(c) The number of inmates denied parole and the race, ethnicity, and gender of the inmates.

(5) The division shall compile and report the data received in subsections (2) to (4) of this section by September 30 of each year. The report shall be provided to the judiciary committees of the house of representatives and senate, or any successor committees, and the Colorado commission on criminal and juvenile justice created in section 16-11.3-102, C.R.S.

August 5.

24-33.5-519. Body-worn cameras for law enforcement officers - grant program - study group - fund. (1) (a) There is created in the division the body-worn camera grant program, referred to in this section as the "grant program", to award grants to law enforcement agencies to purchase body-worn cameras, for associated data retention and management costs, and to train law enforcement officers on the use of body-worn cameras. The division shall administer the grant program pursuant to this section. The division may apply for gifts, grants, or donations from the federal government and any public or private source. The division shall transmit any moneys received to the state treasurer for deposit in the fund created pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. The division shall make grant payments from general fund moneys appropriated to the division by the general assembly for the program and moneys appropriated from the fund.

(b) The division shall:

(I) Solicit and review applications for grants from law enforcement agencies; and

(II) Select law enforcement agencies to receive grants from agencies that have adopted policies, giving preference to agencies that otherwise lack moneys to pay for body-worn cameras, for associated data retention and management costs, and to train law enforcement officers on the use of body-worn cameras, and determine the amount of each grant.
(2) (a) There is created in the state treasury the body-worn camera fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", consisting of any moneys received by the division from gifts, grants, or donations for the grant program. The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the division for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing the grant program.

(b) The state treasurer may invest any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this section as provided by law. The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

(3) Repealed.

Editor's note: Subsection (3)(d) provided for the repeal of subsection (3), effective July 1, 2016. (See L. 2015, p. 781.)

24-33.5-520. Study on drugged driving - substance-affected driving data-analysis cash fund created - report - definitions.

(1) On or before March 1, 2018, and on or before March 1 each year thereafter, the division shall submit a report to the judiciary committees of the house of representatives and senate, or to any successor committees, that includes, to the extent possible, the following information:

(a) The total number of citations made for suspected substance-affected driving violations during the reporting period;

(b) Of the total number of citations made for suspected substance-affected driving during the reporting period, the total number of such citations that resulted in the filing of a substance-affected driving charge against the driver, including an indication of how many such cases involved alcohol, one or more drugs, or a combination of alcohol and one or more drugs;

(c) Of the filed cases, how many resulted in at least one conviction for substance-affected driving;

(d) Of the cases that resulted in at least one conviction for substance-affected driving, and for which evidentiary test results are available, which drugs, including alcohol, or combination of drugs were present in the defendants' bodies, and, for alcohol and marijuana, the laboratory values;

(e) The total number of DUI and DWAI cases during the reporting period that involved:

(I) Alcohol;

(II) Marijuana;

(III) Schedule I drugs, as described in section 18-18-203, other than marijuana; or

(IV) Other drugs; and
(f) For those cases in which evidentiary test results are available, for each type of biological sample taken, the time that elapsed between the time that each traffic stop or traffic incident occurred and the time at which the biological sample was taken.

(2) (a) For the purpose of producing the report described in subsection (1) of this section, the division shall collect and analyze substance-affected driving violation data as follows:
   (I) From the state judicial branch and from the Denver county court, the division shall collect case-identifier data, event data, filing dates, data identifying law enforcement agencies, demographic data relating to each defendant, data indicating the cause of each substance-affected driving citation, court findings, and sentences;
   (II) From forensic toxicology laboratories only, and from no other source, the division, to the extent possible, shall collect case-identifier data, event dates and times, collection dates and times, and confirmatory laboratory values from reports created for law enforcement agencies and prosecutors and shall specify the name of each drug that was confirmed and its laboratory value;
   (III) From the department of public health and environment, the division shall collect evidentiary breath alcohol test results, including case-identifier data, event dates and times, and the results obtained on evidentiary breath alcohol testing devices certified by the department of public health and environment; and
   (IV) From the division of probation services, the division shall collect case-identifier data and, to the extent possible, data concerning the classes and types of drugs that were involved in each substance-affected driving incident.

(b) The database compiled by the division containing personal identifying information relating to the test results of persons' biological samples, and all personal identifying information thereof, are not public information and are not subject to the provisions of the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of this title 24. The division shall disclose information only by means of the report described in subsection (1) of this section, which must not include any personal identifying information.

(3) A public or private laboratory carrying out analysis of evidentiary samples that were taken by a law enforcement agency and submitted to the laboratory pursuant to section 42-4-1301.1 shall collect and share test results with the division for the purposes of this section. The division shall not disclose any personal identifying information that is included in such test results.

(4) (a) There is created in the state treasury the substance-affected driving data-analysis cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", to include money collected from surcharges assessed pursuant to section 42-4-1307 (10)(c) and any money credited to the fund pursuant to subsection (4)(b) of this section. The money in the fund is subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the division for the purpose described in subsection (1) of this section. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of money in the fund remains in the fund. Any unexpended or unencumbered money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year remains in the fund and may not be transferred or credited to the general fund or another fund.

(b) The division may accept any gifts, grants, or donations from any private or public source on behalf of the state for purposes of this section. The division shall transmit all private and public money received through grants, gifts, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund.
(c) The division may use money in the fund to reimburse and provide advance payments to state, municipal, and private agencies and laboratories that apply to the division for payment of costs they incur in complying with this section.

(5) Notwithstanding section 24-1-136 (11)(a)(I), the report described in subsection (1) of this section is not subject to the expiration date described in said section 24-1-136 (11)(a)(I).

(6) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:
(a) "Forensic toxicology laboratory" means a forensic toxicology laboratory that is certified by the department of public health and environment to perform testing of samples collected from individuals suspected of DUI, DUI per se, or DWAI.
(b) "Reporting period" means the calendar year ending fourteen months before the March 1 due date of the report.
(c) "Substance-affected driving" means driving in violation of section 42-4-1301 (1)(a), (1)(b), or (2)(a); section 18-3-106 (1)(b); or section 18-3-205 (1)(b).

(7) The department of public safety shall include the report described in subsection (1) of this section in the department's annual presentation to the committees of reference pursuant to section 2-7-203.

PART 6

COLORADO COMMUNITY POLICING ACT

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2006 act enacting this part, see section 1 of chapter 246, Session Laws of Colorado 2006.

24-33.5-601. Short title. This part 6 shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Community Policing Act".

24-33.5-602. Definitions. As used in this part 6, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "At-risk neighborhood" means an urban or rural neighborhood or community in which there are incidences of:
(a) Poverty, unemployment and underemployment, substance abuse, crime, school dropouts, illiteracy, teen pregnancies and teen parents, domestic violence, or other conditions that put families at risk; or
(b) Alcohol abuse, public intoxication, or repetitive disturbances of the peace.
(2) "Local law enforcement agency" means a police department in incorporated municipalities, the office of the county sheriff, or a campus police agency.

24-33.5-603. Colorado community policing program - creation. There is hereby created in the division of criminal justice the Colorado community policing program for the purpose of providing grants to local law enforcement agencies for the implementation of community policing plans that are designed to proactively prevent crime in cooperation with residents of communities and at-risk neighborhoods and providing training and education related to the program.

24-33.5-604. Colorado community policing program - administration. (1) The Colorado community policing program shall be administered through the division of criminal justice. The division shall establish procedures and timelines for the submittal of grant applications by local law enforcement agencies seeking to implement a community policing plan or to continue the operation of an existing community policing program.

(2) To be eligible for moneys from the community policing program cash fund created in section 24-33.5-605, a local law enforcement agency shall apply to the division of criminal justice in accordance with the procedures and timelines developed by the division pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The application of a local law enforcement agency shall include a community policing plan that meets the criteria for such plans developed by the division. A plan may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) The creation of a partnership or collaboration between the local law enforcement agency and the families, individuals, children, and youth who live in at-risk neighborhoods for the purpose of crime prevention activities and strategies;

(b) The utilization of public or private facilities for regular interaction between the local law enforcement agency and the community, including, but not limited to, community centers, gymnasiums, and libraries or other reading areas;

(c) The support of and participation in local youth educational and recreational programs by the local law enforcement agency;

(d) Regularly scheduled neighborhood meetings between local law enforcement professionals and the residents of the community or at-risk neighborhood;

(e) The enhanced and regularized presence of the local law enforcement agency in a community or at-risk neighborhood through the use of foot patrols, bicycles, motorcycles, and participation in activities and events; and

(f) The process or measurement for evaluating whether the Colorado community policing program is reducing or preventing the incidence of crime in a community or at-risk neighborhood.

(3) Subject to available appropriations, the division of criminal justice shall select those local law enforcement agencies that will receive grants through the Colorado community policing program. The division shall determine the amount of each grant awarded to a local law enforcement agency.

24-33.5-605. Community policing program cash fund - creation. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the community policing program cash fund. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to award grants to local law enforcement agencies and for the direct and indirect costs associated with the implementation of this part 6. The division of criminal justice is authorized to accept on behalf of the state any grants, gifts, or donations from any private or public source for the purpose of this part 6 pursuant to section 24-33.5-503 (1)(e). All private and public funds received through grants, gifts, or donations shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund. All investment earnings derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred or revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any fiscal year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the division of criminal justice shall not implement the Colorado community policing program until sufficient grants, gifts, or donations are obtained to cover the costs of implementing the program.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Editor's note: This part 7 was added in 1983. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 7 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act recreating and reenacting this part 7, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-701. Short title. This part 7 shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Disaster Emergency Act".

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2101 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-702. Purposes and limitations. (1) The purposes of this part 7 are to:
   (a) Reduce vulnerability of people and communities of this state to damage, injury, and loss of life and property resulting from natural catastrophes or catastrophes of human origin, civil disturbance, or hostile military or paramilitary action;
   (b) Prepare for prompt and efficient search, rescue, recovery, care, and treatment of persons lost, entrapped, victimized, or threatened by disasters or emergencies;
   (c) Provide a setting conducive to the rapid and orderly start of restoration and rehabilitation of persons and property affected by disasters;
(d) Clarify and strengthen the roles of the governor, state agencies, and local governments in prevention of, preparation for, response to, and recovery from disasters;

(e) Authorize and provide for cooperation in disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery;

(f) Authorize and provide for coordination of activities relating to disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery by agencies and officers of this state and similar state-local, interstate, federal-state, and foreign activities in which the state and its political subdivisions may participate;

(g) Provide a disaster and emergency management system embodying all aspects of predisaster and pre-emergency preparedness and postdisaster and postemergency response; and

(h) Assist in prevention of disasters caused or aggravated by inadequate planning for regulation of public and private facilities and land use.

(2) Nothing in this part 7 shall be construed to:

(a) Interfere with the course or conduct of a labor dispute; except that actions otherwise authorized by this part 7 or other laws may be taken when necessary to forestall or mitigate imminent or existing danger to public health or safety;

(b) Interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs; except that any communications facility or organization, including but not limited to radio and television stations, wire services, and newspapers, may be required to transmit or print public service messages furnishing information or instructions in connection with a disaster emergency;

(c) Affect the jurisdiction or responsibilities of police forces, fire-fighting forces, or units of the armed forces of the United States, or of any personnel thereof, when on active duty; except that state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans shall place reliance upon the forces available for performance of functions related to disaster emergencies; or

(d) Limit, modify, or abridge the authority of the governor to proclaim martial law or exercise any other powers vested in the governor under the constitution, statutes, or common law of this state independent of, or in conjunction with, any provision of this part 7.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2102 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-703. Definitions. As used in this part 7, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Bioterrorism" means the intentional use of microorganisms or toxins of biological origin to cause death or disease among humans or animals.

(2) "Committee" means the governor's expert emergency epidemic response committee created in section 24-33.5-704.

(3) "Disaster" means the occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural cause or cause of human origin, including but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, hazardous substance incident, oil spill or other water contamination requiring emergency action to avert danger or damage, volcanic activity, epidemic, air pollution, blight, drought, infestation, explosion, civil disturbance, hostile military or paramilitary action, or a condition of riot, insurrection, or invasion existing in the state or in any county, city, town, or district in the state.
(4) "Emergency epidemic" means cases of an illness or condition, communicable or noncommunicable, caused by bioterrorism, pandemic influenza, or novel and highly fatal infectious agents or biological toxins.

(5) "Pandemic influenza" means a widespread epidemic of influenza caused by a highly virulent strain of the influenza virus.

(6) "Political subdivision" means any county, city and county, city, or town and may include any other agency designated by law as a political subdivision of the state.

(7) (a) "Publicly funded safety net program" means a program that is administered by a state department and that:
(I) Is funded wholly or in part with state, federal, or a combination of state and federal funds; and
(II) Provides or facilitates the provision of medical services to vulnerable populations, including children, disabled individuals, and the elderly.
(b) The term includes a program of medical assistance, as defined in section 25.5-1-103 (5), C.R.S.

(8) "Search and rescue" means the employment, coordination, and utilization of available resources and personnel in locating, relieving distress and preserving life of, and removing survivors from the site of a disaster, emergency, or hazard to a place of safety in case of lost, stranded, entrapped, or injured persons.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2103 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-704. The governor and disaster emergencies - expert emergency epidemic response committee - creation. (1) The governor is responsible for meeting the dangers to the state and people presented by disasters.

(2) Under this part 7, the governor may issue executive orders, proclamations, and regulations and amend or rescind them. Executive orders, proclamations, and regulations have the force and effect of law.

(3) Repealed.

(4) A disaster emergency shall be declared by executive order or proclamation of the governor if the governor finds a disaster has occurred or that this occurrence or the threat thereof is imminent. The state of disaster emergency shall continue until the governor finds that the threat of danger has passed or that the disaster has been dealt with to the extent that emergency conditions no longer exist and the governor terminates the state of disaster emergency by executive order or proclamation, but no state of disaster emergency may continue for longer than thirty days unless renewed by the governor. The general assembly, by joint resolution, may terminate a state of disaster emergency at any time. Thereupon, the governor shall issue an executive order or proclamation ending the state of disaster emergency. All executive orders or proclamations issued under this subsection (4) shall indicate the nature of the disaster, the area threatened, and the conditions which have brought it about or which make possible termination of the state of disaster emergency. An executive order or proclamation shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, shall be promptly filed with the office of emergency management, the secretary of state, and the county clerk and recorder and disaster agencies in the area to which it applies.

(5) An executive order or proclamation of a state of disaster emergency shall activate the disaster response and recovery aspects of the state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans applicable to the political subdivision or area in question and shall be authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plans apply and for use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, and materials and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this part 7 or any other provision of law relating to disaster emergencies.

(6) During the continuance of any state of disaster emergency, the governor is commander-in-chief of the organized and unorganized militia and of all other forces available for emergency duty. To the greatest extent practicable, the governor shall delegate or assign command authority by prior arrangement embodied in appropriate executive orders or regulations, but nothing in this section restricts the governor's authority to do so by orders issued at the time of the disaster emergency.

(7) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the governor by law, the governor may:

(a) Suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for conduct of state business or the orders, rules, or regulations of any state agency, if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule, or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency;

(b) Utilize all available resources of the state government and of each political subdivision of the state as reasonably necessary to cope with the disaster emergency;

(c) Transfer the direction, personnel, or functions of state departments and agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services;

(d) Subject to any applicable requirements for compensation under section 24-33.5-711, commandeer or utilize any private property if the governor finds this necessary to cope with the disaster emergency;

(e) Direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the state if the governor deems this action necessary for the preservation of life or other disaster mitigation, response, or recovery;

(f) Prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation;

(g) Control ingress to and egress from a disaster area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein;

(h) Suspend or limit the sale, dispensing, or transportation of alcoholic beverages, firearms, explosives, or combustibles;

(i) Make provision for the availability and use of temporary emergency housing; and

(j) Determine the percentage at which the state and a local government will contribute moneys to cover the nonfederal cost share required by the federal "Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act", as amended, 42 U.S.C. sec. 5121 et seq., required by the federal highway administration pursuant to 23 U.S.C. sec. 125, or required by any other federal law in order to receive federal disaster relief funds. After making such a determination, the governor may amend the percentage at which the state and local government will contribute moneys to the nonfederal cost share based on the needs of the individual local governments. As soon as practicable after making or amending such a determination, the governor shall notify the joint budget committee of the source and amount of state moneys that will be contributed to cover a nonfederal cost share pursuant to this paragraph (j).

(8) (a) There is hereby created a governor's expert emergency epidemic response committee. The committee shall:
   (I) Meet at least annually to review and amend, as necessary, the supplement to the state disaster plan that is concerned with the public health response to acts of bioterrorism, pandemic influenza, and epidemics caused by novel and highly fatal infectious agents; and
   (II) Provide expert public health advice to the governor in the event of an emergency epidemic.

(III) Repealed.

(b) (I) State members of the committee include:
   (A) The executive director of the department of public health and environment;
   (B) The chief medical officer of the department of public health and environment;
   (C) The chief public information officer of the department of public health and environment;
   (D) The emergency response coordinator for the department of public health and environment;
   (E) The state epidemiologist for the department of public health and environment;
   (F) The attorney general or the designee of the attorney general;
   (G) The president of the board of health or the president's designee;
   (H) The president of the state medical society or the president's designee;
   (I) The president of the Colorado health and hospital association or the president's designee;
   (J) The state veterinarian of the department of agriculture; and
   (K) The director of the division of homeland security and emergency management.

   (II) In addition to the state members of the committee, the governor shall appoint to the committee an individual from each of the following categories:
   (A) A licensed physician who specializes in infectious diseases;
   (B) A licensed physician who specializes in emergency medicine;
   (C) A medical examiner;
   (D) A specialist in posttraumatic stress management;
   (E) A director of a county, district, or municipal public health agency;
   (F) A hospital infection control practitioner;
   (G) A wildlife disease specialist with the division of wildlife; and
   (H) A pharmacist member of the state board of pharmacy.

   (III) The executive director of the department of public health and environment shall serve as the chair of the committee. A majority of the membership of the committee, not including vacant positions, shall constitute a quorum.

   (IV) The executive director of the department of public safety or the executive director's designee shall serve as an ex officio member of the committee and is not able to vote on decisions of the committee. He or she shall serve as a liaison between the committee and the Colorado emergency planning commission in the event of an emergency epidemic.
(c) The committee shall include in the supplement to the state disaster plan a proposal for the prioritization, allocation, storage, protection, and distribution of antibiotic medicines, antiviral medicines, antidotes, and vaccines that may be needed and in short supply in the event of an emergency epidemic.

(d) The committee shall convene at the call of the governor or the executive director of the department of public health and environment to consider evidence presented by the department's chief medical officer or state epidemiologist that there is an occurrence or imminent threat of an emergency epidemic. If the committee finds that there is an occurrence or imminent threat of an emergency epidemic, the executive director of the department of public health and environment shall advise the governor to declare a disaster emergency.

(e) In the event of an emergency epidemic that has been declared a disaster emergency, the committee shall convene as rapidly and as often as necessary to advise the governor, who shall act by executive order, regarding reasonable and appropriate measures to reduce or prevent spread of the disease, agent, or toxin and to protect the public health. Such measures may include:

(I) Procuring or taking supplies of medicines and vaccines;
(II) Ordering physicians and hospitals to transfer or cease admission of patients or perform medical examinations of persons;
(III) Isolating or quarantining persons or property;
(IV) Determining whether to seize, destroy, or decontaminate property or objects that may threaten the public health;
(V) Determining how to safely dispose of corpses and infectious waste;
(VI) Assessing the adequacy and potential contamination of food and water supplies;
(VII) Providing mental health support to affected persons; and (VIII) Informing the citizens of the state how to protect themselves, what actions are being taken to control the epidemic, and when the epidemic is over.

(9) Each department that administers a publicly funded safety net program shall develop a continuity of operations plan no later than July 1, 2008. The plan shall establish procedures for the response by, and continuation of operations of, the department and the program in the event of an epidemic emergency. Each department shall file its plan with the executive director of the department of public health and environment and shall update the plan at least annually. In addition, notwithstanding section 24-1-136 (11), each department shall submit a report by March 1 of each year to the health and human services committees of the senate and house of representatives, or any successor committees, regarding the status of the department's plan, as well as the status of any other plans or procedures of the department regarding emergency disaster preparedness.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2104 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-705. Office of emergency management - creation. (1) (a) There is hereby created in the division of homeland security and emergency management the office of emergency management. Pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, the director of the division of homeland security and emergency management shall appoint a director as head of the office of emergency management.

(b) The office of emergency management and the office of the director thereof shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions under the department and the executive director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(2) The office of emergency management shall prepare, maintain, and keep current a state disaster plan that complies with all applicable federal and state regulations.

(3) The office of emergency management shall take part in the development and revision of local and interjurisdictional disaster plans prepared under section 24-33.5-707. To this end the office of emergency management shall employ or otherwise secure the services of professional and technical personnel capable of providing expert assistance to political subdivisions, their disaster agencies, and interjurisdictional planning and disaster agencies. Such personnel shall consult with political subdivisions and disaster agencies and shall make field examinations.

(4) In preparing and revising the state disaster plan, the office of emergency management may seek the advice and assistance of local government, business, labor, industry, agriculture, civic and volunteer organizations, and community leaders.

(5) The state disaster plan or any part thereof may be incorporated in regulations of the office of emergency management or executive orders that have the force and effect of law.

(6) The office of emergency management may do all things necessary for the implementation of this section, including:
   (a) Hiring personnel;
   (b) Contracting with federal, state, local, and private entities;
   (c) Accepting and expending federal funds.

(7) Whenever the office of emergency management or the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs is referred to or designated by any contract or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety.

(8) (a) Effective July 1, 2012, the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested previously in the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs.

(b) (I) On July 1, 2012, all positions of employment in the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs shall be transferred to the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety and shall become employment positions therein.

   (II) On July 1, 2012, all employees of the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs shall be considered employees of the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety. Such employees shall retain all rights under the state personnel system and to retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous.

(III) On July 1, 2012, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs are transferred to the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety and shall become the property thereof.

(c) Unless otherwise specified, whenever any provision of law refers to the division of emergency management, that law shall be construed as referring to the office of emergency management in the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety.

(d) No suit, action, or other proceeding, judicial or administrative, lawfully commenced, or which could have been commenced, by or against the division of emergency management in the department of local affairs, or any officer thereof in such officer's official capacity or in relation to the discharge of the official's duties, is abated by reason of the transfer of duties and functions in this section.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2105 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-705.3. Statewide all-hazards resource database - creation - definitions. (1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Private sector agencies and organizations" means any private sector or nonprofit agency or organization that has resources useful in a disaster or emergency that it desires to list in the private sector portion of the database.

(b) "Tribal, state, and local all-hazards response agency" means any all-hazards response agency of a tribe, the state and any of its subdivisions, and any town, city, and city and county, regardless of whether the personnel serving such department, district, or agency are volunteers or are compensated for their services.

(2) (a) Not later than June 30, 2013, the office of emergency management, using existing computer resources, shall develop and maintain a centralized computer database that includes a listing of all all-hazards response resources located within Colorado.

(b) The database created pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall contain resource inventories, personnel counts, resource status, such other information relevant to the efficient tracking and allocation of all-hazards response resources, and a listing of all supplemental funding sources available to tribal, state, and local all-hazards response agencies. The information in this database shall be included with the information required to be collected and maintained pursuant to section 25-1.5-101 (1)(p), C.R.S. No data gathered for or stored in this database shall contain personally identifying information without prior notice to the involved individual. The database is not intended to be used in place of the existing interagency wildland fire dispatch system.

(3) (a) The office of emergency management shall encourage tribal, state, and local response agencies to enter the information described in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section into the database via the internet and provide a means for such data entry. All data entered into the database shall be verifiable by the office of emergency management. The office of emergency management shall encourage participating tribal, state, regional, and local response agencies to update the data as necessary.

(b) The database shall be accessible via the internet to all tribal, state, regional, and local response agencies for the purpose of efficiently tracking and allocating response resources in the event of a disaster or local incident that requires more resources than those available under any existing interjurisdictional or mutual aid arrangement.

(4) The office of emergency management shall establish guidelines for the development and maintenance of the database created pursuant to subsection (2) of this section so that tribal, state, regional, and local response agencies can easily access the database. The guidelines shall be developed with input from tribal, state, regional, and local response agencies and private sector agencies and organizations.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-33.5-108 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-705.4. All-hazards resource mobilization system - creation - plan - duties - reimbursement for expenses incurred by mobilized entities - eligibility - resource mobilization fund - creation - definitions - legislative declaration. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the statewide all-hazards resource mobilization system, which provides for efficient mobilizing, tracking, allocating, and demobilizing emergency resources and ensures that a requesting unit of government receives proper equipment and qualified personnel, is necessary to provide resources to any emergency incident beyond local capabilities and thus necessary to protect life, property, the environment, and cultural and economic resources. The general assembly further finds and declares that the need to ensure that the state is adequately prepared and able to address large-scale emergencies and disasters requires a mechanism to reimburse state agencies, tribal governments, and local jurisdictions that respond to requests for help from other jurisdictions in times of need. It is therefore necessary to:

(I) Formulate the policy and organizational structure for large-scale mobilization of emergency resources in the state through creation of a statewide all-hazards resource mobilization system;

(II) Establish the means by which state agencies and tribal and local jurisdictions may be reimbursed for expenses they incur when mobilized by the executive director pursuant to the mobilization plan; and

(III) Provide a procedure to reimburse a host jurisdiction when it has exhausted or will exhaust all of its own resources and the resources of its local mutual aid network available under a mutual aid or interjurisdictional agreement.

(b) In accordance with section 24-33.5-713, it is the intent of the legislature to encourage political subdivisions to enter into mutual aid and other interjurisdictional agreements. Such agreements produce enhanced emergency response and are thus essential to protecting the public peace, safety, health, and welfare, including the lives and property, of the people of the state of Colorado.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Director" means the director of the office of emergency management created in section 24-33.5-705.

(b) "Emergency manager" means the director or coordinator of the local or interjurisdictional disaster agency, as described in section 24-33.5-707 (4), or other person, identified pursuant to section 24-33.5-707 (6), responsible for local or interjurisdictional disaster preparedness and response.

(c) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department or the executive director's designee.

(d) "Host jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction having authority over the disaster or emergency.

(e) "Incident command system" has the meaning set forth in section 29-22.5-102 (3), C.R.S.

(f) "Jurisdiction" means state and tribal authorities and county, city, city and county, town, special district, or other political subdivisions of the state.

(g) "Mobilization" means the process of providing, upon request and subject to availability, emergency resources beyond those available through existing interjurisdictional or mutual aid agreements in response to a request from a jurisdiction in which an emergency or disaster situation or local emergency incident that has exceeded or will exceed the capabilities of available local resources. The term includes the nonhost jurisdiction's authorization and approval for redistribution of resources either to direct emergency incident assignments or to assignment in communities where resources are needed to provide coverage when those communities' resources have been mobilized to assist other jurisdictions.

(h) "Mobilization plan" means the statewide all-hazards resource mobilization plan developed and utilized pursuant to this section.

(i) "Mobilization system" means the statewide all-hazards resource mobilization system created under this section, which system includes the mobilization plan and the technology and personnel necessary to mobilize resources according to the plan.

(j) "Mutual aid" means emergency interagency assistance rendered pursuant to an agreement between the jurisdictions rendering and receiving assistance.

(k) "Nonhost jurisdiction" means a jurisdiction providing disaster or emergency response resources to a host jurisdiction.

(l) "Unified command" has the meaning set forth in section 29-22.5-102 (8), C.R.S.

(3) Powers and duties. (a) The director shall develop and maintain a statewide all-hazards resource mobilization plan that sets forth procedures for mobilization, allocation, deployment, coordination, tracking, cost accounting, and demobilization of resources during disasters and other large-scale emergencies and local incidents that require more resources than those available under any existing interjurisdictional or mutual aid agreement. In developing the mobilization plan, the director shall consult with and solicit recommendations from the homeland security and all-hazards senior advisory committee created in section 24-33.5-1614 and other appropriate representatives of state, tribal, and local governmental and private sector emergency management organizations. The director shall ensure that the mobilization plan is consistent with, and incorporated into, the Colorado state emergency operations plan.
(b) (I) The executive director is responsible for implementing the mobilization plan, coordinating the mobilization of resources, and making a determination as to post-mobilization reimbursement to state and nonhost jurisdictions, in accordance with this section, other applicable laws, and the mobilization plan, when the executive director determines it is necessary to do so to protect life, property, the environment, and cultural and economic resources.

(II) The executive director shall serve as state resource mobilization liaison when the mobilization plan is implemented.

4 Mobilization. (a) (I) The executive director may order the implementation of the state resource mobilization plan pursuant to this section only if he or she receives a request to do so from the governor, sheriff, emergency manager, or other authorized person identified in the state resource mobilization plan.

(II) The executive director shall grant a mobilization request made pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) if the executive director determines that the request is in response to a large-scale emergency, disaster, or other local incident that exceeds or will exceed the capabilities of available local resources and those resources available through existing mutual aid agreements.

(III) Upon receiving a request for mobilization and finding that the request complies with the approval requirements established in the mobilization plan and that either the local jurisdiction has exhausted or will exhaust all available resources, or that the complexity or severity of the incident requires resources not otherwise available to the local jurisdiction, the executive director shall determine whether to implement mobilization in accordance with the mobilization plan. If so, the executive director shall mobilize state and nonhost jurisdictions in accordance with the mobilization plan.

(IV) The executive director may consider resources that have already been deployed to address an incident to be mobilized for the purpose of reimbursement or cost-sharing under the mobilization plan.

(b) Upon and for the duration of mobilization:

(I) The executive director shall serve as a resource mobilization liaison to the local unified coordination group, incident commander, or the host jurisdiction's disaster agency under unified command to support the mobilization effort consistent with the incident command system and mobilization plan and procedures;

(II) The resources, including those of the host jurisdiction and those of nonhost jurisdictions that responded earlier under an existing interjurisdictional or mutual aid or other agreement, may remain mobilized, based on capability to do so and pursuant to agreement between the executive director, the incident commander, and the host jurisdiction or nonhost jurisdiction that provided the resources;

(III) The reassignment or reallocation of resources due to multiple concurrent incidents or other situations of resource scarcity shall be prioritized pursuant to the policies and procedures specified in the mobilization plan.

(IV) Any limits on or exemption from liability to which the jurisdictions providing resources in response to a mobilization effected under this section are entitled under law apply as though the jurisdictions were operating under their normal statutory authorities within their jurisdictional boundaries.
(c) The executive director, in consultation with the local incident commander, shall determine when mobilization is no longer required and, at that time, shall declare the end to the mobilization.

(5) Reimbursement. (a) The director, in consultation with the office of state planning and budgeting created in section 24-37-102, shall develop procedures to facilitate reimbursement to state agencies and jurisdictions from appropriate federal and state funds when state agencies and jurisdictions are mobilized by the executive director pursuant to the mobilization plan. The director shall ensure that these procedures provide reimbursement in as timely a manner as possible.

(b) (I) In order to be eligible for support under the mobilization plan, a jurisdiction must be mobilized pursuant to subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section and must be participating in an interjurisdictional or mutual aid agreement entered into pursuant to this part 7.

(II) All mobilized nonhost jurisdictions are eligible for expense reimbursement from the time of the mobilization declaration through demobilization.

(6) Resource mobilization fund. (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the resource mobilization fund, which fund shall be administered by the executive director, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), to provide reimbursement to state agencies and jurisdictions mobilized by the executive director pursuant to this section. The executive director is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. The fund consists of all moneys that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly, moneys that may be transferred pursuant to section 24-33.5-706 (4.5), and all private and public funds received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. All interest earned from the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes indicated in this section. Any moneys not expended at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(b) The executive director shall use the moneys in the resource mobilization fund to provide reimbursement to state agencies and jurisdictions for incidents in accordance with the terms of the mobilization plan.

(c) Repealed.

(7) (a) Nothing in this section limits the powers of the governor during a disaster under 24-33.5-704.

(b) Except as expressly provided in this section, nothing in this section limits the eligibility of any nonhost jurisdiction for reimbursement of expenses incurred in providing resources for mobilization.

(c) Nothing in this section precludes a state or local governmental entity from seeking public assistance funding pursuant to the federal "Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act", as amended, 42 U.S.C. sec. 5121 et seq.

24-33.5-705.5. Auxiliary emergency communications unit - powers and duties of unit and office of emergency management regarding auxiliary communications - definitions. (1) As used in this section:

(a) "Auxiliary emergency communicator" means an amateur radio operator licensed by the United States federal communications commission pursuant to 47 CFR 97 who meets the training requirements and is credentialed by the office. An auxiliary emergency communicator meeting the requirements of this paragraph (a) serves as an authorized volunteer of the office for purposes of article 10 of this title.

(b) "Division" means the division of homeland security and emergency management created in section 24-33.5-1603.

(c) "Office" means the office of emergency management created in section 24-33.5-705 (1)(a).

(d) "Unit" means the auxiliary emergency communications unit of the office.

(2) The auxiliary emergency communications unit is hereby established within the office. The unit is in the charge of the director of the office.

(3) The unit has the following powers and duties:

(a) Establish programs for the training and credentialing of auxiliary emergency communicators across the state, which training and credentialing is declared to be a matter of statewide concern. In connection with such training and credentialing, the use of the term "auxiliary emergency communications" within the state is limited to individuals, entities, associations, and units of local government that have been certified by the director of the office as meeting the training and credentialing requirements established by the department for auxiliary emergency communicators.

(b) Assume all of the duties and possess all of the authority and responsibilities of the radio amateur civil emergency service, referred to in this section as "RACES", 47 CFR 97.407, within the state. Any reference to RACES in any federal law or regulation, and any federal, state, or local government emergency or disaster plans is to be interpreted as referring to the unit, and the unit is the successor entity to any state RACES organization referenced in any such law, regulation, or plan. No other individual, entity, association, or government agency may represent that it is a state RACES organization.

(c) Ensure that auxiliary emergency communicators are authorized volunteers entitled to the protections and benefits of part 8 of this article when assisting with the installation, maintenance, or demolition of communication facilities of any county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency, whether or not such activities occur during a disaster; except that the provisions of sections 24-33.5-825 and 24-33.5-826 do not apply to a training exercise, drill, or class without the express prior consent and approval of the volunteer's employer.

(4) In connection with the powers and duties of the unit as specified in this section, the director of the office may:

(a) Develop and issue a credential that is recognized throughout the state for the purpose of granting access to government facilities, incident command posts, and disaster scenes;
(b) Conduct criminal background investigations on candidates for credentialing as auxiliary emergency communicators in accordance with the security needs of the department. The unit may deny credentialing to any candidate based upon the results of that background check.

(c) Reimburse auxiliary emergency communicators for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, including projects, training, drills, exercises, and disaster response activities;

(d) Expend state moneys, including but not limited to grant moneys or moneys otherwise budgeted to the office, to enhance the communication infrastructure as necessary to supplement or reinforce the existing amateur radio systems and networks within the state for the purposes of maximizing disaster preparedness and response.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1040, see section 1 of chapter 233, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-33.5-706. Disaster emergency fund - established - financing - legislative intent - repeal. (1) It is the intent of the general assembly and declared to be the policy of the state that funds to meet disaster emergencies shall always be available.

(2) (a) A disaster emergency fund is hereby established. The fund consists of any moneys appropriated by the general assembly, moneys transferred pursuant to subsections (2.5) and (4)(b) of this section, and moneys to reimburse expenditures from the fund that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. Moneys in the disaster emergency fund shall remain in the fund until expended or until transferred pursuant to subsection (2.5)(c), (4.3), or (4.5) of this section.

(b) Repealed.

(2.5) (a) The 2013 flood recovery account is hereby created in the disaster emergency fund. The account consists of money transferred in accordance with subsection (2.5)(b) of this section and any money that the general assembly specifically appropriates to the account. The money that is transferred or appropriated to the account is to be used for the costs associated with the response and recovery from the flood that occurred in the state in 2013. The governor shall not use the money in the account for any other purpose.

(b) On July 1, 2017, the state treasurer shall transfer twelve million five hundred thousand dollars from the general fund to the 2013 flood recovery account in the disaster emergency fund.

(c) This subsection (2.5) is repealed, effective June 30, 2021. The state treasurer shall transfer any unexpended money remaining in the 2013 flood recovery account as of that date to the general fund.

(3) The council shall review in detail each expenditure of disaster emergency moneys.

(4) (a) It is the legislative intent that first recourse be to funds regularly appropriated to state and local agencies. If the governor finds that the demands placed upon these funds in coping with a particular disaster are unreasonably great, the governor may, with the concurrence of the council, make funds available from the disaster emergency fund.
(b) If moneys available from the disaster emergency fund are insufficient, the governor, with the concurrence of the council, may transfer to the fund and expend moneys appropriated for other purposes.

(4.3) If the disaster emergency fund is credited with reimbursements of moneys previously expended to cope with a particular disaster, to the extent that all or a portion of those moneys were transferred and expended by the governor pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, the governor may transfer moneys to the funds as repayment for the amounts the governor originally transferred from said funds to the disaster emergency fund.

(4.5) (a) The governor may, from time to time as the governor deems necessary based on his or her determination that a disaster emergency is imminent, direct the state treasurer to transfer, and the state treasurer shall transfer, moneys from the disaster emergency fund to the resource mobilization fund created in section 24-33.5-705.4 (6).

(b) The governor may, from time to time as the governor deems necessary based on his or her determination that a wildfire-related disaster emergency is imminent, direct the state treasurer to transfer, and the state treasurer shall transfer, moneys from the disaster emergency fund to the wildfire emergency response fund created in section 24-33.5-1226 (1).

(5) The director of the division of homeland security and emergency management is authorized to establish, pursuant to article 4 of this title, the rules and regulations which will govern the reimbursement of funds to state agencies and political subdivisions and to promulgate such regulations.

(6) Nothing in this section limits the governor's authority to apply for, administer, and expend grants, gifts, or payments in aid of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, or recovery.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-32-2106 as it existed prior to 2012.

(2) Amendments to subsection (2)(a) by Senate Bill 13-270 and House Bill 13-1282 were harmonized.

(3) Section 10(2)(b) of chapter 250, Session Laws of Colorado 2013, provides that amendments to subsection (4.5) take effect upon passage or the effective date of House Bill 13-1031, whichever is later, only if House Bill 13-1031 becomes law. Senate Bill 13-270 (chapter 250) was signed by the governor on May 23, 2013, and House Bill 13-1031 was signed by the governor on June 5, 2013.

24-33.5-707. Local and interjurisdictional disaster agencies and services. (1) Each political subdivision is within the jurisdiction of and served by the office of emergency management and by a local or interjurisdictional agency responsible for disaster preparedness and coordination of response.

(2) Each county shall maintain a disaster agency or participate in a local or interjurisdictional disaster agency which, except as otherwise provided under this part 7, has jurisdiction over and serves the entire county.

(3) The governor shall determine which municipal corporations need disaster agencies of their own and require that they be established and maintained. The governor shall make such determination on the basis of the municipality's disaster vulnerability and capability of response related to population size and concentration. The disaster agency of a county shall cooperate with the disaster agencies of municipalities situated within its borders but shall not have jurisdiction within a municipality having its own disaster agency. The office of emergency management shall publish and keep current a list of municipalities required to have disaster agencies under this subsection (3).

(4) The minimum composition of a disaster agency is a director or coordinator appointed and governed by the chief executive officer or governing body of the appointing jurisdiction.
The director or coordinator is responsible for the planning and coordination of the local disaster services.

(5) Any provision of this part 7 or other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the governor may require a political subdivision to establish and maintain a disaster agency jointly with one or more contiguous political subdivisions if the governor finds that the establishment and maintenance of an agency or participation therein is made necessary by circumstances or conditions that make it unusually difficult to provide disaster prevention, preparedness, response, or recovery services under other provisions of this part 7.

(6) Each political subdivision that does not have a disaster agency and has not made arrangements to secure or participate in the services of an agency shall have an elected official designated as liaison officer to facilitate the cooperation and protection of that subdivision in the work of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery.

(7) The mayor, chairman of the board of county commissioners, or other principal executive officer of each political subdivision in the state shall notify the office of emergency management of the manner in which the political subdivision is providing or securing disaster planning and emergency services, identify the person who heads the agency from which the services are obtained, and furnish additional information relating thereto as the office of emergency management requires.

(8) Each local and interjurisdictional disaster agency shall prepare and keep current a local or interjurisdictional disaster emergency plan for its area.

(9) The local or interjurisdictional disaster agency, as the case may be, shall prepare and distribute to all appropriate officials in written form a clear and complete statement of the emergency responsibilities of all local agencies and officials and of the disaster chain of command.

(10) The sheriff of each county shall:
(a) Be the official responsible for coordination of all search and rescue operations within the sheriff's jurisdiction;
(b) Make use of the search and rescue capability and resources available within the county and request assistance from the office of emergency management only when and if the sheriff determines such additional assistance is required.
When authorized by the governor and executive director and approved by the director of the office of emergency management, expenses incurred in meeting contingencies and emergencies arising from search and rescue operations may be reimbursed from the disaster emergency fund.

Any person providing information to a local or interjurisdictional disaster agency may request, in writing, that such information be disseminated only to persons connected with or involved in the preparation, update, or implementation of any disaster emergency plan, and said information shall thereafter not be released to any person without the expressed written consent of the person providing the information.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2107 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-708. Establishment of interjurisdictional disaster planning and service area.

(1) If the governor finds that two or more adjoining counties would be better served by an interjurisdictional arrangement than by maintaining separate disaster agencies and services, the governor may delineate by executive order an interjurisdictional area adequate to plan for, prevent, or respond to disaster in that area and direct steps to be taken as necessary, including the creation of an interjurisdictional relationship, a joint disaster emergency plan, mutual aid, or an area organization for emergency planning and services.

(2) A finding of the governor pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be based on one or more factors related to the difficulty of maintaining an efficient and effective disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery system on a separate basis, such as:
   (a) Small or sparse population;
   (b) Limitations on public financial resources severe enough to make maintenance of a separate disaster agency and services unreasonably burdensome;
   (c) Unusual vulnerability to disaster as evidenced by a past history of disasters, topographical features, drainage characteristics, disaster potential, and presence of disaster-prone facilities or operations;
   (d) The interrelated character of the counties in a multicounty area; and
   (e) Other relevant conditions or circumstances.

(3) If the governor finds that a vulnerable area lies only partly within this state and includes territory in another state or territory in a foreign jurisdiction and that it would be desirable to establish an interstate or international relationship or mutual aid or an area organization for disaster, the governor shall take steps to that end as desirable. If this action is taken with jurisdictions that have enacted the interstate civil defense and disaster compact, any resulting agreements may be considered supplemental agreements pursuant to article VI of such compact.

(4) If the other jurisdictions with which the governor proposes to cooperate pursuant to subsection (3) of this section have not enacted the interstate civil defense and disaster compact, the governor may negotiate special agreements with such jurisdictions. Any agreement, if sufficient authority for the making thereof does not otherwise exist, becomes effective only after its text has been communicated to the general assembly and if neither house of the general assembly has disapproved it before adjournment sine die of the next ensuing session competent to consider it or within thirty days of its submission, whichever is longer.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2108 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-709. Local disaster emergencies. (1) A local disaster may be declared only by the principal executive officer of a political subdivision. It shall not be continued or renewed for a period in excess of seven days except by or with the consent of the governing board of the political subdivision. Any order or proclamation declaring, continuing, or terminating a local disaster emergency shall be given prompt and general publicity and shall be filed promptly with the county clerk and recorder, city clerk, or other authorized record-keeping agency and with the office of emergency management.

(2) The effect of a declaration of a local disaster emergency is to activate the response and recovery aspects of any and all applicable local and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans and to authorize the furnishing of aid and assistance under such plans.

(3) No interjurisdictional disaster agency or official thereof may declare a local disaster emergency unless expressly authorized by the agreement pursuant to which the agency functions. An interjurisdictional disaster agency shall provide aid and services in accordance with the agreement pursuant to which it functions.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2109 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-710. Disaster prevention. (1) In addition to disaster prevention measures as included in the state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans, the governor shall consider steps that could be taken on a continuing basis to prevent or reduce the harmful consequences of disasters. At the governor's direction, and pursuant to any other authority and competence they have, state agencies, including those charged with responsibilities in connection with floodplain management, stream encroachment and flow regulation, weather modification, fire prevention and control, air quality, public works, land use and land-use planning, and construction standards, shall make studies of matters related to disaster prevention. The governor and the executive director, from time to time, shall make recommendations to the general assembly, local governments, and such other appropriate public and private entities as may facilitate measures for prevention or reduction of the harmful consequences of disasters.

(2) All state departments, in conjunction with the office of emergency management, shall conduct studies and adopt measures to reduce the impact of, and actions contributory to, a disaster. The studies shall concentrate on means of reducing or avoiding the dangers caused by such occurrences or the consequences thereof.

(3) If the office of emergency management believes, on the basis of the studies or other competent evidence, that an area is susceptible to a disaster of catastrophic proportions without adequate warning, that existing building standards and land-use controls in that area are inadequate and could add substantially to the magnitude of the disaster, and that changes in zoning regulations, other land-use regulations, or building requirements are essential in order to further the purposes of this section, it shall specify the essential changes to the executive director and to the governor. If the governor, upon review of the recommendations, finds after public hearing that the changes are essential, the governor shall so recommend to the agencies or local governments with jurisdictions over the area and subject matter. If no action or insufficient action pursuant to the governor's recommendations is taken within the time specified by the governor, the governor shall so inform the general assembly and request legislative action appropriate to mitigate the impact of disaster.

(4) The governor, at the same time that the governor makes recommendations pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, may suspend the standard or control which the governor finds to be inadequate to protect the public safety and by regulation place a new standard or control in effect. The new standard or control shall remain in effect until rejected by joint resolution of both houses of the general assembly or amended by the governor. During the time it is in effect, the standard or control contained in the governor's regulation shall be administered and given full effect by all relevant regulatory agencies of the state and local governments to which it applies. The governor's action is subject to judicial review but shall not be subject to temporary stay pending litigation.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2110 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-711. Compensation - liability when combating grasshopper infestation. (1) Each person within this state shall conduct himself or herself and keep and manage such person's affairs and property in ways that will reasonably assist and will not unreasonably detract from the ability of the state and the public successfully to meet disasters or emergencies. This obligation includes appropriate personal service and use or restriction on the use of property in time of disaster emergency. This part 7 neither increases nor decreases these obligations but recognizes their existence under the constitution and statutes of this state and the common law. Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that the obligations recognized in this subsection (1) are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant has not volunteered such claimant's services or property without compensation.

(2) No personal services may be compensated by the state or any subdivision or agency thereof, except pursuant to statute or local law or ordinance.

(3) Compensation for property shall be made only if the property was commandeered or otherwise used in coping with a disaster emergency and its use or destruction was ordered by the governor or a member of the disaster emergency forces of this state.

(5) Nothing in this section applies to or authorizes compensation for the destruction or damaging of standing timber or other property in order to provide a firebreak or applies to the release of waters or the breach of impoundments in order to reduce pressure or other danger from actual or threatened flood.

(6) The state and its agencies and political subdivisions and the officers and employees of the state and its agencies and political subdivisions shall not be liable for any claim based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform an act relating to the combating of grasshopper infestation of this state except for negligence or willful disregard of the rights of others, and then only to the extent of one hundred thousand dollars for any injury to or damage suffered by one person and the sum of three hundred thousand dollars for an injury to or damage suffered by two or more persons in any single occurrence; except that, in such latter instance, no person may recover in excess of one hundred thousand dollars. This subsection (6) is the total extent of liability of the state and its agencies and political subdivisions and the officers and employees of the state and its agencies and political subdivisions with regard to the combating of grasshopper infestation of the state and abrogates any common-law cause of action thereto. Except to the extent of insurance coverage, no person acting as a contractor with the state or any of its political subdivisions, or any officer or employee of such contractor, shall be liable on any claim alleging strict liability on contract or tort for actions taken relating to combating grasshopper infestation of the state under this part 7 or under House Bill No. 1001, enacted at the second extraordinary session of the fifty-first general assembly in 1978.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2111 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-711.5. Governor's expert emergency epidemic response committee - compensation - liability

(1) Neither the state nor the members of the expert emergency epidemic response committee designated or appointed pursuant to section 24-33.5-704 (8) are liable for any claim based upon the committee's advice to the governor or the alleged negligent exercise or performance of, or failure to exercise or perform an act relating to an emergency epidemic. Liability against a member of the committee may be found only for wanton or willful misconduct or willful disregard of the best interests of protecting and maintaining the public health. Damages awarded on the basis of such liability shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars for any injury to or damage suffered by one person or three hundred thousand dollars for an injury to or damage suffered by three or more persons in the course of an emergency epidemic.

(2) The conduct and management of the affairs and property of each hospital, physician, health insurer or managed health care organization, health care provider, public health worker, or emergency medical service provider shall be such that they will reasonably assist and not unreasonably detract from the ability of the state and the public to successfully control emergency epidemics that are declared a disaster emergency. Such persons and entities that in good faith comply completely with board of health rules regarding the emergency epidemic and with executive orders regarding the disaster emergency shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for any action taken to comply with the executive order or rule.
(3) No personal services may be compensated by the state or any subdivision or agency of the state, except pursuant to statute or local law or ordinance.

(4) Compensation for property shall be made only if the property was commandeered or otherwise used in coping with an emergency epidemic that is declared by the governor or a member of the disaster emergency forces of this state.

(5) The amount of compensation shall be calculated in the same manner as compensation due for taking of property pursuant to eminent domain procedures, as provided in articles 1 to 7 of title 38, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2111.5 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-712. Telecommunications - intent. The state telecommunications director, working in coordination with the division of homeland security and emergency management, shall ascertain what means exist for rapid and efficient telecommunications in times of disaster emergencies. Operational characteristics of the available systems of telecommunications shall be evaluated by the office, and recommendations for modifications shall be made to the state telecommunications director. It is the intent of this section that adequate means of telecommunications be available for use during disaster emergencies.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2112 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-713. Mutual aid. (1) Political subdivisions not participating in interjurisdictional arrangements pursuant to this part 7 nevertheless shall be encouraged and assisted by the office of emergency management to conclude suitable arrangements for furnishing mutual aid in coping with disasters. The arrangements shall include provision of aid by persons and units in public employ.

(2) In passing upon local disaster plans, the governor shall consider whether such plans contain adequate provisions for the rendering and receipt of mutual aid.

(3) It is a sufficient reason for the governor to require an interjurisdictional agreement or arrangement pursuant to section 24-33.5-708 that the area involved and political subdivisions therein have available equipment, supplies, and forces necessary to provide mutual aid on a regional basis and that the political subdivisions have not already made adequate provision for mutual aid; except that, in requiring the making of an interjurisdictional arrangement to accomplish the purpose of this section, the governor need not require establishment and maintenance of an interjurisdictional agency or arrangement for any other disaster purposes.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2113 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-714. Weather modification. The office of emergency management shall keep continuously apprised of weather conditions that present danger of precipitation or other climatic activity severe enough to constitute a disaster. If the office of emergency management determines that precipitation that may result from weather modification operations, either by itself or in conjunction with other precipitation or climatic conditions or activity, would create or contribute to the severity of a disaster, it shall recommend to the executive director of the department of natural resources, empowered to issue permits for weather modification operations under article 20 of title 36, C.R.S., to warn those organizations or agencies engaged in weather modification to suspend their operations until the danger has passed or recommend that said executive director modify the terms of any permit as may be necessary.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2114 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-715. Merit system. In accordance with section 13 (4) of article XII of the state constitution, the state personnel board may provide personnel services pursuant to contract to civil defense employees of the political subdivisions of the state, except where such employees are covered by another federally approved merit system.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2115 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-716. Interoperable communications among public safety radio systems - statewide plan - regional plans - governmental immunity - needs assessment - definitions. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (a) "Interoperable communications" means the ability of public safety agencies in various disciplines and jurisdictions to communicate on demand and in real time by voice or data using compatible radio communication systems or other technology.
   (b) "Public safety agency" means an agency providing law enforcement, fire protection, emergency medical, or emergency response services.
   (c) "Region" means an all-hazards emergency management region established by executive order of the governor.

   (2) The executive director of the department of local affairs shall transfer to the executive director the tactical and long-term interoperable communications plan developed pursuant to former section 24-32-1116, as said section existed on June 30, 2012, to improve the ability of the public safety agencies of state government to communicate with public safety agencies of the federal government, regions, local governments, and other states. The executive director shall update and revise the plan no less than once every three years. The plan shall include measures to create and periodically test interoperability interfaces, provisions for training on communications systems and exercises on the implementation of the plan, and deadlines for implementation.

(3) (a) The executive director of the department of local affairs shall transfer to the executive director the tactical and long-term interoperable communications plan, adopted by each region pursuant to former section 24-32-1116, as said section existed on June 30, 2012, to improve communications among public safety agencies in the region and with public safety agencies of other regions, the state and federal governments, and other states. The plans shall include measures to create and periodically test interoperability interfaces, provisions for training on communications systems and exercises on the implementation of the plan, a strategy for integrating with the state digital trunked radio system, deadlines for implementation, and other elements required by the executive director. Each region shall submit to the executive director revised plans as such are updated.

(b) Each local government agency or private entity that operates a public safety radio system shall collaborate in the development and, as necessary, periodic revision of the tactical and long-term interoperable communications plan of the region in which it is located. Such tactical plans, and revisions thereto, shall be submitted to the executive director.

(c) A region that timely fails to submit a tactical and long-term interoperable communications plan or revisions thereto, or a local government agency that fails to collaborate in the development of or timely submit the plan, or a region or local government agency that fails to maintain current plans, shall be ineligible to receive homeland security or public safety grant moneys administered by the department of local affairs, department of public safety, or department of public health and environment until the region submits a plan to the executive director.

(4) A public safety agency shall not expend moneys received through the department on a mobile data communication system unless the system is capable of interoperable communications.

(5) The executive director shall not require a public safety agency to acquire the communications equipment of a particular manufacturer or provider as a condition of awarding grant moneys administered by the department.

(6) A public safety agency or an employee of a public safety agency acting in collaboration with another agency or person to create and operate an interoperable communications system shall have the same degree of immunity under the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title, as the public safety agency or employee would have if not acting in collaboration with another agency or person.

(7) Repealed.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-32-2116 as it existed prior to 2012.

(2) Subsection (7)(c) provided for the repeal of subsection (7), effective July 1, 2016. (See L. 2014, p. 1925.)
PART 8

COMPENSATION BENEFITS TO VOLUNTEER CIVIL DEFENSE WORKERS

Editor's note: This part 8 was added in 1983. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 8 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act recreating and reenacting this part 8, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-801. Legislative declaration. It is the policy and purpose of this part 8 to provide a means of compensating volunteer civil defense workers who may suffer any injury as defined in section 24-33.5-802(6) as a result of participation in civil defense service.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2201 as it existed prior to 2012.

(1) "Accredited local organization for civil defense" means a local organization for civil defense that is certified by the office of emergency management as conforming with the "Plan and Program for the Civil Defense of this State" prepared by the governor of Colorado or under the governor's direction. A local organization for civil defense remains accredited only while the certificate of the Colorado state civil defense agency is in effect and is not revoked.

(1.5) "Adjusting agent" means the third-party workers' compensation insurer with which the office of emergency management contracts, in accordance with section 24-33.5-809, for the adjustment and disposition of claims and provision of compensation pursuant to this part 8.

(2) "Civil defense service" means all activities authorized by and carried on pursuant to the provisions of the "Colorado Disaster Emergency Act", part 7 of this article, including training necessary or proper to engage in such activities.

(3) "Civil defense worker" means any natural person who is registered with the office of emergency management or with a local organization for civil defense for the purpose of engaging in civil defense service pursuant to the provisions of this part 8 without pay or other consideration or is a physician, health care provider, public health worker, or emergency medical service provider who is ordered by the governor or a member of the disaster emergency forces of this state to provide specific medical or public health services during and related to an emergency epidemic and who complies with such an order without pay or other consideration.

(4) "Disaster" has the meaning set forth in section 24-33.5-703.

(5) "Emergency volunteer service" means all activities authorized and carried out by a volunteer who is a member of a qualified volunteer organization as directed by a county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency in the event of disaster or during a training exercise, drill, or class conducted in preparation for a disaster, which exercise, drill, or class is organized or under the direction of such county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency.

(6) "Injury" means and includes all accidental injuries and all occupational diseases recognized and compensated by the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S., as well as any illness that is caused by an emergency epidemic declared to be a disaster emergency.

(7) "Local emergency planning committee" means a committee that meets the criteria specified in section 24-33.5-1504.

(8) "Local organization for civil defense" means a public agency which is empowered to register and direct the activities of civil defense workers within the area of the county or city or any part thereof and is thus, because of such registration and direction, acting as an instrumentality of the state in aid of the carrying out of the general governmental functions and policy of the state and includes a local organization for civil defense established by ordinance.

(9) "Qualified volunteer" means a volunteer who meets the criteria specified in section 24-33.5-824 (1).

(10) "Volunteer" means a volunteer who is a member of a volunteer organization and provides volunteer services through the organization in the event of a disaster.

(11) "Volunteer organization" means an organization that provides emergency services on a state or local level pursuant to this part 22.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2202 as it existed prior to 2012.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1040, see section 1 of chapter 233, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-33.5-803. Compensation for injury limited. Except as provided in this part 8, a civil defense worker and such civil defense worker's dependents have no right to receive compensation from the state, from the office of emergency management, from the local organization for civil defense with which such civil defense worker is registered, or from the county or city which has empowered the local organization for civil defense to register such civil defense worker and direct such civil defense worker's activities for an injury arising out of and occurring in the course of such civil defense worker's activities as a civil defense worker.
24-33.5-804. Compensation provided is exclusive. Compensation provided by this part 8, as limited by this part 8, is the exclusive remedy of a civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents for injury or death arising out of and in the course of such civil defense worker's activities as a civil defense worker as against the state, the office of emergency management, the local organization for civil defense with which such civil defense worker is registered, and the county or city that has empowered the local organization for civil defense to register such civil defense worker and direct such civil defense worker's activities. Liability for the compensation provided by this part 8, as limited by this part 8, is in lieu of any other liability whatsoever to a civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents or any other person on the part of the state, the office of emergency management, the local organization for civil defense with which the civil defense worker is registered, and the county or city that has empowered the local organization for civil defense to register such civil defense worker and direct such civil defense worker's activities for injury or death arising out of and in the course of such civil defense worker's activities as a civil defense worker.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2204 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-805. Compensation for death or injury. (1) Compensation shall be furnished to a civil defense worker either within or without the state for any injury arising out of and occurring in the course of such civil defense worker's activities as a civil defense worker and for the death of any such worker if the injury proximately causes death in those cases where the following conditions occur:

(a) Where, at the time of the injury, the civil defense worker is performing services as a civil defense worker and is acting within the course of such civil defense worker's duties as a civil defense worker;

(b) Where, at the time of the injury, the local organization for civil defense with which the civil defense worker is registered is an accredited local organization for civil defense. If the civil defense worker is registered with the office of emergency management and is at the time of the injury performing services for said office and is acting within the course of such civil defense worker's duties as a civil defense worker for said office, registration with an accredited local organization for civil defense is not required.

(c) Where the injury is proximately caused by such civil defense worker's service as a civil defense worker, either with or without negligence;

(d) Where the injury is not caused by the intoxication of the injured civil defense worker;

(e) Where the injury is not intentionally self-inflicted.
24-33.5-806. Benefits limited to appropriation. No compensation or benefits shall be paid or furnished to civil defense workers or their dependents pursuant to this part 8 except from moneys appropriated for the purpose of furnishing compensation and benefits to civil defense workers and their dependents. Liability for the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits is dependent upon and limited to the availability of moneys so appropriated.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2205 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-806.5. Auxiliary emergency communications unit of the office of emergency management - qualified volunteers - protections and benefits. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part 8, any credentialed member of the auxiliary emergency communications unit of the office of emergency management created by section 24-33.5-705 (1) is a qualified volunteer for purposes of this part 8 and article 10 of this title and is eligible to receive the protections and benefits specified in this part 8 and in article 10 of this title.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1040, see section 1 of chapter 233, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-33.5-807. Benefits depend on reserve. After all moneys appropriated are expended or set aside in bookkeeping reserves for the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits and reimbursing the adjusting agent for its services, the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits for an injury to a civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents is dependent upon there having been a reserve set up for the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits to such civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents for that injury, and liability is limited to the amount of the reserve. The excess in a reserve for the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits or for reimbursing the adjusting agent for its services may be transferred to reserves of other civil defense workers for the payment or furnishing of compensation and benefits and reimbursing the adjusting agent fund or may be used to set up reserves for other civil defense workers.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2207 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-808. Workers' compensation law applies. Insofar as not inconsistent with this part 8, the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado" applies to civil defense workers and their dependents and to the furnishing of compensation and medical, dental, and funeral benefits to them or their dependents. "Employee", as used in said act, includes a civil defense worker when liability for the furnishing of the compensation and benefits exists pursuant to this part 8 and as limited by this part 8. Where liability for compensation and benefits exists, such compensation and benefits shall be provided in accordance with the applicable provisions of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado" and at the maximum rate provided therein, subject to the limitations set forth in this part 8.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2208 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-809. Agreement for disposition of claims. The office of emergency management and the adjusting agent shall enter into an agreement requiring the adjusting agent to adjust and dispose of claims and furnish compensation to civil defense workers and their dependents. The agreement must authorize the adjusting agent to make all expenditures, including payments to claimants for compensation or for the adjustment or settlement of claims. Nothing in this part 8 means that the adjusting agent or its officers or agents have the final decision with respect to the compensability of any case or the amount of compensation or benefits due. Any civil defense worker or the civil defense worker's dependents have the same right to hearings before the division of labor standards and statistics in the department of labor and employment and its referees, and to appeal from awards of the division and referees to the industrial claim appeals panel and to the courts, as is provided in the hearing and review procedures of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", article 43 of title 8, C.R.S., subject to the limitations prescribed in this part 8.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2209 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-810. Reimbursement of fund. The agreement entered into pursuant to section 24-33.5-809 shall provide that the adjusting agent shall be reimbursed for its expenditures made as adjusting agent and for the cost of services rendered, which reimbursement shall be made out of moneys appropriated for the purpose of furnishing compensation to civil defense workers. The reimbursement for cost of services rendered shall not exceed twelve and one-half percent of the total expenditures for medical and dental treatment and disability and death payments made by the adjusting agent in the adjustment of claims arising under this part 8. The agreement shall provide for the setting up of bookkeeping reserves in order that provisions may be made for the reimbursement of the adjusting agent and that liability for the payment or furnishing of compensation may be determined. The agreement shall also provide that the adjusting agent shall be notified promptly by the office of emergency management when a local organization for civil defense is certified as an accredited local organization for civil defense and when the certification is revoked.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2210 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-811. Parties to agreement. An accredited local organization for civil defense and the county, town, or city which has empowered the local organization for civil defense to register and direct activities of civil defense workers automatically become parties to the agreement entered into pursuant to section 24-33.5-809 upon the local organization for civil defense becoming an accredited local organization for civil defense.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2211 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-812. Other provisions of agreement. The agreement entered into pursuant to section 24-33.5-809 may also contain any other provision not inconsistent with this part 8 deemed necessary by the office of emergency management and the adjusting agent for the furnishing of compensation to civil defense workers and their dependents in accordance with the provisions of this part 8 and the services provided by the adjusting agent. The agreement may be modified by action of the office of emergency management and the adjusting agent.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2212 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-813. Power of recovery - use of recovered amounts. The adjusting agent may, in its own name or in the name of the office of emergency management, or both, do any and all things necessary to recover on behalf of the office of emergency management any and all amounts that an employer or insurance carrier might recover under section 8-41-203, C.R.S. All amounts so recovered shall be used for the furnishing of compensation benefits, and the agreement entered into pursuant to section 24-33.5-809 shall provide for the reimbursing of the adjusting agent for expenses incurred in recovering such amounts and the manner in which such amounts shall be applied to the furnishing of compensation.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2213 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-814. Federal benefits deducted. Should the United States government or any agent thereof, in accordance with any federal statute or rule or regulation, furnish monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief to civil defense workers or their dependents for injuries arising out of and occurring in the course of their activities as civil defense workers, the amount of compensation which any civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents are otherwise entitled to receive from the state of Colorado as provided in this part 8 shall be reduced by the amount of monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief such civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents have received and will receive from the United States or any agent thereof as a result of the injury.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2214 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-815. State medical aid denied - when. If, in addition to monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief, the United States government or any agent thereof furnishes medical, surgical, or hospital treatment or any combination thereof to an injured civil defense worker, such civil defense worker has no right to receive similar medical, surgical, or hospital treatment as provided in this part 8; except that the adjusting agent, as adjusting agent of the office of emergency management, may furnish medical, surgical, or hospital treatment as part of the compensation provided under this part 8.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2215 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-816. Medical benefits as part of compensation. If, in addition to monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief, the United States government or any agent thereof will reimburse a civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents for medical, surgical, or hospital treatment or any combination thereof furnished to such injured civil defense worker, the civil defense worker has no right to receive similar medical, surgical, or hospital treatment as provided in this part 8; except that the adjusting agent, as adjusting agent of the office of emergency management, may furnish medical, surgical, or hospital treatment as part of the compensation provided under this part 8 and apply to the United States government or its agent for the reimbursement that will be made to the civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents. As a condition to the furnishing of such medical, surgical, or hospital treatment, the adjusting agent shall require the civil defense worker and such civil defense worker's dependents to assign to the state of Colorado, for the purpose of reimbursing for any medical, surgical, or hospital treatment furnished or to be furnished by the state, any privilege or right the civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents may have to reimbursement from the United States government or any agent thereof.
24-33.5-817. State benefits barred - when. If the furnishing of compensation under this part 8 and the acts referred to in this part 8 to a civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents prevents such civil defense worker or such civil defense worker's dependents from receiving assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief under the provisions of a federal statute or rule or regulation, the civil defense worker and such civil defense worker's dependents have no right to and shall not receive any compensation from the state of Colorado under this part 8 and the acts referred to in this part 8 for any injury for which the United States government or any agent thereof will furnish assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief in the absence of the furnishing of compensation by the state of Colorado.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2217 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-818. Classes of workers - registration - duties. The division of homeland security and emergency management shall establish by rule various classes of civil defense workers and the scope of the duties of each class. The division of homeland security and emergency management shall also adopt rules prescribing the manner in which civil defense workers of each class are to be registered. All such rules shall be designed to facilitate the paying of workers' compensation.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2218 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-819. Accrediting local organization. Any local organization for civil defense that both agrees to follow the rules established by the division of homeland security and emergency management pursuant to this part 8 and substantially complies with such rules shall be certified by the division of homeland security and emergency management. Upon making the certification, not before, the local organization for civil defense becomes an accredited local organization for civil defense.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2219 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-820. Accredited status lost - when. If an accredited local organization for civil defense fails to comply with the rules of the division of homeland security and emergency management in any material degree, the division of homeland security and emergency management may revoke the certification, and upon the act of revocation the local organization for civil defense shall lose its accredited status. It may again become an accredited local organization for civil defense in the same manner as is provided for a local organization for civil defense that has not had its certificate revoked.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2220 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-821. Transfer of moneys. Not less often than once each ninety days, the treasurer of the state of Colorado, upon the written request of the adjusting agent, shall transfer to the account designated by the adjusting agent, from the sum appropriated by the general assembly for the payment of claims that may arise under this part 8, such sum as may be required to reimburse the adjusting agent in full for any sum theretofore paid by the adjusting agent on any claims arising under this part 8, together with any expense incurred by the adjusting agent in adjusting the same as provided in this part 8, and such amount as may be estimated by the adjusting agent as being necessary to carry said claims to maturity and ensure the full payment thereof. The requests of the adjusting agent from time to time for the transfer of moneys as provided in this section shall cite this part 8 as authority for such transfer and shall be made upon such form as the treasurer of the state of Colorado and the controller may prescribe or, in the absence of the prescribing of special forms, upon a voucher citing this part 8 as authority.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2221 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-822. County sheriff - local government - local emergency planning committee - memorandum of understanding with volunteer organizations. (1) Any county sheriff, the director of any local government, any local emergency planning committee, or any state agency may develop and enter into a memorandum of understanding with one or more volunteer organizations, including but not limited to the Colorado mounted rangers, to assist the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency in providing services as required.

(2) A memorandum of understanding between a county sheriff, a local government, a local emergency planning committee, or a state agency and a volunteer organization may include the following information:

(a) The circumstances under which the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency may request the services of the volunteer organization;
(b) The circumstances under which the volunteer organization may accept or refuse the request for assistance by the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency;

(c) The party that will be responsible for any costs incurred by the volunteer organization in the course of assisting the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency;

(d) The specific training or certification required for volunteers who are members of the volunteer organization to be authorized to assist the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency;

(e) The duration of the memorandum of understanding;

(f) Provisions for amending the memorandum of understanding; and

(g) Any other information deemed necessary by the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency or by the volunteer organization.

(3) If national or statewide training and certification standards exist for a certain organization or certain type of volunteer, the existing standards shall be used in a memorandum of understanding created pursuant to this section.

(4) The most current version of the state of Colorado intergovernmental agreement for emergency management may be used as the memorandum of understanding pursuant to this section.

(5) A member of the Colorado mounted rangers and any other volunteer organization lending assistance to a county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency pursuant to this section is an authorized volunteer for the purposes of article 10 of this title.

(6) The executive director of the department of public safety created in section 24-33.5-103, the director of the Colorado bureau of investigation created in section 24-33.5-401, the executive director of the department of corrections created in section 24-1-128.5, the division of emergency management created by part 21 of this article, the division of homeland security created in section 24-33.5-1603, and a county sheriff, police chief, town marshal, or any other law enforcement organization certified pursuant to the provisions of article 2.5 of title 16, C.R.S., who enters into a memorandum of understanding pursuant to this section with the Colorado mounted rangers or a member of the Colorado mounted rangers is solely responsible for, and in direct control of, the performance of any Colorado mounted ranger, including incurring any and all liabilities for misconduct, and is responsible for addressing any misconduct as if the Colorado mounted ranger was a full-time employee of the organization.

24-33.5-823. Qualified volunteer organization list - creation - nomination of organizations. (1) Any volunteer who is associated with a qualified volunteer organization pursuant to this section may be eligible to receive the protections and benefits specified in this part 8 and in article 10 of this title. The executive director of the department or the executive director's designee shall create and maintain a list of volunteer organizations that shall be known as the "qualified volunteer organization list".

(2) Any county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency may nominate a volunteer organization with which it enters into a memorandum of understanding pursuant to section 24-33.5-822 to be included on the qualified volunteer organization list created and maintained pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2223 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-824. Volunteers - provision of emergency services - protections - benefits. (1) A volunteer shall be allowed to receive the benefits and protections specified in this part 8 and pursuant to article 10 of this title if the volunteer is determined to be a qualified volunteer pursuant to this section. A volunteer shall be deemed a qualified volunteer if:

(a) The volunteer is a member of a volunteer organization that enters into a memorandum of understanding with a county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency pursuant to section 24-33.5-822;

(b) The volunteer organization of which the volunteer is a member is included on the qualified volunteer organization list created and maintained by the department pursuant to section 24-33.5-823;

(c) The volunteer is called to service through the volunteer organization under the authority of the county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency to volunteer in a disaster or during a training exercise, drill, or class conducted in preparation for a disaster, which exercise, drill, or class is organized or under the direction of such county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency; except that the provisions of sections 24-33.5-825 and 24-33.5-826 do not apply to a training exercise, drill, or class without the express prior consent and approval of the volunteer's employer; and

(d) The volunteer receives the appropriate verification pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The executive director of the department or the executive director's designee shall create a system whereby a volunteer may obtain proof to provide to his or her employer that specifies:

(a) The volunteer was called to service by a volunteer organization for the purpose of assisting in a disaster or during a training exercise, drill, or class conducted in preparation for a disaster, which exercise, drill, or class is organized or under the direction of such county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency; except that the provisions of sections 24-33.5-825 and 24-33.5-826 do not apply to a training exercise, drill, or class without the express prior consent and approval of the volunteer's employer;

(b) The volunteer reported for service and performed the activities required of him or her by the volunteer organization; and

(c) The number of days of service that the volunteer provided.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2224 as it existed prior to 2012.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1040, see section 1 of chapter 233, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-33.5-825. Qualified volunteers - leave of absence - public employees. (1) Any qualified volunteer who is an officer or employee of the state or of any political subdivision, municipal corporation, or other public agency of the state and who is called into service by a volunteer organization is entitled to a leave of absence from the qualified volunteer's employment for the time when the qualified volunteer is serving, without loss of pay, seniority, status, efficiency rating, vacation, sick leave, or other benefits. The leave without loss of pay that is allowed pursuant to this section shall not exceed a total of fifteen work days in any calendar year; except that such leave without loss of pay shall be allowed only if the required volunteer service is satisfactorily performed, which shall be presumed unless the contrary is established.

(2) The leave allowed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be allowed only if the qualified volunteer returns to his or her public position the next scheduled work day after being relieved from emergency volunteer service; except that leave shall be allowed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section if the employee is unable to return to work due to injury or circumstances beyond the employee's control and the employee notifies the employer as soon as practicable, but prior to the next scheduled work day.

(3) A state agency or any political subdivision, municipal corporation, or other public agency of the state may hire a temporary employee to fill a vacancy created by a leave of absence allowed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Upon returning from a leave of absence allowed pursuant to this section, a qualified volunteer is entitled to return to the same position and classification held by the qualified volunteer before the leave of absence for the emergency volunteer service or to the position, including the geographic location of the position, and classification that the qualified volunteer would have been entitled to if the qualified volunteer did not take a leave of absence for the emergency volunteer service.

(5) A qualified volunteer who is an officer or employee of the state or of any political subdivision, municipal corporation, or other public agency of the state, receiving a leave of absence pursuant to this section, and having rights in any state, municipal, or other public pension, retirement, or relief system shall retain all of the rights accrued up to the time of taking the leave and shall have all rights subsequently accruing under such system as if the qualified volunteer did not take the leave. Any increase in the amount of money benefits accruing with respect to the time of the leave is dependent upon the payment of any contributions or assessments, and the right to the increase is dependent upon the payment of contributions or assessments within a reasonable time after the termination of the leave and upon such terms as the authorities in charge of the system may prescribe.

(6) Notwithstanding this section, an employer shall not be required to provide leave pursuant to this section to more than twenty percent of the employer's employees on any work day.

(7) Notwithstanding this section, an employer shall not be required to allow leave pursuant to this section for any employee designated as an essential employee. For the purposes of this subsection (7), "essential employee" means an employee who the employer deems to be essential to the operation of the employer's daily enterprise and whose absence would likely cause the employer to suffer economic injury.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2225 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-826. Qualified volunteers - leave of absence - private employees. (1) Any qualified volunteer who is employed by a private employer and who is called into service by a volunteer organization for a disaster is entitled to a leave of absence from the qualified volunteer's employment, other than employment of a temporary nature, for the time when the qualified volunteer is serving. The leave allowed for a qualified volunteer pursuant to this section shall not exceed a total of fifteen work days in any calendar year, and the leave shall be allowed only if the volunteer is called into service for a disaster and provides proof that he or she is a qualified volunteer pursuant to section 24-33.5-824 (2).

(2) The leave of absence allowed pursuant to this section shall be construed as an absence with leave and without pay and shall not affect the qualified volunteer's rights to vacation, sick leave, bonus, advancement, or other employment benefits or advantages relating to and normally to be expected for the qualified volunteer's particular employment.

(3) The leave of absence pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be allowed only if the qualified volunteer returns to his or her employment as soon as practicable after being relieved from emergency volunteer service.

(4) The employer of a qualified volunteer who takes a leave of absence from employment to engage in emergency volunteer service shall, upon the qualified volunteer's completion of the emergency volunteer service, restore the qualified volunteer to the position the volunteer held prior to the leave of absence or to a similar position.

(5) Notwithstanding this section, an employer shall not be required to provide leave pursuant to this section to more than twenty percent of the employer's employees on any work day.

(6) Notwithstanding this section, an employer shall not be required to allow leave pursuant to this section for any employee designated as an essential employee. For the purposes of this subsection (6), "essential employee" means an employee who the employer deems to be essential to the operation of the employer's daily enterprise, whose absence would likely cause the employer to suffer economic injury, or whose duties include assisting in disaster recovery for the employer.

10, effective July 1.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2226 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-827. Procedures. (1) The office of emergency management shall create procedures for the administration of this part 8. The procedures shall include:
(a) A process for a county sheriff, local government, local emergency planning committee, or state agency to nominate a volunteer organization to be included on the qualified volunteer organization list pursuant to section 24-33.5-823; and (b) A process to verify that a qualified volunteer provided volunteer services during a disaster or an organized training exercise, drill, or class, and a method to allow the volunteer to provide proof of such service to his or her employer pursuant to section 24-33.5-824 (2).

10, effective July 1. L. 2016: (1)(b) amended, (HB 16-1040), ch. 233, p. 943, § 6, effective August 10.

24-33.5-828. Interpretation. (1) Nothing in this part 8 amends, suspends, supercedes, or otherwise modifies the protections provided to volunteer firefighters pursuant to section 31-30-1131, C.R.S.
(2) Nothing in this part 8 affects any preexisting intergovernmental agreement regarding emergency management or any other issue.

10, effective July 1.

PART 9

CIVIL DEFENSE LIABILITY - PUBLIC OR PRIVATE

Editor's note: This part 9 was added in 1983. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 9 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act recreating and reenacting this part 9, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-901. Short title. This part 9 shall be known and may be cited as the "Civil Defense Liability Act".

Source: L. 2012: Entire part RC&RE with relocations, (HB 12-1283), ch. 240, p. 1099, § 10, effective July 1.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2301 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-902. Legislative declaration - no private liability. (1) It is declared to be the policy of the general assembly to encourage the owners of any building, mine, structure, or other real estate to make such property available, without compensation, for civil defense, and for that purpose this section is enacted.

(2) No person, limited liability company, partnership, corporation, or association shall be civilly liable, except for willful and wanton acts, for the death or injury of any person or the injury to or loss of any property which may occur in or on the property of such person, limited liability company, partnership, corporation, or association resulting from any preparation, drill, exercise, use in an official alert, or inspection incidental to a civil defense activity. This exemption from liability extends to any owner, tenant, lessee, assignee, or successor in interest of any property used for civil defense purposes, together with his or her personal representatives, heirs, successors, and assigns.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2302 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-903. State liability. All legal liabilities for damages, not only to property under the constitution of the state of Colorado but also for death or injury to any person, except a civil defense worker regularly enrolled and acting as such, caused by acts done or attempted under the color of the "Colorado Disaster Emergency Act", part 7 of this article, in a bona fide attempt to comply therewith, shall be the obligation of the state of Colorado. Permission is given for suits against the state for recovery of compensation in that behalf; and for the indemnification of any person appointed and regularly enrolled as a civilian defense worker while actually engaged in civil defense duties or as a member of any agency of the state or political subdivision thereof engaged in civilian defense activity, or such person's dependents, as an aspect of damage done to such person's private property, or judgment against such person for acts done in good faith attempts in compliance with this part 9. The foregoing shall not be construed to result in indemnification in any case of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith on the part of any agent of civilian defense. Should the United States government or any agency thereof, in accordance with any federal statute, rule, or regulation, provide for the payment of damages to property or for death or injury as provided for in this section, then and in that event, there shall be no liability or obligation whatsoever upon the part of the state of Colorado for any such damage, death, or injury for which the United States government assumes liability.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2303 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-904. Recovery for personal injury. (1) Recovery for the injury or death of persons appointed and regularly enrolled in a civil defense organization as contemplated by the "Colorado Disaster Emergency Act", part 7 of this article, while actually engaged in civil defense duties shall be limited to the provisions of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S. If such persons are regularly employed by the state of Colorado or its political subdivisions, and, if such persons are volunteer civil defense workers, shall be limited as otherwise provided by statute.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not affect the right of any person to receive benefits or compensation to which such person might be entitled under any workers' compensation or pension law or any act of congress.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2304 as it existed prior to 2012.

PART 10

EVACUATION OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS FOR CIVIL DEFENSE

Editor's note: This part 10 was added in 1983. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For the text of this part 10 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

24-33.5-1001. Evacuation plan agreements. Any board of education of any school district in the state of Colorado may enter into an agreement with the appropriate local civil defense agency or authorities for the purpose of establishing an orderly plan for the evacuation of any or all school buildings within the jurisdiction of said school district.
24-33.5-1002. Evacuation drill - district liability. In the event that such school district and the respective local civil defense agency or authorities desire to perform an evacuation drill for any or all school buildings, the board of education of such school district and its officers, employees, and agents participating therein shall be relieved of all liability, except as otherwise provided by article 10 of this title, with regard to the accidental injury of any pupil during school hours from the time that the pupil leaves the school building until such pupil's return to the building at the conclusion of the evacuation drill.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2401 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1003. Buses used. For drill or other evacuation purposes as described in this part 10, buses and such other modes of transport as are operated by the respective school district for the transportation of pupils may be operated by the district outside the boundaries of the district.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2403 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1004. Liability insurance. For purposes of this part 10, a school district may expend available funds to utilize the services of its employees or properties and may, if the board of education so desires, pay premiums from available funds to procure liability and property damage insurance covering such district, its governing body, officers, and employees, and, if deemed necessary or desirable, volunteer workers while participating in such civil defense activity, but there shall be no right of contribution on the part of such district to the insurance carrier.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2404 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1005. Extraterritorial powers. When the officers, employees, or agents of any school district participating in any civil defense exercise in connection with this part 10 are required to go beyond the territorial limits of such political subdivision, such persons shall nevertheless have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities while beyond the... territorial limits of the school district as if they were performing their duties within the territorial limits of such district.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2405 as it existed prior to 2012.

