermore, effective October 1, 2023, individuals arrested outside the jurisdiction that issued the warrant have been brought before the court that issued the warrant or heard by the virtual bond hearing office that is responsible for that location to ensure district attorneys of the issuing location are provided an opportunity to argue bond for their jurisdiction.

Since the passage of HB21-1280, bond hearings that fall on weekends have been consolidated for many jurisdictions across the state into virtual bond hearing offices (BHOs). Two BHOs were implemented initially, and one more BHO has been added through on a supplemental budget request so additional courts could begin using the BHOs. To assist the faithful implementation, the SCAO Court Services Division hired two analysts whose primary responsibility is to support the courts in their efforts to ensure that qualifying individuals are heard within the required timeframe. The analysts supported the creation of the third BHO, and provide:

- Continued support and problem solving for existing BHOs and non-BHO districts.
- Updates to the bond hearing instructions used by court staff, bond hearing Officers, non-BHO districts and jail staff.
- A centralized list of Colorado sheriffs and jails in each county for outreach.
- Townhall meetings to provide resource information and guidance to all sheriffs and jail staff.
- Communication of schedules, needs and support to district attorneys, public defenders, and alternate defense counsel attorneys.
- Continued outreach and education on the expansion of warrants being heard in the original jurisdiction.

Between January 1, 2023, and August 30, 2023, 8,194 bond hearings occurred on weekends or holidays. Of these cases, 2,497 bond hearings (30%) were heard in the BHOs—roughly split evenly between the two BHO locations. The remaining cases were heard in courts not part of a BHO.

DEI in Problem-Solving Courts

Problem-solving courts (PSC) are courts that provide qualifying defendants with intensive treatment and ongoing supervision in combination with a reduced sentence. In Colorado, they are informed by the Statewide Problem-Solving Court Advisory Committee created by Chief Justice Mary Mullarkey in 2008. In the fall of 2022, the Problem-Solving Court Advisory Committee asked the Technical Assistance and Program Support subcommittee to write a set of standards for diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in problem solving courts. The standards are currently being reviewed by national partners at All RISE (formerly known as the National Association of Drug Court Professionals), PSC judicial officers, and PSC coordinators. The DEI Standards were developed with reference to the National Drug Court Standards as well as the Journal for Advancing Justice and other research on problem-solving court DEI practices. The DEI Standards will be implemented in every judicial district with a PSC and will become a part of the PSC accreditation process, which is a rigorous evaluation that ensures that problem solving courts are meeting high standards of quality. All problem-solving courts in the state will be required to implement and adhere to the standards to be accredited. The standards will be reviewed and updated on a regular basis to ensure that they meet the needs of the communities they serve.

The DEI Standards will help ensure problem-solving courts are inclusive and welcoming to all participants, regardless of their background or circumstances. The implementation of the DEI Standards will be a significant step toward creating a more just and equitable system of justice. They manifest a recognition that diversity, equity, and inclusion are essential components of the success of problem-solving courts. The implementation of the DEI Standards will be a continuous process.

In addition to the implementation of the DEI Standards, the problem-solving courts will be moving to a new data management system that will make it easier to track DEI practices and outcomes. The new data management system will have features that allow users to:

- Collect data on the demographics of participants in problem-solving courts.
- Collect data around equitable referral, entry, and assessment processes.
- Track the progress of participants in terms of (programmatic) DEI goals.
- Identify areas where there are disparities in DEI outcomes.
- Develop and implement strategies to improve DEI outcomes.

The new data management system will be a valuable tool to help problem-solving courts create a more just and equitable system. It will help to ensure DEI is a central focus of the work of problem-solving courts, and progress is made towards achieving DEI goals.

Education in the Courts & Probation

Education for trial court staff continues to be a priority for the Judicial Department. SCAO Court Services has a team of eight court education specialists who support the majority of training for approximately 1,855 trial court staff in all 64 counties and 22 judicial districts across the state. Court education specialists are a key resource for staff who rely on them to provide training on critical aspects of trial court staff work, such as data entry of warrants, court orders, sentences, and other sensitive data. Trial court education continues to utilize a hybrid training plan that includes instructor-led virtual training, on-demand modules, and in-person training. In FY23, court education specialists offered 502 formal classes. Additionally, they provided 476 individualized trainings for employees and judges. Individualized trainings are generally provided for those who are new to the Judicial Department or new to their position. Court education specialists also provided 56, six-hour new employee orientations going over the basics of case management systems and applications, and they facilitated two in-person conferences. The Clerk of Court/Unit Supervisor Retreat provides legislation updates and leadership development for supervisors in the trial courts, and the Colorado Court Employee Conference provides task-focused training and leadership training for trial court employees and probation support staff.

