AN ACTCONCERNING IN-STATE TUITION FOR DEPENDENTS OF MEMBERS OF THE MILITARY.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. 23-7-103 (1) (c) (I), Colorado Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

23-7-103. Presumptions and rules for determination of status. (1) Unless the contrary appears to the satisfaction of the registering authority of the institution at which a student is registering, it shall be presumed that:

(c) (I) A person does not gain or lose in-state status by reason of his or her presence in any state or country while a member of the armed forces of the United States OR A DEPENDENT OF SAID MEMBER; but a member of the armed forces OR A DEPENDENT OF SAID MEMBER is eligible for in-state status if the member is domiciled in Colorado for twelve continuous months prior to enlistment and returns to Colorado within six months following discharge from the military. A member of the armed forces shall be eligible to obtain in-state status, notwithstanding the length of his or her residency, upon moving to Colorado on a permanent change-of-station basis; except that such in-state status shall not be considered in determining limitations on maximum enrollment placed on institutions of higher education in Colorado and such in-state status shall not apply to members of the armed forces of the United States who attend education programs on military bases and such in-state status shall also be subject to the limitations in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c). A member of the armed forces may ~~also~~ apply for in-state tuition classification for any of his or her dependents, including but not limited to a spouse, upon meeting the requirements of this section. After qualifying as an in-state student and while continuously enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student at an institution of higher education in Colorado, a dependent of a member of the armed forces of the United States on active duty shall not lose the dependent's in-state tuition status if the member is transferred outside of Colorado. A person who is a dependent of a member of the armed forces of the United States who was on active duty in Colorado during the person's last year of high school, and who attends a public institution of higher education in Colorado within twelve months after graduating from a high school in Colorado, shall be eligible for in-state tuition; except that such a person is not eligible for in-state tuition under this provision if the person has attended an institution of higher education outside of Colorado.

SECTION 2. Safety clause. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.