PART 11

DISASTER RELIEF

Editor's note: This part 11 was added in 1983. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 11 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act recreating and reenacting this part 11, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1101. Power to make rules. The governor is authorized to make rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this part 11, including standards of eligibility for persons applying for benefits; procedures for applying and administration; methods of investigating, filing, and approving applications; and formation of local or statewide boards to pass upon applications and procedures for appeal.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2501 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1102. Emergency relief. (1) In an emergency, the governor may provide assistance to save lives and to protect property and public health and safety.

(2) The governor may provide such emergency assistance by directing state agencies to provide technical assistance and advisory personnel to the affected state and local governments in giving:

(a) Aid in the performance of essential community services, warning of further risks and hazards, public information and assistance in health and safety measures, technical advice on management and control, and reduction of immediate threats to public health and safety; and

(b) Assistance in the distribution of medicine, food, and other consumable supplies or emergency assistance.

(3) In addition, in any emergency, the governor is authorized to provide such other assistance under this part 11 as the governor deems appropriate.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2502 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1103. False claims - penalties. Any person who fraudulently or willfully makes a misstatement of fact in connection with an application for financial assistance under this part 11 and who thereby receives assistance to which such person is not entitled commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2503 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1104. Temporary housing for disaster victims. (1) Whenever the governor has proclaimed a disaster emergency under the laws of this state or the president of the United States has declared an emergency or a major disaster to exist in this state, the governor is authorized:

(a) To enter into purchase, lease, or other arrangements with any agency of the United States for temporary housing units to be occupied by disaster victims and to make such units available to any political subdivision of the state;

(b) To assist any political subdivision of the state which is the locus of temporary housing for disaster victims to acquire sites necessary for such temporary housing and to do all things required to prepare such sites to receive and utilize temporary housing units by:

(I) Advancing or lending funds available to the governor from any appropriation made by the general assembly or from any other source;

(II) Passing through funds made available by any agency, public or private; or

(III) Becoming a copartner with the political subdivision for the execution and performance of any temporary housing project for disaster victims; and

(c) Under such rules as the governor shall prescribe, to temporarily suspend or modify for not to exceed sixty days any public health, safety, zoning, transportation within or across the state, or other requirement of law or regulation within this state when by proclamation the governor deems such suspension or modification essential to provide temporary housing for disaster victims.

(2) Any political subdivision of the state is expressly authorized to acquire, temporarily or permanently, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, sites required for installation of temporary housing units for disaster victims and to enter into whatever arrangements, including purchase of temporary housing units and payment of transportation charges, which are necessary to prepare or equip such sites to utilize the housing units.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2504 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-1105. Debris removal. (1) Whenever the governor has declared a disaster emergency to exist under the laws of this state or the president of the United States, at the request of the governor, has declared a major disaster or emergency to exist in this state, the governor is authorized:

(a) Notwithstanding any other law, through the use of state departments or agencies or the use of any of the state's instrumentalities, to clear or remove from publicly or privately owned land or water debris and wreckage which may threaten public health or safety or public or private property; and

(b) To accept funds from the federal government and to utilize such funds to make grants to any local government for the purpose of removing debris or wreckage from publicly or privately owned land or water.

(2) Authority under this part 11 shall not be exercised unless the affected local government, corporation, organization, or individual first presents an unconditional authorization for removal of such debris or wreckage from public or private property and, in the case of removal of debris or wreckage from private property, first agrees to indemnify the state government against any claim arising from such removal.

(3) Whenever the governor provides for clearance of debris or wreckage pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, employees of the designated state agencies or individuals appointed by the state are authorized to enter upon private land or water and perform any tasks necessary to removal or clearance operations.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2505 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1106. Grants to individuals. (1) Whenever the governor has declared a major disaster to exist in this state, he or she is authorized, upon making a determination that financial assistance is essential to meet disaster-related necessary expenses or serious needs of individuals or families adversely affected by a major disaster which cannot be otherwise adequately met from other means of assistance, to accept a grant from the federal government to fund such financial assistance, subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed upon the grant.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law or rule, the governor is authorized to make financial grants to meet disaster-related necessary expenses or serious needs of individuals or families adversely affected by a major disaster which cannot otherwise adequately be met from other means of assistance, which grants shall not exceed five thousand dollars in the aggregate to an individual or family in any single major disaster declared by the governor.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2506 as it existed prior to 2012.
24-33.5-1107. Community loans. (1) Whenever, at the request of the governor, the president of the United States has declared a major disaster to exist in this state, the governor is authorized:

(a) Upon the governor's determination that a local government of the state will suffer a substantial loss of tax and other revenues from a major disaster and has demonstrated a need for financial assistance to perform its governmental functions, to apply to the federal government, on behalf of the local government, for a loan and to receive and disburse the proceeds of any approved loan to any local government making application therefor;

(b) To determine the amount needed by any local government making application therefor to restore or resume its governmental functions and to certify the same to the federal government; except that no application shall exceed twenty-five percent of the annual operating budget of the applicant for the fiscal year in which the major disaster occurs;

(c) To recommend to the federal government, based upon the governor's review, the cancellation of all or any part of repayment when, in the first period of three full fiscal years following the major disaster, the revenues of the local government are insufficient to meet its operating expenses, including additional disaster-related expenses of a municipal character; and

(d) To determine the percentage at which the state and a local government will contribute moneys to cover the nonfederal cost share required by the federal "Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act", as amended, 42 U.S.C. sec. 5121 et seq., required by the federal highway administration pursuant to 23 U.S.C. sec. 125, or required by any other federal law in order to receive federal disaster relief funds. After making such a determination, the governor may amend the percentage at which the state and local government will contribute moneys to the nonfederal cost share based on the needs of the individual local governments. As soon as practicable after making or amending such a determination, the governor shall notify the joint budget committee of the source and amount of state moneys that will be contributed to cover a nonfederal cost share pursuant to this paragraph (d).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2507 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1108. Bar against suits. Except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any state employee or agent complying with orders of the governor and performing duties pursuant thereto under this part 11 shall not be liable for death of or injury to persons or damage to property.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2508 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1109. Interstate compacts. The governor is authorized to enter into interstate compacts for prevention of disasters and for carrying out the purposes of this part 11.
PART 12

DIVISION OF FIRE PREVENTION AND CONTROL

Editor's note: Prior to the enactment of this article, the substantive provisions of this part 12 relating to a voluntary certification program for firefighters were located in part 11 of article 32 of this title.

24-33.5-1201. Division of fire prevention and control - creation - public school construction and inspection section - health facility construction and inspection section - legislative declaration. (1) (a) There is hereby created within the department the division of fire prevention and control. The head of the division is the director of the division of fire prevention and control. The executive director shall appoint the director pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution. Only those persons meeting the qualifications described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) are eligible for appointment.

(b) Pursuant to this part 12, the director is responsible for the delivery, management, and administration of fire protection and life safety-related codes and standards, fire investigations, fire safety education for the public, and fire prevention services for the state. In order to be eligible for appointment as director, a person must be qualified in both structural and wildland fire suppression, mitigation, and prevention, have at least ten years of experience in an organized career fire department, and meet, or will meet within one year of hire, the job performance requirements specified in the national fire protection association's standard 1037 as the professional qualifications for fire marshal.

(c) (I) Whenever the division of fire safety is referred to or designated by any contract or other document, the reference or designation applies to the division of fire prevention and control.

(II) (A) Whenever any law refers to the division of fire safety, that law shall be construed as referring to the division of fire prevention and control.

(B) The revisor of statutes is authorized to change all references in the Colorado Revised Statutes to the division of fire safety from such reference to the division of fire prevention and control. In connection with such authority, the revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to amend or delete provisions of the Colorado Revised Statutes so as to make the statutes consistent with the powers, duties, and functions transferred pursuant to this article.

(2) The division, the office of the director, the advisory board created by section 24-33.5-1204, and the board of appeals created by section 24-33.5-1213.7 shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions under the department of public safety and the executive director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(3) (a) There is hereby created within the division the public school construction and inspection section to implement the provisions of sections 22-32-124 (2) and 23-71-122 (1)(v),
C.R.S., and to administer and enforce the codes in accordance with sections 24-33.5-1213 and 24-33.5-1213.3. The public school construction and inspection section shall perform its duties and functions under the division and the executive director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(b) The executive director shall appoint such employees as are necessary to carry out the duties and exercise the powers specified in sections 22-32-124 and 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S., and in this part 12. The executive director may delegate appointing authority as appropriate.

(c) and (d) Repealed.

(4) (a) (I) Effective July 1, 2012, the division of fire prevention and control shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations relating to fire and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, or management vested previously in the board of governors of the Colorado state university system or the state forest service thereunder, as those rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations existed on June 30, 2012.

(II) There is hereby created in the division of fire prevention and control the wildland fire management section to implement the provisions of this subsection (4) and sections 24-33.5-1217 to 24-33.5-1226. The wildland fire management section shall perform its duties and functions under the division of fire prevention and control as if the same were transferred by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(b) (I) On July 1, 2012, all positions of employment in the state forest service of the board of governors of the Colorado state university system that are principally related to fire and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, or management shall be transferred to the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety and shall become employment positions in the wildland fire management section therein.

(II) On July 1, 2012, all employees of the board of governors of the Colorado state university system or the state forest service thereunder who are employed in a capacity principally related to and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, or management shall be considered employees of the wildland fire management section in the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety. Such employees shall retain all rights under the state personnel system and to retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous.

(III) On July 1, 2012, all moneys previously received or appropriated to the board of governors of the Colorado state university system relating principally to fire and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, and management, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the board, are transferred to the wildland fire management section in the division of fire prevention and control and shall become the property thereof.

(IV) On July 1, 2012, all items of personal property of the board of governors of the Colorado state university system relating principally to fire and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, and management, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the board, are transferred to the wildland fire management section in the division of fire prevention and control and shall become the property thereof.
(V) Any and all claims and liabilities, including costs and attorneys' fees, relating in any way to the performance of any fire and wildfire preparedness, response, suppression, coordination, or management duties that were performed by the board or its employees on or before June 30, 2012, are transferred to and assumed by the state exclusively through the division, and such claims or liabilities, if any, are the sole responsibility of the state by and through the department of public safety, and no other public entity or agency, including the board and its employees, shall be responsible or liable for any such claims, liabilities, or damages.

(5) (a) There is hereby created within the division the health facility construction and inspection section to implement section 24-33.5-1212.5 and to administer and enforce the codes in accordance with sections 24-33.5-1212.5 and 24-33.5-1213. The health facility construction and inspection section shall perform its duties and functions under the division and the executive director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(b) On and after July 1, 2013, all positions of employment in the department of public health and environment for which principal duties are concerned with life safety inspection and that are determined by the director to be necessary to carry out the purposes of the health facility construction and inspection section are transferred to the division and are employment positions therein. The executive director shall appoint such employees as are necessary to carry out the duties and exercise the powers specified in this part 12. The executive director may delegate appointing authority as appropriate.

(c) On and after July 1, 2013, all employees of the department of public health and environment carrying out the duties principally relating to life safety code compliance are employees of the health facility construction and inspection section in the division. The employees retain all rights under the state personnel system and to retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services are deemed to have been continuous.

(d) On July 1, 2013, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the department of public health and environment used in carrying out the duties principally relating to life safety code compliance are transferred to the health facility construction and inspection section in the division and become the property of that section.

(e) On December 10, 2012, the division and the governor received approval from the secretary of the United States department of health and human services, pursuant to section F3 of the revised agreement, dated October 1, 1985, entered into between the secretary and the state of Colorado pursuant to section 1864 of the federal "Social Security Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 1395aa, dated October 1, 1985, and pursuant to section 4006A of the related state operation manual, for the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety to fulfill the duties under that law associated with the assessment of compliance with the federal fire safety code requirements for health facilities, and a modification to waivers for residential medicaid provider types to allow the division to conduct construction plans and inspections.

(f) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that, in discharging its duties under this article, as they pertain to health facility buildings and structures, the health facility construction and inspection section is encouraged to cooperate with local authorities, especially in regard to plan reviews and whether such plans comport with local requirements.

(7.9) "Manufacturer" means any one or more of the following:

(a) An entity that manufactures or otherwise produces cigarettes or causes cigarettes to be manufactured with the intent that such cigarettes be sold in Colorado, regardless of where the cigarettes are manufactured or produced and regardless of whether they are imported from outside the United States;

(b) The first purchaser anywhere that intends to resell, in the United States, cigarettes manufactured anywhere that the original manufacturer or producer does not intend to be sold in the United States; or

(c) An entity that becomes a successor to an entity described in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection (7.9).

(8) "Masticated fuels" means fuels, such as brush, small-diameter trees, and slash, that have been ground or chewed into small pieces of woody material through a mechanical wildland fuels treatment process, and generally left to carpet the ground.

(8.2) "Post-9/11 era veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty during the military campaign period that started after the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the United States, and continuing until the date of the end of hostilities as determined by the government of the United States, and who has received an honorable discharge, a general discharge under honorable conditions, or a general discharge.

(8.3) "Prescribed burning" means the application of fire, in accordance with a written prescription for vegetative fuels, under specified environmental conditions while following appropriate precautionary measures that ensure public safety and that is confined to a predetermined area to accomplish public safety or land management objectives. The term excludes controlled agricultural burns and controlled ditch burns.

(8.4) "Principal" means an individual having a position of responsibility in any entity acting as a fire suppression contractor, including any manager, director, officer, partner, owner, or shareholder owning ten percent or more of the stocks of any such entity.

(8.5) "Qualified volunteer firefighter" means a volunteer firefighter as defined in section 31-30-1102 (9), C.R.S., in active service and maintaining the minimum amount of training in a fire department of thirty-six hours each year.

(9) "Quality control and quality assurance program" means a set of laboratory procedures implemented to ensure that:

(a) Operator bias, systematic and nonsystematic methodological errors, and equipment-related problems do not affect the results of cigarette testing; and
(b) The testing repeatability remains within the required repeatability values stated in section 24-33.5-1214 (2)(a)(II)(F) for all test trials used to certify cigarettes in accordance with section 24-33.5-1214 (3).

(10) "Repeatability", with respect to a cigarette test trial, refers to the range of values within which the repeat results of cigarette test trials from a single laboratory will fall ninety-five percent of the time.

(10.5) "Rescuer" means any person seeking certification under this part 12, whether such person is paid or a volunteer, actively participating in or employed by a public or private agency whose duties include response incidents in this state relating to nationally recognized fire service standards.

(10.7) "Residential fire suppression contractor" means a fire suppression contractor that, individually or through others, offers to undertake, represents itself as being able to undertake, or does undertake to sell, lay out, fabricate, install, modify, alter, repair, maintain, or perform maintenance inspections of a residential fire suppression system.

(10.8) "Residential fire suppression system" means a fire suppression system designed for or installed in a one- or two-family dwelling or townhouse that is not regulated by the Colorado board of plumbers.

(11) "Retail dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer or wholesale dealer, engaged in selling cigarettes or tobacco products.

(12) "Sale" means any transfer of title, possession, or both, or exchange or barter, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means or any agreement. In addition to cash and credit sales, the giving of cigarettes as samples, prizes, or gifts, and the exchanging of cigarettes for any consideration other than money, are considered sales.

(12.5) "Seasonal wildland firefighter" means a temporary employee of a governing body or a state agency, or a volunteer member of a nongovernmental volunteer fire department, who is trained and qualified as a wildland firefighter and whose duties include responding to wildland fire emergency incidents and assisting in wildland fire suppression.

(13) "Sell" means to sell or to offer or agree to sell.

(13.3) "Sprinkler fitter" means a person other than an apprentice who is registered with the administrator and who installs fire suppression systems. "Sprinkler fitter" does not include a person who performs maintenance and repair on fire suppression systems as a part of his or her employment. A sprinkler fitter does not include a person who performs work exclusively on cross-connection control devices or a person who performs work exclusively on an underground system. "Sprinkler fitter" does not include a person performing work on his or her own home.

(13.7) "Sprinkler fitter apprenticeship program" means an apprenticeship training program that is registered with either the office of apprenticeship training, employer and labor services in the employment and training administration in the United States department of labor or a state apprenticeship agency in accordance with the requirements of 29 CFR 29.1 et seq., or other similar apprentice program approved by the administrator, and consists of a minimum of eight thousand hours of documented practical work experience on fire suppression systems, combined with a minimum of seven hundred hours of related instruction, including classroom or shop instruction, in the sprinkler fitter trade.

(13.9) "Underground system" means the system of below-ground piping, valves, appliances, and appurtenances that physically connect the water supply to a fire suppression system.
(14) "UPC symbol" means the symbol signifying the universal product code.

(14.3) "Veterans' fire corps program" means a program that is organized by a conservation corps or youth corps accredited by the Colorado youth corps association and that provides training and on-the-job experience for post-9/11 era veterans interested in entering into careers and gaining experience in natural resource management and wildland fire control.

24-33.5-1203. Duties of division. (1) The division shall perform the following duties:
(a) Assist units of local government charged with fire prevention, fire protection, fire investigation, and emergency medical services in coordinating their activities with state departments and agencies which have similar responsibilities;
(a.5) Assist units of local government charged with the construction, maintenance, and inspection of public school and local district college buildings in coordinating their activities with state departments and agencies that have similar responsibilities;
(b) Advise the governor and the general assembly regarding the problems of fire safety;
(b.5) Advise the governor and the general assembly regarding implementation of the public school construction and inspection program and the health facility construction and inspection program;
(c) Regarding problems of fire safety which are common to local, state, and federal governmental units, including but not limited to hazardous waste, protective equipment for firefighters, flammable and toxic characteristics of materials during combustion, fire incident reporting, emergency medical incident reporting, and investigation of fires, be available to assist in the solution of those problems, serve as an information clearinghouse, and collect and disseminate to local governments, the general assembly, and the general public statistical and research reports which are of interest to them;
(d) Refer local fire departments to appropriate state and federal agencies for advice, assistance, and services regarding their specific problems;
(e) Perform such research as is necessary to carry out the functions of the division;
(f) Encourage and, when so requested, assist in cooperative efforts among the officials of various local fire departments to solve common problems;
(g) Encourage the conduct of and participate in training institutes, conferences, and programs for local government officials and employees in the area of fire services;
(h) Upon the request of local government officials, provide technical assistance in defining and developing solutions to local fire safety problems including, but not limited to, fireworks statutes; electrical hazards; public education programs; regulations concerning explosives; inspection of facilities when the performance of the inspections is the statutory duty of another state agency; hazardous materials storage, handling, and transportation; and volatile, flammable, and carcinogenic materials;
(i) Coordinate fire service education and training programs, hazardous materials responder training programs, and firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs, which shall be available statewide;
(j) Administer the certification programs for firefighters and hazardous materials responders, providing office space, equipment, and the services of a clerical staff as necessary for the carrying out of the intent of this part 12;
(k) Train and instruct firefighters in subjects relating to the fire service; coordinate fire service-related education and training classes, programs, conferences, and seminars; and train and instruct, or coordinate the training of, hazardous materials responders; except that all training related to terrorism shall be coordinated with the division of homeland security and emergency management created in part 16 of this article;
(l) Receive and accept gifts, funds, grants, bequests, and services for use in the function of the division;
(m) To help ensure that communities and firefighters have sufficient resources, technical support, and training to adequately assess wildfire risks, increase upgrades on federal excess property fire engines on loan to local fire departments; increase technical assistance in wildland fire preparedness to counties and fire protection districts; and, in conjunction with the wildfire preparedness plan created pursuant to section 24-33.5-1227, ensure that state fire-fighting equipment such as fire engines and air tankers is fully operational and available to and coordinated with the equipment capacities of local fire departments and fire protection districts, and that personnel are fully trained in its use;

(n) Administer a uniform statewide reporting system for fires, hazardous materials incidents, emergency medical service incidents, and other incidents to which fire departments respond;

(o) Repealed.

(p) Conduct construction plan reviews and inspect public school and local district college buildings and structures and enforce the codes adopted in accordance with sections 22-32-124 (2) and 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S., and sections 24-33.5-1213 and 24-33.5-1213.3;

(p.5) When there is no local building department or fire department, or when necessary for facilities certified or seeking certification by the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services, conduct construction plan reviews and inspections of health facility buildings and structures, enforce the codes in accordance with sections 24-33.5-1212.5 and 24-33.5-1213, and issue certificates of compliance for such buildings and structures;

(q) Provide training in accordance with section 24-33.5-1212 to directors of certain fire protection districts created pursuant to part 1 of article 1 of title 32, C.R.S.;

(r) Certify building inspectors to conduct building inspections for public school and local district college buildings;

(s) Pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.4, assist school districts and schools in implementing the school response framework set forth in section 22-32-109.1 (4), C.R.S., advise school districts and schools concerning all-hazard exercises and drills for school buildings and the interoperability of school communications systems with state and local emergency personnel, and, in collaboration with the office of information technology created in section 24-37.5-103, the school safety resource center created in section 24-33.5-1803, and other government entities and community partners, provide information to school districts and schools concerning emergency preparedness;

(t) Implement a prescribed burning program, including conducting prescribed burning on any area in the state pursuant to section 24-33.5-1217. The division shall conduct such prescribed burning program in cooperation with local, state, or federal agencies, private persons, or concerns.

(u) Establish and maintain the Colorado firefighting air corps established under section 24-33.5-1228;

(v) Administer the funding and payment of death benefits for seasonal wildland firefighters in accordance with section 24-33.5-1229;

(w) Establish and operate the wildfire information and resource center created in section 24-33.5-1230.

(2) The duties and functions of the division set forth in this part 12, including duties and functions pertaining to fire service education, training, and certification, apply to prescribed fires, wildfires, and wildland fire-related activities.
24-33.5-1203.5. Powers and duties of director - report. (1) In addition to any other duties prescribed by law, the director of the division shall perform the following duties:

(a) Exercise general supervisory control over and coordinate the activities, functions, and employees of the division; and

(b) Adopt such rules as the director of the division deems necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part 12 and amend such rules from time to time as necessary. Such rules and amendments shall be adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title.

(2) In order to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part 12 and part 14 of article 20 of title 30, the director of the division shall promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of this title 24:
(a) Adopting codes, which shall be identical to or modeled on the international codes published by the international code council; and

(b) Adopting nationally recognized standards that the director reasonably finds necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part 12, sections 24-33.5-2008 and 12-47.1-516, and part 14 of article 20 of title 30.

(3) Commencing in 2014, the director shall report annually to the wildfire matters review committee created in section 2-3-1602, C.R.S., regarding the current nature and magnitude of the state's wildfire situation, the status of wildfire preparedness and prescribed burns in the state, including available resources, and the challenges to addressing the state's wildfire threat. The report required by this subsection (3) is exempt from the automatic expiration described in section 24-1-136 (11).

24-33.5-1204. Voluntary education and training program - voluntary certification of firefighters and hazardous materials responders - advisory board. (1) For the purposes of advising the director on the administration of the voluntary fire service education and training program within the division of fire prevention and control, the local firefighter safety and disease prevention grant program created in section 24-33.5-1231, and the voluntary firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs, there is hereby created in the division of fire prevention and control the fire service training and certification advisory board, referred to in this part 12 as the "advisory board", to serve as an advisory board to the director.

(2) (a) The advisory board consists of fourteen members, eleven of whom are voting members appointed by the governor as follows:

(I) Four of the eleven members appointed by the governor shall represent each of the following organizations:

(A) Colorado state fire fighters association;
(B) Colorado state fire chiefs association;
(C) Colorado fire training officers association; and
(D) Colorado professional fire fighters association;

(II) The other seven members appointed by the governor are:

(A) A fire chief or training officer from a volunteer fire department participating in the certification program;
(B) A fire chief or training officer from a career fire department participating in the certification program;
(C) A representative of the property and casualty insurance industry;
(D) A hazardous materials responder team leader;
(E) A person experienced in the transportation industry;
(F) A representative of local law enforcement; and

Colorado Revised Statutes 2017 Page 742 of 2289 Uncertified Printout
(G) A representative of a fixed facility dealing with hazardous materials.
(b) The remaining three ex officio nonvoting members are the following persons or their designees:
(I) The president of the Colorado community college and occupational education system;
(II) The chief of the emergency medical and trauma services section within the health facilities and emergency medical services division in the department of public health and environment; and
(III) The chief of the state patrol.
(c) The eleven advisory board members appointed by the governor shall be geographically apportioned, and at least one of those members must have wildland fire expertise.
(d) At least three members of the advisory board shall be from a community or communities with a resident population of fifteen thousand persons or less.
(e) The governor shall initially appoint six members described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) for terms of four years each and the remaining five members for terms of two years each. Thereafter, the governor shall appoint their successors for terms of four years each. If any appointee vacates his or her office during the term for which appointed to the advisory board, the governor shall, by appointment, fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The advisory board shall annually elect from its members a chairperson and a secretary.
(3) The advisory board shall meet as determined necessary by the chairperson or the director. The members of the advisory board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses actually incurred in the performance of their official duties. The expenses shall be paid from the firefighter, hazardous materials responder, and prescribed fire training and certification fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.

24-33.5-1204.5. Powers and duties of administrator - rules. (1) In addition to any other duties and powers granted by this section or sections 24-33.5-1206.2 and 24-33.5-1206.4, the administrator has the following duties and powers:

(a) To establish a program for registration of fire suppression contractors and to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to administer the fire suppression program for the registration of fire suppression contractors and the inspection and maintenance of fire suppression systems pursuant to article 4 of this title;

(b) To establish fees and charges in amounts necessary to defray the anticipated costs of administration of this article. The fees and charges may be adjusted by the administrator from time to time as necessary or appropriate.

(c) In the discretion of the administrator, to receive, investigate, and act upon complaints against those persons who violate any of the provisions of section 24-33.5-1206.6 or any rule or regulation adopted by the administrator pursuant to this section;

(d) (I) To maintain records of all applications, complaints, investigations, disciplinary or other actions, and registrants.

(II) The administrator shall keep records of all fire suppression system working plans and hydraulic calculations, searchable by both the applicable fire suppression contractor and the signing professional engineer or engineering technician, for projects that the administrator or any certified local fire suppression inspector, as applicable, identifies as containing significant or repeated design or installation deficiencies pursuant to section 24-33.5-1206.2 (2)(b).

(e) To conduct hearings upon charges for discipline of a fire suppression contractor or a certified fire suppression systems inspector, issue subpoenas, compel attendance of witnesses, compel the production of books, records, papers, and documents, administer oaths to persons giving testimony at hearings, and recommend prosecution of persons violating this article;

(f) To establish and adopt such rules as may be necessary to administer the public school construction and inspection program for the inspection of public school and local district college buildings and a program for certification of public school and local district college building inspectors;

(f.5) To establish and adopt rules necessary to administer the health facility construction and inspection program for:

(I) Where there is no local building department or fire department, the inspection of health facility buildings and structures and performance of plan reviews; and

(II) The development of a program for certification of health facility life safety inspectors;

(g) To conduct hearings upon charges for discipline of a school building inspector, health facility life safety code inspector, or third-party inspector; issue subpoenas; compel attendance of witnesses; compel the production of books, records, papers, and documents; administer oaths to persons giving testimony at hearings; and recommend prosecution of persons violating this part 12.

(2) (a) The administrator shall implement a tracking system, separate from the individual records of fire suppression contractors and inspectors, regarding the disposition of complaints.

(b) The administrator shall provide an online complaint form and internet access to the tracking system implemented pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).
24-33.5-1205. Duties of the director and the advisory board. (1) The director has the following duties relating to the voluntary firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs and the fire service education and training program:

(a) To establish a fire service education and training program, setting forth minimum standards for training and instructors;

(b) To promulgate rules establishing standards for the firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs and for determining whether a firefighter or an applicant for first responder or hazardous materials responder certification meets the established standards;

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 99, p. 332, § 2, effective April 15, 1999.)

(d) To certify firefighters and applicants for hazardous materials responder certification or withhold or revoke certification in the manner provided for by rules adopted by the director pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of this title;

(e) To issue a certificate to any firefighter or rescuer who presents evidence that the minimum firefighter certification standards have been met and to issue a certificate to any applicant who presents evidence that the minimum standards of the hazardous materials responder certification program have been met;

(f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 99, p. 332, § 2, effective April 15, 1999.)

(g) To establish fees for the actual direct and indirect costs of the administration of the firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs, which fees shall be assessed against any person participating in such programs. All fees collected shall be credited to the firefighter, first responder, hazardous materials responder, and prescribed fire training and certification fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.

(h) To establish fees for the actual direct and indirect costs of the administration of the fire service education and training program, which fees shall be assessed against any person participating in such program. All fees collected shall be credited to the fire service education and training fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.5.

(2) The advisory board has the following duties relating to the voluntary firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs and the fire service education and training program:

(a) To advise the director on the promulgation of rules enacting standards for the certification of firefighters and rescuers and procedures for determining whether a firefighter or rescuer meets the established standards;
(b) To advise the director on the promulgation of rules enacting standards for the certification of hazardous materials responders and procedures for determining whether an applicant meets such standards;

c) To advise the director on the promulgation of rules enacting standards for fire service education and training for volunteer firefighters, the qualification of instructors, and procedures to ensure that the quality of the program is adequate to meet the minimum training requirements for volunteer firefighters as set forth in section 31-30-1122, C.R.S.;

d) To advise the director on the establishment of fees for the actual direct and indirect costs of the administration of the firefighter and hazardous materials responder certification programs;

e) To advise the director on the establishment of fees for the actual direct and indirect costs of the administration of the fire service education and training program.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 99, p. 332, 2, effective April 15, 1999.)

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as creating mandatory certification programs for firefighters or hazardous materials responders or creating a mandatory fire service education and training program. All fire departments in the state shall have the option of whether or not to participate in the firefighter or hazardous materials responder certification programs or the fire service education and training program.

(5) The advisory board shall advise the director on the promulgation of rules governing the local firefighter safety and disease prevention grant program created in section 24-33.5-1231.

Editor's note: (1) Prior to the recreation and reenactment of this section, section 24-33.5-1209 provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 1992. (See L. 87, p. 1006.)

(2) Section 23 of the act amending subsection (1)(b) (chapter 254, Session Laws of Colorado 1995) provides the following:

(a) This act shall not affect the terms of members of the boards of trustees created to administer volunteer firemen's pension funds under part 4 of article 30 of title 31, Colorado Revised Statutes, as in effect before June 5, 1995, in any municipality, fire protection district, or county improvement district in this state that maintains a regularly organized volunteer fire department. On and after June 5, 1995, these board members shall continue their terms and duties on the applicable boards of trustees of the volunteer firefighter pension funds under part 11 of article 30 of title 31, Colorado Revised Statutes, created in this act.

(b) This act shall not terminate or require transfers of moneys from volunteer firemen's pension funds governed by part 4 of article 30 of title 31, Colorado Revised Statutes, in effect before June 5, 1995. On and after June 5, 1995, these funds shall remain in effect and be governed by part 11 of article 30 of title 31, Colorado Revised Statutes, created in this act.

24-33.5-1206. Education and training programs - certification programs - supervision and control. (1) The fire service education and training programs and the certification programs established pursuant to this part 12 shall be under the supervision and control of the director with the advice of the advisory board.

(2) The public school construction and inspection program, the health facility construction and inspection program, and the certification programs for public school and local district college building inspectors and life safety code inspectors established pursuant to this part 12 are under the supervision and control of the director with the advice of the board of appeals created in section 24-33.5-1213.7.

Editor's note: Prior to the recreation and reenactment of this section, section 24-33.5-
1209 provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 1992. (See L. 87, p. 1006.)

24-33.5-1206.1. Registration required. (1) A person shall not act, assume to act, or advertise as a fire suppression contractor unless the person is registered as a fire suppression contractor with the administrator. A person shall not act, assume to act, or advertise as a residential fire suppression contractor unless the person is registered as either a fire suppression contractor or a residential fire suppression contractor with the administrator.

(2) Any registered fire suppression contractor shall obtain any locally required licenses or permits and comply with local building and fire codes.

(3) Any registered fire suppression contractor shall be responsible for the acts of its agents and employees while acting on behalf of the contractor to sell, advertise, layout, fabricate, install, add to, alter, service, repair, or inspect fire suppression systems of any kind.

(4) Every registered fire suppression contractor shall assure that:

(a) A responsible person in the management or employment of the contractor is qualified in the layout, fabrication, installation, alteration, servicing, repair, and inspection of fire suppression systems; except that, with regard to residential fire suppression systems only, the responsible person need only be qualified in the layout, fabrication, installation, alteration, servicing, repair, and inspection of residential fire suppression systems;
(b) Each job is supervised by an on-site installer who is qualified in the layout, fabrication, installation, alteration, servicing, repair, and inspection of fire suppression systems;

(c) Any layout, fabrication, installation, alteration, servicing, repair, or inspection of fire suppression systems is done according to applicable standards adopted by the administrator by rule promulgated pursuant to section 24-33.5-1206.3 (1) and applicable local codes and ordinances;

(d) Actual fabrication, installation, alteration, servicing, or repair of any fire suppression system is done in accordance with approved plans, layout, or design;

(e) All interim and final inspections and system tests are completed according to standards adopted by the administrator or requirements laid out by local fire safety inspectors and the administrator and that any required logs, reports, or results of said inspections and system tests are accurately kept and conveyed to the appropriate fire safety inspectors.

(5) No registration shall be granted to any fire suppression contractor who has as a principal any person who, within the past two years, has violated any provision of this part 12 or any rule or regulation of the administrator pursuant thereto.

Editor's note: Section 24-33.5-1209 (2) provides for the repeal of this section, effective September 1, 2019.

24-33.5-1206.2. Job registration and plan review. (1) Except for minor alterations, modifications, repairs, or maintenance work that does not affect the integrity of the system, no installation, modification, alteration, or repair of a fire suppression system shall be started until:

(a) Any required local permits have been obtained;

(b) (I) The job, including the name and registration number of the contractor, the address and description of the premises where the job will be done, and the name and address of the general contractor or the name and address of the owner if no general contractor is involved, has been registered with the administrator.

(II) If the local fire safety agency requests job registration and plan review authority, and the administrator determines that said local fire safety agency has the capability and qualifications to conduct plan review, then the administrator shall accept job registration with local fire safety officials in satisfaction of the job registration requirement imposed by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b).

(c) (I) The working plans and hydraulic calculations for the job have been reviewed and approved by the administrator or a certified local fire suppression inspector in compliance with the standards established in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c).

(II) The administrator shall establish standards of review and approval and shall, where appropriate, accept review and approval by certified local fire suppression inspectors in satisfaction of the requirements of this paragraph (c).

(2) (a) Any working plans and hydraulic calculations submitted for review by the administrator or by a certified local fire suppression inspector pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section must bear the signature and certification number of either a licensed professional engineer or a level three or higher engineering technician (fire suppression engineering technology - automatic sprinkler design or fire suppression engineering technology - special hazards system layout), whichever is relevant to the particular job or design, certified by the national institute for the certification of engineering technologists. Such licensed professional engineer or engineering technician shall certify that he or she has reviewed the plan and design and finds that it meets the applicable standards adopted by the administrator for fire safety and that it is adequately designed to meet the system requirements.

(b) If a certified local fire suppression inspector identifies significant or repeated design or installation deficiencies with regard to a fire suppression system, the certified local fire suppression inspector shall notify the administrator of the deficiencies and the identifying information for the applicable fire suppression contractor and the signing professional engineer or engineering technician.

Editor's note: Section 24-33.5-1209 (2) provides for the repeal of this section, effective September 1, 2019.

24-33.5-1206.3. Requirements for installation, inspection, and maintenance of fire suppression systems - rules. (1) Fire suppression contractors shall design and install fire suppression systems in accordance with the applicable standards adopted by the administrator by rule, manufacturer's specifications, and applicable local codes and ordinances. In adopting standards, the administrator may consider and adopt the standards of the national fire protection association and shall adopt, by January 1, 2015, a separate set of design and installation standards and a separate registration category applicable only to residential fire suppression systems.

(2) The contractor shall furnish the user with operating instructions for all equipment installed, together with as-built diagrams of the final installation.

(3) Contractor inspections and tests, where required, shall be conducted by qualified personnel or certified fire safety inspectors and in compliance with applicable standards adopted by the administrator. Complete records shall be kept of the tests and operations of each system. The records shall be available for examination by the local certified fire safety inspector or the fire suppression administrator.

Editor's note: Section 24-33.5-1209 (2) provides for the repeal of this section, effective September 1, 2019.

24-33.5-1206.4. System approval, inspection, and inspectors. (1) No installation, modification, alteration, or repair of a fire suppression system shall be completed and cleared for use, and no structure or partial structure in which such fire suppression system is installed, modified, altered, or repaired shall be cleared for occupancy, until such fire suppression system has been approved by a certified fire suppression systems inspector. Approval shall include review of approved working plans and hydraulic calculations, installation inspections, and final tests.

(2) (a) Each county, municipality, and special district that has fire suppression systems enforcement responsibilities shall, as needed, provide a certified fire suppression systems inspector. Such inspector shall conduct all fire suppression systems inspections that are required by this part 12. The governing body of the county, municipality, or special district that has fire suppression systems enforcement responsibilities may provide a schedule of fees to pay the costs of plan review and inspections conducted pursuant to this subsection (2) and related administrative expenses, and collect said fees from the fire suppression contractor.

(b) Two or more counties, municipalities, or special districts that have fire safety enforcement responsibilities may jointly employ or contract with a fire safety inspector.

(c) The administrator or his agent shall be available to provide such fire safety inspections to any county, municipality, or special district on a contractual or job-by-job basis. The county, municipality, or special district shall pay the actual costs of such inspections by the administrator or his agents.

(3) Every inspection of a fire suppression system conducted pursuant to this part 12 shall be by a person certified as having met the inspection training requirements set by the administrator. Such person shall:

(a) Be at least eighteen years of age;

(b) Not have been engaged in any of the activities specified in section 24-33.5-1206.6 (2); and

(c) (I) Have satisfactorily completed the fire suppression systems inspector certification examination as prescribed by the administrator; or

(II) Have demonstrated to the administrator that the applicant has met such other equivalent qualifications, including but not limited to education and experience, as may be prescribed by rule and regulation. If the head of a county, municipality, or special district that has fire suppression system enforcement responsibility determines that the applicant has met the qualifications adopted pursuant to this subparagraph (II), then he shall notify the administrator, who shall certify the applicant; or

(III) Have received in another state training which is determined by the administrator to be at least equivalent to that required by the administrator for approved certified fire safety inspector education and training programs in this state.

(4) Every certificate issued by the administrator is valid for a period of three years from the date of issuance. Renewal of certification shall require the affected person to complete a proper application for renewal and meet any other requirements for renewal as prescribed by the administrator, including successful passage of an examination as established by the administrator.

24-33.5-1206.5. Unlawful acts - criminal penalties. (1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 24-33.5-1206.1 commits a class 3 misdemeanor and, if a natural person, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., and, if a corporation, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars. Any natural person who violates any provision of section 24-33.5-1206.1 subsequent to a prior conviction for such a violation commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(2) Any person who knowingly and willfully makes any false statement whatsoever or who conceals a material fact in any application, form, claim, advertisement, contract, warranty, guarantee, or statement, either written or oral, with the intent to influence the actions or decisions of any owner or contractor negotiating or contracting for the installation, alteration, or repair of any fire suppression system, or to any bonding agent, commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2002 act amending this section, see section 1 of chapter 318, Session Laws of Colorado 2002.

24-33.5-1206.6. Unlawful acts - civil penalties - disciplinary actions. (1) Any person, firm, association, or corporation which violates any of the provisions of sections 24-33.5-1206.1 to 24-33.5-1206.3 or any rule or regulation promulgated by the administrator pursuant to this part 12 may be punished upon a finding of such violation by the administrator as follows:

(a) In any first administrative proceeding against a licensee, a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars;

(b) In any subsequent administrative proceeding against a licensee for transactions occurring after a final agency action determining that any violation of sections 24-33.5-1206.1 to 24-33.5-1206.3 or any rule or regulation of the administrator has occurred, a fine of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars.

(2) In addition to the penalties provided in subsection (1) of this section, the administrator may withhold, deny, suspend, or revoke the registration or certification of any registered fire suppression contractor or certified fire safety inspector or applicant therefor if the administrator finds, upon proof, that any such person has committed any of the following:

(a) Fraud or material deception in the obtaining or renewing of a registration;

(b) Professional incompetence as manifested by poor, faulty, or dangerous workmanship;

(c) Engaging in conduct that is likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public in the course of professional services or activities;

(d) Performing any services in a negligent manner or permitting any of his agents or employees to perform services in a grossly negligent manner, regardless of whether actual damage or damages to the public is established;
(e) Directly or indirectly, willfully receiving compensation for any professional services not actually rendered;

(f) Failing to comply with any provision of this part 12 or the standards or rules promulgated by the administrator pursuant thereto;

(g) Contracting or assisting unregistered persons to perform services for which registration is required under this part 12.

(3) All fines imposed by the administrator pursuant to this section shall be credited to the general fund.

(4) A person acting as a fire suppression contractor may not bring any legal action to collect compensation due for performing any act for which registration is required pursuant to section 24-33.5-1206.1 unless such contractor alleges and proves that he was duly registered under said section at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

(5) (a) Any person who provides testimony with respect to a disciplinary matter and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this section shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against such person for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as a witness or complainant.

(b) The immunity provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) shall apply to a person only if the person made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken was warranted by the facts.

(6) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the administrator, does not warrant formal action but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, the administrator may issue a letter of admonition by certified mail to the fire suppression contractor or inspector.

(b) The letter of admonition shall notify the fire suppression contractor or inspector of the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

Editor's note: Section 24-33.5-1209 (2) provides for the repeal of this section, effective September 1, 2019.

24-33.5-1206.7. Sprinkler fitters - registration required - rules. (1) No person shall act, assume to act, or advertise as a sprinkler fitter who is not registered with the administrator.

(2) A registered sprinkler fitter shall obtain any locally required licenses or permits and comply with local building codes.

(3) In order to register with the administrator, a sprinkler fitter shall pay a fee as determined by the administrator and shall:
(a) Provide evidence demonstrating that he or she successfully completed a sprinkler fitter apprenticeship program and take and pass an examination established and approved by the administrator;

(b) Complete an application for registration by reciprocity established by rules of the administrator that demonstrates competent evidence that the applicant is currently authorized to practice as a sprinkler fitter in another state that has established qualification requirements substantially similar to, or greater than, the requirements established in this section or by rule of the administrator;

(c) Provide evidence demonstrating that he or she performed at least eight thousand hours of documented practical work experience on fire suppression systems within the past five years; or

(d) Otherwise demonstrate competency as a sprinkler fitter as determined by the administrator.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a person who is enrolled in a sprinkler fitter apprenticeship program may perform work on a fire suppression system under the direct supervision of and in the immediate presence of a sprinkler fitter.

(5) (a) A registered sprinkler fitter shall complete continuing education requirements established by rule of the administrator.

(5) (b) A sprinkler fitter shall apply to renew his or her registration annually. The administrator shall renew, for a period of one year, a sprinkler fitter registration upon receipt of a completed renewal application and a renewal fee as determined by the administrator. In years that the fire and safety code is revised, a sprinkler fitter shall also successfully complete a revised examination in order to renew his or her registration.

(6) The administrator may promulgate rules as necessary for the implementation of this section.

24-33.5-1207.5. Fire service education and training fund - created. (1) All moneys received by the director pursuant to the administration of the fire service education and training programs and all interest earned on the moneys shall be deposited in the state treasury in the fire service education and training fund, which fund is hereby created, and the moneys shall be used, subject to annual appropriations by the general assembly, for the purposes set forth in this part 12 and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of the state of Colorado or any other fund.

(2) The moneys in the fire service training fund, which fund was repealed, shall be deposited in and consolidated with the fire service education and training fund.

Editor's note: Prior to the repeal and reenactment of this section, section 24-33.5-1209 provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 1992. (See L. 87, p. 1006.)

Cross references: In 2013, subsection (1) was amended by the "Colorado Prescribed Burning Act". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 249, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-33.5-1207.6. Fire suppression cash fund - created. (1) All moneys collected by the administrator pursuant to the administration of the fire suppression program and pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fire suppression cash fund, which fund is hereby created. All moneys credited to said fund and all interest earned thereon are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for paying the expenses of the fire suppression program, and said moneys shall remain in such fund for such purposes and shall not revert or be credited to the general fund.

(2) The administrator may be reimbursed by a unit of local government for the actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses of the division incurred in providing technical assistance in circumstances when the unit of local government collects a fee for technical assistance provided by the division. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to require a unit of local government to collect a fee for technical assistance provided by the division, and payment of reimbursement shall be at the discretion of the unit of local government.

24-33.5-1207.7. Public school construction and inspection cash fund - created. All moneys collected by the division pursuant to sections 22-32-124 (2) and 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S., or section 24-33.5-1213.3 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the public school construction and inspection cash fund, which is hereby created. All moneys credited to the fund and all interest earned thereon are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for paying the expenses of the public school construction and inspection program. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-33.5-1207.8. Health facility construction and inspection cash fund - created. All moneys collected by the division pursuant to section 24-33.5-1212.5 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the health facility construction and inspection cash fund, which is hereby created. All moneys credited to the fund and all interest earned thereon are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for paying the expenses of the health facility construction and inspection program. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-33.5-1208. Limitation of authority. Nothing in this part 12 shall be construed to give the division, director, or administrator any power of control or supervision over any unit of local government.

24-33.5-1208.5. "Volunteer Fire Department Organization Act" - areas without fire protection - state assistance for creation of volunteer fire departments - eligibility for grants - short title - legislative declaration. (1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Volunteer Fire Department Organization Act".

(2) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(1) While the county sheriff is the fire warden and is responsible for wildland fire in unincorporated areas outside of fire protection districts, there is significant land area in Colorado that does not have organized fire protection;
The existence of areas without organized fire protection adversely impacts adjacent fire protection districts and other entities that provide fire protection and related emergency services; and Fire prevention, fire suppression, and related emergency services provided by not-for-profit, nongovernmental volunteer fire departments are vital to the protection of the safety of the citizens of the state.

The general assembly therefore:

Finds that it is in the public interest to establish and maintain a complete, cooperative, and coordinated fire protection and suppression program for the state; and

Declares that the purpose of this section is to create a framework for the organization of not-for-profit, nongovernmental volunteer fire departments and to promote, encourage, and support their creation in areas of the state where there is no organized fire protection.

In order to be recognized under this section and be considered in good standing, the volunteer fire department must:

Be organized under and in compliance with the "Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act", articles 121 to 137 of title 7, C.R.S.; and

Enter into an agreement to provide fire fighting, fire protection, or other emergency services with:

The town, city, county, city and county, fire protection district, metropolitan district, or county improvement district providing fire protection services and having jurisdictional authority over the area the unit services;

The appropriate county sheriff for the unincorporated area of the county outside the boundaries of a fire protection district, metropolitan district, or county improvement district providing fire protection services; or

The division for the detection, prevention, or suppression of forest and range fires where state responsibility has been determined pursuant to section 24-33.5-1221.

At a minimum, the agreement required by subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) must specify the types of services to be provided by the volunteer fire department and the boundaries of its service area.

For volunteer fire departments created prior to March 11, 2015, the agreement required by subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) may be replaced by a letter from the jurisdictional authority recognizing the existence of the volunteer fire department and specifying the boundaries of its service area and the services it provides.

A volunteer fire department shall complete and file with the division a fire department registration form specified by the division within sixty days after January 1, 2016, and annually thereafter. The division may issue a fire department identification number to the volunteer fire department based upon the registration filed under this paragraph (c).

A volunteer fire department recognized under this section and considered in good standing that provides services within a jurisdiction may establish a schedule of charges for the services that the volunteer fire department provides.

A volunteer fire department recognized under this section and considered in good standing may enter into agreements with the state or any political subdivision of the state.

The general assembly intends this subsection (6) to provide the division with a means by which the state can encourage and support the creation of volunteer fire departments in areas of the state where there is no organized fire protection.
(b) A group of individuals wishing to establish a volunteer fire department may petition the director for technical or funding assistance.

(c) Prior to providing assistance in the creation of a new volunteer fire department under this subsection (6), the director shall first consult with local officials and consider the question of the appropriateness and viability of:

(I) Inclusion of the proposed service area into one or more existing fire protection districts or metropolitan districts providing fire protection; and

(II) The provision of fire protection by an adjacent or nearby fire department.

(d) Nothing in this subsection (6) permits state assistance in the creation of a volunteer fire department within the boundaries of a fire protection district, metropolitan district, or county improvement district providing fire protection services without permission from such district.

(e) A volunteer fire department recognized under this section and considered in good standing is eligible to receive state funding assistance, including state grant awards, to the extent that a fire department is eligible, unless specifically excluded.

(7) Nothing in this section prohibits a private entity from organizing, training, or equipping itself as a private fire department or providing fire protection services.

24-33.5-1209. Repeal of sections.

(1) Repealed.

(2) Sections 24-33.5-1204.5, 24-33.5-1206.1, 24-33.5-1206.2, 24-33.5-1206.3, 24-33.5-1206.4, 24-33.5-1206.5, 24-33.5-1206.6, and 24-33.5-1207.6, concerning programs for fire suppression administered by the division of fire prevention and control and scheduled for termination in accordance with section 24-34-104, are repealed, effective September 1, 2019.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending subsection (2), see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1210. Resource mobilization plan - fire - emergency medical services - search and rescue. (Repealed)

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act repealing this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1211. Inspector certification. (1) The division shall certify a person with fire safety responsibilities who is employed by, under contract to, or volunteers services to the state or a governing body as a fire inspector if the person files an application with the division for certification on forms provided by the division, pays the required certification fee, is at least eighteen years of age, and:

(a) Passes the fire code certification examination as prescribed by the director of the division; or
(b) Holds a valid and current fire code certification from the international code council; or
(c) Demonstrates to the director of the division that the person meets other equivalent qualifications, including, but not limited to, the education and experience prescribed by rules adopted by the director of the division in accordance with article 4 of this title and obtains an attestation on a form provided by the division from the head of the governing body or a designee that the person has the knowledge, skills, and ability to conduct fire safety plan reviews and inspections using the rules and codes adopted pursuant to sections 8-1-107 (2)(p) and 24-33.5-1203.5 (2)(b), C.R.S.

(2) An inspector certification issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be valid for a period of three years; except that such certification shall become invalid if:

(a) The certified inspector's employment relationship or contract with the state or governing body is terminated; or
(b) The certified inspector ceases to provide volunteer fire safety plan review or inspection services to the state or governing body.

(3) The requirements and process for renewal of an inspector certification shall be the same as for initial certification.

(4) The director of the division shall establish a fee to cover the actual direct and indirect costs of processing applications and issuing and renewing certifications pursuant to this section. Certification fees collected by the division shall be credited to the firefighter, first responder, hazardous materials responder, and prescribed fire training and certification fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.

Cross references: In 2013, subsection (4) was amended by the "Colorado Prescribed Burning Act". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 249, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-33.5-1212. Training for directors of fire protection districts - pilot program - advisory board - training fund - repeal. (1) The division shall establish a pilot program to offer training courses to directors of fire protection districts whose territory includes wildland-urban interface areas, as defined by the Colorado state forest service.
(2) The division shall offer courses pursuant to this section on subjects including but not necessarily limited to:
   (a) Strategic planning; and
   (b) Community outreach on wildland-urban interface issues.

(3) (a) The wildland-urban interface training advisory board is hereby created in the division for the purpose of advising the division on the content of the courses offered pursuant to this section and the implementation of the pilot program established pursuant to this section.
   (b) The wildland-urban interface training advisory board shall consist of five members, to be appointed by the director as follows:
      (I) One employee of the Colorado state forest service;
      (II) One member of an association representing the county sheriffs of the state;
      (III) One member of an association representing the fire chiefs of the state;
      (IV) One representative of an association representing the special districts of the state;
      and
      (V) One employee of the division of emergency management.
   (c) The members of the wildland-urban interface training advisory board shall serve without compensation or reimbursement of expenses.
   (d) This subsection (3) is repealed, effective July 1, 2018.

(4) The division shall issue a certificate of wildland-urban interface fire safety to a director who successfully completes the courses offered pursuant to this section.

(5) (a) (I) The division shall offer courses to directors of fire protection districts in accordance with this section at no charge and shall seek gifts, grants, and donations to fund the pilot program created pursuant to this section. Except for the money transferred in accordance with subsection (5)(a)(II) of this section, no general fund money shall be expended for the implementation of the program. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the division shall not implement the program until the division receives sufficient appropriations, gifts, grants, or donations to cover the costs of implementing the program. The division shall transmit gifts, grants, and donations received in accordance with this subsection (5) to the state treasurer, who shall credit the moneys, along with any moneys appropriated by the general assembly, to the wildland-urban interface training fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. Any money in the fund in excess of those needed for the training of directors of fire protection districts shall be used for the purpose of providing firefighters with basic wildland firefighting and wildland-urban interface firefighting training through existing wildland fire training programs. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of money in the fund is credited to the fund. Money not expended at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred or revert to the general fund.
      (II) On July 1, 2017, the state treasurer shall transfer forty-five thousand four hundred fifty-five dollars from the general fund to the wildland-urban interface training fund.
   (b) and (c) Repealed.

(6) The director shall report to the general assembly on the results of the pilot program established pursuant to this section no later than July 1, 2010.

24-33.5-1212.5. Health facility fire and building codes - third-party inspections authorized - temporary certificate of occupancy - fees - rules - board of appeals. (1) (a) This section applies to health facility buildings or structures, including the construction or substantial remodeling and ongoing compliance with this article thereof, when there is no local building department or fire department to perform such functions. The division shall conduct the necessary plan reviews and inspections and issue certificates of compliance to certify that such buildings or structures are constructed or maintained in conformity with the codes adopted by the director.

(b) On and after July 1, 2013, health facility buildings and structures shall be maintained in accordance with their local building and fire codes or, if no such local building and fire codes exist, with the building and fire codes adopted by the director pursuant to section 24-33.5-1203.5.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), upon request of the local fire authority, the director of the division shall provide technical assistance in the review of health facility plans and, if appropriate, conduct inspections on behalf of the local fire authority.

(2) Except as specified in subsection (3) of this section, in the absence of a local building department or fire department, the division shall conduct the necessary plan reviews, issue building permits, cause the necessary inspections to be performed, perform final inspections, and issue certificates of occupancy to assure that a health facility building or structure has been constructed in conformity with the building and fire codes adopted by the director and that the health facility has complied with this section.

(3) Third-party inspectors. (a) The division may contract with third-party inspectors who are certified in accordance with section 24-33.5-1213.5 to perform inspections.

(b) (I) A health facility may hire and compensate third-party inspectors under contract with the division or hire and compensate other third-party inspectors who are certified in accordance with section 24-33.5-1213.5 to perform inspections.

(II) If a third-party inspector is used, the division shall require a sufficient number of third-party inspection reports to be submitted by the inspector to the division based upon the scope of the project to ensure quality inspections are performed. Except as specified in subsection (4) of this section, the third-party inspector shall attest that inspections are complete and all violations are corrected before the health facility is issued a certificate of occupancy. Inspection records shall be retained by the third-party inspector for two years after the certificate of occupancy is issued. If the division finds that inspections are not completed satisfactorily, as determined by rule of the division, or that all violations are not corrected, the division shall take enforcement action against the appropriate health facility pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.

(4) Temporary certificate of occupancy. If inspections are not completed and a building or structure requires immediate occupancy, and if the health facility has passed the appropriate inspections that indicate there are no life safety issues, the division may issue a temporary certificate of occupancy. The temporary certificate of occupancy expires ninety days... after the date of occupancy. If no renewal of the temporary certificate of occupancy is issued or a permanent certificate of occupancy is not issued, the building or structure shall be vacated upon expiration of the temporary certificate. The division shall enforce this subsection (4) pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.

(5) Division fees. If the division conducts the necessary plan reviews and performs the necessary inspections to determine that a building or structure has been constructed in conformity with the building and fire codes adopted by the director, the division shall charge fees as established by the director by rule, based on the direct and indirect cost of providing the service. The fees shall cover the actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses of the division. The director, by rule or as otherwise provided by law, may increase or reduce the amount of the fees as necessary to cover the actual, reasonable, and necessary costs of the division. Any fees collected by the division pursuant to this subsection (5) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the health facility construction and inspection cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.8.

(6) Rules. Rules promulgated pursuant to this section shall be adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title.

(7) Board of appeals. (a) (I) There is hereby created in the division the health facility construction and inspection program board of appeals, referred to in this section as the "board of appeals". The board of appeals consists of seven members appointed by the executive director and one ex officio nonvoting member appointed in accordance with sub-subparagraph (C) of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(II) The members of the board of appeals shall be persons who are qualified by experience and training to pass upon matters pertaining to health facility building construction, including one member with experience and knowledge of the life safety code, and shall include:

(A) The four members of the board of appeals created in section 24-33.5-1213.7 who represent the Colorado chapter of the international code council, the fire marshal's association of Colorado, the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, and Colorado counties, incorporated, or any member appointed from a successor to any of these organizations representing comparable interests;

(B) One representative from each of the following organizations or a successor to any of such organizations representing comparable interests: The Colorado association of healthcare engineers and directors; the American society for healthcare engineering; and the Colorado chapter of the American institute of architects; and

(C) One ex officio nonvoting member, appointed by the executive director of the department of public health and environment, who is employed by that department as a health surveyor.

(III) The members of the board of appeals serve at the pleasure of the executive director.

(IV) For the initial appointments to the board of appeals:

(A) The members serving pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a) serve terms coextensive with the terms to which they were appointed under section 24-33.5-1213.7; and years. All subsequent appointments are for three-year terms; except that an appointment to fill a vacancy on the board shall be for the remainder of the predecessor's term.

(V) The members of the board of appeals shall not be compensated for their service on the board and shall not be reimbursed for expenses.

(b) The board of appeals shall select a chair from among its members and shall adopt reasonable procedures for conducting its deliberations.

(c) (I) A health facility representative may appeal to the board of appeals a final written decision of a division inspector or third-party inspector that conducts a plan review or inspection pursuant to this section. The appeal shall be filed with the division within thirty days after the date of the decision. The division shall specify the form on which an appeal shall be made and shall provide the form to a health facility representative upon request.

(II) Upon receipt of an appeal, the division shall notify the chair of the board of appeals and schedule a hearing no more than fifteen days after the date on which the appeal was filed.

(III) The board of appeals may review a final written decision by an inspecting entity that is based on the codes or standards adopted by the director. The board of appeals shall not waive any requirement of the codes or standards. The board of appeals may recommend alternative materials as provided in the codes or standards. The final written decision of the board is final agency action for purposes of section 24-4-106.

(d) In addition to hearing appeals as provided in this section, the board of appeals shall advise the director in promulgating rules and enacting standards for the health facility construction and inspection program.

24-33.5-1213. Fire and building code - violations - enforcement - inspections. (1) The director shall enforce sections 22-32-124 (2), 23-71-122 (1)(v), 24-33.5-1212.5, 24-33.5-1213.3, and 24-33.5-1213.5, C.R.S., by appropriate actions in courts of competent jurisdiction.

(2) (a) The director may issue a notice of violation to a person who is believed to have violated the codes as determined by an inspection pursuant to section 22-32-124 (2), 23-71-122 (1)(v), 24-33.5-1212.5, or 24-33.5-1213.3, C.R.S. The notice shall be delivered to the alleged violator by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by any means that verifies receipt as reliably as certified mail, return receipt requested.

(b) The notice of violation shall allege the facts that constitute a violation.

(c) The notice of violation may require the alleged violator to act to correct the alleged violation.

(d) Within ten working days after delivery of the notice of violation, the alleged violator may request in writing an informal conference with the director concerning the notice of violation. If the alleged violator fails to request the conference within ten days, the notice of violation is final and not subject to further review by the director, and any requirement to correct the alleged violation pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (2) becomes a binding enforcement order.

(e) Upon receipt of a request for an informal conference, the director shall set a reasonable time and place for the conference and shall notify the alleged violator of the time and place of the conference. At the conference, the alleged violator may present evidence and arguments concerning the allegations in the notice of violation.

(f) Within twenty working days after the informal conference, the director shall uphold, modify, or strike the allegations within the notice of violation and may issue an enforcement order. The decision and, if applicable, enforcement order shall be delivered to the alleged violator by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by any means that verifies receipt as reliably as certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) (a) A person who is the subject of and is adversely affected by a notice of violation or an enforcement order issued pursuant to subsection (2) of this section may appeal such action to the executive director. The executive director shall hold a hearing to review such notice or order and take final action in accordance with article 4 of this title and may either conduct the hearing personally or appoint an administrative law judge from the department of personnel.

(b) Final agency action shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to article 4 of this title.

(c) An alleged violator who is required to correct an action pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall be afforded the procedures set forth in section 24-4-104 (3), to the extent applicable.

(4) (a) An enforcement order issued pursuant to this section may impose a civil penalty, depending on the severity of the alleged violation, not to exceed five hundred dollars per violation for each day of violation; except that the director may impose a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation for each day of violation that results in, or may reasonably be expected to result in, serious bodily injury.

(b) A civil penalty collected pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be deposited in the public school construction and inspection cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.7 or the health facility construction and inspection cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.8, as appropriate.

(5) The director may file suit in the district court in the judicial district in which a violation is alleged to have occurred to judicially enforce an enforcement order issued pursuant to this section.

(6) In addition to the remedies provided in this section, the director is authorized to apply to the district court, in the judicial district where the violation has occurred, for a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain any person from violating any provision of section 22-32-124 (2) or 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S., or section 24-33.5-1213.3 or 24-33.5-1213.5 regardless of whether there is an adequate remedy at law.

24-33.5-1213.3. Building and structure fire code maintenance - rules. (1) This section shall apply to building and structure maintenance for fire safety. The fire department providing fire protection service for the buildings and structures of a school district or of a local college district or for a charter school may inspect the buildings and structures when deemed necessary to ensure that they are maintained in accordance with the fire code adopted by the director of the division. If the local fire department does not perform the inspections authorized by this section, the division shall have the authority and duty to conduct the inspections.

(2) The division is authorized to charge a fee for inspections conducted by the division to cover the actual, reasonable, and necessary costs of the inspections. The amount of the fee shall be determined by the director of the division by rule. In accordance with section 24-33.5-1213, the division shall enforce the fire code adopted by the director of the division.

(3) A fire department that chooses to conduct fire code inspections pursuant to this section may refer notices of deficiencies to the division for evaluation or enforcement in accordance with section 24-33.5-1213. The division shall promulgate rules to establish procedures for fire departments to refer notices of deficiencies for evaluation or enforcement to the division.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the fire department from correcting violations that pose an immediate threat to life safety. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the fire department from seeking enforcement action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

24-33.5-1213.4. School all-hazard emergency planning and response. (1) The school response framework created in section 22-32-109.1 (4), C.R.S., sets forth the framework for school emergency incident response and emergency preparedness, including emergency communications and the responsibilities of school resource officers. Pursuant to the school response framework, emergency response personnel are community partners with schools. As part of its duty to regularly inspect school buildings to ensure compliance with the fire code, the division, local fire departments, and certified fire inspectors may partner with schools in assessing each school's implementation of NIMS, the interoperability of the school's emergency communications equipment with state and local emergency response agencies, and the implementation of a school resource officer program.

(2) (a) As part of the division's duty, as set forth in section 24-33.5-1213, to enforce the provisions of section 22-32-124 (2), C.R.S., and section 24-33.5-1213.3, the division:

(I) Shall inquire of each school as to the number and type of any all-hazard drills conducted by the school, in addition to regular fire drills; and

(II) May inquire concerning:

(A) The school safety, readiness, and incident management plan developed pursuant to section 22-32-109.1 (4)(d), C.R.S.;

(B) The school's progress toward implementing NIMS and the incident command system pursuant to section 22-32-109.1, C.R.S., and in achieving communications interoperability with state and local emergency personnel;

(C) The nature and location of the school's emergency equipment, including communications equipment, and whether the communications equipment's interoperability with state and local emergency personnel has been tested separately or as part of an all-hazard drill; and

(D) Any other issues related to the school response framework, including but not limited to NIMS implementation, incident management, and communications interoperability with state and local emergency personnel.
(b) Inquiries made by the division pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) that do not relate to the fire code shall not be the basis for a notice of deficiency or enforcement action.

(3)(a) Pursuant to its role as a community partner with schools, the division may, as part of its regular correspondence with schools, provide information to school safety personnel in school districts and schools, including but not limited to information related to NIMS and interoperable communications, courses and training on NIMS and interoperable communications, representation of schools at meetings held by community partners, best practices in incident management, and funding or grant opportunities related to emergency preparedness.

(b) The division shall collaborate with the office of information technology, created in section 24-37.5-103, the school safety resource center created in section 24-33.5-1803, and any other government entities and community partners as determined by the division to collect and disseminate information to school districts and schools as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3).

24-33.5-1213.5. Certification for building inspectors - rules. (1) The director of the division shall implement a building inspector and plans examiner certification program to comply with the provisions of sections 22-32-124 (2) and 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S., that evaluates the education, training, and experience of each inspector and ensures that the inspectors hold current national certifications that require continuing education. The director of the division shall require that each inspector be recertified every three years.

(2) Plans examiners for plan review and building inspectors for construction inspections shall be certified in their respective fields by the international code council, or another similar national organization, and have demonstrated education, training, and experience in their respective fields.

(3) If a plans examiner or building inspector is not certified in his or her respective field, the plans examiner or building inspector shall have at least five years of demonstrated education, training, and experience in his or her respective field and receive national certification within one year after the date of hire.

(4) The director of the division shall outline, by rule, the criteria for the revocation of inspector certifications. If the division finds that inspections are not complete or that all violations are not corrected, the division shall take enforcement action against the third-party inspector pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.

24-33.5-1213.7. Board of appeals. (1) (a) There is hereby created in the division a board of appeals, referred to in this section as the "board of appeals". The board of appeals shall consist of seven members appointed by the executive director.

(b) The members of the board of appeals shall be persons who are qualified by experience and training to pass upon matters pertaining to building construction and shall include one representative nominated by each of the Colorado association of school boards, the Colorado association of school executives, the Colorado chapter of the international code council, the fire marshal's association of Colorado, the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, the rocky mountain chapter of the council for educational facilities planners international, and Colorado counties, incorporated, or from a successor to any of these organizations representing comparable interests.

(c) The members of the board of appeals shall serve at the pleasure of the executive director. For the initial board, the executive director shall appoint one member for a one-year term, two members for two-year terms, and three members for three-year terms. Subsequent appointments shall be for three-year terms; except that an appointment to fill a vacancy on the board shall be for the remainder of the predecessor's term.

(d) The members of the board of appeals shall not be compensated for their service on the board and shall not be reimbursed for expenses.

(e) The board of appeals shall adopt reasonable procedures for conducting its deliberations.

(2) A board of education, the state charter school institute, a charter school, or a local district college board of trustees may appeal to the board of appeals a final written decision of an entity that conducts a plan review or inspection pursuant to section 22-32-124 or 23-71-122 (1)(v), C.R.S. The appeal shall be filed with the division within thirty days after the date of the decision. The division shall specify the form on which an appeal shall be made and shall provide the form to a board of education, a charter school, the state charter school institute, or a local district college board of trustees upon request.

(3) Upon receipt of an appeal, the division shall notify the chair of the board of appeals and schedule a hearing no more than fifteen days after the date on which the appeal was filed.

(4) The board of appeals may review a final written decision by an inspecting entity that is based on the provisions of the codes or standards adopted by the director of the division. The board shall not waive any requirement of the codes or standards. The board may recommend alternative materials as provided in the codes or standards. The final written decision of the board is final agency action for purposes of section 24-4-106.

(5) In addition to hearing appeals as provided in this section, the board of appeals shall advise the director in promulgating rules and enacting standards for the public school construction and inspection program.

(6) This section only applies to matters related to school reviews and inspections.

24-33.5-1214. Cigarettes - reduced ignition propensity standards - repeal. (1) Short title. This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Reduced Cigarette Ignition Propensity Standards and Firefighter Protection Act".

(2) Testing - performance standard. (a) (I) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (g) of this subsection (2), no cigarettes shall be sold or offered for sale in this state, or offered for sale or sold to persons located in this state, after July 31, 2009, unless:

(A) The cigarettes have been tested in accordance with the test method and meet the performance standard specified in this subsection (2);

(B) A written certification has been filed by the manufacturer with the director in accordance with subsection (3) of this section; and

(C) The cigarettes have been marked in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(II) The following conditions shall apply to testing and certification:

(A) Testing of cigarettes shall be conducted in accordance with ASTM international standard E2187-04, "standard test method for measuring the ignition strength of cigarettes".

(B) Testing shall be conducted on ten layers of filter paper.

(C) No more than twenty-five percent of the cigarettes tested in a test trial in accordance with this subsection (2) shall exhibit full-length burns. Forty replicate tests shall constitute a complete test trial for each cigarette tested.

(D) The performance standard required by this subsection (2) shall be applied only to a complete test trial.

(E) Written certifications shall be based upon testing conducted by a laboratory that has been accredited pursuant to standard ISO/IEC 17025 of the international organization for standardization or another comparable accreditation standard specified by the division.

(F) A laboratory conducting testing in accordance with this subsection (2) shall implement a quality control and quality assurance program that includes a procedure that will determine the repeatability of the testing results and limit the repeatability value to no greater than nineteen percent.

(G) This subsection (2) shall not require additional testing of cigarettes that have been tested for other purposes in a manner consistent with this section.

(H) Testing performed or sponsored by the division in order to determine a cigarette's compliance with the performance standard required by this subsection (2) shall be conducted in accordance with this subsection (2).

(b) Each cigarette listed in a certification submitted pursuant to subsection (3) of this section that uses lowered permeability bands in the cigarette paper to achieve compliance with the performance standard set forth in this subsection (2) shall have at least two nominally identical bands on the paper surrounding the tobacco column. At least one complete band shall be located at least fifteen millimeters from the lighting end of the cigarette. For cigarettes on which the bands are positioned by design, there shall be at least two bands fully located at least fifteen millimeters from the lighting end and ten millimeters from the filter end of the tobacco column or ten millimeters from the labeled end of the tobacco column for nonfiltered cigarettes.

(c) A manufacturer of a cigarette that the division determines cannot be tested in accordance with the test method prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall propose a test method and performance standard for the cigarette to the division. Upon approval of the proposed test method and a determination by the division that the performance standard proposed by the manufacturer is equivalent to the performance standard prescribed in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the manufacturer may employ such test method and performance standard to certify such cigarette pursuant to this subsection (2). If the division determines that another state has enacted reduced cigarette ignition propensity standards that include a test method and performance standard that are substantially similar to those contained in this subsection (2), and the division finds that the officials responsible for implementing those requirements have approved the proposed alternative test method and performance standard for a particular cigarette proposed by a manufacturer as meeting the reduced cigarette ignition propensity standards of such state's laws or rules under a legal provision comparable to this subsection (2), then the division shall authorize the manufacturer to employ the alternative test method and performance standard to certify such cigarette for sale in Colorado unless the division demonstrates a reasonable basis why the alternative test should not be accepted. All other applicable requirements of this subsection (2) shall apply to the manufacturer.

(d) Each manufacturer shall maintain copies of the reports of all tests conducted on all cigarettes offered for sale for a period of three years and shall make copies of these reports available to the division and the attorney general upon written request. Any manufacturer who fails to make copies of such reports available within sixty days after receiving a written request shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each day after the sixtieth day that the manufacturer does not make such copies available.

(e) The division may adopt a subsequent ASTM international standard test method for measuring the ignition strength of cigarettes upon a finding that such subsequent method does not result in a change in the percentage of full-length burns exhibited by any tested cigarette when compared to the percentage of full-length burns the same cigarette would exhibit when tested in accordance with ASTM international standard E2187-04 and the performance standard in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(f) On or before June 30, 2012, and on or before June 30 of every third year thereafter, the division shall review the effectiveness of this subsection (2) and report to the general assembly the division's findings and, if appropriate, recommendations for legislation to improve the effectiveness of this section.

(g) The requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall not be construed to prohibit:

(I) Wholesale or retail dealers from selling their existing inventory of cigarettes on or after July 31, 2009, if a wholesale or retailer dealer can establish that state tax stamps were affixed to the cigarettes before said date and that the inventory was purchased before said date in comparable quantity to the inventory purchased during the same period of the immediately preceding year; or

(II) The sale of cigarettes solely for the purpose of consumer testing. As used in this subparagraph (II), "consumer testing" means an assessment of cigarettes that is conducted by, or under the control and direction of, a manufacturer for the purpose of evaluating consumer acceptance of such cigarettes, utilizing only the quantity of cigarettes that is reasonably necessary for such assessment.

(h) The division shall implement this section in accordance with the implementation in New York of the New York fire safety standards for cigarettes.

(3) Certification. (a) Each manufacturer shall submit to the director a written certification attesting that each cigarette listed in the certification:
(I) Has been tested in accordance with subsection (2) of this section; and
(II) Meets the performance standard set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(b) Each cigarette listed in the certification submitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall be described with the following information:
(I) Brand or trade name on the package;
(II) Style, such as light or ultra light;
(III) Length in millimeters;
(IV) Circumference in millimeters;
(V) Flavor, such as menthol or chocolate if applicable;
(VI) Filter or nonfilter;
(VII) Package description, such as soft pack or box;
(VIII) Marking pursuant to subsection (4) of this section;
(IX) The name, address, and telephone number of the laboratory that conducted the tests, if different from that of the manufacturer; and
(X) The date that the testing occurred.

(c) Certifications under this subsection (3) shall be made available to the attorney general for purposes consistent with this section and to the department of revenue for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this subsection (3).

(d) Each cigarette certified under this subsection (3) shall be subject to recertification every three years.

(e) At the time it submits a written certification under this subsection (3), a manufacturer shall pay to the department of public safety a fee of one thousand dollars for each brand family of cigarettes listed in the certification. The fee paid shall apply to all cigarettes within the brand family certified and shall include any new cigarette certified within the brand family during the three-year certification period.

(f) There is hereby established, in the state treasury, the reduced cigarette ignition propensity standards and firefighter protection act enforcement fund, also referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall consist of all certification fees and civil penalties collected pursuant to this section and shall, in addition to any other moneys made available for such purpose, be available to the division to support processing, testing, enforcement, and oversight activities under this section. Any moneys in the fund in excess of the amounts needed for such purposes may be used by the division, subject to annual appropriation, for fire safety and prevention programs, including without limitation firefighter training and certification.

(g) If a manufacturer has certified a cigarette pursuant to this subsection (3), and thereafter makes any change to such cigarette that is likely to alter its compliance with the reduced cigarette ignition propensity standard required by this section, such cigarette shall not be sold or offered for sale in this state until the manufacturer retests the cigarette in accordance with the testing standards set forth in subsection (2) of this section and maintains records of the retesting as required by said subsection (2). Any altered cigarette that does not meet the performance standard set forth in said subsection (2) may not be sold in this state.

(4) Labeling. (a) Effective July 31, 2009, cigarettes that are certified by a manufacturer in accordance with subsection (3) of this section shall be marked to indicate compliance with the requirements of this section. Such marking shall be in eight-point type or larger and shall consist of one or more of the following:

(1) The words "Reduced Ignition Propensity Cigarette" in not less than six-point type;
(2) The words "Certified by [Manufacturer's Name]" in not less than six-point type;
(3) The certification number issued by the department of public safety;
(4) The words "Certified [Date]" in not less than six-point type.

(b) The marking required by paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be placed on the cigarette in accordance with the labeling requirements of this section.
(I) Modification of the package's UPC symbol to include a visible mark printed at or around the area of the UPC symbol. The mark may consist of alphanumeric or symbolic characters permanently stamped, engraved, embossed, or printed in conjunction with the UPC symbol.

(II) Any visible combination of alphanumeric or symbolic characters permanently stamped, engraved, embossed, or printed on the cigarette package or cellophane wrap; or

(III) Stamped, engraved, embossed, or printed text that indicates that the cigarettes meet the standards of this section.

(b) A manufacturer shall use only one marking and shall apply the marking uniformly to all brands and packages, including but not limited to packs, cartons, and cases, marketed by the manufacturer.

(c) The manufacturer shall notify the division as to the marking selected by the manufacturer.

(d) Prior to the certification of any cigarette, the manufacturer shall present its proposed marking to the division, which shall have discretion to approve or disapprove the marking; except that:

(I) The division shall approve:

(A) Any marking in use and approved for sale in New York pursuant to the New York fire safety standards for cigarettes; or

(B) The letters "FSC", signifying "fire standards compliant", appearing in eight-point type or larger and permanently stamped, engraved, embossed, or printed on the package at or near the UPC symbol; and

(II) Proposed markings shall be deemed approved if the division fails to act within ten business days after receiving a request for approval.

(e) A manufacturer shall not modify its approved marking unless the modification has been approved by the division in accordance with this subsection (4).

(f) Manufacturers certifying cigarettes in accordance with subsection (3) of this section shall provide a copy of the certifications to all wholesale dealers and agents to which they sell cigarettes and shall also provide sufficient copies of an illustration of the package marking utilized by the manufacturer pursuant to this subsection (4) for each retail dealer to which the wholesale dealers or agents sell cigarettes. Wholesale dealers and agents shall provide copies of these package markings received from manufacturers to all retail dealers to which they sell cigarettes. Wholesale dealers, agents, and retail dealers shall permit the director, the department of revenue, the attorney general, and employees thereof to inspect markings of cigarette packaging marked in accordance with this subsection (4).

(5) Penalties - forfeiture. Effective July 31, 2009:

(a) A manufacturer, wholesale dealer, agent, or other person or entity who knowingly sells or offers to sell cigarettes, other than at retail, in violation of subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars for each pack of such cigarettes sold or offered for sale; except that the penalty against any such person or entity shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars during any thirty-day period.

(b) A retail dealer who knowingly sells or offers to sell cigarettes in violation of subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars for each pack of such cigarettes sold or offered for sale; except that the penalty against any such retail dealer shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for sales or offers to sell during any thirty-day period.

(c) In addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, a corporation, partnership, sole proprietor, limited partnership, or association engaged in the manufacture of cigarettes that knowingly makes a false certification pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of at least seventy-five thousand dollars, not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars for each such false certification.

(d) A person who violates any provision of this section for which a penalty is not specifically provided shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars for a first violation and up to five thousand dollars for a second or subsequent violation.

(e) Cigarettes that have been sold or offered for sale and that do not comply with the performance standard required by subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to forfeiture as provided in the "Colorado Contraband Forfeiture Act", part 5 of article 13 of title 16, C.R.S. Cigarettes forfeited pursuant to this paragraph (e) shall be destroyed; except that, before such destruction, the true holder of the trademark rights in the cigarette brand shall be permitted to inspect the cigarettes if desired.

(f) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the director or the attorney general may file an action in district court for a violation of this section, including petitioning for injunctive relief or to recover any costs or damages suffered by the state and enforcement costs, including attorney fees, relating to the specific violation. Each violation of this section or of rules adopted under this section constitutes a separate civil violation for which the director or attorney general may obtain relief under this paragraph (f).

(g) Whenever a law enforcement officer or duly authorized agent of the director discovers cigarettes that have not been marked as required by subsection (4) of this section, such officer or agent is hereby authorized and empowered to seize and take possession of such cigarettes. Such cigarettes shall be turned over to the department of revenue and shall be forfeited to the state. Cigarettes seized pursuant to this paragraph (g) shall be destroyed; except that, before such destruction, the true holder of the trademark rights in the cigarette brand shall be permitted to inspect the cigarettes if desired.

(6) Rules. (a) The director may promulgate rules in accordance with the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of this title, as necessary to administer this section.

(b) The department of revenue, in the regular course of conducting inspections of wholesale dealers, agents, and retail dealers as authorized by law, may inspect cigarettes to determine whether the cigarettes are marked as required by subsection (4) of this section. If the cigarettes are not marked as required, the department of revenue shall notify the division.

(7) Enforcement. To enforce this section, the attorney general, the department of revenue, the division, all duly authorized employees and agents thereof, and all law enforcement personnel are hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, invoices, and other records of any person in possession, control, or occupancy of any premises where cigarettes are placed, stored, sold, or offered for sale, as well as any cigarettes on the premises. Every person in the possession, control, or occupancy of any premises where cigarettes are placed, stored, sold, or offered for sale is hereby directed and required to give the attorney general, the department of revenue, the division, all duly authorized employees and agents thereof, and all law enforcement personnel the means, facilities, and opportunity for the examinations authorized by this subsection (7).
(8) Exceptions. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person or entity from manufacturing or selling cigarettes that do not meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section if:

(a) The cigarettes are or will be stamped for sale in another state or are packaged for sale outside the United States; and

(b) The person or entity has taken reasonable steps to ensure that such cigarettes will not be sold or offered for sale to persons located in Colorado.

(9) Repeal. (a) The general assembly intends that this section shall cease to be effective upon the effective date of a federal reduced cigarette ignition propensity standard that preempts this section. The division, upon receiving notice of the effectiveness of such federal standard, shall forward such notice to the revisor of statutes.

(b) This section is repealed, effective 12:01 a.m. the day after the revisor of statutes receives notice from the division as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (9).

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the local governmental units of this state may neither enact nor enforce any ordinance or other local law or rule conflicting with, or preempted by, any provision of this section or with any policy of this state expressed by this section.