Although the court education specialists have leveraged all available resources and modalities to maximize existing resources, some training needs continue to suffer due to insufficient resources. With the large influx of new employees, the demand for training to support complex and fast-paced aspects of the trial courts has significantly increased. This demand for more training resources was recognized during the FY23 legislative session with the appropriation of 3 additional court education specialists and 5 new peer training specialists for FY24. Peer training specialists will be employed by local judicial districts but will work in tandem with the court education specialist team. The peer training specialists will provide a new resource through hands-on localized training. The peer training specialist program is anticipated to be expanded in future years.

Training is also a focus for probation staff. The Professional Development Unit in the SCAO Division of Probation Services (DPS) provides required training statewide, and skill training for probation staff for several research-informed programs and practices. A specific focus includes the development of coaching skills for supervisors through practice opportunities (e.g., at the Probation Academy, Strategies for Behavior Change, and Orientation to Supervision). This focus helps supervisors support probation staff as they implement research-informed best practices. More educational experiences for leadership development are also being explored.

Probation officers are also trained in assessment and case planning. A total of 38 local trainers complement training from SCAO by co-facilitating; and providing booster, high-fidelity assessment, and case plan training. SCAO Probation Services, in collaboration with local trainers and trainers from partner agencies, continue to improve assessment and case planning training by integrating more technology and distance learning components. The ability to use web conferencing technology has allowed staff from all areas of the state to learn and practice without leaving their local office. Additionally, the infrastructure of assessment and case planning learning has been collaboratively reimagined using web conferencing.

The DPS Professional Development Unit has made significant efforts to adapt to demands for new staff training due to an increase in staff turnover and hiring. In FY23, 231 probation officers were trained in defensive tactics, tactical awareness, and the constitutional limitations of force. Additionally, 152 new staff were trained in research-informed best practices for effective supervision of probation clients through the Probation Academy.

Legislative Updates in Probation

House Bill 22-1257

After the passage of House Bill 22-1257 (HB22-1257) in April 2022, the State Court Administrator (SCA) was required to develop a system of structured and individualized behavioral responses for probation by July 1, 2023. The system was required to include an accountability-based series of behavioral responses, intermediate sanctions, incentives, and services designed to respond to a probationer's violations quickly, fairly, consistently, and proportionally, as well as to motivate positive behavior change, successful completion of probation, and completion of individual behavioral or treatment goals. To meet these requirements, SCAO Probation Services developed a behavioral response system called Strategies for Behavior Change (SBC). SBC is a system used by probation officers to reinforce pro-social behaviors and minimize technical and law violations. Probation departments are required to use the system or use an equivalent locally developed system aligned to best practices. Three probation departments (in Denver Adult and the 1st and 20th judicial districts) are utilizing locally developed and equivalent systems.

House Bill 22-1326

In 2022, the Legislature passed the Fentanyl Accountability and Prevention Act, House Bill 22-1326 (HB22-1326). One requirement of the bill was anyone convicted on or after January 1, 2023, of offenses under part 4 of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act of 2013 (C.R.S. §18-18-401 - 18-18-433) involving fentanyl, carfentanil, benzimidazole opiate or any analog of these substances is required to complete a fentanyl education program. The Colorado Behavioral Health Administration developed and released an online education program to fulfill the requirements of the legislation. Probation staff have been notified of the requirement and been provided with informational material about the program. A flyer containing a QR code, as well as the website link for individuals to access the program, was created for probation departments to share with clients and display in probation office lobbies.

Senate Bill 23-164

Senate Bill 23-164 (SB23-164) mandated probation staff follow the guidelines and standards developed by the Sex Offender Management Board (SOMB) and required probation to work with the SOMB to hold accountable probation officers who do not comply with the guidelines and standards. Staff from SCAO met with staff from the Division of Criminal Justice (DCJ), on behalf of the SOMB, to discuss implementation of this law. As a result, probation developed and implemented a new grievance process that allows the public to report a probation officer's alleged non-compliance with the SOMB guidelines and standards. The SCAO and DCJ will be entering into a Memorandum of Understanding that will result in collaborative discussions about resolution of the grievances demarcated by the bill.

New Case Filings Overview

While the number of total filings increased slightly from FY22 to FY23, it continued a trend of filings significantly below levels prior to the COVID-19 public health crisis. The number of traffic filings decreased 11,401 (13%), but traffic infraction filings increased 12,598 (22%). This may be due to the influence of Senate Bill 21-271 (SB21-172), Misdemeanor Reform, which lowered the offense level for some traffic misdemeanors, making them traffic infractions. County civil filings increased 8%, but the number of district civil cases (minus distraint and Rule 120 cases) remained stable.

(a) Felony complaints represent the number of criminal cases, docketed as CR, that began in county court. The processing of felony cases varies between court locations. The counties processing CR cases hear advisements. Some counties do preliminary hearings in county court before moving the case to district court for completion of the felony process. The case can also be reduced to a misdemeanor and remain in county court or district court.

(b) Does not include felony complaints.

Trial Court Management Strategies

Case Timeliness Standards

One measure the Judicial Department utilizes to monitor workload and the ability to effectively process matters before the trial courts is to assess timeliness of proceedings, or the amount of time from the initial case filing to June 30, 2023, for cases active on that date. Performance goals for trial courts have been established through various means, including Chief Justice Directive 08-05 – Case Management Standards (CJD 08-05). This directive was developed with input from judges and establishes aspirational time processing goals for each case class. Information about each district’s progress in meeting the goals is reported quarterly. Information for individual judges is provided to the Judicial Performance Commission during each judge’s retention evaluation.

The statewide percentage of cases that met the timeliness standards at the end of FY23 is represented in tables 3 and 4 below. One reason for not meeting standards may be the greater number of requirements per case created by legislation. In addition, the district court weighted caseload study indicated that the average amount of time spent on cases has increased for most district court case classes, and it may be reasonable to expect the imminent county court weighted caseload study will make similar findings. Without additional judicial officers, this necessarily decreases the number of cases that can be resolved in a timely fashion, increasing the number of open cases at any given time.

* This measure shows time to first permanency hearing. A potentially more optimal measure would be time to true permanent placement or termination of court jurisdiction.

Jury Trial Backlog

In FY23, the number of pending jury trials stabilized slightly above 10,000 cases. The number of pending jury trials has been tracked since April 2021, and as of June 2023, the number of pending jury trials has decreased by 30% from 14,427 to 10,047. The number of jury trials was significantly elevated during and after the COVID-19 public health emergency when jury trials were suspended across the state.

Chart 1: Pending Jury Trials by Month

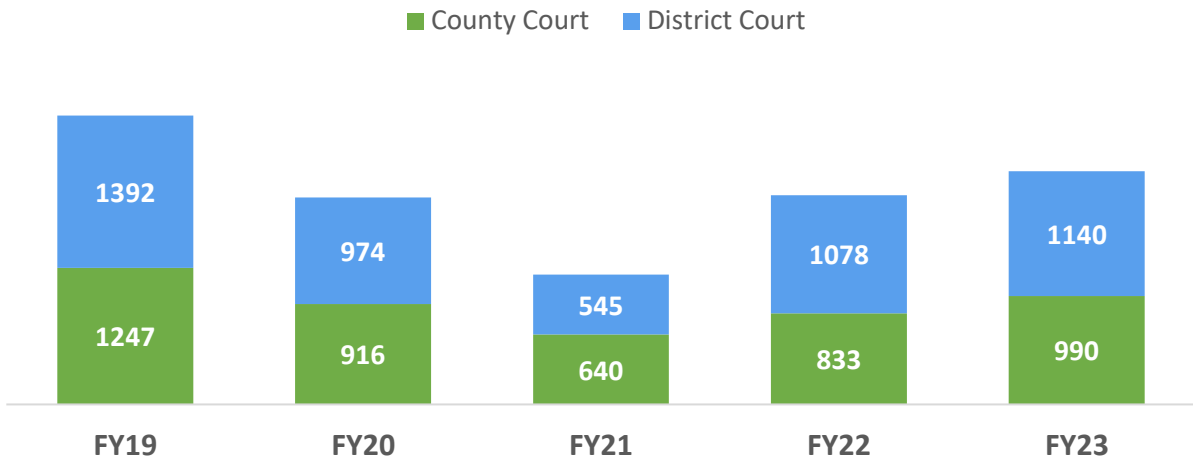

The number of jury trials held also stabilized during FY23, indicating the Department has reached an equilibrium between new and held jury trials.