24-33.5-1215. Volunteer firefighter tuition voucher fund - created. There is hereby created in the state treasury the volunteer firefighter tuition voucher fund, which shall be administered by the division and shall consist of any gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources that the division is hereby required to seek and accept. All moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the division to be used for the purposes set forth in section 24-33.5-1216. All moneys in the fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be retained in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund.

24-33.5-1216. Volunteer firefighters - tuition vouchers - community and technical colleges. (1) The division shall collaborate with the state board for community colleges and occupational education created in section 23-60-104 (1)(b), C.R.S., and the board of the trustees for each local community college as specified in section 23-71-122, C.R.S., to develop a system to provide a tuition voucher for three credits per academic year to a qualified volunteer firefighter who is a full-time or part-time student at an institution in the state system of community and technical colleges or a local community college and who agrees to serve as a volunteer firefighter for no less than four years after completing his or her education at the institution.

(2) For purposes of this section, "local community college" includes Aims community college and Colorado mountain college.
The division shall fund the tuition vouchers specified in subsection (1) of this section from the volunteer firefighter tuition voucher fund created in section 24-33.5-1215; except that, if the volunteer firefighter tuition voucher fund does not have sufficient moneys to fund the tuition vouchers, the division may use any existing appropriation.

24-33.5-1217. Prescribed burning program - training and certification of certified burners - rules - fees. (1) The director shall establish training and certification standards for users of prescribed fire in consultation with the Colorado prescribed fire council or an analogous successor organization. The director may also consult with local fire jurisdictions.

(2) The training and certification standards adopted under this section shall:
(a) Create certified burner and noncertified burner designations for users of prescribed fire on private and nonfederal land;
(b) Establish requirements for certified burners to conduct lawful activities pursuant to authorization under section 18-13-109 (2)(b)(IV), C.R.S., regarding firing of woods or prairie;
(c) Identify processes and procedures for certified burners to conduct a prescribed fire;
(d) Recommend organizational structures for prescribed burn operations;
(e) Establish training standards for certified burners and utilize all means available to make the certified burner training as accessible as possible; and
(f) Clearly identify preexisting fees, permit requirements, liabilities, liability exemptions, and penalties for prescribed burn personnel and landowners, including those specified in sections 25-7-106 (7) and (8) and 25-7-123, C.R.S.

(3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, on and after December 1, 2013, a prescribed fire must be attended by a person certified by the division pursuant to this section and rules promulgated thereto or otherwise authorized under section 24-33.5-1217.5 (1)(c).

   (b) (I) Nothing in this section requires a private landowner to be certified by the division as a certified burner or qualified by national wildfire coordinating group standards as a prescribed burn boss to conduct prescribed fire on the landowner's own property.

   (II) A private landowner or the landowner's designee who is certified by the division as a certified burner or qualified by national wildfire coordinating group standards as a prescribed burn boss is not liable for any civil damages for acts or omissions made in good faith resulting in damage or injury caused by fire or smoke resulting from prescribed burns they conduct on the landowner's own property and in compliance with applicable state laws and local ordinances, unless such private landowner's or designee's acts or omissions are grossly negligent or willful and wanton.

   (III) Nothing in this section exempts private landowners from complying with any other applicable local, state, or federal requirements pertaining to open burning.

(4) The director, by rule, may establish a fee at an amount not to exceed the amount required to recover all direct costs that the division incurs in providing training to and processing applications for persons seeking certification as certified burners pursuant to this section. Any fees so collected shall be deposited into the firefighter, first responder, hazardous materials responder, and prescribed fire training and certification fund created in section 24-33.5-1207.
(5) (a) The director, in consultation with the Colorado state forest service described in part 3 of article 31 of title 23, C.R.S., and in accordance with article 4 of this title:

(I) May adopt any such rules as the director deems necessary to administer the prescribed burning program within the division; and

(II) Shall adopt rules and standards:

(A) Pertaining to the training and certification of certified burners, including training components; application processes; qualification for and terms and durations of certification; types of certification, if applicable; grounds and processes for renewal, suspension, and revocation of certifications; and training, certification, and renewal fees; and

(B) For the use of prescribed burning occurring on state lands or conducted by state agencies on private lands, pursuant to section 24-33.5-1217.5.

(b) The rules and standards promulgated pursuant to sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) constitute the minimum standards for all prescribed burning conducted in the state, except for prescribed burning conducted by an agency of the federal government. To be exempt from these standards, other users of prescribed fire, including local governments and nongovernmental organizations must adopt or have already adopted guidelines or standards that are in substantial compliance with the intent of section 24-33.5-1217.5 for prescribed burning under their control.

(6) (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subsection (6), the director may enter into an agreement with an owner or other person having legal control of property, including a public agency with regulatory or natural resource management authority over any such property, for the use of prescribed burning consistent with this article to prevent high-intensity wildland fires by reducing the volume and continuity of wildland fuels or to achieve other goals, including forest improvement, consistent with this article.

(b) The director shall not enter into an agreement for prescribed burning pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) unless the director first determines that the property owner or other person having legal control of the property has both evaluated all alternatives to prescribed burning and concluded that prescribed burning is an appropriate hazardous fuel reduction method for the property.

(c) Nothing in this section compels any person to enter into an agreement with the director.

(d) (I) Where an agency of the federal government assumes primary responsibility for conducting a prescribed burn in the state, neither the agency nor any other agency of the federal government is required to comply with the rules and standards promulgated pursuant to sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section.

(II) If the director has entered into an agreement with an agency of the federal government as of the effective date of this section of the type described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), nothing in this section shall be construed to require a new agreement or modification of an existing agreement.

(7) (a) The division shall cooperate with and provide advisory services to any person desiring to use prescribed burning, the objective of which is the prevention of high-intensity wildland fires, watershed management, vegetation management, forest improvement, wildlife habitat improvement, or any other objective that is deemed to be in the public interest, or any combination of such objectives.
The division shall provide information and technical assistance to units of local government, upon request from the local government, concerning prescribed burning.

The division may provide standby fire protection to any person using prescribed burning in a manner deemed to be in the public interest, to such extent as personnel, fire crews, and firefighting equipment are requested and available.

The division shall, subject to sufficient funding, institute a public information campaign to promote to the general public the benefits of prescribed burning.

Nothing in this article grants the division authority over any hazardous fuel reduction other than prescribed burning. Forest health, forest improvement, vegetation and watershed management, and hazardous fuel reduction other than prescribed burning remain responsibilities vested in the state forest service.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) In performing the duties assigned to him or her under subsections (5) and (6) of this section, the director shall consult with the Colorado state forest service as described in part 3 of article 31 of title 23, C.R.S.

(b) The prescribed burning standards adopted by the director pursuant to sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section shall be consistent with existing laws and processes that ban, regulate, or have developed recommendations concerning open burning, including sections 18-13-109, 18-13-109.5, 23-31-312, 23-31-313 (6)(a)(II) and (6)(a)(III), 25-7-106 (7) and (8), 25-7-123, 29-20-105.5, and 30-11-124, C.R.S.

(c) Nothing in this section or section 24-33.5-1217.5 or 24-33.5-1217.7 shall be construed to affect the authority of a county government to develop or administer an open burning permit system for the purpose of safely disposing of slash in accordance with the provisions of section 30-15-401 (1)(n.5), C.R.S.

(11) Except as otherwise provided for the fees established and collected pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, all moneys received by the division pursuant to this section shall be credited to the wildland fire cost recovery fund created in section 24-33.5-1220 (4).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-31-313 (6)(a)(III) as it existed prior to 2012.

Cross references: (1) For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1217.3. Authority to permit controlled burns during drought conditions - civil - criminal. The division may provide written authority to persons seeking to conduct... prescribed or controlled fires, such as grassland, forest, or habitat management activities, during drought conditions as specified in section 13-21-105 (2) or 18-13-109 (2)(b)(III), C.R.S. In issuing written authority for prescribed or controlled fires, the division shall conform to and shall not supersede any state or local bans on fires.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 24-33-203 and 24-33-204 as they existed prior to 2013.

Cross references: In 2013, this section was added by the "Colorado Prescribed Burning Act". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 249, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-33.5-1217.5. Minimum prescribed burning standards. (1) The prescribed burning standards adopted by the director pursuant to section 24-33.5-1217 (5)(a)(II)(B) must, at a minimum:

(a) Ensure that prescribed burning is the controlled application of fire to vegetative fuels under specified environmental conditions in accordance with a written prescription plan, which plan:
   (I) Is designed to confine the fire to a predetermined area;
   (II) Is designed to accomplish planned land management objectives, as those objectives are determined by the property owner or natural resource management authority; and
   (III) Conforms to this article and the rules and standards adopted in accordance with this article;

(b) Include information on planning, preparing, and implementing safe, effective prescribed burning, which information:
   (I) Is based on the "interagency prescribed fire planning and implementation procedures guide", as amended, published by the national wildfire coordinating group, or by any successor group; and
   (II) Contains specific criteria with respect to masticated fuels;

(c) Require at least one person, who must be qualified by national wildfire coordinating group standards as a prescribed burn boss at the level commensurate with the complexity of the burn, to be present on site:
   (I) During the conduct of the prescribed burn; and
   (II) (A) Until the fire is adequately confined to reasonably prevent escape of the fire from the area intended to be burned; or
   (B) Until the prescribed burning is completed and all fire is declared to be out;

(d) Establish appropriate guidelines sufficient to:
   (I) Conduct the burn in accordance with the prescription plan; and
   (II) Provide adequate protection for the safety of persons and of adjacent property;

(e) Evaluate alternatives to prescribed burning, such as mechanical treatment, and guide the user through the safe and prudent application of prescribed burning, when it is determined to be an appropriate method; and
(f) Set forth requirements for record keeping; public information campaigns; and timely notice of prescribed burning to adjacent landowners, local authorities, and, to the extent practicable, potentially affected neighbors.

(2) All users of prescribed fire shall comply with the applicable provisions of the "Colorado Air Pollution Prevention and Control Act", part 1 of article 7 of title 25, C.R.S., and its implementing regulations, and shall obtain a permit for prescribed fire pursuant to section 25-7-123, C.R.S.

(3) The rules and standards adopted by the director must be promulgated in consultation with the Colorado state forest service as described in part 3 of article 31 of title 23, C.R.S., the Colorado prescribed fire council, or an analogous successor organization, and other subject matter experts as the director deems appropriate. In promulgating such rules and standards, the director shall consider the current state of research and best management practices for prescribed burning.

24-33.5-1217.7. Escaped prescribed fires. (1) If a prescribed fire exceeds the control capability of on-site resources, the fire is deemed to be escaped, and suppression actions shall be taken immediately to bring the escape under control.

(2) The division shall conduct or cause to be conducted a formal review following escape of a prescribed fire. The purpose of the review is to identify the factors that contributed to the escape, including compliance with policy requirements, in an effort to reduce the occurrence or prevent future escapes.

(3) Wildfires burning uncontrolled on forested, brush, or grassland areas that pose a hazard to life and property constitute a public nuisance. Employees or agents of the division have the right to enter land to control, suppress, or investigate wildfires without liability for trespass.

(4) In order to prevent high-intensity or catastrophic wildland fires, local, state, or federal firefighters may enter lands and construct fire lines or fire breaks to prevent further spread of wildfires, without liability for trespass.

24-33.5-1218. Cooperation with governmental units. In connection with its powers and duties concerning the protection of the forest lands of the state from fire, the division may cooperate and coordinate with the United States forest service, the United States secretary of the interior, the United States secretary of agriculture, the state board of land commissioners, and the counties for such protection and may advise and aid in preventing forest fires on state and private lands in the national forests in the state, including coordinating with the United States secretary of the interior and the United States secretary of agriculture to develop management plans for federal lands within the state of Colorado pursuant to 16 U.S.C. sec. 530, 16 U.S.C. sec. 1604, and 43 U.S.C. sec. 1712; but nothing contained in this section shall be construed as transferring to the division the duties or responsibilities of the sheriffs of the various counties with respect to forest fire control laws.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-31-203 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1219. Wildland fires - duty of sheriff to report. It is the duty of the sheriffs of the various counties of the state to report as soon as practicable the occurrence of any fire in any forest in the state, either on private or public lands, to the division or its authorized agent, and, upon receiving notice from any source of a fire in any forest, it is the duty of the agent of the division to aid and assist in controlling or extinguishing the same, if necessary.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-31-204 as it existed prior to 2012.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1220. Funds available - emergency fire fund - wildland fire equipment repair fund - wildland fire cost recovery fund - creation - gifts, grants, and donations authorized. (1) The governor's emergency fund may be used for the purpose of preventing and suppressing forest and wildland fires, in accordance with part 7 of this article.

(2) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the emergency fire fund, which fund shall be administered by the division, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), to fund emergency responses to wildfires. The division is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. The fund consists of all moneys that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly and all private and public funds, including from counties and the Denver water board, received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. All interest earned from the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes indicated in this section. Any moneys not expended at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(b) The division shall use the moneys in the emergency fire fund to provide funding or reimbursement for wildfires in accordance with memoranda of understanding with participating public entities.

(3) There is hereby created in the state treasury the wildland fire equipment repair cash fund, which fund shall be administered by the division to fund the costs of fire equipment maintenance and repair. The division is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. The fund consists of all moneys that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly and all private and public funds, including from counties and the Denver water board, received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. All interest earned from the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section. Any moneys not expended at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(4) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the wildland fire cost recovery fund, to be administered by the division for personnel and operating expenses associated with wildland fire suppression activities. The division is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this subsection (4). The fund consists of all moneys recovered for the division's expenditures for wildland fire suppression, moneys that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly, and all private and public funds, including from counties and the Denver water board, received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. The fund is noninterest-bearing. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes set forth in this subsection (4). Any moneys not expended at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(b) Notwithstanding any limitation on the amount of advances set forth in section 24-75-203 (2), the controller may authorize an advance without interest in any amount to be made to the division to provide it with working capital for the operation of wildland fire suppression activities to which wildland fire cost recovery fund moneys are allocated pursuant to this subsection (4).

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the funds established under subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section are exempt from the limitations set forth in section 24-75-402.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-31-303 (1) as it existed prior to 2012.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.
24-33.5-1221. State responsibility - determination by the director - intergovernmental agreements required - terms included - definitions - legislative declaration. (1) The director shall determine, in consultation with local authorities and with the approval of the governor, geographic areas of the state, including wildland-urban interface areas, in which the state has a financial responsibility for managing forest and wildland fires. The management of fires in all other areas is primarily the responsibility of local or federal agencies, as the case may be. The director may exclude all lands owned or controlled by the federal government or any agency thereof, and the director shall exclude all lands within the exterior boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(2) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) Because wildland fires so often traverse the territorial boundaries of political subdivisions, the full cooperation of governmental entities within whose territorial boundaries forest lands, rangelands, or wildland areas are located is necessary to ensure adequate protection against those fires;

(II) Because wildland fires cross territorial boundaries, particularly if cooperative fire mitigation policies are not established and maintained, protecting the public from the dangers of such fires, especially fires occurring in wildland-urban interface areas, is a necessary endeavor and a matter of statewide concern; and

(III) This subsection (2) is enacted for the purpose of requiring intergovernmental cooperation between a county and any state agency that owns wildland areas located within the county to mitigate the harm caused by wildland fires affecting land areas in the interest of protecting the public health and safety.

(b) As used in this subsection (2), unless the context otherwise requires:

(I) "Forest land" means land of which at least ten percent is stocked by forest trees of any size and includes land that formerly had such tree cover and that will be naturally or artificially regenerated. "Forest land" includes roadside, streamside, and shelterbelt strips of timber that have a crown width of at least one hundred twenty feet. "Forest land" includes unimproved roads and trails, streams, and clearings that are less than one hundred twenty feet wide.

(II) "Rangeland" means an expanse of land that is unforested and on which it is suitable for livestock to wander and graze.

(III) "State agency" has the meaning set forth in section 24-18-102.

(IV) "Wildland area" means an area in which development is essentially nonexistent, except for roads, railroads, power lines, and similar infrastructure, and in which structures, if present, are widely scattered.

(V) "Wildland fire" means an unplanned or unwanted fire in a forest land, rangeland, or wildland area, including an unauthorized human-caused fire, an out-of-control prescribed fire, and any other fire in a forest land, rangeland, or wildland area where the objective is to extinguish the fire.

(c) (I) (A) On or before January 1, 2017, each state agency that owns any land constituting forest land, rangeland, or wildland area shall enter into an intergovernmental agreement with each county in which the land is located to mitigate wildland fires affecting the land areas of the state agency and county. In making such intergovernmental agreement, the parties to the agreement shall consult with any utility providers that have facilities in the areas subject to the agreements to the extent that the agreements will affect the providers.
(B) Sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) does not apply to rights-of-way, conservation easements, or state trust lands. However, the department of natural resources and the state land board shall evaluate the feasibility of entering into intergovernmental agreements similar to those required under sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) for state trust lands. Prior to September 1, 2014, the department of natural resources shall report to the wildfire matters review committee created in section 2-3-1602, C.R.S., regarding any conclusions reached subsequent to this evaluation, including reasonable alternatives to address wildland fire mitigation and suppression costs with counties in which state trust lands are located.

(II) Any agreement required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) must address the following matters:

(A) The identification of all parties to the agreement and their respective roles and responsibilities regarding the mitigation and management of wildland fires;

(B) The procedures for cooperation and coordination among the parties to the agreement;

(C) Management objectives for forest land and wildland fire prevention, preparedness, mitigation, suppression, reclamation, or rehabilitation, and the designation of the state agency with fiscal and operational authority for each objective;

(D) A description of available emergency or mutual aid resources in the event of wildland fires;

(E) Identification of the party or parties responsible for paying the costs of suppression of wildfires occurring on state-owned lands;

(F) The specification that reimbursement and billing procedures will be handled through the division's existing billing process; and

(G) Action that may be undertaken by one party to the agreement if another party to the agreement fails to satisfy its duties or responsibilities under the agreement.

(d) The agreement required under paragraph (c) of this subsection (2) must be executed by all parties to the agreement.

(e) Nothing in this subsection (2) alters or affects the manner in which suppression costs are handled:

(I) During an agreed-upon mutual aid period; or

(II) Pursuant to an existing agreement.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-31-304 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1222. Cooperation by counties. The boards of county commissioners may, in their discretion, cooperate and coordinate with the governing bodies of organized fire districts, fire departments, and municipal corporations; with private parties; with other counties; with the director; with the United States secretary of the interior; with the United States secretary of agriculture; and with an agency of the United States government in the management and prevention of forest fires. Such boards of county commissioners are authorized to participate in the organization and training of rural fire-fighting groups, in the payment for the operation and maintenance of fire-fighting equipment, and in sharing the cost of managing fires.

24-33.5-1225. Emergencies. When the governor finds that conditions of extreme fire hazard exist, he or she may by proclamation close such land as he or she may find to be in such condition of extreme hazard to the general public and prohibit or limit burning thereon to such a degree and in such ways as he or she deems necessary to reduce the danger of forest fire. The governor shall declare the end of any such emergency only upon a finding that the conditions of extreme fire hazard no longer exist.

24-33.5-1226.  Wildfire emergency response fund - creation - gifts, grants, and donations authorized.  (1) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the wildfire emergency response fund, which fund shall be administered by the division. The division is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. The fund consists of all moneys that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly, any moneys transferred to the fund by the state treasurer pursuant to section 24-33.5-706 (4.5) or transferred pursuant to section 10-3-209 (4), C.R.S., and all private and public funds received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. All interest earned from the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes indicated in this section. Any moneys not expended at the end of the fiscal year remain in the fund and do not transfer or revert to the general fund.

(b) The general assembly finds that the implementation of this section does not rely on the receipt of adequate funding through gifts, grants, or donations. Therefore, the notice requirements specified in section 24-75-1303 (3) are inapplicable to the wildfire emergency response fund.

(2) At a minimum, the division shall use the moneys in the wildfire emergency response fund to provide funding or reimbursement for:

(a) The first aerial tanker flight or the first hour of a firefighting helicopter operating on a wildfire at the request of any county sheriff, municipal fire department, or fire protection district; and

(b) The employment of wildfire hand crews to fight a wildfire for the first two days of a wildfire at the request of any county sheriff, municipal fire department, or fire protection district, with a preference for the use of wildfire hand crews from the inmate disaster relief program created in section 17-24-124, C.R.S.

(3) On an annual basis, the governor may authorize the division to increase the use of the wildfire emergency response fund to provide funding or reimbursement for additional aerial tanker flights or additional usage of wildfire hand crews to fight a wildfire. The director shall include a request for such authorization in, and in accordance with, the annual wildfire preparedness plan recommendations developed pursuant to section 24-33.5-1227 (2).

(4) Nothing in this section precludes or prevents the governor, in his or her discretion, from authorizing additional increases or decreasing the use of the wildfire emergency response fund if the actual wildfire situation is more or less severe than anticipated at the time the wildfire preparedness plan required under section 24-33.5-1227 (2) was prepared.

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2013.)

24-33.5-1227. Wildfire preparedness fund - creation - gifts, grants, and donations authorized - wildfire preparedness plan - report. (1) (a) (I) There is hereby created in the state treasury the wildfire preparedness fund. The fund consists of all money that may be appropriated thereto by the general assembly, all private and public money received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund, all money transferred to the fund pursuant to section 34-63-102 (5.4)(b)(II), all money transferred to the fund from the healthy forests and vibrant communities fund created in section 23-31-313 (10), money transferred pursuant to section 39-29-109.3 (2)(n)(I)(C), and money transferred pursuant to subsection (1)(a)(II) of this section. All interest earned from the investment of money in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The money in the fund is hereby continuously appropriated for the purposes indicated in this section. Any money not expended at the end of the fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(II) On July 1, 2017, the state treasurer shall transfer eighty-six thousand three hundred sixty-four dollars from the general fund to the wildfire preparedness fund.

(b) By executive order or proclamation, the governor may access and designate moneys in the wildfire preparedness fund for wildfire preparedness activities; except that moneys in the wildfire preparedness fund that have been transferred from the healthy forests and vibrant communities fund created in section 23-31-313 (10), C.R.S., and moneys transferred pursuant to section 39-29-109.3 (2)(n)(I)(C), C.R.S., may be used only for the purposes set forth in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (1). The division shall implement the directives set forth in such executive order or proclamation. As soon as practicable after issuing the executive order or proclamation, the governor shall notify the joint budget committee of any moneys so accessed and designated.

(c) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c), the division may use the moneys in the wildfire preparedness fund to provide funding or reimbursement for the purchase of fire shelters by volunteer fire departments in order to comply with applicable federal requirements.

(II) The division shall use moneys in the wildfire preparedness fund transferred from the healthy forests and vibrant communities fund created in section 23-31-313 (10), C.R.S., and moneys transferred pursuant to section 39-29-109.3 (2)(n)(I)(C), C.R.S., to:

(A) Increase upgrades to fire engines acquired through the federal excess personal property program that are on loan to local fire departments;

(B) Increase technical assistance in wildland fire preparedness to counties, municipalities, and fire protection districts; and

(C) Ensure, in conjunction with the wildfire preparedness plan developed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, that state firefighting equipment is fully operational and both available to and coordinated with the equipment capacities of fire protection districts and that county, municipality, and fire protection districts personnel are fully trained in the use of such equipment.
(III) The division may use moneys in the wildfire preparedness fund for the purpose of training, equipping, or supervising one or more hand crews employed by veterans' fire corps programs in Colorado for wildland fire mitigation and suppression.

(d) The general assembly finds that the implementation of this section does not rely on the receipt of adequate funding through gifts, grants, or donations. Therefore, the notice requirements specified in section 24-75-1303 (3) are inapplicable to the wildfire preparedness fund.

(2) (a) To effectively implement section 24-33.5-1226 and to provide recommendations to the governor related to use of the disaster emergency fund pursuant to section 24-33.5-706 and the wildfire preparedness fund created in subsection (1) of this section, the director, a representative of the county sheriffs of Colorado, a representative of the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, the director of the office of emergency management created in part 7 of this article, and the adjutant general or his or her designee shall collaborate to develop a wildfire preparedness plan designed to address the following:

(I) The amount of aerial firefighting resources necessary for the state of Colorado at times of high and low wildfire risk;

(II) The availability of appropriate aerial firefighting equipment and personnel at times of high fire risk to respond to a wildfire;

(III) The availability of state wildfire engines and staffing of the engines at different levels of wildfire risk;

(IV) The availability of wildfire hand crews, including state inmate wildfire hand crews, at different levels of wildfire risk; and

(V) A process for ordering and dispatching aerial firefighting equipment and personnel that is consistent with, and supportive of, the statewide all-hazards resource mobilization plan prepared pursuant to section 24-33.5-705.4.

(b) The wildfire preparedness plan recommendations developed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be updated each March 15. Notwithstanding section 24-1-136 (11), the director shall submit a written report of the wildfire preparedness plan to the governor and the members of the general assembly no later than each April 1.

(c) The director, the representative of the county sheriffs of Colorado, the representative of the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, the director of the office of emergency management created in part 7 of this article, and the adjutant general or his or her designee shall not receive additional compensation for the collaboration required by this subsection (2) for the development of the wildfire preparedness plan.

(3) The director may enter into agreements to provide firefighting services, including personnel or firefighting aircraft, engines, or other vehicles to federal, state, or local agencies. Any moneys received pursuant to such agreements shall be credited to the wildland fire cost recovery fund created in section 24-33.5-1220 (4).

(4) Procedures governing the development, adoption, and implementation of community wildfire protection plans by county governments are specified in section 30-15-401.7, C.R.S. Nothing in this section affects section 30-15-401.7, C.R.S.

24-33.5-1228. Colorado firefighting air corps - creation - powers - aircraft acquisitions required - center of excellence - unmanned aircraft systems study and pilot program - Colorado firefighting air corps fund - creation - report - rules. (1) There is hereby created in the division the Colorado firefighting air corps, also referred to in this section as the "C-FAC".

(2) (a) The division may:
(I) Purchase, acquire, lease, or contract for the provision of firefighting aircraft, facilities, equipment, and supplies for aerial firefighting; and
(II) Retrofit, maintain, staff, operate, and support the firefighting aircraft or contract for the provision of those services.

(b) (I) The director may enter into agreements with federal agencies or other states for the provision of the C-FAC's firefighting aircraft when the aircraft are not being utilized for fires or other emergencies in Colorado.

(II) The director shall establish reimbursement rates for the direct and indirect costs of providing aircraft from the C-FAC that are requested through the interagency dispatch system or pursuant to an agreement described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b). All reimbursements shall be credited to the Colorado firefighting air corps fund created in subsection (3) of this section.

(c) The director may fulfill any of the duties contained in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) through the use of public-private partnerships with one or more private or public entities.

(2.5) (a) Within eighteen months after May 12, 2014, the division shall operate a center of excellence for advanced technology aerial firefighting, also referred to in this section as the "center of excellence", based on the innovations proposed, analyzed, reviewed, evaluated, or implemented by the C-FAC in the technology, tactics, and economics of aerial resources, particularly in connection with the activities described in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section. The executive director shall include in his or her annual report required under section 2-7-203, C.R.S., an update regarding the center of excellence, including the center's activities, findings, and needs.

(b) The center of excellence shall perform, but is not limited to, the following functions:
(I) Serve as an integrated repository for science-based evaluation of the three fundamental contributing factors to successful aerial firefighting: Effectiveness, efficiency, and sustainability;
(II) Review current regular research and assessment projects to evaluate:
(A) New and existing technologies for integration into tactical fire scenarios in a variety of settings, such as initial attack, night operations, and operations in wildland urban interface areas; and

(B) Sustainable contracting and value propositions to determine which technologies and contract vehicles are most advantageous and cost-effective to entities performing or providing aerial firefighting;

(III) Review current data and documentation on science and technology relevant to aerial firefighting and make the results of the center of excellence's research and assessment projects available to persons interested in aerial firefighting effectiveness, efficiency, and sustainability, including fire managers, policy decision-makers, scientists, students, and any other requesting persons; and

(IV) Establish and support a Colorado wildland fire prediction and decision support system in accordance with section 24-33.5-1232.

(c) (I) In addition to performing the functions described in subsection (2.5)(b) of this section, upon receiving sufficient money in the form of gifts, grants, and donations, the center of excellence shall conduct a study concerning the integration of unmanned aircraft systems within state and local government operations that relate to certain public-safety functions. At a minimum, the study must:

(A) Identify the most feasible and readily available ways to integrate unmanned aircraft systems technology within local and state government functions relating to firefighting, search and rescue, accident reconstruction, crime scene documentation, emergency management, and emergencies involving significant property loss or potential for injury or death; and

(B) For each application of unmanned aircraft systems that the center of excellence identifies pursuant to subsection (2.5)(c)(I)(A) of this section, include consideration of privacy concerns, costs, and timeliness of deployment.

(II) Not later than one month after completing the study described in subsection (2.5)(c)(I) of this section, the center of excellence shall submit a report describing the results of its study to the wildfire matters review committee created in section 2-3-1602 and the house agriculture, livestock, and natural resources committee and the senate agriculture, natural resources, and energy committee, or any successor committees. The report must address each item described in subsection (2.5)(c)(I) of this section, as well as the results of the unmanned aircraft system pilot program described in subsection (2.5)(d) of this section.

(d) (I) As part of the study described in subsection (2.5)(c)(I) of this section, upon receiving sufficient money in the form of gifts, grants, and donations, on and after June 5, 2017, the center of excellence shall operate an unmanned aircraft system pilot program, referred to within this section as the "pilot program", to integrate unmanned aircraft systems within state and local government operations that relate to certain public-safety functions.

(II) As part of the pilot program, the department of public safety shall deploy at least one team of unmanned aircraft system operators to a region within the state that has been designated by the division as a fire hazard. The pilot program must train the unmanned aircraft system operators to operate unmanned aircraft systems in various contexts relating to firefighting, search and rescue, accident reconstruction, crime scene documentation, emergency management, and emergencies involving significant property loss or potential for injury or death. Unmanned aircraft system operators may be compensated by the center during their training.
(III) In operating the pilot program, the center of excellence shall not interfere with any active wildfire suppression effort unless the center is granted permission to assist in such effort by a supervising agency with the authority to grant such permission.

(3) (a) The division shall administer the Colorado firefighting air corps fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The division may seek and accept gifts, grants, reimbursements, investments, bond revenues, sales proceeds, commissions for services, sponsorships, advertising fees, licensing fees, profits, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. The fund consists of all money that may be appropriated to the fund by the general assembly, and all private and public funds received through gifts, grants, reimbursements, investments, bond revenues, sales proceeds, commissions for services, sponsorships, advertising fees, licensing fees, profits, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund. All interest earned from the investment of money in the fund is credited to the fund. The money in the fund is continuously appropriated for the purposes indicated in subsection (3)(c) of this section. Any money not expended at the end of the fiscal year remains in the fund.

(b) The general assembly finds that the implementation of this section does not rely entirely on the receipt of adequate funding through gifts, grants, or donations. Therefore, the division is not subject to the notice requirements specified in section 24-75-1303 (3).

(c) The division shall use the money in the Colorado firefighting air corps fund for the purposes of subsection (2.5) of this section and for paying the direct and indirect costs of maintaining the Colorado firefighting air corps, including expenses associated with acquisition, retrofitting, labor, equipment, supply, transportation, air, mobilization, repair, maintenance, and demobilization.

(4) The director shall include, in his or her annual report to the wildfire matters review committee required under section 24-33.5-1203.5 (3), an update regarding the division's activities under this section, including the number and type of aerial firefighting resources acquired or contracted for during the fire season in which the committee meets, an assessment of the effectiveness of the aerial firefighting program, an estimate of anticipated budget and other resource needs to sustain or improve the C-FAC's operations, and other information related to aerial firefighting that the director deems pertinent.

(5) (a) As soon as practicable after May 12, 2014, the division shall acquire or contract for firefighting aircraft for use during the 2014 fire season. In making such acquisitions or contracts, the division shall adhere, as nearly as feasible and appropriate and within available appropriations, to the recommendations made in the division's "special report: Colorado firefighting air corps, report to the governor and general assembly on strategies to enhance the state's aerial firefighting capabilities", dated March 28, 2014; except that nothing in this subsection (5):

(I) Requires the director to contract for exclusive use of any aircraft; or

(II) Limits the director's ability to determine the actual number, kind, type, and location of aviation assets based on preparedness levels, wildfire risk and activity, weather, location of other aerial assets, available appropriations, and other appropriate criteria.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (5) abrogates, reduces, or otherwise affects the division's powers under subsection (2) of this section with regard to subsequent fire seasons, including the authority to obtain or arrange for suitable aircraft and associated resources.
(c) In addition to the acquisitions or contracts made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the division may use any appropriations for the Colorado firefighting air corps for the center of excellence described in subsection (2) of this section.

(6) The division shall seek to maximize its aerial firefighting capacity consistent with the recommendations of the director and within the division's available budget.

(7) The director may establish general statements of policy or promulgate rules as he or she deems necessary or convenient to implement this section, including specifying additional functions to be performed by, or methods of operation of, the center of excellence created in subsection (2) of this section. Rules shall be adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title.

24-33.5-1229. Lump-sum death benefits for seasonal wildland firefighters - definition - rules. (1) If the director determines that an eligible seasonal wildland firefighter has died as the direct and proximate result of a personal injury sustained in the line of duty in Colorado, the division shall pay a benefit of ten thousand dollars as follows, if the payee indicated is living on the date on which the determination is made:

(a) If there is no child who survived the seasonal wildland firefighter, to the surviving spouse of the seasonal wildland firefighter;

(b) If there is at least one child who survived the seasonal wildland firefighter and a surviving spouse of the seasonal wildland firefighter, fifty percent to the surviving child or children, in equal shares, and fifty percent to the surviving spouse;

(c) If there is no surviving spouse of the seasonal wildland firefighter, to the surviving child or children, in equal shares;

(d) If there is no surviving spouse of the seasonal wildland firefighter and no surviving child:

(I) To the surviving individual or individuals designated by the seasonal wildland firefighter in the most recently executed designation of beneficiary on file at the time of death with the governing body or state agency, apportioned in accordance with the designation of beneficiary or, if apportionment is not indicated, in equal shares; or

(II) If there is no individual qualifying under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), to the surviving beneficiaries under the most recently executed life insurance policy of the seasonal wildland firefighter on file at the time of death with the governing body or state agency, apportioned in accordance with the insurance policy or, if apportionment is not indicated, in equal shares;

(e) If there is no individual qualifying under paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this subsection (1), to the surviving parent or parents, in equal shares, of the seasonal wildland firefighter.

(2) (a) Eligibility for payment in accordance with subsection (1) of this section also extends to the survivor or survivors of a seasonal wildland firefighter who dies after separation from service with the governing agency body or state agency if the death resulted from an injury sustained in the line of duty in Colorado.

(b) For purposes of this section, notwithstanding section 24-33.5-1202 (12.5), while not employees or volunteers of the department of corrections or the state, "seasonal wildland fighter" also includes members of the Colorado correctional industries' state wildland inmate fire team crews, also known as "SWIFT" crews. Any compensation made for the death of a "SWIFT" crew member shall be the exclusive remedy from the state, any state entity, or any state employee for the death.

(3) No benefit shall be paid under this section if:

(a) The fatal or catastrophic injury was caused by the intentional misconduct of the seasonal wildland firefighter or by his or her intention to bring about his or her own death, disability, or injury; or
(b) The seasonal wildland firefighter was voluntarily intoxicated or under the influence of an illegal substance at the time of his or her fatal or catastrophic injury.

(4) (a) The director may make payments under this section from any fund the director administers, and that fund will be reimbursed by a regular or supplemental appropriation by the general assembly. The division is also authorized to purchase a group life insurance policy to provide benefits in accordance with this section.

(b) A payment under this section cannot be used to offset or reduce payments available from any other source, including a public disability plan or insurance plan, private disability plan or insurance plan, or benefits provided under Colorado's workers' compensation law.

(5) The director may adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in SB 14-047, see section 1 of chapter 41, Session Laws of Colorado 2014.

24-33.5-1230. Wildfire information and resource center. (1) (a) In order to improve protection of the public by enhancing access to information by homeowners, wildland fire professionals, the media, and educators, there is hereby created in the division the wildfire information and resource center, also referred to in this section as the "center".

(b) The center must be operational within sixty days of May 14, 2014.

(2) (a) The center is an online source of wildfire information for homeowners, wildland fire professionals, the media, and educators.

(b) The center's website must include information, or hyperlinks to information, regarding:
(I) Current wildfires in Colorado;
(II) How to prevent and prepare for a wildfire;
(III) Statewide fire danger and current burning restrictions;
(IV) Current prescribed burn activity, with contact information for the responsible agency;
(V) Wildland and prescribed fire training;
(VI) Sources of funding for wildfire mitigation activities; and
(VII) Other information that the director deems pertinent, such as results of local, state, or national research related to wildfire.

(3) The director may fulfill any of the duties contained in subsection (2) of this section through the use of public-private partnerships with one or more private or public entities.

(4) (a) The division is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, donations, or reimbursements from private or public sources for the purposes of this section.
       (b) The general assembly finds that the implementation of this section does not rely entirely or in any part on the receipt of adequate funding through gifts, grants, or donations. Therefore, the division is not subject to the notice requirements specified in section 24-75-1303 (3).

24-33.5-1231. Local firefighter safety and disease prevention fund - creation - grants - rules. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the local firefighter safety and disease prevention fund. The fund consists of all moneys that may be appropriated to the fund by the general assembly, all private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations that are transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the fund, and all moneys transferred to the fund pursuant to section 34-63-102 (5.4)(b)(II), C.R.S. The state treasurer shall credit all interest earned from the investment of moneys in the fund to the fund. The moneys in the fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the division for the purposes indicated in this section. Any moneys not expended at the end of each fiscal year remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to or revert to the general fund.

(2) The division shall use the moneys in the fund to award need-based grants to governing bodies and volunteer fire departments to provide funding or reimbursement for equipment and training designed to increase firefighter safety and prevent occupation-related diseases. The division may expend up to three percent per year from the fund for its direct and indirect costs in administering the grant program. The general assembly intends that the need-based grants from the fund are in addition to, and do not supplant, other sources of funding regarding firefighting.

(3) The director shall promulgate rules governing the award of grants pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, including consideration of:
       (a) The recommendations of the fire service training, certification, and firefighter safety advisory board, created in section 24-33.5-1204 (1), concerning the grant application process, funding priorities, and the criteria for awarding grants;
       (b) How to structure the grant application process, which must include a merit-based, peer-review process with grant reviewers from the Colorado state fire chiefs, Colorado professional fire fighters association, and the Colorado state fire fighters association, in equal representation. The peer reviewers shall make recommendations to the director on the award of grants under the program.

(c) The findings of the Colorado fire service needs assessment, which the division shall conduct at least every other year; and

(d) An applicant's efforts to finance equipment and training designed to increase firefighter safety other than through an award of a grant pursuant to this section.

24-33.5-1232. Colorado wildland fire prediction and decision support system - definitions - development - contract. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Organization" means an organization that is organized as a not-for-profit entity or has obtained tax-exempt status under section 501 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and is a Colorado-based research organization focused on research, education, and advanced technology development for atmospheric and related earth sciences. The organization must have the ability to provide environmental predictions and conduct a wide range of hydrologic and weather science. The organization must also have strong environmental modeling and related applied research functionality, including robust ties to the state and national university and science community so as to obtain additional expertise and partnering as needed.

(b) "System" means the Colorado wildland fire prediction and decision support system.

(c) "Users" means all government entities.

(2) (a) Beginning with the 2015-16 state fiscal year, the division, through its center of excellence for advanced technology aerial firefighting created in section 24-33.5-1228 (2.5), shall establish and support a Colorado wildland fire prediction and decision support system.

(b) The system must be science based and able to:

(I) Improve the ability of the division to predict wildland fire behavior by taking advantage of technologies emerging from an organization;

(II) Improve the safety and efficiency of the division's operations;

(III) Improve flight operations of the Colorado firefighting air corps created in section 24-33.5-1228 by providing aviation weather hazard information such as updrafts, downdrafts, rotors, and wind shear;

(IV) Enhance mechanisms for communicating wildland fire hazard information to users; and

(V) Integrate wildland fire behavior information with prediction technologies into information infrastructures that serve users.

(c) The division shall assist in the coordination of users across the state to further refine the system.

(d) Notwithstanding the requirements of articles 101 to 112 of this title, no later than December 1, 2015, the director of the division shall enter into a contract to partner with an organization for the establishment and support of the system. The division may not be required to perform work or provide assistance that is outside of the division's scope of responsibilities as established in the contract.

(e) After the contract is entered into, the division and the organization shall further develop the system by including detailed user requirements and user-centric verification metrics and methods and shall build a Colorado-specific framework that includes:

(I) Data ingestion of real-time weather, up-to-date fuel information, and fire detection data;

(II) The capability to easily configure a fire's location, domain size, grid resolution, and fire ignition time; and

(III) Data interfaces and display applications that allow users to view the output on a variety of platforms, including mobile devices and existing applications and systems.

The division may solicit and accept monetary and in-kind gifts, grants, and donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. All private and public moneys received by the division through gifts, grants, or donations must be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the Colorado firefighting air corps fund created in section 24-33.5-1228. The gifts, grants, or donations credited to the fund for the purposes of this section are continuously appropriated to the division for the direct and indirect costs associated with the implementation of this section.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS RESPONDER VOLUNTARY CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

24-33.5-1401 to 24-33.5-1406. (Repealed)
Editor's note: (1) This part 14 was added in 1989. For amendments to this part 14 prior to its repeal in 2011, consult the 2010 Colorado Revised Statutes and the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) Section 24-33.5-1406 provided for the repeal of this part 14, effective July 1, 2011. (See L. 2011, p. 1051.)

(3) For the amendments to § 24-33.5-1405 and the addition of § 24-33.5-1406 that were in effect from June 30, 2011, to July 1, 2011, see chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2011. (L. 2011, p. 1051.)

PART 15

COLORADO EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMISSION

Editor's note: This part 15 was added in 1990. It was repealed in 1992 and was subsequently recreated and reenacted with relocations in 2012, resulting in the addition, relocation, or elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For the text of this part 15 prior to 1992, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers prior to 2012 are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act recreating and reenacting this part 15, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2601 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1502. Definitions. (1) All terms used in this part 15 have the same meaning as defined under the federal "Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986", 42 U.S.C. sec. 11001 et seq., Pub.L. 99-499, and regulations thereunder, referred to in this part 15 as the "federal act".

(2) As used in this part 15:
   (a) "Director" means the director of the division of homeland security and emergency management created in section 24-33.5-1603.
(b) "Subcommittee" means the emergency planning subcommittee of the homeland security and all-hazards senior advisory committee created in section 24-33.5-1614 (3.5).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2602 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1503. Colorado emergency planning commission - creation - duties. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Prior to its repeal, this section was similar to former § 24-32-2603 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1503.5. Powers and duties of the director - legislative intent - rules. (1) It is the intent of the general assembly that the director, with the advice of the subcommittee, promulgate rules pursuant to this part 15 that encourage:

(a) Consistency between information requested by the director and the purposes of implementation of the federal act; and

(b) Cost-effective reporting and the consideration of reasonable reporting threshold levels and reporting formats.

(2) Consistent with the powers and duties imposed upon him or her by the federal act, or granted to it in this part 15, the director has the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt all reasonable rules necessary for the administration of this part 15. Such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with article 4 of this title.

(b) To establish a uniform system for reporting and management of information required by the federal act;

(c) To create and adopt such forms as are necessary for the uniform reporting and management of information required by the federal act, including:

(I) A standardized tier II reporting form to replace the tier II form which is required under the federal act, and which shall be accepted by local emergency planning committees in reporting the information contained therein; and

(II) A standardized facility contingency plan form as an addendum to the form required in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c), which shall be used for the collection of emergency planning information from facilities by local emergency planning committees. This form shall include space in which local emergency planning committees may require additional information of local concern.

(d) To coordinate his or her activities with those of the Colorado state patrol relating to the transportation of hazardous materials.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2603.5 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1504. Local emergency planning committees - creation and duties. (1) The subcommittee shall designate local emergency planning districts to develop emergency response and preparedness capabilities in accordance with the federal act. The boundaries of such districts shall be the same as the boundaries of either a county, municipality, or a combination thereof.

(2) Upon the request of the subcommittee, the primary governing body having jurisdiction over the local emergency planning district, the county commissioners, or the city council, as the case may be, shall provide nominations for membership on the local emergency planning committee. The subcommittee shall appoint members of a local emergency planning committee for each emergency planning district in accordance with the federal act. For local emergency planning districts for which no nominations have been submitted by the governing body, the subcommittee may designate either the county commissioners or city council, as the case may be, to serve as the local emergency planning committee.

(3) Local emergency planning committees shall perform the duties described under the federal act.

(4) Unless another entity is so designated by the governor, the subcommittee is the state emergency response commission required under the federal act.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2604 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1505. Immunity. (1) Except for willful and wanton acts or omissions, no state commission or agency or county or municipal agency, including local emergency planning committees, citizen corps councils, fire protection districts, and volunteer fire, ambulance, or emergency service and rescue groups, nor their officers, officials, directors, employees, or volunteers, when engaged in emergency planning, service, or response activities regarding a hazardous material release, threat of release, or act of terrorism, shall be liable for:

(a) The death of or injury to any person or for the loss of or damage to property or the environment resulting from the hazardous material release, threat of release, or act of terrorism; or

(b) The acts of an insurer or insurance company, corporation, association, or partnership, including any employees, contractors, or agents, engaged in activities intended to protect the insurable private property interests of the insurer's policyholders from harm, loss, damage, or destruction.

(1.5) (a) No private organization or any of its officers, officials, directors, employees, or volunteers, when working under the direction of a local emergency planning committee or state or local fire or law enforcement agency and when engaged in emergency planning, training, or response activities regarding a hazardous material release, threat of release, or act of terrorism, shall be liable for the death of or injury to any person or for the loss of or damage to property or the environment resulting from the hazardous material release, threat of release, or act of terrorism, except for willful and wanton acts or omissions.

(b) An insurer, insurance company, corporation, association, or partnership, including any employees, contractors, or agents, engaged in activities intended to protect the insurable private property interests of the insurer's policyholders from harm, loss, damage, or destruction does not constitute a private organization entitled to immunity from liability under the provisions of this section, and an employee, contractor, or agent of the insurer is not a volunteer as that term is defined or construed in accordance with the provisions of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title, regardless of whether such activities may be subject to the direction of a local emergency planning committee or a state or local fire or law enforcement agency.

(2) (a) No state commission or agency or county or municipal agency, including local emergency planning committees, incident management teams, citizen corps councils, citizen emergency response teams, medical reserve corps, fire protection districts, and volunteer fire, ambulance, or emergency service and rescue groups, nor their officers, officials, directors, employees, trainees, or volunteers, when engaged in planning, training, or response activities regarding a natural disaster, hazardous material release, public health emergency, or act of terrorism or the threat of any such disaster, release, emergency, or act, shall be liable for the death of or injury to any person or for the loss of or damage to property or the environment except for gross negligence or willful and wanton acts or omissions.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), a plaintiff may sue and recover civil damages from a person or entity specified in said paragraph (a) based upon a negligent act or omission involving the operation of a motor vehicle; except that the amount recovered from such person or entity shall not exceed the limits of applicable insurance coverage maintained by or on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the negligent operation of a motor vehicle in such circumstances. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right of a plaintiff to recover from a policy of uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage available to the plaintiff as a result of a motor vehicle accident.

(c) The general assembly intends that the provisions of this subsection (2) and of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title, be read together and harmonized. If any provision of this subsection (2) is construed to conflict with a provision of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", the provision that grants the greatest immunity shall prevail.

(3) Neither the director nor any member of the subcommittee or any local emergency planning committee shall be liable for the death of or any injury to persons or loss or damage to property or the environment or any civil damages resulting from any act or omission arising out of the performance of the functions, duties, and responsibilities of the director or subcommittee or local emergency planning committee, except for acts or omissions which constitute willful misconduct.

(4) Nothing in this section abrogates or limits the immunity or exemption from civil liability of any agency, entity, or person under any statute, including the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title, or section 13-21-108.5, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2605 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1506. SARA Title III fund - creation - acceptance of gifts, grants, and donations. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the SARA Title III fund, also referred to in this part 15 as the "fund", which shall be administered by the director. The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the purposes of this part 15, including the disbursement of grants pursuant to section 24-33.5-1507.

(2) The director is hereby authorized to accept all moneys received from the federal government and from public or private grants, gifts, bequests, donations, and other contributions for any purpose consistent with this part 15. The moneys shall be credited to the fund.

(3) In accordance with section 24-36-114, all interest derived from the deposit and investment of this fund shall be credited to the general fund.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2606 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1507. Application for grants - disbursements from SARA Title III fund - regulations. (1) The office of preparedness in the division of homeland security and emergency management, created in section 24-33.5-1606.5 and referred to in this subsection (1) as the "office", shall administer all grants from the fund. The office shall accept applications from local emergency planning committees and from first responder organizations who have coordinated their request with their local emergency planning committee and shall direct those applications to the subcommittee, which shall evaluate the applications and shall recommend to the office which grants should be made for the purposes of emergency planning and emergency response, including training and planning programs and training and planning equipment as needed to carry out the purposes of this part 15.

(2) With the advice of the subcommittee, the director shall promulgate rules prescribing the procedures to be followed in the making, filing, and evaluation of grant applications, and any other regulations necessary for administering the SARA Title III fund.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-32-2607 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1601. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
   (a) The threat of terrorism in Colorado is a matter of great concern to the people of the state and affects the public interest. Therefore, this part 16 is enacted for the purpose of protecting the health, peace, safety, and welfare of the people of this state.
   (b) The terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, in New York, Washington, D.C., and Pennsylvania, along with the subsequent sending of anthrax through the mail, the previous attempt to destroy the world trade center, and the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah federal building in Oklahoma City, and the arson attacks in Vail, Colorado, demonstrate that no part of the United States is immune from the threat of terrorism;
   (c) Responsible public agencies must anticipate and protect against new forms of terrorism, including suicide hijacking, use of biological toxins and hazardous materials, arson, and sabotage of telecommunications networks, the food and water supply, and other critical infrastructure;
   (d) In response to the threat of terrorism, the federal government and several state governments are creating specialized agencies to coordinate efforts to prevent, protect against, respond to, recover from, and prosecute acts of terrorism. Colorado currently has no such agency, and few of Colorado's criminal laws address terrorism specifically.
   (e) In 2005, hurricane Katrina emphasized and reinforced the importance of robust emergency management systems and the need for an all-hazards approach to homeland security, increased autonomy, and responsibility for emergency management;
   (f) Coordination across disciplines, among levels of government, and with private and nongovernmental sectors is the best way to ensure that government can deliver, to the best of its collective ability, the most effective and efficient services regardless of the cause of any disaster;
   (g) A state agency should be established to coordinate Colorado's response to the threat of terrorism and other threats; facilitate tribal, state, local, and regional homeland security activities; direct homeland security-related federal funding to local governments; and share homeland security information among entities participating in homeland security activities.

24-33.5-1602. Definitions. As used in this part 16, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (1) "Act of terrorism" has the same meaning set forth in 18 U.S.C. sec. 3077 (1) and 28 CFR 0.85 (l).
   (2) "Biological agent" has the same meaning set forth in 18 U.S.C. secs. 178 (1) and 175 (b).
   (3) "Chemical weapon" has the same meaning set forth in 18 U.S.C. sec. 229F (1).
(4) "Critical infrastructure" means those systems and assets, whether physical or virtual, that are vital to the state of Colorado so that the incapacity or destruction of such systems and assets would have a debilitating impact on public safety, public health, or economic security.
(5) "Destructive device" has the same meaning set forth in 18 U.S.C. sec. 921 (a)(4).
(6) "Director" means the director of the division.
(7) "Division" means the division of homeland security and emergency management created in section 24-33.5-1603.
(8) "Fusion center" means the program administered by the office of prevention and security, created in section 24-33.5-1606, that serves as the primary focal point within the state for receiving, analyzing, gathering, and sharing threat-related information among federal, state, local, tribal, nongovernmental, and private sector partners.
(9) "Homeland security advisor" means a person appointed by the governor to serve as counsel to the governor on homeland security issues and who may also serve as a liaison between the governor's office, the department of homeland security, and other homeland security and related organizations both inside and outside of the state.

24-33.5-1603. Division of homeland security and emergency management - creation - director. (1) There is hereby created within the department the division of homeland security and emergency management, the head of which is the director of the division. The executive director shall appoint the director pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.
(2) The division includes the following agencies, which shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions under the department as if the same were transferred thereto by a type 2 transfer:
   (a) The office of emergency management, created in section 24-33.5-705;
   (b) The office of prevention and security, created in section 24-33.5-1606; and
   (c) The office of preparedness, created in section 24-33.5-1606.5.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.
24-33.5-1604. Duties and powers of the division. (1) The division has the following duties and powers:

(a) To inquire into the threat of terrorism in Colorado and the state of preparedness to respond to that threat and to make recommendations to the governor and the general assembly;
(b) To cooperate with the United States department of homeland security and other agencies of the federal government and other states in matters related to terrorism;
(c) To do all things necessary for the implementation of this part 16, including but not limited to the power:
   (I) To hire personnel;
   (II) To contract with federal, state, local, and private entities; and
   (III) To accept and expend federal and private funds.

(2) (a) The division shall create and implement terrorism preparedness plans. The plans shall include the following:
   (I) State protocols and procedures concerning the prevention of, preparation for, response to, and recovery from any terrorist threat, terrorist act, or other terrorist-related activity;
   (II) Establishment and issuance of protocols to guide state and local law enforcement and emergency response officials in responding to any case involving a suspected terrorist training activity described in section 18-9-120, C.R.S.;
   (III) Coordination with appropriate governmental agencies, educational institutions, and private sector entities to develop protocols concerning access and security measures at biotechnology laboratories and facilities;
   (IV) Coordination with appropriate state agencies to develop protocols concerning the handling, storage, and disposal of biological agents, chemical weapons, destructive devices, radioactive materials, and toxins when any such materials are obtained as evidence of a suspected terrorist training activity as described in section 18-9-120, C.R.S., act of terrorism, suspected act of terrorism, threat to commit an act of terrorism, or conspiracy to commit an act of terrorism.

   (b) In creating the terrorism preparedness plans, the division shall seek the advice and assistance of other federal, state, and local government agencies; business, labor, industrial, agricultural, civic, and volunteer organizations; and community leaders.

   (II) The terrorism preparedness plans constitute specialized details of security arrangements for purposes of section 24-72-204 (2)(a)(VIII).

(3) (a) The division shall provide advice, assistance, and training to state and local government agencies in the development and implementation of terrorism preparedness plans and in conducting periodic exercises related to the plans.

   (b) The division shall provide oversight of terrorism preparedness plans developed and implemented by state and local government agencies. The oversight does not usurp the authority of state and local government agencies, but will only provide peer review and comment in order to promote standardized methods of operation and to facilitate integration with plans adopted by other state and local government agencies throughout the state.

   (c) State and local government agencies that develop terrorism preparedness plans shall submit copies of current, new, or amended plans to the division.

(4) The division may distribute to local government agencies any federal or other funds that become available for distribution.

(5) The division shall also:
(a) Build partnerships with first responders, agencies, and citizens in the public and private sectors;
(b) Coordinate activities with other state agencies and the all-hazards emergency management regions created by executive order of the governor;
(c) Develop and update a state strategy for homeland security;
(d) Facilitate, coordinate, and conduct capabilities assessments as necessary;
(e) Facilitate improvements in overall preparedness by developing coordinating mechanisms among Colorado's emergency management, homeland security, public safety, and public health agencies in order to deliver the capabilities necessary for all domestic disasters, whether natural or man-made, including acts of terror; and
(f) Coordinate protection activities among owners and operators of critical infrastructure and other tribal, state, local, regional, and federal agencies in order to help secure and protect critical infrastructure within the state.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending the introductory portions to subsections (1) and (2)(a) and subsections (1)(b), (2)(b), (3), and (4) and adding subsection (5), see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1605. Director - duties and powers - rules. (1) The director shall perform duties in connection with:
(a) The creation and implementation of the terrorism preparedness plan described in section 24-33.5-1604; and
(b) The prevention and detection of terrorist training activities described in section 18-9-120, C.R.S.
(2) The director may promulgate, in accordance with article 4 of this title, any rules necessary to implement part 15 of this article and sections 24-33.5-1604 (2)(a), 24-33.5-1608, and 24-33.5-1609.
(3) The powers vested in the director in this part 16 do not usurp or supersede the powers of fire chiefs, sheriffs, chiefs of police, or other law enforcement or fire protection agencies.
(4) The director is entitled to all protections, defenses, and immunities provided by statute to safeguard a peace officer in the performance of official acts.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending the introductory portion to subsection (1) and subsections (2), (3), and (4), see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.
24-33.5-1606. Office of prevention and security - creation - duties. (1) (a) There is hereby created within the division an office of prevention and security, the head of which is the manager of the office of prevention and security. The director shall appoint the manager of the office of prevention and security pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

(b) The manager of the office of prevention and security is hereby designated to be a peace officer and has jurisdiction to act as such in the performance of his or her duties anywhere within the state and is entitled to all protections, defenses, and immunities provided by statute to safeguard a peace officer in the performance of official acts.

(2) The duties of the office of prevention and security include:

(a) Enhancing interagency cooperation through information sharing;

(b) Operating the state's fusion center; and

(c) Developing and maintaining, through cooperation with other tribal, state, local, regional, and federal agencies, a standardized crisis communication and information-sharing process.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1606.5. Office of preparedness - creation - duties - posting of notice of NIMS classes - definition. (1) There is hereby created within the division the office of preparedness, the head of which is the manager of the office of preparedness. The director shall appoint the manager of the office of preparedness pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution. The office of preparedness is responsible for creating and implementing a state preparedness goal and system to improve state capabilities to prevent, mitigate the effects of, respond to, and recover from threats to Colorado.

(2) The duties of the office of preparedness include:

(a) Improving community preparedness and citizen involvement through external outreach;

(b) Identifying and reducing duplicative homeland security-related training needs and efforts, coordinating homeland security-related training among tribal, state, local, and regional agencies, and creating a single training and exercise calendar with identified points of contact that is accessible via the internet;

(c) Coordinating and updating homeland security plans;

(d) Coordinating all-hazard public risk communication products among state agencies; and

(e) Administering federal homeland security grants, in accordance with subsection (3) of this section, providing technical assistance to grantees, and coordinating grant funding opportunities with other state agencies.

(3) (a) Unless otherwise authorized under this article 33.5, the grant programs for which the office of preparedness has authority to administer are limited to:

(I) The state homeland security program, or its successor program;
(II) The Denver urban areas security initiative, or its successor program;
(III) The metropolitan medical response system, or its successor program;
(IV) The citizens corp program, or its successor program;
(V) The urban areas security initiative nonprofit security grant program, or its successor program;
(VI) The buffer zone protection program, or its successor program;
(VII) The interoperable emergency communications grant program, or its successor program;
(VIII) Any grant programs previously administered by the former division of emergency management in the department of local affairs, as of June 30, 2012; and
(IX) Any other grant programs authorized by the governor, which programs shall not be inconsistent with the division's purposes.

(b) As used in this subsection (3), "successor program" means a federal homeland security grant program that the manager of the office of preparedness reasonably determines is similar in purpose and scope to its predecessor program, regardless of the particular name of the successor program.

(4) The office of preparedness shall place on its website a description of the national incident management system, developed by the federal emergency management agency and referred to in this section as "NIMS", and a listing, with any applicable links, of online courses required to become NIMS-certified and courses related to NIMS at institutions within the state system of community and technical colleges.

Editor's note: Subsection (4) is similar to former § 24-33.5-110 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-33.5-1607. Funding. The general assembly recognizes that federal legislation enacted in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, including but not limited to the "USA Patriot Act of 2001", has created federal grants to assist states in creating and implementing plans to deal with terrorism. It is the intent of the general assembly that all such grants and any other available resources, including federal and private funds, grants, and donations, be pursued to help defray the costs incurred in implementing this part 16.

24-33.5-1608. Building security and occupant protection. (1) The director shall adopt rules concerning safety and security to protect state personnel and property owned or leased by the state, including, but not limited to, facilities, buildings, and grounds. Unless under a state of emergency or alert as defined by the rules, such facilities, buildings, and grounds shall remain open to the public.

(2) In adopting such rules, the director shall use as general guidelines the building security and occupant protection standards in federal statutes, presidential directives, and the rules promulgated thereunder, as amended from time to time.

24-33.5-1609. Continuity of state government operations. (1) The director shall adopt rules concerning the continuity of state government operations to provide guidance to state departments and agencies in developing viable and executable contingency plans for continuity of operations.

(2) In adopting such rules, the director shall use as general guidelines the plans published by the federal emergency management agency in federal preparedness circulars 65, 66, and 67, and in the rules promulgated thereunder, as amended from time to time.

(3) The rules adopted pursuant to this section shall be incorporated as part of the state emergency operations plan.

24-33.5-1610. Compliance with standards. (1) The executive director of each state department and agency shall ensure compliance with the rules adopted pursuant to sections 24-33.5-1608 and 24-33.5-1609.

(2) (a) State departments and agencies shall be required to comply with any such rule that requires funding only if funds are available to the department or agency.

(b) If adequate funding is not available to fund compliance with any such rule by a state department or agency, the department or agency shall take appropriate measures to provide alternate interim solutions to protect the safety and security of persons and property and to ensure the continuity of the department or agency's critical functions during a state of emergency. Any alternate interim solution shall be approved by the division.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending subsection (2)(b), see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1611. Assistance to state agencies - security assessment. (1) Upon request from any state agency, the division shall provide advice and assistance to the agency related to the agency's compliance with rules adopted pursuant to sections 24-33.5-1608 and 24-33.5-1609.

(2) The division shall conduct security assessments as needed to evaluate threats, risks, and compliance with security rules at state facilities.
24-33.5-1612. Cooperation from other state agencies. (1) Upon request, other agencies of state government, including the department of personnel and the department of local affairs, shall provide advice and assistance to the division related to rules adopted pursuant to section 24-33.5-1608 or 24-33.5-1609.

(2) Executive departments and agencies of state government shall coordinate their homeland security efforts through the division as necessary.

24-33.5-1613. State facility security fund. (Repealed)

24-33.5-1614. Homeland security and all-hazards senior advisory committee - composition - duties - emergency planning subcommittee - public safety communications subcommittee - creation - definitions - repeal. (1) To help develop and guide the division's efforts and advise the homeland security advisor, there is hereby created the homeland security and all-hazards senior advisory committee, referred to in this section as the "advisory committee". The advisory committee shall assist the state in becoming better able to predict, prevent, mitigate the effects of, respond to, and recover from those threats posing the greatest risk to Colorado.

(2) (a) The advisory committee consists of at least the director of the division, who is a nonvoting member, and the following twenty-one voting members:

(I) The executive director, who is the chair of the advisory committee;

(II) The director of the division of fire prevention and control created in part 12 of this article, or his or her designee;

(III) One member with specialized knowledge in local government assistance who represents the department of local affairs, created in section 24-1-125, to be appointed by the executive director of the department of local affairs;

(IV) One member with specialized knowledge in emergency preparedness and response who represents the department of public health and environment, created in section 25-1-102, C.R.S., to be appointed by the executive director of the department of public health and environment;
(V) One member with specialized knowledge in homeland defense who represents the department of military and veterans affairs created in section 24-1-127 to be appointed by the adjutant general;

(VI) One member with specialized knowledge in emergency communications systems who represents the governor's office of information technology created in section 24-37.5-103, to be appointed by the chief information officer;

(VII) The chief of the Colorado state patrol appointed pursuant to section 24-33.5-205, or his or her designee;

(VIII) The following fourteen members, to be appointed by the executive director in consultation with the adjutant general of the department of military and veterans affairs and the executive directors of the department of local affairs and the department of public health and environment:

(A) A representative of Colorado counties, incorporated, or its successor entity;
(B) A representative of the Colorado emergency management association, or its successor entity;
(C) A representative of private industry;
(D) A representative of the Colorado municipal league, or its successor entity;
(E) A representative of the county sheriffs of Colorado, incorporated, or a successor sheriffs' organization;
(F) A representative of the emergency medical services association of Colorado, or its successor organization;
(G) A representative of the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, or its successor organization;
(H) A representative of the Colorado association of chiefs of police, or its successor organization;
(I) A representative of tribal government;
(J) A representative of Colorado voluntary organizations active in disaster;
(K) A regional state homeland security coordinator, representing an all-hazards emergency management region established by executive order of the governor;
(L) A representative of the special districts association of Colorado, or its successor organization;
(M) A representative from the state all-hazards advisory committee formed under the department, or any successor entity; and
(N) A representative of the Denver urban area security initiative, as recognized by the United States department of homeland security.

(b) Additional advisory committee members may be added to the advisory committee as necessary upon:

(I) Approval by the executive director; and

(II) A majority vote of approval by the advisory committee members serving pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(c) The advisory committee shall select annually a vice-chairperson and secretary from among its members.

(d) (I) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), advisory committee member terms are for two years each.
(II) One-half of the initial members of the advisory committee shall be appointed to one-year terms, and the other half of the initial members shall be appointed to two-year terms.

(e) If a member of the advisory committee appointed under paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) vacates his or her office prior to the expiration of his or her term, the executive director or, for those members described under subparagraph (VII) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the appropriate appointing authority shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

(f) (I) (A) The advisory committee shall meet as necessary, as determined by the executive director.

(B) Advisory committee members may attend meetings and vote via teleconference.

(I) The advisory committee shall establish by-laws as appropriate for its effective operation.

(III) The members of the advisory committee shall receive no compensation; except that advisory committee members are entitled to receive reimbursement for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties under this section.

(3) The advisory committee shall:

(a) Provide policy guidance to the division;

(b) Annually review the state strategy for homeland security developed by the division pursuant to section 24-33.5-1604 (2)(a)(VII) and make recommendations on the strategy's goals, policies, and priorities;

(c) Advise the governor, through his or her homeland security advisor, regarding the planning and implementation of tasks and objectives to achieve goals contained in the Colorado homeland security strategy;

(d) Review homeland security grant applications and make recommendations to the homeland security advisor regarding grant distributions;

(e) Identify opportunities to consolidate existing state-level advisory boards, while ensuring that local and tribal entities have latitude in determining their needs in program areas; and

(f) Establish subcommittees, as necessary, that focus on specific issues or subject matters and make recommendations to the full advisory committee. The executive director shall select the chairpersons for any subcommittees as well as the advisory committee members to serve on the subcommittees. The chairperson of a subcommittee may select nonadvisory committee members from interested members of the community to serve on the subcommittee. Each subcommittee shall make findings and recommendations for consideration by the full advisory committee. Nonadvisory committee members of a subcommittee serve without compensation and without reimbursement for expenses.

(3.3) (a) In addition to any subcommittees created pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection (3) of this section, there is hereby created the public safety communications subcommittee to the advisory committee, referred to in this subsection (3.3) as the "subcommittee".

(b) The purposes of the subcommittee are to:

(I) Promote interoperable communications among public safety organizations throughout the state;

(II) Represent the advisory committee in matters concerning public safety communications and interoperability of communication systems; and
(III) Inform the advisory committee on the development, maintenance, upgrade, and operation of the statewide digital trunked radio system.

(c) The duties of the subcommittee are to:

(I) Present an annual report to the joint budget committee in writing no later than each December 31 that includes operational and capital infrastructure needs to maintain the system;

(II) Provide policy-level direction and promote efficient and effective use of resources for matters related to public safety communications interoperability;

(III) Promote cooperation among local, tribal, state, and federal public safety agencies, as well as nongovernmental organizations that are in the business of providing public safety in addressing statewide radio interoperability needs in the state;

(IV) Assist public safety entities in the development of projects, plans, policies, standards, priorities, guidelines, and training for radio interoperability;

(V) Coordinate with other communications oversight groups to ensure adequate wireless spectrum to accommodate all users;

(VI) Research statewide interoperable communications best practices of other states, tribes, and municipalities;

(VII) Provide recommendations to the advisory committee, when appropriate, concerning issues related to statewide interoperable radio communications for public safety in Colorado, which recommendations may relate to relevant topics including governance, standard operating procedures, technology, training, and funding;

(VIII) Consider specifically, and report to the executive director prior to December 31, 2014, regarding:

(A) The long-term sustainability, adaptability, and evolution of technology used in public safety communications; and

(B) The bandwidth needed for present and future emergency communications; and

(IX) Assist the department in performing the needs assessment required under section 24-33.7-716 (7).

(d) (I) The members of the consolidated communications system authority, as that body existed prior to its repeal pursuant to Senate Bill 14-127, are the initial members of the subcommittee. The terms of such initial members continue and expire according to the dates for which such members were originally appointed.

(II) (A) Upon expiration of the terms of the initial members serving pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), and upon the creation of any other vacancy or term expiration, the appropriate appointing authority shall appoint a member representing the same interest, as described in subparagraphs (I) and (III) of paragraph (e) of this subsection (3.3), as the vacating member.

(B) Any vacancy appointment is for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacating member.

(e) The subcommittee consists of at least the following twenty-three members:

(I) Members representing local government, including:

(A) Two members representing public radio systems that are not part of the statewide digital trunked radio system, who are appointed as specified in paragraph (f) of this subsection (3.3);
(B) One member representing the licensed ambulance or emergency medical service and the licensed hospital or trauma center, who is selected by the state emergency medical and trauma services advisory council created in section 25-3.5-104, C.R.S.;

(C) Two members representing the nine all-hazard regions, who are appointed as specified in paragraph (f) of this subsection (3.3);

(D) Two members selected by the Colorado state fire chiefs' association, one of whom represents a metropolitan fire department and the other of whom represents a rural fire department;

(E) One representative of Colorado professional fire fighters, or a successor labor organization that represents firefighters;

(F) One representative of Colorado's counties, appointed by Colorado counties, incorporated, or a successor organization that represents Colorado's counties;

(G) Five representatives of the consolidated communications network of Colorado, incorporated, or a successor nonprofit organization comprised of participating user agencies using the Colorado digital trunked radio system; and

(H) Two members representing the law enforcement agencies, one who is selected by the Colorado association of chiefs of police and one who is selected by the county sheriffs of Colorado;

(II) Five members representing state government as follows:
(A) The chief information officer of the governor's office of information technology, or his or her designee;
(B) The chief of the Colorado state patrol, or his or her designee;
(C) The executive director of the department of corrections, or the executive director's designee;

(D) The executive director of the department of transportation, or the executive director's designee; and

(E) The executive director of the department of natural resources, or the executive director's designee;

(III) Two members representing the two tribal nations in the state, one selected by each of the two tribal nations.

(f) (I) For the entities described in sub-subparagraphs (A) and (C) of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (e) of this subsection (3.3), each entity may nominate one or more persons to the executive director for appointment to the positions. The executive director, in consultation with the advisory committee, shall consider geographic representation and technical expertise in choosing appointees. The executive director shall notify the entities in writing regarding the appointments made. Each appointee appointed pursuant to this paragraph (f) serves at the pleasure of the executive director.

(II) The members of the subcommittee appointed or selected pursuant to subparagraphs (I) and (III) of paragraph (e) of this subsection (3.3) serve at the pleasure of the appointing or selecting authority.

(g) In addition to the members described in paragraph (f) of this subsection (3.3), the executive director, in consultation with the advisory committee, may appoint additional members to the subcommittee. The terms of such members are for a period, not to exceed two years, identified by the executive director when making the appointments. The executive director shall ensure that such appointments maintain, to the greatest extent possible, the geographic diversity and expertise of the subcommittee.

(h) The subcommittee members are entitled to receive reimbursement for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(i) This subsection (3.3) is repealed, effective September 1, 2019. Prior to repeal, the subcommittee shall be reviewed pursuant to section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

(3.5) (a) In addition to any subcommittees created pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection (3) of this section, there is hereby created the emergency planning subcommittee, also referred to in this subsection (3.5) as the "subcommittee", to the advisory committee.

(b) (I) The subcommittee consists of twelve members.

(II) Five of the twelve members are the following ex officio representatives of state government or their designees:

(A) The director;

(B) The director of the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety;

(C) The director of the division of local government in the department of local affairs;

(D) The director of the division in the department of public health and environment responsible for hazardous materials and waste management; and

(E) A representative of the Colorado state patrol in the department of public safety.

(III) The remaining seven members of the subcommittee are appointed by the executive director for two-year terms, and may be reappointed for additional terms. Of those seven members, two shall represent local governments, two shall be from either public interest groups or community groups, one shall represent a local emergency planning committee, and two shall represent industries affected by implementation of the federal "Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986", 42 U.S.C. sec. 11001 et seq., Title III of the federal "Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986", Pub.L. 99-499.

(c) (I) The members of the Colorado emergency planning commission, as such existed prior to its repeal pursuant to House Bill 14-1004, are the initial members of the subcommittee. The terms of such initial members continue and expire according to the dates for which such members were originally appointed.

(II) (A) Upon expiration of the terms of the initial members serving pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c), and upon the creation of any other vacancy or term expiration, the executive director shall appoint a member representing the same interest, as described in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3.5), as the vacating member.

(B) A vacancy appointment is for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacating member.

(d) Members of the subcommittee do not receive compensation or per diem for their services on the subcommittee; except that members may be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in connection with activities other than attending meetings of the subcommittee.

(e) In addition to any other duties and functions described in part 15 of this article, the subcommittee shall advise the advisory committee on matters pertaining to implementation of the federal "Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986", 42 U.S.C. sec. 11001 et seq., Title III of the federal "Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986", Pub.L. 99-499. The subcommittee shall also keep the advisory committee informed of actions it takes under section 24-33.5-1504 regarding local emergency planning committees or districts.

(f) This subsection (3.5) is repealed, effective September 1, 2019. Prior to such repeal, the subcommittee shall be reviewed pursuant to section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

(4) (a) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2021.

(b) Prior to repeal, the department of regulatory agencies shall review the advisory committee in accordance with section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

24-33.5-1615. Report - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (2) provided for the repeal of this section, effective September 1, 2017. (See L. 2012, p. 1128.)

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding this section, see section 1 of chapter 240, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-33.5-1616. Reserve academy grant program - created - rules - repeal. (1) There is created in the division the reserve academy grant program to provide a grant to a political subdivision of the state that is comprised of multiple jurisdictions for the purpose of creating a reserve peace officer training academy that will train and certify a reserve peace officer auxiliary group. The division may seek, accept, and expend gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section.

(2) The grant recipient may use the money received through the grant program to fund a reserve peace officer training academy.

(3) The division shall administer the grant program and, subject to available appropriations, shall award a grant as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(4) The division shall implement the grant program in accordance with this section. Pursuant to article 4 of this title 24, the division shall promulgate such rules as are required in this section and such additional rules as may be necessary to implement the grant program. At a minimum, the rules must specify the time frames for applying for grants, the form of the grant program application, and the time frames for distributing grant money.
(5) (a) To receive the grant, a political subdivision of the state that is comprised of multiple jurisdictions for the purpose of creating a shared reserve peace officer auxiliary group must submit an application to the division in accordance with rules promulgated by the division.

(b) The division shall review the applications received pursuant to this section. In awarding the grant, the division shall consider the following criteria:
   (I) Existing access to start-up capital;
   (II) The capacity to serve communities statewide; and
   (III) The ability to assist law enforcement agencies in times of need.

(c) Subject to available appropriations, on or before December 31, 2017, the division shall award a grant as provided in this section. The division shall distribute the grant money within thirty days after the division awards the grant.

unit's activities and results. It is further the intent of the general assembly that the unit will focus its attention on criminal activity involving financial transactions, including but not limited to the types of crime covered under article 5 of title 18, C.R.S.; modifications to these and other relevant crimes; new crimes as they evolve from time to time; and suspicious activity reports required by federal law to be filed by depository institutions.

24-33.5-1703. Identity theft and financial fraud board - creation - rules. (1) (a) There is hereby created in the department of public safety the identity theft and financial fraud board, referred to in this part 17 as the "board". The board shall have the powers and duties specified in this part 17, including but not limited to oversight of the Colorado fraud investigators unit, created in section 24-33.5-1704.

(b) The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions as if the same were transferred to the department of public safety by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(2) The board shall consist of ten members, as follows:
(a) The executive director of the department of public safety or his or her designee;
(b) The attorney general or his or her designee;
(c) The executive director of the Colorado district attorneys council or his or her designee; and
(d) Seven members appointed by the governor, as follows:
(I) A representative of a police department;
(II) A representative of a sheriff's department;
(III) Three representatives of the depository institutions operating within the state, at least two of whom shall be from a state or national bank;
(IV) A representative of a payment processor; and
(V) A representative of a consumer or victim advocacy organization.

(3) (a) The seven appointed members of the board shall serve terms of three years; except that, of the members first appointed, the representative of a local police department, the representative of a payment processor, and one of the three representatives of the depository institutions, as designated by the governor, shall each serve a two-year term.

(b) The governor shall appoint members of the board within thirty days after May 30, 2006; except that the governor shall appoint the representative of a consumer or victim advocacy organization pursuant to subparagraph (V) of paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section on or before July 1, 2011. An appointed member shall not serve more than two consecutive full terms, in addition to any partial term. In the event of a vacancy in an appointed position by death, resignation, removal for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty, or otherwise, the governor shall appoint a member to fill the position for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(4) (a) The chairman of the board shall be selected by the board from among its members.

(b) The members of the board shall serve without compensation; except that the members of the board may be reimbursed from moneys in the Colorado identity theft and financial fraud cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1707 (1) for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties pursuant to this part 17.
(5) Board members shall routinely interact and communicate with local authorities and constituent groups to increase awareness of the board and the unit and to further its purposes and those of law enforcement and prosecutors.

(6) The board, in its discretion, may create an advisory committee of any size comprised of interested parties to provide input on the board's activities. Members of an advisory committee shall serve without compensation and without reimbursement for expenses.

(7) Members of the board, employees, and consultants shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon any official act performed in good faith pursuant to this part 17.

(8) On or before October 1, 2012, and on or before October 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter, the board shall report to the judiciary committees of the senate and the house of representatives, or any successor committees, on the implementation of this part 17 and the results achieved. The report shall include, but need not be limited to, the items listed in section 24-33.5-1706 (2).

24-33.5-1704. Colorado fraud investigators unit - creation - duties - repeal. (1)
There is hereby created in the Colorado bureau of investigation in the department of public safety a unit for the investigation and prosecution of identity theft and financial fraud, referred to in this part 17 as the "unit". The unit shall be known in the department as the "Colorado fraud investigators unit".

(2) The purpose of the unit shall be to assist the attorney general, sheriffs, police, and district attorneys in investigating identity theft and financial fraud crimes and in prosecuting persons who commit those crimes. The unit shall also serve as an educational resource for law enforcement agencies, members of the financial industry, and the public regarding identity theft and financial fraud crimes and strategies for protection from and deterrence of these crimes. The unit shall operate pursuant to the comprehensive plan prepared by the unit and approved by the board pursuant to section 24-33.5-1706. The board shall have the oversight and direction of the unit in all of its operations.

(3) The unit shall:
(a) Gather information concerning identity theft and financial fraud and to analyze the information and identify relevant criminal activities, patterns, and trends throughout the state or regions thereof, whether multijurisdictional or not;
(b) Target specific forms of identity theft and financial fraud, as such forms change, on which to concentrate unit resources and effort;
(c) Disseminate information to the public, local law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, depository institutions, and other businesses concerning current and anticipated identity theft and financial fraud crimes, recommended steps to prevent such crimes, and patterns and trends in such crimes;
(d) Prepare and present classes, briefings, and materials, in printed or electronic format, to assist local law enforcement agencies, district attorneys, and the attorney general in their investigations and prosecutions; and
(e) Provide consultation on an individual case, but only upon the request of a local law enforcement agency, a local district attorney, or the attorney general.

(4) All unit resources shall be used to supplement and not replace existing law enforcement and prosecution efforts against identity theft and financial fraud crimes.

(5) The unit shall be responsive to shifting aspects of identity theft and financial fraud crimes and priorities among such crimes.

(6) The unit shall provide such clerical and technical assistance as the board may require.

(7) (a) Beginning in 2014, and every year thereafter through 2020, the department of public safety shall report on the activities of the unit as part of its "State Measurement for Accountable, Responsive, and Transparent (SMART) Government Act" hearing required by section 2-7-203.

(b) This subsection (7) is repealed, effective July 1, 2021.

24-33.5-1705. Board powers. (1) In addition to any other powers specifically granted to the board in this part 17, the board shall have the following powers:

(a) To approve the plan prepared by the unit as provided in section 24-33.5-1706;

(b) To establish the general criminal activities on which the unit should focus its efforts, priorities among those crimes and among regions of the state, general categories of information to be disseminated by the unit to various groups, and guidelines for consultation provided by the unit on requested local investigations;

(c) To review the quarterly reports submitted pursuant to section 24-33.5-1706 (2) and to provide input thereon to the unit;

(d) To review and comment on the preliminary budget draft for the unit prior to its submission to the department of public safety;

(e) To specify the information to be contained in periodic public disclosures of performance data on the unit's work and results so that the attorney general, sheriffs, police, district attorneys, and depository institutions and the public can review the effect of the resources used and the unit's efforts;

(f) To determine procedures for reviewing the success of the unit;

(g) To set the time, manner, and place for regular and special meetings of the board;

(h) To adopt and, as necessary, amend or repeal procedural rules and practices of the board not in conflict with the constitution and laws of the state;

(i) Repealed.