Chart 2: Jury Trials Held by Month

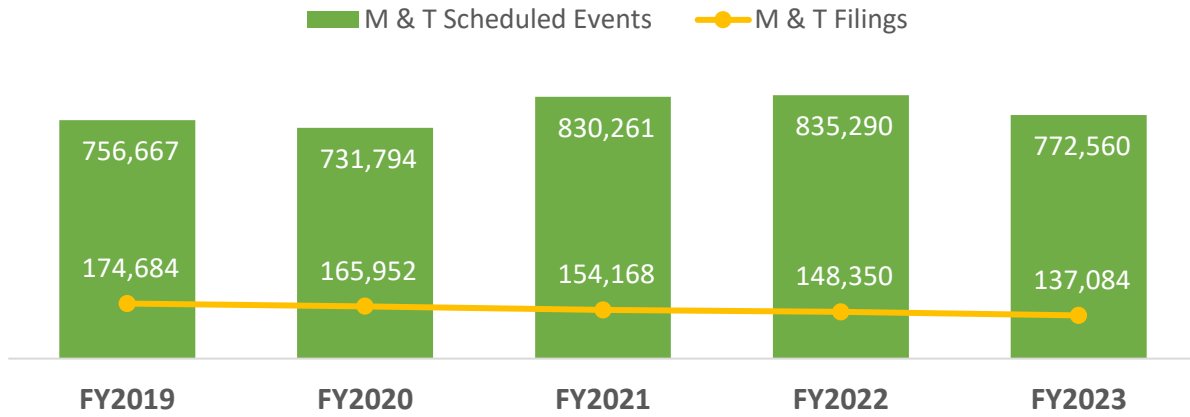

The total number of jury trials held in FY23 (2,130) increased over the number held from FY20 through FY22, approaching FY18-19 levels.

Chart 3: Jury Trials Held in County & District Court by Fiscal Year, FY18-FY23

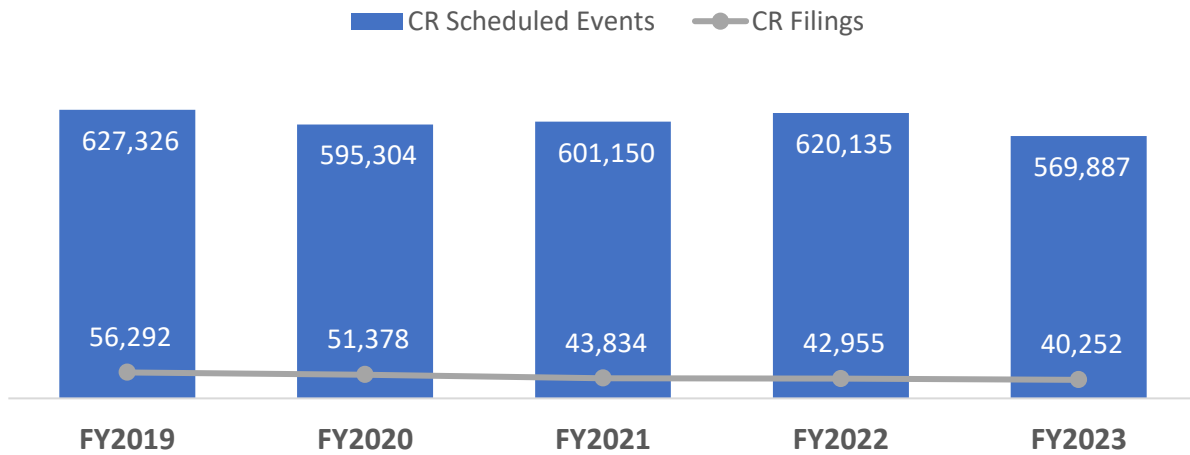

After increasing significantly between FY20 and FY21, the number of misdemeanor and traffic scheduled events, which primarily include hearings, decreased 8% from FY22. This is likely due to the 13% decrease in the number of traffic cases. Some of this workload reappeared in traffic infraction cases as offenses were downgraded from traffic misdemeanor offenses to traffic infractions.

Chart 4: County Court Misdemeanor (M) & Traffic (T) Filings and Scheduled Events FY19-23

The number of scheduled events in felony criminal cases also decreased 8% from FY22 to FY23.

Chart 5: District Court Criminal (CR) Filings and Scheduled Events FY19-23

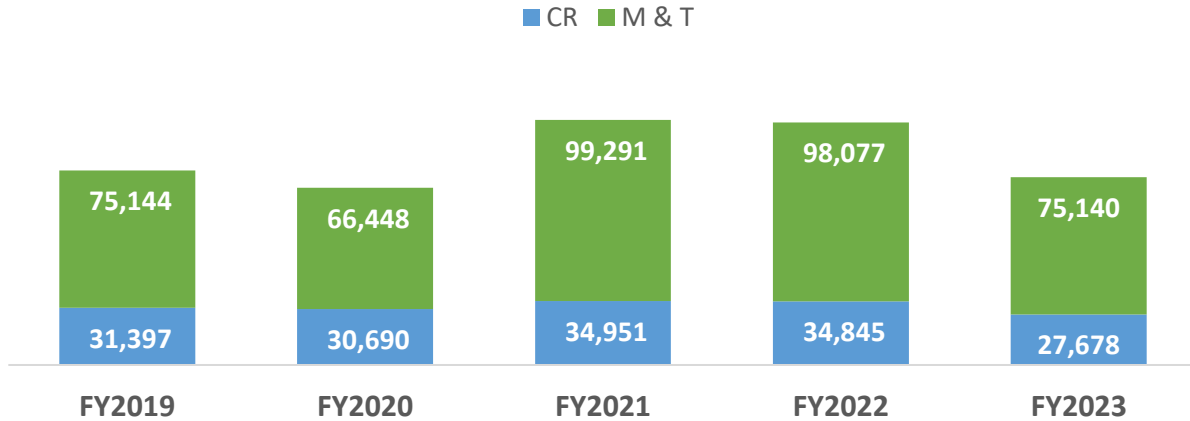

Several factors are likely contributing to the fluctuation in scheduled events. Two significant ones are the decrease in party failures to appear (FTAs), and the decreased number of continuances.

Chart 6 below illustrates the encouraging decrease in the number of failures to appear in felony criminal and misdemeanor cases. From FY22 to FY23, there was a 23% decrease in the number of felony hearings with an FTA, and a 21% decrease in the number of misdemeanor hearings with an FTA. Two elements likely influenced the decrease. First, as Colorado moved out of the COVID-19 public health emergency, parties may have been more likely to assume the risks associated with appearing in person, or the factors that impeded appearances have stabilized. Second, the Department expanded the text reminder program for defendants in criminal felony and misdemeanor cases after the passage of Senate Bill 19-036 (SB19-036), which created the program, and Senate Bill 22-018 (SB22-018), which expanded the program by requiring defendants to opt out of receiving text reminders if they wish to decline participation.

Chart 6: FTAs for Scheduled Events in District Criminal and County Misdemeanor & Traffic Cases FY19-FY23

There was also a significant decrease in the number of continuances in felony criminal and misdemeanor cases. From FY22 to FY23, there was a 14% decrease in the number of felony criminal scheduled events that were continued, and a 5% decrease in the number of continued scheduled events in misdemeanor cases. The decrease in the number of FTAs likely contributed to these decreases, in addition to the decreased risks from the COVID-19 public health emergency.

Chart 7: Continuances for Scheduled Events in District Criminal and County Misdemeanor & Traffic Cases, FY19-FY23

Despite these positive developments, the Judicial Department’s updated district court judicial officer weighted caseload study indicates the amount of time needed to process felony and misdemeanor cases is increasing. This may be due to a greater number of required processes that occur in each hearing or over the life of the case. In either case, the overall time required to process felony and misdemeanor cases has not been decreasing with the decreasing number of scheduled events, FTAs, and continuances.

Court User Survey

The court user survey is another ongoing measure the Department uses to manage the trial courts. The survey is focused on procedural fairness, service quality, and ideas for actionable improvements. An updated version of the survey was piloted in five judicial districts (the 1st, 4th, 8th, 9th, and 12th) representing urban, suburban, and rural judicial districts from across the state. The survey is being rolled out statewide beginning October 1st. During FY23, 3,465 court users completed the survey in pilot districts, which is a significant increase over distribution of the preceding Access & Fairness Survey (discussed on p. 9), which collected 1,500-2,000 surveys annually through statewide distribution. Survey respondents included parties, attorneys, witnesses, jurors, law enforcement, observers, and others.

Questions included several 5-point Likert-style questions which are represented in table 5 below. Most court users were highly satisfied with the courts in the pilot districts, with over 70% of court users providing a positive median Likert-scale response, and more than 65% providing a positive response to every Likert-style question.

Probation Services

Colorado Probation provides community supervision for adults and juveniles sentenced to probation. Despite Colorado’s general population growth, the number of individuals sentenced to probation has been trending downward since FY19. There were just over 1,800 more adults sentenced to probation in FY23 (34,464) compared to FY14 (32,663) and 1,600 fewer juveniles sentenced to probation in FY23 (1,822) compared to FY14 (3,458). After experiencing a sharp decline in probation sentences during the COVID-19 public health emergency, new sentences to probation have remained steady at this lower level.

Probation’s population has evolved significantly in the last ten years. For the largest population, adults on regular supervision, the proportion of those with felony and misdemeanor convictions has remained consistent. Approximately a third of adults sentenced to probation, in any given year, have a felony conviction. After peaking in FY19 with almost 14,000 adults with felony convictions entering probation (34% of new adult probationers), the number has decreased. In FY23, only 11,000 adults were sentenced to probation with a felony conviction (32% of new adult probationers) and just over 22,800 were sentenced to probation with a misdemeanor conviction. It’s likely current population trends reflect a combination of factors including lasting impacts of the COVID-19 public health emergency, statutory changes (e.g., the decriminalization of some drug crimes, changes in theft amounts and impaired driving offenses), and system changes to the juvenile and adult criminal justice system.