(j) To exercise all powers necessary and requisite for the implementation of this part 17; and

(k) To receive and accept from any source aid or contributions of money, property, labor, or other things of value to be held, used, and applied to carry out the purposes of this part 17.
24-33.5-1706. Unit - comprehensive plan - report to board. (1) (a) The unit shall submit to the board a comprehensive plan of operations as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) within six months after creation of the unit. The board shall provide a copy of the plan to the attorney general, sheriffs, police, district attorneys, depository institutions, and any advisory committee the board may create and shall solicit comments and suggestions from said parties concerning the plan. The unit shall revise the plan as recommended by the board, and the board shall approve the plan.

(b) The unit's comprehensive plan of operations, at a minimum, shall describe or address:

(I) The manner in which the unit will accomplish the tasks specified in section 24-33.5-1704 (3);

(II) The unit, the unit's organization, the focus of unit efforts on criminal activity intended to be addressed by this part 17, and the expected, overall effect of the efforts of the unit;

(III) The types of identity theft and financial fraud investigation, enforcement, and prosecution activities and assistance the unit will provide and how each will be organized initially and operated on an ongoing basis;

(IV) The anticipated number of attorneys, investigators, and supporting staff the unit will need on an on-going basis to accomplish its tasks;

(V) A plan for coordination and communication throughout the state by the unit with police departments, sheriff's departments, district attorneys, the attorney general, and depository institutions;

(VI) Periodic reports to the board as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The unit shall submit quarterly reports to the board on the following items:

(a) Criminal activities, patterns, and trends throughout the state and surrounding regions identified by the unit;

(b) The specific forms of identity theft and financial fraud identified by the unit and the evolution of those forms;

(c) Information disseminated by the unit about current and anticipated patterns of identity theft and financial fraud crimes and recommendations to deter and protect against these crimes;

(d) Classes, briefings, and materials disseminated by the unit, in printed or electronic format, to assist local law enforcement agencies, district attorneys, and the attorney general;

(e) Consultation provided by the unit on individual cases, requested local investigations, and related activities and results;

(f) The number of arrests, investigations, and successful and unsuccessful prosecutions for identity theft and financial fraud crimes and the effect that the unit had on the number of identity theft and financial fraud cases throughout the state;

(g) Recommendations for legislative changes to assist in the prevention of identity theft and financial fraud crimes and the apprehension and prosecution of criminals committing such crimes; and

(h) Other items specified by the board.
24-33.5-1707. Funding - cash fund created - donations - repeal. (1) (a) The department of public safety is authorized to accept gifts, grants, or donations, including in-kind donations from private or public sources, for the purposes of this part 17. All private and public funds received through gifts, grants, or donations by the department of public safety or by the board shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the Colorado identity theft and financial fraud cash fund, which fund is hereby created and referred to in this part 17 as the "cash fund". The cash fund shall also include the moneys collected pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Any moneys in the cash fund not expended for the purpose of this part 17 shall be invested by the state treasurer as provided in section 24-36-113. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the cash fund shall be credited to the cash fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the cash fund at the end of any fiscal year shall remain in the cash fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund.

(b) The department of public safety shall not be required to solicit gifts, grants, or donations from any source for the purposes of this part 17.

(2) (a) (I) (A) There is hereby established, beginning August 1, 2006, a surcharge of three dollars, in addition to all other lawful charges and fees, to be paid on each filing on every electronic or paper uniform commercial code filing with the secretary of state.

(B) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a)(I)(A) of this section, from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2020, the surcharge is four dollars. This subsection (2)(a)(I)(B) is repealed, effective July 1, 2021.

(II) The moneys collected by the surcharge shall immediately be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the cash fund.

(b) There is hereby established, beginning August 1, 2006, a surcharge of one hundred dollars to be paid on each supervised lender license, each supervised lender branch license, and each renewal of those licenses issued by the uniform consumer credit office in the attorney general's office, in addition to all other lawful charges and fees on every such license issued. The moneys collected by the surcharge shall immediately be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the cash fund.

(c) There is hereby established, beginning August 1, 2006, a surcharge of five hundred dollars to be paid on each money transmitter license and each money transmitter renewal issued by the division of banking in the department of regulatory agencies, in addition to all other lawful charges and fees on every such license issued. The moneys collected by the surcharge shall immediately be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the cash fund.

24-33.5-1708. Repeal of part. (1) This part 17 is repealed, effective September 1, 2025.

(2) Prior to said repeal, the board and the unit shall be reviewed as provided for in section 24-34-104.
PART 18

SCHOOL SAFETY RESOURCE CENTER

24-33.5-1801. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds that:
   (a) A safe and healthy learning environment for all students in Colorado is an important priority for the state;
   (b) Research into evidence-based practices continues to demonstrate that academic achievement improves as the level of safety and security in a school increases;
   (c) Studies of recent school attacks have established that school violence may be prevented with appropriate information sharing;
   (d) Suicide, which remains one of the leading causes of death for Colorado's youth, may also be prevented with appropriate intervention;
   (e) Both the physical and psychological well-being of students and school personnel is critically important; and
   (f) Improving student engagement, including reducing dropout rates and truancy levels, is an important factor for ensuring that schools are safe and successful.

   (2) The general assembly further finds that:
   (a) The most appropriate way to prevent and prepare for acts of violence and other emergencies that may occur on school campuses is to foster a cooperative effort by schools, school resource officers, law enforcement agencies, emergency responders, behavioral health experts, parents, and community members to identify, gather, and apply the necessary resources; and
   (b) Emergency response and crisis management measures should be implemented in all communities within the state to protect students and school personnel.

   (3) Now, therefore, the general assembly declares that:
   (a) Safe schools are a matter of statewide concern;
   (b) All schools have common needs and goals to ensure a safe environment;
   (c) Resources are needed to fully develop safety plans and practices in Colorado's schools, colleges, and universities; and
   (d) A school safety resource center dedicated to providing evidence-based practices and expertise to all schools is a cost-effective means to improve school safety.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2013 act amending subsection (2)(a), see section 1 of chapter 253, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-33.5-1802. Definitions. As used in this part 18, unless the context otherwise requires:
"Advisory board" means the school safety resource center advisory board created in the department pursuant to section 24-33.5-1804.

"Center" means the school safety resource center created in the department pursuant to section 24-33.5-1803.

"Director" means the director of the center.

(3.3) "First responder" means an individual who responds in a professional capacity to an emergency that occurs in a school building, including, but not limited to, peace officers, firefighters, emergency medical service providers, school administrators, and teachers.

"School" means an institution at which instruction is provided by instructors to students in one or more buildings on a campus. "School" includes a school serving any of grades preschool through twelve and an institution of higher education.

24-33.5-1803. School safety resource center - created - duties - repeal. (1) There is hereby created within the department the school safety resource center to assist schools in preventing, preparing for, responding to, and recovering from emergencies and crisis situations and to foster positive learning environments. The director of the center shall be appointed by the executive director pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

(2) The center and the director shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions under the department and the executive director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(3) The center has the following duties:

(a) To assist schools in developing and implementing safety and preparedness plans, including but not limited to any such plans that are required by state law or applicable rules of accreditation;

(b) To assist schools in establishing practices and strategies for use in responding to an emergency or crisis situation;

(c) To assist schools in developing and establishing prevention and intervention efforts to ensure safe and secure learning environments;

(d) To conduct regular research and assessment projects to determine the efficacy of statewide and local policies and programming;

(e) To make information and other resources available to all schools and school officials;

(f) (I) To select at least one but not more than five school districts or regions, with the consent of the affected school district boards of education, to serve as pilot sites during the first year of the center's operation. The center shall evaluate and develop enhanced school safety services to be provided by the center to the pilot sites.

(II) In selecting the school districts or regions that shall serve as pilot sites pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (f), the center shall designate at least one but not more than three schools within each of the pilot sites to participate in a cooperative effort by all such designated schools within the pilot sites to create a first responder school mapping system to provide first responders immediate electronic or digital access to maps of, and other schematic... information about, school buildings at such designated schools in the event of an emergency at the designated schools. In creating the first responder school mapping system, the pilot sites may contract with one or more public or private entities with experience in creating first responder school mapping systems. Before entering into any such contract or otherwise proceeding with plans for the creation of the first responder school mapping system, the pilot sites shall submit the contract or plans to the center to approve or disapprove. The department shall reimburse the pilot sites for the direct and indirect costs of creating the first responder school mapping system pursuant to this subparagraph (II).

(III) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that, for purposes of section 17 of article IX of the state constitution, the development and creation of a first responder school mapping system, pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (f), is an important element of improving student safety and may therefore receive funding from the state education fund created in section 17 (4) of article IX of the state constitution.

(g) To provide information and resources relating to school safety, school emergency response planning and training, and interoperable communications in schools, as determined by the center, to the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety to be distributed to school districts and schools pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.4;

(h) (I) To consult with school districts, schools, and charter schools concerning evidence-based best practices for bullying prevention and education;

(II) To consult with the department of education concerning its administration of the school bullying prevention and education grant program created in section 22-93-102, C.R.S.; and

(III) To submit evidence-based best practices for bullying prevention and education to the department of education for the purposes of section 22-93-106, C.R.S.

(i) (I) To hire or contract for the services of an emergency response consultant with experience in law enforcement and school safety to provide guidance for schools, school resource officers, and other community partners for school building safety assessments and the use of best practices for school security, emergency preparedness and response, interoperable communications, and other provisions of the school response framework. The emergency response outreach consultant shall also work with the center director and school outreach consultant to research grant opportunities and provide assistance to schools seeking grants for school safety and emergency response assistance.

(II) This paragraph (i) is repealed, effective July 1, 2018.

(j) To provide information and resources relating to the development and maintenance of school resource officer programs, as determined by the center, to the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety for distribution to school districts and schools pursuant to section 24-33.5-1213.4 and to law enforcement agencies and other community partners, as described in section 22-32-109.1, C.R.S.;

(k) To provide suggestions for school resource officer training to the peace officers standards and training board, pursuant to section 24-31-312;

(l) To provide materials and training as described in section 24-33.5-1809 to personnel in school districts and charter schools, parents, and students regarding the awareness and prevention of child sexual abuse and assault; and

(m) [Editor's note: Paragraph (m) is effective January 1, 2018.] By June 1, 2018, to make available a model program that conforms with section 22-1-128, regarding the risks and consequences of sexting for school districts to use, which curriculum must include information informing students of the provisions of section 18-7-109, including that, if a student receives a sexually explicit image in violation of section 18-7-109, the student can avoid adjudication as a juvenile delinquent by taking reasonable steps to either destroy or delete or report the initial viewing of the image within seventy-two hours after receiving the image.

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, the director shall appoint employees necessary to conduct an efficient center.

Editor's note: Section 8 of chapter 390 (HB 17-1302), Session Laws of Colorado 2017, provides that the act changing this section applies to offenses committed on or after January 1, 2018.

To obtain a copy of the review, once completed, go to "Legislative Resources and Requirements" on the Colorado General Assembly's website.

24-33.5-1804. School safety resource center advisory board - created - repeal. (1) There is hereby created in the department the school safety resource center advisory board to recommend policies of the center.
(2) (a) The advisory board shall consist of not less than fourteen members, each of whom shall be appointed to a term of two years as follows:
(1) One member shall represent the department of education created pursuant to section 24-1-115 and be appointed by the commissioner of education.
(II) One member shall be an individual with professional expertise in behavioral health treatment who represents an elementary or secondary school or a school district and be appointed by the commissioner of education.
(III) One member shall be a school administrator and be appointed by the commissioner in consultation with a statewide association of school executives.
(IV) One member shall represent state universities and colleges and be appointed by the executive director of the Colorado commission on higher education appointed pursuant to section 24-1-114.

(V) One member shall represent community colleges and local district colleges and be appointed by the state board for community colleges and occupational education created pursuant to section 23-60-104, C.R.S.

(VI) One member shall be a member of a parents' organization and be appointed by the governor.

(VII) One member shall be a district attorney and be appointed by the governor.

(VIII) One member shall represent the unit within the department of human services, created pursuant to section 26-1-105, C.R.S., that administers behavioral health programs and services, including those related to mental health and substance abuse, and be appointed by the executive director of the department of human services.

(IX) One member shall represent the department of public health and environment created pursuant to section 25-1-102, C.R.S., and be appointed by the executive director of the department of public health and environment.

(X) One member shall represent the Colorado department of law created pursuant to section 24-1-113 and be appointed by the attorney general.

(XI) One member shall represent the department and be appointed by the executive director.

(XII) One member shall be an individual with professional expertise in school security and be appointed by the executive director.

(XIII) One member shall be a law enforcement professional and be appointed by the executive director.

(XIV) One member must be a school resource officer, as defined in section 22-32-109.1 (1), C.R.S., and be appointed by the executive director in consultation with a statewide association representing school resource officers.

(b) The appointing authority of each member of the advisory board shall appoint the member on or before October 1, 2008, and reappoint the member or appoint a new member no later than one month before the expiration of the member's term.

(c) Additional advisory board members may be added to the advisory board as necessary subject to:

(I) The approval of the executive director; and

(II) A majority vote of approval by the existing advisory board members.

(3) If any member of the advisory board vacates his or her office during the term for which appointed to the advisory board, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the executive director for the unexpired term.

(4) The advisory board shall annually elect from its members a chairperson and a secretary.

(5) The advisory board shall meet as determined necessary by the director. The members of the advisory board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed by the department for necessary travel and other expenses actually incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(6) (a) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2022.
(b) Prior to said repeal, the advisory board appointed pursuant to this section shall be reviewed as provided in section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2013 act amending the introductory portion to subsection (2)(a) and adding subsection (2)(a)(XIV), see section 1 of chapter 253, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-33.5-1805. Authorization to contract for services. The department is authorized to contract for services with any state, county, local, municipal, or private agency to implement the provisions of this part 18 and fulfill the duties of the center, which duties are described in section 24-33.5-1803 (3).

24-33.5-1806. Evaluation - report. (1) On or before January 1, 2010, the director shall prepare and submit to the executive director a report evaluating the efficacy and value of the services provided by the center to schools.

(2) On or before January 15, 2010, the executive director shall prepare and submit to the education and judiciary committees of the house of representatives and the senate, or any successor committees, a report evaluating the efficacy and value of the services provided by the center to schools.

24-33.5-1807. School safety resource center cash fund. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the school safety resource center cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall consist of:

(a) Such moneys as the general assembly may appropriate to the fund;

(b) Gifts, grants, and donations received by the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) Any moneys that the center receives as fees charged to attendees of a training program or conference, as described in section 24-33.5-1808.

(2) The department is authorized to solicit and accept gifts, grants, and donations from public and private sources for the purposes of this part 18; except that the department may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this section or any other law of the state. All moneys collected by the department pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund.

(3) The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the department for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing this part 18. Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purposes of this part 18 may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund.

(4) (a) The department is authorized to expend moneys from the fund for the purposes of this part 18.

(b) The department may expend up to two percent of the moneys annually appropriated from the fund to offset the costs incurred in implementing this part 18.

(5) Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-33.5-1808. Training program and conference fees authorized. (1) The center is authorized to charge a fee to each attendee of a training program or conference that the center implements for the purposes of this part 18. The center shall forward each fee collected pursuant to this section to the state treasurer, who shall credit the entire amount to the school safety resource center cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1807.

(2) The total amount of fees charged by the center to attendees of a training program or conference pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not exceed the actual costs incurred by the center in implementing the training program or conference.

24-33.5-1809. Prevention of child sexual abuse and assault - resource bank - training. (1) The director shall appoint a person to the center to collect and provide materials and to provide training to school personnel, parents, and students regarding preventing child sexual abuse and assault, including materials and training that are specific to preventing sexual abuse and assault of children with developmental disabilities. At a minimum, the appointed person shall:

(a) Research and select instruction modules for professional development for school personnel that may include, but need not be limited to:

(I) Training in preventing, identifying, and responding to child sexual abuse and assault, including information concerning the child abuse reporting hotline system created pursuant to section 26-5-111, C.R.S.; and

(II) Resources to raise the awareness of school personnel and parents regarding child sexual abuse and assault and preventing child sexual abuse and assault;

(b) Provide training for school personnel and parents in preventing, identifying, and responding to child sexual abuse and assault, including using the child abuse reporting hotline system created pursuant to section 26-5-111, C.R.S. The appointed person may provide training in person or through online presentations.

(c) Research and select model, age-appropriate educational materials designed for children in grades kindergarten through twelve regarding child sexual abuse and assault awareness and prevention, which may include, but need not be limited to:
The skills to recognize:
(A) Child sexual abuse and assault;
(B) Boundary violations and unwanted forms of touching and contact; and
(C) Behaviors that an offender uses to groom or desensitize a victim; and Strategies to:

(A) Promote disclosure;
(B) Reduce self-blame; and
(C) Mobilize bystanders;
(d) Publicize to school districts and public and nonpublic schools the availability of the training and resources for school personnel and parents and the age-appropriate education materials for children; and
(e) Make the training and resources for school personnel and parents and the age-appropriate education materials for children available on the center's website.

The appointed person shall seek to work with appropriate community-based organizations in creating and collecting the materials, training, and curricula regarding awareness and prevention of child sexual abuse and assault. The appointed person may create and collect materials, curricula, and other resources regarding other forms of child maltreatment and make the materials, curricula, and resources available to school districts and public and nonpublic schools.

The person appointed by the director pursuant to this section shall solicit and accept on behalf of the center gifts, grants, and donations to implement this section, as provided in section 24-33.5-1807 (2). Moneys collected pursuant to this subsection (3) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the moneys to the school safety resource center cash fund created in section 24-33.5-1807. Any moneys received pursuant to this subsection (3) are in addition to appropriations of state moneys to implement this section, and implementing this section is not conditional or dependent on the receipt of gifts, grants, or donations.

As used in this section, "school personnel" includes teachers, administrators, school resource officers, and other employees of school districts and public schools.

PART 19
COLORADO CYBERSECURITY

24-33.5-1901. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
(a) Cyber threats have continued to grow in significance, scale, scope, and sophistication in the past several years;
(b) A dramatic increase in the number of cyber attacks against public, private, and nonprofit entities and individual citizens, coupled with inadequate resources to respond to such attacks, have made cybersecurity a top priority;
(c) Colorado is well-suited to serve as a location for comprehensive cross-sector and interstate strategy to support the response against these attacks and the education and training needed to prepare government and private sector leaders to respond to these attacks;

(d) It is in the state's interest to support a partnership of academics and systems excellence at the university of Colorado at Colorado Springs and other institutions of higher education that can leverage the military, federal, state, and local government, and private sector assets in Colorado to support the cybersecurity of our state and local governments and to support the cybersecurity of federal partners and other states and local governments across the country; and

(e) It is also in the state's interest to support such a partnership as a tool to ensure that Colorado's private sector is better prepared to respond to threats and in turn make Colorado a stronger hub for the cyber industry and the commercialization of cyber technology.

(2) The general assembly further finds and declares that the intent of this part 19 is to identify specific actions to define and improve cybersecurity, including the creation of a Colorado cybersecurity council, coordinating cyber operations centers, establishing or expanding cyber higher education programs to promote education, training, and workforce development for cybersecurity, establishing a secure environment for research and development, and establishing a revenue source to support such efforts.

24-33.5-1902. Colorado cybersecurity council - creation - council members. (1) There is created in the department of public safety and within existing resources the Colorado cybersecurity council. The council operates as a steering group to develop cybersecurity policy guidance for the governor; develop comprehensive sets of prioritized goals, requirements, initiatives, and milestones; and coordinate with the general assembly and the judicial branch regarding cybersecurity as deemed necessary and appropriate by the council.

(2) The Colorado cybersecurity council is comprised of the following members:

(a) The governor, acting as the chairperson of the council, or the governor's designee;
(b) The chief information officer of the governor's office of information technology, or the chief information officer's designee;
(c) The chief information security officer of the governor's office of information technology, or the chief information security officer's designee;
(d) The executive director of the department of public safety, or the executive director's designee;
(e) A representative of the Colorado National Guard to be appointed by the adjutant general of the department of military and veterans affairs;
(f) The adjutant general of the department of military and veterans affairs;
(g) The director of the Colorado office of economic development, or the director's designee;
(h) The aerospace and defense industry champion in the Colorado office of economic development;
(i) The director of the governor's office of state planning and budgeting, or the director's designee;
(j) The executive director of the department of revenue, or the executive director's designee;

(k) The state controller;

(l) The state attorney general, or the attorney general's designee;

(m) The director of the public utilities commission or the director's designee;

(n) Representatives from institutions of higher education deemed necessary and appropriate by the governor;

(o) The state auditor, or the state auditor's designee; except that the state auditor or the state auditor's designee shall be a nonvoting member of the council and shall act solely in an advisory capacity with respect to the council's activities;

(p) The chair of the cybersecurity subcommittee of the homeland security and all-hazards senior advisory committee;

(q) The director of the division of homeland security and emergency management in the department of public safety, or the director's designee; and

(r) Any other person deemed necessary and appropriate by the governor.

(3) The council does not have any direct authority over the university of Colorado at Colorado Springs.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere with the duties of the chief information security officer pursuant to part 4 of article 37.5 of this title.

24-33.5-1903. Cyber operation center - coordination of missions. (1) The department of public safety, using the office of prevention and security within the division of homeland security and emergency management, and using any other facilities deemed necessary and appropriate by the department of public safety, may coordinate with the division of homeland security and emergency management, the Colorado bureau of investigation, the federal bureau of investigation, the Colorado National Guard and other relevant military organizations, and other relevant information-sharing organizations to define the operational requirements for in-state and interstate operational and training networks.

(2) In furtherance of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the coordinating entities may:

(a) Consider establishing appropriate memoranda of understanding or interstate compacts with entities that encourage the interstate sharing of information for cybersecurity;

(b) Support the requirements for the fusion of cyber defense, cyber surveillance, and international and domestic intelligence and law enforcement operations;

(c) Consider secure, distributed, and interactive network infrastructures for interstate cyber training and operations;

(d) Support secure Colorado requirements to identify threats and vulnerabilities and protect state cyber infrastructures;

(e) Conduct training, inspections, and operational exercises;

(f) Establish protocols for coordinating and sharing information with state and federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies responsible for investigating and collecting information related to cyber-based criminal and national security threats; and

24-33.5-1904. Education - training - workforce development. (1) The university of Colorado at Colorado Springs may partner with other institutions of higher education and a nonprofit organization that supports national, state, and regional cybersecurity initiatives to establish and expand cyber higher education programs and establish needed cyber education and training laboratories. The subject areas of such higher education programs may include, but need not be limited to, courses certified by the national security agency and the United States department of homeland security; a systems engineering approach to the study of cyber network architectures, threats, and defenses; business management; foreign language skills; legal issues; cryptology; technology development; and science, technology, engineering, and mathematics courses.

(2) In furtherance of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the university of Colorado at Colorado Springs, in conjunction with other institutions of higher education and a nonprofit organization, may:
   (a) Coordinate with the United States department of homeland security and the national security agency to certify cyber courses and curricula;
   (b) Coordinate planning for cyber education with appropriate institutions of higher education in Colorado, the United States Army reserve cyber consortium, and appropriate national institutions of higher education that have programs certified by the department of homeland security or the national security agency;
   (c) Coordinate with community colleges in the development and transferability of appropriate curriculum and technical certification programs, and provide coordination for the development of elementary and secondary education feeder programs;
   (d) Establish a public policy think tank as an academic research center of excellence for government, academic, and industrial communications, conferences, research, and publications;
   (e) Establish education, including online courses if appropriate, training, and academic symposia for government leaders at all levels;
   (f) Establish protocols for coordinating and sharing information with state and federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies responsible for investigating and collecting information related to cyber-based criminal and national security threats; and
   (g) Support state and federal law enforcement agencies with their responsibilities to investigate and prosecute threats to and attacks against critical infrastructure.

(3) The university of Colorado at Colorado Springs shall participate in activities in furtherance of this section only upon the approval of the board of regents of the university of Colorado, if required by the laws and policies of the board of regents.

24-33.5-1905. Research and development. (1) The university of Colorado at Colorado Springs may partner with a nonprofit organization that supports national, state, and regional cybersecurity initiatives to work to establish a secure environment for research and development, initial operational testing and evaluation, and expedited contracting for production for industrial cyber products and techniques.

(2) In furtherance of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the university of Colorado at Colorado Springs and any nonprofit organization with which the university has a partnership, may consider the following:

(a) Creating a business plan to develop a secure facility on the property of the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs that provides physical, electronic, proprietary, and administrative security;

(b) Exploring secure facility development and use at other Colorado universities and facilities that may augment the capacity at the university of Colorado at Colorado Springs and enable collaborative activities;

(c) Establishing relationships with appropriate federally funded research and development corporations under the sponsorship of the United States department of defense and the United States department of homeland security as an administrative partner to:

(I) Establish and certify a top secret and special access-certified facility;

(II) Establish cooperative relations with state and federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies responsible for investigating and collecting information related to cyber-based criminal and national security threats;

(III) Act as a conduit for federal and interstate research and development requirements;

(IV) Establish and monitor nondisclosure agreements to protect proprietary intellectual property; and

(V) Process and hold security clearances for authorized Colorado government personnel;

(d) Consider establishing relationships with the existing MITRE national cybersecurity federally funded research and development center; the aerospace corporation federally funded research and development center; or creating a new parallel organization focused on cybersecurity for national defense and homeland security requirements;

(e) Establishing cooperative relationships with Colorado cyber companies and other businesses, local governments, institutions of higher education, and other Colorado organizations with requirements for cybersecurity participation;

(f) Establishing cooperative relations with civilian industrial producers through entities that encourage the interstate sharing of information for cybersecurity;

(g) Linking to local and national military, homeland security, and intelligence community activities to support research and development, rapid test and evaluation, contracting, and production requirements;

(h) Establish protocols for coordinating and sharing information with state and federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies responsible for investigating and collecting information related to cyber-based criminal and national security threats; and

(i) Support state and federal law enforcement agencies with their responsibilities to investigate and prosecute threats to and attacks against critical infrastructure.

(3) The university of Colorado at Colorado Springs shall participate in activities in furtherance of this section only upon the approval of the board of regents of the university of Colorado, if required by the laws and policies of the board of regents.

24-33.5-1906. Cybersecurity cash fund - cybersecurity gifts, grants, and donations account - creation. (1) (a) The cybersecurity cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund consists of the money transferred to the fund pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) and any other money that the general assembly may appropriate or transfer to the fund.

(b) On July 1, 2016, the state treasurer shall transfer seven million nine hundred thirty-two thousand twenty dollars from the general fund to the fund.

(2) The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of money in the fund to the fund.

(3) The state treasurer shall credit any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year to the fund.

(4) Except for moneys in the cybersecurity gifts, grants, and donations account created in subsection (5) of this section, subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly, the regents of the university of Colorado may expend money from the fund for the purposes of this part 19.

(5) (a) The cybersecurity gifts, grants, and donations account, referred to in this subsection (5) as the "account", is hereby created in the cybersecurity cash fund. The account consists of any gifts, grants, or donations credited to the account pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (5). Moneys in the account are continuously appropriated to the department of higher education for use by the regents of the university of Colorado for the purposes of this part 19.

(b) The regents of the university of Colorado may seek, accept, and expend gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this part 19. The regents of the university of Colorado shall transmit all money received through gifts, grants, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the money to the account.

PART 20

Editor's note: This part 20 was added with relocations in 2017. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

24-33.5-2001. Definitions. As used in this part 20, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Articles pyrotechnic" means pyrotechnic special effects materials and pyrotechnic devices for professional use that are similar to consumer fireworks in chemical composition and construction but are intended for theatrical performances and not intended for consumer use. "Articles pyrotechnic" shall also include pyrotechnic devices meeting the weight limits for consumer fireworks but are not labeled as such and are classified as UN0431 or UN0432 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101, as amended.

(2) "Display fireworks" means large fireworks designed primarily to produce visible or audible effects by combustion, deflagration, or detonation and includes, but is not limited to, salutes containing more than one hundred thirty milligrams of explosive material, aerial shells containing more than forty grams of pyrotechnic compositions, and other display pieces that exceed the limits of explosive materials for classification as consumer fireworks as defined in 16 CFR 1500.1 to 1500.272 and 16 CFR 1507.1 to 1507.12 and are classified as fireworks UN0333, UN0334, or UN0335 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101, as amended, and including fused set pieces containing components that exceed fifty milligrams of salute powder.

(3) "Display retailer" means a person, including a manufacturer, who is licensed as a display retailer under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes display fireworks or articles pyrotechnic to a person authorized by section 24-33.5-2003 to discharge fireworks in Colorado.

(4) "Exporter" means any person, including a manufacturer, licensed as an exporter under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes fireworks for export outside of the state of Colorado.

(5) (a) "Fireworks" means any composition or device designed to produce a visible or audible effect by combustion, deflagration, or detonation, and that meets the definition of articles pyrotechnic, permissible fireworks, or display fireworks.

(b) "Fireworks" does not include:

(I) Toy caps, party poppers, and items similar to toy caps and party poppers that do not contain more than sixteen milligrams of pyrotechnic composition per item and snappers that do not contain more than one milligram of explosive composition per item;

(II) Highway flares, railroad fusees, ship distress signals, smoke candles, and other emergency signal devices;

(III) Educational rockets and toy propellant device type engines used in such rockets when such rockets are of nonmetallic construction and utilize replaceable engines or model cartridges containing less than two ounces of propellant and when such engines or model cartridges are designed to be ignited by electrical means;

(IV) Fireworks that are used in testing or research by a licensed explosives laboratory.

(6) "Fireworks display operator" includes an individual who, by experience and training, has demonstrated the required skill and ability to safely set up and discharge display fireworks.

(7) "Fund" means the fireworks licensing cash fund created in section 24-33.5-2004 (6)(b).

(8) "Governing body" means:

(a) The city council, town council, board of trustees, or other governing body of any city or town, as to the area within the corporate limits of the city or town;

(b) The board of directors of any fire protection district organized pursuant to part 1 of article 1 of title 32, as to the area within the boundaries of the fire protection district; and

(c) The board of county commissioners as to the area within a county outside the corporate limits of any city or town or the boundaries of any fire protection district.

(9) "Local authority" means the duly authorized fire department, police department, or sheriff's department of a local jurisdiction.

(10) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures, makes, constructs, or produces fireworks.

(11) (a) "Permissible fireworks" means the following small fireworks devices designed to produce audible or visual effects by combustion, complying with the requirements of the United States consumer product safety commission as set forth in 16 CFR 1500.1 to 1500.272 and 1507.1 to 1507.12, and classified as consumer fireworks UN0336 and UN0337 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101:
(I) Cylindrical fountains, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed seventy-five grams each for a single tube or, when more than one tube is mounted on a common base, a total pyrotechnic composition of no more than two hundred grams;

(II) Cone fountains, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed fifty grams each for a single cone or, when more than one cone is mounted on a common base, a total pyrotechnic composition of no more than two hundred grams;

(III) Wheels, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed sixty grams for each driver unit or two hundred grams for each complete wheel;

(IV) Ground spinner, a small device containing not more than twenty grams of pyrotechnic composition venting out of an orifice usually in the side of the tube, similar in operation to a wheel, but intended to be placed flat on the ground;

(V) Illuminating torches and colored fire in any form, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed two hundred grams each;

(VI) Dipped sticks and sparklers, the total pyrotechnic composition of which does not exceed one hundred grams, of which the composition of any chlorate or perchlorate shall not exceed five grams;

(VII) Any of the following that do not contain more than fifty milligrams of explosive composition:

(A) Explosive auto alarms;
(B) Toy propellant devices;
(C) Cigarette loads;
(D) Strike-on-box matches; or
(E) Other trick noise makers;

(VIII) Snake or glow worm pressed pellets of not more than two grams of pyrotechnic composition and packaged in retail packages of not more than twenty-five units;

(IX) Fireworks that are used exclusively for testing or research by a licensed explosives laboratory;

(X) Multiple tube devices with:

(A) Each tube individually attached to a wood or plastic base;
(B) The tubes separated from each other on the base by a distance of at least one-half of one inch;

(C) The effect limited to a shower of sparks to a height of no more than fifteen feet above the ground;

(D) Only one external fuse that causes all of the tubes to function in sequence; and

(E) A total pyrotechnic composition of no more than five hundred grams.

(b) "Permissible fireworks" do not include aerial devices or audible ground devices, including, but not limited to, firecrackers.

(12) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, firm, company, association, corporation, or governmental entity.

(13) "Pyrotechnic operator" includes an individual who, by experience and training, has demonstrated the required skill and ability to safely set up and discharge articles of pyrotechnics.

(14) "Retailer" means any person who sells, delivers, consigns, or furnishes permissible fireworks to another person not for resale.

(15) "Storage" means the possession of fireworks for safe custody, where the safekeeping is the principal object of deposit, and not the consumption or sale.
(16) "Wholesaler" means any person, including a manufacturer, who is licensed as a wholesaler under section 24-33.5-2004 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes permissible fireworks to a retailer for resale in Colorado.

24-33.5-2002. Unlawful use or sale of fireworks - exceptions. (1) Except as provided for in subsection (6) of this section, it shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly furnish to any person who is under sixteen years of age, by gift, sale, or any other means, any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 24-33.5-2001 (11).

(2) Except as provided for in subsection (6) of this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is under sixteen years of age to purchase any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 24-33.5-2001 (11).

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any statutory or home-rule municipality from enacting any ordinance that prohibits a person under sixteen years of age from purchasing any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 24-33.5-2001 (11).

(4) Any person who sells or offers to sell any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 24-33.5-2001 (11), shall display a warning sign, as specified in this subsection (4). The warning sign shall be displayed in a prominent place on the premises at all times, shall have a minimum height of eight and one-half inches and a minimum width of eleven inches, and shall read as follows:

WARNING

IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE TO PURCHASE ANY FIREWORKS. VIOLATORS MAY BE PUNISHED BY A FINE OF UP TO $750.00, BY IMPRISONMENT FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, OR BY BOTH SUCH FINE AND IMPRISONMENT.

(5) Except as provided in this section and in section 24-33.5-2003, it shall be unlawful for any person to possess or discharge any fireworks, other than permissible fireworks, anywhere in this state.

(6) At all times that it is lawful for any person over the age of sixteen years to possess and discharge permissible fireworks, it shall also be lawful for a person under the age of sixteen years to possess and discharge permissible fireworks, if the person is under adult supervision.

(7) Except as provided in this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is not licensed as a retailer under this part 20, in retail transactions with the public, to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell, or have in the person's possession with the intent to offer for sale any permissible fireworks.

(8) Except as provided in this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is not licensed as a display retailer, wholesaler, or exporter under this part 20, in transactions other than retail transactions with the public, to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell, or have in such person's possession with the intent to offer for sale any fireworks including permissible fireworks.
(9) Nothing in this part 20 shall prevent or regulate:
(a) The use of fireworks by railroads or other transportation agencies for signal purposes or illumination;
(b) The sale or use of blank cartridges for a show or theater, for signal or ceremonial purposes in athletics or sports, or for use by military organizations;
(c) The sale, purchase, possession, or use of fireworks distributed by the division of parks and wildlife for agricultural purposes under conditions approved by the division; or
(d) The sale, delivery, consignment, gift, or furnishing of fireworks among display retailers, wholesalers, or exporters licensed under this part 20.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-28-102 as it existed prior to 2017.

24-33.5-2003. Permits - exceptions to permit requirements. (1) Any governing body has the power to grant nontransferable and nonassignable permits within the area under its jurisdiction for the storage of fireworks or for the facilities used for the retail sales of fireworks, including permissible fireworks, by any person and to adopt reasonable rules for the granting of such permits. The fee for a permit issued pursuant to this subsection (1) shall be limited to what is reasonable and necessary to cover the direct and indirect costs associated with the granting and enforcement of such permits.
(2) Any governing body has the power to grant nontransferable and nonassignable permits within the area under its jurisdiction for displays of fireworks or pyrotechnic special effects performances by any person, fair association, amusement park, or other organizations or groups and to adopt reasonable rules for the granting of such permits.
(3) No permit shall be required for the display of fireworks at the state fair grounds by the board of commissioners of the Colorado state fair authority, at any duly authorized county or district fair, or at any display by any governing body or local authority.
(4) The discharge of fireworks pursuant to a permit provided for in subsection (2) of this section, or as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall be lawful in Colorado, if the display or pyrotechnic special effects performance is performed in accordance with the requirements of the national fire protection association as stated in NFPA-1123, code for the outdoor display of fireworks or NFPA-1126, standard for the use of pyrotechnics before a proximate audience.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-28-103 as it existed prior to 2017.

24-33.5-2004. Licensing - application - fee - fireworks licensing cash fund - creation - rules. (1) No person shall sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or possess with intent to sell permissible fireworks for retail until that person first obtains a retailer of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control within the department of public safety... and the permit, if any, required by section 24-33.5-2003 (1). A retailer's license is valid only for the calendar year in which it is issued, applies to only one retail location, and shall at all times be displayed at the place of business of the licensed retailer.

(2) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish fireworks to a person authorized by section 24-33.5-2003 to discharge fireworks in Colorado until that person first obtains a display retailer of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 24-33.5-2003 (1).

(3) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish permissible fireworks to a retailer for resale in Colorado until that person first obtains a wholesaler of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 24-33.5-2003 (1).

(4) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish fireworks for export outside of Colorado until that person first obtains an exporter of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 24-33.5-2003 (1).

(5) Applications for each display, retail, wholesale, and export license shall be filed with the director of the division of fire prevention and control at least thirty days before the start of activities for which the license is required. Each license is valid through September 1 of the year following the date on which the license was issued.

(6) (a) The director of the division of fire prevention and control shall collect all fees pursuant to this part 20.

(b) All moneys received by the director pursuant to the administration of this part 20 and all interest earned on the moneys shall be deposited in the state treasury in the fireworks licensing cash fund, which fund is hereby created, and the moneys shall be used, subject to annual appropriations by the general assembly, for the purposes set forth in this part 20, and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of the state of Colorado or any other fund.

(c) (I) The executive director of the department of public safety shall set reasonable fees pursuant to this part 20 at such rates as are necessary to provide for the actual direct and indirect costs and expenses of the department of public safety in the administration of this part 20; except that the fee for a:

(A) Retailer of fireworks license shall not exceed fifty dollars;

(B) Display retailer of fireworks license, a wholesaler of fireworks license, or an exporter of fireworks license shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(II) The rates shall be reviewed annually by the executive director of the department of public safety.

(7) The executive director of the department of public safety shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this part 20. The rules may include requirements for the certification of fireworks display operators and pyrotechnic operators, and any other requirements that are reasonably necessary for the safety of workers and the public and the protection of property. The procedure for the promulgation of the rules shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-103.

(8) Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the director of the department of public safety may seek judicial review pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-106.

(9) This section shall take effect July 15, 1991.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-28-104 as it existed prior to 2017.

24-33.5-2005. Importation of fireworks - duties of licensees - retention of invoices for inspection. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person not licensed as a display retailer, wholesaler, or exporter under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004 to bring any fireworks including permissible fireworks into this state. Retail purchasers shall not purchase fireworks by mail order or receive any fireworks in Colorado by mail, parcel service, or other carrier. All fireworks sales and deliveries to retail purchasers in Colorado shall be made in Colorado and shall be conducted only by persons licensed pursuant to this part 20.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any retailer to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or possess with intent to sell any permissible fireworks in this state that have not been purchased from a wholesaler licensed under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004.

(3) It shall be unlawful for a person to conduct any fireworks display or pyrotechnic special effects performance using fireworks that have not been purchased from a display retailer licensed under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004.

(4) Any retailer licensed under the provisions of section 24-33.5-2004 (1), and any person who discharges fireworks pursuant to section 24-33.5-2003 (2) or (3), shall keep available, for inspection by local authorities, a copy of each invoice for fireworks purchased as long as any fireworks included on such invoice are held in such person's possession. The invoice shall show the license number of the wholesaler or display retailer from whom the fireworks were purchased.

(5) This section shall take effect July 15, 1991.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-28-105 as it existed prior to 2017.

24-33.5-2006. Exportation of fireworks. (1) It shall be unlawful to export fireworks, other than permissible fireworks, from the state of Colorado, unless the fireworks are transported in accordance with the regulations of the United States department of transportation regulating the transportation of explosives, fireworks, and other dangerous articles by motor, rail, air, and water and the exporter obtains a signed bill of lading from each person transporting the fireworks, which shall show the quantity and types of fireworks transported and the recipient's full legal name and address.

(2) The exporter may transport such fireworks by common carrier or by the exporter's vehicle; except that the sale of the fireworks for transport in the purchaser's vehicle is unlawful unless:

(a) The exporter requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle driver's license issued by a state other than the state of Colorado and records the number and state of issue of such driver's license on the bill of lading pertaining to the sale, and further requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle registration showing that the purchaser owns a motor vehicle licensed in a state other than the state of Colorado, which license plate number and state of issue shall be recorded on the bill of lading pertaining to the sale; or

(b) The exporter requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle driver's license issued by the state of Colorado and records the number and state of issue of the driver's license on the bill of lading pertaining to the sale, and further requires the purchaser to furnish a valid wholesale or retail license number or resale license number issued by the governing body of a state or local authority located outside of the state of Colorado, which number and state of issue shall be recorded on the bill of lading pertaining to the sale.

(3) The bills of lading required by this section shall be retained by the exporter for a period of three years from the date of sale.

24-33.5-2007. Regulation by municipalities and counties. (1) This part 20 shall not be construed to prohibit the imposition by municipal ordinance of further regulations and prohibitions upon the sale, use, and possession of fireworks, including permissible fireworks, within the corporate limits of any city or town, but no city or town shall permit or authorize the sale, use, or possession of any fireworks in violation of this part 20.

(2) This part 20 shall not be construed to prohibit the imposition by county ordinance of further regulations and prohibitions upon the sale, use, and possession of fireworks, including permissible fireworks, within all or any part of the unincorporated areas of a county, but no county shall permit or authorize the sale, use, or possession of any fireworks in violation of this part 20.

24-33.5-2008. Storage of fireworks. All storage of fireworks shall be in accordance with the building and fire codes adopted by the governing body. If the governing body has not adopted a fire code, all storage of fireworks shall be in accordance with the fire code adopted by the director of the division of fire prevention and control within the department of public safety pursuant to section 24-33.5-1203.5.

24-33.5-2011. Denial, suspension, or revocation of or refusal to renew license. (1) The executive director of the department of public safety may deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any license issued or applied for under the provisions of this part 20 for any of the following reasons:

(a) Violations of any of the provisions of this part 20;
(b) A conviction of any felony, but subject to the provisions of section 24-5-101;
(c) A conviction pursuant to section 24-33.5-2010;
(d) Any material misstatement, misrepresentation, or fraud in obtaining a license.

(2) The revocation or suspension proceedings shall be brought by the Colorado executive director of the department of public safety pursuant to the provisions of the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24.

ARTICLE 34

Department of Regulatory Agencies

ORGANIZATION

24-34-101. Department created - executive director. (1) (a) There is hereby created the department of regulatory agencies, the head of which shall be the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, which office is hereby created. The executive director shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The reappointment of an executive director after initial election of a governor shall be subject to the provisions of section 24-20-109. The executive director shall have those powers, duties, and functions prescribed for heads of principal departments in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968". The department of regulatory agencies shall be organized as provided in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968"; but nothing in this part 1 shall be construed to prevent the establishment, combination, or abolition of divisions, sections, or units other than those created by law.

(b) Repealed.

(2) The executive director shall prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to the provisions of section 24-1-136, a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the department of regulatory agencies and divisions thereof.

(3) Publications by the executive director circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136.

(4) Repealed.

(5) The executive director of the department of regulatory agencies may enter into contracts pursuant to part 5 of article 50 of this title for the purpose of decreasing appropriations in the annual general appropriation act.

(6) The executive director of the department of regulatory agencies may contract, pursuant to part 5 of article 50 of this title, with a person having the technical or subject matter expertise or the skill and experience to develop, implement, and administer the licensing and examination functions of the divisions in the department when the executive director determines that a division lacks sufficient technical expertise to perform such licensing and examination functions.

(7) A contract entered into pursuant to this section may authorize a contractor to collect fees directly from an applicant. The contract may allow the contractor to retain all or a portion of the fees as payment for performance of the services under the contract. Fees collected and retained by the contractor shall not be subject to the provisions of article 36 of this title.

(8) This section shall not be construed to limit the powers of any type 1 board or commission in the department of regulatory agencies.

(9) The executive director shall have the authority to accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations for the purposes of implementing and administering the provisions of section 24-4-103 (2.5).

(10) The executive director may contract pursuant to part 5 of article 50 of this title with a person, corporation, or entity having technical or subject matter expertise or skill and experience to develop, implement, and administer the licensing and examination functions of the division of professions and occupations when the executive director determines that the division of professions and occupations is without sufficient technical expertise to perform such licensing and examination functions.

(11) The executive director may contract pursuant to part 5 of article 50 of this title with a person, corporation, or entity for the purpose of decreasing the appropriations for the division of professions and occupations in the annual general appropriations act.

(12) A contract entered into pursuant to subsection (10) or (11) of this section may authorize a contractor to collect fees directly from an applicant. The contractor may retain all or a portion of the fees designated as payment for performance of the functions under the contract. All fees collected and retained by the contractor shall not be subject to the provisions of article 36 of this title.

(13) The executive director shall include in the presentation to the legislative committee of reference pursuant to section 2-7-203, C.R.S., the number of confidential letters of concern issued in the twelve months prior to the presentation by the director of the division of professions and occupations and any board pursuant to title 12, C.R.S.

Editor's note: (1) Subsection (4) provided for the repeal of subsection (4), effective July 1, 1995. (See L. 88, p. 454.)

(2) Subsections (9), (10), (11), and (12) were originally numbered as subsections (5), (6), (7), and (8), respectively, in Senate Bill 04-024 but have been renumbered on revision for ease of location.

Cross references: (1) For the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", see article 1 of this title.

(2) In 2010, subsection (13) was amended by the "State Measurement for Accountable, Responsive, and Transparent (SMART) Government Act". For the short title, see section 1 of chapter 340, Session Laws of Colorado 2010.

24-34-102. Division of professions and occupations - creation - duties of division and department heads - license renewal, reinstatement, and endorsement - definitions - rules - review of functions. (1) (a) As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(I) "Department" means the department of regulatory agencies.

(II) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations or the director's designee.

(III) "Division" means the division of professions and occupations created in the department pursuant to this section.

(IV) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department.

(V) "License" has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-4-102.

(VI) "Licensee" means a person who has been issued a license.

(b) There is hereby created a division of professions and occupations in the department, the head of which is the director of professions and occupations. The executive director shall appoint the director in accordance with section 13 of article XII of the state constitution. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), the director shall appoint other personnel as necessary for the efficient operation of the division.
(c) Subject to available appropriations, the director shall give good faith consideration to the recommendations of any type 1 board or commission relating to the employment of the primary administrator to assist the board or commission, whether the person is designated as an executive secretary, a program administrator, or another title or position.

(2) The division has supervision and control of the type 2 examining and licensing boards and agencies transferred to the department by the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968". For type 1 boards or commissions, the division shall provide necessary management support.

(2.5) Repealed.

(3) The supervision and control of, and the management support for, examining and licensing boards and agencies by the department and the division also includes the approval or disapproval of rules of the boards and agencies relating to the examination and licensure of applicants to ensure that the rules are fair and impartial. The division shall not license a person who has applied to, and otherwise satisfied the requirements for, licensure by a board or agency until the applicant has paid and the division has received all applicable fees.

(4) Subject to subsection (1) of this section, each of the examining and licensing boards or agencies may employ and pay out of moneys appropriated to it by the general assembly only that number of employees and subordinate officers as are certified by it and approved by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies to be necessary and the necessity for the employment of whom has been approved in writing by the governor. All salaries to be paid such employees and subordinate officers shall be within the appropriation made therefor by the general assembly.

(5) Each of the examining and licensing boards or agencies shall be provided with suitable offices in the capitol buildings group if space is available in any of such buildings and, if not, then in a suitable office building in the city and county of Denver selected by the executive director of the department of personnel. It is lawful and proper for two or more of such boards or agencies to be assigned space in the same office room or suite, if such grouping or joint occupancy, in the opinion of the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, will not unreasonably interfere with the efficient operation of any of such boards or agencies so grouped or joined.

(6) Each of the examining and licensing boards or agencies to which office space is provided shall pay into the general revenue fund of the state out of the moneys appropriated to it by the general assembly a monthly or annual charge for rental, heat, light, telephone, collection, legal, and other state services made available to such board or agency as may be fixed by the executive director of the department of personnel, with the approval of the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, with the approval of the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, such charges to be not more than twenty-five percent of the moneys appropriated to it by the general assembly.

(7) Notwithstanding any provision of the law to the contrary, upon the approval and recommendation of any examining or licensing board or commission in the division, the executive director may change the period of the validity of any license issued by the board or commission for a period not to exceed three years. If the executive director changes the period of validity of a license pursuant to this subsection (7), the director shall proportionately increase or decrease the fee for the license, as the case may be, but the director shall not impose a fee increase that would result in hardship to the licensee.

(8) (a) Renewal. Notwithstanding any provision of the law to the contrary, the director may change the renewal date of any license issued by a licensing board or commission so that approximately the same number of licenses are scheduled for renewal in each month of the year. Where any renewal date is so changed, the fee for the license is proportionately increased or decreased, as the case may be. A license is valid for a period of no less than one year and no longer than three years, as determined by the director in consultation with the licensing board or commission within the division. A licensee shall submit an application for renewal to the licensing board or commission on forms and in the manner prescribed by the director.

(b) The director and any licensing board or commission may prescribe renewal requirements, which shall include compliance with any continuing education requirements adopted pursuant to the director's, licensing board's, or commission's authority.

(c) The director shall allow for a grace period for licenses from licensing boards or commissions within the division. A licensee has a sixty-day grace period after the expiration of his or her license to renew the license without the imposition of a disciplinary sanction by the director, licensing board, or commission for such profession for practicing on an expired license. The licensee shall satisfy all renewal requirements pursuant to the applicable practice act and shall pay a delinquency fee in an amount determined pursuant to sections 24-34-105 and 24-79.5-102.

(d) Reinstatement. A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who does not renew his or her license, registration, or certificate within the sixty-day grace period pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (8) shall be treated as having an expired license, registration, or certificate and shall be ineligible to practice until such license, registration, or certificate is reinstated. The director, licensing board, or commission shall reinstate the expired license, certificate, or registration of any active military personnel, including any National Guard member or reservist who is currently on active duty for a minimum of thirty days and any veteran who has not been dishonorably discharged, if the military personnel or veteran meets the requirements of this paragraph (d). An expired license, registration, or certificate of any other person may be reinstated at the discretion and pursuant to the authority of the director, licensing board, or commission pursuant to the following requirements:

(I) (A) An application for reinstatement of the license, registration, or certificate is submitted to the director, licensing board, or commission sixty days after the date of expiration and the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder complies with all requirements of the applicable practice act.

(B) If the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder practiced with an expired license, registration, or certificate, pursuant to the authority of the director, the licensing board or commission may impose disciplinary actions against the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder.

(II) If the license, registration, or certificate has expired for more than two years, the person with the expired license, registration, or certificate shall pay all applicable renewal and reinstatement fees and shall satisfactorily demonstrate to the director, licensing board, or commission that the person is competent to practice within his or her profession. Pursuant to the authority of the director, the licensing board or commission, as it deems appropriate, shall accept one or more of the following as a demonstration of competency to practice:

(A) A license, registration, or certificate from another state that is in good standing for the applicant where the applicant demonstrates active practice;
(B) Practice for a specified time under a restricted license, registration, or certificate;
(C) Successful completion of prescribed remedial courses ordered by the director, licensing board, or commission that are within the authority of the director, licensing board, or commission to require;
(D) Successful completion of any continuing education requirements prescribed by the director, licensing board, or commission that are within the authority of the director, licensing board, or commission to require;
(E) Passage of an examination for licensure, registration, or certification as approved by the director, licensing board, or commission that the director, licensing board, or commission has the authority to acquire; or
(F) Other professional standards or measures of continued competency as determined by the director, licensing board, or commission.

(III) The director, licensing board, or commission may waive the requirements for reinstatement of an expired license, registration, or certificate by an applicant who demonstrates hardship, so long as the director or such board or commission considers the protection of the public in such hardship petition.

(e) Endorsement. Unless otherwise prohibited by title 12, C.R.S., an applicant for certification, registration, or licensure by endorsement may demonstrate competency in a specific occupation or profession as determined by the director in lieu of a requirement that the applicant has worked or practiced in that occupation or profession for a period of time prior to the application for endorsement.

(8.5) The director and each of the examining and licensing boards shall, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence by an applicant for certification or licensure, accept education, training, or service completed by an individual as a member of the armed forces or reserves of the United States, the National Guard of any state, the military reserves of any state, or the naval militia of any state toward the qualifications to receive the license or certification. The director and each appropriate examining and licensing board shall promulgate rules to implement this section.

(8.7) Unless there is a specific statutory disqualification that prohibits an applicant from obtaining licensure based on a criminal conviction, if a licensing entity in title 10 or 12, C.R.S., determines that an applicant for licensure has a criminal record, the licensing entity is governed by section 24-5-101 for purposes of granting or denying licensure or placing any conditions on licensure.

(9) The executive director is responsible for receiving and monitoring the disposition of complaints. The executive director may require an investigation of a complaint concerning a person regulated by a board or agency in the division in accordance with section 24-34-103.

(10) The executive director, after consultation with the examining or licensing board or commission concerned, shall determine the form and content of any license issued by any examining or licensing board or commission in the division, including any document evidencing renewal of a license.
(11) Notwithstanding any type 1 transfer as such transfer is defined by the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title, the executive director may review any examination or procedure for granting a license by any board or agency in the division prior to the execution of such examination or procedure. After such review, if the executive director has reason to believe such examination or procedure to be unfair to the applicants or unreasonable in content, the executive director shall call on five people licensed in such occupation or profession to review the examination or procedure jointly with him. The executive director and such licensees, acting jointly, may make findings of fact and recommendations to the board or agency concerning any examination or procedure. The findings of fact and recommendations shall be public documents.

(12) Notwithstanding any type 1 transfer as such transfer is defined by the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title, the executive director may employ an administrative law judge, and may require any board in the division to use an administrative law judge in lieu of a hearing by the board, to conduct hearings on any matter within the jurisdiction of the examining and licensing boards and agencies in the division, subject to appropriations made to the department of personnel. Administrative law judges are appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of this title. An administrative law judge employed pursuant to this subsection (12) shall conduct hearings in accordance with section 24-4-105, and the administrative law judge has the authority specified in section 24-4-105.

(13) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, each member of a board or commission within the division is entitled to receive a per diem allowance of fifty dollars for each day spent in attendance at board meetings, hearings, or examinations and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of such official duties. The per diem compensation for board or commission members must not exceed that sum in any fiscal year that the state personnel board approves for employees not under the state personnel system. The general assembly shall annually appropriate moneys from the division of professions and occupations cash fund for the payment of per diem compensation and expenses. A state employee shall not receive per diem compensation for services performed during normal working hours, when on paid administrative leave, or when otherwise prohibited by fiscal rules adopted by the state controller.

(14) Repealed.

(15) Periodic evaluation of division functions. The department shall analyze and evaluate the division and its functions as set forth in this part 1 and in title 12, C.R.S. The department shall conduct the analysis and evaluation in accordance with section 24-34-104 (5) and shall submit its report and recommendations for legislation, if any, in accordance with that section. The department shall initially analyze and evaluate the division and submit its report by October 15, 2015, and shall analyze and evaluate the division every ten years thereafter. This section does not require the repeal of the division or its functions as specified in this part 1 and in title 12, C.R.S.

(16) Repealed.
Editor's note: (1) Section 8 of chapter 144, Session Laws of Colorado 2001, provides that the act amending subsection (14) applies to addiction counselors who are certified on or before August 15, 2001.

(2) Subsection (16)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (16), effective January 1, 2016. (See L. 2012, p. 171.)

(3) For the legislative declaration contained in the 2001 act amending subsection (14), see section 1 of chapter 144, Session Laws of Colorado 2001.

24-34-103. Procedures for complaints concerning licensees. (1) All complaints relating to persons licensed by any board or agency in the division of professions and occupations shall be referred to the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies.

(2) For the purpose of facilitating the handling of complaints, the executive director shall devise simple standard complaint forms designed to supply the information necessary to properly conduct an investigation of complaints. Each complaint shall be reduced to writing by the complainant before any formal action is commenced thereon. The receipt of such forms shall be acknowledged on behalf of the executive director. The complainant shall be advised in writing of the final disposition thereof.

(3) The executive director may assign a complaint to the director of professions and occupations or to the appropriate board of registration in the department, or may assign it specially for investigation, or may take such other action thereon as appears to him to be warranted in the circumstances. Assignments of investigations thereof to others shall be subject to specified time limits set by the executive director for completion of investigations.
(4) Nothing in this section shall supersede the provisions of sections 24-4-104 to 24-4-106, or the statutory power to issue, suspend, revoke, or renew licenses.

(5) The executive director may promulgate such rules, pursuant to section 24-4-103 and not inconsistent with the requirements of this part 1, to assist in the efficient performance of the duties imposed by this section. The executive director may also render advice to the general assembly, as well as to the general public, upon the question of the proper role of the state in regulating professions and occupations.

24-34-104. General assembly review of regulatory agencies and functions for repeal, continuation, or reestablishment - legislative declaration - repeal. (1) (a) The general assembly finds that state government actions have produced a substantial increase in numbers of agencies, growth of programs, and proliferation of rules and that the process developed without sufficient legislative oversight, regulatory accountability, or a system of checks and balances. The general assembly further finds that regulatory agencies tend to become unnecessarily restrictive. The general assembly further finds that, by establishing a system for the repeal, continuation, or reestablishment of regulatory agencies and by providing for the analysis and evaluation of regulatory agencies to determine the least restrictive regulation consistent with the public interest, the general assembly will be in a better position to evaluate the need for the continued existence of existing and future regulatory bodies.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that the system set forth in this section for repeal, continuation, or reestablishment of agencies in the department of regulatory agencies be extended to the functions of certain specified agencies and to certain specified boards, thereby providing for the review of these functions and boards in the most cost-effective manner.

(2) (a) The divisions in the department of regulatory agencies, the boards and agencies in the division of professions and occupations, and the functions of the specified agencies and the specified boards will repeal according to the repeal schedule outlined in this section. A requirement for periodic reports to the general assembly will expire as set forth in section 24-1-136 (11) and is treated as a function of an agency for purposes of this section except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Upon repeal, an agency continues in existence, or, in the case of the repeal of a function, the function continues to be performed, until the date that is one year after the specified repeal date for the purpose of winding up affairs. During the wind-up period, the repeal does not reduce or otherwise limit the powers or authority of the agency; except that a license issued or renewed during the wind-up period expires at the end of the period and original license and renewal fees are prorated accordingly. Upon the expiration of one year after the repeal, the agency shall cease all activities or, in the case of the repeal of a function, the function must cease. When a license issued or renewed before repeal is scheduled to expire after the cessation of activities, the license expires at the end of the wind-up period, and the agency shall refund the portion of the license fee paid that is attributable to the period following the cessation of activities. Any criminal penalty for engaging in a profession or activity without being licensed is not enforceable with respect to activities that occur after an agency has ceased its activities pursuant to this section.
As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "agency" includes a division or board within an agency that is subject to review pursuant to this section.

(3) If the state constitution imposes powers, duties, or functions on an agency or officer that is subject to the provisions of this section and the agency or officer is repealed and the general assembly does not designate another agency or officer to exercise the powers or perform the duties and functions, the agency or officer continues in existence, after the one-year wind-up period, under the principal department as if the agency or officer were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as defined in section 24-1-105, until the general assembly otherwise designates.

(4) The existence of a newly created agency or function in the department of regulatory agencies may not exceed ten years and is subject to the provisions of this section. The general assembly may continue or reestablish the existence of an agency or function that is scheduled for repeal under this section for up to fifteen years. The general assembly, acting by bill, may reschedule the repeal date for an agency or function to a later date if the rescheduled date does not violate the appropriate maximum life provision described in this subsection (4).

(5) (a) The department of regulatory agencies shall analyze and evaluate the performance of each agency or function scheduled for repeal under this section. In conducting the analysis and evaluation, the department of regulatory agencies shall take into consideration, but need not be limited to considering, the factors listed in paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section. The department of regulatory agencies shall submit a report and supporting materials to the office of legislative legal services no later than October 15 of the year preceding the date established for repeal and shall make a copy of the report available to each member of the general assembly.

(b) The department of regulatory agencies shall submit its report to the office of legislative legal services for the preparation of draft legislation based solely on specific recommendations for legislation set forth in the report. The department of regulatory agencies shall submit the report to the office of legislative legal services no later than October 15 of the year preceding the date established for repeal. The office of legislative legal services shall prepare the draft legislation before the next regular session of the general assembly for the committee of reference designated in section 2-3-1201, C.R.S., and shall submit the report from the department of regulatory agencies to the designated committee of reference. The designated committee of reference shall determine the title of the legislation drafted pursuant to this paragraph (b).

(c) This subsection (5) is exempt from the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11), and the periodic reporting requirement of this subsection (5) remains in effect until changed by the general assembly acting by bill.

(6) (a) Before the repeal, continuation, or reestablishment of an agency or function, a legislative committee of reference designated in section 2-3-1201, C.R.S., shall hold public hearings to receive testimony from the public, the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, and the agencies involved. In the hearing, each agency has the burden of demonstrating that there is a public need for the continued existence of the agency or function and that its regulation is the least restrictive regulation consistent with the public interest.

(b) In the hearings, the determination as to whether an agency has demonstrated a public need for the continued existence of the agency or function and for the degree of regulation it practices is based on the following factors, among others:
Whether regulation by the agency is necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; whether the conditions that led to the initial regulation have changed; and whether other conditions have arisen that would warrant more, less, or the same degree of regulation;

(II) If regulation is necessary, whether the existing statutes and regulations establish the least restrictive form of regulation consistent with the public interest, considering other available regulatory mechanisms, and whether agency rules enhance the public interest and are within the scope of legislative intent;

(III) Whether the agency operates in the public interest and whether its operation is impeded or enhanced by existing statutes, rules, procedures, and practices and any other circumstances, including budgetary, resource, and personnel matters;

(IV) Whether an analysis of agency operations indicates that the agency performs its statutory duties efficiently and effectively;

(V) Whether the composition of the agency's board or commission adequately represents the public interest and whether the agency encourages public participation in its decisions rather than participation only by the people it regulates;

(VI) The economic impact of regulation and, if national economic information is not available, whether the agency stimulates or restricts competition;

(VII) Whether complaint, investigation, and disciplinary procedures adequately protect the public and whether final dispositions of complaints are in the public interest or self-serving to the profession;

(VIII) Whether the scope of practice of the regulated occupation contributes to the optimum use of personnel and whether entry requirements encourage affirmative action;

(IX) Whether the agency through its licensing or certification process imposes any disqualifications on applicants based on past criminal history and, if so, whether the disqualifications serve public safety or commercial or consumer protection interests. To assist in considering this factor, the analysis prepared pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section must include data on the number of licenses or certifications that the agency denied, revoked, or suspended based on a disqualification and the basis for the disqualification.

(X) Whether administrative and statutory changes are necessary to improve agency operations to enhance the public interest.

(c) A legislative committee of reference that conducts a review pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall determine whether an agency or function should be repealed, continued, or reestablished and whether its functions should be revised and, if advisable, may recommend the consideration of a proposed bill to carry out its recommendations.

(d) If a legislative committee of reference recommends a bill for consideration pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6), the bill must be introduced in the house of representatives in even-numbered years and in the senate in odd-numbered years. The chair of each legislative committee of reference that recommends a bill for consideration shall assign the proposed bill for sponsorship as follows:

(A) To one or more of the members of the committee of reference; or

(B) To one or more of the members of the general assembly who are not members of the committee of reference if a majority of the committee's members vote to approve the sponsorship.

(II) A member of the general assembly may not sponsor more than two bills introduced pursuant to this subsection (6) in a single legislative session.
(III) The speaker of the house of representatives shall assign the proposed bill to a representative for sponsorship in the house of representatives in odd-numbered years. The president of the senate shall assign the proposed bill to a senator for sponsorship in the senate in even-numbered years.

(e) A bill recommended for consideration by a committee of reference pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6) does not count against the number of bills to which members of the general assembly are limited by law or joint rule of the senate and house of representatives.

(f) Before the repeal, continuation, reestablishment, or revision of an agency's functions, a committee of reference in each house of the general assembly designated by section 2-3-1201, C.R.S., shall hold a public hearing to consider the report from the department of regulatory agencies and any bill recommended for consideration pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6). The hearing must include the factors and testimony set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6).

(7) (a) Pursuant to the process established in this section, a committee of reference may not continue, reestablish, or amend the functions of more than one division, board, or agency in any one bill for an act, and the title of the bill must include the name of the division, board, or agency. This paragraph (a) does not apply to requirements for periodic reports to the general assembly.

(b) This section shall not cause the dismissal of a claim or right of a person through or against an agency, or a claim or right of an agency, that has ceased its activities pursuant to this section, which claim is or may be subject to litigation. A person may pursue a claim or right through or against the department of regulatory agencies, the agency that performed the repealed function, or, in the case of a repealed board that is not in the department of regulatory agencies, the specified department in which the board is located. The claims and rights of an agency that has ceased its activities shall be assumed by the department of regulatory agencies, the agency that performed the repealed function, or the specific department.

(c) This section does not affect the general assembly's authority to otherwise consider legislation affecting a division, board, agency, or similar body.

(8) If an agency or function repeals pursuant to the provisions of this section and the general assembly reestablishes the agency or function during the wind-up period with substantially the same powers, duties, and functions, the agency or function continues.

(9) The purpose of this section is to provide a listing of the divisions, boards, agencies, and functions that are subject to review and scheduled for repeal. The provisions of this section do not effectuate the repeal of a statute; the provisions that effectuate the repeal of a statute creating or governing an agency or function are set forth in the substantive statute that creates the agency or function. The repeal provision in a substantive statute does not invalidate the wind-up period allowed by subsection (2) of this section or the provisions of subsection (3) of this section.

2. Subsection (46)(k) was amended in SB 16-161. Those amendments were superseded by the repeal and reenactment of this section in HB 16-1192, effective April 14, 2016. For the amendments to subsection (46)(k) in SB16-161 see chapter 264, Session Laws of Colorado 2016. (L. 2016, p. 1095.)

3. Subsection (47.5)(h) was amended in SB 16-189. Those amendments were superseded by the repeal of subsection (47.5)(h) in HB 16-1360, effective August 10, 2016. For the amendments to subsection (47.5)(h) in SB16-189 in effect from June 6, 2016 to August 10, 2016 see chapter 210, Session Laws of Colorado 2016. (L. 2016, p. 766.)

4. Section 4(2) of chapter 358 (HB 16-1404), Session Laws of Colorado 2016, provides that changes to this section by the act apply to conduct occurring on or after July 1, 2017.

5. Amendments to subsection (29) by SB 17-216 and SB 17-218 were harmonized; except that the introductory portion to subsection (29)(a) as added by Senate Bill 17-216 superseded the introductory portion to subsection (29)(a) as added by Senate Bill 17-218.

6. Amendments to subsection (25)(a) by HB 17-1238, SB 17-226, SB 17-232, and HB 17-1239 were harmonized.

7. Subsection (12)(a)(VII) was amended in HB 17-1238. Those amendments were superseded by the repeal of subsection (12)(a)(VII) in SB 17-216.
(8) The effective date for changes to subsections IP(14)(a), (14)(a)(VII), IP(24)(a), and (24)(a)(IV) by Senate Bill 17-132 was changed from August 9, 2017, to July 1, 2018, by section 121 of Senate Bill 17-294. (See L. 2017, p. 1418.)

(9) Section 8(2) of chapter 207 (SB 17-132), Session Laws of Colorado 2017, provides that the act changing this section applies to conduct occurring on or after July 1, 2018.

(10) Section 6 of chapter 233 (SB 17-232), Session Laws of Colorado 2017, provides that the act changing this section applies to conduct occurring on or after May 23, 2017.

24-34-104.1. General assembly sunrise review of new regulation of occupations and professions. (1) The general assembly finds that regulation should be imposed on an occupation or profession only when necessary for the protection of the public interest. The general assembly further finds that establishing a system for reviewing the necessity of regulating an occupation or profession prior to enacting laws for such regulation will better enable it to evaluate the need for the regulation and to determine the least restrictive regulatory alternative consistent with the public interest.

(2) (a) For proposals submitted on or after July 1, 2012, any professional or occupational group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party that proposes the regulation of any unregulated professional or occupational group shall submit the following information to the department of regulatory agencies no later than December 1 of any year for analysis and evaluation during the following year:

(I) A description of the group proposed for regulation, including a list of associations, organizations, and other groups representing the practitioners in this state, and an estimate of the number of practitioners in each group;

(II) A definition of the problem or problems to be solved by regulation and the reasons why regulation is necessary;

(III) A statement of support for the proposed regulation as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2);

(IV) The reasons why certification, registration, licensure, or other type of regulation is being proposed and why that regulatory alternative was chosen;

(V) The benefit to the public that would result from the proposed regulation;

(VI) The cost of the proposed regulation; and

(VII) A description of any anticipated disqualifications on an applicant for licensure, certification, relicensure, or recertification based on criminal history and how the disqualifications serve public safety or commercial or consumer protection interests.

(b) The department shall review a proposal to regulate a professional or occupational group only when the party requesting the review files a statement of support for the proposed regulation that has been signed by at least ten members of the professional or occupational group for which regulation is being sought or at least ten individuals who are not members of the professional or occupational group.

(3) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection (3), the department of regulatory agencies shall conduct an analysis and evaluation of any proposed regulation submitted on or after July 1, 2012. The analysis and evaluation must be based upon the criteria listed in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section. The department of regulatory agencies shall submit a report to the proponents of the regulation and to the general assembly no later than October 15 of the year following the year in which the proposed regulation was submitted.

(b) (I) After review of a proposal to regulate a professional or occupational group that was submitted on or after July 1, 2012, the department of regulatory agencies may decline to conduct an analysis and evaluation of the proposed regulation only if it:

(A) Previously conducted an analysis and evaluation of the proposed regulation of the same professional or occupational group;

(B) Issued a report not more than thirty-six months prior to the submission of the current proposal to regulate the same professional or occupational group; and

(C) Finds that no new information has been submitted that would cause the department to alter or modify the recommendations made in its earlier report on the proposed regulation of the professional or occupational group.

(II) If the department of regulatory agencies declines to conduct an analysis and evaluation pursuant to this paragraph (b), the department shall reissue its earlier report on the proposed regulation to the proponents of the regulation and the general assembly no later than October 15 of the year following the year in which the proposed regulation was submitted.

(c) If the department receives a proposal to regulate a professional or occupational group indicating, based on documentation verified by the department, that the unregulated professional or occupational group poses an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare, the department shall promptly notify the proponents of the proposed regulation and the legislative council of the general assembly of the imminent threat and shall submit to the legislative council the documentation on which it bases its finding of imminent threat. Within thirty days after receipt of the notice and documentation from the department, the legislative council shall conduct a hearing to examine the documentation and determine whether it concurs with the department's finding that an imminent threat exists. In conducting its examination, the legislative council shall consider whether regulation of the professional or occupational group without first obtaining an analysis and evaluation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) will substantially alter the impact on public health, safety, or welfare. The department may forego the analysis and evaluation only if the legislative council notifies the department that the legislative council concurs with the department's finding of imminent threat to public health, safety, and welfare.

(4) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 796, § 7, effective May 23, 1996.)

(b) In such hearings, the determination as to whether such regulation of an occupation or a profession is needed shall be based upon the following considerations:

(I) Whether the unregulated practice of the occupation or profession clearly harms or endangers the health, safety, or welfare of the public, and whether the potential for the harm is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;

(II) Whether the public needs, and can reasonably be expected to benefit from, an assurance of initial and continuing professional or occupational competence;

(III) Whether the public can be adequately protected by other means in a more cost-effective manner; and
(IV) Whether the imposition of any disqualifications on applicants for licensure, certification, relicensure, or recertification based on criminal history serves public safety or commercial or consumer protection interests.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 796, § 7, effective May 23, 1996.)

(5) Repealed.

(6) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), the supporters of regulation of a professional or occupational group may request members of the general assembly to present appropriate legislation to the general assembly during each of the two regular sessions that immediately succeed the date of the report required pursuant to subsection (3) of this section without the supporters having to comply again with the provisions of subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section. Bills introduced pursuant to this subsection (6) shall count against the number of bills to which members of the general assembly are limited by any joint rule of the senate and the house of representatives.

(b) If, pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (3) of this section, the department of regulatory agencies declines to conduct an analysis and evaluation of the proposed regulation of a professional or occupational group and reissues a prior report on the proposed regulation of the same professional or occupational group or finds that the unregulated professional or occupational group poses an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare, as confirmed by the legislative council of the general assembly, the supporters of the regulation of the professional or occupational group may request that members of the general assembly present appropriate legislation to the general assembly during each of the next two regular sessions that begin after the date the department reissues its original report on the proposed regulation or the date on which the legislative council notifies the department that it concurs in a finding of imminent threat pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section, whichever is applicable.

Editor's note: (1) Subsection (5)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (5), effective February 1, 1986. (See L. 85, p. 280.)

(2) Subsection (2)(a)(VII) was numbered as (2)(f) in Senate Bill 13-123 but was renumbered on revision for ease of location. Subsections (2)(a)(V) and (2)(a)(VI) were numbered as subsections (2)(d) and (2)(f) in Senate Bill 13-123 but were renumbered on revision to reflect the numbering changes made to subsection (2) in 2012.

24-34-104.3. General assembly review of reprocessing fee - motor vehicle registration. (Repealed)

24-34-104.4. Excise tax on fees. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, there is imposed, and the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies shall collect, an excise tax upon the payment of the following fees:
   (a) and (b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 1613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)
   (c) Repealed.
   (e) Within the division of professions and occupations, renewal fees that are required to be paid by individuals for the renewal of a license, registration, or certificate granting the individual authority or permission from the state to continue the practice of a profession or occupation; except that such excise tax shall not be imposed on the renewal fee paid by nurse aides pursuant to section 12-38.1-109, C.R.S. The amount of the excise tax to be collected shall be one dollar for each year of the renewal period.

   (2) For the purposes of this section, "renewal fees" includes all fees for the renewal, reinstatement, and continuation of a license, registration, or certificate for the practice of a profession or occupation in this state. "Renewal fees" does not include fees paid for initial licensure, registration, or certification, application fees, examination fees, penalty late fees, duplicate license fees, board action fees, verification fees, license change fees, fees for the verification of licensure, registration, or certification status to other states, electrical inspection permit fees, plumbing inspection fees, and fees for certification of grades.

   (2.5) Repealed.

   (3) Moneys collected pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be credited to the legal defense account created within the division of professions and occupations cash fund pursuant to section 24-34-105 (2)(b).

   (4) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 1613, § 1, effective July 1, 1997.)

   (b) On October 1 of each year, the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies shall report to the joint budget committee the amount of money credited to the legal defense account created within the division of professions and occupations cash fund pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for the preceding fiscal year.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (1)(e) by Senate Bill 89-9 and House Bill 89-1022 were harmonized.

24-34-104.5. Cost of reports - charges. The reasonable cost to perform sunset reviews of programs not within the department of regulatory agencies shall be charged to the departments in which such programs are located.

24-34-105. Fee adjustments - division of professions and occupations cash fund created - legal defense account. (1) This section applies to all activities of the boards and commissions in the division in the department.

(2) (a) Each board and commission in the division shall propose, as part of its annual budget request, an adjustment in the amount of each fee that the board or commission is authorized by law to collect. The budget request and the adjusted fees for each board or commission must reflect direct and indirect costs that are appropriated in the annual general appropriation act.

(b) (I) Based upon the appropriation made and subject to the approval of the executive director, each board or commission shall adjust its fees so that the revenue generated from the fees approximates its direct and indirect costs; except that the costs of the state board of psychologist examiners, the state board of marriage and family therapist examiners, the state board of licensed professional counselor examiners, the state board of social work examiners, the state board of registered psychotherapists, and the state board of addiction counselor examiners shall be considered collectively in the renewal fee-setting process. Subsequent revenue generated by the fees set by the boards plus revenues generated pursuant to section 12-43-702.5, C.R.S., shall be compared to those collective costs to determine recovery of direct and indirect costs. The fees remain in effect for the fiscal year for which the budget request applies. All fees collected by each board and commission, not including any fees retained by contractors as established pursuant to section 24-34-101 (10), shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of professions and occupations cash fund, which fund is hereby created. All moneys credited to the division of professions and occupations cash fund shall be used as provided in this section and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of this state or any other fund.

(I.5) Any fees established pursuant to section 24-34-101 (10) or (11) may be received by a contractor and retained as payment for the costs of examination or other services rendered pursuant to the contract with the executive director. Fees retained by a contractor and not collected by the state or deposited with the state treasurer shall not be subject to article 36 of this title.

(II) The excise tax collected pursuant to section 24-34-104.4 shall be credited to the legal defense account, which account is hereby created within the division of professions and occupations cash fund. The excise tax is the sole source of funding for the account, and no other fee, or any portion thereof, collected by a board or commission and credited to the division of professions and occupations cash fund shall be deposited in or transferred to the account. The account shall be used to supplement revenues received by a board or commission but shall only be used for the purpose of paying legal expenses incurred by said board or commission. Upon a determination of the need of a board or commission for additional revenues for the payment of legal expenses, the director may authorize the transfer of revenues from the legal defense account to the account of such board or commission in the division of professions and occupations cash fund. For purposes of this subparagraph (II), "legal expenses" includes costs relating to the holding of administrative hearings and charges for legal services provided by the department of law, administrative law judge services, investigative services, expert witnesses, and consultants.

(III) and (IV) Repealed.

(c) Beginning July 1, 1979, and each July 1 thereafter, whenever moneys appropriated to a board or commission for its activities for the prior fiscal year are unexpended, said moneys shall be made a part of the appropriation to such board or commission for the next fiscal year, and such amount shall not be raised from fees collected by such board or commission. If a supplemental appropriation is made to a board or commission for its activities, the fees of such board or commission, when adjusted for the fiscal year next following that in which the supplemental appropriation was made, shall be adjusted by an additional amount which is sufficient to compensate for such supplemental appropriation. Funds appropriated to a board or commission in the annual long appropriation bill shall be designated as cash funds and shall not exceed the amount anticipated to be raised from fees collected by such board or commission.

(3) Repealed.

Editor's note: Subsection (3)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (3), effective January 1, 2016. (See L. 2012, p. 174.)

24-34-106. Professions and occupations - alternative to existing disciplinary actions.
If, as a result of a proceeding held pursuant to article 4 of this title, it is determined that a person licensed, registered, or certified to practice a profession or occupation pursuant to article 2 of title 10 or title 12, C.R.S., has acted in such a manner as to be subject to disciplinary action, the licensing board, commission, or other agency of the state may, in lieu of or in addition to other forms of disciplinary action that may be authorized by law, require a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to take courses of training or education relating to his profession or occupation. The licensing board, commission, or other agency of the state shall determine the conditions, on a case-by-case basis, which shall be imposed on such licensee, registrant, or certificate holder including, but not limited to, the type of and number of hours of training or education. All training or education courses are subject to approval by the board, commission, or agency, and the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall be required to furnish satisfactory proof that he has successfully completed such courses. Any training or education required by this section shall be in addition to the mandatory continuing education requirements for the profession or occupation, if any.

24-34-107. Applications for licenses - authority to suspend licenses - rules. (1) (a) Every application by an individual for a license issued pursuant to the authority set forth in titles 10, 11, and 12, C.R.S., by any division, board, or agency of the department of regulatory agencies shall require the applicant's name, address, and social security number. Subject to the exemptions found in 8 U.S.C. sec. 1621 (c)(2), to the extent that any such license constitutes a professional license or commercial license regulated by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1621, such division, board, or agency may issue or renew any such license to an individual only if the individual is lawfully present in the United States, and shall immediately deny any such license or renewal thereof upon determining that the individual is unlawfully present in the United States. The individual shall prove his or her identity with a secure and verifiable document, as that term is defined in section 24-72.1-102. The division, board, or agency shall not sell or utilize for any purpose other than those specified in law the information contained in the secure and verifiable document, and shall keep such information confidential unless disclosure is required by law; except that nothing in this paragraph (a) shall be construed to limit public access to records that are available for public inspection pursuant to article 72 of this title.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (1), an individual is unlawfully present in the United States if the individual is an alien who is not:

(I) A qualified alien as defined in 8 U.S.C. sec. 1641;

(II) A nonimmigrant under the "Immigration and Nationality Act", federal Public Law 82-414, as amended; or

(III) An alien who is paroled into the United States under 8 U.S.C. sec. 1182 (d)(5) for less than one year.

(c) This subsection (1) shall be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.

(2) The divisions, boards, or agencies of the department of regulatory agencies shall deny, suspend, or revoke any license pursuant to the provisions of section 26-13-126, C.R.S., and any rules promulgated in furtherance thereof, if such division, board, or agency receives a notice to deny, suspend, or revoke from the state child support enforcement agency because the licensee or applicant is out of compliance with a court or administrative order for current child support, child support debt, retroactive child support, child support arrearages, or child support when combined with maintenance or because the licensee or applicant has failed to comply with a properly issued subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding. Any such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be in accordance with the procedures specified by rule of any such division, board, or agency of the department of regulatory agencies, rules promulgated by the state board of human services, and any memorandum of understanding entered into between any division, board, or agency of the department of regulatory agencies and the state child support enforcement agency for the implementation of this section and section 26-
13-126, C.R.S.

(3) (a) The divisions, boards, and agencies of the department of regulatory agencies may enter into a memorandum of understanding with the state child support enforcement agency to facilitate implementation of this section and section 26-13-126, C.R.S., through the rules promulgated pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(b) The divisions, boards, and agencies of the department of regulatory agencies are authorized to promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

(4) For purposes of this section, "license" means any registration, certificate, charter, or membership issued by any division, board, or agency of the department of regulatory agencies for an individual to practice a profession or occupation or for an individual to participate in any recreational activity.

Sess.: (1) amended, p. 28, § 1, effective January 1, 2007.

Editor's note: Section 51(2) of chapter 236, Session Laws of Colorado 1997, provides that the act enacting this section applies to all orders whether entered on, before, or after July 1, 1997.

24-34-108. Consumer outreach and education program - creation - cash fund - fine surcharge. (1) The executive director of the department of regulatory agencies shall develop and implement a consumer outreach and education program, referred to in this section as the "program", for the purposes of informing consumers of their rights regarding regulated professions and occupations, decreasing regulatory violations, and ensuring public awareness of consumer protection information available from the department.

(2) There is hereby created within the state treasury the consumer outreach and education cash fund for the purpose of developing, implementing, and maintaining the program.
The fund shall consist of any surcharges that may be imposed by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies within the department of regulatory agencies, including fines collected pursuant to titles 10, 11, 12, 40, and 42, C.R.S. The amount of each surcharge shall not exceed fifteen percent of the fine collected. The surcharges shall be adjusted as necessary so that surcharge revenues collected do not exceed two hundred thousand dollars annually. All moneys collected shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall credit such moneys to the fund. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the direct and indirect costs associated with the implementation of the program. Moneys in the fund not expended for the purposes of this section may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Moneys credited to the fund shall not be transferred to the general fund or any other fund; except that any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year that exceed ten percent of the fund's expenditures in that fiscal year shall be transferred to the general fund or another fund.

(3) On or before November 1 of each year, the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies shall provide a report to the joint budget committee of the general assembly that includes the amount of revenue collected from the surcharge in accordance with subsection
(2) of this section for the previous fiscal year, a description of how the moneys were spent in the previous fiscal year, and a plan for how the moneys will be spent in the current fiscal year.

24-34-109. Nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care - creation - duties - definition - repeal. (1) There is hereby created, within the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies, the nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care, referred to in this section as "NPATCH". The purpose of the NPATCH is to promote public safety and improve health care in Colorado by supporting collaboration and communication between the practices of nursing and medicine. The NPATCH shall:
   (a) Promote patient safety and quality care;
   (b) Address issues of mutual concern at the interface of the practices of nursing and medicine;
   (c) Inform public policy-making; and
   (d) Make consensus recommendations to policy-making and rule-making entities, including:
      (I) Recommendations to the state board of nursing created in section 12-38-104, C.R.S., and the Colorado medical board created in section 12-36-103, C.R.S., regarding the transition to the articulated plan model and harmonizing language for articulated plans; and
      (II) Recommendations to the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies.
(2) (a) The NPATCH shall consist of twelve members appointed as follows:
   (I) One member of the state board of nursing, appointed by the president of the board;
   (II) One member of the Colorado medical board, appointed by the president of the board;
   (III) Ten members appointed by the governor as follows:
      (A) Three members recommended by and representing a statewide professional nursing organization;
      (B) Three members recommended by and representing a statewide physicians' organization;
      (C) One member representing the nursing community who may or may not be a member of a statewide professional nursing organization;
      (D) One member representing the physician community who may or may not be a member of a statewide physicians' organization; and
      (E) Two members representing consumers.
   (b) The members of the NPATCH shall serve on a voluntary basis without compensation and shall serve three-year terms; except that, in order to ensure staggered terms of office, four of the initial appointees shall serve initial one-year terms and four of the initial appointees shall serve initial two-year terms.
   (3) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), the NPATCH may develop its own bylaws and procedures to govern its operations.
   (b) A recommendation of the NPATCH requires the consensus of the members of the task force. For purposes of this section, "consensus" means an agreement, decision, or recommendation that all members of the task force can actively support and that no member actively opposes.
(4) The division of professions and occupations shall staff the NPATCH. The division's costs for administering and staffing the NPATCH shall be funded by an increase in fees for professional and advanced practice nursing and medical license renewal fees, as authorized in sections 12-38-108 (1)(b)(I) and 12-36-123, C.R.S., with fifty percent of the funding derived from the physician license renewal fees and fifty percent derived from the professional and advanced practice nursing fees.

(5) The NPATCH shall prioritize consideration of and make recommendations on the following topics:
   (a) Facilitating a smooth transition to the articulated plan model, as described in sections 12-38-111.6 (4.5) and 12-36-106.4, C.R.S.;
   (b) The framework for articulated plans, including creation of sample plans;
   (c) Quality assurance mechanisms for all medication prescribers;
   (d) Evidence-based guidelines;
   (e) Decision support tools;
   (f) Safe prescribing metrics for all medication prescribers;
   (g) Methods to foster effective communication between health professions;
   (h) Health care delivery system integration and related improvements;
   (i) Physician standards, process, and metrics to ensure appropriate consultation, collaboration, and referral regarding advanced practice nurse prescriptive authority; and
   (j) Prescribing issues regarding providers other than physicians and advanced practice nurses.

(6) (a) The NPATCH shall make recommendations to the state board of nursing and the Colorado medical board to assist the boards in the development of independent rules, consistent with sections 12-38-111.6 (4.5) and 12-36-106.4, C.R.S., regarding prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses, articulated plans, and the consultation or collaboration between advanced practice nurses and physicians.

   (b) The NPATCH shall make recommendations, other than those described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), to the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies.

(7) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2020. Prior to the repeal, the department of regulatory agencies shall review the functions of the NPATCH as provided in section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

24-34-110. Medical transparency act of 2010 - disclosure of information about health care licensees - fines - rules - short title - legislative declaration - repeal. (1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Michael Skolnik Medical Transparency Act of 2010".

   (2) (a) The general assembly hereby finds and determines that:

   (I) The people of Colorado need to be fully informed about the past practices of persons practicing a health care profession in this state in order to make informed decisions when choosing a health care provider and determining whether to proceed with a particular regimen of care recommended by a health care provider;
(II) The purpose of this section is to provide transparency to the public regarding the competency of persons engaged in the practice of certain health care professions in this state to assist citizens in making informed health care decisions.

(b) The general assembly further finds and declares that it is important to make information about persons engaged in the practice of a health care profession available to the public in a manner that is efficient, cost-effective, and maintains the integrity of the information, and to that end, the general assembly encourages persons to file the required information with the division of professions and occupations electronically, to the extent possible.

(3) (a) As used in this section, "applicant" means a person applying for a new, active license, certification, or registration or to renew, reinstate, or reactivate an active license, certification, or registration to practice:

(I) Audiology pursuant to article 29.9 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(II) As a licensed hearing aid provider pursuant to part 2 of article 5.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;

(X) Direct-entry midwifery pursuant to article 37 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XI) Practical nursing, professional nursing, or advanced practice nursing pursuant to article 38 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XII) Optometry pursuant to article 40 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XIII) Physical therapy pursuant to article 41 of title 12 or part 37 of article 60 of this title 24;
(XIV) Psychology pursuant to part 3 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XV) Social work pursuant to part 4 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XVI) Marriage and family therapy pursuant to part 5 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XVII) Professional counseling pursuant to part 6 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XVIII) Psychotherapy pursuant to part 7 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XIX) Addiction counseling pursuant to part 8 of article 43 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XX) Speech-language pathology pursuant to article 43.7 of title 12;
(XXI) Athletic training pursuant to article 29.7 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXII) Massage therapy pursuant to article 35.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXIII) As a certified nurse aide pursuant to part 1 of article 38.1 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXIV) Occupational therapy pursuant to article 40.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXV) Respiratory therapy pursuant to article 41.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXVI) Pharmacy pursuant to article 42.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;
(XXVII) As a psychiatric technician pursuant to article 42 of title 12, C.R.S.; (XXVIII) As a surgical assistant or surgical technologist pursuant to article 43.2 of title 12, C.R.S.; and (XXIX) Naturopathic medicine pursuant to article 37.3 of title 12, C.R.S.
A person who is an applicant under this subsection (3) is not, by virtue of inclusion in this section, a health care provider for purposes of any other provision of Colorado law.

When applying for a new license, certification, or registration or to renew, reinstate, or reactivate a license, certification, or registration in this state, each applicant shall provide the following information to the director of the division of professions and occupations, in a form and manner determined by the director, as applicable to each profession:

(a) (I) The applicant's full name, including any known aliases;
   (II) The applicant's current address of record and telephone number;
   (III) The applicant's location of practice, if different than the address of record;
   (IV) The applicant's education and training related to his or her profession;
   (V) Information pertaining to any license, certification, or registration to practice in the profession for which the applicant seeks licensure, certification, or registration, issued or held during the immediately preceding ten years, including the license, certification, or registration status and year of issuance;
   (VI) Any board certifications and specialties, if applicable;
   (VII) Any affiliations with or clinical privileges held in hospitals or health care facilities;
   (VIII) Any health care-related business ownership interests;
   (IX) Information pertaining to the applicant's employer, if any, including name, current address, and telephone number; and
   (X) Information pertaining to any health care-related employment contracts or contracts establishing an independent contractor relationship with any entities if the annual aggregate value of the contracts exceeds five thousand dollars, as adjusted by the director during each license, certification, or registration renewal cycle to reflect changes in the United States department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, consumer price index for Denver-Boulder-Greeley, all items, all urban consumers, or its successor index. Nothing in this subparagraph (X) requires an applicant to report such information regarding contracts with insurance carriers for reimbursement of health care services provided to patients.

(b) Any public disciplinary action taken against the applicant by the director, the applicable state board that regulates the applicant's profession, or the board or licensing agency of any other state or country. The applicant shall provide a copy of the action to the director at the time the application is made.

(c) Any agreement or stipulation entered into between the applicant and the director, the applicable state board that regulates the applicant's profession, or the board or licensing agency of any other state or country whereby the applicant agrees to temporarily cease or restrict his or her practice, or any director or board order restricting or suspending the applicant's license, certification, or registration. The applicant shall provide a copy of the agreement, stipulation, or order to the director at the time the application is made.

(d) (I) Any final action that results in an involuntary limitation or probationary status on, or a reduction, nonrenewal, denial, revocation, or suspension of, the applicant's medical staff membership or clinical privileges at any hospital or health care facility occurring on or after September 1, 1990. The applicant shall not be required to report a precautionary or administrative suspension of medical staff membership or clinical privileges, as defined by the director by rule, unless the applicant resigns his or her medical staff membership or clinical privileges while the precautionary or administrative suspension is pending. To report the information required by this paragraph (d), the applicant shall complete a form developed by the director that requires the applicant to report only the following information regarding the action:
(A) The name of the facility or entity that took the action;
(B) The date the action was taken;
(C) The type of action taken, including any terms and conditions of the action;
(D) The duration of the action; and
(E) Whether the applicant has fulfilled the terms or conditions of the action, if applicable.
(II) Notwithstanding article 36.5 of title 12, article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., and any provision of law to the contrary, the form completed by the applicant pursuant to this paragraph (d) is a public record and is not confidential. Compliance with this paragraph (d) does not constitute a waiver of any privilege or confidentiality conferred by any applicable state or federal law.
(e) Any final action of an employer that results in the applicant's loss of employment where the grounds for termination constitute a violation of the laws governing the applicant's practice. To report the information required by this paragraph (e), the applicant shall complete a form developed by the director that requires the applicant to report only the following information regarding the action:
(I) The name of the employer that terminated the employment; and
(II) The date the termination occurred or became effective.
(f) Any involuntary surrender of the applicant's United States drug enforcement administration registration. The applicant shall provide a copy of the order requiring the surrender of such registration to the director at the time the application is made.
(g) Any final criminal conviction or plea arrangement resulting from the commission or alleged commission of a felony or crime of moral turpitude in any jurisdiction at any time after the person has been issued a license, certification, or registration to practice his or her health care profession in any state or country. The applicant shall provide a copy of the final conviction or plea arrangement to the director at the time the application is made.
(h) Any final judgment against, settlement entered into by, or arbitration award paid on behalf of the applicant on or after September 1, 1990, for malpractice. To report the information required by this paragraph (h), the applicant shall complete a form developed by the director that requires the applicant to report only the following information regarding the malpractice action:
(I) Whether the action was resolved by a final judgment against, settlement entered into by, or arbitration award paid on behalf of the applicant;
(II) The date of the judgment, settlement, or arbitration award;
(III) The location or jurisdiction in which the action occurred or was resolved; and
(IV) The court in which the final judgment was ordered, the mediator that aided in the settlement, if applicable, or the arbitrator that granted the arbitration award.
(i) Any refusal by an issuer of professional liability insurance to issue a policy to the applicant due to past claims experience. The applicant shall provide a copy of the refusal to the director at the time the application is made.
(5) In addition to the information required by subsection (4) of this section, an applicant may submit information regarding awards and recognitions he or she has received or charity care he or she has provided. The director may remove information regarding awards and recognitions that the director finds to be unrelated to the applicant's profession or offensive or inappropriate.
(6) The director shall make the information specified in subsections (4) and (5) of this section that is submitted by an applicant readily available to the public in a manner that allows the public to search the information by name, license number, board certification or specialty area, if applicable, or city of the applicant's address of record. The director may satisfy this requirement by posting and allowing the ability to search the information on the director's website or on the website for the state regulatory board that oversees the applicant's practice. If the information is made available on either website, the director shall ensure that the website is updated at least monthly and that the date on which the update occurs is indicated on the website. If the information made available pursuant to this subsection (6) is the same or substantially similar to information the director must make available pursuant to section 12-43.2-102 (3), C.R.S., the director may elect to use this database as the exclusive means for making the information required by section 12-43.2-102 (3), C.R.S., publicly available.

(7) When disclosing information regarding an applicant to the public, the director or applicable state board that regulates the applicant's profession shall include the following statement or a similar statement that communicates the same meaning:

Some studies have shown that there is no significant correlation between malpractice history and a [insert applicable type of health care provider]'s competence. At the same time, the [director or board of __________, as applicable] believes that consumers should have access to malpractice information. To make the best health care decisions, you should view this information in perspective. You could miss an opportunity for high quality care by selecting a health care provider based solely on malpractice history. When considering malpractice data, please keep in mind:
Malpractice histories tend to vary by profession and, as applicable, by specialty. Some professions or specialties are more likely than others to be the subject of litigation.
You should take into account how long the health care provider has been in practice when considering malpractice averages.
The incident causing the malpractice claim may have happened years before a malpractice action is finally resolved. Sometimes, it takes a long time for a malpractice lawsuit to move through the legal system.
Some health care providers work primarily with high-risk patients. These health care providers may have malpractice histories that are higher than average because they specialize in cases or patients who are at very high risk for problems.
Settlement of a claim may occur for a variety of reasons that do not necessarily reflect negatively on the professional competence or conduct of the health care provider. A payment in settlement of a malpractice action or claim should not be construed as creating a presumption that malpractice has occurred.
You may wish to discuss information provided by the [director or board of __________, as applicable], and malpractice generally, with your health care provider.
The information posted on the [director's or board of __________'s, as applicable] website was provided by applicants for a license and applicants for renewal, reinstatement, or reactivation of a license.

(8) (a) Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8), an applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant shall ensure that the information required by subsection (4) of this section is current and shall report any updated information and provide copies of the required documentation to the director within thirty days after the date of the action described in said subsection (4) or as otherwise provided in the article of title 12, C.R.S., that regulates the applicant's, licensee's, certificate holder's, or registrant's profession to ensure that the information provided to the public is as accurate as possible.

(b) An applicant shall report updated information regarding the applicant's employer, any health care-related business ownership interests, and any health care-related employment contracts or contracts establishing an independent contractor relationship, as required by paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section, within one year after a change in that information.

(9) (a) The director may impose an administrative fine not to exceed five thousand dollars against an applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant who fails to comply with this section. The director shall notify the applicable state board that regulates the profession when the director imposes a fine pursuant to this subsection (9). Any fine imposed pursuant to this subsection (9) shall be deposited in the general fund.

(b) The imposition of an administrative fine pursuant to this subsection (9) shall not constitute a disciplinary action pursuant to the laws governing the applicant's, licensee's, certificate holder's, or registrant's practice area and shall not preclude the state regulatory board that oversees the applicant's, licensee's, certificate holder's, or registrant's practice area from taking disciplinary action against an applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant for failure to comply with this section. A license, certification, or registration shall not be issued, renewed, reinstated, or reactivated if the applicant has failed to pay a fine imposed pursuant to this subsection (9).

(c) Failure of an applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant to comply with this section constitutes unprofessional conduct or grounds for discipline under the specific article of title 12, C.R.S., that regulates the applicant's, licensee's, certificate holder's, or registrant's profession.

(10) Nothing in this section relieves an applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant from his or her obligation to report adverse actions to the director or applicable state board that regulates the applicant's profession, as required by the applicable laws in title 12, C.R.S., regulating that profession.

(11) The director may adopt rules, as necessary, to implement this section.

(12) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2021. Prior to the repeal, the department of regulatory agencies shall review the functions of the program under this section as provided in section 24-34-104.

24-34-110.5. Health care work force data collection - repeal. (1) On or before July 1, 2013, the director of the division of professions and occupations shall implement a system to collect health care work force data from health care professionals who are eligible for the Colorado health service corps pursuant to part 5 of article 1.5 of title 25, C.R.S., from practical and professional nurses licensed pursuant to article 38 of title 12, C.R.S., and from pharmacists who are licensed pursuant to article 22 of title 12, C.R.S., collectively referred to in this section as "health care professionals". Each health care professional shall submit the data as part of the initial licensure process and upon the renewal of his or her license. No executive department or board is responsible for verifying the data or disciplining a health care professional for noncompliance with this section.

(2) The director of the division of professions and occupations shall request each health care professional to provide data recommended by the director of the primary care office in consultation with the advisory group formed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. The director of the division of professions and occupations has final approval authority regarding the form and manner of the data collected. The data collected concerns:

(a) Each practice address of the health care professional;
(b) The number of hours the health care professional provides direct patient care at each practice location;
(c) Any specialties of the health care professional, if applicable;
(d) Information about each practice setting type;
(e) The health care professional's education and training related to his or her profession; and
(f) The year of birth of the health care professional.

(3) (a) The director of the primary care office created in section 25-1.5-403, C.R.S., shall designate an advisory group composed of a representative of the department of regulatory agencies as determined by the executive director, the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies, or his or her designee, representatives of the affected health care professions, and individuals with expertise in health care work force research, analysis, and planning to be convened by a nonprofit statewide membership organization that provides programs and services to enhance rural health care in Colorado. The members of the advisory group shall serve without compensation or reimbursement for actual or necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The advisory group shall recommend the structure of the data elements in subsection (2) of this section. The advisory group shall consider, but is not limited to using, the division of professions and occupations' existing data fields as a possible structure for the data elements recommended in this section. The director of the division of professions and occupations has final approval authority regarding the structure of the data elements.

(b) The director of the division of professions and occupations shall ensure that the data provided by health care professionals is available to the primary care office in electronic format for analysis. A member of the public may request, in writing, unanalyzed data from the primary care office. Data available to the public must be limited to unique records that do not include names or other identifying information.

(c) The advisory group is repealed, effective September 1, 2022. Before the repeal, the department of regulatory agencies shall review the advisory group pursuant to section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

(4) (a) The director of the division of professions and occupations is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section; except that the director may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this section or any other law of the state. The director shall transmit all private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of professions and occupations cash fund created in section 24-34-105. The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the director for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing this section.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding this section, see section 1 of chapter 228, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-34-111. Posting summary transparency reports required by federal law. Upon receipt by the state from the secretary of the United States department of health and human services, the department of regulatory agencies shall post on its website the report required by section 6002 of the federal "Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act", H.R. 3590, Pub.L. 111-148, containing a summary of information submitted by manufacturers and group purchasing organizations to the secretary pursuant to said law. The department shall post the report by September 30, 2013, and by June 30 of each calendar year thereafter, or as soon as possible after the state receives the report from the secretary, whichever occurs first.

24-34-112. Health care prescriber boards - disciplinary procedures - definitions - repeal. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Health care prescriber board" or "board" means:

(I) The Colorado podiatry board created in section 12-32-103;

(II) The Colorado dental board created in section 12-35-104;

(III) The Colorado medical board created in section 12-36-103;

(IV) The state board of nursing created in section 12-38-104;

(V) The state board of optometry established in section 12-40-106; and

(VI) The state board of veterinary medicine created in section 12-64-105.
(b) "Licensee" means an individual who is licensed or otherwise regulated by a board.

(2) Except as specified in subsection (4) of this section, notwithstanding any other provision of law in this title 24 or title 12, each health care prescriber board shall:

(a) Within fifteen days after receipt of a complaint, provide the complainant with a written notice providing contact information for the board and a summary of the regulatory and statutory procedures, timelines, and complainant and respondent rights that apply to the processing and resolution of complaints, including, if the complainant is the patient of the licensee who is the subject of the complaint, a notice of the patient's right to receive from the licensee a copy of his or her patient records pursuant to sections 25-1-801 and 25-1-802;

(b) If an investigation was initiated by a complaint and the board took public formal action regarding the alleged misconduct, provide the complainant, within thirty days after the action, with written notice of the action taken by the board;

(c) If a complaint is still pending after six months, notify the complainant that the complaint remains pending, subject to applicable restrictions in the board's governing law; and

(d) Update its website within thirty days after suspending or revoking a license to separately list each licensee subject to the suspension or revocation.

(3) If patient records are potentially relevant to resolution of a complaint against a licensee and the licensee is the custodian of the records, the licensee shall provide the board with the patient records within thirty days after the board requests the records.

(4) If any provision of article 4 of this title 24 or article 32, 35, 36, 38, 40, or 64 of title 12 is more protective of complainants' rights or results in a more expeditious resolution of disciplinary proceedings than a corresponding provision of this section, that provision applies rather than the corresponding provision of this section.

(5) (a) The department shall include in its annual presentation made pursuant to section 2-7-203 a performance report prepared by the division regarding changes to the boards' processes and procedures.

(b) This subsection (5) is repealed, effective September 1, 2018.

Editor's note: Section 4 of chapter 377 (HB 17-1165), Session Laws of Colorado 2017, provides that the act adding this section applies to disciplinary actions commenced on or after June 6, 2017.

PART 2

COLORADO COMMISSION ON WOMEN

Editor's note: (1) This part 2 was added in 1972. For amendments to this part 2 prior to its repeal in 1982, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table.
itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) Prior to the repeal of this part 2 in 1982, the Colorado commission on women was terminated on July 1, 1980, pursuant to the sunset law, § 24-34-104.

PART 3

COLORADO CIVIL RIGHTS
DIVISION - COMMISSION - PROCEDURES

Editor's note: (1) This part 3 was numbered as article 21 of chapter 80, C.R.S. 1963. Parts 3 to 8 of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 3 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) The former provisions of this part 3 were relocated to part 4 of this article in 1979.

24-34-301. Definitions. As used in parts 3 to 8 of this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Age" means a chronological age of at least forty years.
(1.1) "Agency" or "state agency" means any board, bureau, commission, department, institution, division, section, or officer of the state.
(1.5) "Commission" means the Colorado civil rights commission created in section 24-34-303.
(1.6) "Commissioner" means a member of the Colorado civil rights commission.
(2) "Director" means the director of the Colorado civil rights division, which office is created in section 24-34-302.
(2.5) "Disability" has the same meaning as set forth in the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., and its related amendments and implementing regulations.
(3) "Division" means the Colorado civil rights division, created in section 24-34-302.
(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 93, p. 1655, 59, effective July 1, 1993.)
(4.1) "Housing" means a building, structure, vacant land, or part thereof offered for sale, lease, rent, or transfer of ownership; except that "housing" does not include any room offered for rent or lease in a single-family dwelling maintained and occupied in part by the owner or lessee of said dwelling as his or her household.
(4.2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property or portion thereof that is used or occupied, or intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more persons but does not include any single family residence, the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room in that residence.

(4.5) "Marital status" means a relationship or a spousal status of an individual, including but not limited to being single, cohabitating, engaged, widowed, married, in a civil union, or legally separated, or a relationship or a spousal status of an individual who has had or is in the process of having a marriage or civil union dissolved or declared invalid.

(5) (a) "Person" means one or more individuals, limited liability companies, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, receivers, or the state of Colorado and all of its political subdivisions and agencies.

(b) For the purposes of part 5 of this article, "person" does not include any private club not open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, unless such club has the purpose of promoting discrimination in the matter of housing against any person because of disability, race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, national origin, or ancestry.

(5.3) "Place of public accommodation" or "public accommodation" has the same meaning as set forth in Title III of the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12181 (7), and its related amendments and implementing regulations.

(5.4) "Public entity" has the same meaning as set forth in Title II of the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12131, and its related amendments and implementing regulations.

(5.5) "Public transportation service" means a common carrier of passengers or any other means of public conveyance or modes of transportation, including but not limited to airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motor buses, streetcars, boats, or taxis.

(5.6) "Qualified individual with a disability" or "individual with a disability" has the same meaning as set forth in the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12131, and its related amendments and implementing regulations.

(6) "Respondent" means any person, agency, organization, or other entity against whom a charge is filed pursuant to any of the provisions of parts 3 to 8 of this article.

(6.5) "Service animal" has the same meaning as set forth in the implementing regulations of Title II and Title III of the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq.

(7) "Sexual orientation" means an individual's orientation toward heterosexuality, homosexuality, bisexuality, or transgender status or another individual's perception thereof.

(8) "Trainer of a service animal" means a person who individually trains a service animal.
24-34-302. Civil rights division - director - powers and duties. (1) There is hereby created within the department of regulatory agencies a division of state government to be known and designated as the Colorado civil rights division, the head of which shall be the director of the Colorado civil rights division. The director shall be appointed by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, and the executive director shall give good faith consideration to the recommendations of the commission prior to making the appointment.

(2) The director shall appoint such investigators and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the functions and duties of the division. The director and the staff of the division shall receive, investigate, and make determinations on charges alleging unfair or discriminatory practices in violation of parts 4 to 7 of this article.

24-34-303. Civil rights commission - membership. (1) There is hereby created, within the division, the Colorado civil rights commission. The commission shall consist of seven members, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, for terms of four years. The governor shall make appointments in such a manner that there are at all times two members of the commission representing the business community, at least one of whom shall be a representative of small business, two members of the commission representing state or local government entities, and three members of the commission from the community at large. The membership of the commission shall at all times be comprised of at least four members who are members of groups of people who have been or who might be discriminated against because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, marital status, religion, or age. Appointments shall be made to provide geographical area representation insofar as may be practicable, and no more than four members shall belong to the same political party.

(2) Vacancies on the commission shall be filled by the governor by appointment, with the consent of the senate, and the term of a commissioner so appointed shall be for the unexpired part of the term for which the commissioner is appointed.

(3) Any commissioner may be removed from office by the governor for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(4) Commissioners shall receive a per diem allowance and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred by them while on official commission business, as provided in section 24-34-102 (13).

(5) The commission may adopt, amend, or rescind rules for governing its meetings. Four commissioners shall constitute a quorum for purposes of conducting the business of the commission.
24-34-304. Division and commission subject to termination - repeal of part. (1) The provisions of section 24-34-104, concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the division and the commission created by this part 3.

(2) This part 3 is repealed, effective July 1, 2018. Prior to such repeal, the functions of the division and commission shall be reviewed as provided for in section 24-34-104.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2008 act amending this section, see section 1 of chapter 341, Session Laws of Colorado 2008.

24-34-305. Powers and duties of commission. (1) The commission has the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt, publish, amend, and rescind rules, in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-103, that are consistent with and for the implementation of parts 3 to 7 of this article. All rules adopted or amended are subject to sections 24-4-103 (8)(c) and (8)(d) and 24-34-104 (6)(b).

(b) Repealed.

(c) (I) To investigate and study the existence, character, causes, and extent of unfair or discriminatory practices as defined in parts 4 to 7 of this article and to formulate plans for the elimination of those practices by educational or other means.

(II) (A) In furtherance of its educational efforts to reduce instances of discriminatory or unfair employment practices, the commission shall create a volunteer working group representing both employer and employee interests, including human resource professionals, to assist in education and outreach efforts to foster understanding of and compliance with part 4 of this article. The commission may accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations to assist in its duties pursuant to this subparagraph (II).

(B) The commission shall create the volunteer working group by September 1, 2013. The working group shall develop and submit to the commission, by January 1, 2014, an education and outreach plan for the commission to implement for purposes of educating employers and providing outreach regarding part 4 of the article.

(C) In addition to the outreach plan required by sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (II), the working group shall compile and provide to the commission information on educational resources available to employers regarding the requirements of and compliance with part 4 of this article, including resources for employers on prevention of discriminatory employment practices. The commission shall post the information on its website and shall make 24-34-104 (6)(b).
the information available in an electronic format to all state departments and agencies that interact with private businesses in the state, including the departments of labor and employment, regulatory agencies, revenue, and state and the governor's office of economic development. Those departments and agencies, within existing resources, shall post the information provided by the commission, or links to that information, on their websites.

(d) (I) To hold hearings upon any complaint issued against a respondent pursuant to section 24-34-306; to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance; to administer oaths and take the testimony of any person under oath; and to compel such respondent to produce for examination any books and papers relating to any matter involved in such complaint. Such hearings may be held by the commission itself, or by any commissioner, or by any administrative law judge appointed by the commission pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of this title, subject to appropriations for such administrative law judges made to the department of personnel; except that, if no administrative law judge is made available within the time limitations set forth in section 24-34-306 (11), the governor shall appoint an administrative law judge at the request of the commission, and such administrative law judge shall be paid out of moneys appropriated to the division. If a witness either fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the commission, the commission may petition the district court having jurisdiction for issuance of a subpoena in the premises, and the court shall in a proper case issue its subpoena. Refusal to obey such subpoena shall be punishable as contempt.

(II) No person may be excused from attending and testifying or from producing records, correspondence, documents, or other evidence in obedience to a subpoena in any such matter on the ground that the evidence or the testimony required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to any penalty or forfeiture. However, no testimony or other information compelled under order from the commission, or other information directly or indirectly derived from such testimony or other information, may be used against the witness in any criminal case, except a prosecution and punishment for perjury or false statement committed in so testifying.

(e) To issue such publications and reports of investigations and research as in its judgment will tend to promote goodwill among the various racial, religious, age, and ethnic groups of the state and which will tend to minimize or eliminate discriminatory or unfair practices as specified by parts 3 to 7 of this article. Publications of the commission circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136.

(f) To prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to the provisions of section 24-1-136, a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the commission;

(g) To recommend policies to the governor and to submit recommendations to persons, agencies, organizations, and other entities in the private sector to effectuate such policies;

(h) To make recommendations to the general assembly for such further legislation concerning discrimination as it may deem necessary and desirable;

(i) To cooperate, within the limits of any appropriations made for its operation, with other agencies or organizations, both public and private, whose purposes are consistent with those of parts 3 to 7 of this article, in the planning and conducting of educational programs designed to eliminate racial, religious, cultural, age, and intergroup tensions;
(i.5) To intervene in racial, religious, cultural, age, and intergroup tensions or conflicts for the purpose of informal mediation using alternative dispute resolution techniques. Such intervention may be made in cooperation with other agencies or organizations, both public and private, whose purposes are consistent with those of parts 3 to 7 of this article.

(j) To adopt an official seal.

(2) Any provision of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, no person shall be required to alter, modify, or purchase any building, structure, or equipment or incur any additional expense which would not otherwise be incurred in order to comply with parts 3, 4, 6, and 7 of this article.

(3) In exercising the powers and performing the duties and functions under parts 3 to 7 of this article, the commission, the division, and the director shall presume that the conduct of any respondent is not unfair or discriminatory until proven otherwise.

(4) Whether by rule, regulation, or other action or whether as a remedy for violation of any provision of parts 3 to 7 of this article or otherwise, the commission shall not prescribe or require the implementation of a quota system.

24-34-306. Charge - complaint - hearing - procedure - exhaustion of administrative remedies. (1) (a) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a discriminatory or unfair practice as defined by parts 4 to 7 of this article may, by himself or herself or through his or her attorney-at-law, make, sign, and file with the division a verified written charge stating the name and address of the respondent alleged to have committed the discriminatory or unfair practice, setting forth the particulars of the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice, and containing any other information required by the division.

(b) The commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general on its own motion may make, sign, and file a charge alleging a discriminatory or unfair practice in cases where the commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general determines that the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice imposes a significant societal or community impact. The charge shall be filed in the same manner and shall contain the same information as required for a charge filed by an individual pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). When the commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general files a charge pursuant to this paragraph (b), the remedy available for the discriminatory or unfair practice shall be limited to equitable relief to eliminate the discriminatory or unfair practice.

(c) Prior to any other action by the division regarding the charge, the division shall notify the respondent of the charges filed against him or her.

(2) (a) After the filing of a charge alleging a discriminatory or unfair practice as defined by parts 4 to 7 of this article, the director, with the assistance of the division's staff, shall make a prompt investigation of the charge. The director may subpoena witnesses and compel the testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and records if the testimony, books, papers, and records sought are limited to matters directly related to the charge. Any subpoena issued pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall be enforceable in the district court for the district in which the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred and shall be issued only if the person or entity to be subpoenaed has refused or failed, after a proper request from the director, to provide voluntarily to the director the information sought by the subpoena.

(b) The director or the director's designee, who shall be an employee of the division, shall determine as promptly as possible whether probable cause exists for crediting the allegations of the charge, and shall follow one of the following courses of action:

(I) If the director or the director's designee determines that probable cause does not exist, he or she shall dismiss the charge and shall notify the person filing the charge and the respondent of the dismissal. In addition, in the notice, the director or the director's designee shall advise both parties:

(A) That the charging party has the right to file an appeal of the dismissal with the commission within ten days after the date the notification of dismissal is mailed;

(B) That, if the charging party wishes to file a civil action in a district court in this state based on the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice that was the subject of the charge filed with the commission, he or she must do so: Within ninety days after the date the notice specified in this subparagraph (I) is mailed if he or she does not file an appeal with the commission pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I); or within ninety days after the date the notice that the commission has dismissed the appeal specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) is mailed;

(C) That, if the charging party does not file an action within the time limits specified in sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (I), the action will be barred, and no district court shall have jurisdiction to hear the action.

(II) If the director or the director's designee determines that probable cause exists, the director or the director's designee shall serve the respondent with written notice stating with specificity the legal authority and jurisdiction of the commission and the matters of fact and law asserted. In addition, the director or the director's designee shall order the charging party and the respondent to participate in compulsory mediation. Immediately after the director or the director's designee serves notice on the respondent, the director or the director's designee shall endeavor to eliminate the discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion and by means of the compulsory mediation required by this subparagraph (II).

connection with the conduct of the investigation, in connection with the filing of a petition seeking appropriate injunctive relief against the respondent under section 24-34-507, or at a public hearing or unless the complainant and the respondent agree to such disclosure. Nothing in this subsection (3) shall be construed to prevent the commission from disclosing its final action on a charge, including the reasons for dismissing such charge, the terms of a conciliation agreement, or the contents of an order issued after hearing.

(4) When the director is satisfied that further efforts to settle the matter by conference, conciliation, and persuasion will be futile, he shall so report to the commission. If the commission determines that the circumstances warrant, it shall issue and cause to be served, in the manner provided by section 24-4-105 (2), a written notice and complaint requiring the respondent to answer the charges at a formal hearing before the commission, a commissioner, or an administrative law judge. Such hearing shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days after the service of such written notice and complaint. Such notice and complaint shall state the time, place, and nature of the hearing, the legal authority and jurisdiction under which it is to be held, and the matters of fact and law asserted.

(5) In accordance with rules adopted by the commission, discovery procedures may be used by the commission and the parties under the same circumstances and in the same manner as is provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure after the notice of hearing under subsection (4) of this section has been given.

(6) The respondent may file a written answer prior to the date of the hearing. When a respondent has failed to answer at a hearing, the commission, a commissioner, or the administrative law judge, as the case may be, may enter his default. For good cause shown, the entry of default may be set aside within ten days after the date of such entry. If the respondent is in default, testimony may be heard on behalf of the complainant. After hearing such testimony, the commission, a commissioner, or the administrative law judge, as the case may be, may enter such order as the evidence warrants.

(7) The commission or the complainant shall have the power to reasonably and fairly amend any complaint, and the respondent shall have like power to amend his answer.

(8) The hearing shall be conducted and decisions rendered in accordance with section 24-4-105; except that the decision shall also include a statement of the reasons why the findings of fact lead to the conclusions. The case in support of the complaint shall be presented at the hearing by one of the commission's attorneys or agents, but no one presenting the case in support of the complaint shall counsel or advise the commission, commissioner, or administrative law judge who hears the case. The director and the staff shall not participate in the hearing except as a witness, nor shall they participate in the deliberations of, or counsel or advise, the commission, commissioner, or administrative law judge in such case. At any such hearing, the person presenting the case in support of the complaint shall have the burden of showing that the respondent has engaged or is engaging in an unfair or discriminatory practice, and the respondent's conduct shall be presumed not to be unfair or discriminatory until proven otherwise.

(9) If, upon all the evidence at a hearing, there is a statement of findings and conclusions in accordance with section 24-4-105, together with a statement of reasons for such conclusions, showing that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any discriminatory or unfair practice as defined in parts 4 to 7 of this article, the commission shall issue and cause to be served upon the respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such discriminatory or unfair practice and to take such action as it may order in accordance with the provisions of parts 4 to 7 of this article.

(10) If, upon all of the evidence at a hearing, there is a statement of findings and conclusions in accordance with section 24-4-105, together with a statement of reasons for such conclusions, showing that a respondent has not engaged in any such discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall issue and cause to be served an order dismissing the complaint on the person alleging such discriminatory or unfair practice.

(11) If written notice that a formal hearing will be held is not served within two hundred seventy days after the filing of the charge, if the complainant has requested and received a notice of right to sue pursuant to subsection (15) of this section, or if the hearing is not commenced within the one-hundred-twenty-day period prescribed by subsection (4) of this section, the jurisdiction of the commission over the complaint shall cease, and the complainant may seek the relief authorized under this part 3 and parts 4 to 7 of this article against the respondent by filing a civil action in the district court for the district in which the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred. Such action must be filed within ninety days of the date upon which the jurisdiction of the commission ceased, and if not so filed, it shall be barred and the district court shall have no jurisdiction to hear such action. If any party requests the extension of any time period prescribed by this subsection (11), such extension may be granted for good cause by the commission, a commissioner, or the administrative law judge, as the case may be, but the total period of all such extensions to either the respondent or the complainant shall not exceed ninety days each, and, in the case of multiple parties, the total period of all extensions shall not exceed one hundred eighty days.

(12) The division shall maintain a central file of decisions rendered under parts 3 to 7 of this article, and such file shall be open to the public for inspection during regular business hours.

(13) Any member of the commission and any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or a report or in any investigative or administrative proceeding authorized by parts 3 to 7 of this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him for acts occurring while acting in his capacity as a commission member or participant, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him was warranted by the facts.

(14) No person may file a civil action in a district court in this state based on an alleged discriminatory or unfair practice prohibited by parts 4 to 7 of this article without first exhausting the proceedings and remedies available to him under this part 3 unless he shows, in an action filed in the appropriate district court, by clear and convincing evidence, his ill health which is of such a nature that pursuing administrative remedies would not provide timely and reasonable relief and would cause irreparable harm.

(15) The charging party in any action may request the division to issue a written notice of right to sue at any time prior to service of a notice and complaint pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. The charging party shall make the request for notice of right to sue in writing. The division shall promptly grant a claimant's request for notice of right to sue made after the expiration of one hundred eighty days following the filing of the charge. If a claimant makes a request for a notice of right to sue prior to the expiration of one hundred eighty days following the filing of the charge, the division shall grant the request upon a determination that the investigation of the charge will not be completed within one hundred eighty days following the filing of the charge.
filing of the charge. A notice of right to sue shall constitute final agency action and exhaustion of administrative remedies and proceedings pursuant to this part 3.

24-34-307. Judicial review and enforcement. (1) Any complainant or respondent claiming to be aggrieved by a final order of the commission, including a refusal to issue an order, may obtain judicial review thereof, and the commission may obtain an order of court for its enforcement in a proceeding as provided in this section.

(2) Such proceeding shall be brought in the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11).

(3) Such proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in the court of appeals and the service of a copy thereof upon the commission and upon all parties who appeared before the commission, and thereafter such proceeding shall be processed under the Colorado appellate rules. The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and the questions determined therein and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified or setting aside the order of the commission in whole or in part.

(4) An objection that has not been urged before the commission shall not be considered by the court, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances.

(5) Any party may move the court to remit the case to the commission in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereof, if such party shows reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence before the commission.

(6) The findings of the commission as to the facts shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence.

(7) The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and order shall be final, subject to review as provided by law and the Colorado appellate rules.

(8) The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available to all parties for examination at all reasonable times, without cost, and for the purpose of judicial review of the commission's orders.

(9) The commission may appear in court by its own attorney.

(9.5) Upon application by a person alleging a discriminatory housing practice under section 24-34-502 or a person against whom such a practice is alleged, the court may appoint an attorney for such person or may authorize the commencement or continuation of a civil action without the payment of fees, costs, or security, if in the opinion of the court such person is financially unable to bear the costs of such action.
(10) The commission or court upon motion may grant a stay of the commission order pending appeal.

(11) Appeals filed under this section shall be heard expeditiously and determined upon the transcript filed, without requirement for printing. Hearings in the court of appeals under this part 3 shall take precedence over all other matters, except matters of the same character.

(12) If no proceeding to obtain judicial review is instituted by a complainant or respondent within forty-nine days from the service of an order of the commission pursuant to section 24-34-306, the commission may obtain a decree of the district court for the enforcement of such order upon showing that such respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and resides or transacts business within the county in which the petition for enforcement is brought.

24-34-308. Enforcement of federal law prohibited. Nothing in parts 3 to 8 of this article shall be construed to authorize the commission, the director, or the division to enforce any provision of federal law. Nothing in this section shall prevent the commission from accepting federal grants for the enforcement of parts 3 to 7.

(1) The division is authorized to educate the public about the definitions of assistance and service animals, as those terms are defined in sections 18-13-107.3 and 18-13-107.7, C.R.S., and the rights that accompany people with disabilities who use those animals. The division may:

(a) Use its website to include information on how a person with a disability can complain about discrimination encountered in places of public accommodation and housing;

(b) Create and publicize public service announcements about the definitions of assistance and service animals and links to the division's website;

(c) Create and publicize uniform signage for all places of public accommodation to display to inform the public of the rules surrounding service and assistance animals;

(d) Create and publicize one or more forms that landlords, qualified individuals with a disability, and health care providers may use in making a determination contemplated by section 12-36-142, 12-38-132.5, or 12-43-226.5, C.R.S.; and

(e) Establish an education program for law enforcement officers in Colorado about service and assistance animals and how to provide effective communication to people with disabilities when making inquiries under applicable law.

(2) If a landlord requires a tenant to provide documentation in connection with the tenant's assistance animal, as that term is defined in section 18-13-107.3, C.R.S., the landlord shall provide the tenant with the form specified in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section if the division has posted the form on its website. The tenant need not use the form.

Editor's note: Section 7(2) of chapter 309 (HB 16-1426), Session Laws of Colorado 2016, provides that the act adding this section applies to conduct occurring on or after January 1, 2017.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Editor's note: (1) This part 4 was numbered as article 7 of chapter 69, C.R.S. 1963. Parts 3 to 8 of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 4 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) The former provisions of this part 4 were relocated to part 5 of this article in 1979.

24-34-401. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless otherwise defined in section 24-34-301 or unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Apprenticeship" means any program for the training of apprentices.

(2) "Employee" means any person employed by an employer, except a person in the domestic service of any person.

(3) "Employer" means the state of Colorado or any political subdivision, commission, department, institution, or school district thereof, and every other person employing persons within the state; but it does not mean religious organizations or associations, except such organizations or associations supported in whole or in part by money raised by taxation or public borrowing.

(4) "Employment agency" means any person undertaking to procure employees or opportunities to work for any other person or holding itself out to be equipped to do so.

(5) "Joint apprenticeship committee" means any association of representatives of a labor organization and an employer providing, coordinating, or controlling an apprentice training program.

(6) "Labor organization" means any organization which exists for the purpose in whole or in part of collective bargaining, or of dealing with employers concerning grievances, terms, or conditions of employment, or of other mutual aid or protection in connection with employment.

(7) "On-the-job training" means any program designed to instruct a person who, while learning the particular job for which he is receiving instruction, is also employed at that job or who may be employed by the employer conducting the program during the course of the program or when the program is completed.

(7.5) Repealed.

(8) "Unfair employment practice" means those practices specified as discriminatory or unfair in sections 24-34-402 and 24-34-402.3.

(9) "Vocational school" means any school or institution conducting a course of instruction, training, or retraining to prepare individuals to follow an occupation or trade or to pursue a manual, mechanical, technical, industrial, business, commercial, office, personal service, or other nonprofessional occupation.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1438, see section 1 of chapter 207, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-34-402. Discriminatory or unfair employment practices. (1) It shall be a discriminatory or unfair employment practice:

(a) For an employer to refuse to hire, to discharge, to promote or demote, to harass during the course of employment, or to discriminate in matters of compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment against any person otherwise qualified because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry; but, with regard to a disability, it is not a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice for an employer to act as provided in this paragraph (a) if there is no reasonable accommodation that the employer can make with regard to the disability, the disability actually disqualifies the person from the job, and the disability has a significant impact on the job. For purposes of this paragraph (a), "harass" means to create a hostile work environment based upon an individual's race, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (a), harassment is not an illegal act unless a complaint is filed with the appropriate authority at the complainant's workplace and such authority fails to initiate a reasonable investigation of a complaint and take prompt remedial action if appropriate.

(b) For an employment agency to refuse to list and properly classify for employment or to refer an individual for employment in a known available job for which such individual is otherwise qualified because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry or for an employment agency to comply with a request from an employer for referral of applicants for employment if the request indicates either directly or indirectly that the employer discriminates in employment on account of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry; but, with regard to a disability, it is not a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice for an employment agency to refuse to list and properly classify for employment or to refuse to refer an individual for employment in a known available job for which such individual is otherwise qualified if there is no reasonable accommodation that the employer can make with regard to the disability, the disability actually disqualifies the applicant from the job, and the disability has a significant impact on the job;

(c) For a labor organization to exclude any individual otherwise qualified from full membership rights in such labor organization, or to expel any such individual from membership in such labor organization, or to otherwise discriminate against any of its members in the full enjoyment of work opportunity because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry;

(d) For any employer, employment agency, or labor organization to print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment or membership, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment or membership that expresses, either directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry or intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification or required by and given to an agency of government for security reasons;

(e) For any person, whether or not an employer, an employment agency, a labor organization, or the employees or members thereof:

(I) To aid, abet, incite, compel, or coerce the doing of any act defined in this section to be a discriminatory or unfair employment practice;

(II) To obstruct or prevent any person from complying with the provisions of this part 4 or any order issued with respect thereto;

(III) To attempt, either directly or indirectly, to commit any act defined in this section to be a discriminatory or unfair employment practice;

(IV) To discriminate against any person because such person has opposed any practice made a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice by this part 4, because he has filed a charge with the commission, or because he has testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted pursuant to parts 3 and 4 of this article;

(f) For any employer, labor organization, joint apprenticeship committee, or vocational school providing, coordinating, or controlling apprenticeship programs or providing, coordinating, or controlling on-the-job training programs or other instruction, training, or retraining programs:

(I) To deny to or withhold from any qualified person because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry the right to be admitted to or participate in an apprenticeship training program, an on-the-job training program, or any other occupational instruction, training, or retraining program; but, with regard to a disability, it is not a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice to deny or withhold the right to be admitted to or participate in any such program if there is no reasonable accommodation that can be made with regard to the disability, the disability actually disqualifies the applicant from the program, and the disability has a significant impact on participation in the program;

(II) To discriminate against any qualified person in pursuit of such programs or to discriminate against such a person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of such programs because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry;

(III) To print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for such programs, or to make any inquiry in connection with such programs that expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, or ancestry or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based on a bona fide occupational qualification;

(g) For any private employer to refuse to hire, or to discriminate against, any person, whether directly or indirectly, who is otherwise qualified for employment solely because the person did not apply for employment through a private employment agency; but an employer shall not be deemed to have violated the provisions of this section if such employer retains one or more employment agencies as exclusive suppliers of personnel and no employment fees are charged to an employee who is hired as a result of having to utilize the services of any such employment agency;

(h) (I) For any employer to discharge an employee or to refuse to hire a person solely on the basis that such employee or person is married to or plans to marry another employee of the employer; but this subparagraph (I) shall not apply to employers with twenty-five or fewer employees.

(II) It shall not be unfair or discriminatory for an employer to discharge an employee or to refuse to hire a person for the reasons stated in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h) under circumstances where:

(A) One spouse directly or indirectly would exercise supervisory, appointment, or dismissal authority or disciplinary action over the other spouse;

(B) One spouse would audit, verify, receive, or be entrusted with moneys received or handled by the other spouse; or

(C) One spouse has access to the employer's confidential information, including payroll and personnel records.
(i) Unless otherwise permitted by federal law, for an employer to discharge, discipline, discriminate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any employee or other person because the employee inquired about, disclosed, compared, or otherwise discussed the employee's wages; to require as a condition of employment nondisclosure by an employee of his or her wages; or to require an employee to sign a waiver or other document that purports to deny an employee the right to disclose his or her wage information.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, it is not a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice for the division of unemployment insurance in the department of labor and employment to ascertain and record the disability, sex, age, race, creed, color, or national origin of any individual for the purpose of making reports as may be required by law to agencies of the federal or state government only. The division may make and keep the records in the manner required by the federal or state law, but neither the division nor the department of labor and employment shall divulge the information to prospective employers as a basis for employment, except as provided in this subsection (2).

(3) Nothing in this section shall prohibit any employer from making individualized agreements with respect to compensation or the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment for persons suffering a disability if such individualized agreement is part of a therapeutic or job-training program of no more than twenty hours per week and lasting no more than eighteen months.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, it shall not be a discriminatory or an unfair employment practice with respect to age:

(a) To take any action otherwise prohibited by this section if age is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of the particular employer or where the differentiation is based on reasonable factors other than age; or

(b) To observe the terms of a bona fide seniority system or any bona fide employee benefit plan, such as a retirement, pension, or insurance plan, which is not a subterfuge to evade the purposes of this section; except that, unless authorized in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), no such employee benefit plan shall require or permit the involuntary retirement of any individual because of the age of such individual; or

(c) To compel the retirement of any employee who is sixty-five years of age or older and under seventy years of age and who, for the two-year period immediately before retirement, is employed in a bona fide executive or a high policy-making position if such employee is entitled to an immediate nonforfeitable annual retirement benefit from a pension, profit-sharing, savings, or deferred compensation plan, or any combination of such plans, of the employer of such employee and if such plan equals, in the aggregate, at least forty-four thousand dollars; or

(d) To discharge or otherwise discipline an individual for reasons other than age.

(5) Nothing in this section shall preclude an employer from requiring compliance with a reasonable dress code as long as the dress code is applied consistently.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this section shall not apply to a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities.

(7) For purposes of this section, "employer" shall not include any religious organization or association, except for any religious organization or association that is supported in whole or in part by money raised by taxation or public borrowing.

Editor's note: The effective date for amendments to this section by House Bill 12-1120 (chapter 27, Session Laws of Colorado 2012) was changed from August 8, 2012, to June 1, 2012, by House Bill 12S-1002 (First Extraordinary Session, chapter 2, p. 2432, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.)

24-34-402.3. Prohibition of discrimination - pregnancy, childbirth, and related conditions - reasonable accommodations required - notice of rights - definitions. (1) (a) An employer shall:

(I) Provide reasonable accommodations to perform the essential functions of the job to an applicant for employment or an employee for health conditions related to pregnancy or the physical recovery from childbirth, if the applicant or employee requests the reasonable accommodations, unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the employer's business;

(II) Not take adverse action against an employee who requests or uses a reasonable accommodation related to pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition;

(III) Not deny employment opportunities to an applicant or employee based on the need to make a reasonable accommodation related to the applicant's or employee's pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition;

(IV) Not require an applicant or employee affected by pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition to accept an accommodation that the applicant or employee has not requested or an accommodation that is unnecessary for the applicant or employee to perform the essential functions of the job; and

(V) Not require an employee to take leave if the employer can provide another reasonable accommodation for the employee's pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or related condition.

(b) An employer may require an employee or applicant to provide a note stating the necessity of a reasonable accommodation from a licensed health care provider before providing a reasonable accommodation.

(2) If an applicant or an employee requests an accommodation, the employer and applicant or employee shall engage in a timely, good-faith, and interactive process to determine effective, reasonable accommodations for the applicant or employee for conditions related to pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition.

(3) (a) The employer shall provide written notice of the right to be free from discriminatory or unfair employment practices pursuant to this section to:

(I) New employees at the start of employment; and
(II) Existing employees within one hundred twenty days after August 10, 2016.

(b) The employer shall post the required notice in a conspicuous place in the employer's place of business in an area accessible to employees.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) "Adverse action" means an action where a reasonable employee would have found the action materially adverse, such that it might have dissuaded a reasonable worker from making or supporting a charge of discrimination.

(b) "Reasonable accommodations" may include, but is not limited to, the provision of more frequent or longer break periods; more frequent restroom, food, and water breaks; acquisition or modification of equipment or seating; limitations on lifting; temporary transfer to a less strenuous or hazardous position if available, with return to the current position after pregnancy; job restructuring; light duty, if available; assistance with manual labor; or modified work schedules as long as the employer is not required to do any of the following:

(I) Hire new employees that the employer would not otherwise have hired;

(II) Discharge an employee, transfer another employee with more seniority, or promote another employee who is not qualified to perform the new job;

(III) Create a new position, including a light duty position for the employee, unless a light duty position would be provided for another equivalent employee; or

(IV) Provide the employee paid leave beyond that which is provided to similarly situated employees.

(c) (I) "Undue hardship", in connection with a requested accommodation, means an action requiring significant difficulty or expense to the employer. In determining undue hardship, the following factors may be considered:

(A) The nature and cost of the accommodation;

(B) The overall financial resources of the employer;

(C) The overall size of the employer's business with respect to the number of employees and the number, type, and location of the available facilities; and

(D) The accommodation's effect on expenses and resources or its effect upon the operations of the employer.

(II) The employer's provision of, or a requirement that the employer provide, a similar accommodation to other classes of employees creates a rebuttable presumption that the accommodation does not impose an undue hardship.

(5) It is a discriminatory or unfair employment practice for an employer to violate this section; except that a violation of subsection (3) of this section is not a discriminatory or unfair employment practice.

(6) (a) This section does not preempt or limit any other provision of law relating to sex discrimination or to pregnancy, physical recovery from childbirth, or a related condition.

(b) This section neither increases nor decreases an employee's rights, under any other law, to paid or unpaid leave in connection with the employee's pregnancy.

(7) Notwithstanding section 24-34-405, a court shall not award punitive damages in a civil action involving a claim of failure to make a reasonable accommodation for an employee for conditions related to pregnancy or the physical recovery from childbirth if the defendant demonstrates good-faith efforts to identify and make a reasonable accommodation that would provide an employee who has a health condition related to pregnancy or the physical recovery from childbirth with an equally effective opportunity and would not cause an undue hardship on the operation of the defendant's business.

24-34-402.5. Unlawful prohibition of legal activities as a condition of employment.
(1) It shall be a discriminatory or unfair employment practice for an employer to terminate the employment of any employee due to that employee's engaging in any lawful activity off the premises of the employer during nonworking hours unless such a restriction:
(a) Relates to a bona fide occupational requirement or is reasonably and rationally related to the employment activities and responsibilities of a particular employee or a particular group of employees, rather than to all employees of the employer; or
(b) Is necessary to avoid a conflict of interest with any responsibilities to the employer or the appearance of such a conflict of interest.
(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the sole remedy for any person claiming to be aggrieved by a discriminatory or unfair employment practice as defined in this section shall be as follows: He or she may bring a civil action for damages in any district court of competent jurisdiction and may sue for all wages and benefits that would have been due him or her up to and including the date of the judgment had the discriminatory or unfair employment practice not occurred; except that nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the person from the obligation to mitigate his or her damages.
(b) (I) If the prevailing party in the civil action is the plaintiff, the court shall award the plaintiff court costs and a reasonable attorney fee.
(II) This paragraph (b) shall not apply to an employee of a business that has or had fifteen or fewer employees during each of twenty or more calendar work weeks in the current or preceding calendar year.

24-34-402.7. Unlawful action against employees seeking protection. (1) (a) Employers shall permit an employee to request or take up to three working days of leave from work in any twelve-month period, with or without pay, if the employee is the victim of domestic abuse, as that term is defined in section 13-14-101 (2), C.R.S., the victim of stalking, as that crime is described in section 18-3-602, C.R.S., the victim of sexual assault, as that crime is defined in section 18-3-402, C.R.S., or the victim of any other crime, the underlying factual basis of which has been found by a court on the record to include an act of domestic violence, as that term is defined in section 18-6-800.3 (1), C.R.S. This section shall only apply if the employee is using the leave from work to protect himself or herself by:
(I) Seeking a civil protection order to prevent domestic abuse pursuant to section 13-14-104.5, 13-14-106, or 13-14-108, C.R.S.;
(II) Obtaining medical care or mental health counseling or both for himself or herself or for his or her children to address physical or psychological injuries resulting from the act of domestic abuse, stalking, or sexual assault or other crime involving domestic violence;

(III) Making his or her home secure from the perpetrator of the act of domestic abuse, stalking, or sexual assault or other crime involving domestic violence or seeking new housing to escape said perpetrator;

(IV) Seeking legal assistance to address issues arising from the act of domestic abuse, stalking, or sexual assault or other crime involving domestic violence and attending and preparing for court-related proceedings arising from said act or crime.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall only apply to employers who employ fifty or more employees and to employees who have been employed with the employer for twelve months or more.

(2) (a) Except in cases of imminent danger to the health or safety of the employee, an employee seeking leave from work pursuant to this section shall provide his or her employer with the appropriate advance notice of such leave as may be required by the employer's policy and such documentation as may be required by the employer.

(b) An employee seeking leave pursuant to this section, prior to receiving such leave, shall exhaust any and all annual or vacation leave, personal leave, and sick leave, if applicable, that may be available to the employee, unless the employer waives this requirement.

(c) All information related to the employee's leave pursuant to this section shall be kept confidential by the employer.

(3) (a) It shall be unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of or any attempt to exercise any rights provided under this section.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any employer to discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any individual for exercising his or her rights under this section.

(c) An employee shall have no greater rights to continued employment or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the employee was not entitled to leave under this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the employer's right to discipline or terminate any employee for any reason, including but not limited to reductions in work force or termination for cause or for no reason at all, other than exercising his or her rights under this section.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article to the contrary, the sole remedy for any person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section shall be to bring a civil suit for damages or equitable relief or both in any district court of competent jurisdiction. Such person may claim as damages all wages and benefits that would have been due the person up to and including the date of the judgment had the act violating this section not occurred; except that nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve such person from the obligation to mitigate his or her damages.

24-34-403. Time limits on filing of charges. Any charge alleging a violation of this part 4 shall be filed with the commission pursuant to section 24-34-306 within six months after the alleged discriminatory or unfair employment practice occurred, and if not so filed, it shall be barred.

24-34-404. Charges by employers and others. Any employer, labor organization, joint apprenticeship committee, or vocational school whose employees or members, or some of them, refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this part 4 may file with the commission a verified written charge in duplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action.

24-34-405. Relief authorized - short title. (1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Job Protection and Civil Rights Enforcement Act of 2013".

(2) (a) In addition to the relief authorized by section 24-34-306 (9), the commission or the court may order affirmative relief that the commission or court determines to be appropriate, including the following relief, against a respondent who is found to have engaged in an unfair or discriminatory employment practice:

(I) Reinstatement or hiring of employees, with or without back pay. If the commission or court orders back pay, the employer, employment agency, or labor organization responsible for the discriminatory or unfair employment practice shall pay the back pay to the person who was the victim of the practice.

(II) Front pay; or

(III) Any other equitable relief the commission or court deems appropriate.

(b) If the commission or court orders back pay, the liability for back pay accrues from a date not more than two years prior to the filing of a charge with the division. The commission or court shall reduce an award of back pay by any amount of actual earnings of, or amounts that could have been earned with reasonable diligence by, the person who was the victim of the discriminatory or unfair employment practice.

(3) (a) In addition to the relief available pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and except as provided in paragraph (g) of this subsection (3), in a civil action brought by a plaintiff under this part 4 against a defendant who is found to have engaged in an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice, the plaintiff may recover compensatory and punitive damages as specified in this subsection (3). The court shall not award a plaintiff compensatory or punitive damages when the defendant is found to have engaged in an employment practice that is unlawful solely because of its disparate impact.

(b) (I) Except as limited by the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title, and except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b), a plaintiff may recover punitive damages against a defendant, other than the state or any political subdivision, commission, department, institution, or school district of the state, if the plaintiff demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant engaged in a discriminatory or unfair employment practice with malice or reckless indifference to the rights of the plaintiff. However, if the defendant demonstrates good-faith efforts to comply with this part 4 and to prevent discriminatory and unfair employment practices in the workplace, the court shall not award punitive damages against the defendant.

(II) The court shall not award punitive damages in a civil action involving a claim of failure to make a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability if the defendant demonstrates good-faith efforts to identify and make a reasonable accommodation that would provide the person with a disability an equally effective opportunity and would not cause an undue hardship on the operation of the defendant's business.

(c) A plaintiff may recover compensatory damages against a defendant for other pecuniary losses, emotional pain and suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, and other nonpecuniary losses.

(d) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), the total amount of compensatory and punitive damages awarded pursuant to this subsection (3) shall not exceed the amounts specified in 42 U.S.C. sec. 1981a (b)(3).

(II) For employers who employ fewer than fifteen employees, the total amount of compensatory and punitive damages awarded pursuant to this subsection (3) shall not exceed the following amounts:

(A) If the defendant has one or more employees but fewer than five employees in each of twenty or more calendar weeks in either the current or preceding calendar year, ten thousand dollars; or

(B) If the defendant has five or more employees but fourteen or fewer employees in each of twenty or more calendar weeks in either the current or preceding calendar year, twenty-five thousand dollars.

(III) In determining the appropriate level of damages to award a plaintiff who has been the victim of an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice, the court shall consider the size and assets of the defendant and the egregiousness of the intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice.

(IV) If a plaintiff asserts claims of intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practices under this article and under applicable federal anti-discrimination laws, the plaintiff may recover relief under this section only once for the same injuries, damages, or losses.

(e) Compensatory or punitive damages awarded pursuant to this subsection (3) are in addition to, and do not include, front pay, back pay, interest on back pay, or any other type of relief awarded pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(f) The remedies specified in this subsection (3) apply to causes of action alleging discriminatory or unfair employment practices accruing on or after January 1, 2015.

(g) In a civil action involving a claim of discrimination based on age, the plaintiff is entitled only to the relief authorized in subsection (2) of this section and in 29 U.S.C. sec. 626 (b) and 29 U.S.C. sec. 216 (b) if the court finds that the defendant engaged in a discriminatory or unfair employment practice based on age. If, in addition to alleging discrimination based on age, the plaintiff alleges discrimination based on any other factor specified in section 24-34-402 (1), this paragraph (g) does not preclude a plaintiff from recovering the relief authorized by this section for that discrimination claim.
If a plaintiff in a civil action filed under this part 4 seeks compensatory or punitive damages pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, any party to the civil action may demand a trial by jury.

In any civil action under this part 4, the court may award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing plaintiff. If the court finds that an action or defense brought pursuant to this part 4 was frivolous, groundless, or vexatious as provided in article 17 of title 13, C.R.S., the court may award costs and attorney fees to the defendant in the action.

Nothing in this section precludes a party from asserting any other available statutory or common law claims.

(a) As used in this subsection (8), "aggrieved party" means a person who has filed a complaint alleging an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice, including an applicant for a position in the state personnel system or an employee in the state personnel system.

(b) The commission, a commissioner, an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of this title, or, in cases involving applicants for positions in or employees in the state personnel system, the state personnel board established pursuant to section 14 of article XII of the state constitution shall not award damages to an aggrieved party alleging an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice. An aggrieved party who is seeking damages as authorized in subsection (3) of this section must file a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover those damages; except that punitive damages are not recoverable against the state or any political subdivision, commission, department, institution, or school district of the state.

(c) (I) Upon issuance of an order by the commission pursuant to section 24-34-306 (9) and subsection (2) of this section or of a written decision by the state personnel board pursuant to section 24-50-125.4 in which the commission or state personnel board makes a finding of an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice, an aggrieved party may file a civil action in a district court in this state seeking damages as authorized in subsection (3) of this section.

(II) For complaints filed with the commission, the aggrieved party must file the action for damages within thirty days after the date the commission mails notice of the order issued pursuant to section 24-34-306 (9) and subsection (2) of this section. If the aggrieved party fails to file an action for damages within thirty days after the date the notice of the order is mailed, the action is barred, no district court has jurisdiction to hear the action, and the commission's order becomes final and is subject to judicial review pursuant to section 24-34-307.

(III) (A) For complaints filed with the state personnel board, if an administrative law judge issues the initial written decision on behalf of the state personnel board, the aggrieved party may not file a civil action until after the expiration of the thirty-day period specified in section 24-50-125.4 (4) for filing an appeal. If a party does not file an appeal of the administrative law judge's initial decision with the state personnel board in accordance with section 24-50-125.4 (4), the aggrieved party must file the civil action for compensatory damages within thirty days after the expiration of the appeal period specified in section 24-50-125.4 (4). If a party files an appeal with the state personnel board in accordance with section 24-50-125.4 (4), the aggrieved party must file the civil action for compensatory damages within thirty days after the date the state personnel board transmits the notice of its decision on the appeal in accordance with section 24-50-125.4 (6).

(B) If the aggrieved party fails to file an action for compensatory damages within thirty days after the appeal period expires or the date the state personnel board's notice of decision is transmitted, whichever is applicable pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (III), the action for compensatory damages is barred, no district court has jurisdiction to hear the action, and the state personnel board's decision becomes final and is subject to judicial review pursuant to sections 24-50-125.4 (3) and 24-4-106 (11).

(d) (I) If the aggrieved party initially filed a complaint with the commission, the aggrieved party and the district court shall serve a copy of the civil action complaint on the commission, and upon receipt of the civil action complaint, the commission's order is automatically stayed pending the outcome of the civil action, in which case the commission's decision is not a final order subject to judicial review pursuant to section 24-34-307 until the district court issues a final judgment in the civil action for damages.

(II) If the aggrieved party is an applicant for a position in or an employee in the state personnel system, the aggrieved party and the district court shall serve a copy of the civil action complaint on the state personnel board, and upon receipt of the complaint, the state personnel board's decision is automatically stayed pending the outcome of the civil action, in which case the state personnel board's decision is not a final order subject to judicial review pursuant to sections 24-50-125.4 (3) and 24-4-106 (11) until the district court issues a final judgment in the civil action for compensatory damages.

(e) (I) In a civil action brought pursuant to this subsection (8) for damages after the commission or state personnel board makes a finding of an intentional discriminatory or unfair employment practice, the district court shall consider the issue of whether the aggrieved party is entitled to damages and the amount of damages, if awarded.

(II) The district court may award attorney fees and costs in connection with the action for damages consistent with subsection (5) of this section.

(III) The district court shall expedite the action for damages and set the matter for trial at the earliest practical time.

(f) Upon entering a final judgment in a civil action brought pursuant to this subsection (8), the district court shall serve notice of the judgment on the parties and the commission or state personnel board, as appropriate. Once the commission or state personnel board receives a final judgment from the district court, the commission or state personnel board shall incorporate the district court judgment in its order or decision, which becomes a final order subject to judicial review in accordance with section 24-34-307 or sections 24-50-125.4 (3) and 24-4-106 (11), as applicable.

(g) A claim filed pursuant to this subsection (8) by an aggrieved party against the state for compensatory damages for an intentional unfair or discriminatory employment practice is not subject to the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of this title.
24-34-406. Ruling on unemployment benefits not a bar. No findings, conclusions, or orders made pursuant to the provisions of articles 70 to 82 of title 8, C.R.S., shall be binding upon the commission in the exercise of its powers pursuant to parts 3 and 4 of this article; except that the commission may consider any explicit findings or conclusions on the issue of discrimination. If the decision under parts 3 and 4 of this article is in favor of the complainant, the respondent may present evidence of any unemployment benefits pursuant to articles 70 to 82 of title 8, C.R.S., which were received by the complainant based on the same occurrence. The relief granted to the complainant shall be reduced by the amount of such benefits, as provided in section 8-2-119, C.R.S.

disability, organic brain syndrome, behavioral or mental health disorder, or specific learning disability.

(1.5) "Discriminate" includes both segregate and separate.

(1.6) "Familial status" means one or more individuals, who have not attained eighteen years of age, being domiciled with a parent or another person having legal custody of or parental responsibilities for such individual or individuals or the designee of such parent or other persons having such custody or parental responsibilities with the written permission of such parent or other person. Familial status shall apply to any person who is pregnant or in the process of securing legal custody or parental responsibilities of any individual who has not attained eighteen years of age.

(2) "Housing" means any building, structure, vacant land, or part thereof offered for sale, lease, rent, or transfer of ownership; except that "housing" does not include any room offered for rent or lease in a single-family dwelling maintained and occupied in part by the owner or lessee of said dwelling as his household.

(3) "Person" has the meaning ascribed to such term in section 24-34-301 (5) and includes any owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, employee, or any agent of a person; but, for purposes of this part 5, "person" does not include any private club not open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose unless such club has the purpose of promoting discrimination in the matter of housing against any person because of disability, race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, national origin, or ancestry.

(4) "Restrictive covenant" means any specification limiting the transfer, rental, or lease of any housing because of disability, race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, national origin, or ancestry.

(5) "Transfer", as used in this part 5, shall not apply to transfer of property by will or by gift.

(6) "Unfair housing practices" means those practices specified in section 24-34-502.

24-34-502. Unfair housing practices prohibited. (1) It shall be an unfair housing practice and unlawful and hereby prohibited:
(a) For any person to refuse to show, sell, transfer, rent, or lease, or to refuse to receive and transmit any bona fide offer to buy, sell, rent, or lease, or otherwise make unavailable or deny or withhold from any person such housing because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry; to discriminate against any person because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry in the terms, conditions, or privileges pertaining to any housing or the transfer, sale, rental, or lease thereof or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith; or to cause to be made any written or oral inquiry or record concerning the disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry of a person seeking to purchase, rent, or lease any housing; however, nothing in this paragraph (a) shall be construed to require a dwelling to be made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others;

(b) For any person to whom application is made for financial assistance for the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair, or maintenance of any housing to make or cause to be made any written or oral inquiry concerning the disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry of a person seeking such financial assistance or concerning the disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry of prospective occupants or tenants of such housing, or to discriminate against any person because of the disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, religion, national origin, or ancestry of such person or prospective occupants or tenants in the terms, conditions, or privileges relating to the obtaining or use of any such financial assistance;

(c) (I) For any person to include in any transfer, sale, rental, or lease of housing any restrictive covenants, but shall not include any person who, in good faith and in the usual course of business, delivers any document or copy of a document regarding the transfer, sale, rental, or lease of housing which includes any restrictive covenants which are based upon race or religion, or reference thereto; or

(II) For any person to honor or exercise or attempt to honor or exercise any restrictive covenant pertaining to housing;

(d) For any person to make, print, or publish or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice or advertisement relating to the sale, transfer, rental, or lease of any housing that indicates any preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on disability, race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, national origin, or ancestry;

(e) For any person: To aid, abet, incite, compel, or coerce the doing of any act defined in this section as an unfair housing practice; to obstruct or prevent any person from complying with the provisions of this part 5 or any order issued with respect thereto; to attempt either directly or indirectly to commit any act defined in this section to be an unfair housing practice; to discriminate against any person because such person has opposed any practice made an unfair housing practice by this part 5, because he has filed a charge with the commission, or because he has testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted pursuant to parts 3 and 5 of this article; or to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of his having aided or encouraged, any other person in the exercise of any right granted or protected by parts 3 and 5 of this article;
(f) For any person to discharge, demote, or discriminate in matters of compensation against any employee or agent because of said employee's or agent's obedience to the provisions of this part 5;

(g) For any person whose business includes residential real estate-related transactions, which transactions involve the making or purchasing of loans secured by residential real estate or the provisions of other financial assistance for purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling or the selling, brokering, or appraising of residential real property, to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction or in fixing the terms or conditions of such a transaction because of race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, familial status, or national origin or ancestry;

(h) For any person to deny another person access to or membership or participation in any multiple-listing service, real estate brokers' organization or other service, organization, or facility related to the business of selling or renting dwellings or to discriminate against such person in the terms or conditions of such access, membership, or participation on account of race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, familial status, or national origin or ancestry;

(i) For any person, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, disability, familial status, creed, national origin, or ancestry;

(j) For any person to represent to any other person that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental, when such dwelling is in fact available, for the purpose of discriminating against another person on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, disability, familial status, creed, national origin, or ancestry;

(k) For any person to violate the provisions of section 24-34-502.2.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to or prohibit compliance with local zoning ordinance provisions concerning residential restrictions on marital status.

(3) Nothing contained in this part 5 shall be construed to bar any religious or denominational institution or organization which is operated or supervised or controlled by or is operated in connection with a religious or denominational organization from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, color, or national origin, nor shall anything in this part 5 prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public which, as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent or restrict the sale, lease, rental, transfer, or development of housing designed or intended for the use of persons with disabilities.

(6) Nothing in this part 5 shall prohibit a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property from taking into consideration factors other than race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, familial status, disability, religion, national origin, or ancestry.
(7) (a) Nothing in this section shall limit the applicability of any reasonable local, state, or federal restrictions regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. Nor shall any provision in this section regarding familial status apply with respect to housing for older persons.

(b) As used in this subsection (7), "housing for older persons" means housing provided under any state or federal program that the division determines is specifically designed and operated to assist older persons, or is intended for, and solely occupied by, persons sixty-two years of age or older, or is intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person fifty-five years of age or older per unit. In determining whether housing intended and operated for occupancy by one person fifty-five years of age or older per unit qualifies as housing for older persons under this subsection (7), the division shall require the following:

(I) That the housing facility or community publish and adhere to policies and procedures that demonstrate the intent required under this paragraph (b);

(II) That at least eighty percent of the occupied units be occupied by at least one person who is fifty-five years of age or older; and

(III) That the housing facility or community comply with rules promulgated by the commission for verification of occupancy. Such rules shall:

(A) Provide for verification by reliable surveys and affidavits; and

(B) Include examples of the types of policies and procedures relevant to a determination of such compliance with the requirements of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b). Such surveys and affidavits shall be admissible in administrative and judicial proceedings for the purposes of verification of occupancy in accordance with this section.

(c) Housing shall not fail to meet the requirements for housing for older persons by reason of persons residing in such housing as of March 12, 1989, who do not meet the age requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) if the new occupants of such housing meet the age requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) or, by reason of unoccupied units, if such units are reserved for occupancy by persons who meet the age requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (7).

(d) (I) A person shall not be held personally liable for monetary damages for a violation of this part 5 if such person reasonably relied, in good faith, on the application of the exemption available under this part 5 relating to housing for older persons.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (d), a person may only show good faith reliance on the application of an exemption by showing that:

(A) Such person has no actual knowledge that the facility or community is not or will not be eligible for the exemption claimed; and

(B) The owner, operator, or other official representative of the facility or community has stated, formally, in writing, that the facility or community complies with the requirements of the exemption claimed.

(8) (a) With respect to "familial status", nothing in this part 5 shall apply to the following:

(I) Any single-family house sold or rented by an owner if such private individual owner does not own more than three such single-family houses at any one time. In the case of the sale of any such single-family house by a private individual owner not residing in such house at the time of such sale or who was not the most recent resident of such house prior to such sale, the exemption granted by this subsection (8) shall apply only with respect to one such sale within any twenty-four-month period. Such bona fide private individual owner shall not own any interest in, nor shall there be owned or reserved on his behalf, under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of more than three such single-family houses at any one time. The sale or rental of any such single-family house shall be excepted from the application of this subsection (8) only if such house is sold or rented:

(A) Without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent, or salesman, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee or agent of any such broker, agent, salesman, or person; and

(B) Without the publication, posting, or mailing, after notice, of any advertisement or written notice in violation of this section; but nothing in this section shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, and other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer the title.

(II) Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his residence.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), a person shall be deemed to be in the business of selling or renting dwellings if:

(I) He has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as principal in three or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein;

(II) He has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as agent, other than in the sale of his own personal residence in providing sales or rental facilities or sales or rental services in two or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any dwelling or any interest therein; or

(III) He is the owner of any dwelling designed or intended for occupancy by, or occupied by, five or more families.

24-34-502.2. Unfair or discriminatory housing practices against individuals with disabilities prohibited. (1) It is an unfair or discriminatory housing practice and therefore unlawful and prohibited:

(a) For a person to discriminate in the sale or rental of, or to otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any buyer or renter because of a disability of a buyer or renter, an individual who will reside in the dwelling after it is sold, rented, or made available, or of any individual associated with the buyer or renter;

(b) For a person to discriminate against an individual in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling or in the provision of services or facilities in connection with such dwelling because of a disability of that individual, of any individual residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented, or made available, or of any individual associated with the individual.

(2) For purposes of this section, "discrimination" includes both segregate and separate and includes, but is not limited to:

(a) A refusal to permit, at the expense of an individual with a disability, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by the individual if the modifications are necessary to afford the individual with full enjoyment of the premises; except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted;

(b) A refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services when such accommodations may be necessary to afford the individual with a disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; and

(c) In connection with the design and construction of covered multifamily dwellings for first occupancy after the date that is thirty months after the date of enactment of the federal "Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988", a failure to design and construct those dwellings in such a manner that the public use and common use portions of the dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities. At least one building entrance must be on an accessible route unless it is impractical to do so because of the terrain or the unusual characteristics of the site. All doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises within the dwellings must be sufficiently wide to allow passage by individuals with disabilities using mobility devices, and all premises within the dwellings must contain the following features of adaptive design:

(I) Accessible routes into and through the dwellings;

(II) Light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls in accessible locations;

(III) Reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and

(IV) Usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual using a mobility device can maneuver about the space.

(3) Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the "Accessible and Usable Buildings and Facilities" standard, or any successor standard, promulgated and amended from time to time by the international code council (commonly cited as ICC/ANSI A117.1) suffices to satisfy the requirements of subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(4) As used in this section, "covered multifamily dwellings" means:
(a) Buildings consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators; and
(b) Ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

Editor's note: Section 6(2) of chapter 19 (HB 17-1067), Session Laws of Colorado 2017, provides that the act changing this section applies to buildings and facilities constructed or altered on or after August 9, 2017.

24-34-503. Refusal to show housing. If the charge alleging an unfair housing practice relates to the refusal to show the housing involved, the commission, after proper investigations as set forth in section 24-34-306, may issue its order that the housing involved be shown to the person filing such charge, and, if the respondent refuses without good reason to comply therewith within three days, then the commission or any commissioner may file a petition pursuant to section 24-34-509. The district court shall hear such matters at the earliest possible time, and the court may waive the requirement of security for a petition filed under this section. If the district court finds that the denial to show is based upon an unfair housing practice, it shall order the respondent to immediately show said housing involved and also to make full disclosure concerning the sale, lease, or rental price and any other information being then given to the public.

24-34-504. Time limits on filing of charges. (1) Any charge alleging a violation of this part 5 shall be filed with the commission pursuant to section 24-34-306 within one year after the alleged unfair housing practice occurred, or it shall be barred.

(2) A civil action filed by the attorney general under this section shall be commenced not later than eighteen months after the date of the occurrence or the termination of the alleged discriminatory housing practice.

(3) The director, not later than ten days after filing or identifying additional respondents, shall serve on the respondent a notice identifying the alleged discriminatory housing practice and advising such respondent of the procedural rights and obligations of respondents under this part 5, together with a copy of the original charge.

(4) The director shall commence an investigation of any charge filed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section within thirty days of such filing. Within one hundred days after the filing of the charge, the director shall determine, based on the facts, whether probable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, unless it is impracticable to do so or the director has approved a conciliation agreement with respect to the charge. If the director is unable to complete the investigation within one hundred days after the filing of the charge, the director shall notify the parties of the reasons for not doing so.
After a determination by the director that probable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the commission shall issue a notice and complaint as provided in section 24-34-306 (4). After such notice and complaint is issued by the commission, the complainant, respondent, or any aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed may elect to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action in lieu of an administrative hearing. Such election shall be made in writing within twenty days after receipt of the notice and complaint issued by the commission. The commission shall provide notice of the election to all other parties to whom the notice and complaint relates.

If all parties agree to have the charges decided in an administrative hearing, the commission shall hold a hearing as provided in section 24-34-306. If any party elects a civil action, the commission shall authorize the attorney general to commence and maintain a civil action in the appropriate state district court to obtain relief with respect to the discriminatory housing practice or practices alleged in the notice and complaint.

Final administrative disposition of a charge filed pursuant to this section shall be made within one year of the date the charge was filed, unless it is impractical to do so. If the commission is unable to do so, the commission shall notify the complainant and the respondent, in writing, of the reasons that such disposition is impractical.