Longer-term trends show slight increases in the total number of new probations. Since FY14, Colorado has seen increases in the number of males and females sentenced to regular probation, while the percentage of each have remained steady: in FY14, 26% of new, regular adult probationers were female (8,566) and 74% were male (24,077). Similarly, in FY23, 26% were female (8,792) and 74% were male (25,627). Additionally, over the last ten years, the young adult regular probation population has shrunk while the remainder of the adult population (especially 25-50+) has steadily increased. In the last ten years, the number of probationers in the 18-24-year-old category decreased 30% from 8,317 in FY14 to 5,853 in FY24. In contrast, the number of probationers in the 25-50+ range increased 18% from 24,342 in FY14 to 28,611 in FY23.

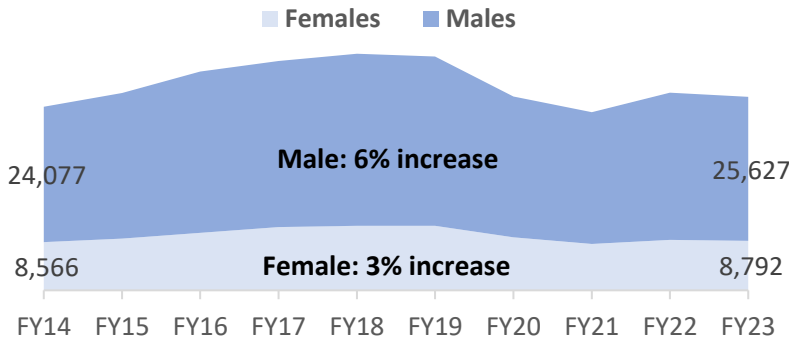

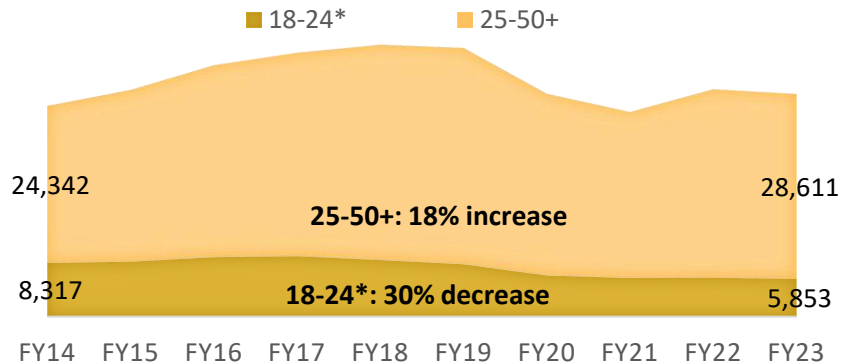

Chart 9: New Adult Probationers by Age
FY14 to FY23

*a small number of individuals under age 18 were included as they were charged with an adult offense

Note: Regular adult supervision excludes intensive programs, private probation, and DUI monitoring.

Alongside the trends highlighted above, probation has experienced growth in the number and proportion of higher-risk adult probationers on supervision. Leadership and staff in probation districts report individuals placed on probation are not only presenting with greater needs but also have more complex and disrupted stability factors (e.g., homelessness), behavioral problems, acute mental illness, and longer histories of failure on community supervision. These cases require greater strategic and time-intensive supervision and so the strain placed upon state probation resources is growing, which exacerbates workload pressures currently felt under existing staffing levels.

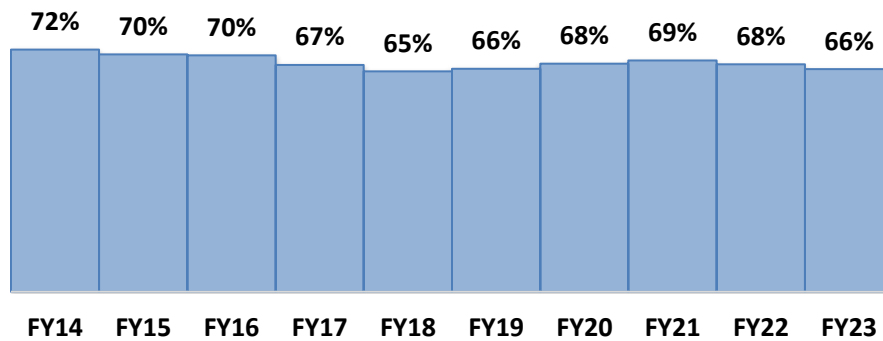

Chart 10: Risk Level Comparison
FY14 To FY23

Probation continues to work to identify and use assessments, processes, and programs that uphold public safety, are cost effective, and increase positive outcomes. There is a continued focus on the identification and implementation of research-informed practices and principles. This effort is consistent with the principles of evidence-based decision-making and supports the approach of working with individuals based on their unique needs.