24-34-505. Charges by other persons. Any person whose employees, agents, employers, or principals, or some of them, refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this part 5 may make, sign, and file with the commission a verified written charge in duplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action.

24-34-505.5. Enforcement by the attorney general. (1) Upon timely application, the attorney general may intervene in any civil action filed as provided in section 24-34-505.6 if the attorney general certifies that the case is of general public importance. Upon such intervention, the attorney general may obtain such relief as would be available to the director under section 24-34-306 in a civil action to which such section applies.

(2) Whenever the attorney general has probable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of any of the rights granted by this title or that any group of persons has been denied any of the rights granted by this title and such denial raises an issue of general public importance, the attorney general may commence a civil action in any appropriate district court.

(3) The attorney general may commence a civil action in any appropriate district court for appropriate relief with respect to:
(a) A discriminatory housing practice referred to the attorney general by the commission under section 24-34-306; or

(b) Breach of a conciliation agreement referred to the attorney general by the director under section 24-34-506.5.

(4) The attorney general, on behalf of the commission, division, or other party at whose request a subpoena is issued under this section, may enforce such subpoena in appropriate proceedings in the district court for the district in which the person to whom the subpoena was addressed resides, was served, or transacts business.

(5) Repealed.

24-34-505.6. Enforcement by private persons. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, an aggrieved person may commence a civil action in an appropriate United States district court or state district court not later than two years after the occurrence or the termination of an alleged discriminatory housing practice or the breach of a conciliation agreement entered into under this title, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to such discriminatory housing practice or breach.

(2) The computation of such two-year period shall not include any time during which an administrative proceeding under this title was pending with respect to a complaint or charge under this title based upon such discriminatory housing practice. This subsection (2) does not apply to actions arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, an aggrieved person may commence a civil action under this section whether or not a charge has been filed under section 24-34-306 and without regard to the status of any such charge, but if the director or local agency has obtained a conciliation agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person, no action may be filed under this section by such aggrieved person with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice which forms the basis for such charge except for the purpose of enforcing the terms of such an agreement.

(4) An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this section with respect to an alleged discriminatory housing practice which forms the basis of a complaint issued by the commission if an administrative law judge has commenced a hearing on the record under this title with respect to such complaint.

(5) At the request of the aggrieved person, the court may appoint an attorney in accordance with section 24-34-307 (9.5).

(6) In addition to the relief which may be granted in accordance with section 24-34-508, the following relief is available:

(a) If the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may award to the plaintiff actual and punitive damages or may grant as relief, as the court deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order, including an order enjoining the defendant from engaging in such practice or ordering such affirmative action as may be appropriate.
(b) The court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees and costs.

(c) Relief granted under this section shall not affect any contract, sale, encumbrance, or lease consummated before the granting of such relief and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or tenant, without actual notice of the filing of a charge with the commission or a civil action under this section.

24-34-506. Probable cause

In making his determination on probable cause under the provisions of section 24-34-306 (2), the director shall find that probable cause exists if upon all the facts and circumstances a person of reasonable prudence and caution would be warranted in a belief that an unfair housing practice has been committed.

24-34-506.5. Conciliation agreements

(1) A conciliation agreement arising out of a conciliation shall be an agreement between the respondent and the charging party, and shall be subject to approval by the director.

(2) A conciliation agreement may provide for binding arbitration of the dispute arising from the charge. Any such arbitration that results from a conciliation agreement may award appropriate relief, including monetary relief.

(3) Each conciliation agreement shall be made public unless the charging party and respondent otherwise agree and the director determines that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of this section.

(4) Whenever the director has reasonable cause to believe that a respondent has breached a conciliation agreement, the director shall refer the matter to the attorney general with a recommendation that a civil action be filed under section 24-34-505.5 for the enforcement of such agreement.

(5) Repealed.

24-34-507. Injunctive relief

(1) After the filing of a charge pursuant to section 24-34-306 (1), the commission or a commissioner designated by the commission for that purpose may file in the name of the people of the state of Colorado through the attorney general of the state a petition in the district court of the county in which the alleged unfair housing practice occurred, or of any county in which a respondent resides, seeking appropriate injunctive relief against such respondent, including orders or decrees restraining and enjoining him from selling, renting, or otherwise making unavailable to the complainant any housing with respect to which the complaint is made, pending the final determination of proceedings before the commission under this part 5.

(2) Any injunctive relief granted pursuant to this section shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed sixty days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. An affidavit of notice of hearing shall forthwith be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court wherein said petition is filed. The procedure for seeking and granting said injunctive relief, including temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions, shall be the procedure provided in the rules of civil procedure for courts of record in Colorado pertaining to injunctions, and the district court has power to grant such temporary relief or restraining orders as it deems just and proper.

(3) The district court shall hear matters on the request for an injunction at the earliest possible time.

(4) If, upon all the evidence at a hearing, the commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in any such unfair housing practice, the district court which has granted temporary relief or restraining orders pursuant to the petition filed by the commission or commissioner shall dismiss such temporary relief or restraining orders. Any person filing a charge alleging an unfair housing practice with the commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general may not thereafter apply, by himself or herself or by his or her attorney-at-law, directly to the district court for any further relief under this part 5, except as provided in section 24-34-307.

24-34-508. Relief authorized. (1) In addition to the relief authorized by section 24-34-306 (9), the commission may order a respondent who has been found to have engaged in an unfair housing practice:
  (a) To rehire, reinstate, and provide back pay to any employee or agent discriminated against because of his obedience to this part 5;
  (b) To take affirmative action regarding the granting of financial assistance as provided in section 24-34-502 (1)(b) or the showing, sale, transfer, rental, or lease of housing;
  (c) To make reports as to the manner of compliance with the order of the commission;
  (d) To reimburse any person who was discriminated against for any fee charged in violation of this part 5 and for any actual expenses incurred in obtaining comparable alternate housing, as well as any storage or moving charges associated with obtaining such housing;
  (e) To award actual damages suffered by the aggrieved person and injunctive or other equitable relief;
  (f) To assess a civil penalty against the respondent in the following amounts:
  (I) Not to exceed ten thousand dollars if the respondent has not been adjudged to have committed any prior discriminatory housing practice;
  (II) Not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed any other discriminatory housing practice during the five-year period ending on the date of the filing of the charge;
(III) Not to exceed fifty thousand dollars if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed two or more discriminatory housing practices during the seven-year period ending on the date of the filing of the charge.

(2) In addition to the relief authorized by the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an individual with a disability who has suffered an unfair housing practice based on his or her disability is entitled to the relief set forth in section 24-34-802.

24-34-509. Enforcement sought by commission. Upon refusal by a person to comply with any order, order pursuant to section 24-34-503, or regulation of the commission, the commission has authority to immediately seek an order in the district court enforcing the order or regulation of the commission. Such proceedings shall be brought in the district court in the county in which the respondent resides or transacts business.

24-34-510. Remedy. (Repealed)

DISCRIMINATION IN PLACES OF PUBLIC ACCOMMODATION

Editor's note: (1) This part 6 was numbered as article 2 of chapter 25, C.R.S. 1963. Parts 3 to 8 of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 6 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

retail sales to the public; any place to eat, drink, sleep, or rest, or any combination thereof; any sporting or recreational area and facility; any public transportation facility; a barber shop, bathhouse, swimming pool, bath, steam or massage parlor, gymnasium, or other establishment conducted to serve the health, appearance, or physical condition of a person; a campsite or trailer camp; a dispensary, clinic, hospital, convalescent home, or other institution for the sick, ailing, aged, or infirm; a mortuary, undertaking parlor, or cemetery; an educational institution; or any public building, park, arena, theater, hall, auditorium, museum, library, exhibit, or public facility of any kind whether indoor or outdoor. "Place of public accommodation" shall not include a church, synagogue, mosque, or other place that is principally used for religious purposes.

(2) (a) It is a discriminatory practice and unlawful for a person, directly or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from, or deny to an individual or a group, because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, or ancestry, the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of a place of public accommodation or, directly or indirectly, to publish, circulate, issue, display, post, or mail any written, electronic, or printed communication, notice, or advertisement that indicates that the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of a place of public accommodation will be refused, withheld from, or denied an individual or that an individual's patronage or presence at a place of public accommodation is unwelcome, objectionable, unacceptable, or undesirable because of disability, race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, or ancestry.

(b) A claim brought pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) that is based on disability is covered by the provisions of section 24-34-802.

(2.5) It is a discriminatory practice and unlawful for any person to discriminate against any individual or group because such person or group has opposed any practice made a discriminatory practice by this part 6 or because such person or group has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted pursuant to this part 6.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, it is not a discriminatory practice for a person to restrict admission to a place of public accommodation to individuals of one sex if such restriction has a bona fide relationship to the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of such place of public accommodation.

24-34-602. Penalty and civil liability. (1) (a) Any person who violates section 24-34-601 shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each violation. A person aggrieved by the violation of section 24-34-601 shall bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the violation occurred. Upon finding a violation, the court shall order the defendant to pay the fine to the aggrieved party.
(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), a person who violates the provisions of section 24-34-601 based on a disability shall be subject to the provisions of section 24-34-802.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The relief provided by this section is an alternative to that authorized by section 24-34-306 (9), and a person who seeks redress under this section is not permitted to seek relief from the commission.

24-34-703. Places of public accommodation - definition. A place of public accommodation has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-34-301.
24-34-704. Exceptions. Nothing in this part 7 shall be construed to prohibit the mailing of a private communication in writing sent in response to specific written inquiry.

24-34-705. Penalty. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this part 7 or who aids in, incites, causes, or brings about in whole or in part the violation of any of such provisions, for each and every violation thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The penalty provided by this section shall be an alternative to the relief authorized by section 24-34-306 (9), and a person who seeks redress under this section shall not be permitted to seek relief from the commission.

24-34-706. Time limits on filing of charges. Any charge filed with the commission alleging a violation of this part 7 shall be filed pursuant to section 24-34-306 within sixty days after the alleged discriminatory act occurred, and, if not so filed, it shall be barred.

24-34-707. Relief authorized. In addition to the relief authorized by section 24-34-306 (9), the commission may order a respondent who has been found to have violated any of the provisions of this part 7 to rehire, reinstate, and provide back pay to any employee or agent discriminated against because of his obedience to this part 7; to make reports as to the manner of compliance with the order of the commission; and to take affirmative action, including the posting of notices setting forth the substantive rights of the public under this part 7.

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES - CIVIL RIGHTS

Editor's note: This part 8 was numbered as article 4 of chapter 25, C.R.S. 1963. Parts 3 to 8 of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1979, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 8 prior to 1979, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.
24-34-801. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly declares that it is the policy of the state:

(a) To encourage and enable individuals who are visually or hearing impaired or individuals with a disability to participate fully in social, employment, and educational opportunities, as well as other activities in our state on the same terms and conditions as individuals without a disability;

(b) That individuals who are visually or hearing impaired or individuals with a disability have the same rights as individuals without a disability to the full and free use of the streets, highways, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings, public facilities, and other public places;

(c) That individuals who are visually or hearing impaired or individuals with a disability are entitled to full and equal housing accommodations, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, trains, motor buses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation, hotels, motels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, including restaurants and grocery stores; and

(d) That individuals who are visually or hearing impaired or individuals with a disability must not be excluded, by reason of his or her disability, from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of any public entity or be subject to discrimination by any public entity.

(2) Repealed.

24-34-802. Violations - penalties. (1) It is a discriminatory practice and unlawful for any person to discriminate against any individual or group because such person or group has opposed any practice made a discriminatory practice based on disability pursuant to part 5, 6, or 8 of this article, or because such person or group has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted pursuant to part 5, 6, or 8 of this article.

(2) (a) A qualified individual with a disability, as defined in section 24-34-301 (5.6), who is subject to a violation of subsection (1) of this section or of section 24-34-502, 24-34-502.2, 24-34-601, or 24-34-803 based on his or her disability may bring a civil suit in a court of competent jurisdiction and is entitled to any of the following remedies:

(I) A court order requiring compliance with the provisions of the applicable section;
(II) The recovery of actual monetary damages; or
(III) A statutory fine not to exceed three thousand five hundred dollars.
(b) For a claim brought pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) for a construction-related accessibility violation, the violation must be considered a single incident and not as separate violations for each day the construction-related accessibility violation exists.

(c) (I) A small business defendant is entitled to a fifty percent reduction in a statutory fine assessed pursuant to subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) if it corrects the accessibility violation within thirty days after the filing of the complaint. The fifty percent reduction in a statutory fine does not apply, however, if the defendant knowingly or intentionally made or caused to have made the access barrier that caused the accessibility violation.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (c), "small business" means an employer with twenty-five or fewer employees and no more than three million five hundred thousand dollars in annual gross income.

(III) Nothing in this paragraph (c) may be interpreted to result in a reduction in actual monetary damages awarded pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(3) An award of attorney fees and costs pursuant to section 24-34-505.6 (6)(b) applies to claims brought pursuant to this section.

(4) A court that hears civil suits pursuant to this section shall apply the same standards and defenses that are available under the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., and its related amendments and implementing regulations.

24-34-803. Rights of individuals with service animals. (1) A qualified individual with a disability has the right to be accompanied by a service animal individually trained for that individual without being required to pay an extra charge for the service animal in or on the following places or during the following activities and subject to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all individuals:

(a) Any place of employment, housing, or public accommodation;

(b) Any programs, services, or activities conducted by a public entity;

(c) Any public transportation service; or

(d) Any other place open to the public.

(2) A trainer of a service animal, or an individual with a disability accompanied by an animal that is being trained to be a service animal, has the right to be accompanied by the service animal in training without being required to pay an extra charge for the service animal in training in or on the following places or during the following activities:

(a) Any place of employment, housing, or public accommodation;

(b) Any programs, services, or activities conducted by a public entity;

(c) Any public transportation service; or

(d) Any other place open to the public.

(3) (a) An employer shall allow an employee with a disability who is accompanied by a service animal to keep the employee's service animal with the employee at all times in the place of employment. An employer shall not fail or refuse to hire or discharge any individual with a disability, or otherwise discriminate against any individual with a disability, with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because that individual with a disability is accompanied by a service animal individually trained for that individual.

(b) An employer shall make reasonable accommodation to make the workplace accessible for an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee and who is accompanied by a service animal individually trained for that individual unless the employer can show that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the employer's business. For purposes of this paragraph (b), "undue hardship" and "reasonable accommodation" have the same meaning as set forth in Title I of the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of

(4) The owner or individual with a disability who has control or custody of a service animal or the trainer of a service animal is liable for any damage to persons, premises, or facilities, including places of housing, places of public accommodation, and places of employment, caused by that individual's service animal or service animal in training. The individual who has control or custody of a service animal or a service animal in training is subject to the provisions of section 18-9-204.5, C.R.S.

(5) An individual with a disability who owns a service animal is exempt from any state or local licensing fees or charges that might otherwise apply in connection with owning a similar animal.

(6) The mere presence of a service animal in a place of public accommodation is not grounds for any violation of a sanitary standard, rule, or regulation promulgated pursuant to section 25-4-1604, C.R.S.

24-34-804. Service animals - violations - penalties. (1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or agent of any person, firm, or corporation to:

(a) Withhold, deny, deprive, or attempt to withhold, deny, or deprive a qualified individual with a disability who is accompanied by a service animal or a trainer of a service animal of any of the rights or privileges secured in section 24-34-803;

(b) Threaten to interfere with any of the rights of a qualified individual with a disability who is accompanied by a service animal or a trainer of a service animal secured in section 24-34-803;

(c) Punish or attempt to punish a qualified individual with a disability who is accompanied by a service animal or a trainer of a service animal for exercising or attempting to exercise any right or privilege secured by section 24-34-803; or

(d) Interfere with, injure, or harm, or cause another dog to interfere with, injure, or harm, a service animal.

(2) Any person who violates any provision of subsection (1) of this section commits a class 3 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(3) (a) (I) Except as provided for in subparagraphs (II) and (III) of this paragraph (a), a person who violates any provision of subsection (1) of this section is liable to the qualified individual with a disability who is accompanied by a service animal or a trainer of a service animal whose rights were affected for the penalties provided in section 24-34-802.
(II) A person who willfully or wantonly causes harm to a service animal or a service animal in training is liable to the legal owner of the service animal or service animal in training for treble the amount of actual damages.

(III) The legal owner of an animal that is willfully or wantonly allowed to cause harm to a service animal or a service animal in training is liable to the legal owner of the service animal or service animal in training for treble the amount of actual damages.

(b) In any action commenced pursuant to this subsection (3), a court may award costs and reasonable attorney fees.

(c) An animal care or control agency is exempt from the provisions of this subsection (3) if, after a good-faith effort, the agency is unaware that the animal is a service animal.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended to interfere with remedies or relief that any person might be entitled to pursuant to parts 3 to 7 of this article.

Editor's note: The provisions of subsection (3)(a) in SB 14-118 have been renumbered on revision to conform to statutory format.

PART 9

MANDATORY REVIEW OF PROPOSED CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR REGULATED OCCUPATIONS AND PROFESSIONS

Editor's note: This part 9 was added in 1981. This part 9 was repealed and reenacted in 1997, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 9 prior to 1997, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

24-34-901. Proposed continuing education requirements for regulated occupations and professions - review by office of executive director. (1) Before any bill is introduced in the general assembly that contains, or any bill is amended to contain, a mandatory continuing education requirement for any occupation or profession, the practice of which requires a state of Colorado license, certificate, or registration, the group or association proposing such mandatory continuing education requirement shall first submit information concerning the need for such a requirement to the office of the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies. The executive director shall impartially review such evidence, analyze and evaluate the proposal, and report in writing to the general assembly whether mandatory continuing education would likely protect the public served by the practitioners. Proposals may include, but need not be limited to:
Information that shows that the knowledge base for the profession or occupation is changing; that mandatory continuing education of this profession or occupation is required in other states; if applicable, that any independent studies have shown that mandatory continuing education is effective in assuring the competency of practitioners. The proposal may also include any assessment tool that shows the effectiveness of mandatory continuing education and recommendations about sanctions that should be included for noncompliance with the requirement of mandatory continuing education. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to:

(a) Any profession or occupation that, as of July 1, 1991, has mandatory continuing education requirements in place;
(b) Any bill that is introduced as a result of a legislative interim committee and that as introduced in the general assembly includes a mandatory continuing education requirement.

(2) This section is exempt from the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11), and the periodic reporting requirement of this section shall remain in effect until changed by the general assembly acting by bill.

ARTICLE 35

Department of Revenue

ORGANIZATION

24-35-101. Functions of department of revenue. (1) There is hereby created the department of revenue, the functions of which are the collection of the following:
(a) Taxes levied and the license fees imposed by the provisions of articles 22 and 26 to 29 of title 39, C.R.S., and section 21 of article X of the state constitution, and the administration and enforcement of said provisions;
(b) Taxes levied by the provisions of articles 23.5 and 25 of title 39, C.R.S.;
(c) Taxes levied and the license fees imposed by the provisions of part 1 of article 6 of title 12, title 42, and part 2 of article 5 of title 43, and the administration and enforcement of said provisions;
(d) Taxes levied and the license fees imposed by the provisions of article 46 and part 5 of article 47 of title 12, C.R.S., and the administration and enforcement of said provisions;
(e) Repealed.
(f) Taxes, fees, and other revenues, the payment of which is required by law, which the department may be directed by law, rule, or agreement to administer, collect, or enforce.

24-35-102. Executive director - annual report. (1) There is hereby created the office of the executive director of the department of revenue, who shall be the head of the department. The executive director shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The reappointment of an executive director after initial election of a governor shall be subject to the provisions of section 24-20-109. Whenever any law of this state refers to the director of revenue, such law shall be deemed to refer to the executive director of the department of revenue.
(2) The executive director shall be the chief authority of the state and the adviser of the governor and the general assembly in matters of collection of taxes and the enforcement of the taxing and licensing laws and shall have such powers and duties as are necessary and proper to the carrying out of the functions vested by this title in the department of revenue.
(3) The executive director shall prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to the provisions of section 24-1-136, a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the department of revenue or to any subdivisions thereof.
(4) Publications of the department circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued by the executive director in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136.
(5) The executive director shall provide for the printing each year of the financial report summary provided to him by the controller pursuant to section 24-30-207 (2) in the state income tax instruction booklet.

24-35-103. Powers of executive director - deputies. (1) In addition to the divisions specified in section 24-1-117 (4), the executive director of the department of revenue, subject to the approval of the governor, may create such groups, divisions, or subordinate departments within the department of revenue as he or she deems necessary for the proper and efficient functioning of said department, and, when established, may appoint, subject to the approval of the governor, all heads of groups, divisions, and subordinate departments. All such appointments shall be from an eligible list prepared by the state personnel director. If there is no eligible list for the position to be filled, the state personnel director shall forthwith issue to the appointee named by the executive director a provisional appointment, which shall remain in effect until examination is had and such eligible list established, but in no event for a longer period than six months.

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the executive director of the department of revenue, with the written approval of the governor, may combine existing groups, divisions, or subordinate departments or reduce the personnel in any group, division, or subordinate department or combined groups, divisions, or subordinate departments or in the department of revenue as a whole, in which case all employees so losing their positions for such reason, in the order of their seniority, shall be placed at the head of the eligible list of like qualifications and duties by the state personnel director. If such employee is a provisional employee, the employee shall not be placed at the head of any such list unless the employee has passed the regular examination of the state personnel system for such position and then only if his or her grade in such examination entitles such person to such position on said eligible list.

(b) The executive director of the department of revenue shall not combine or eliminate the divisions specified in section 24-1-117 (4)(a) unless specifically authorized by law.

(3) Repealed.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law, upon approval by the appropriate examination, registration, or licensing board or commission, the executive director of the department of revenue may change the annual renewal date of any license, registration, or certificate issued by such board or commission in order to ensure that approximately the same number of licenses, registrations, or certificates are scheduled for renewal each month of the year. When an annual renewal date is changed or established pursuant to this subsection (4), the fee for such renewal shall be prorated accordingly, and in no case shall fees for an annual license, registration, or certificate be charged for a period in excess of twenty-four months until July 1, 2005, or, after July 1, 2005, a period in excess of twelve months.

(b) This subsection (4) shall not be construed to prohibit the issuance of a license, registration, or certificate for more than twelve months if such authority is granted by statute.

24-35-103.5. Private letter rulings - information letters - fees - creation of fund - definitions - repeal. (1) For purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Information letter" means a nonbinding statement issued by the department of revenue to a taxpayer that provides general information regarding any tax administered by the department pursuant to title 29 or 39, C.R.S., that is made in response to a written request from a taxpayer for such information.

(b) "Private letter ruling" means a written determination issued by the executive director of the department of revenue, or the executive director's designee, to a taxpayer on the tax consequences of a proposed or completed transaction under any tax administered by the department pursuant to title 29 or 39, C.R.S., that is made in response to a written request from a taxpayer for such a ruling.

(2) The executive director of the department of revenue, or the executive director's designee, shall, except as otherwise provided by rule, issue information letters and private letter rulings upon the written request of a taxpayer. The executive director shall promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of this title establishing the process for issuing an information letter or a private letter ruling, including but not limited to rules that specify:

(a) The procedure, form, and time periods for submitting a request for an information letter or a private letter ruling;

(b) The terms and conditions under which a private letter ruling binds the department of revenue or may be revoked or modified; except that any revocation by the department of a private letter ruling shall only be effective prospectively and shall not affect any transaction undertaken on or prior to the date of the revocation;

(c) The limitations on the applicability of an information letter or a private letter ruling to specific persons, transactions, factual circumstances, and time periods;

(d) The circumstances under which a request for an information letter or a private letter ruling may be declined by the executive director of the department of revenue.

(3) The executive director of the department of revenue shall issue private letter rulings within ninety days of the receipt of a written request by a taxpayer unless the request is declined. In the event a request for a private letter ruling is declined, the executive director shall notify the taxpayer in writing of such declination no later than thirty days after the date the request was submitted to the department.

(3.5) The department of revenue shall track the total full-time equivalent personnel positions necessary and the hours dedicated by each FTE for the issuance, declination, modification, or revocation of all information letters or private letter rulings as required by this section.

(4) The issuance, modification, or revocation of an information letter or a private letter ruling shall not constitute a tax policy change for purposes of section 20 (4)(a) of article X of the state constitution.

(5) (a) The executive director of the department of revenue shall redact information from an information letter or private letter ruling in order to ensure the confidentiality of the taxpayer or other persons, transactions, factual circumstances, or time periods that are the subject of the information letter or private letter ruling and make public the balance of the information letter or private letter ruling.

(b) The executive director may withhold the information letter or private letter ruling from the public based upon a determination that information in the information letter or private letter ruling cannot be redacted in a manner that maintains the confidentiality of the taxpayer or other persons, transactions, factual circumstances, or time periods that are the subject of the information letter or private letter ruling. Such a determination shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) The executive director of the department of revenue shall promulgate rules pursuant to article 4 of this title establishing reasonable fees for the direct and indirect costs of the administration of this section, which fees shall accompany any request for a private letter ruling made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. All fees collected shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the private letter ruling fund, which fund is hereby created. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the direct and indirect costs of the administration of this section.

(7) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2023. Prior to such repeal, the information letter and private letter ruling function of the executive director of the department of revenue shall be reviewed as provided for in section 24-34-104. The general assembly shall not continue to authorize the department of revenue to retain full-time equivalent employee authorization to issue information letters and private letter rulings after this section is repealed.

24-35-104. Bond of executive director. The executive director of the department of revenue, on or before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond to the state of Colorado in the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Said bond shall be signed by one or more surety companies authorized to transact business in the state of Colorado, and the entire premium therefor shall be paid in one lump sum from state funds, and the general assembly shall make the necessary appropriation therefor.

24-35-105. Supplies. The department of revenue shall be provided with suitable quarters, equipment, services, supplies, materials, and other facilities and services as may be necessary to carry out its functions and is authorized to incur necessary expenditures for such facilities and services, subject to the limitation of appropriations and dedicated revenues provided therefor.

24-35-106. Deposits by executive director. The executive director of the department of revenue, before the close of each business day, shall deposit with the state treasurer all sums of money collected by the department of revenue. The state treasurer, upon receipt of any moneys from the executive director, shall execute a receipt for the money in duplicate, delivering one copy of the receipt to the executive director and retaining the other copy in his or her files.

24-35-107. Division of enforcement - deputy director of revenue appointed. (Repealed)

24-35-108. Functions of department of revenue - collection of state taxes. (1) In addition to any function specified in this article, the functions of the department of revenue and the duties of the executive director of the department of revenue as the head of said department or of the head of a group, division, or subordinate department appointed by the executive director in accordance with this article are:

(a) To collect delinquent taxes, assessments, and licenses under the jurisdiction of the department of revenue;

(b) To assist the attorney general in the prosecution of any legal actions commenced for the collection of any delinquent tax, assessment, or license within the jurisdiction of the department of revenue;

(c) To audit reports and returns of taxpayers in connection with all taxes, assessments, and licenses within the jurisdiction of the department of revenue, and, in the performance of this function and duty, the work of the department of revenue shall be so planned and organized that when a field auditor of the department of revenue investigates the tax liability of a taxpayer, to the extent practical, he or she shall examine the tax liability of such taxpayer with respect to all state taxes as to which the return or report of the taxpayer is in question to the end that separate audits by different auditors shall be reduced to a minimum;

(d) To assist local tax collectors insofar as the collection of state taxes is concerned;

(e) To promulgate and establish, with the approval of the governor, rules governing not only the internal administration of the department of revenue but also the collection of taxes, assessments, and licenses and delinquencies in any thereof;

(f) To make arbitrary deficiency and jeopardy assessments as provided by law and by the rules of the department;

(g) Such other duties as may be delegated from time to time to the department of revenue by law concerning the enforcement and collection of state taxes, assessments, and licenses;

(h) To act for and on behalf of the executive director of the department of revenue in all department of revenue matters whenever the executive director specifically authorizes the head of a group, division, or subordinate department to act on his or her behalf for the purposes described in this section.

(1)(h) added, p. 777, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2000: IP(1), (1)(c), (1)(e), (1)(g), and (1)(h) amended, p. 1634, § 4, effective June 1.

Cross references: For procedures in making rules and regulations, see article 4 of this title.

24-35-108.5. Annual disclosure to individual taxpayers of average taxes paid. (1) For calendar years commencing on or after January 1, 2003, the department of revenue shall determine the average amount of certain federal, state, and local taxes paid by individual taxpayers based on taxpayers' average income as presented in the most recent publication of the data in the department's Colorado tax profile study, or its successor. The department shall disclose such information to taxpayers on an annual basis pursuant to this section.

(2) (a) In the calculation of the average amount of federal taxes paid by individual taxpayers, the department of revenue shall include the average federal income tax and the average amount of the joint employer and employee contribution to social security and medicare paid on behalf of each employee for the tax year corresponding to the most recent publication of the department's Colorado tax profile study, or its successor.

(b) In the calculation of the average amount of state taxes paid by individual taxpayers, the department of revenue shall include the average state individual income tax; sales and use tax; gas and gasohol tax; licenses and registrations; tax on alcoholic beverages; and tax on cigarettes and tobacco.

(c) In the calculation of the average amount of local taxes paid by individual taxpayers, the department of revenue shall include the average residential property tax; local sales and use tax; specific ownership tax; and occupational tax.

(3) For each of the taxes specified in subsection (2) of this section, the department of revenue shall determine the average amount of taxes paid by income classes as presented in the most recent publication of such data in the department's Colorado tax profile study, or its successor. Such income classes shall be stratified from the lowest to the highest income tax ranges.

(4) The department of revenue shall prepare a table that discloses the average amount of taxes paid by taxpayers as printed in the most recent publication of the department's Colorado tax profile study, or its successor. Each tax specified in subsection (2) of this section shall be listed in a column on the left side of the table. The income ranges specified in subsection (3) of this section shall appear across the top of the table. The average amount paid for each tax, the average total amount paid in federal, state, and local tax, and the average total amount paid for all taxes combined shall appear under each income range. The table shall be titled "Disclosure of Average Taxes Paid", and the title line of the table shall be printed in eighteen-point type or larger.

(5) The department of revenue shall print the table prepared pursuant to subsection (4) of this section in the income tax booklet that the department mails to taxpayers on an annual basis. The department shall print the table in a clear and noticeable location in the income tax booklet and shall indicate the location of such table in the table of contents for the income tax booklet. The department shall also make the table available through the "NetFile" link on the department's website and shall ensure that the table is clearly accessible through a noticeable link on the "NetFile" website.

24-35-109. Collections - distraint and sale. (1) The department of revenue has every power provided by law to enforce the collection of taxes and license fees due the state by foreclosure of liens against real estate and by execution and sale as for a debt due the state or any taxing division or agency thereof.

(2) Specifically, by way of extension and not of limitation, if any person, firm, or corporation liable to pay any tax for personal property or license fee, all or any portion of which is then due the state, neglects or refuses to pay the same within thirty days after notice and demand therefor to the taxpayer is made in writing by the executive director of the department of revenue or a group, division, or subordinate department head appointed pursuant to this article, it is lawful for the executive director or such group, division, or subordinate department head, to collect the whole of said tax or license fee, together with such interest and other amounts as are required by law, by distraint and sale of the goods, chattels, or effects, including stocks, securities, bank accounts, and evidences of debt of the delinquent taxpayer. Only such property as is exempt from attachment and execution under the laws of this state shall be exempt from distraint and sale under the provisions of this title.

(3) When distraint is made under the power granted in this section, the officer making such distraint shall make or cause to be made an account of the goods, chattels, and effects distrained and shall sign the same in the name of the state of Colorado by authority of the executive director of the department of revenue. A copy of said notice shall be served upon the owner and upon the possessor of any of the distrained property in the same manner as provided by law for the service of summons in judicial actions in the district courts of the state. Said notice shall also specify the total amount of tax, interest, and penalties due, the time and place when the sale thereof shall occur, and the upset or minimum price, if any, at which the distrained property will be sold. A copy of said notice shall likewise be published once in some legal newspaper within the county in which said distraint is made not more than thirty nor less than ten days prior to the date of such sale, and it shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the county courthouse of said county. If there is no legal newspaper published in such county, then the publication of said notice shall not be required.

(4) Every such sale shall be at public auction and shall be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after service of the notice of distraint, but any such sale may be adjourned from time to time by the officer making the same if the upset or minimum price is not bid or if for any other reason he deems such adjournment advisable; but no such sale shall be adjourned for a longer period than ninety days in all.

(5) In all cases of sale under distraint, the certificate of such sale shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of the proceedings in making the sale, and said certificate shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the delinquent taxpayer in and to the property sold; and, if any of the property sold consists of stocks, registered bonds, or other certificates of indebtedness, said certificate of such sale shall be authority for the corporation, firm, or association issuing such stock or having outstanding any such registered bonds or certificates of indebtedness and to all transfer agents thereof to record and transfer the same on their books, accounts, and records the same in all respects as if the certificates of stock or registered bonds or certificates of indebtedness had been duly endorsed for transfer by the delinquent taxpayer as owner thereof.

(6) No such distraint and sale shall occur or be valid unless commenced within three years from and after the date when such tax or license fee becomes due and payable. Every owner of property thus distrained and sold may redeem the same from such sale after the date when the sale occurred by payment of the amount of such tax, together with interest, penalties, and costs of sale. The executive director of the department of revenue shall collect all taxes due the state on real property in the manner provided by law.

(7) If, at any such sale or any adjournment thereof, the price bid is less than the cost of sale, the officer making the sale shall bid in the property in the name of the state of Colorado; except that the proportionate share of any political subdivision derived from any such sale shall be remitted to the political subdivision entitled thereto. If the amount bid at any such sale or at any adjournment thereof is less than the amount of the delinquency plus interest, penalties, and costs, if any, the officer making the sale may bid in the property in the name of the state of Colorado if the property tax administrator shall direct him in writing to do so, certifying in such direction that in the opinion of the property tax administrator the price offered is less than the forced sale value of the distrained property offered for sale.

(8) If any person, firm, or corporation liable for the payment of any tax has repeatedly failed, neglected, or refused to pay the same within the time specified for such payment and the department of revenue has been required to exercise its enforcement proceedings three or more times through the issuance of a distraint warrant to enforce payment of any such taxes due, then the executive director of the department of revenue is authorized to assess and collect the amount of such taxes due together with all the interest and penalties thereon provided by law and also assess and collect an additional amount equal to fifteen percent of the delinquent taxes, interest, and penalties due or the sum of twenty-five dollars, whichever amount is greater, said additional amount being imposed to compensate the department for administrative and collection costs incurred in collecting such delinquent taxes.

24-35-110. Collection for political subdivisions - contract. The executive director of the department of revenue is hereby authorized to negotiate and contract with any city, town, or city and county for the purpose of arranging for the collection by the department of revenue of any tax levied by the city, town, or city and county which is also levied and collected by the department of revenue for the state of Colorado.

24-35-111. Collection fee. The executive director of the department of revenue is hereby authorized to make any agreement with any city, town, or city and county for the collection of such taxes under such conditions as he may approve, if such agreement includes a fee in such amount as may be necessary to fully cover the cost of collection to be paid by such city, town, or city and county to the department of revenue.

24-35-112. Legal adviser. The attorney general is the legal adviser for the department of revenue and has control of all matters relating to the interpretation of law, commencement of legal proceedings, and conduct of legal actions for the enforcement and collection of delinquent taxes, assessments, and licenses referred to him or her for collection. A member of the attorney general's staff shall not receive any payment of state taxes, assessments, or licenses.

 Entire section amended, (HB 16-1094), ch. 94, p. 267, § 13, effective August 10.

24-35-113. Employees interchangeable. (1) It is the duty of the executive director of the department of revenue in the administration of his or her department to organize the same so that all employees of the department, insofar as possible, are interchangeable in work assignment, to the end that they may be shifted within the department of revenue so as to meet the demands upon any division, group, or branch of the department and the number of such employees kept to the minimum possible for efficient operation. It is likewise the duty of the said executive director, insofar as practicable, to centralize all record-keeping, filing, payroll, and other services required by the department and divisions thereof.

(2) In any fiscal year in which employees are shifted between divisions, groups, or branches of the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the executive director of the department shall prepare a report that demonstrates that the total FTE funded with cash funds, reappropriated funds, and federal funds and appropriated to such a division, group, or branch of the department for such fiscal year has not been exceeded in that fiscal year by such division, group, or branch. Such report shall be submitted with the department's annual budget request to the joint budget committee.

24-35-114. Civil penalty for unpaid checks. (1) The executive director of the department of revenue, or such executive director's delegate, shall assess a forty-one-dollar penalty against any person who issues a check returned for any of the reasons set forth in subsection (2) of this section to the department of revenue in payment of taxes, licenses, or fees collectible by the department of revenue for this state. The penalty provided for in this section shall be assessed in addition to any other penalties or interest provided by law, but shall not be assessed for checks issued pursuant to section 42-4-1701 (5), C.R.S., as a penalty assessment.

(2) The penalty in subsection (1) shall apply to a check that is returned to the department of revenue without payment because of insufficient funds, a closed account, or a stop payment order on the check.

Cross references: For the penalty for insufficient funds checks issued to other state departments, institutions, or agencies, see § 24-30-202 (25).

24-35-115. Mineral audit program. (1) The purpose of the mineral audit program established by this section is to develop reasonable assurance that all mineral revenues due to the state are received.

(2) The department of revenue shall conduct or cause to be conducted audits of oil, gas, and mineral rents and royalties, the mill levy revenue from oil and gas production under section 34-60-122, C.R.S., and severance taxes accruing to the state from federal, state, and private lands. This auditing shall be conducted by a special unit which shall not have any other duties. The auditing may be conducted through contracts with other state agencies or the federal government. However, a state agency may not contract for an audit of federal mineral revenues unless the federal government pays the cost of any such audit.
(3) The cost of each of the following audits shall be paid by an appropriation from the general fund: Severance tax revenues; revenues accruing to leases managed by the state board of land commissioners authorized in section 36-1-113, C.R.S.; and revenues accruing to the oil and gas conservation and environmental response fund created in section 34-60-122 (5), C.R.S. At the end of each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year starting July 1, 1986, the oil and gas conservation commission and the state board of land commissioners shall each repay, from the oil and gas conservation and environmental response fund, created by section 34-60-122 (5), C.R.S., and the state land board administration fund, created by section 36-1-145 (2)(a), C.R.S., to the general fund the cost of such audits performed on their respective fund, which reimbursement shall not exceed the dollar amount of the collections received by each agency from such audits.

(4) Repealed.

Editor's note: Subsection (4)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (4), effective July 1, 1989. (See L. 86, p. 936.)

(2) The department of revenue or any division or any authorized agent of the department shall deny, suspend, or revoke any license pursuant to the provisions of section 26-13-126, C.R.S., and any rules promulgated in furtherance thereof, if the department or agent thereof receives a notice to deny, suspend, or revoke from the state child support enforcement agency because the licensee or applicant is out of compliance with a court or administrative order for current child support, child support debt, retroactive child support, child support arrearages, or child support when combined with maintenance or because the licensee or applicant has failed to comply with a properly issued subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding. Any such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be in accordance with the procedures specified by rule of the department of revenue, rules promulgated by the state board of human services, and any memorandum of understanding entered into between the department of revenue or an authorized agent thereof and the state child support enforcement agency for the implementation of this section and section 26-13-126, C.R.S.

(3) (a) The department of revenue shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the state child support enforcement agency, which memorandum shall identify the relative responsibilities of the department of revenue and the state child support enforcement agency in the department of human services with respect to the implementation of this section and section 26-13-126, C.R.S.

(b) The appropriate rule-making body of the department of revenue is authorized to promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

(4) For purposes of this section, "license" means any recognition, authority, or permission that the department of revenue or any division or any authorized agent of such department is authorized by law to issue for an individual to practice a profession or occupation or for an individual to participate in any recreational activity. "License" may include, but is not necessarily limited to, any license, certificate, certification, letter of authorization, or registration issued for an individual to practice a profession or occupation or for an individual to participate in any recreational activity.

Editor's note: Section 51(2) of chapter 236, Session Laws of Colorado 1997, provides that the act enacting this section applies to all orders whether entered on, before, or after July 1, 1997.

24-35-117. Public list of delinquent state taxes. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law, the executive director of the department of revenue shall annually disclose a list of all taxpayers, including but not limited to individuals, trusts, partnerships, corporations, and other taxable entities, that are delinquent in the payment of tax liabilities collected by the department. The list shall include only those taxpayers with total delinquent final liabilities for all taxes collected by the department, including penalties and interest, in an amount greater than twenty thousand dollars for a period of six months from the time that a distraint warrant issues or may issue. The list shall contain the name, address, types of taxes, month and year in which each tax liability was asserted in a duly issued distraint warrant, the amount of each tax outstanding of each delinquent taxpayer, and, in the case of a corporate taxpayer, the name of the current president of record of the corporation.

(2) At least ninety days before the disclosure of the name of a delinquent taxpayer prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, the executive director of the department of revenue shall mail a written notice to the delinquent taxpayer at his or her last known address informing the taxpayer that the failure to cure the tax delinquency could result in the taxpayer's name being included in a list of delinquent taxpayers that is published on the internet on the website maintained by the department pursuant to this section. If the delinquent tax has not been paid sixty days after the notice was mailed, and the taxpayer has not, since the mailing of the notice, either entered into a written agreement with the department for payment of the delinquency or corrected a default in an existing agreement to the satisfaction of the executive director, the executive director may disclose the tax in the list of delinquent taxpayers.

(3) Unpaid taxes shall not be deemed to be delinquent and subject to disclosure if:
(a) A written agreement for payment exists without default between the taxpayer and the department of revenue; or
(b) The tax liability is the subject of an administrative hearing, administrative review, judicial review, or an appeal of any such proceedings.

(4) The list described in subsection (1) of this section shall be available for public inspection at the department of revenue and shall be published on the internet on the website maintained by the department.

(5) The name of a taxpayer shall be removed within fifteen days after the payment of the debt.
(6) Any disclosure made by the executive director of the department of revenue in a good faith effort to comply with this section shall not be considered a violation of any statute prohibiting disclosure of taxpayer information.

24-35-118. Regional tourism projects - authority of department. (1) In addition to the other functions and powers of the department of revenue and the executive director of the department pursuant to this part 1, the department shall establish and determine the base year revenue, as defined in section 24-46-303 (1), for each regional tourism zone, as defined in section 24-46-303 (11); shall collect, account for, and remit to the applicable financing entity, as defined in section 24-46-303 (6), all state sales tax increment revenue, as defined in section 24-46-303 (12), generated within each regional tourism zone; and shall otherwise perform such functions as are required of the department with respect to any financing entity and any regional tourism zone designated in the written notice thereof to be provided to the executive director pursuant to section 24-46-305.

(2) The executive director shall have the authority to create forms and promulgate rules as deemed necessary or convenient to implement the department's responsibilities with respect to the determination of base year revenue, collection and disbursement of state sales tax increment revenue, and other functions of the department pursuant to part 3 of article 46 of this title. The executive director is authorized to enter into contracts with financing entities approved pursuant to part 3 of article 46 of this title in the manner provided for in section 24-35-110 regarding the performance of the department's functions in implementing part 3 of article 46 of this title, and to establish an administrative fee for such services in the manner provided for in section 24-35-111, with the amount thereof to be reasonably calculated to offset the department's actual direct costs and expenses in performing such collection and disbursement functions.

(3) All state sales tax increment revenue collected by the department on behalf of a financing entity shall be construed and treated for all purposes as being assigned to, the property of, and the revenue of the applicable financing entity and shall not be construed or treated for any purpose as revenue or property of the state. In collecting and disbursing state sales tax increment revenue as provided in this section and otherwise performing its responsibilities pursuant to part 3 of article 46 of this title, the department shall act solely as a collecting agent for the financing entity and shall segregate in a separate fund any portion of state sales tax increment revenue that is dedicated to the financing entity but will not be remitted to the financing entity in the immediate future.

24-35-119. Law enforcement agencies of department to provide identification cards to retired peace officers upon request - definitions. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Law enforcement agency of the department" means the department of revenue and any agency within the department of revenue that employs at least one peace officer.
"Peace officer" means a peace officer described in section 16-2.5-101, 16-2.5-121, 16-2.5-122, 16-2.5-123, 16-2.5-124, 16-2.5-124.5, 16-2.5-125, or 16-2.5-126, C.R.S.

"Photographic identification" means a photographic identification that satisfies the description at 18 U.S.C. sec. 926C (d).

(2) Except as described in subsection (3) of this section, on and after August 7, 2013, if a law enforcement agency of the department has a policy, on August 7, 2013, of issuing photographic identification to peace officers who have retired from the agency, and the agency discontinues said policy after August 7, 2013, the agency shall continue to provide such photographic identification to peace officers who have retired from the agency if:

(a) The peace officer requests the identification;
(b) The peace officer retired from the law enforcement agency before the date upon which the agency discontinued the policy; and
(c) The peace officer is a qualified retired law enforcement officer, as defined in 18 U.S.C. sec. 926C (c).

(3) Before issuing or renewing a photographic identification to a retired law enforcement officer pursuant to this section, a law enforcement agency of the state shall complete a criminal background check of the officer through a search of the national instant criminal background check system created by the federal "Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act" (Pub.L. 103-159), the relevant portion of which is codified at 18 U.S.C. sec. 922 (t), and a search of the state integrated criminal justice information system. If the background check indicates that the officer is prohibited from possessing a firearm by state or federal law, the law enforcement agency shall not issue the photographic identification.

(4) A law enforcement agency of the department may charge a fee for issuing a photographic identification to a retired peace officer pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, which fee shall not exceed the direct and indirect costs assumed by the agency in issuing the photographic identification.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, a law enforcement agency of the department shall not be required to issue a photographic identification to a particular peace officer if the chief administrative officer of the agency elects not to do so.

(6) If a law enforcement agency of the department denies a photographic identification to a retired peace officer who requests a photographic identification pursuant to this section, the law enforcement agency shall provide the retired peace officer a written statement setting forth the reason for the denial.

24-35-120. Peace officer hiring - required use of waiver - definitions. (1) The department of revenue shall require each candidate that it interviews for a peace officer position who has been employed by another law enforcement agency or governmental agency to execute a written waiver that explicitly authorizes each law enforcement agency or governmental agency that has employed the candidate to disclose the applicant's files, including internal affairs files, to the department and releases the department and each law enforcement agency or governmental agency that employed the candidate from any liability related to the use and disclosure of the files. A law enforcement agency or governmental agency may disclose the applicant's files by either providing copies or allowing the department of revenue to review the files at the law enforcement agency's office or governmental agency's office. A candidate who refuses to execute the waiver shall not be considered for employment by the department of revenue. The department of revenue shall, at least twenty-one days prior to making the hiring decision, submit the waiver to each law enforcement agency or governmental agency that has employed the candidate. A state or local law enforcement agency or governmental agency that receives such a waiver shall provide the disclosure to the department of revenue not more than twenty-one days after such receipt.

(2) A state or local law enforcement agency is not required to provide the disclosures described in subsection (1) of this section if the agency is prohibited from providing the disclosure pursuant to a binding nondisclosure agreement to which the agency is a party, which agreement was executed before June 10, 2016, or participating in an official oral interview with an investigator regarding the candidate.

(3) A state or local law enforcement agency or governmental entity is not liable for complying with the provisions of this section.

(4) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (a) "Files" means all performance reviews, any other files related to job performance, administrative files, grievances, previous personnel applications, personnel-related claims, disciplinary actions, and all complaints, early warnings, and commendations, but does not include nonperformance or conduct-related data, including medical files, schedules, pay and benefit information, or similar administrative data or information.
   (b) "State or local law enforcement agency" means:
      (I) The Colorado state patrol created pursuant to section 24-33.5-201;
      (II) The Colorado bureau of investigation created pursuant to section 24-33.5-401;
      (III) A county sheriff's office;
      (IV) A municipal police department;
      (V) The division of parks and wildlife within the department of natural resources created pursuant to section 24-1-124; or
      (VI) A town marshal's office.

PART 2
STATE LOTTERY DIVISION

24-35-201. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (1) "Cash prize" means any prize paid in cash in its entirety, including any expenditures made to fund Colorado or multistate prize reserves.
   (1.5) "Commission" means the Colorado lottery commission.
   (1.7) "Department" means the department of revenue.
   (2) "Director" means the director of the state lottery division.
   (3) "Division" means the state lottery division.
   (4) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of revenue.
(5) "Lottery" means any and all lotteries created and operated pursuant to this part 2, including, without limitation, the game commonly known as lotto, in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers conforming to numbers selected at random, electronically or otherwise, by or at the direction of the commission, and any multistate lottery or game that is authorized by a multistate agreement to which the division is party. All references in this article to "the lottery" shall be construed to include any or all lotteries within the meaning of this subsection (5). "Lottery" shall not include a promotional drawing as defined in subsection (8) of this section.

(6) "Multistate agreement" means an agreement entered into by the division and at least one other state's lottery authority that authorizes the division to allow Colorado residents to participate in one or more multistate lotteries pursuant to rules promulgated by the commission.

(7) "Non-cash prize" means any prize paid in merchandise or a combination of cash and merchandise.

(8) "Promotional drawing" means a prize promotion involving the conduct of giveaways through the use of free chances, including the use of nonwinning tickets from existing or prior games, for purposes of commercial advertisement of the lottery, the creation of goodwill, the promotion of new lottery products, or the collection of names.

Editor's note: Subsection (5) was amended and subsection (6) was enacted by Senate Bill 00-084. That bill contained a referendum clause and was approved by a vote of the registered electors of the state of Colorado on November 7, 2000. Subsections (5) and (6) were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, December 28, 2000. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

24-35-202. State lottery division - creation - location - enterprise status. (1) (a) There is hereby created, within the department of revenue, the state lottery division, the head of which shall be the director of the state lottery division, who shall be appointed and subject to removal by the executive director of the department of revenue in accordance with section 13 of article XII of the state constitution. The state lottery division shall be headquartered in the city of Pueblo in facilities provided at the expense of the lottery division.

(b) The state lottery division and the Colorado lottery commission, created in section 24-35-207, shall constitute an enterprise for the purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution, so long as the commission retains the authority to issue revenue bonds and the division receives less than ten percent of its total annual revenues in grants, as defined in section 24-77-102 (7), from all Colorado state and local governments combined. So long as it constitutes an enterprise pursuant to this section, the state lottery division and the Colorado lottery commission shall not be subject to any of the provisions of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(2) The state lottery division, including the Colorado lottery commission created in section 24-35-207, and the director of the state lottery division shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions specified in this part 2 under the department of revenue as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title; except that the commission shall have full and exclusive authority to promulgate rules related to the lottery without any approval by, or delegation of authority from, the department.

(3) For purposes of part 2 of article 72 of this title, the records of the division and the commission shall be public records, as defined in section 24-72-202 (6), regardless of whether the state lottery division and the Colorado lottery commission constitute an enterprise pursuant to section 24-35-202 (1).

24-35-203. Function of division. The function of the division is to establish, operate, and supervise the lottery authorized by section 2 of article XVIII of the state constitution, as approved by the electors.

Editor's note: This section was amended by Senate Bill 00-084. That bill contained a referendum clause and was approved by a vote of the registered electors of the state of Colorado on November 7, 2000. This section was effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, December 28, 2000. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

24-35-204. Director - qualifications - powers and duties. (1) The director shall be qualified by training and experience to direct a lottery and the work of the division; and, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, shall be of good character and shall not have been convicted of any felony or gambling-related offense.

(2) The director shall devote his entire time and attention to the duties of his office and shall not be engaged in any other profession or occupation.

(2.5) The director may promote the lottery by:

(a) Establishing promotional drawings. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that promotional drawings shall not be subject to regulation under this part 2. No award of prizes through a promotional drawing shall be deemed a lottery or game of chance.

(b) Selling memorabilia or other promotional items. Any revenue generated from the sale of such items shall be transmitted to the state treasurer to be credited to the lottery fund created in section 24-35-210 (1).
(3) The director, as administrative head of the division, shall direct and supervise all its administrative and technical activities. In addition to the duties imposed upon the director elsewhere in this part 2, it shall be the director's duty:

(a) To supervise and administer the operation of the lottery in accordance with the provisions of this part 2 and the rules of the commission, state fiscal rules, state personnel rules, and state procurement rules, to perform all duties and obligations pursuant to and administer any multistate agreements, and to provide for all expenses incurred in connection with any such multistate agreements unless such expenses are otherwise provided for in such multistate agreements;

(b) To attend meetings of the commission or to appoint a designee to attend in his place;

(c) To employ and direct such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this part 2, but no person shall be employed who has been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101. The director by agreement may secure and, pursuant to section 24-35-210 (2), provide payment for such services as the director may deem necessary from any department, agency, or unit of the state government and may employ and compensate such consultants and technical assistants as may be required and as otherwise permitted by law. The director shall ensure that the division conducts full criminal background investigations of vendors, officers of licensed sales agents, members of the commission, and division employees as are necessary to ensure the security and integrity of the operation of the state lottery. The executive director may request the division of gaming to perform such investigations on members of the commission, division employees, and vendors.

(d) To license, in accordance with the provisions of section 24-35-206 and the rules and regulations of the commission, as agents to sell lottery tickets such persons as in his opinion will best serve the public convenience and promote the sale of tickets or shares;

(e) To deny, suspend, or revoke any lottery license subject to the provisions of section 24-4-104. The director may designate an administrative law judge, pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of this title, to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director.

(f) To confer, as necessary or desirable and not less than once each month, with the commission on the operation of the lottery;

(g) To make available for inspection by the commission or any member of the commission, upon request, all books, records, files, and other information and documents of his office;

(h) To advise the commission and recommend such rules and regulations and such other matters as he deems necessary and advisable to improve the operation of the lottery;

(i) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1002), ch. 31, p. 130, § 2, effective March 20, 2009.)

(j) To make a continuous study and investigation of the operation and the administration of similar laws which may be in effect in other states or countries, any literature on the subject which from time to time may be published or available, and any federal laws which may affect the operation of the lottery, and the reaction of Colorado citizens to existing and potential features of the lottery with a view to recommending or effecting changes that will tend to serve the purposes of this part 2;

(k) Repealed.

(m) To take such action as may be necessary to protect the security and integrity of the lottery games;

(n) To determine the manner of payment of prizes to the holders of winning tickets or shares, which determination shall include consideration of whether a prize should be awarded as a lump sum or as an amortized annuity in light of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto;

(o) To determine such other matters as necessary or desirable for the efficient and economical operation and administration of the lottery; and

(p) To perform any other lawful acts which he and the commission may consider necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part 2.

Editor's note: Subsections (3)(a) and (3)(i) were amended by Senate Bill 00-084. That bill contained a referendum clause and was approved by a vote of the registered electors of the state of Colorado on November 7, 2000. Subsections (3)(a) and (3)(i) were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, December 28, 2000. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

24-35-204.5. Executive director - duties. (1) It shall be the executive director's duty:

(a) To enter into contracts for materials, equipment, and supplies to be used in the operation of the lottery, for the design and installation of games or lotteries, and for promotion of the lottery. No contract shall be legal or enforceable that provides for the management of the lottery or for the entire operation of its games by any private person, firm, or corporation, because management of the lottery and control over the operation of its games shall remain with the state; except that management of and control over the operation of a multistate lottery shall be determined by the terms of a multistate agreement. Except for advertising and promotional contracts, when a contract other than a multistate agreement is awarded, a performance bond satisfactory to the executive director, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state or otherwise secured in a manner satisfactory to the state, in an amount set annually by the executive director shall be delivered to the state and shall become binding on the parties upon execution of the contract.

(b) To annually prepare and submit to the commission a proposed budget for the ensuing fiscal year, which budget shall present a complete financial plan setting forth all proposed expenditures and anticipated revenues of the division. The fiscal year of the division shall commence on July 1 and end on June 30 of each year.

24-35-205. Contractors supplying services, equipment, or materials - gaming equipment - disclosures. (1) Any person, firm, association, or corporation, referred to in this section as "supplier", that enters into a contract to supply services, equipment, or materials or gaming materials or equipment for use in the operation of the state lottery shall first disclose to the division:

(a) In addition to the supplier's business name and address, the names and addresses of the following:
   (I) If the supplier is a partnership, all of the general and limited partners;
   (I.5) If the supplier is a limited liability company, all of the members;
   (II) If the supplier is a trust, the trustee and all persons entitled to receive income or benefit from the trust;
   (III) If the supplier is an association, the members, officers, and directors;
   (IV) If the supplier is a corporation, the officers, directors, and each owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of any equity security or other evidence of ownership of any interest in such corporation; except that, in the case of owners or holders of publicly held equity securities of a publicly traded corporation, only the names and addresses of those owning or holding five percent or more of such publicly held securities need be disclosed;
   (V) If the supplier is a subsidiary or intermediary company, the intermediary company, holding company, or parent company involved therewith, and the officers, directors, and stockholders of each; except that, in the case of owners or holders of publicly held securities of an intermediary company or holding company that is a publicly traded corporation, only the names and addresses of those owning or holding five percent or more of such publicly held securities need be disclosed;

(b) If the supplier is a corporation, all the states in which the supplier is incorporated to do business, and the nature of that business;

(c) Other jurisdictions in which the supplier has contracts to supply gaming materials or equipment;

(d) The details of any criminal conviction, state or federal, of the supplier or any person whose name and address are required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). This paragraph (d) applies irrespective of any of the laws of the state to the contrary regarding expungement or sealed records.

(e) The details of any disciplinary action taken by any state against the supplier or any person whose name and address are required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) regarding any matter related to the selling, leasing, offering for sale or lease, buying, or servicing of gaming materials or equipment;

(f) A statement of the gross receipts realized in the preceding year from the sale, lease, or distribution of gaming materials or equipment to states operating lotteries and to private persons licensed to conduct gambling, which statement shall differentiate that portion of the gross receipts attributable to transactions with states operating lotteries from that portion of the gross receipts attributable to transactions with private persons licensed to conduct gambling;

(g) The name and address of any source of gaming materials or equipment for the supplier;

(h) The number of years the supplier has been in the business of supplying gaming materials or equipment;

(i) Such other information, accompanied by such documents, as the commission, by rule or regulation, may require as being necessary or appropriate in the public interest to accomplish the purposes of this part 2.

(2) If the supplier is a subsidiary or intermediary company, the intermediary company, holding company, or parent company involved therewith shall supply the same information required by this section of the supplier.

(3) The costs of any investigation into the background of the apparent successful bidder shall be assessed against the bidder and shall be paid by the bidder at the time of billing by the state. Such investigation may be conducted by the department or the attorney general, and no contract may be signed until the investigation is completed. Investigators shall have peace officer authority during the period of investigation.

(4) No person, firm, association, or corporation contracting to supply services, equipment, or materials or gaming equipment or materials to the state for use in the operation of the state lottery shall be directly or indirectly connected with any person, firm, association, or corporation licensed as a sales agent under this part 2, any employee of the department of revenue, the director, or the members of the commission.

(5) No contract shall be formed with any supplier if:

(a) A person disclosed pursuant to paragraph (a) or (g) of subsection (1) of this section is a person who has been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, who has engaged in any form of illegal gambling, who is not of good character and reputation relevant to the secure and efficient operation of the lottery, or who has been convicted of a crime involving fraud or misrepresentation. However, when a felony conviction, other than a gambling-related offense, is an issue in the formation of a contract with a supplier, the director may determine that the supplier is otherwise of good character and reputation. The director's determination shall be submitted to a three-member panel who shall approve or reject such determination. The panel's decision shall constitute final agency action for purposes of section 24-4-106. The panel shall be composed of the chairman of the lottery commission, the executive director of the department of revenue, and the secretary of state. Upon such determination and approval, the director may enter into a contract with the supplier.

(b) A disciplinary action disclosed pursuant to paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section was resolved adversely to the supplier.

(6) No contract for the supply of services, equipment, or materials or gaming materials or equipment for use in the operation of the state lottery shall be enforceable against the state if the provisions of this section are not complied with.

(7) In the case of any procurement for a contract for lottery tickets, lottery consulting services, or lottery terminals or equipment having a value of one hundred thousand dollars or more, or in the case of procurement for a contract for drawing equipment regardless of value, each prospective corporate supplier shall, prior to entering into a contract, provide a verified affidavit as to ownership, if any, of any interest, direct or indirect, in any operator of a casino, jai alai fronton, racetrack, or other gaming establishment, a current personal financial statement, and individual federal and state income tax returns from the past three years for each of its officers and each of the directors. The executive director of the department of revenue shall determine, depending upon the organization of each company, by rule or regulation, which officers of any parent, intermediary, and holding companies, and which directors of the supplier or of a parent, intermediary, or holding company, are affiliated with the lottery and are required to file a current personal financial statement and individual federal and state income tax returns from the past three years. The provision of said affidavit, financial statement, and tax returns shall not be required at the time of submission of the prospective corporate supplier's bid or proposal.

(8) (a) Any contractor that has entered into a contract to supply gaming materials or equipment to the lottery shall report to the division any change in, addition to, or deletion from the information disclosed to the division in accordance with the provisions of subsections (1)(a), (1)(d), (1)(e), (2), and (7) of this section. Such report shall be written and addressed to the division and shall be mailed or delivered to the division within thirty days of the date such change in, addition to, or deletion from the information takes place or becomes effective.

(b) Any costs associated with an investigation regarding the information disclosed in such report shall be paid by the contractor who shall remit such costs within thirty days of billing by the division.

(c) (I) If such report contains any information, or if the division receives any information from any source other than the contractor, which information would have prohibited the director from awarding the contract to the contractor if the information had been provided or had been effective before the director awarded the contract, the director may terminate the contract following an investigation.

(II) If such report contains any information, or if any information is discovered by the division from any source other than the contractor, which information would have given the director discretion to refuse to enter the contract had the information been provided or been effective before the director awarded the contract, the director, following an investigation, may terminate the contract.

(III) Any termination shall be accomplished in accordance with the termination provisions of the contract.

(9) Every contract for the supply of gaming equipment or material shall provide the following:

(a) The director shall exclude from lottery facilities an employee of a contractor who has been convicted of a felony.

(b) The director shall also exclude employees of a contractor from participating in activities involving the gaming materials or equipment supplied pursuant to the contract.

(10) (a) Each supplier, prior to entering into a contract to supply gaming materials or equipment, shall submit a set of fingerprints to the division. The division shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the supplier. Nothing in this subsection (10) shall preclude the division from making further inquiries into the background of the supplier.
(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, for purposes of this subsection (10), "supplier" means an individual or any person described in paragraph (a) or (g) of subsection (1) of this section.

(11) The requirements of the procurement code, articles 101 to 112 of this title, shall apply to all contracts entered into by the lottery. The executive director shall ensure that any competitive solicitation process conducted by the lottery is designed to encourage broad vendor competition.

(12) The evaluation team for any bid for a contract for services, equipment, or materials or for the purchase or lease of gaming equipment and materials, the amount of which bid is in excess of one million dollars, shall include an individual who is neither employed by nor affiliated with the division and who possesses specific expertise in the procurement of the services, equipment, or materials or in the purchase or lease of the gaming equipment or materials that are the subject of the bid. Such individual shall be selected by the executive director in accordance with the requirements of this subsection (12).

Cross references: For those who serve as peace officers within the criminal code when enforcing laws and rules regarding the lottery, see § 16-2.5-121.

24-35-206. Licenses. (1) The director shall issue, suspend, revoke, and renew licenses for lottery sales agents pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and rules and regulations adopted by the commission. Licensing rules and regulations shall include requirements relating to the financial responsibility of the licensee, the accessibility of the licensee's place of business or activity to the public, the sufficiency of existing licenses to serve the public interest, the volume of expected sales, the character of the licensee, the security and efficient operation of the lottery, the licensed agent recovery reserve authorized in section 24-35-219, and other matters necessary to protect the public interest and trust in the lottery and to further the sales of lottery tickets or shares. Rules and regulations shall also require that licenses be prominently displayed in areas visible to the public.

(2) (a) A license shall be revoked upon a finding that the licensee:
(I) Has provided false or misleading information to the division;
(II) Has been convicted of any gambling-related offense;
(III) Has endangered the security of the lottery;
(IV) Has become a person whose character is no longer consistent with the protection of the public interest and trust in the lottery; or
(V) Has intentionally refused to pay a prize in his possession to a person entitled to receive the prize under this article.
A license may be suspended, revoked, or not renewed for any of the following causes:

(I) A change of business location;
(II) An insufficient sales volume;
(III) A delinquency in remitting money owed to the lottery;
(IV) The endangering of the efficient operation of the lottery;
(V) Any violation of this part 2 or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this part 2; or

(VI) Conviction of any felony.

Procedures for issuance, suspension, revocation, and renewal of licenses shall be in accordance with article 4 of this title, and the director shall have all the powers and shall be subject to all the requirements of article 4 of this title in conducting any hearings relating to the granting, suspension, revocation, or renewal of licenses. When a felony conviction or a conviction involving fraud is an issue in the issuance, suspension, revocation, or renewal of a lottery sales agent's license, the director's determination shall be submitted to a three-member panel who shall approve or reject such determination. The panel's decision shall constitute final agency action for the purposes of section 24-4-106. The panel shall be composed of the chairman of the lottery commission, the executive director of the department of revenue, and the secretary of state.

Licensed sales agents may include persons, firms, associations, or corporations, profit or nonprofit, but the following are ineligible for any license as a sales agent:

(a) Any person who will engage in business exclusively as a lottery sales agent;
(b) Any person who has been convicted of a gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101;
(c) Any person who is or has been a professional gambler or gambling promoter;
(d) Any person who has engaged in bookmaking or any other form of illegal gambling;
(e) Any person who is not of good character and reputation, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, in the community in which he resides;
(f) Any person who has been convicted of a crime involving misrepresentation, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101;

(g) Any firm or corporation in which a person defined in paragraph (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this subsection (4) has a proprietary, equitable, or credit interest;
(h) Any organization in which a person defined in paragraph (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this subsection (4) is an officer, director, or managing agent, whether compensated or not; or

(i) Any organization in which a person defined in paragraph (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this subsection (4) is to participate in the management or sales of lottery tickets or shares.

Licensed sales agents may include persons, firms, associations, or corporations, profit or nonprofit, but the following may be determined to be ineligible for any license as a sales agent:

(a) Any person who has been convicted of a felony or a crime involving fraud, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101;
(b) Any firm or corporation in which a person defined in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5) has a proprietary, equitable, or credit interest;
(c) Any organization in which a person defined in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5) is an officer, director, or managing agent, whether compensated or not; or
(d) Any organization in which a person defined in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5) is to participate in the management or sales of lottery tickets or shares.

(5) Each licensed sales agent shall keep a complete set of books of account, correspondence, and all other records necessary to show fully the lottery transactions of the licensee, all of which shall be open at all times during business hours for the inspection and examination of the division or its duly authorized representatives. The division may require any licensed sales agent to furnish such information as the division considers necessary for the proper administration of this part 2 and may require an audit to be made of such books of account and records on such occasions as the division considers necessary by an auditor, selected by the director, who shall likewise have access to all such books and records of the licensee, and the licensee may be required to pay the expense thereof.

(6) All licenses for lottery sales agents shall specify the place such sales shall take place, and no license shall be effective upon residential premises.

(7) The costs of any investigation into the background of an applicant seeking a license for a lottery sales agent shall be assessed against the applicant and shall be paid by the applicant at the time of billing by the state. Such investigation may be conducted by the division or the attorney general. Investigators shall have peace officer authority during the period of investigation.

(8) If there are more applications to operate lotto than there are outlets available, then at least one hundred locations will be decided by a drawing by lot with the balance of all lotto outlets to be located at the direction of the division. Any person licensed as a lottery sales agent pursuant to the provision of this section shall be eligible to enter into this drawing by lot to determine if such person will be allowed to operate a lotto game at the same location.

(9) If the rental payments for the business premises of any lottery sales agent are based in whole or in part on a percentage of retail sales, and the computation of retail sales in the rental agreement does not specifically include the sale of tickets or shares in the lottery, the compensation received by the sales agent, which compensation is determined by the commission pursuant to section 24-35-208 (2)(h), and not the gross revenues from the sale of lottery tickets or shares shall be the amount of the retail sale for the purpose of computing the rental payment.

(10) (a) Each applicant for a lottery sales agent license, with the submission of such application, shall submit a set of fingerprints to the division. The division shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the applicant. Nothing in this subsection (10) shall preclude the division from making further inquiries into the background of the applicant.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (10), "applicant" means an individual or each officer or director of a firm, association, or corporation that is applying for a license pursuant to this section.
24-35-207. Colorado lottery commission - creation. (1) There is hereby created, within the state lottery division, the Colorado lottery commission, consisting of five members, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States and residents of this state, appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. No member shall have been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101. No more than three of the five members shall be members of the same political party. A chairman and a vice-chairman of the commission shall be chosen from the membership by a majority of the members at the first meeting of each fiscal year.

(2) At least one member of the commission shall have been a law enforcement officer for not less than five years; at least one member shall be an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for not less than five years; and at least one member shall be a certified public accountant who has practiced accountancy in Colorado for at least five years.

(3) Initial members shall be appointed to the commission by the governor as follows: One member to serve until July 1, 1983, one member to serve until July 1, 1984, one member to serve until July 1, 1985, and two members to serve until July 1, 1986. All subsequent appointments shall be for terms of four years, subject to continuation of the division pursuant to section 24-35-218. No member of the commission shall be eligible to serve more than two terms.

(4) Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment.

(5) Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor at any time and for any reason.

(6) Commission members shall receive as compensation for their services up to one hundred dollars per month for each month in which there is an official commission meeting and shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. Upon appointment, and prior to confirmation by the senate, each member shall file with the secretary of state a financial disclosure statement in the form required to be filed by elected state officials. Such statement shall be renewed as of each January 1 during the member's term of office. The chairperson of the lottery commission shall also be reimbursed for necessary traveling and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties related to his or her participation on the three-member panel established in sections 24-35-205 (5)(a) and 24-35-206 (3).

(7) (a) The commission shall hold at least one meeting each month and such additional meetings as may be prescribed by rules of the commission. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chairman, any two commission members, or the director, upon delivery of seventy-two hours' written notice to each member. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-6-402, in emergency situations in which a majority of the commission certifies that exigencies of time require that the commission meet without delay, the requirements of public notice and of seventy-two hours' written notice to members may be dispensed with, and commission members as well as the public shall receive such notice as is reasonable under the circumstances.
(b) For purposes of part 4 of article 6 of this title, the commission shall be a state public body, as defined in section 24-6-402 (1)(d), regardless of whether the state lottery division and the Colorado lottery commission constitute an enterprise pursuant to section 24-35-202 (1).

(8) A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the commission shall be required for any final determination by the commission. The commission shall keep a complete and accurate audio record of all its meetings for a period of at least three years.

24-35-208. Commission - powers and duties - rules. (1) In addition to any other powers and duties set forth in this part 2, the commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate rules governing the establishment and operation of the lottery as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this part 2. The director shall prepare and submit to the commission written recommendations concerning proposed rules for this purpose.

(b) To conduct hearings upon complaints charging violations of this part 2 or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this part 2, other than any hearings relating to the granting, suspension, revocation, or renewal of licenses for lottery sales agents, and to conduct such other hearings as may be provided by rules of the commission;

(c) To carry on a continuous study and investigation of the lottery throughout the state for the purpose of ascertaining any defects in this part 2 or in the rules and regulations issued under this part 2 whereby any abuses in the administration and operation of the lottery or any evasion of this part 2 or the rules and regulations may arise or be practiced, for the purpose of formulating recommendations for changes in this part 2 and the rules and regulations to prevent such abuses and evasions, to guard against the use of this part 2 and the rules and regulations as a cloak for the carrying on of organized gambling and crime, and to insure that the law and rules and regulations shall be in such form and be so administered as to serve the true purposes of this part 2;

(d) To report immediately to the governor, the attorney general, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the minority leaders of both houses, and such other state officers, as from time to time the commission deems appropriate, any matters which it deems to require an immediate change in the laws of this state in order to prevent abuses and evasions of this part 2 or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder or to rectify undesirable conditions in connection with the administration or operation of the lottery;

(e) To require such special reports from the director as it may consider desirable;

(f) Repealed.

(g) To authorize and issue revenue bonds pursuant to the provisions of section 24-35-221;

(h) To annually set the amount of the performance bond required of persons entering into contracts to provide materials, equipment, or supplies used in the operation of the lottery or to design or install games or lotteries; and
To investigate and participate in multistate agreements and to regulate multistate lotteries. The director shall act as the commission's agent in such investigations if the commission so directs.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, rules promulgated pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) The types of lotteries to be conducted, but no lottery conducted under this part 2 other than instant scratch games shall be based upon the game of chance commonly known as bingo, nor shall any lottery be conducted that depends upon the outcome of any athletic contest except races at state-licensed dog or horse tracks if approved by the Colorado racing commission;

(b) The price of tickets or shares in the lottery;

(c) The numbers, sizes, and payment of the prizes on the winning tickets or shares;

(d) The manner of selecting the winning tickets or shares. All drawings shall be held in public and witnessed by an independent auditor employed by a certified public accountant firm, and all drawing equipment used in such public drawings must be examined prior to and after each public drawing by an independent auditor employed by a certified public accountant firm.

(e) The frequency of the drawing or selection of winning tickets or shares, without limitation;

(f) Without limit to number, the types of locations at which tickets or shares may be sold; except that the commission shall not promulgate any rule, issue any order, or adopt any policy or interpretation before July 1, 2017, that authorizes or permits the purchase of tickets, including instant scratch tickets, or shares by means of the internet, telephone, computer, or any other electronic device or equipment that the purchaser can access or use to purchase lottery tickets other than by doing so personally at a licensed lottery sales agent's physical place of business;

(g) The method to be used in selling tickets or shares, but all sales shall be on a cash-only basis;

(h) The manner and amount of compensation, if any, to be paid licensed sales agents necessary to provide for the adequate availability of tickets or shares to prospective buyers and for the convenience of the public;

(i) The manner in which lottery sales revenues are to be collected;

(j) and (k) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1002), ch. 31, p. 133, § 6, effective March 20, 2009.)

(3) (a) The commission shall promulgate rules pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for the general administration of all instant scratch games. The rules shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(I) The method to be used in selling instant scratch game tickets, but all sales shall be on a cash-only basis;

(II) The method of paying prizes on winning instant scratch game tickets; and

(III) The manner and amount of compensation, if any, to be paid to licensed sales agents necessary to provide for the adequate availability of instant scratch game tickets to prospective buyers and for the convenience of the public.

(b) (I) The commission shall establish and approve all instructions governing instant scratch games. The instructions shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(A) The method for determining instant scratch game winners;
(B) The establishment of claim periods;
(C) The price of instant scratch game tickets;
(D) The numbers and sizes of prizes; and
(E) The method for selecting and validating winning instant scratch game tickets.

(II) The commission shall publish all approved instructions governing instant scratch games in a clearly identifiable section on the official website of the state lottery. The published instructions shall be binding on purchasers and claimants of instant scratch game tickets.

(III) The procedural rule-making requirements of section 24-4-103 shall not apply to the commission's duties specified in this paragraph (b).

Editor's note: Subsection (1)(a) was amended and subsection (1)(i) was enacted by Senate Bill 00-084. That bill contained a referendum clause and was approved by a vote of the registered electors of the state of Colorado on November 7, 2000. Subsections (1)(a) and (1)(i) were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, December 28, 2000. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

24-35-209. Conflict of interest. (1) Members of the commission and employees of the division are declared to be positions of public trust and, therefore, in order to insure the confidence of the people of the state in the integrity of the division, its employees, and the commission, the following restrictions shall apply:
(a) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of their immediate families, shall have any personal pecuniary interest in any lottery or in the sale of any lottery tickets or shares or in any corporation, association, or firm contracting with the state to supply gaming equipment or materials for use in the operation of the lottery or in any corporation, association, or firm licensed as a sales agent under this part 2. Employment by any political subdivision, or service on the governing body or on any board, agency, or commission of any political subdivision, which is entitled to receive a portion of the proceeds of the lottery shall not constitute an interest prohibited by this section, except for the purposes of appointment to or service on the commission.
(b) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of their immediate families, shall receive any gift, gratuity, employment, or other thing of value from any person, corporation, association, or firm that contracts with or that offers services, supplies, materials, or equipment used by the division in the normal course of its operations.

(c) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of their immediate families, shall purchase any ticket for any lottery conducted under this part 2; except that lottery investigators may purchase lottery tickets when authorized to do so by the director for investigative purposes. No person described in this paragraph (c) shall be eligible to receive any prize awarded in such a lottery.

(d) No person, corporation, or firm that contracts with the division or that offers services, supplies, materials, or equipment used by the division in the normal course of its operations shall offer any gift, gratuity, employment, or other thing of value to any commission member, employee of the division, or members of their immediate families except as authorized by rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1).

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1140, § 5, effective July 1, 2004.)

(f) No member of the commission or employee of the division who terminates his or her relationship with the commission or the division shall, for a period of one year from the date of termination of membership on the commission or employment with the division, as applicable, accept employment with any lottery vendor or represent any lottery vendor before the division or the commission.

(g) The commission shall adopt by rule a code of ethics that shall be binding upon all of its members. Each member of the commission shall complete training at least once each year on the code and shall further certify on an annual basis that he or she is knowledgeable about the code and has no conflicts of interest proscribed by this section.

24-35-210. Lottery fund. (1) There is hereby created, in the office of the state treasurer, the lottery fund. The initial appropriation to the division, and all subsequent revenues of the division not earlier paid as prizes, shall be paid into the lottery fund. All expenses of the division, including the expenses of organized crime investigation and prosecution relating to the lottery, shall be paid from the lottery fund. For the purposes of this section and section 24-35-208, "expenses" do not include amounts expended for lottery prizes. Prizes for the lottery shall be paid only from the lottery fund or from moneys collected from the sale of lottery tickets or shares. Amounts for prizes and expenses are hereby appropriated to the division, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(1.5) The division shall deposit all liquidated damages into the lottery fund, and any revenues received from liquidated damages shall not be expended by the division unless appropriated by the general assembly. The division shall not receive any goods or services in lieu of an assessment of liquidated damages, nor shall the division require a vendor to purchase goods and services in lieu of an assessment of liquidated damages.

(2) Expenses of the division shall be paid from the lottery fund only as appropriated by the general assembly.
(3) Upon request, it is the duty of the state treasurer to report to the director or the commission the amount of money on hand in the lottery fund. All accounts and expenditures from the lottery fund shall be certified by the director and paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the controller. The controller is authorized as directed to draw warrants payable out of the lottery fund upon vouchers therefor properly certified.

(4) Repealed.

(4.1) (a) The amount to be transferred from the lottery fund to the conservation trust fund shall be forty percent of the net proceeds of the lottery for the preceding fiscal quarter after payment of the expenses of the division and any prizes for the lottery and after reserving sufficient moneys, as of the end of the fiscal year, to ensure the operation of the lottery for the ensuing fiscal year. The moneys reserved by the lottery shall be held in cash and investments. Beginning with the fourth quarter of fiscal year 1998-99, and each fiscal year thereafter, distributions of net lottery proceeds to the conservation trust fund shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 33-60-104 (1)(a), C.R.S.

(b)(I) Beginning with the first quarter of fiscal year 1998-99 and each fiscal year thereafter, distributions of net lottery proceeds to the division of parks and wildlife shall be made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 33-60-104, C.R.S.

(II) The appropriation of moneys from the state lottery for capital construction shall be consistent with part 13 of article 3 of title 2, C.R.S., until such time as said part 13 is repealed.

(c) The lottery money available for appropriation to the division of parks and wildlife pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (4.1) shall be appropriated and expended for the acquisition and development of new state parks, new state recreation areas, or new recreational trails, for the expansion of existing state parks, state recreation areas, or recreational trails, or for capital improvements of both new and existing state parks, state recreation areas, or recreational trails. Except as provided in section 33-60-105, C.R.S., in addition to appropriation for the division's capital construction budget, said lottery money may be appropriated for the division's operating budget for expenditures attributable to the maintenance and operation of state parks, state recreation areas, or recreational trails, or any portions thereof, that have been acquired or developed with lottery money.

(d) This subsection (4.1) shall become effective on September 1, 1998, or on any earlier date on which the lease-purchase obligations undertaken by the state pursuant to subsection (4) of this section are discharged.

(5) Repealed.

(6) The state treasurer shall invest the moneys in the lottery fund so long as said moneys are timely available to pay the expenses of the division, to pay the prizes to the lottery winners, to make authorized transfers to the conservation trust fund, and to fund the annual appropriations authorized by subsection (4.1) of this section. Investments shall be those otherwise permitted by state law, and interest or any other return on the investments shall be paid into the lottery fund.

(7) The division shall be operated so that, after the initial state appropriation, it shall be self-sustaining.

(8) No claim for the payment of any expense of the division or the payment of any lottery prize can be made unless it is against the lottery fund or against moneys collected from the sale of lottery tickets or shares. No other moneys of the state of Colorado shall be used or obligated to pay the expenses of the division or prizes of the lottery.
(9) The total disbursements for lottery prizes shall be no less than fifty percent of the total revenue accruing from the sale of lottery tickets or shares.

(10) (a) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2005, p. 279, § 11, effective August 8, 2005.)

(II) Net lottery proceeds to be distributed to the conservation trust fund, as computed pursuant to this section, shall be transferred to the conservation trust subaccount of the lottery fund, which subaccount is hereby created, once each month. Such transfers shall be made from net lottery proceeds reflected in the monthly statement required to be filed pursuant to section 24-35-204 (3)(k) for the period ending sixty days prior to each monthly distribution. The state treasurer shall invest all moneys in the conservation trust subaccount in investments permitted by state law. Notwithstanding subsection (6) of this section, interest or any other return on such investments shall be distributed to the conservation trust fund with other moneys in the conservation trust subaccount pursuant to section 33-60-103, C.R.S.

(III) Beginning with the first quarter of fiscal year 1998-99, distributions shall be made on a quarterly basis in accordance with the provisions of section 33-60-104, C.R.S., with the distribution of net lottery proceeds for the first quarter occurring on December 1 of such fiscal year, distribution of net lottery proceeds for the second quarter occurring on March 1 of such fiscal year, distribution of net lottery proceeds for the third quarter occurring on June 1 of such fiscal year, and distribution of net lottery proceeds for the fourth quarter occurring on September 1 following the close of such fiscal year.

(b) Repealed.

(11) The general assembly may establish priorities in the general appropriation act for expenditures for projects to be financed from net lottery proceeds appropriated for capital construction. Such priorities shall govern the use of quarterly distributions from the lottery fund in order to assure that available revenues are used to fund higher priority projects before they are used to fund lower priority projects.

Editor's note: (1) Subsections (4)(f)(I)(C) and (4)(f)(I)(C.5) were erroneously numbered as (1)(f)(I)(C) and (1)(f)(I)(C.5) when amended and enacted by HB 90-1327 and have been renumbered on revision for correct placement.
(2) Subsection (4)(h) provided for the repeal of subsection (4), effective September 1, 1998. (See L. 88, p. 944.) Subsection (10)(b)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (10)(b), effective September 1, 1998. (See L. 89, p. 1049.)

Cross references: For the conservation trust fund, see § 29-21-101 (2).

24-35-211. Audits and annual reports. (1) The lottery fund shall be audited at least annually by or under the direction of the state auditor, who shall submit a report of the audit to the legislative audit committee. The annual audit shall include compliance with section 3 of article XXVII of the state constitution. The expenses of the audit shall be paid from the lottery fund.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The director shall evaluate the lottery's expenditures to determine areas where the expenditures may be reduced with the goal of increasing net proceeds as a percentage of sales paid to the beneficiaries. Not later than July 1, 2005, the director shall report to the governor, the legislative audit committee, and the joint budget committee on any recommendations he or she desires to make based upon the evaluation.

24-35-212. Prizes. (1) The right of any person to a prize is not assignable; except that payment of any prize may be paid to:

(a) The estate of a deceased prizewinner; or

(b) Any person pursuant to a voluntary assignment of the right to receive future annual prize payments, in whole or in part, if the assignment is made pursuant to an appropriate judicial order of the district court located in the city and county of Denver or the judicial district where the assignor resides or where the commission's headquarters are located.

(1.5) (a) A copy of the petition for an order described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section and of all notices of any hearing in the matter shall be served on the executive director no later than ten days prior to any hearing or entry of any order.

(b) The commission may intervene as of right in any such proceeding solely to protect the interests of the commission but shall not be deemed an indispensable or necessary party.

(c) The court receiving the petition is authorized to issue an order approving the assignment and directing the executive director to pay to the assignee all future prize payments so assigned upon finding that all of the following conditions have been met:

(I) The assignment has been memorialized in writing and executed by the assignor and is subject to Colorado law;

(II) The assignor provides a sworn declaration to the court attesting to the facts that the assignor has had the opportunity to be represented by independent legal counsel in connection with the assignment, has received independent financial and tax advice concerning the effects of the assignment, and is of sound mind and not acting under duress; and
(III) The proposed assignment does not and will not include or cover payments or portions of payments subject to offsets pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, unless appropriate provision is made in the order to satisfy the obligations giving rise to the offset.

(d) Within ten days of receipt of a certified copy of a court order granted pursuant to this subsection (1.5), the executive director shall acknowledge in writing to both the assignor and the assignee the executive director's agreement to make the payments in accordance with the provisions of the order. The executive director shall make such payments pursuant to said order.

(e) The commission shall not adopt rules and regulations for the implementation of this subsection (1.5) that are more restrictive than the provisions of this subsection (1.5), that impose requirements in addition to those set forth in this subsection (1.5), or that are inconsistent with the expressed intent of the general assembly.

(f) The executive director is authorized to establish a reasonable fee to defray any administrative expenses of the executive director associated with assignments made pursuant to this section. The fee amounts shall reflect the direct and indirect costs associated with processing the assignments.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of this part 2 to the contrary, the commission may authorize licensed sales agents to retain all prizes pursuant to the rules of the commission for the persons entitled to such prizes for one hundred eighty days after the termination dates of the lottery games for which the prizes were won. Such prizes shall be held in trust on behalf of the division for payment to the persons so entitled. No separate accounting of such prizes needs to be made by the licensed sales agent unless requested by the director. Any person who fails to claim a prize during the one-hundred-eighty-day period shall forfeit all rights to the prize, and the amount of the prize shall become the property of the licensee. All other unclaimed prizes shall be retained by the division for the persons entitled to such prizes for the one-hundred-eighty-day period. Any person who fails to claim a prize which is held by the division or its designee during such time shall forfeit all rights to the prize, and the amount of the prize shall remain in the lottery fund.

(3) The division shall be discharged of all liability upon the payment of any prize pursuant to this part 2.

(4) Any prize won by a person under eighteen years of age who purchased a winning ticket in violation of section 24-35-214 (1)(c) shall be forfeited. If a person otherwise entitled to a prize or a winning ticket is under eighteen years of age, the director may direct payment of the prize by delivery to an adult member of the minor's family or a guardian of the minor of a check or draft payable to the order of such minor.

(5) (a) Prior to the payment of any lottery cash prize or non-cash prize required by rule and regulation of the commission to be paid only at the lottery offices and subject to state and federal tax reporting, the department of revenue shall require the winner to submit the winner's social security number and federal employer identification number, if applicable, and shall check the social security number of the winner with those certified by the department of human services for the purpose of the state lottery winnings offset as provided in section 26-13-118, C.R.S. For a lottery cash prize, beginning January 1, 2012, the department of revenue shall also check the social security number of the winner with those certified by the department of personnel for the purpose of the state lottery winnings offset as provided in section 24-30-202.7.
The social security number and the federal employer identification number shall not become part of the public record of the department of revenue. If the social security number of a lottery winner appears among those certified by the department of human services, the department of revenue shall obtain the current address of the winner, notify the department of human services, and suspend the payment of the cash prize or non-cash prize until the requirements of section 26-13-118, C.R.S., are met. If, after consulting with the department of human services, the department of revenue determines that the lottery winner owes a child support debt or child support costs pursuant to section 14-14-104, C.R.S., or owes child support arrearages as part of an enforcement action pursuant to article 5 of title 14, C.R.S., or owes child support arrearages or child support costs which are the subject of enforcement services provided pursuant to section 26-13-106, C.R.S., then the department of revenue shall withhold from the amount of the cash prize paid to the lottery winner an amount equal to the amount of child support debt, child support arrearages, and child support costs which are due or, if the amount of the cash prize is less than or equal to the amount of child support debt, arrearages, and costs due, shall withhold the entire amount of the lottery cash prize. Any cash prize so withheld for the department of human services shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for disbursement by the department of human services as directed in section 26-13-118, C.R.S. If the social security number of a lottery cash prize winner appears among those certified by the department of personnel, the department of revenue shall obtain the current address of the winner, notify the department of personnel, and suspend the payment of the cash prize until the requirements of section 24-30-202.7 are met. If, after consulting with the department of personnel, the department of revenue determines that the lottery winner owes an outstanding debt that has been certified pursuant to section 24-30-202.7, then the department of revenue shall withhold from the amount of the cash prize paid to the lottery winner an amount equal to the amount of the outstanding debt or, if the amount of the cash prize is less than or equal to the amount of the outstanding debt, shall withhold the entire amount of the lottery cash prize. Any cash prize so withheld for the department of personnel shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for disbursement in accordance with section 24-30-202.7 (4).

(b) A lottery winner of a non-cash prize who owes child support debt, child support arrearages, or child support costs shall forfeit the prize, unless:
   (I) (A) All of the child support debt, child support arrearages, and child support costs are paid by the lottery winner within ten working days after claiming the suspended non-cash prize; and
   (B) The department of human services has notified the department of revenue that payment has been received; or
   (II) An administrative review is requested pursuant to section 26-13-118 (2), C.R.S., and the requirements set forth in paragraph (c) of this subsection (5) are met.

   (c) If an administrative review is requested pursuant to section 26-13-118 (2), C.R.S., the non-cash prize shall remain suspended until the department of human services notifies the department of revenue that the administrative review process has been completed pursuant to rules of the state board of human services. If at the administrative review it is determined that the winner owes child support debt, child support arrearages, or child support costs, the winner shall forfeit the non-cash prize unless:
(I) The winner pays the child support debt, child support arrearages, and child support costs in full within ten days after the date of the letter informing the lottery winner of the results of the administrative review; and

(II) The department of human services notifies the department of revenue that payment has been received.

(d) If forfeited by the lottery winner, the non-cash prize shall be sold at fair market value. The proceeds of the sale shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for disbursement in accordance with the requirements of section 26-13-118(3), C.R.S.

(e) (I) Notwithstanding any provision of this subsection (5) to the contrary, if, in addition to owing an outstanding debt, a lottery winner owes either restitution as described in section 24-35-212.5 or a child support debt or arrearages or child support costs as described in this subsection (5), any lottery winnings offset against such restitution or child support debt or arrearages or child support costs shall take priority and be applied first. If, in such instance, the lottery winner owes both types of debts, both offsets shall take priority and the provisions of section 24-35-212.5(3) shall apply.

(II) The remaining lottery winning moneys, if any, after the offsets described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (e) shall be applied toward the payment of outstanding debt and processed in accordance with this section.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, all or any part of a prize won by a person may be pledged as collateral for a loan; however, the pledging of all or any part of such prize creates no liability to the state of Colorado.

Editor's note: Subsection (5) was amended in section 2 of House Bill 03-1036, effective August 6, 2003. However, those amendments will not take effect due to the repeal of said section 2 by Senate Bill 03-079, effective April 22, 2003.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 1995 act amending subsections (1) and (6) and enacting subsections (1.5) and (1.6), see section 1 of chapter 189, Session Laws of Colorado 1995.

24-35-212.5. Prizes - lottery winnings offset for restitution. (1) Prior to the payment of any lottery winnings required by rule and regulation of the commission to be paid only at the lottery offices, the department of revenue shall require the winner to submit the winner's social security number and federal employer identification number, if applicable, and shall check the social security number of the winner with those certified by the judicial department for the purpose of the state lottery winnings offset as provided in section 16-18.5-106.5, C.R.S. The social security number and the federal employer identification number shall not become part of the public record of the department of revenue.

(2) If the social security number of a lottery winner appears among those certified by the judicial department, the department of revenue shall suspend the payment of such winnings until the requirements of section 16-18.5-106.5, C.R.S., are met. If, after consulting with the judicial department, the department of revenue determines that the lottery winner is obligated to pay the amounts certified under 16-18.5-106.5, C.R.S., then the department of revenue shall withhold from the amount of winnings paid to the lottery winner an amount equal to the amount of restitution which is due or, if the amount of winnings is less than or equal to the amount of restitution due, shall withhold the entire amount of the lottery winnings. Any moneys so withheld shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for disbursement as directed in section 16-18.5-106.5 (3), C.R.S.

(3) If a lottery winner owes a child support debt or arrearages or child support costs as described in section 24-35-212 (5), and also owes restitution as described in this section, the lottery winnings offset against the child support debt or arrearages or costs shall take priority and be applied first. The remaining lottery winning moneys, if any, shall be applied toward the payment of outstanding restitution and processed in accordance with this section.

24-35-213. Legal services. (1) The attorney general shall provide legal services for the division and the commission at the request of the director or the commission. The attorney general shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that there is continuity in the legal services provided and that the attorneys providing legal services to the division and the commission have expertise in such field.

(2) The director shall cause the attorney general to make investigations and to prosecute and defend, on behalf of and in the name of the division, suits and proceedings for any of the purposes necessary and proper for carrying out the functions of the division.

(3) Expenses of the attorney general incurred in the performance of his responsibilities under this section shall be paid from the lottery fund.

24-35-214. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person:

(a) To sell a lottery ticket or share at a price greater than or less than that fixed by the commission; however, a lottery ticket or share which is offered at no additional charge in conjunction with the sale of a product or service shall not be deemed to violate this section unless the offer is made to a person under eighteen years of age;

(b) To sell a lottery ticket or share unless authorized or licensed by the director to do so, but this shall not prevent lottery tickets or shares from being given as gifts;
(c) To sell a lottery ticket or share to any person under eighteen years of age or for any person under eighteen years of age to purchase a lottery ticket or share, but this shall not prevent receipt of a lottery ticket or share given as a gift to a person under eighteen years of age;

(d) To sell a lottery ticket or share at any place other than that place authorized and specified on the license.

24-35-215. Penalties.

(1) In addition to any other penalties which may apply, any person violating any of the provisions of section 24-35-214 commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(2) Any person violating the sale restrictions of section 24-35-214 (1)(c) may also be proceeded against pursuant to section 18-6-701, C.R.S., for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

(3) Any person issuing, suspending, revoking, or renewing contracts pursuant to section 24-35-205 or licenses pursuant to section 24-35-206 for any personal pecuniary gain or any thing of value as defined in section 18-1-901 (3)(r), C.R.S., or any person violating any of the provisions of section 24-35-209, commits a class 3 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(4) Any person violating any of the provisions of this part 2 relating to disclosure by providing any false or misleading information commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

24-35-216. Advertising.

Any promotional advertising regarding the lottery shall set forth the odds of winning and the average return on the dollar in prize money to the public. All promotional advertising expenses shall be paid from the lottery fund.

24-35-217. Other laws inapplicable.

Any other state or local law in conflict with this part 2 is inapplicable, but this section does not supersede or affect part 6 of article 21 of this title 24.

24-35-218. Division subject to termination. (1) (a) Unless continued or reestablished by the general assembly acting by bill, the division shall terminate on July 1, 2024.

(b) (I) The state auditor shall conduct annual financial audits of the division.

(II) At least once every five years, and more frequently in the state auditor's discretion, the state auditor shall conduct an analysis and evaluation of the performance of the division and shall submit a written report, together with such supporting materials as may be requested, to the general assembly. The first such report shall be completed by January 1, 2004.

(c) In conducting the analysis and evaluation required by subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), the state auditor shall take into consideration, but not be limited to considering, the following factors:

(I) The amount of revenue generated by the lottery for its beneficiaries as specified in article XXVII of the state constitution;

(II) The administrative and other expense of lottery dollar collections as compared to revenue derived;

(III) An evaluation of the contracts, and compliance with such contracts, of lottery equipment contractors and licensed sales agents;

(IV) Whether there has been an increase in organized crime related to gambling within the state;

(V) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1142, § 9, effective July 1, 2004.)

(VI) A report on the results of the analysis prepared by the division on the socioeconomic profile of persons who play the lottery, including information comparing the results of past analyses to assess the movement of persons from various categories;

(VII) Whether the commission encourages public participation in its decisions rather than participation only by the people whom it regulates;

(VIII) An evaluation of the effectiveness and efficiency of the division's complaint, investigation, and disciplinary procedures;

(IX) Whether the division performs its statutory duties efficiently and effectively;

(X) Whether administrative or statutory changes are necessary to improve the operation of the lottery in the best interests of the state's citizens;

(XI) Any other matters of concern about the operation and functioning of the lottery; and

(XII) A report on any gifts and gratuities received by members of the commission and employees of the division.

(d) Prior to any revision of the division's functions, a committee of reference in each house of the general assembly shall hold a public hearing thereon to consider the report provided by the state auditor, as required by subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (1). The hearing shall include the factors set forth in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1).

(2) Repealed.

L. 2000: (1)(b), (1)(c), and (1)(d) repealed, p. 1550, § 23, effective August 2. L. 2002:
24-35-219. Licensed agent recovery reserve - payments from reserve - revocation of license. (1) There is hereby created in the lottery fund the licensed agent recovery reserve, which shall be used under the direction of the division in the manner prescribed in this section.

(2) (a) Beginning January 1, 1988, each licensed sales agent shall pay to the division a fee.

(b) The amount of such fee and the frequency with which it shall be collected shall be established by the commission pursuant to rule and regulation.

(c) All fees collected by the division pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the lottery fund, which fees shall be maintained administratively as part of the licensed agent recovery reserve. Any interest earned on the investment of such fees in the fund shall be credited at least annually to said reserve.

(d) No moneys shall be appropriated from the general fund for the payment of any expenses incurred under this section, and no such expenses shall be charged against the state.

(3) When a licensed sales agent has failed to remit any moneys owed to the lottery under rule and regulation, the division shall transfer moneys in the amount equivalent to the unpaid amount from the licensed agent recovery reserve to the lottery fund.

(4) If the division is required to make a transfer pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the director shall revoke the sales agent's license in accordance with the provisions of section 24-35-206 (3). If the license is revoked, the sales agent shall not be eligible to be licensed again until he has repaid in full the amount paid from the licensed agent recovery reserve.

24-35-220. Additional facilities. (Repealed)

24-35-221. Revenue bonds - authority - issuance - requirements - covenants. (1) (a) The commission may, by resolution which meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, authorize and issue revenue bonds in an amount not to exceed ten million dollars in the aggregate for expenses of the division. Such bonds may be issued only after approval by both houses of the general assembly either by act or joint resolution and after approval by the governor in accordance with section 39 of article V of the state constitution. Such bonds shall be payable only from moneys allocated to the division for expenses of the division pursuant to section 24-35-210 (1).

(b) All bonds issued by the commission shall provide that:

(I) No holder of any such bond may compel the state or any subdivision thereof to exercise its appropriation or taxing power; and
(II) The bond does not constitute a debt of the state and is payable only from the net revenues allocated to the division for expenses as designated in such bond.

(2) (a) Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under the terms of this section shall:
   (I) State the date of issuance of the bonds;
   (II) State a maturity date or dates during a period not to exceed thirty years from the date of issuance of the bonds;
   (III) State the interest rate or rates on, and the denomination or denominations of, the bonds;
   (IV) State the medium of payment of the bonds and the place where the bonds will be paid.
(b) Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under the terms of this section may:
   (I) State that the bonds are to be issued in one or more series;
   (II) State a rank or priority of the bonds;
   (III) Provide for redemption of the bonds prior to maturity, with or without premium.
(3) Any bonds issued pursuant to the terms of this section may be sold at public or private sale. If bonds are to be sold at a public sale, the commission shall advertise the sale in such manner as the commission deems appropriate. All bonds issued pursuant to the terms of this section shall be sold at a price not less than the par value thereof, together with all accrued interest to the date of delivery.

(4) Notwithstanding any provisions of the law to the contrary, all bonds issued pursuant to this section are negotiable.

(5) (a) A resolution pertaining to issuance of bonds under this section may contain covenants as to:
   (I) The purpose to which the proceeds of sale of the bonds may be applied and to the use and disposition thereof;
   (II) Such matters as are customary in the issuance of revenue bonds including, without limitation, the issuance and lien position of other or additional bonds; and
   (III) Books of account and the inspection and audit thereof.
(b) Any resolution made pursuant to the terms of this section shall be deemed a contract with the holders of the bonds, and the duties of the commission under such resolution shall be enforceable by any appropriate action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) Bonds issued under this section and bearing the signatures of members of the commission in office on the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding obligations, regardless of whether, prior to the delivery thereof and payment therefor, any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be members of the commission.

(7) (a) Except as otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds, all bonds of the same issue under this section shall have a prior and paramount lien on the net revenues pledged therefor. The commission may provide for preferential security for any bonds, both principal and interest, to be issued under this section to the extent deemed feasible and desirable by such commission over any bonds that may be issued thereafter.
(b) Bonds of the same issue or series issued under this section shall be equally and ratably secured, without priority by reason of number, date, sale, execution, or delivery, by a lien on the net revenue pledged in accordance with the terms of the resolution authorizing the bonds.
24-35-222. Immunity. A lottery sales agent licensed pursuant to section 24-35-206 shall not be liable for monetary damages or otherwise for the sale of a lottery ticket that complies with this part 2, rules promulgated pursuant to this part 2, or orders issued by the director.

PART 3

REGISTRATION OF TRADE NAMES

24-35-301 to 24-35-305. (Repealed)

Editor's note: (1) This part 3 was added in 1983. For amendments to this part 3 prior to its repeal in 2006, consult the 2005 Colorado Revised Statutes and the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) Section 24-35-305 provided for the repeal of this part 3, effective May 30, 2006. (See L. 2004, p. 1543.)

PART 4

LIQUOR ENFORCEMENT DIVISION AND STATE LICENSING AUTHORITY - FUNDING

24-35-401. Liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund. There is hereby created in the state treasury the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund. The fund shall consist of moneys transferred thereto in accordance with sections 12-46-105 (2) and 12-47-502 (1), C.R.S. The general assembly shall make annual appropriations from the fund for a portion of the direct and indirect costs of the liquor enforcement division and the state licensing authority in the administration and enforcement of articles 46, 47, and 48 of title 12, C.R.S. Any money remaining in the fund at the end of each fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund. The fund shall be maintained in accordance with section 24-75-402.

24-35-501. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds that:
   (a) The use of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products creates dangerous risks to the health of the people of the state of Colorado;
   (b) Studies have shown that most people who use cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products started using them before the age of eighteen; and
   (c) The costs of health care for persons suffering from diseases caused by the use of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products are borne by all people of the state of Colorado.

   (2) The general assembly also recognizes that:
      (a) Federal regulations now require states, through designated state agencies, to develop programs to reduce the use of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products by minors as demonstrated by random inspection of businesses that sell cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products at retail.
      (b) to (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2014.)

24-35-502. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (1) "Cigarette, tobacco product, or nicotine product" has the same meaning as provided in section 18-13-121, C.R.S.
   (2) "Department" means the department of revenue.
   (3) "Division" means the division of liquor enforcement within the department.
   (4) "Hearing officer" means a person designated by the executive director of the department to conduct hearings held pursuant to section 24-35-505.
   (5) "Minor" means a person under eighteen years of age.
   (6) "Retailer" means a business of any kind at a specific location that sells cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to a user or consumer.

24-35-503. Sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors or in vending machines prohibited - warning sign - small quantity sales prohibited. (1) No retailer shall sell or permit the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to a minor; except that it is not a violation if the retailer establishes that the person selling the cigarette, tobacco product, or nicotine product was presented with and reasonably relied upon a photographic identification that identified the person purchasing the cigarette, tobacco product, or nicotine product as being eighteen years of age or older.

   (2) No retailer shall sell or offer to sell any cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products by use of a vending machine or other coin-operated machine; except that cigarettes may be sold at retail through vending machines only in:
      (a) Factories, businesses, offices, or other places not open to the general public;
      (b) Places to which minors are not permitted access; or
(c) Establishments where the vending machine dispenses cigarettes through the operation of a device that enables an adult employee of the establishment to prevent the dispensing of cigarettes to minors.

(3) Any person who sells or offers to sell cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products shall display a warning sign as specified in this subsection (3). The warning sign must be displayed in a prominent place in the building and on any vending or coin-operated machine at all times, must have a minimum height of three inches and a width of six inches, and must read as follows:

WARNING

IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS OF AGE TO PURCHASE CIGARETTES, TOBACCO PRODUCTS, OR NICOTINE PRODUCTS, AND, UPON CONVICTION, A $100.00 FINE MAY BE IMPOSED.

(4) No retailer shall sell or offer to sell individual cigarettes, or any pack or container of cigarettes containing fewer than twenty cigarettes, or roll-your-own tobacco in any package containing less than 0.60 ounces of tobacco.

(5) Nothing in this section affects federal laws concerning cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products, as they apply to military bases and Indian reservations within the state.

Source: L. 98: Entire part added, p. 1181, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2001: (4) added, p. 1232, § 1, effective June 5. L. 2014: (1), (IP(2), and (3) amended and (5) added, (SB 14-018), ch. 113, p. 408, § 4, effective April 11.

24-35-504. Enforcement authority - designation of agency - coordination - sharing of information. (1) The division has the power to enforce all state statutes relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors. The division is designated as the lead state agency for the enforcement of state statutes in compliance with federal laws relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors.

(2) The division shall coordinate the enforcement of state laws relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors by multiple state agencies to avoid duplicative inspections of the same retailer by multiple state agencies.

(3) (a) The division shall work with the department of human services and the department of public health and environment to ensure compliance with federal regulations for continued receipt of all federal funds contingent upon compliance with laws related to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors.

(b) The division shall perform at least the minimum number of random inspections of businesses that sell cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products at retail as required by federal regulations.

(c) In order to pay for the inspections required by paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), the division shall apply for a grant from the tobacco education, prevention, and cessation program established in part 8 of article 3.5 of title 25, C.R.S.

(4) In order to enforce laws relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors, the department of revenue may share information on the identification and address of retailers that sell cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine... products with any state agency responsible for the enforcement of laws relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors.

24-35-505. Hearings. (1) Subject to the limitations contained in section 24-35-506, the division, on its own motion or on a complaint from another governmental agency responsible for the enforcement of laws relating to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors, has the power to penalize retailers for violations of section 24-35-503.

(2) (a) A retailer accused of violating section 24-35-503 shall be entitled to written notice of the time and place of the hearing personally delivered to the retailer at the actual retail location or mailed to the retailer at the last known address as shown by the records of the department. The retailer is also entitled to be represented by counsel, to present evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses.

(b) A retailer that does not claim an affirmative defense pursuant to section 24-35-506 (2) may waive their right to a hearing and pay the appropriate fine.

(3) A hearing pursuant to this section shall be conducted at a location designated by the division before a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall have the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and the production of documents relating to any alleged violation of section 24-35-503.

(4) If the hearing officer finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the retailer violated section 24-35-503, the hearing officer may issue a written order or levy a fine against the retailer, subject to the provisions of section 24-35-506.

(5) The findings of the hearing officer shall be a final agency order. Any appeal of the decision of the hearing officer shall be filed with the Colorado court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11).

(6) Any unpaid fine levied pursuant to this section together with reasonable attorney fees may be collected in a civil action filed by the attorney general.

(7) Any fines collected for violations of section 24-35-503 shall be forwarded to the state treasurer, who shall credit them to the cigarette, tobacco product, and nicotine product use by minors prevention fund created in section 24-35-507.

Source: L. 98: Entire part added, p. 1182, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2014: (1) and (7) amended, (SB 14-018), ch. 113, p. 410, § 6, effective April 11.

24-35-506. Limitation on fines. (1) For a violation of section 24-35-503 (1) or (4), the penalty shall be as follows:

(a) A written warning for a first violation committed within a twenty-four-month period;

(b) A fine of two hundred fifty dollars for a second violation within a twenty-four-month period;

(c) A fine of five hundred dollars for a third violation within a twenty-four-month period;
(d) A fine of one thousand dollars for a fourth violation within a twenty-four-month period; and
(e) A fine of between one thousand dollars and fifteen thousand dollars for a fifth or subsequent violation within a twenty-four-month period.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no fine for a violation of section 24-35-503 (1) shall be imposed upon a retailer that can establish an affirmative defense to the satisfaction of the division or the hearing officer that, prior to the date of the violation, it:
   (a) Had adopted and enforced a written policy against selling cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to persons under eighteen years of age;
   (b) Had informed its employees of the applicable laws regarding the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to persons under eighteen years of age;
   (c) Required employees to verify the age of cigarette, tobacco product, or nicotine product customers by way of photographic identification; and
   (d) Had established and imposed disciplinary sanctions for noncompliance.

(3) The affirmative defense established in subsection (2) of this section may be used by a retailer only twice at each location within any twenty-four-month period.

(4) For a violation of section 24-35-503 (2) or (3), the penalty shall be as follows:
   (a) (I) For a violation of section 24-35-503 (2), a fine of twenty-five dollars for a first violation committed within a twenty-four-month period;
      (II) For a violation of section 24-35-503 (3), a written warning for a first violation committed within a twenty-four-month period;
   (b) A fine of fifty dollars for a second violation within a twenty-four-month period;
   (c) A fine of one hundred dollars for a third violation within a twenty-four-month period;
   (d) A fine of two hundred fifty dollars for a fourth violation within a twenty-four-month period; and
   (e) A fine of between two hundred fifty dollars and one thousand dollars for a fifth or subsequent violation within a twenty-four-month period.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (1) by Senate Bill 01-236 and Senate Bill 01-073 were harmonized.

24-35-507. Cigarette, tobacco product, and nicotine product use by minors prevention fund - grants. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the cigarette, tobacco product, and nicotine product use by minors prevention fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". Moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly. Any interest derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund remains in the fund. Any unexpended or unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year remain in the fund and do not revert or transfer to the general fund or any other fund of the state.

(2) Subject to annual appropriations by the general assembly, the department of human services may make grants from the fund to programs designed to develop training materials for retailers related to the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products to minors or to programs designed to prevent the use of cigarettes, tobacco products, or nicotine products by minors.

24-35-508. Repeal of part. (Repealed)

PART 6

GAMBLING PAYMENT INTERCEPT ACT

24-35-601. Short title. This part 6 shall be known and may be cited as the "Gambling Payment Intercept Act".

24-35-602. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
   (a) Parents should provide financial support to their minor children who cannot care for themselves.
   (b) The state should intervene when parents fail to meet their support obligations.
   (c) Children are adversely affected when parents divert their financial support to limited gaming and pari-mutuel wagering.
   (d) A parent's winnings from money diverted from a child's support should be applied to the parent's outstanding support obligations.
   (e) Section 12-47.1-102 (1)(c), C.R.S., of the "Limited Gaming Act of 1991" recognizes that the limited gaming industry must be assisted in protecting the general welfare of the people of the state.
   (f) Victims of crime and all the people of the state are adversely affected when criminal offenders divert restitution to limited gaming and pari-mutuel wagering.
   (g) A criminal offender's winnings from money diverted from restitution should be applied to the offender's outstanding criminal court obligations.
   (h) An uncollected debt to the state should be deducted from a person's winnings.

24-35-603. Definitions. As used in this part 6, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Licensee" means a licensee as defined in section 12-60-102 (17), C.R.S., or an operator or retail gaming licensee under section 12-47.1-501 (1)(b) or (1)(c), C.R.S.

(2) (a) "Outstanding debt" means:

(I) Unpaid child support debt or child support costs to the state pursuant to section 14-14-104, C.R.S., and arrearages of child support requested as part of an enforcement action pursuant to article 5 of title 14, C.R.S., or arrearages of child support that are the subject of enforcement services provided pursuant to section 26-13-106, C.R.S.;

(II) Restitution that a person has been ordered to pay pursuant to section 18-1.3-603 or 19-2-918, C.R.S., regardless of the date that the restitution was ordered; and

(III) Any unpaid debt due to the state that is referred pursuant to section 24-30-202.4 (2) to the state controller or the central collection services section of the division of finance and procurement, or any successor section, in the department of personnel, and including the collection fee and any allowable fees and costs pursuant to section 24-30-202.4 (8). "Outstanding debt" does not include any debt collected by the department of personnel for a political subdivision of the state.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), an outstanding debt shall not be less than three hundred dollars.

(3) "Payment" means cash winnings from limited gaming or from pari-mutuel wagering on horse or greyhound racing payable by a licensee for which the licensee is required to file form W-2G, or a substantially equivalent form, with the United States internal revenue service.

(4) "Registry" means the registry created and maintained by or for the department of revenue pursuant to section 24-35-604.

(5) "Registry operator" means the department of revenue or the private entity that maintains the registry under the direction and control of the department.

24-35-604. Registry - creation - information. (1) The department of revenue shall create and maintain, or contract with a private entity pursuant to section 24-35-607 to create and maintain, the registry in accordance with this section.

(1.5) On and after the date that the judicial department receives notice from the department of revenue pursuant to section 24-35-605.5 (2)(b)(I), the judicial department shall certify to the registry operator the information indicated in subsection (4) of this section regarding persons with an outstanding debt as specified in section 24-35-603 (2)(a)(II).

(2) The department of human services shall certify to the registry operator the information indicated in subsection (4) of this section regarding each child support obligor with an outstanding debt as specified in section 24-35-603 (2)(a)(I).

(2.5) On and after January 1, 2012, the department of personnel shall certify to the registry operator the information indicated in subsection (4) of this section regarding each person with an outstanding debt as specified in section 24-35-603 (2)(a)(III).

(3) The registry operator shall enter in the registry the information certified to the registry operator by the judicial department, the department of human services, and the department of personnel pursuant to subsections (1.5), (2), and (2.5) of this section.
The registry shall contain the following information:

(a) The name of each person with an outstanding debt;
(b) The social security number of each person with an outstanding debt;
(c) The account or case identifier assigned to the outstanding debt by the department that certified the information to the registry operator;
(d) The name, telephone number, and address of the department that certified the information to the registry operator regarding each person with an outstanding debt; and
(e) The amount of the outstanding debt.

On and after the date that the judicial department receives notice from the department of revenue pursuant to section 24-35-605.5 (2)(b)(I), the registry operator shall add a fee of twenty-five dollars to each outstanding debt certified by a department pursuant to this section.

L. 2011: (2.5) added and (3) amended, (SB 11-051), ch. 286, p. 1334, § 6, effective August 10.

24-35-605. Payments - limited gaming and pari-mutuel wagering licensees - procedures. (1) On and after July 1, 2008:

(a) A licensee shall have the means to communicate with the registry operator.
(b) Before making a payment to a winner, the licensee shall obtain the name, address, and social security number of the winner from form W-2G, or a substantially equivalent form, to be filed with the United States internal revenue service and submit the required information to the registry operator. The registry operator shall inform the licensee whether the winner is listed in the registry. The licensee shall comply with subsection (2) of this section.

(2) (a) If the registry operator replies that the winner is not listed in the registry or if the licensee is unable to receive information from the registry operator after attempting in good faith to do so, the licensee may make the payment to the winner.
(b) If the registry operator replies that the winner is listed in the registry:
(I) The reply from the registry operator to the licensee shall indicate the name, telephone number, and address of the department that certified the information to the registry and the amount of the winner's outstanding debt.
(II) The licensee shall withhold from the amount of the payment an amount equal to the amount certified pursuant to section 24-35-604. If the amount of the payment is less than or equal to the amount certified, the licensee shall withhold the entire amount of the payment. The licensee shall refer the winner to the department that reported the outstanding debt to the registry.
(III) Within twenty-four hours after withholding a payment pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b), the licensee shall send the amount withheld to the registry operator and report to the registry operator the full name, address, and social security number of the winner, the account or case identifier assigned by the department that reported the outstanding debt to the registry, the date and amount of the payment, and the name and location of the licensee.
(IV) The registry operator shall send to the certifying department the moneys and information received from a licensee pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (b). If more than one department certified a winner, the registry operator shall send the information to each certifying department and distribute the moneys among the departments as follows:

(A) The registry operator shall send to the department of human services any amount certified by the department of human services.

(B) Of any moneys remaining after the distribution, if any, to the department of human services pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (IV), the registry operator shall send to the judicial department any amount certified by the judicial department.

(C) Of any moneys remaining after the distribution, if any, to the judicial department pursuant to sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (IV), the registry operator shall send to the department of personnel any amount certified by the department of personnel.

(V) The department of human services shall process moneys received from the registry operator pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (b) in accordance with section 26-13-118.7, C.R.S. The judicial department shall process moneys received from the registry operator pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (b) in accordance with the rules of the department. The department of personnel shall process moneys received from the registry operator pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (b) in accordance with the rules of the department of personnel, with the understanding that any state agency or state-supported institution of higher education debt will be paid before any debt for a political subdivision of the state assigned to central collection services.

(3) The registry operator shall deduct an amount equal to the fee added to the outstanding debt pursuant to section 24-35-604 (5) from each payment received from a licensee and forward such amount to the state treasurer for deposit in the gambling payment intercept cash fund created in section 24-35-605.5.

24-35-605.5. Gambling payment intercept cash fund - creation - gifts, grants, donations - intercepts for restitution. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the gambling payment intercept cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall consist of any moneys deposited in the fund pursuant to section 24-35-605 (3), any allocations made to the fund pursuant to section 24-33.5-506 (1)(c.5)(I), any other moneys appropriated to the fund by the general assembly, and any gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources, which the department of revenue is hereby authorized to seek and accept for the purposes set forth in this section. All private and public funds received through gifts, grants, or donations shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund. The state treasurer shall also credit to the fund any moneys that are allocated thereto pursuant to section 24-33.5-506 (1)(c.5)(I).

(2) (a) The moneys in the fund shall be continuously appropriated to the department of revenue for the purpose of expanding the program established by this part 6 to include intercepts of restitution that a person has been ordered to pay pursuant to section 18-1.3-603 or 19-2-918, C.R.S., as certified by the judicial department. As soon as there are sufficient moneys in the fund, the department of revenue shall expand the program for such purpose.
(b) Once the intercept program has been expanded as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2):

(1) The department of revenue shall notify the judicial department and the registry operator that the judicial department may begin certifying outstanding debt pursuant to section 24-35-604 (1.5); and

(2) Moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the direct and indirect costs associated with the administration of this part 6.

(c) Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purposes set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (2) may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred or revert to the general fund or any other fund.

24-35-606. Liability - immunity. (1) A licensee that fails to comply with the provisions of section 24-35-605 shall be subject to sanctions by its licensing authority pursuant to sections 12-47.1-525 (1) and 12-60-507 (1), C.R.S.

(2) A licensee that makes a payment to a winner in violation of section 24-35-605 shall not be liable to the person to whom the winner owes an outstanding debt.

(3) Except as provided in section 24-35-606, a licensee shall be immune from civil and criminal liability for acting in compliance with the provisions of this part 6.

24-35-607. Contracting authority - memoranda of understanding - rules. (1) The executive director of the department of revenue may enter into a contract with a private entity, in accordance with the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title, to create and maintain the registry.

(2) The department of revenue may enter into memoranda of understanding with the judicial department, the department of human services, and the department of personnel to implement this part 6. If the registry is operated by a private entity pursuant to this section, the registry operator may enter into memoranda of understanding with the judicial department, the department of human services, and the department of personnel to implement this part 6.

(3) The executive director of the department of revenue shall promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of this title to implement this part 6. The rules shall include, but need not be limited to, rules regarding:

(a) The removal from the registry of information regarding persons who satisfy their outstanding debts;

(b) The manner in which a licensee shall communicate with the registry, including the information a licensee shall submit to the registry and the procedures to be followed if the registry is inaccessible due to technical or other problems;

(c) The protection of the confidentiality of information in the registry; and
(d) The circumstances and means by which an outstanding debt may be collected from a licensee pursuant to section 24-35-605 (2)(b)(IV).

(4) The executive director of the department of revenue shall promulgate a rule in accordance with article 4 of this title allowing a licensee to retain at least thirty dollars of each payment withheld pursuant to this part 6 to cover the licensee's costs of compliance with this part 6, which amount shall be added to the debtor's outstanding debt.

24-35-608. Conditional repeal of part. (Repealed)

ARTICLE 36

Department of the Treasury

Editor's note: This article was numbered as article 6 of chapter 3, C.R.S. 1963. The substantive provisions of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1971, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this article prior to 1971, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

24-36-101. State treasurer head of department. The state treasurer is the chief executive officer of the department of the treasury. He has all of the powers, duties, and obligations conferred upon him by the state constitution and is the official custodian of all state moneys and securities, unless otherwise expressly provided by law.

24-36-102. Function of department - employees. (1) The principal function of the treasury department is to receive all state moneys collected by or otherwise coming into the hands of any officer, department, institution, or agency of the state government as required in section 24-36-103 (1) and to deposit and disburse the same in the manner prescribed by law. It shall have no tax collection or enforcement functions whatsoever.

(2) Employees of the treasury department shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of section 24-2-102, except for one deputy permitted by law, who shall be appointed by the state treasurer.

24-36-103. All state moneys to be transmitted to department. (1) It is the duty of every officer, department, institution, and agency of the state government charged with the responsibility of collecting the various taxes, licenses, fees, and permits imposed by law and of collecting or accepting tuition, rentals, receipts from the sale of property, and moneys of any other nature accruing to the state from any source whatsoever to transmit the same to the treasury department in such manner and under such procedures as may be prescribed by law or by fiscal rule of the controller.

(2) Where a department, institution, or agency collects or receives moneys of a trust or quasi-trust nature, or moneys derived from the operation of a business-type enterprise, or moneys in which the interest, share, or proportion of the state has not yet been determined, such department, institution, or agency may, upon application to the office of the state controller and upon the written approval of the controller and the state treasurer, deposit such moneys in any depository authorized in section 24-75-603, under the same conditions as required in articles 10.5 and 47 of title 11, C.R.S., with respect to the deposit of other state moneys. Such department, institution, or agency shall file such reports as shall be required by fiscal rules adopted by the controller.

(3) Repealed.

(4) The treasury department shall be the transaction-approving authority for all moneys transmitted to and received by it. One copy of the transaction shall be retained in the files of the department.

24-36-104. Moneys to be deposited. (1) All moneys received by the treasury department shall be promptly deposited in such national or state banks doing business in this state as the state treasurer shall select. Accounts in such depositories shall be carried in the name of "Treasurer, State of Colorado", and withdrawals therefrom shall be made and signed in such manner as the state treasurer shall direct. The state treasurer may make payments, without appropriation, of all actual and necessary charges made by such depositories for expenses related to the deposit and withdrawal of moneys received by the treasury department in accordance with the constitution or statutes of Colorado. Such payments shall be made from investment income or any other available revenues. The state treasurer shall contract for all such bank services in accordance with the provisions of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title. The state treasurer shall make the criteria used in selecting a vendor for bank services available to the finance committees of both houses of the general assembly prior to the award of a contract and shall make all contracts submitted or entered into pursuant to this section available for public inspection in accordance with the provisions of part 2 of article 72 of this title.

(1.5) As used in this article:

(a) "Deposit" means the payment and reconciliation of moneys received by the treasury department or an authorized department, institution, or agency by means of cash, check, draft, or alternative forms of payment, as defined in section 24-19.5-101 (1).
(b) "Withdrawal" means the disbursement and reconciliation of moneys received by the treasury department or an authorized department, institution, or agency by means of cash, check, draft, or alternative forms of payment, as defined in section 24-19.5-101 (1).

(2) The state treasurer may authorize any department, institution, or agency collecting or otherwise receiving state moneys to deposit the same to his credit in any such depository in lieu of transmitting the same to the treasury department under procedures approved jointly by himself and the controller.

(2.5) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11-10.5-111, C.R.S., and section 24-75-202, at the discretion of the state treasurer and the state controller, state moneys may be deposited in bank accounts in other states and in foreign countries to enable a state agency or institution, including institutions of higher education, to operate projects located in other states and foreign countries. Such state agencies and institutions, including institutions of higher education, shall exercise due regard and have full responsibility for the safety of deposits under this article, and the state shall not assume liability for any risk, casualty, or loss of such deposits.

(3) For the purpose of managing deposits of state moneys, the state treasurer may, on a daily basis only, borrow moneys from any such depository to cover advances made by any depository to the state on state warrants and state checks paid by the depository but not yet reimbursed by the state and on uncollected deposits. The state treasurer may negotiate a line of credit with any such depository sufficient to cover anticipated requirements for such advances in the current fiscal year. The state treasurer may pay interest on such moneys borrowed at a rate to be negotiated by the state treasurer and the lending depository and may take such measures as are necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection (3). All such moneys borrowed shall be repaid, together with any interest, before the end of the fiscal year in which the moneys are borrowed, and the state shall not be liable to repay such moneys borrowed from revenues of any later fiscal year. This subsection (3) shall not be construed to expressly or impliedly authorize the state treasurer to do any act or take any action with respect to deposits of state moneys, or with respect to the moneys of any department or agency of the state, other than the acts specifically authorized by this subsection (3).

(4) The state treasurer is authorized to receive and deposit moneys from the United States government. Such federal moneys shall be transmitted to the treasury department as required in section 24-36-103 (1) and deposited as provided in subsection (1) of this section. The state treasurer is authorized to make payments, without appropriation, of interest to the United States government on such federal moneys deposited with the state treasurer in accordance with the federal "Cash Management Improvement Act of 1990", as amended, 31 U.S.C. sec. 6501 et seq. Such payments shall be made from investment income or any other available revenues. The interest rate payable on such deposits shall be the federal discount rate or such other rate established by federal law.

24-36-105. Accounts to be kept - daily report. (1) The treasury department shall keep adequate accounts in which shall be recorded all moneys received and disbursed.
(2) As of the close of business each day, a report of the amount of all receipts and disbursements during said day shall be furnished to the office of the state controller; except that the receipts and disbursements shall not be reported by category as to the several funds created by law and the accounts within such funds.

24-36-106. Record of warrants and checks - order of payment - paid warrants and checks - validation. (1) The treasury department shall maintain a list of all warrants and checks drawn upon the state treasurer by the office of the state controller and of those warrants and checks issued and outstanding. Such lists shall be open during regular business hours for the inspection and examination of every person desiring to inspect or examine the same.
(2) Warrants and checks shall be paid in the order in which presented to the treasury department for payment. The state treasurer may validate any warrant or any check presented for payment after six months from its date of issue for a period of time not longer than thirty days from the date upon which it is so presented.
(3) All paid warrants and checks shall be cancelled and, after being microfilmed or copied through image technology such as optical storage and other recognized state-of-the-art storage technologies, shall be destroyed pursuant to part 1 of article 80 of this title. The treasury department is authorized to enter into an arrangement that allows any bank holding cancelled warrants or checks to microfilm or copy through other recognized state-of-the-art storage technologies and to store said warrants and checks for the benefit and use of the treasury department, but no bank shall destroy any cancelled warrant or any cancelled check without written authorization from the treasury department. Any bank producing microfilm or using other recognized state-of-the-art storage technologies pursuant to this subsection (3) shall transmit such microfilm or the product of such other recognized state-of-the-art storage technologies to the treasury department, where it shall be kept and stored. The treasury department is not authorized to enter into such an arrangement if the cost of the service charged by the bank exceeds the cost which the state would incur by providing the same service.

24-36-107. Warrants or checks endorsed when not paid - exception. (1) Whenever upon presentation for payment of any issued and outstanding warrant or any issued and outstanding check there are insufficient funds in the state treasury to pay the same, the state treasurer shall endorse thereon the following: "Presented for payment (insert date). Insufficient funds. This warrant or check shall draw interest from this date at the rate of six percent per annum." and shall return such warrant or check to the person presenting it for payment.

(2) Noninterest-bearing general fund warrants and checks lawfully issued pursuant to the provisions of section 24-75-208 are exempt from the provisions of this section.

24-36-108. Notice of payment - when interest ceases. (1) The treasury department shall maintain a record of the number and amount of each warrant and each check presented for payment and endorsed by the state treasurer as provided in section 24-36-107. Whenever there are sufficient moneys in the state treasury to pay part or all of such endorsed warrants and checks, the state treasurer shall give notice of the date of payment of the same through publication, twice, in some newspaper published in Denver, listing the numbers and amounts of the warrants and checks that he or she is prepared to pay on said date. Interest on the warrants and checks so listed shall cease at the expiration of fifteen days from the last date of publication of said notice.

(2) The state treasurer is authorized to pay interest on any such warrant and any such check at the rate endorsed thereon out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the general fund or such other fund out of which the warrant or check is payable and to charge the amount of interest so paid to such fund.

(3) Interest paid on any such warrant or any such check shall be receipted for thereon by the payee or assignee thereof.

Cross references: For clarification of terms and requirements for notice by publication, see part 1 of article 70 of this title.

24-36-109. Time deposits. (1) Subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the state treasurer is authorized to deposit state moneys with national or state banks doing business in this state for fixed periods of time, not exceeding two years, at such rate of interest as may be negotiated from time to time. For the purpose of making such deposits, the state treasurer may, in his or her discretion, appoint in writing one or more persons to act as custodians of the moneys. Such persons shall give surety bonds in such amounts and form and for such purposes as the state treasurer requires.

(2) (a) The state treasurer shall deposit state moneys for fixed periods in national or state banks that have applied and are eligible as depositories for state moneys pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and pursuant to the time deposit rules established by the department of the treasury that are in effect at that time in accordance with the procedure established in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) or in paragraph (c) of this subsection (2). Such procedure utilized shall be at the discretion of the treasurer.

(b) (I) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (2), when state moneys become available for time deposits pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the state treasurer shall announce the interest rate at which such moneys may be deposited for a fixed period in eligible national or state banks but shall not disclose the amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(II) An eligible national or state bank may request the state treasurer to deposit a specified amount of state moneys with that bank at the interest rate announced by the treasurer. Except as otherwise provided by subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (b), the treasurer shall deposit all or a portion of the state moneys available for deposit with any eligible national or state bank or banks making such a request in an amount equal to the amount requested by that bank.

(III) In the event that the total amount of state moneys requested for deposit by all eligible national or state banks pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) exceeds the amount of state moneys available for deposit, the state treasurer shall determine the total amount of state moneys that all such banks requested for deposit and calculate the percentage of such total that each eligible national or state bank requested. The state treasurer shall deposit with each eligible national or state bank an amount equal to the product of such percentage multiplied by the total amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(c) (I) In the alternative to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), when state moneys become available for time deposits pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the state treasurer shall announce the amount of state moneys available for deposit for a fixed period in any eligible national or state bank but shall not announce the interest rate at which such moneys shall be deposited.

(II) Except as provided by subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), any eligible national or state bank may submit a bid to the state treasurer specifying the interest rate that such bank will pay if state moneys are deposited in such bank and the amount of such moneys the bank will accept for deposit at that interest rate. The bank submitting a bid with the highest interest rate shall be awarded the deposit of state moneys in the full amount requested or the full amount available for deposit at that time, whichever is less.

(III) In the event that two or more eligible national or state banks submit the highest bid for the same interest rate and the total amount requested for deposit by the banks exceeds the amount of state moneys available for deposit at that time, the state treasurer shall determine the total amount of state moneys that all such banks requested for deposit and calculate the percentage of such total that each eligible national or state bank requested. The state treasurer shall deposit with each eligible national or state bank an amount equal to the product of such percentage multiplied by the total amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(IV) In the event that depositing state moneys in the highest bidding eligible national or state bank or banks does not exhaust the total amount of state moneys available for deposit at that time, the state treasurer shall deposit the remaining state moneys in other eligible banks giving priority to the highest remaining bidders.

(V) The state treasurer shall have the authority to establish a minimum acceptable bid for an interest rate. The rate shall be announced before the start of the bidding by any eligible national or state bank.

24-36-110. Surety bond or collateral security required. (Repealed)

24-36-111. Authority to accept deposits. Any state bank or any national bank having its principal office in this state is authorized to accept and hold deposits of state moneys as provided in sections 24-36-104 and 24-36-109 and to give surety bonds or pledge collateral security as provided in article 10.5 of title 11, C.R.S.

24-36-111.5. Authority to invest in real property owned by a school district. Whenever there are moneys in the state treasury that are not immediately required to be disbursed, the state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in real property owned by a school district pursuant to the provisions of section 22-54-110 (2)(d), C.R.S. The state treasurer shall ensure that the investment in real property shall yield a fair and equitable return to the state; except that this requirement shall not apply to an investment in real property that is related to a loan agreement entered into prior to July 1, 2003.

24-36-112. Deposits in savings and loan associations. (1) Subject to the requirements of subsection (4) of this section, the state treasurer is authorized to deposit state moneys with any state-chartered savings and loan association, or federally chartered savings and loan association having its principal office in this state, for fixed periods of time not exceeding three years, at such rate of interest as may be negotiated from time to time, but in no event shall any such deposit be in excess of the amount insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or its successor, unless such savings and loan association has been designated as an eligible public depository by the state commissioner of financial services, pursuant to the provisions of article 47 of title 11, C.R.S.

(2) Any such savings and loan association is authorized to accept deposits of state moneys to the extent permitted in this section.

(3) For the purpose of making such deposits, the state treasurer may, in his discretion, appoint in writing one or more persons to act as custodians of the moneys. Such persons shall give surety bonds in such amounts and form and for such purposes as the state treasurer requires.

(4) (a) The state treasurer shall deposit state moneys for fixed periods in state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan associations that have applied and are eligible as depositaries for state moneys pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and pursuant to the time deposit rules established by the department of the treasury that are in effect at that time in accordance with the procedure established in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) or in paragraph (c) of this subsection (4). Such procedure utilized shall be at the discretion of the treasurer.

(b) (I) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), when state moneys become available for time deposits pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the state treasurer shall announce the interest rate at which state moneys may be deposited for a fixed period in eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan associations but shall not disclose the amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(II) An eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association may request the state treasurer to deposit a specified amount of state moneys in that savings and loan association at the interest rate announced by the treasurer. Except as otherwise provided by subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (b), the treasurer shall deposit all or a portion of the state moneys available for deposit with any eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association or associations making such a request in an amount equal to the amount requested by that savings and loan association.

(III) In the event that the total amount of state moneys requested for deposit by all eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan associations pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) exceeds the amount of state moneys available for deposit, the state treasurer shall determine the total amount of state moneys that all such savings and loan associations requested for deposit and calculate the percentage of such total that each eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association requested. The state treasurer shall deposit with each eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association an amount equal to the product of such percentage multiplied by the total amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(c) (I) In the alternative to paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), when state moneys become available for time deposits pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the state treasurer shall announce the amount of state moneys available for deposit for a fixed period in any eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan associations but shall not announce the interest rate at which such moneys shall be deposited.

(II) Except as provided by subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), any eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association may submit a bid to the state treasurer specifying the interest rate that the eligible savings and loan association will pay if state moneys are deposited in such savings and loan association and the amount of such moneys the savings and loan association will accept for deposit at that interest rate. The savings and loan association submitting a bid with the highest interest rate shall be awarded the deposit of state moneys in the full amount requested or the full amount available for deposit at that time, whichever is less.

(III) In the event that two or more eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan associations submit the highest bid for the same interest rate and the total amount requested for deposit by the eligible savings and loan associations exceeds the amount of state moneys available for deposit at that time, the state treasurer shall determine the total amount of state moneys that all such savings and loan associations requested for deposit and calculate the percentage of such total that each eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association requested. The state treasurer shall deposit with each eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association an amount equal to the product of such percentage multiplied by the total amount of state moneys available for deposit.

(IV) In the event that depositing state moneys in the highest bidding eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association or associations does not exhaust the state moneys available for deposit at that time, the state treasurer shall deposit the remaining moneys in other eligible savings and loan associations giving priority to the highest remaining bidders.

(V) The state treasurer shall have the authority to establish a minimum acceptable bid for an interest rate. The rate shall be announced before the start of the bidding by any eligible state-chartered or federally chartered savings and loan association.

24-36-113. Investment of state moneys - limitations. (1) (a) Whenever there are moneys in the state treasury that are not immediately required to be disbursed, the state treasurer is authorized to invest the same in fixed income securities denominated in United States dollars.
In making such investments, the state treasurer shall use prudence and care to preserve the principal and to secure the maximum rate of interest consistent with safety and liquidity. The state treasurer shall formulate investment policies regarding liquidity, maturity, and diversification appropriate to each fund or pool of funds in the state treasurer's custody available for investment.

(b) (I) If the state treasurer invests state moneys through an investment firm offering for sale corporate stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, or a mutual fund that contains corporate securities, the investment firm shall disclose, in any research or other disclosure documents provided in support of the securities being offered, to the state treasurer whether the investment firm has an agreement with a for-profit corporation that is not a government-sponsored enterprise, whose securities are being offered for sale to the state treasurer and because of such agreement the investment firm:

(A) Had received compensation for investment banking services within the most recent twelve months; or

(B) May receive compensation for investment banking services within the next three consecutive months.

(II) For the purposes of this paragraph (b), "investment firm" means a bank, brokerage firm, or other financial services firm conducting business within this state, or any agent thereof.

(2) Such moneys may be invested, without limitation, in debt obligations of the United States treasury, any agency of the United States government, or United States government-sponsored corporations.

(2.5) The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in municipal bonds rated in one of the two highest rating categories by a nationally recognized rating organization.

(3) The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in repurchase agreements, in banker's acceptances or bank notes issued by banks rated at least investment grade by a nationally recognized rating organization, in commercial paper of prime quality as so classed by a nationally recognized rating organization, and in money market funds that are registered as an investment company under the federal "Investment Company Act of 1940", as amended.
The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in corporate debt obligations rated at least investment grade by a nationally recognized rating organization.

The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in asset-backed securities and covered bonds rated in one of the two highest rating categories by a nationally recognized rating organization.

The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in securities that are issued or guaranteed by the world bank, the inter-American development bank, the Asian development bank, or the African development bank or for which the credit of the world bank, the inter-American development bank, the Asian development bank, or the African development bank is pledged for payment and that are rated in one of the two highest rating categories by a nationally recognized rating organization.

The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in mortgage pass-through securities and collateralized mortgage obligations that are issued by any agency of the United States government or a United States government-sponsored corporation or that are rated in one of the two highest rating categories by a nationally recognized rating organization.

The state treasurer may, in the state treasurer's discretion, invest such moneys in debt obligations backed by the full faith and credit of the state of Israel that are rated in one of the two highest rating categories by a nationally recognized rating organization.

The state treasurer may make such arrangements for the custody, safekeeping, and registration of all investment securities as will enable the state treasurer to make prompt delivery thereof upon maturity or in the event of sale.

The state treasurer may engage in reverse repurchase agreements and securities lending programs for any securities in the state treasurer's custody and may purchase loans if, in the state treasurer's discretion, the purchase of loans will yield a fair and equitable return to the state.

Notwithstanding any restrictions on the investment of state moneys set forth in this section or in any other provision of law, the state treasurer may authorize the escrow agent appointed pursuant to section 1 of the escrow agreement entered into in connection with, and attached as exhibit B to, the master settlement agreement entered by the court in the case denominated State of Colorado, ex rel. Gale A. Norton, Attorney General v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.; American Tobacco Co., Inc.; Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp.; Liggett & Myers, Inc.; Lorillard Tobacco Co., Inc.; Philip Morris, Inc.; United States Tobacco Co.; B.A.T. Industries, P.L.C.; The Council For Tobacco Research--U.S.A., Inc.; and Tobacco Institute, Inc., Case No. 97 CV 3432, in the district court for the city and county of Denver, to invest any tobacco litigation settlement moneys held in escrow for the state of Colorado pursuant to the master settlement agreement and the escrow agreement in any manner permitted by section 5 of the escrow agreement.

24-36-115. Moneys not immediately creditable - special purpose moneys.

Moneys received by the treasury department that are not immediately creditable to a particular fund or account or moneys received that are designated by law for a special purpose shall be held in custody by the state treasurer and may be subsequently withdrawn from his or her custody upon warrants or checks drawn pursuant to law.

24-36-116. Moneys paid under protest - disposition.

(1) Moneys in the form of taxes, licenses, fees, or permits imposed by law which are paid under protest shall nonetheless be transmitted to the treasury department, which shall credit the same to an account designated "moneys paid under protest".
(2) If any person paying such moneys under protest has not filed a claim for refund of the same in the manner provided by law or has not commenced an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for recovery of the same within one year from the date of payment or within one year from April 24, 1971, whichever date occurs later, then the amount so paid shall be credited forthwith to the fund or account to which it would have been credited had it not been paid under protest.

(3) If a claim for refund of such money is filed and subsequently disallowed and an action is not commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction for recovery of the same within six months from the date of such disallowance, then the amount so paid shall be credited forthwith to the fund or account to which it would have been credited had it not been paid under protest.

24-36-117. Governor may make examination. The governor may at any time examine, or cause to be examined, the books, records, warrants, and checks kept in the treasury department and the securities held in the custody of the state treasurer, and for such purpose he or she shall be permitted full and free access.

24-36-118. Applications for licenses - authority to suspend licenses - rules. (1) Every application by an individual for a license issued by the department of the treasury or any authorized agent of such department shall require the applicant's name, address, and social security number.

(2) The department of the treasury or any authorized agent of the department shall deny, suspend, or revoke any license pursuant to the provisions of section 26-13-126, C.R.S., and any rules promulgated in furtherance thereof, if the department or agent thereof receives a notice to deny, suspend, or revoke from the state child support enforcement agency because the licensee or applicant is out of compliance with a court or administrative order for current child support, child support debt, retroactive child support, child support arrearages, or child support when combined with maintenance or because the licensee or applicant has failed to comply with a properly issued subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding. Any such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be in accordance with the procedures specified by rule of the department of the treasury, rules promulgated by the state board of human services, and any memorandum of understanding entered into between the department of the treasury or an authorized agent thereof and the state child support enforcement agency for the implementation of this section and section 26-13-126, C.R.S.

(3) (a) The department of the treasury shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the state child support enforcement agency, which memorandum shall identify the relative responsibilities of the department of the treasury and the state child support enforcement agency in the department of human services with respect to the implementation of this section and section 26-13-126, C.R.S.

(b) The appropriate rule-making body of the department of the treasury is authorized to promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

(4) For purposes of this section, "license" means any recognition, authority, or permission that the department of the treasury or any authorized agent of such department is authorized by law to issue for an individual to practice a profession or occupation or for an individual to participate in any recreational activity. "License" may include, but is not necessarily limited to, any license, certificate, certification, letter of authorization, or registration issued for an individual to practice a profession or occupation or for an individual to participate in any recreational activity.

Editor's note: Section 51(2) of chapter 236, Session Laws of Colorado 1997, provides that the act enacting this section applies to all orders whether entered on, before, or after July 1, 1997.

24-36-120. Authority to assess transaction fees. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, for the 2002-03 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the state treasurer is authorized to assess a fee for each eligible transaction performed by the state treasurer on behalf of state departments and agencies. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state treasurer shall deduct the fee from the interest earnings attributable to the fund for which the transaction was performed.

(2) The amount of the fee assessed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be determined annually by dividing an amount equal to the total amount appropriated to the department of the treasury for administration in the annual general appropriations act for the current fiscal year by the total number of eligible transactions performed by the state treasurer in the immediately preceding fiscal year.

(3) The fees deducted by the state treasurer pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the department of the treasury to fund the administration of the department.

(4) The state treasurer shall not assess a fee for an eligible transaction involving any of the following funds:
   (a) The state education fund created in section 17 (4) of article IX of the state constitution;
   (b) The highway users tax fund created in section 43-4-201, C.R.S.;
   (c) The great outdoors Colorado trust fund created in section 2 of article XXVII of the state constitution;
   (d) The public school fund described in section 3 of article IX of the state constitution;
   (e) The old age pension fund created in section 1 of article XXIV of the state constitution;
   (f) Any other fund against which the assessment of a fee would be contrary to the state constitution; and
   (g) The college opportunity fund created in section 23-18-202, C.R.S.
(5) The state treasurer shall notify each state department and agency for which the state treasurer performs eligible transactions of the amount of fees that will be deducted from any fund managed by the state department or agency no later than July 1 of the fiscal year in which the fees will be deducted.

(6) As used in this section, "eligible transaction" means any cash management transaction that affects a cash balance, including, but not limited to, electronic fund transfers, payroll and other automated disbursements, payments, cash receipts, warrant transactions, check transactions, and journal entries.

24-36-121. Authority to manage state public financing - state public financing cash fund - rules - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(a) The state's public financing matters are currently decentralized. Many state agencies incur financial obligations and directly or indirectly pledge or use the credit of the state without centralized management.

(b) Centralized management could have a positive impact on the state's credit rating because credit rating agencies would have a centralized point of contact with the state for state public financing matters;

(c) The issuance and incurrence of financial obligations and the state's outstanding financial obligations should be managed as a whole, by personnel with financial experience and securities market understanding, so that the issuance and incurrence of state financial obligations and the state's outstanding financial obligations can be managed as efficiently and cost effectively as possible, allowing the state to maximize refinancing opportunities;

(d) Centralized management provides a better method of ensuring that federal tax and securities law post-issuance compliance requirements for state financial obligations are met by the state;

(e) Due to changes in the public securities market, increased regulatory requirements, evolving credit criteria, recent technological developments, recent downgrading of certain government credit ratings, and the benefits set forth in this subsection (1), it is necessary to designate the state treasurer as a centralized manager for the issuance and incurrence of financial obligations by the state acting by and through a state agency;

(f) It is also important that the state treasurer develop and promulgate a state public financing policy and, in so doing, collaborate with various experts, including but not limited to the state controller, the office of state planning and budgeting, bond counsel, and the attorney general. Such a policy demonstrates a commitment to long-term financial planning, identifies policy goals, provides for appropriate financing structures, and improves the quality of decision-making. Furthermore, credit rating agencies, the federal internal revenue service, and the federal securities and exchange commission view the existence of state public financing policies favorably.

(g) Senate Bill 12-150, enacted in 2012, is not intended to grant the state treasurer any authority that supersedes a state agency's authority to enter into or incur a financial obligation, nor is Senate Bill 12-150 intended to affect other state laws regarding the general assembly's approval of any capital lease or lease-purchase agreement over five hundred thousand dollars.

(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the state treasurer or any other public agency to waive an election otherwise required under section 20 of article X or article XI of the state constitution or to hold an election inconsistent with the election requirements of said section 20 of article X. References to financial obligations, debt, or bonds in this section are for reference only and shall not be construed to create debt or a multiple fiscal-year financial obligation contrary to section 20 of article X or article XI of the state constitution.

(3) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) (I) "Financial obligation" means any financial contract, note, warrant, check, bond, certificate, instrument, debenture, or other security, the principal amount of which is one million dollars or more, that is authorized to be issued or entered into by the state acting by and through a state agency under the laws of this state, that is fully or partially secured by any state revenues, and that is directly or indirectly related to the state's credit rating. "Financial obligation" includes, but is not limited to:

(A) Any capital lease or lease-purchase agreement the principal amount of which is one million dollars or more authorized pursuant to section 24-82-102 and part 8 of article 82 of this title; and

(B) Any payment obligation constituting a portion of or related to an energy performance contract as defined in section 24-30-2001 (1) or a capital project financed through a utility cost-savings contract authorized by section 24-38.5-106.

(II) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), for purposes of the department of transportation, "financial obligation" does not include:

(A) Any financial contract, note, warrant, check, bond, certificate, instrument, debenture, or other contract, agreement, or security that is authorized to be issued or entered into by or in support of such obligations of the high-performance transportation enterprise created in section 43-4-806 (2), C.R.S.; and

(B) Any financial contract, note, warrant, check, bond, certificate, instrument, debenture, or other contract, agreement, or security that is authorized to be issued or entered into by or in support of such obligations of the statewide bridge enterprise created in section 43-4-805 (2), C.R.S.

(b) "Internal revenue code" means the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and any regulations thereunder.

(c) (I) "State agency" means a department, board, bureau, commission, division, institution, quasi-governmental entity, or other agency or instrumentality of the state, including a state institution of higher education. "State agency" also includes an enterprise, as defined in section 24-77-102 (3), a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of this state and created solely for the purpose of issuing financial obligations on behalf of the state acting by and through a state agency, and a trust that may be formed by the state or a state agency to implement capital lease or lease-purchase financing.

(II) "State agency" does not include:

(A) A county or city and county;

(B) A municipality;

(C) A school district;

(D) A charter school;
(E) A water conservancy district;
(F) Collegeinvest as described in section 23-3.1-205.5, C.R.S.;
(G) A district or authority organized or acting pursuant to the provisions of title 29, 30, 31, or 32, C.R.S.;
(H) A special purpose authority listed in section 24-77-102 (15)(b); or
(I) Any other political subdivision of the state or other entity that constitutes a local public body as defined in section 24-6-402 (1)(a).

d) "State institution of higher education" has the same meaning as set forth in section 23-18-102 (10), C.R.S. For purposes of this section,"state institution of higher education" also includes the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S.
(e) "State revenues" means all income of the state that is received into the state treasury from taxes, fees, and other sources and appropriated for the payment of the state's expenses.

(4) (a) (I) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary and except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), for the 2012-13 state fiscal year and each state fiscal year thereafter, when a state agency obtains the required approval for the financing of a capital project as specified in law, the state treasurer shall act as the issuing manager, subject to the criteria established in the state public financing policy promulgated as specified in subsection (5) of this section, for all approved financial obligations of the state acting by and through a state agency. The state treasurer has the sole discretion to manage the issuance or incurrence of financial obligations of the state acting by and through a state agency, including all post-issuance compliance with federal and state tax and securities laws, such as arbitrage, rebate, and remedial action requirements. The state treasurer's duties with respect to the management of the issuance or incurrence of financial obligations include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) Determining the financing structure and term;
(B) Deciding the market timing;
(C) Selecting or hiring, as applicable, the state financing team, including, where appropriate, the lessor, purchaser; underwriter, bond or disclosure counsel, trustee, escrow agent, paying agent, credit enhancer, rating agency, placement agent, liquidity provider, credit support provider, interest rate exchange agreement counterparty, and financial advisor;
(D) Determining the advisability of a state agency entering into an interest rate exchange agreement pursuant to article 59.3 of title 11, C.R.S.; and
(E) Determining whether to enter into competitive or negotiated sales of financial obligations.

(II) For a state institution of higher education, for the 2012-13 state fiscal year and each state fiscal year thereafter, the state treasurer shall act as the issuing manager, subject to the criteria established in the state public financing policy promulgated as specified in subsection (5) of this section, for any lease-purchase agreement similar to those authorized in section 23-1-106.3, C.R.S., and any financial contract, note, warrant, check, bond, certificate, instrument, debenture, or other security, the principal amount of which is one million dollars or more, that is authorized under the laws of this state to be issued or entered into by the state acting by and through a state agency other than a state institution of higher education and that finances improvements that benefit a state institution of higher education. The state treasurer has the sole discretion to manage the issuance or incurrence of such financial obligations for a state institution of higher education and shall manage the issuance or incurrence of such financial obligations in accordance with the duties set forth in sub-subparagraphs (A) to (E) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a). The state treasurer shall not act as the issuing manager for any bonds subject to the higher education revenue bond intercept program established in section 23-5-139, C.R.S.

(b) (I) (A) Not less than sixty days prior to the date on which a state agency expects that a financial obligation of the state acting by and through the state agency will be incurred, a state agency shall provide written notice to the state treasurer of that expectation.

(B) Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which a state agency expects that a refinancing of a financial obligation of the state acting by and through the state agency will be incurred, a state agency shall provide written notice to the state treasurer of that expectation.

(II) The state agency shall provide the state treasurer with the information that the state treasurer considers necessary to act as the issuing manager for the issuance or incurrence of the financial obligation, including, if necessary, assumptions of underlying cash flow projections associated with the repayment of the financial obligation. The state agency shall provide the state treasurer with the information that the state treasurer considers necessary to comply with federal and state tax and securities laws and contractual covenants.

(c) In performing his or her duties as the issuing manager, the state treasurer shall consider any relevant factors that the state treasurer considers necessary to protect the financial integrity of the state.

(d) The state treasurer is the elected representative for the purpose of approving the issuance or incurrence of financial obligations by the state acting by and through a state agency when such approval is required under the internal revenue code and is the required signatory on all forms required by the federal internal revenue service to be filed in connection with the issuance or incurrence of financial obligations by the state acting by and through a state agency.

(5) No later than ninety days after May 24, 2012, the state treasurer shall promulgate by rule, in accordance with article 4 of this title, a state public financing policy, and, in so doing, shall collaborate with various experts, including but not limited to the state controller, the office of state planning and budgeting, bond counsel, and the attorney general. The state treasurer shall present the state public financing policy to the capital development committee at the earliest meeting of the capital development committee at which time is available in the meeting schedule after the policy is finalized and shall provide a copy of the final state public financing policy to the joint budget committee. The state treasurer shall notify the capital development committee and the joint budget committee, in writing, of any substantive changes that are subsequently made to the state public financing policy. For purposes of this subsection (5), the attorney general is the legal advisor to the state treasurer. The state public financing policy shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following components:

(a) The use of moral obligation pledges;

(b) The criteria for the issuance or incurrence of financial obligations by the state acting by and through a state agency;

(c) The use of derivatives;

(d) The use of variable rate financial obligations;

(e) Credit objectives;

(f) The structuring practices for each type of financial obligation, including, but not limited to, information about the term, maturity, and type of interest;

(g) Acceptable methods of sale;
(h) Policies for determining when selection of external financial professionals is appropriate;

(i) Policies related to the refunding of financial obligations;

(j) Policies related to primary and continuing disclosure requirements for financial obligations;

(k) Policies related to post-issuance compliance with federal and state tax and securities laws, including arbitrage, rebate, and remedial action requirements; and

(l) Policies for investment of proceeds where not otherwise covered by law.

(6) (a) No later than ten days after a state institution of higher education enters into or issues a financial obligation in a principal amount of one million dollars or more that is secured in whole or in part by state revenues or revenues of the institution and that the state treasurer does not manage pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, including any bonds subject to the higher education revenue bond intercept program established in section 23-5-139, C.R.S., the state institution of higher education shall notify the state treasurer that it has entered into the financial obligation. The notification shall include at least the following information:

(I) A copy of any official statement or other offering document for the issuance or incurrence of the financial obligation;

(II) A copy of any filings or correspondence with the federal internal revenue service with respect to the issuance or incurrence, including, if applicable, a copy of each form 8038 or form 8038G;

(III) A copy of the continuing disclosure undertaking; and

(IV) Any other information that is described in the state public financing policy promulgated pursuant to subsection (5) of this section related to the issuance or incurrence.

(b) No later than ten days after the high-performance transportation enterprise created in section 43-4-806 (2), C.R.S., or the statewide bridge enterprise created in section 43-4-805 (2), C.R.S., enters into the financial contracts or instruments specified in sub-subparagraph (A) and (B) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, the enterprises shall notify the state treasurer that they have entered into or issued such a financial contract or instrument. The notification shall include at least the following information:

(I) A copy of any official statement or other offering document for the issuance or incurrence of such a financial contract or instrument;

(II) A copy of any filings or correspondence with the federal internal revenue service with respect to the issuance or incurrence, including, if applicable, a copy of each form 8038 or form 8038G;

(III) A copy of the continuing disclosure undertaking; and

(7) (a) On and after July 1, 2012, the issuance or incurrence of every financial obligation by the state acting by and through a state agency that the state treasurer manages pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall include, to the extent allowed by the internal revenue code, an amount determined by the state treasurer not to exceed the lesser of one hundred thousand dollars or two percent of the principal proceeds of the issuance or incurrence to be paid to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit the moneys to the state public financing cash fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund consists of moneys deposited in the fund pursuant to this paragraph (a) and shall be used solely for the purposes described in paragraph
(b) of this subsection (7). The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the state treasurer. All unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the fund and all interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund at the end of a fiscal year.

(b) To the extent permitted by bond counsel, the moneys in the state public financing cash fund shall be used to reimburse the state treasurer for verifiable costs incurred in performing or overseeing the state's primary issuance compliance and post-issuance compliance responsibilities over the term of a financial obligation, including complying with or monitoring compliance with the requirements of the internal revenue code, making public disclosures or continuing disclosure undertakings required pursuant to federal securities laws or ensuring that such disclosures are made, and performing or coordinating requirements in connection with the financial obligation.

(8) No later than ninety days after May 24, 2012, the state treasurer shall create and maintain a correct and current inventory of all state-owned real property described in section 24-30-1303.5 that is leased property or collateral in any type of financial obligation. The state treasurer shall annually provide a copy of the inventory to the capital development committee.

ARTICLE 37

Office of State Planning and Budgeting

Editor's note: This article was added in 1974. This article was repealed and reenacted in 1983, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this article prior to 1983, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editors' notes following those sections that were relocated.

PART 1

OFFICE CREATED

24-37-101. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Capital construction" has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-30-1301 (2).
(2) "Capital renewal" has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-30-1301 (3).
(3) "Controlled maintenance" has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-30-1301 (4), including the limitations specified in section 24-30-1303.9.
(4) "Director" means the director of the office of state planning and budgeting.
(5) "Information technology budget request" has the same meaning as set forth in section 2-3-1701 (2.5), C.R.S.
(6) "Office" means the office of state planning and budgeting.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-37-100.3 as it existed prior to 1983.
(2) Amendments to this section by HB 14-1387 and HB 14-1395 were harmonized.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 14-1387, see section 1 of chapter 378, Session Laws of Colorado 2014.

24-37-102. Office of state planning and budgeting - creation. There is hereby created in the office of the governor an office of state planning and budgeting, the head of which shall be the director of the office of state planning and budgeting, who shall be appointed by the governor and who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37-101 as it existed prior to 1983.

24-37-103. Director - duties. (1) The director shall:
(a) Develop the annual executive planning, programming, and budgeting cycle, consistent with the provisions of this article;
(b) Develop long-range plans for both operating and capital construction budgets and for the state revenue structure;
(c) Review pending legislation and determine the economic impact, if any, of such legislation upon the people of this state. The director shall report his or her findings, together with any projections he or she deems necessary, to the governor.
(d) Publish an annual performance report as specified in section 2-7-204, C.R.S.; and
(e) Approve or disapprove, after consultation with the joint budget committee, requests for moneys from the community supervision supplemental fund created pursuant to section 17-1-114, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37-102 as it existed prior to 1983.
24-37-104. Acceptance of gifts and grants. The office, with the approval of the governor, is specifically empowered to receive and expend all grants, gifts, and bequests, where such grants, gifts, or bequests involve no state funds for acquisition, construction, or operation, including federal funds available for the purposes for which the office exists, and to contract with the United States and all other legal entities with respect thereto. The office may provide, where such funds are specifically appropriated, matching funds wherever funds, grants, gifts, bequests, and contractual assistance are available on such basis. The office shall provide such information, reports, and services as may be necessary to secure such financial aid.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37-106 as it existed prior to 1983.

24-37-105. Transfer of functions. (1) The office shall, on and after July 1, 1984, execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested in the office of state planning and budgeting as a principal department prior to said date concerning the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article. On and after July 1, 1984, the officers and employees of the office of state planning and budgeting as a principal department prior to said date whose duties and functions concerned the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article and whose employment in the office is deemed necessary by the director to carry out the purposes of this article shall be transferred to the office and become employees thereof. Such employees shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and regulations.

(2) On July 1, 1984, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the office of state planning and budgeting as a principal department prior to said date pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article, are transferred to the office and become the property thereof.

(3) Whenever the office of state planning and budgeting is referred to or designated by a contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office created pursuant to this article. All contracts entered into by the office of state planning and budgeting as a principal department prior to July 1, 1984, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article are hereby validated, with the office created by this article succeeding to all the rights and obligations of such contracts. Any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to such contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the office created by this article for the payment of such obligations.

PART 2

STATE PLANNING - RESPONSIBILITIES

24-37-201. State planning - responsibilities. (1) The office of state planning and budgeting shall:

(a) Repealed.

(b) Stimulate and encourage state agencies to engage in long-range and short-range planning in their respective areas of responsibility with the assistance of the office of the state architect;

(c) Review and coordinate the planning efforts of state agencies, including the relationship of such efforts with federal and local governmental programs;

(d) Furnish the office of the state architect and the state agencies with data, projections, and other technical assistance needed to discharge the state agencies’ planning responsibilities and coordinate the exchange of relevant reports, data, and projections among state agencies;

(e) From time to time, conduct public hearings to encourage maximum public understanding and agreement as to factual data and assumptions upon which projections and analyses are based and also to receive suggestions as to types of projections and analyses that are needed;

(f) Participate in comprehensive interstate planning and other activities related thereto;

(g) Make studies and inquiries relevant to state planning of the resources of the state and of the problems of agriculture, industry, and commerce, as well as population and urban growth, local government, and related matters affecting the development of the state;

(h) Prepare, and from time to time revise, an inventory, in collaboration with the appropriate state and federal agencies, of the public and private natural resources, of major public and private works, and of other facilities and information which are deemed of importance in planning for the development of the state, not pertaining to cartography;

(i) Supply to the public available information developed pursuant to this subsection (1);

(j) Accept and receive grants and services relevant to state planning from the federal government, other state agencies, local governments, and private and civic sources;

(k) Act as reviewing authority or otherwise provide cooperative services under any federal-state planning programs.

(2) The office of state planning and budgeting shall exercise care so as not to duplicate the projections from data of state agencies and nonstate agencies and shall utilize such projections to the maximum extent possible.

PART 3

BUDGETING - RESPONSIBILITIES

Editor's note: The provisions formerly located in part 4 of this article are now located in this part 3. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

24-37-301. Executive budget responsibility. The governor, as chief executive, shall annually evaluate the plans, policies, and programs of all departments of the state government. He shall direct the formulation of his decisions into a financial plan encompassing all sources of revenue and expenditure. He shall propose this plan for the consideration of the general assembly in the form of an annual executive budget consisting of operating expenditures, capital construction expenditures, estimated revenues, and special surveys. Proposed expenditures in the budget shall not exceed estimated moneys available. After legislative review and modification, if any, of the budget and appropriation of the moneys therefor, the governor shall administer the budget.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37-403 as it existed prior to 1983.

24-37-302. Responsibilities of the office of state planning and budgeting. (1) The office of state planning and budgeting shall assist the governor in his or her responsibilities pertaining to the executive budget. Specifically, it shall:

(a) Design and prepare, in coordination with the joint budget committee of the general assembly, the forms and instructions to be used in preparation of all budget requests except those pertaining to higher education. Such budget requests shall include, but shall not be limited to, an analysis of costs, revenues, fund balances, and performance indicators for all programs notwithstanding the source of funds.