Probation success rates have steadily hovered between 66% and 69% over the last 5 years, lower than 72% a decade prior. As adults and juveniles with higher risks and needs enter the criminal justice system, lower success rates can be expected. In FY23, the overall success rate for probation programs was 66%. A combination of absconders and technical violations account for most failures on supervision.

Probation Management Strategies

To improve outcomes, Probation continues to pursue adequate staffing, implementation of applicable research-informed programs and practices, and training and skill development for staff. Probation’s current efforts to improve outcomes include the following.

Probation collaborates with stakeholders to research, implement, train, and provide technical assistance for brain injury screening efforts for justice-involved adults and juveniles across the state. This year, Probation Services hosted two additional training events in honor of Brain Injury Awareness Month (March) and expanded brain injury screening to include a total of six Judicial Districts.

New Electronic monitoring (EM) vendors and contracts are pending, following a solicitation which made several adjustments to the scope of work. During the solicitation, a significant effort was made to better educate probation staff and judicial officers—as well as criminal justice stakeholders—on the benefits, realities, and limitations of EM. Additionally, a new Chief Justice Directive (CJD) will soon be implemented to increase consistency across jurisdictions regarding the utilization of EM. The CJD will outline the purposes and limitations of EM in probation, as well as address numerous procedural requirements.

Probation staff experience a significant amount of occupational stress and secondary trauma due to their work. The COVID-19 public health emergency magnified the stress for these officers, as they had to find creative ways to continue providing services while adhering to public health guidelines and local directives. In addition, the fentanyl epidemic has disproportionately affected individuals on probation, which has added another layer of distress for probation staff. In response, the Division of Probation Services (DPS) has been focusing resources on addressing staff health and wellbeing. In the past year, quarterly learning opportunities have been offered to Judicial employees with a focus on wellbeing. In addition, DPS has made the Corrections Fatigue to Fulfillment curriculum a part of the regular training catalog and are developing local peer supports to connect with probation staff who engage in the curriculum. This is in addition to local efforts to address this issue. It is hoped that providing these resources will reduce turnover and improve the overall well-being of current employees, so they are better equipped to perform their job duties.

Probationer typologies (a reflection of common characteristics of a group of probationers based on an analysis of Probation's adult population) have been implemented for the adult probation population and most probation staff have been trained on the typologies. Intensive supervision programs were developed to target higher risk probationers, with special attention to reducing their specific criminogenic needs.

Performance feedback efforts continue, including the development of dashboards and quarterly statistical reports summarizing each judicial district's current population and termination numbers. These reports provide probation departments with the opportunity to adapt more quickly to changing justice-involved populations and manage resources accordingly.

The Special Projects Program (formerly known as the Rural Initiative Program) continues to facilitate the training and state approval of domestic violence, sex offender and substance abuse treatment providers in underserved regions. This effort is intended to provide quality treatment "close to home" for probationers who would otherwise be required to travel significant distances to secure treatment. More recently, navigator services have been introduced to assist probationers with successful completion of supervision and the requirements of their sentence. These initiatives are supported by supervision fees paid by offenders.

In August 2021, the Judicial Department finalized an information-sharing agreement with the Department of Health Care Policy & Financing (HCPF). The purpose of the agreement was to improve collaborative relationships at a state and local level with a specific focus on improving access to care and care coordination, reducing recidivism, identifying cost and time saving opportunities, developing evaluations, and using data and information to make decisions. In addition to the information-sharing agreement, improved process and data collection efforts are underway. Probation Officers identify individuals who are actively enrolled in Medicaid and this information is reported to HCPF and passed along to the specific HCPF contractors, such as the Regional Accountable Entities (RAEs), that function as the members' respective healthcare plans. Additionally, the Judicial Department and HCPF established monthly collaborative meetings. These monthly meetings are with Judicial Division of Probation Services (DPS) representatives, HCPF representatives, and Criminal Justice Care Coordinator representatives from each of the RAE regions. The Judicial Department is actively working alongside HCPF and the RAEs to create additional collaboration opportunities at the state and local levels. Local Probation Districts and RAE regions have scheduled meetings to further support awareness of care coordination resources, Medicaid funding, and the complexities for dually involved people in probation and the behavioral health system.

Summary

In FY23, the Colorado Judicial Department made extensive efforts to exemplify its renewed mission, vision, and values in its work. These efforts include working to improve processes, such as using mediation in eviction cases, automatically sealing qualified criminal records, standardizing virtual proceedings, making the Department's website more accessible, and making probation more responsive to probationer and victim needs. Efforts also included steps to improve the structural supports of the Department, such the work to update its mission, vision, and values, implement the 23rd judicial district, expand the senior judge program, incorporate DEI into problem-solving courts, and provide education to staff.

These efforts are paying off. The court user survey reports over 70% of court users surveyed have a positive view of their interaction with the courts. The jury trial backlog has stabilized, and continuances and failures to appear in criminal courts are decreasing. Probation continues to secure high success rates for probationers despite the proportion of high-risk probationers increasing. Overall, the Colorado Judicial Department continues to perform its mission at a high level by providing equal access to justice, contributing to public safety, and strengthening the rule of law.

Definitions

Total Held Scheduled Events

This is defined as any scheduled event in a CR, T, M or JD case that was held.

Total Failure to Appear

This is defined as any CR, T, M or JD case where the scheduled event has a status of PFTA (Party Failed to Appear).

FTA Rate

(Total Failure to Appear) / (Total Held Scheduled Events)

Held Hearings in Districts that Offer Text Reminder Option

This is defined as any unique case that had a hearing held in the reporting period selected. If you picked a reporting period that is prior to a location's Go Live Date, then those hearings are not counted until after the Go Live Date. Hearings where the court date was continued, vacated or where the party failed to appear are not considered unless there was another hearing in the case during that timeframe where the hearing was held.

Total Cases with a Held Hearing and an Opt-In

This is defined as any case where at least one party opted in for text reminders and a hearing was held during the reporting period. In Felony Criminal, Misdemeanor and Traffic cases only the defendant may opt-in for a text reminder.

In Juvenile Delinquency cases both the Respondent Parent and the Child may opt-in for a text reminder. If the Respondent Parent and the Child both opt-in for reminders, the case is only counted once. (Likewise, if only the Respondent parent opts in, the case is still only counted once.)

% Cases with a Held Hearing and an Opt-In

(Total Cases with an Opt-In) / (Total Cases with a Held Hearing While Live on Text Reminder)

Held Scheduled Event

Held Events are defined as any scheduled event that does not have a status of CNCA, CNCT, CONT, or VACT. Scheduled Events do not include REVW, ENDJ, REVD, or RVDF.

Total Opt Outs

A defendant or juvenile participant may opt out of text reminders through the court which is documented in the court case management system or through the vendor via text message. This metric contains data from the case management system. A separate report will be included with data from the vendor.

Denver County Court is not included in this report.

Defintions

Total Cases Filed

This is the total unique case numbers that had a petition for temporary extreme risk or a petition for extreme risk protection order filed.

Total Petitions Filed

This is the total number of petitions for a temporary extreme risk or extreme risk protection order. This is only for the first petition filed into the case, meaning if the petitioner files a petition for temporary extreme risk and then files an extreme risk petition in the same case, this would only be counted under the temporary petition for extreme risk since that was the first petition in the case.

Total Orders Issued and Denied

This is the total number of cases with an order for temporary extreme risk or extreme risk protection order that was issued or denied. Please note a case may have both a temporary and an extreme risk order issued/denied at separate times on the case. Therefore a case may be counted under each category.

Special Note: A petitioner may petition for an extreme risk order, but the Judicial Officer may decide to issue a temporary extreme risk order. The petitioner may petition for a temporary extreme risk order, but the Judicial Officer does not grant or deny that request at the initial hearing. The Judicial Officer does determine an extreme risk hearing should happen. At the extreme risk hearing an extreme risk protection order is granted (and a temporary order was never granted on this case). A case may also have a temporary extreme risk order granted and later have the extreme risk order granted in the case. This may cause the petition numbers to not align with the order numbers.

Total Orders Terminated

This is the total number of cases with an order for temporary extreme risk or extreme risk protection order that were vacated. A case may have a temporary and an extreme risk order vacated.

Total Orders Renewed

This is the total number of cases with an extreme risk protection order that was renewed.

A petitioner may petition for an extreme risk order, but the Judicial Officer may decide to issue a temporary extreme risk order. The petitioner may petition for a temporary extreme risk order, but the Judicial Officer does not grant or deny that request at the initial hearing. The Judicial Officer does determine an extreme risk hearing should occur and the court schedules this hearing. At the extreme risk hearing an extreme risk protection order is granted (a temporary order is never granted on this case). A case may also have a temporary extreme risk order granted and later have the extreme risk order granted in the case. This may cause the petition numbers to not align with the order numbers.