(a.5) Design and prepare, in coordination with the staff of the joint technology committee of the general assembly, the forms and instructions to be used in preparation of all budget requests and supplemental budget requests submitted to the joint technology committee pursuant to section 24-37-304 (1)(c.5). The staff of the joint technology committee shall make recommendations to the joint technology committee regarding such forms and instructions for the committee's approval. The forms and instructions shall require that budget requests submitted to the joint technology committee include:

(I) Information from a request for information issued pursuant to section 24-103-201.5, or other formal market research regarding the information technology budget request;

(II) A defined scope of work and information regarding whether a vendor or consultant assisted in preparing the specifications or statement of work included in the information technology budget request;

(III) A range of options for completing the project, including the estimated costs for such options; and

(IV) Any other available and relevant information obtained from the market research related to the information technology budget request.

(b) Review and approve the forms and instructions for higher education budget requests which are prescribed by the Colorado commission on higher education;

(c) Develop an annual executive planning, programming, and budgeting cycle;

(d) Develop, in coordination with the Colorado commission on higher education, for state-supported institutions of higher education, the annual executive budget timetable;

(e) Make recommendations to the governor on appointees to the governor's revenue-estimating advisory group; preside over meetings of and provide the staff for that group; and, with the advice of the group, assist in developing the general fund revenue estimates required by section 24-75-201.3;

(f) Conduct annual executive budget hearings on the plans, programs, policies, and budget requests of all state agencies in the executive department;

(g) Develop recommendations for the governor in his formulation of budget proposals to the general assembly and prepare for the governor the annual executive budget proposals to the general assembly, together with the proposed legislative bills embodying such proposals;

(h) Design, develop, and present briefings to the joint budget committee and the members of the general assembly, the general public, and other interested parties on the annual executive budget proposals;

(i) Make available to the governor-elect, if there is a governor-elect who is not the governor, complete details about the budget and the information upon which it is based;

(j) and (k) Repealed.

(k.1) Review for the governor all work programs recommended by the controller;

(k.2) Repealed.

(l) Develop procedures governing the submission of state agency requests to nonstate agencies for funds to be used for state purposes and problems; review for the governor all such requests requiring the commitment or expenditure of state funds; and advise the joint budget committee of the general assembly, prior to submission for approval, of any such requests committing the state to a program which has not theretofore had the approval of the general assembly;

(m) Continually review and recommend revisions of the plans, policies, and programs of the state agencies; propose alternative methods for accomplishing the objectives of state programs and policies; and develop and implement, in coordination with the controller, a system for evaluating the results of and measuring the effectiveness of governmental expenditures;
(n) Develop long-range fiscal plans for both operating and capital construction budgets and for the state revenue structure, such plans to be consistent with the policies and objectives of state planning.

(2) The director shall have such authority, with the approval of the governor, as is necessary to discharge the responsibilities set forth in subsection (1) of this section, including but not limited to the publication of administrative regulations and the acceptance of gifts and grants.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the director of the office of state planning and budgeting shall require that all state agency budget submissions be distributed in an electronic format either by delivery of a compact disc or by the sending of an electronic notification that includes an attached budget submission or a hyperlink to the website where the budget submission is posted.

(b) The department of state, the department of the treasury, the department of law, the judicial department, the office of state public defender, the office of alternate defense counsel, the independent ethics commission, the office of the child's representative, and the office of the child protection ombudsman shall use the state agency budget submissions described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) as a guideline for the submission of their budgets to the joint budget committee.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-37-405 as it existed prior to 1983.

(2) Amendments to subsection (1)(k) by House Bill 86-1354 and House Bill 86-1355 were harmonized.

(3) Subsection (1)(k)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(k), effective September 1, 1986. (See L. 86, pp. 961, 963.)

(4) Subsection (1)(k.2)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(k.2), effective September 1, 1990. (See L. 89, p. 1098.)

(5) Subsection (1)(k.2)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(k.2), effective September 1, 2004. (See L. 99, p. 697.)

Cross references: In 2010, subsection (3) was added by the "State Measurement for Accountable, Responsive, and Transparent (SMART) Government Act". For the short title, see section 1 of chapter 340, Session Laws of Colorado 2010.
24-37-303. Governor has final authority. The final authority and decision in all matters relating to the executive budget is hereby vested in the governor.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37-406 as it existed prior to 1983.

24-37-304. Additional budgeting responsibilities. (1) In addition to the responsibilities enumerated in section 24-37-302, the office of state planning and budgeting shall:

(a) Annually evaluate plans, policies, programs, and budget requests of all departments, institutions, and agencies of the executive branch of state government. The office of state planning and budgeting shall develop a financial plan encompassing all sources of revenue and expenditure. It shall propose this plan for the budget, consisting of operating expenditures, capital construction expenditures, estimated revenues, and special surveys, but the plan for capital construction expenditures must consider recommendations made by the office of the state architect for state agencies, and recommendations made by the Colorado commission on higher education for state institutions of higher education. Budget requests shall include a description of one or more measurable annual objectives in the areas of operational efficiency and effectiveness for each department, institution, and agency. Proposed expenditures in the budget shall not exceed estimated moneys available.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c.3) or (c.5) of this subsection (1), ensure submission to the joint budget committee of the general assembly by the deadlines set forth in section 2-3-208, C.R.S., of all state agency requests for the upcoming year;

(b.5) Except as provided in paragraph (c.3) or (c.5) of this subsection (1), ensure submission to the joint budget committee of the general assembly by the deadlines set forth in section 2-3-208, C.R.S., of all state agency requests for supplemental appropriations for the current fiscal year;

(c) Repealed.

(c.3) (I) Ensure submission to the capital development committee of:

(A) Except for projects authorized pursuant to section 23-1-106 (9), C.R.S., all cash-funded capital construction or capital renewal budget requests by each state agency for the upcoming fiscal year no later than September 15 of each year;

(B) All state-funded capital construction or capital renewal budget requests by each state agency or state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year no later than October 1 of each year;

(C) The recommended priority of funding of capital construction or capital renewal projects of each state agency or state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year no later than November 1 of each year;

(D) All state-funded controlled maintenance budget requests by each state agency or state institution of higher education as recommended by the office of the state architect pursuant to section 24-30-1303 (1)(k.5) and (1)(t)(II) for the upcoming fiscal year no later than December 1 of each year; and
(E) All requests for supplemental appropriations for capital construction, capital renewal, and controlled maintenance requests for the current or previous fiscal year by each state agency or state institution of higher education no later than December 10 of each year.

(II) All new or amended capital construction, capital renewal, or controlled maintenance budget requests submitted by a state agency or state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year after the deadlines specified in sub-subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), or (D) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c.3) as a result of circumstances unknown to, and not reasonably foreseeable by, the state agency or the state institution of higher education must be submitted no later than December 10 of each year.

(III) The office may modify the recommended priority of funding of capital construction or capital renewal projects of each state agency and state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year no later than the January 1 of the year following the original submission described in sub-subparagraph (C) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c.3).

(IV) In the event of an emergency, the office may submit a capital construction, capital renewal, or controlled maintenance budget request for a state agency or state institution of higher education after the deadlines specified in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (c.3) if the office, as soon as possible but no later than thirty days after determining the emergency, makes a presentation to the capital development committee explaining the nature of the emergency and the estimated time for submission of such budget request.

(c.5) (I) Ensure submission to the joint technology committee of:

(A) All information technology budget requests by each state agency or state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year no later than October 1 of each year;

(B) The recommended priority of funding of all information technology budget requests for the upcoming fiscal year no later than November 1 of each year; and

(C) All requests for supplemental information technology budget requests for the current or previous fiscal year by each state agency or state institution of higher education no later than December 10 of each year.

(II) All new or amended information technology budget requests submitted by a state agency or state institution of higher education for the upcoming fiscal year after the deadlines specified in sub-subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c.5) as a result of circumstances unknown to, and not reasonably foreseeable by, the state agency or the state institution of higher education must be submitted no later than December 10 of each year.

(III) The office may modify the recommended priority for information technology budget requests for the upcoming fiscal year no later than January 1 of the year following the original submission described in sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c.5).

(IV) In the event of an emergency, the office may submit an information technology budget request for a state agency or state institution of higher education after the deadlines specified in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (c.5) if the office, as soon as possible but no later than thirty days after determining the emergency, makes a presentation to the joint technology committee explaining the nature of the emergency and the estimated time for submission of such budget request.

(V) Any new or amended information technology budget request or supplemental information technology budget request submitted to the joint technology committee pursuant to this paragraph (c.5) must clearly identify and quantify anticipated administrative and operating efficiencies or program enhancements and service expansion through cost-benefit analyses and return on investment calculations.

d) Execute the appropriations acts or other acts having fiscal implications in such a manner as to assure compliance with the expenditure limitation, by source of funds, personnel authorizations, contingency and performance requirements, and legislative intent;

e) Repealed.

f) Develop, or cause to be developed, current operational master plans for each state institution and agency, except state schools, colleges, and universities as provided in section 23-1-106, C.R.S., for submission to and approval by the general assembly;

g) Develop and enforce a method of internal audit that will assure compliance with appropriations provisions and executive orders;

h) Carry out such other functions and duties as may be directed by the governor.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-37-301 as it existed prior to 1983.

(2) Amendments to subsections (1)(b) and (1)(b.5) by HB 14-1387 and HB 14-1395 were harmonized.

24-37-305. 2018-19 fiscal year - required reductions in departmental and executive branch budget requests. (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section, for the 2018-19 budget year, each principal department of state government that submits a budget request to the office of state planning and budgeting shall request, when submitting the budget request, a total budget for the department that is at least two percent lower than its actual budget for the 2017-18 fiscal year.

(b) The requirement specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section does not apply to the department of education created in section 24-1-115 (1) or the department of transportation created in section 24-1-128.7 (1).

(2) The office of state planning and budgeting shall strongly consider the budget reduction proposals made by each principal department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section when preparing the annual executive budget proposals to the general assembly for the governor as required by section 24-37-302 (1)(g) and shall seek to ensure, subject to section 24-37-303, that the executive budget proposal for each department is at least two percent lower than the department's actual budget for the 2017-18 fiscal year.

PART 4

PAY FOR SUCCESS CONTRACTS

24-37-401. Short title. This part 4 shall be known and may be cited as the "Pay For Success Contracts Act".

Source: L. 2015: Entire part added, (HB 15-1317), ch. 205, p. 737, § 1, effective May 20.

24-37-402. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Contract" means a pay for success contract entered into by the office and a lead contractor, or the office, one or more local governments, and a lead contractor as authorized by section 24-37-403.
2. "Fund" means the pay for success contracts fund created in section 24-37-403.
3. "Investor" means a person or entity that is not a lead contractor or provider and that provides working capital to fund the provision of services under a contract.
4. "Lead contractor" means an organization or local government selected by the director of the office to participate in the state program by:
   a. Entering into a pay for success contract with the office or with the office and one or more local governments, as applicable, to provide program-eligible interventions directly or through subcontracts with other providers;
   b. Overseeing the provision of program-eligible interventions by any other providers with which it subcontracts; and
   c. Using its own money or borrowing money to pay the costs of providing program-eligible interventions throughout the contract as negotiated by the parties and, if the program-eligible interventions that it provides meet the defined performance targets established in a pay for success contract, receiving success payments.
5. "Local government" means a county, municipality, or school district.
6. "Program-eligible interventions" means services provided in order to improve the lives and living conditions of individuals by increasing economic opportunity and the likelihood of healthy futures and promoting child and youth development.
7. "Provider" means a person or entity that provides program-eligible interventions on a for-profit or nonprofit basis. "Provider" includes:
(a) A lead contractor that provides program-eligible interventions directly rather than entering into subcontracts with other providers for the provision of such interventions; and

(b) A local government, which may be the same local government that establishes a program-eligible interventions program, that provides program-eligible interventions.

(8) "School district" means any public school district organized under state law or an institute charter school created pursuant to part 5 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S. "School district" does not include a local college district.

(9) "State program" means the pay for success contracts program established in section 24-37-403.

(10) "Success payments" means payments made to the lead contractor for meeting defined performance targets specified in a pay for success contract.

24-37-403. Establishment of state pay for success contracts program - pay for success contracts fund - creation. (1) There is hereby established in the office the state pay for success contracts program. The purpose of the state program is to provide authorization, subject to specified requirements and limitations, for the office to enter into pay for success contracts with one or more lead contractors for the provision of program-eligible interventions.

(2) Before entering into a pay for success contract authorized by this section, the office, one or more local governments, or the office and one or more local governments shall conduct a request for proposal process. The request for proposal must describe the desired population to be served, desired outcomes, and the potential duration of a pay for success program and may include performance targets. The office shall make a request for proposal issued pursuant to this subsection (2) publicly available on its website upon its issuance.

(3) The office, or the office and one or more local governments as authorized by subsection (4) of this section, may enter into a contract with a lead contractor for the provision of program-eligible interventions. Entry into such a contract is generally subject to the requirements of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title 24, and the office is encouraged, but not required, to use the request for proposals process specified in section 24-103-203. When developing and reviewing the terms of a pay for success contract, the office may consult with the state treasurer on financial terms and with experts to provide advice regarding definition of appropriate performance targets. A contract shall not require or authorize the state to use federal moneys to make success payments unless federal law or federal regulations authorize the use of federal moneys for that purpose. Before it enters into a contract, the office shall make the contract available to the public on the office's website and provide an opportunity for public comment regarding the contract. Prior to entering into the terms of a contract, a contract must:

(a) Clearly define the type, scope, and duration of the program-eligible interventions that the lead contractor will directly or indirectly provide, which it must provide by implementing a new program or expanding the population served by an existing program, or both, and the specific outcomes sought based on defined performance targets. The interventions that a lead contractor directly or indirectly provides must not supplant any existing state, local government, or school district employee who is providing the same interventions that the lead contractor will directly or indirectly provide.
(b) Detail the roles and responsibilities of each party to the contract and identified subcontractors;

(c) State that once the contract is executed, an investor that is funding the activities of a lead contractor under the terms of the contract is prohibited from dictating the manner of delivery of services to be provided under the terms of the contract by the lead contractor or any other provider that are not related to the potential for the project to deliver the success measures in the contract. This paragraph (c) does not prohibit an investor from performing due diligence on its investment or managing the investment.

(d) Provide for an objective process by which an independent evaluator determines whether the defined performance targets have been achieved;

(e) Specify that the provision of program-eligible interventions provided by the lead contractor may not exceed a period of seven years unless one or more defined performance targets specified in the contract is met within the first seven years in which the interventions are provided, but the evaluation of the success of the contract may take into account outcomes that occur at any time after the provision of program-eligible interventions has been completed;

(f) Specify the procedures that the lead contractor must follow to request payments and a repayment schedule;

(g) State that any request for payment made by the lead contractor is subject to approval by the office and that the obligation of the office to make any payment is subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly; and

(h) Include a clause that specifies any causes for and the procedures for early termination of a contract, requires at least ninety days notice to each party to the contract and any service provider of a proposed termination, and requires a transition plan that minimizes any negative impact on the individuals being served by the lead contractor should early termination occur.

(4) With the approval of the office and the lead contractor, one or more local governments may be additional parties to a contract to be entered into by the office as authorized by subsection (3) of this section if the chief financial officer and the governing body of each participating local government review and approve the terms of the proposed contract. Any contract that includes one or more local governments as additional parties shall provide for the allocation of payment responsibilities between the state and each local government if the lead contractor meets the defined performance targets specified in the contract.

(5) The office shall enact a sustainability plan based on successful outcomes and performance for those program-eligible interventions that yield savings as assessed by an independent evaluator. If requested by the office or the state auditor, the independent evaluator shall provide its assessment and the data underlying its assessment to the state auditor for review. The office shall annually make publicly available a summary that identifies the defined performance targets met and not met and amounts of success payments paid.

(6) (a) The pay for success contracts fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund consists of:

(I) Moneys appropriated or transferred to the fund by the general assembly that have become available or are expected to become available due to direct or indirect reductions in state spending resulting from the provision of program-eligible interventions programs under a contract entered into pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; and

(II) Any other money that the general assembly appropriates or transfers to the fund.
(b) Interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of money in the fund is credited to the fund. Subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly, the office shall expend moneys in the fund to make payments to the lead contractor as required by a contract and to pay any administrative expenses incurred in connection with a contract.

(7) Funding provided by a nongovernmental entity for a program to be implemented under the terms of a pay for success contract is not a grant, as defined in section 24-75-1301, even if the funding is not ultimately required to be repaid because the entity receives contractual consideration from the state in exchange for the funding in the form of a promise to make success payments if the program is successful.

(8) Unless otherwise specifically provided, nothing in this section exempts the state, a lead contractor, or any other person involved in the provision of services being provided through a program that is implemented through a pay for success contract from the requirements of any applicable federal, state, or local law or rule.

ARTICLE 37.3

Colorado Food Systems Advisory Council

24-37.3-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
   (a) In September 2009, the federal centers for disease control and prevention reported that no state in the United States was meeting national goals for the amount of fruits and vegetables that Americans should be eating. As a result, the centers for disease control and prevention identified the creation of food policy councils, consisting of multi-stakeholder organizations, as an effective way to support system changes to improve local, regional, and state food economies.
   (b) Food councils formed in other states have been effective in bringing together a broad array of food-related government and nongovernment constituencies to employ a food systems approach that facilitates evaluation and program development at every stage of the food process from farm to table;
   (c) Formation of a state food advisory council is intended to benefit Colorado agriculturists and others involved in all aspects of agricultural production;
   (d) Creation of a state food advisory council will provide increased focus on the economic development opportunities of Colorado's food system along with improvements to agricultural production, community well-being, and public health;
   (e) Nothing in this article is intended to impede, cause harm to, or limit conventionally produced agricultural products or the persons who produce them.

(2) The general assembly further finds that building local, regional, and state food economies will create jobs, stimulate statewide economic development, and circulate money from local food sales within local communities. The general assembly finds that building robust, resilient, and long-term local food economies in Colorado will preserve and protect the natural environment, increase consumer access to fresh, healthy, and safe foods, and provide greater food security for all Coloradans.

24-37.3-102. Colorado food systems advisory council - created - membership - terms - vacancies. (1) There is hereby established in the department of agriculture the Colorado food systems advisory council, referred to in this article as the "council". The council is created as an advisory committee to foster a healthy food supply available to all Colorado residents while enhancing the state's agricultural and natural resources, encouraging economic growth, expanding the viability of agriculture, and improving the health of our communities and residents. The council's role is to make recommendations to the general assembly and to the appropriate regulatory agencies, not to create policy. The council shall use a method of dialogue and consensus decision-making to arrive at its recommendations.

(2) The council consists of fifteen members as follows:
   (a) The executive director, or his or her designee, of each of the following state departments:
      (I) The department of public health and environment;
      (II) The department of agriculture;
      (III) The department of human services;
      (IV) The department of education;
   (b) Eleven members appointed by the governor who represent and have expertise in one of seven functional areas of food systems, as follows:
      (I) Two members who represent nutrition and health;
      (II) Three members who represent agricultural production, at least one of whom represents a large producer and one a small producer;
      (III) One member who represents small food wholesalers or food retailers and one member who represents large food wholesalers or food retailers, of which one of the two members may represent both small and large food wholesalers or food retailers;
      (IV) One member who represents anti-hunger and food assistance programs;
      (V) One member who is knowledgeable about a local, state, or federal agency and who has expertise in rural community and regional development programs or community and economic development programs.
      (VI) One member from an academic institution who specializes in economic systems, agriculture, or health care;
      (VII) The director of the Colorado state university extension services program or his or her designee.

(3) In making appointments to the council, the governor shall ensure that the membership of the council includes geographic representation from all areas of the state. The governor shall also consider appointing persons who have expertise in more than one functional area. No more than five members of the council appointed by the governor shall be members of the same political party.

(4) Each member of the council who is appointed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority who appointed the member. Each member of the council shall serve a three-year term; except that the governor shall appoint four members to serve two-year terms.

(5) The appointing authorities shall make their initial appointments to the council no later than October 1, 2010.

(6) Any vacancy on the council shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made, and the term shall be for the balance of the unexpired term of the member whose term is vacant.

(7) A majority of the members of the council shall elect a chair and a vice-chair who shall serve for two-year terms. A member of the council who is an executive director of a state department or his or her designee may be elected to be a chair or a vice-chair of the council, but both positions shall not be held at the same time by members who are executive directors of state departments or their designees.

(8) Each member of the council shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed from the food systems advisory council fund created in section 24-37.3-105 for actual and necessary subsistence and travel expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties as a member of the council.

(9) The chair shall call the meetings and notify the members of each meeting being called at least seven days in advance. Meetings shall be held as often as the chair deems necessary, but not less than four times each calendar year. A quorum for the transaction of business consists of seven members of the council.

24-37.3-103. Council - purpose and duties. (1) The purpose of the council is to:
(a) Identify and use existing studies of the food system and examples of best practices, whenever possible;
(b) Work with other task forces, committees, or organizations that are pursuing initiatives or studies similar to the purposes and duties outlined in this article and develop relationships with other task forces, committees, or organizations to collaborate on similar efforts;
(c) Develop local food recommendations that promote the building of robust, resilient, and long-term local food economies;
(d) Develop recommendations regarding hunger and food access;
(e) Collaborate with, serve as a resource to, and receive input from local and regional food policy councils in the state;
(f) Collaborate with the department of agriculture in promoting the marketing program known as "Colorado Proud", which helps consumers, restaurants, and retailers to identify and purchase Colorado food and agricultural products; and
(g) Develop recommendations for actions that state and local governments, businesses, agriculturists, and consumers can take to build robust, resilient, and long-term local food economies.

(2) In developing its recommendations, the council shall consider, but not be limited to, the following areas of interest:
(a) (I) An examination of foods made available to children, including those in public schools, and consideration of ways to improve the nutritional quality of those foods and increase children's access to locally grown foods.

(II) In designing recommendations to improve school nutrition and increase access to locally grown foods, the council shall incorporate input from, and coordinate with the work of, the Colorado campaign to end childhood hunger by 2015, initiated by executive order of the governor.

(b) A study of efforts to make local, healthy, and safe foods available under public assistance programs, including the possibility of using electronic benefit cards for the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and federal farmers' market nutrition program (FMNP) coupons at local farmers' markets;

(c) An in-depth examination of local and regional efforts to strengthen and develop robust, resilient, and long-term local food economies by supporting and promoting urban, suburban, and rural agricultural production; identifying and developing solutions to regulatory and policy barriers; and strengthening local infrastructure and entrepreneurial efforts;

(d) The potential impacts that the production of local, healthy, and safe foods would have on economic development in Colorado, including both the direct impacts for the producers of local food and the actual and potential indirect impacts, such as encouraging restaurants to feature locally raised agricultural products and promoting food and wine tourism; and

(e) Any other issues the council, by consensus, considers pertinent.

24-37.3-104. Subcommittees of the council. (1) (a) The council may create subcommittees, as the council deems necessary, to carry out the work of the council. These subcommittees may include but are not limited to:

(I) Local and regional food councils;

(II) Local government;

(III) School districts, the members of which shall include persons with expertise in nutrition and in school financing; and

(IV) A coordination subcommittee to collaborate with other task forces, committees, and organizations, including the interagency farm-to-school coordination task force created in section 22-82.6-104, C.R.S.

(b) The subcommittees shall include representatives of the council and may include persons appointed by the chair and the vice-chair of the council who are not members of the council.

(2) The council may engage in any other activity the council determines is necessary to accomplish the purposes outlined in this article.

24-37.3-105. Fund - acceptance of gifts, grants, or donations. (1) For the purposes of carrying out the duties of the council, the council is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, or donations, including in-kind donations, from private or public sources for the purposes of this article; except that the council may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this article or any other law of the state. The council may accept in-kind donations of staff services from the private sector to staff the council. The council is also authorized to accept and expend federal funds available for food policy councils. All private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the food systems advisory council fund, which fund is hereby created and referred to in this section as the "fund". The moneys in the fund must be continuously appropriated by the general assembly to the department of agriculture for allocation to the council for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing this article. Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this article may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not revert or be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund; except that, if, at the time this article is repealed pursuant to section 24-37.3-107, the fund contains a balance of unencumbered and unexpended moneys, those moneys shall revert to the general fund.

(2) Moneys in the fund may be used for the following purposes:
   (a) The actual and necessary expenses incurred by members of the council for serving on the council;
   (b) The costs of staffing the council; and
   (c) The costs of preparing and submitting the annual report required by section 24-37.3-106.

(3) It is the intent of the general assembly that no moneys from the general fund be appropriated for the council. It is also the intent of the general assembly that no state employees be hired to implement this article and that the administrative costs of providing fiscal support to the council be absorbed by the department of agriculture.

(4) If the council does not receive sufficient moneys through gifts, grants, and donations pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to carry out the duties of the council, the council shall not meet and shall not prepare an annual report pursuant to section 24-37.3-106 until such time as sufficient moneys become available.

24-37.3-106. Reports - recommendations. Commencing October 1, 2011, and on or before October 1 of each year thereafter, the council shall report its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals or proposals for administrative action, to the general assembly, the governor, and the commissioner of agriculture pursuant to section 24-1-136 (9). No later than January 31, 2012, and every January thereafter, the council shall also report its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals, to the house health and human services committee; the senate health and human services committee; the house agriculture, livestock, and natural resources committee; and the senate agriculture and natural resources committee or their successor committees.

Office of Information Technology

Editor's note: This article was added with relocations in 1999. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

PART 1

OFFICE CREATED

24-37.5-101. Legislative declaration - findings. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Communication and information resources in the various agencies of state government are valuable strategic assets belonging to the people of Colorado that must be managed accordingly;

(a.5) It is imperative that the long-term sustainability and eventual retirement of information technology systems be considered when initiating a major information technology project and that project plans include the various components that will result in project success;

(b) Technological and theoretical advances in the area of communication and information use are recent in origin, immense in scope and complexity, and progressing rapidly;

(c) The nature of these advances presents Colorado with the opportunity to provide higher quality, more timely, and more cost-effective governmental services;

(d) Agencies independently acquire uncoordinated and duplicative information resource technologies that are more appropriately acquired as part of a coordinated effort for maximum cost effectiveness and use;

(e) The sharing of communication and information resource technologies among agencies is often the most cost-effective method of providing the highest quality and most timely governmental services that would otherwise be cost prohibitive;

(f) Considerations of both cost and the need for the transfer of information among the various agencies and branches of state government in the most timely and useful form possible require a uniform policy and coordinated system for the use and acquisition of communication and information resource technologies; and
It is the policy of this state to coordinate and direct the use of communication and information resources technologies by state agencies and to provide as soon as possible the most cost-effective and useful retrieval and exchange of information both within and among the various state agencies and branches of government and from the state agencies and branches of government to the people of Colorado. To that end, the office of information technology is created.

24-37.5-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Chief information officer" means the chief information officer appointed pursuant to section 24-37.5-103.
(1.3) Repealed.
(1.5) "Disaster recovery" means the provisioning of services for operational recovery, readiness, response, and transition of information technology applications, systems, or resources.
(1.6) "Enterprise agreement" means any agreement for the purchase of information technology or for the purchase of goods or services that are related to information technology that the office enters into for the benefit of the state and that is created in furtherance of the office's requirements or responsibilities specified in this article.
(1.7) "Enterprise facility" means any facility, including state offices, state warehouses, state leased spaces, and vendor facilities, that the office designates as a facility where state data, equipment, information technology, or goods related to information technology will be located or where services related to information technology will be performed.
(1.8) "Independent verification and validation" means ensuring that a product, service, or system meets required specifications and that it fulfills its intended purpose. The review of such product, service, or system is typically performed by an independent third party.
(1.9) "Information security" means the protection of communication and information resources from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, disruption, modification, or destruction in order to:
(a) Prevent improper information modification or destruction;
(b) Preserve authorized restrictions on information access and disclosure;
(c) Ensure timely and reliable access to and use of information; and
(d) Maintain the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information.
(2) "Information technology" means information technology and computer-based equipment and related services designed for the storage, manipulation, and retrieval of data by electronic or mechanical means, or both. The term includes but is not limited to:
(a) Central processing units, servers for all functions, network routers, personal computers, laptop computers, hand-held processors, and all related peripheral devices configurable to such equipment, such as data storage devices, document scanners, data entry equipment, specialized end-user terminal equipment, and equipment and systems supporting communications networks;
(b) All related services, including feasibility studies, systems design, software development, system testing, external off-site storage, and network services, whether provided by state employees or by others;

(c) The systems, programs, routines, and processes used to employ and control the capabilities of data processing hardware, including operating systems, compilers, assemblers, utilities, library routines, maintenance routines, applications, application testing capabilities, storage system software, hand-held device operating systems, and computer networking programs; and

(d) The application of electronic information processing hardware, software, or telecommunications to support state government business processes.

(2.3) "Joint technology committee" means the joint technology committee created in section 2-3-1702, C.R.S.

(2.5) "Local government" means the government of any county, city and county, home rule or statutory city, town, special district, or school district.

(2.6) (a) "Major information technology project" means a project of state government that has a significant information technology component, including, without limitation, the replacement of an existing information technology system.

(b) As used in this subsection (2.6), "significant" means the project has a specific level of business criticality and manifests either a security risk or an operational risk as determined by a comprehensive risk assessment performed by the office.

(3) "Office" means the office of information technology created pursuant to section 24-37.5-103.

(3.2) "Project manager" means a person who is trained and experienced in the leadership and management of information technology projects from the commencement of such projects through their completion.

(3.5) Repealed.

(4) "State agency" means all of the departments, divisions, commissions, boards, bureaus, and institutions in the executive branch of the state government. "State agency" does not include the legislative or judicial department, the department of law, the department of state, the department of the treasury, or state-supported institutions of higher education.

Editor's note: Subsection (1.3)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (1.3) and subsection (3.5)(b) provided for the real of subsection (3.5), effective July 1, 2014. (See L. 2010, p. 1729.)
24-37.5-103. Office of information technology - creation. There is hereby created in the office of the governor an office of information technology, the head of which shall be the chief information officer, who shall be appointed by the governor and who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

24-37.5-104. Transfer of functions - change of name - continuity of existence - legislative declaration - rules. (1) The office shall, on and after July 1, 1999, execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested in the commission on information management as a commission in the department of personnel prior to said date concerning the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this section.

(2) (a) On and after July 1, 1999, the officers and employees of the commission on information management prior to said date whose duties and functions concerned the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this section and whose employment in the office is deemed necessary by the chief technology officer to carry out the purposes of this article shall be transferred to the office and become employees thereof.

(b) Any such employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and regulations.

(3) On July 1, 1999, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the commission on information management prior to said date pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this section, are transferred to the office and become the property thereof.

(4) Whenever the commission on information management is referred to or designated by a contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this article, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office created pursuant to this section. All contracts entered into by the commission on information management prior to July 1, 1999, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this section are hereby validated, with the office created by section 24-37.5-103 succeeding to all the rights and obligations of such contracts. Any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to such contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the office created by section 24-37.5-103 for the payment of such obligations.

(5) (a) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(I) Upon creation of this article, the name "office of innovation and technology" best reflected the activities of such office in the governor's office in connection with the coordination and direction of the use of communication and information resources technologies by state agencies.

(II) To better reflect the current activities of this office, the office should be referred to as the "office of information technology".
(III) The name of the office in the governor's office that coordinates and directs the use of communication and information resources technologies by state agencies should accordingly be changed from the "office of innovation and technology" to the "office of information technology".

(b) On and after July 1, 2006, the office of information technology shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested in the office of innovation and technology prior to July 1, 2006, and all employees of the office of innovation and technology shall be transferred to the office of information technology and shall become employees thereof. Such employees shall retain all rights to the state personnel system and retirement benefits under the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolition of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and rules.

(d) Whenever the office of innovation and technology is referred to or designated by any contract or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office of information technology. All contracts entered into by the office of innovation and technology prior to July 1, 2006, are hereby validated, with the office of information technology succeeding to all the rights and obligations of such contracts. Any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred under such contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the office of information technology for the payment of such obligations.

(e) On and after July 1, 2006, when any provision of the Colorado Revised Statutes refers to the office of innovation and technology, said law shall be construed as referring to the office of information technology. The revisor of statutes is authorized to change all references in the Colorado Revised Statutes to the office of innovation and technology to refer to the office of information technology.

(6) (a) The office shall, on and after July 1, 2008, execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested prior to July 1, 2008, in the general government computer center within the department of personnel, in telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and in the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor.

(b) (I) On and after July 1, 2008, all positions of employment in the general government computer center within the department of personnel, in telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and in the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor concerning the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (6) and whose employment in the office is deemed necessary to carry out the purposes of this article by the chief information officer shall be transferred to the office and shall become employment positions therein. The chief information officer shall appoint such employees as are necessary to carry out the duties and exercise the powers conferred by law upon the office and the chief information officer.

(II) On and after July 1, 2008, all employees of the general government computer center within the department of personnel, in telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and in the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor whose duties and functions concerned the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (6), regardless of whether the position of employment in which the employee served was transferred, shall be considered employees of the office for purposes of section 24-50-124. Any such employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of the state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolition of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and rules.

(c) On July 1, 2008, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the general government computer center within the department of personnel, in telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and in the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (6), are transferred to the office and shall become the property thereof.

(d) On and after July 1, 2008, whenever the general government computer center within the department of personnel, whenever telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and whenever the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor is referred to or designated by a contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (6), such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office created pursuant to this article. All contracts entered into by the general government computer center within the department of personnel, by telecommunications coordination within the department of personnel, and by the office of the chief information security officer in the office of the governor prior to July 1, 2008, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (6), are hereby validated, with the office succeeding to all rights and obligations of the contracts. Any appropriations of moneys from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to the contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the office for the payment of such obligations.

(e) On and after July 1, 2008, unless otherwise specified, whenever any provision of law refers to the department of personnel in connection with the general government computer center, to telecommunications coordination, or to the office of the governor in connection with the office of the chief information security officer, the law shall be construed as referring to the office.

(f) All rules and orders of the department of personnel or the office of the governor in connection with the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office shall continue to be effective until revised, amended, repealed, or nullified pursuant to law. On and after July 1, 2008, the chief information officer shall adopt rules necessary for the administration of such powers, duties, and functions.

(g) The revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to change all references in the Colorado Revised Statutes to the department of personnel and office of the governor as appropriate and with respect to the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office. In connection with such authority, the revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to amend or delete provisions of the Colorado Revised Statutes so as to make the statutes consistent with the powers, duties, and functions transferred pursuant to this section.

(7) (a) There is hereby created in the office the enterprise facility for operational recovery, readiness, response, and transition services.
(b) On July 1, 2010, the enterprise facility for operational recovery, readiness, response, and transition services within the department of state, in coordination with participating state agencies, is transferred to the office.

(c) (I) On and after July 1, 2010, all positions of employment in the enterprise facility as it existed within the department of state concerning the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7) that are deemed necessary to carry out the purposes of this article by the chief information officer shall be transferred to the office and shall become employment positions therein. The chief information officer shall appoint such employees as are necessary to carry out the duties and exercise the powers conferred by law upon the office and the chief information officer.

(II) On and after July 1, 2010, all employees of the enterprise facility as it existed within the department of state whose duties and functions concerned the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7) shall be considered employees of the office for purposes of section 24-50-124, regardless of whether the position of employment in which the employee served was transferred to the office. Any such employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of the state, and their service shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and rules.

(d) On July 1, 2010, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the enterprise facility as it existed within the department of state pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7) are transferred to the office and shall become the property thereof.

(e) On and after July 1, 2010, whenever the enterprise facility for operational recovery, readiness, response, and transition services within the department of state, in coordination with participating state agencies, is referred to or designated by a contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7), such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the office created pursuant to this article. All contracts entered into by the enterprise facility as it existed within the department of state prior to July 1, 2010, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7) are hereby validated, with the office succeeding to all rights and obligations of the contracts. Any appropriations of moneys from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to the contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the office for the payment of such obligations.

(f) On and after July 1, 2010, unless otherwise specified, whenever any provision of law refers to the department of state in connection with the enterprise facility, the law shall be construed as referring to the office.

(g) All rules and orders of the department of state or the office of the governor in connection with the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (7) shall continue to be effective until revised, amended, repealed, or nullified pursuant to law. On and after July 1, 2010, the chief information officer shall adopt rules necessary for the administration of such powers, duties, and functions.

(h) On and after July 1, 2010, the enterprise facility shall be funded as follows:

(I) For state fiscal year 2010-11, one hundred percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104 (3)(b);
(II) For state fiscal year 2011-12, sixty-seven percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104 (3)(b) and thirty-three percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the information technology revolving fund established in section 24-37.5-112 (1)(a);

(III) For state fiscal year 2012-13, thirty-three percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104 (3)(b) and sixty-seven percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the information technology revolving fund established in section 24-37.5-112 (1)(a); and

(IV) For state fiscal year 2013-14 and for each state fiscal year thereafter, one hundred percent by moneys appropriated by the general assembly from the information technology revolving fund established in section 24-37.5-112 (1)(a).

(7)(h)(III), and (7)(h)(IV) amended, (SB 11-062), ch. 128, p. 428, § 1, effective April 22.

24-37.5-105. Office - responsibilities - rules. (1) The office is empowered to receive and expend grants, gifts, and bequests, specifically including state and federal funds and other funds available, and to contract with the United States and any other legal entities with respect thereto.

(2) Contributions of advanced technology equipment, grants, gifts, or bequests from private sources, including but not limited to advanced technology companies, individuals, and foundations, may be designated by the office to a specific state entity or may be nondesignated.

(3) The office shall:

(a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1727, § 5, effective June 6, 2006.)

(b) Develop and encourage a world wide web-based state government and facilitate the dissemination of information onto the web;

(c) Evaluate and streamline systemwide business practices for the purpose of finding methods for the enhanced utilization of technology;

(d) to (f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1727, § 5, effective June 6, 2006.)

(g) Coordinate with and provide assistance, advice, and expertise in connection with business relationships between state agencies and private sector providers of information technology resources. Such assistance shall include efforts that strengthen and create efficiencies in those business relationships.

(h) Oversee and supervise the maintenance of information, information technology, and the initiation of any information technology updates or projects for state agencies;

(i) Initiate or approve all procurements of information technology resources, enterprise facilities, and any goods or services related to such procurements for state agencies and enter into any agreement, contract, or enterprise agreement in connection with such procurements on behalf of a state agency or agencies;

(j) Provide information and expertise, to the extent possible, regarding interoperable and emergency communications planning, technology, training, and funding opportunities to state, regional, tribal, and local agencies and emergency personnel and all other stakeholders, including but not limited to public, private, and nongovernmental organizations;
(k) Develop a comprehensive risk assessment that will be applied to every new information technology project to assess risk levels related to the project and determine whether the project should be classified as a major information technology project;

(l) Assist the joint technology committee as necessary to facilitate the committee's oversight of the office; and

(m) Establish, maintain, and keep a separate inventory of information technology equipment valued in excess of one hundred thousand dollars owned by or held in trust for every state agency.

(3.5) Repealed.

(4) (a) The office shall establish policies and procedures for acceptable project plans, project budgets, and feasibility studies for projects of all sizes, including major information technology projects.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 1115, § 4, effective May 22, 2008.)

(c) As part of any major information technology project by a state agency, classified as such according to a comprehensive risk assessment performed by the office, the project plan at a minimum shall include:

(I) The identification of a project manager;

(II) A business case for the project that is in alignment with the strategic goals of the state agency;

(III) Business requirements for the project developed in collaboration with the state agency and end users;

(IV) Information security requirements and best practices;

(V) A disaster recovery plan;

(VI) Consideration of and inclusion in the business continuity plan of the state agency;

(VII) Independent verification and validation of the project; and (VIII) A funding strategy for the ongoing maintenance and eventual disposal of the information technology system.

(d) In connection with any major information technology project that it plans to undertake, a state agency shall:

(I) Consult with the office on the development of the project plan for any major information technology project;

(II) Submit and obtain approval from the office of the project plan for any major information technology project before commencing work on the project;

(III) (A) Consult with and obtain approval from the office of significant changes to the plan or budget of any major information technology project.

(B) As used in this subparagraph (III), "significant changes" means the removal of, or any additions or substantial changes to, any of the project plan's components listed in paragraph (c) of this subsection (4).

(IV) Consult with and obtain approval from the office for changes to the funding strategy for the ongoing maintenance and eventual disposal of a major information technology system.

(5) to (7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 1115, § 4, effective May 22, 2008.)

(8) On or before September 1, 2009, and on or before September 1 each year thereafter, the chief information officer shall report to the state, veterans, and military affairs committees of the senate and house of representatives, or any successor committees, to the joint technology committee, and to the joint budget committee the following information for each emergency acquisition or purchase of information technology resources made in the preceding fiscal year:

(a) The information technology resources purchased or acquired;
(b) The amount of such purchase or acquisition; and
(c) The emergency serving as the basis for such purchase or acquisition.

(9) State agencies shall cooperate with the chief information officer and office in developing and implementing processes for the sharing of data and information with the office and between state agencies. The office shall determine and implement statewide efforts to standardize information technology resources to the extent possible and shall determine the ownership of information technology resources among state agencies.

(10) Repealed.

(11) (a) By November 1, 2010, the office shall conduct a feasibility and requirements study to determine the cost to build an electronic budgeting system for the state.

(b) The electronic budgeting system should, at minimum:

(I) Allow access by the principal departments of the executive branch of state government, as specified in section 24-1-110, the legislative branch agencies, the judicial department, the office of state public defender created in section 21-1-101, C.R.S., the office of alternate defense counsel created in section 21-2-101, C.R.S., the independent ethics commission established in section 24-18.5-101 (2)(a), the office of the child's representative created in section 13-91-104, C.R.S., the office of the child protection ombudsman created in section 19-3.3-102, C.R.S., the office of state planning and budgeting, and the joint budget committee staff;

(III) Allow for the confidential electronic communication of budget requests from each principal department of the executive branch of state government to the office of state planning and budgeting;

(IV) Allow for the electronic communication of the governor's annual budget request and the annual budget requests of the legislative branch agencies, the judicial department, the office of state public defender created in section 21-1-101, C.R.S., the office of alternate defense counsel created in section 21-2-101, C.R.S., the independent ethics commission established in section 24-18.5-101 (2)(a), the office of the child's representative created in section 13-91-104, C.R.S., and the office of the child protection ombudsman created in section 19-3.3-102, C.R.S., to the joint budget committee staff;

(V) Allow the office of state planning and budgeting to confidentially edit and finalize the budget requests of the principal departments of the executive branch of state government;

(VI) Allow the joint budget committee staff to view the final version of the governor's annual budget requests and the budget requests of the legislative branch agencies, the judicial department, the office of state public defender created in section 21-1-101, C.R.S., the office of alternate defense counsel created in section 21-2-101, C.R.S., the independent ethics commission established in section 24-18.5-101 (2)(a), the office of the child's representative created in section 13-91-104, C.R.S., and the office of the child protection ombudsman created in section 19-3.3-102, C.R.S.;

(VII) Include security features that lock certain users from accessing the system at certain points during the budget preparation cycle;

(VIII) Allow the joint budget committee staff to use the system to track supplemental appropriation bills, the annual general appropriation act, and any substantive budget legislation being considered by the general assembly; and

(IX) Allow the office of state planning and budgeting to use the system to track supplemental appropriation bills, the annual general appropriation act, and any substantive budget legislation being considered for signature by the governor.

(c) The feasibility and requirements study should also assess the cost and feasibility to implement the following potential system components:

(I) A web-based interface that will allow the principal departments of the executive branch of state government to upload and submit budget documents and requests to the office of state planning and budgeting;

(II) A web-based interface that will allow the legislative branch agencies, the judicial department, the office of state public defender created in section 21-1-101, C.R.S., the office of alternate defense counsel created in section 21-2-101, C.R.S., the independent ethics commission established in section 24-18.5-101 (2)(a), the office of the child's representative created in section 13-91-104, C.R.S., and the office of the child protection ombudsman created in section 19-3.3-102, C.R.S., to upload and submit budget documents and requests to the joint budget committee staff;

(III) The ability to produce a draft and final annual general appropriation act by the joint budget committee staff;

(IV) Compatibility with the joint budget committee's current budget preparation system; and

(V) Potential incorporation of or interaction with other state human resources and financial systems for data collection and tracking, including but not limited to the Colorado financial reporting system.

(d) The office shall provide a copy of its feasibility and requirements study to the joint budget committee no later than November 15, 2010. The office shall make a request for funding to the joint budget committee, if necessary, by November 1, 2010.

24-37.5-106. Chief information officer - duties and responsibilities - broadband inventory fund created. (1) The chief information officer shall:

(a) Monitor trends and advances in information technology resources, direct and approve a comprehensive, statewide, four-year planning process, and plan for the acquisition, management, and use of information technology. The statewide information technology plan shall be updated annually and submitted to the governor, the joint technology committee, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president of the senate.

(b) Require state agencies to participate with and advise the office on the creation of an information technology plan for such agency as part of the state's planning and budgeting process. Such plans shall:

(I) Be in compliance with the state's annual information technology plan;

(II) Specify the state agency's information technology procurement and system acquisition plans for the planning period; and

(III) Identify risks, issues, and concerns with the agency's information technology infrastructure.

(c) Coordinate and direct the formulation and promulgation of policies, standards, specifications, and guidelines for information technology in state agencies including but not limited to those required to support state and local government exchange, acquisition, storage, use, sharing, and distribution of geographic or base map data and related technologies;

(d) Direct the development of policies and procedures, in consultation with the office of state planning and budgeting, that are integrated into the state's strategic planning and budgeting processes and that state agencies shall follow in developing information technology plans and technology-related budget requests;
(e) Coordinate and direct the development of policies and procedures for the effective management of technology investments throughout their entire life cycle including but not limited to project definition, procurement, development, implementation, operation, performance evaluation, and enhancement or retirement;

(e.5) Develop a staged review process for information technology projects that ensures a project meets specific requirements and complies with the project plan approved by the office;

(f) In consultation with the office of state planning and budgeting, prepare and submit budget requests for all information technology resources to be utilized by state agencies;

(f.5) Approve a set of minimum standards to control purchases of information technology resources by the office for state agencies and approve criteria to be used in approving or rejecting state agency requests for procurements of information technology resources;

(g) Direct the development of policies and procedures for information technology procurements, agreements, or contracts;

(h) Aggregate information technology procurements for one or more state agencies;

(i) Coordinate and direct the establishment of statewide standards for the efficient exchange of electronic information and technology, including infrastructure, between the public and private sectors in the state;

(j) In consultation with the executive director of the department of personnel, evaluate the feasibility of outsourcing information technology resources and services and outsource those resources and services that would be beneficial to the state;

(k) Monitor the status and timeliness of information technology projects and procurements for state agencies and advise on any risk management issues in connection with those projects and procurements;

(m) Advise the joint technology committee and the joint budget committee on requested or ongoing information technology projects, including the adherence of the office to the budget, amounts appropriated, and relevant contract deadline dates or schedules for those projects;

(n) Adopt standards and criteria for the procurement of adaptive technology by state agencies for the use of individuals who are blind or visually impaired as specified in article 85 of this title;

(o) Supervise the chief information security officer appointed pursuant to section 24-37.5-403 (1);

(p) Hire or retain such contractors, subcontractors, advisors, consultants, and agents as the chief information officer may deem advisable or necessary, in accordance with the relevant procedures, statutes, and rules and may make and enter into contracts necessary or incidental to the exercise of the powers and performance of the duties of the office and the chief information officer. The chief information officer may specifically hire or retain such contractors, subcontractors, advisors, consultants, and agents as the chief information officer may deem advisable and necessary.

(q) In consultation with the government data advisory board created in section 24-37.5-703, adopt rules and procedures that a state agency, as defined in section 24-37.5-702 (7), shall follow in requesting, or responding to a request for, data from another state agency;

(r) In consultation with the government data advisory board created in section 24-37.5-703, adopt rules and procedures for responding to data requests submitted by an entity outside of state government;
In consultation with the government data advisory board created in section 24-37.5-703, adopt a schedule of fees that the office may charge to state agencies to supervise and administer interdepartmental and external data requests, that a state agency may charge another state agency in responding to an interdepartmental data request, and that a state agency may charge to respond to a data request submitted by an entity outside of state government. The chief information officer shall ensure that the amount of the fees does not exceed the direct and indirect costs incurred by the office or by the state agency that is responding to a data request.

(t) Repealed.
(u) Assist the joint technology committee as necessary to facilitate the committee's oversight of the office.
(1.5) All of the policies, procedures, standards, specifications, guidelines, or criteria that are developed or approved pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be promulgated as rules pursuant to article 4 of this title by and enforced by the chief information officer.
(1.7) The chief information officer may enter into contracts with any local government, state agency, or political subdivision of the state, including the legislative and judicial departments, the department of law, the department of state, the department of treasury, or state-supported institutions of higher education, for the purpose of providing disaster recovery services.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1728, § 6, effective June 6, 2006.)
(3) Repealed.
(4) The position of chief information officer shall be commensurate with the position of head of a principal department and shall be a member of the governor's cabinet.

24-37.5-107. Work eligibility verification portal. The office shall, within existing resources and no later than December 1, 2006, submit a report to the joint budget committee of the general assembly that sets forth an implementation plan for the establishment of a work eligibility verification portal that, on and after January 1, 2008, will enable a person to access a database to verify whether a taxpayer identification number is valid. The report shall include an analysis of the anticipated costs of establishing and operating the portal and descriptions and analyses of databases and programs available for use in verifying taxpayer identification numbers including, at a minimum, the taxpayer identification number matching program administered by the internal revenue service and at least two databases or programs administered by nongovernmental entities.

24-37.5-108. Statewide communications and information infrastructure - establishment - duties. (1) With regard to the statewide communications and information infrastructure, the office shall have the following duties:
   (a) To acquire and manage the statewide communications and information infrastructure based on present and future user applications;
   (b) To review existing portions of the statewide communications and information infrastructure to determine the areas of the state in which they exist and whether the existing portions are adequate and usable for present and future user applications;
   (c) To manage the ongoing use of the statewide communications and information infrastructure;
   (d) To advise state agencies on the risks, issues, and concerns related to the agency's information technology infrastructure that the agency has identified in the information technology plan prepared pursuant to section 24-37.5-106 (1)(b).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37.5-203 as it existed prior to 2007.

24-37.5-109. Status of state agencies. (1) State agencies shall:
   (a) Consult with and advise the office on information technology systems and requirements;
   (b) Comply with the rules, standards, plans, policies, and directives of the office;
   (c) Comply with information requests of the office, the general assembly, the joint technology committee, and the joint budget committee;
   (d) Upon request of the general assembly, the joint technology committee, or the joint budget committee, provide satisfactory evidence of said compliance; and
   (e) In connection with any major information technology project that a state agency plans to undertake, satisfy the requirements set forth in section 24-37.5-105 (4)(d).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-37.5-204 as it existed prior to 2007.

24-37.5-110.  Technology coordination. (1) (a) On July 1, 2008, the chief information officer of each state agency and on or after July 1, 2008, but on or before July 1, 2012, the employees of such state agencies designated pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be transferred to the office and shall become employees of the office. Each officer transferred to the office pursuant to this subsection (1) and his or her successor may continue to act as the officer for the state agency from which he or she was transferred and shall maintain any duties or responsibilities related to the information technology resources of such agency. Each officer transferred to the office shall report to and be under the immediate supervision of the chief information officer of the office.

(b) The employees of an agency that support the information technology functions of such agency shall continue to be under the supervision of the chief information officer of such agency until the chief information officer of the office determines that it is necessary for those positions or functions to come under the control and supervision of the office.

(2) The chief information officer of the office and the executive director and chief information officer of each state agency shall jointly identify the positions and functions affiliated with the management and administration of such agency's information technology resources and enterprises that will be transferred to and centralized in the office pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Any such officer or employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system at the time of the transfer shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of the state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and rules for the purposes of section 24-50-124.

24-37.5-111.  Geographic information system - coordinator - statewide plan. On and after July 1, 2008, all duties and responsibilities for statewide geographic information system coordination shall be transferred from the department of local affairs to the office. The office shall develop a statewide geographic information system plan on or before July 1, 2010, and submit such plan to the governor and to the state, veterans, and military affairs committees of the senate and the house of representatives, or their successor committees.

24-37.5-112. Information technology revolving fund. (1) (a) There is hereby established in the state treasury the information technology revolving fund. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, moneys shall be appropriated to the fund each year by the general assembly in the annual general appropriation act for the direct and indirect costs of the office.

(b) The office shall develop a method for billing users of the office's services the full cost of the services, including materials, depreciation related to capital costs, labor, and administrative overhead. The billing method shall be fully implemented for all users of the office's services on or before July 1, 2013.

(c) All interest earned on the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Moneys in the revolving fund shall be continuously appropriated to the office of information technology to pay the costs of consolidation and information technology maintenance and upgrades. Any moneys credited to the revolving fund and unexpended and unencumbered at the end of any given fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund.

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any money appropriated from the general fund to the office or a state agency for the 2008-09 fiscal year and for each fiscal year thereafter, for the procurement of information technology resources or major automation system projects that are unexpended or unencumbered as of the close of the fiscal year as a result of savings achieved by the office or state agency in connection with such procurements, shall not revert to the general fund and shall be transferred by the state treasurer and the controller to the technology advancement and emergency fund created in section 24-37.5-115.

Editor's note: Subsection (4) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2014. (See L. 2012, p. 517.)

24-37.5-114. Colorado financial reporting system modernization project - reporting. In the event that the executive committee of the legislative council, the joint budget committee, or the legislative audit committee deem certain functionality of the Colorado financial reporting system to be of particular importance to the legislative branch, this will be conveyed in writing to the office and the governor. The office must ensure that such functionality is incorporated or must promptly explain why such functionality cannot be incorporated. If the functionality cannot be included because such a change would require additional appropriations, the office must explain why additional appropriations are necessary. The office must report to the joint budget committee and the capital development committee regarding its progress on the project in a format and at time intervals specified by the joint budget committee and the capital development committee in writing. If a meeting is necessary for any report required by this section, when possible the meeting may be a joint meeting of the joint budget committee and the capital development committee.

24-37.5-115. Technology advancement and emergency fund. (1) The technology advancement and emergency fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund consists of money transferred to the fund pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, money transferred to the fund pursuant to section 24-37.5-112 (2), and any other money that the general assembly may appropriate or transfer to the fund.

(2) The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of money in the fund to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund.

(3) On July 1, 2017, and on July 1, 2018, the state treasurer shall transfer two million dollars from the general fund to the fund.

(4) (a) Subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly, the office may expend money from the fund to cover one-time costs associated with emergency information technology expenditures as specified in subsection (4)(b) of this section, to address deferred maintenance of state agency information technology assets, and to provide additional services to address unforeseen service demands.

(b) If the office uses money in the fund for costs associated with emergency information technology expenditures, the expenditures shall be made in accordance with section 24-37.5-105.

(5) If the office uses money from the fund to cover all or any portion of the cost of purchasing or refreshing an asset for a state agency, the asset shall become the property of the office.

(6) On or before November 1, 2017, and on or before November 1, 2018, the office shall submit a report to the joint budget committee and the joint technology committee of the general assembly regarding the expenditures from the fund. The report shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) A list of each expenditure made from the fund, including the purpose and amount of the expenditure, the date on which the office made the expenditure, the state agency that benefited from the expenditure, and how the expenditure met the criteria for use of money in the fund;

(b) The amount, if any, that the state agency that benefited from the expenditure of money in the fund contributed to the asset, service, or maintenance that the office purchased; and
(c) The amount by which expenditures from the fund have supplemented expenditures from state agency operating budgets for information technology assets, services, and maintenance.

TASK FORCE ON INFORMATION POLICY

24-37.5-301 to 24-37.5-304. (Repealed)

Editor's note: (1) This part 3 was added in 2000 and was not amended prior to its repeal in 2002. For the text of this part 3 prior to 2002, consult the 2001 Colorado Revised Statutes.
   (2) Section 24-37.5-304 provided for the repeal of this part 3, effective June 30, 2002. (See L. 2000, p. 725.)

PART 4

INFORMATION SECURITY

24-37.5-401. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:
   (a) Communication and information resources in the various public agencies of the state are strategic and vital assets belonging to the people of Colorado. Coordinated efforts and a sense of urgency are necessary to protect these assets against unauthorized access, disclosure, use, and modification or destruction, whether accidental or deliberate, as well as to assure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information.
(b) State government has a duty to Colorado's citizens to ensure that the information the citizens have entrusted to public agencies is safe, secure, and protected from unauthorized access, unauthorized use, or destruction.

(c) Securing the state's communication and information resources is a statewide imperative requiring a coordinated and shared effort from all departments, agencies, and political subdivisions of the state and a long term commitment to state funding that ensures the success of such efforts.

(d) Risks to communication and information resources must be managed, and the integrity of data and the source, destination, and processes applied to data must be assured.

(e) Information security standards, policies, and guidelines must be promulgated and implemented throughout public agencies to ensure the development and maintenance of minimum information security controls to protect communication and information resources that support the operations and assets of those agencies.

(f) The extensive information security expertise in Colorado's private sector should be utilized for the long-term benefit of Colorado's citizens and public agencies.

24-37.5-402. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Availability" means the timely and reliable access to and use of information created, generated, collected, or maintained by a public agency.

(2) Repealed.

(3) "Confidentiality" means the preservation of authorized restrictions on information access and disclosure, including the means for protecting personal privacy and proprietary information.

(4) "Department of higher education" means the Colorado commission on higher education, collegeinvest, the Colorado student loan program, the Colorado college access network, the private occupational school division, and the state historical society.

(5) "Information security" means the protection of communication and information resources from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, disruption, modification, or destruction in order to:
   (a) Prevent improper information modification or destruction;
   (b) Preserve authorized restrictions on information access and disclosure;
   (c) Ensure timely and reliable access to and use of information; and
   (d) Maintain the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information.

(6) "Information security plan" means the plan developed by a public agency pursuant to section 24-37.5-404.

(7) "Institution of higher education" means a state-supported institution of higher education.

(8) "Integrity" means the prevention of improper information modification or destruction and ensuring information nonrepudiation and authenticity.

(8.5) "Joint technology committee" means the joint technology committee created in section 2-3-1702, C.R.S.
"Public agency" means every state office, whether executive or judicial, and all of its respective offices, departments, divisions, commissions, boards, bureaus, and institutions. "Public agency" does not include institutions of higher education or the general assembly.

"Security incident" means an accidental or deliberate event that results in or constitutes an imminent threat of the unauthorized access, loss, disclosure, modification, disruption, or destruction of communication and information resources.

24-37.5-403. Chief information security officer - duties and responsibilities. (1) The chief information officer shall appoint a chief information security officer who shall serve at the pleasure of the chief information officer. The security officer shall report to and be under the supervision of the chief information officer. The security officer shall exhibit a background and expertise in security and risk management for communications and information resources. In the event the security officer is unavailable to perform the duties and responsibilities under this part 4, all powers and authority granted to the security officer may be exercised by the chief information officer.

(2) The chief information security officer shall:
   (a) Develop and update information security policies, standards, and guidelines for public agencies;
   (b) Promulgate rules pursuant to article 4 of this title containing information security policies, standards, and guidelines;
   (c) Ensure the incorporation of and compliance with information security policies, standards, and guidelines in the information security plans developed by public agencies pursuant to section 24-37.5-404;
   (d) Direct information security audits and assessments in public agencies in order to ensure program compliance and adjustments;
   (e) Establish and direct a risk management process to identify information security risks in public agencies and deploy risk mitigation strategies, processes, and procedures;
   (f) Approve or disapprove and review annually the information security plans of public agencies;
   (g) Conduct information security awareness and training programs;
   (h) In coordination and consultation with the office of state planning and budgeting and the chief information officer, review public agency budget requests related to information security systems and approve such budget requests for state agencies other than the legislative department; and
   (i) Coordinate with the Colorado commission on higher education for purposes of reviewing and commenting on information security plans adopted by institutions of higher education that are submitted pursuant to section 24-37.5-404.5 (3).

(3) It is the intent of the general assembly that the cost of the services provided by the chief information security officer to a public agency be adequately funded in fiscal years commencing on and after July 1, 2007, through an appropriation to the public agency to pay for such services.

24-37.5-404. Public agencies - information security plans. (1) On or before July 1 of each year, each public agency shall develop an information security plan utilizing the information security policies, standards, and guidelines developed by the chief information security officer. The information security plan shall provide information security for the communication and information resources that support the operations and assets of the public agency.

(2) The information security plan shall include:
   (a) Periodic assessments of the risk and magnitude of the harm that could result from a security incident;
   (b) A process for providing adequate information security for the communication and information resources of the public agency;
   (c) Regularized security awareness training to inform the employees and users of the public agency's communication and information resources about information security risks and the responsibility of employees and users to comply with agency policies, standards, and procedures designed to reduce those risks;
   (d) Periodic testing and evaluation of the effectiveness of information security for the public agency, which shall be performed not less than annually;
   (e) A process for detecting, reporting, and responding to security incidents consistent with the information security standards, policies, and guidelines issued by the chief information security officer; and
   (f) Plans and procedures to ensure the continuity of operations for information resources that support the operations and assets of the public agency in the event of a security incident.

(3) On or before July 15 of each year, each public agency shall submit the information security plan developed pursuant to this section to the chief information security officer for approval.

(4) In the event that a public agency fails to submit to the chief information security officer an information security plan on or before July 15 of each year or such plan is disapproved by the chief information security officer, the officer shall notify the governor, the chief information officer, and the head of the public agency of noncompliance with this section. If no plan has been approved by September 15 of each year, the chief information security officer shall be authorized to temporarily discontinue or suspend the operation of a public agency's communication and information resources until such plan has been submitted to or is approved by the officer.

(5) and (6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-062), ch. 128, p. 430, § 7, effective April 22, 2011.)

Source: L. 2006: Entire part added, p. 1716, § 1, effective June 6. L. 2011: (1), (3), (4), (5), and (6) amended, (SB 11-062), ch. 128, p. 430, § 7, effective April 22.
Each institution of higher education, in coordination with the department of higher education, shall develop an information security program. The information security program shall provide information security for the communication and information resources that support the operations and assets of the institution of higher education.

(2) The information security program shall include:

(a) Periodic assessments of the risk and magnitude of the harm that could result from a security incident;
(b) A process for providing adequate information security for the communication and information resources of the institution of higher education;
(c) Information security awareness training to inform the employees, administrators, and users at the institution of higher education about the information security risks and the responsibility of employees, administrators, and users to comply with the institution's information security program and the policies, standards, and procedures designed to reduce the security risks;
(d) Periodic testing and evaluation of the effectiveness of information security for the institution of higher education, which shall be performed not less than annually;
(e) A process for detecting, reporting, and responding to security incidents consistent with the information security policy of the institution of higher education. The institutions of higher education, the Colorado commission on higher education, and the chief information security officer shall establish the terms and conditions by which the institutions of higher education shall report information security incidents to the chief information security officer.
(f) Plans and procedures to ensure the continuity of operations for information resources that support the operations and assets of the institution of higher education in the event of a security incident.

(3) (a) On or before July 1, 2011, and on or before July 1 each year thereafter, each institution of higher education shall submit to the department of higher education a report concerning the development and implementation of the institution's information security program and compliance with the requirements specified in subsection (2) of this section. Upon receipt of the reports, the department of higher education shall review the reports and subsequently submit the reports to the chief information security officer.

(b) As soon as practicable after August 10, 2016, the department of higher education shall divide the institutions of higher education into three groups. Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) to the contrary:

(I) After the report submitted by July 1, 2017, the institutions in the first group shall submit the report required in this subsection (3) by July 1 every three years;
(II) After the report submitted by July 1, 2018, the institutions in the second group shall submit the report required in this subsection (3) by July 1 every three years; and
(III) After the report submitted by July 1, 2019, the institutions in the third group shall submit the report required in this subsection (3) by July 1 every three years.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any institution of higher education or the department of higher education to adopt policies or standards that conflict with federal law, rules, or regulations or with contractual arrangements governed by federal laws, rules, or regulations.
24-37.5-404.7. General assembly - information security plans. (1) The general assembly shall develop an information security plan. The information security plan shall provide information security for the communication and information resources that support the operations and assets of the general assembly.

(2) The information security plan shall include:
(a) Periodic assessments of the risk and magnitude of the harm that could result from a security incident;
(b) A process for providing adequate information security for the communication and information resources of the general assembly;
(c) Information security awareness training for regular employees of the general assembly;
(d) Periodic testing and evaluation of the effectiveness of information security for the general assembly, which shall be performed not less than annually;
(e) A process for detecting, reporting, and responding to security incidents consistent with the information security policy of the general assembly. The general assembly and the chief information security officer shall establish the terms and conditions by which the general assembly shall report information security incidents to the chief information security officer.
(f) Plans and procedures to ensure the continuity of operations for information resources that support the operations and assets of the general assembly in the event of a security incident.

(3) The legislative service agency directors shall maintain the information security plan pursuant to this section and keep the joint technology committee advised of the plan.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the general assembly to adopt policies or standards that conflict with federal law, rules, or regulations or with contractual arrangements governed by federal laws, rules, or regulations.

(5) The general assembly shall provide regularized security awareness training to inform the regular legislative employees, administrators, and users about the information security risks and the responsibility of employees, administrators, and users to comply with the general assembly's information security plan and the policies, standards, and procedures designed to reduce those risks.

24-37.5-405. Security incidents - authority of chief information security officer. (1) A security incident in a public agency shall be reported to the chief information security officer in accordance with state incident reporting policies, standards, and guidelines.

(2) The chief information security officer shall be authorized to temporarily discontinue or suspend the operation of a public agency's communication and information resources in order to isolate the source of a security incident. The officer shall give notice to the governor, or the lieutenant governor in the event the governor is not available, the chief information officer, and the head of the public agency concurrent with such discontinuation or suspension of operations. The officer shall ensure, to the extent possible, the continuity of operations for the communication and information resources that support the operations and assets of the public agency.

(3) The chief information security officer may enter into contracts with a private person or entity to assist with resolving a security incident in a public agency. The officer shall establish an approved list of certified private persons and entities that may provide contract services in the event of a security incident. The officer shall establish criteria for the placement of private persons and entities on the list and shall select such persons and entities for placement on the list utilizing a request for proposals containing such criteria.

(4) Public agencies shall comply and cooperate with a directive of the chief information security officer pursuant to subsection (2) of this section to temporarily discontinue or suspend the operation of a public agency's communication and information resources.

24-37.5-406. Reporting. (Repealed)

PART 5

TELECOMMUNICATIONS COORDINATION
WITHIN STATE GOVERNMENT

Editor's note: This part 5 was added with relocations in 2008. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editors' notes following those sections that were relocated.

24-37.5-501. Powers, duties, and functions concerning telecommunications. The chief information officer shall appoint assistants, clerical staff, and other personnel as may be necessary to discharge the duties and responsibilities set forth by this part 5.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-902 as it existed prior to 2008.
24-37.5-502. Duties and responsibilities. (1) The chief information officer shall perform the following functions:

(a) In consultation with local, state, and federal departments, institutions, and agencies, formulate recommendations for a current and long-range telecommunications plan, involving telephone, radio, microwave, facsimile closed circuit and cable television, teleconferencing, public broadcast, data communications transmission circuits, fiber optics, satellites, cellular radio, and public safety radio communications systems required by the FCC public safety national plan and their integration into applicable telecommunications networks for approval of the governor;

(b) Administer the approved current and long-range plan for telecommunications and exercise general supervision over all telecommunications networks, systems, and microwave facilities, subject to the exception stated in subsection (2) of this section;

(c) Review all existing and future telecommunications applications, planning, networks, systems, programs, equipment, and facilities and establish priorities for those that are necessary and desirable to accomplish the purposes of this part 5;

(d) Approve or disapprove the acquisition of telecommunications equipment and necessary licenses by any state department, institution, or agency;

(e) Establish telecommunications procedures, standards, and records for management of telecommunications networks and facilities for all state departments, institutions, and agencies;

(f) Continually review, assess, and insure compliance with federal and state telecommunications regulations pertaining to the needs and functions of state departments, institutions, and agencies;

(g) Advise the governor and general assembly on telecommunications matters;

(h) Cooperate with and assist nonprofit regional broadcasting corporations, as appropriate and if resources are available, in the development of regional noncommercial television and radio networks and local facilities, including acting as the agency by which the state participates in any such regional broadcasting corporation;

(i) Administer the public safety communications trust fund created in section 24-37.5-506; and

(j) Adopt rules in accordance with the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of this title, regarding distributions of public safety communications trust fund moneys to and repayment of such moneys by state and local governments.

(2) Notwithstanding the functions enumerated in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section and paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section, the ultimate responsibility for the operation and conduct of the law enforcement radio systems specifically provided for the division of the Colorado state patrol that are performed by radio dispatchers and telephone operators shall be vested in the chief of the Colorado state patrol.

(3) The chief information officer may enter into contracts with any county, city and county, state agency, private school, school district, board of cooperative educational services, or library and may act as a telecommunications network provider between or among two or more counties or state agencies for the purpose of providing teleconferencing facilities and services between or among such entities, including the judicial system of any county, the department of corrections, and the department of human services and any of their facilities. To assure the availability of such network throughout the various state agencies, private schools, school districts, boards of cooperative educational services, libraries, and counties, the chief information officer... officer shall develop a uniform set of standards for facilities to be utilized by the contracting entities.

(4) The chief information officer shall:

(a) In consultation with recognized public safety radio communication standards groups, appropriate affected public agencies, and the chief of the Colorado state patrol, adopt recommended standards for the replacement of analog-based equipment with digital-based radio equipment for purposes of dispatching and related functions within the department of public safety; and

(b) For purposes of serving the radio communications needs of state departments, including, but not limited to, the departments of public safety, transportation, natural resources, and corrections, adopt recommended standards and set a timetable for the replacement of existing radio telecommunications equipment with a system that satisfies the requirements of the FCC public safety national plan.

(5) The chief information officer shall carry out all duties and responsibilities set forth in this section in a manner that is consistent with the objective of maximizing access to digital networks of the state by all public offices of all levels, branches, and political subdivisions of the state within every community of the state. In particular, within available resources and as soon as is feasible, the chief information officer shall provide connections proposed and approved by the department of local affairs, created in section 24-1-125, through the community-based access grant program established under section 24-32-3001 and may act as a network provider between or among all public offices as defined in said section. To the extent possible and if technically feasible, the bidding and the method of awarding the contract for telecommunications services under section 24-32-3001 should be structured in a manner as to allow the greatest number of providers to participate in the bidding and the award of the contract.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-903 as it existed prior to 2008.

24-37.5-503. Legislative department exemption. The provisions of this part 5 shall not apply to the legislative department of the state.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-906 as it existed prior to 2008.

24-37.5-504. Higher education exemption. Local and internal telecommunications networks of institutions of higher education may be exempted from the provisions of this part 5 upon application to the chief information officer; except that all systems must be certified by the chief information officer as being technically compatible with plans and networks as described in section 24-37.5-502 (1).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-907 as it existed prior to 2008.

24-37.5-505. Service charges - pricing policy. (1) (a) Users of the office's telephone and data communication services shall be charged the full cost of the particular service, which shall include the cost of all material, labor, and overhead. Said user charges shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the information technology revolving fund created in section 24-37.5-112. The revolving fund shall include user charges on public safety radio systems of a state agency or other state entity; except that no municipality, county, city and county, or special district shall be charged user charges on public safety radio systems of a state agency or other state entity.

(b) Repealed.

(2) The chief information officer shall establish a policy of remaining competitive with private industry with regard to the cost, timeliness, and quality of the telephone service or data communication functions provided by the office. An agency may only purchase private services if it has first worked with the office and the office has authorized the purchase of private services.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-30-908 as it existed prior to 2008.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(b), effective July 1, 2012. (See L. 2011, p. 433.)

24-37.5-506. Public safety communications trust fund - creation. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the public safety communications trust fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the office for distribution as determined by rules adopted pursuant to section 24-37.5-502 (1)(j). The primary purpose of such distributions shall be the acquisition and maintenance of public safety communication systems for use by departments including but not limited to the departments of public safety, transportation, natural resources, and corrections as provided in section 24-37.5-502 (4)(b). Such systems shall satisfy the requirements of the public safety national plan established by the federal communications commission, also referred to in this article as the "FCC", in FCC report and order in general docket no. 87-112, and subsequent FCC proceedings and rules. This section shall not preclude the payment of maintenance expenses including the cost of leased or rented equipment, payments to local governmental entities for radio communication systems, or payments related to public safety radio systems.

(2) (a) (I) The general assembly declares its intention to commit state moneys to the fund for the purposes set forth in this section. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the total amount of the principal in the fund shall not exceed fifty million dollars.

(II) Any appropriation of state moneys to the public safety communications trust fund for any fiscal year from moneys in the capital construction fund created in section 24-75-302 shall be further appropriated from the public safety communications trust fund to the office for the purposes set forth in this section. Any moneys in the public safety communications trust fund...
so appropriated that were initially appropriated from moneys in the capital construction fund shall, if any project for which such moneys are appropriated is initiated within the fiscal year, remain available until completion of the project or for a period of three years, whichever comes first, at which time the unexpended and unencumbered balances of such appropriation shall revert to the public safety communications trust fund.

(b) In addition to any appropriations made as a result of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the office may solicit and accept donations, grants, bequests, and other contributions to the fund from local, state, and federal entities and from public safety related nonprofit organizations that directly support state departments, state institutions, state agencies, and law enforcement and public safety political subdivisions of the state. Such contributions shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the contributions to the fund.

(2.5) (a) (I) Beginning in the 2013-14 fiscal year and in each fiscal year thereafter through the 2024-25 fiscal year, the general assembly shall appropriate to the fund a total of three million five hundred thousand dollars from the general fund or from any other fund. For each such fiscal year, the general assembly shall determine the amount to be appropriated from the general fund and the amount to be appropriated from any other fund. The office shall use the moneys appropriated to the fund pursuant to this subparagraph (I) for the replacement of legacy radio equipment and hardware at radio tower sites.

(II) Beginning in the 2017-18 fiscal year and in each fiscal year thereafter through the 2024-25 fiscal year, in addition to the amount appropriated to the fund pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), the general assembly shall appropriate to the fund three million seven hundred thousand dollars from the general fund or from any other fund. For each such fiscal year, the general assembly shall determine the amount to be appropriated from the general fund and the amount to be appropriated from any other fund. The office shall use the moneys appropriated to the fund pursuant to this subparagraph (II) for software upgrade assurance.

(b) On or before November 1, 2014, and on or before November 1 of each year thereafter through November 1, 2025, the office, in consultation with the department of corrections, the department of natural resources, the department of public safety, the department of transportation, and any other state department deemed appropriate by the office, shall submit a report to the joint budget committee of the general assembly detailing the use of the moneys appropriated to the fund pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2.5). The report must include the following:

(I) Comprehensive documentation regarding the purposes for which the moneys appropriated pursuant to subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2.5) were used during the prior fiscal year and are being used during the current fiscal year and the anticipated use of the moneys that will be appropriated in future fiscal years;

(II) Of the total amount expended during the prior fiscal year for each of the purposes specified in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2.5), the amount that was appropriated from the general fund and the amount that was appropriated from any other fund; and

(III) For the appropriation or appropriations for the next fiscal year, a recommendation regarding the amount to be appropriated from the general fund and the amount to be appropriated from any other fund for each of the purposes specified in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2.5).
(3) At the end of each fiscal year, all unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the fund shall remain therein and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of this fund shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund.

(3.5) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (3) of this section to the contrary, on April 15, 2010, the state treasurer shall deduct two hundred thirty thousand five hundred twenty dollars from the fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

(4) In authorizing distributions of principal and interest from the fund and purchasing, leasing, contracting for, and otherwise acquiring equipment for state entities, the chief information officer shall consider the following:

(a) The need for achieving functional interoperability among local, state, and federal public safety radio communications systems by acquiring equipment that meets emerging technical standards for systems interoperability and open network architecture;

(b) The needs of local government entities that have recently invested in new radio systems, particularly in regard to interoperability;

(c) The promotion of an orderly transition from analog-based to digital-based radio systems.

(5) In acquiring equipment pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, the executive director of the office shall develop bid specifications that identify all services, requirements, and costs consistent with existing state law.

(6) The chief information officer shall keep an accurate account of all activities related to the fund including its receipts and expenditures and shall annually report in writing such account to the joint technology committee created in section 2-3-1702, C.R.S. The state auditor may investigate the affairs of the fund, severally examine the properties and records relating to the fund, and prescribe accounting methods and procedures for rendering periodical reports in relation to disbursements and purchases made from the fund.

(7) In the expenditure of any funds from the public safety communications trust fund for the acquisition, maintenance, or lease of any public safety radio communications systems equipment or any other communication devices or equipment, the chief information officer shall ensure that such expenditures are made pursuant to the requirements set forth under the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-908.5 as it existed prior to 2008.
Editor's note: This part 6 was added with relocations in 2008. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editors' notes following those sections that were relocated.

24-37.5-601. General government computer center (GGCC). The general government computer center referred to in this part 6 as "GGCC" is within the office of information technology. The chief information officer shall appoint, pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, such personnel as may be necessary for the efficient operation of the GGCC.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-1602 as it existed prior to 2008.

24-37.5-602. Functions of the GGCC. (1) The GGCC shall perform the following functions:
   (a) To provide computer and systems development and programming services to those state departments, institutions, and agencies in the executive branch that have been so designated by the office of information technology, after consulting with the affected entity, and to provide these same services to the legislative and judicial branches when so requested; except that services shall not be provided to any such entity unless such entity has funds available therefor;
   (b) To establish and maintain automated data processing facilities at GGCC, including but not limited to the operation of automated data processing equipment and facilities and the employment of necessary personnel;
   (c) To prepare and submit such reports as are required by this part 6 or that the governor or general assembly may request;
   (d) To determine the capacity and utilization of the computer system in GGCC in an annual report.

   (2) (a) In accordance with any policies, standards, and guidelines set forth by the office, the GGCC shall adopt and implement standards, policies, and procedures for the use of electronic or digital signatures by governmental agencies where use of electronic or digital signatures is expressly authorized by law.
   (b) Each agency or department of state government, including institutions of higher education, shall ensure compliance with the policies, standards, and guidelines set forth by the office.
   (c) The local authorities of any county, city, town, or city and county authorizing the use of digital or electronic signatures shall adopt rules, standards, policies, and procedures for their own use of electronic or digital signatures or shall ensure compliance with any policies, standards, and guidelines set forth by the office.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-1603 as it existed prior to 2008.
24-37.5-603. Powers of the chief information officer - penalty for breach of confidentiality. (1) In order to perform the functions and duties of the GGCC as set forth in this part 6, the chief information officer shall exercise the following powers:
   (a) To prescribe procedures governing the operation of the GGCC automated data processing equipment and software and the physical plant;
   (b) In accordance with the policies, standards, specifications, and guidelines formulated and promulgated pursuant to section 24-37.5-106 (1)(c), adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part 6;
   (c) To contract for such services and equipment as the GGCC may require;
   (d) To negotiate service level agreements with customers;
   (e) To produce such reports as may be necessary; and
   (f) To control the information technology revolving fund pursuant to section 24-37.5-112.

(2) (a) Except in accordance with judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, no employee of the office shall divulge or make known in any way information disclosed in any restricted or protected document, program, or dataset located at or in the custody of the office.
   (b) Any person who violates the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. In addition, such person shall be subject to removal or dismissal from state employment on grounds of malfeasance in office.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-30-1604 as it existed prior to 2008.

24-37.5-604. Service charges - pricing. (1) Users of GGCC services shall be charged by the office the full cost of the particular service, which shall include the cost of all material, labor, equipment, software, services, and overhead. No later than the November 1 submission date as required by section 24-37-304, the chief information officer shall establish, publish, and distribute billing rates to user entities and other interested entities effective for the following fiscal year.

(2) (a) User charges collected under this part 6 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the information technology revolving fund created in section 24-37.5-112.
   (b) Repealed.
   (3) The chief information officer shall establish a policy of remaining competitive with the service provided by private industry with regard to the cost, timeliness, and quality of that service provided by the office. An agency may only purchase private services if it has first worked with the office and the office has authorized the purchase of private services.

PART 7

INTERDEPARTMENTAL DATA PROTOCOL

24-37.5-701. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds that:
(a) Each agency of the state, through the process of providing governmental services, collects a significant amount of data with regard to persons who have interactions with governmental agencies;
(b) Creating cross-departmental data interoperability and protocols used by all state executive branch agencies will significantly increase the efficiency of state government and enhance the ability of multiple state agencies to effectively and efficiently provide services to individuals within the state;
(c) The data collected through the provision of governmental services, if appropriately collected and synthesized, will provide valuable information to guide members of the general assembly and persons within the state executive branch agencies in formulating state policy and in determining the effectiveness of state policies;
(d) It is imperative in establishing procedures and protocols for cross-departmental data processing that the state take all possible measures to ensure personal privacy and protect personal information from intentional or accidental release to unauthorized persons and from intentional or accidental use for unauthorized purposes.
(2) The general assembly therefore concludes that it is in the best interests of the state to create an interdepartmental data protocol to assist in formulating and determining the effectiveness of state policies.

24-37.5-702. Definitions. As used in this part 7, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Advisory board" means the government data advisory board created in section 24-37.5-703.
(2) "Chief information officer" means the head of the office of information technology appointed pursuant to section 24-37.5-103.
(3) "Data" means the representation of facts as texts, numbers, graphics, images, sounds, or video. Facts are captured, stored, and expressed as data.
(3.5) "Education data subcommittee" means the subcommittee of the advisory board created in section 24-37.5-703.5 to provide policies and protocols regarding sharing education data among local and state education providers.
(4) "Interdepartmental data protocol" means an interoperable, cross-departmental data management system and file sharing procedure that permits the merging of unit records for the purposes of policy analysis and determination of program effectiveness.
(5) "Personal identifying information" means a person's first name or first initial and last name in combination with his or her social security number or driver's license number or identification card number.

(6) "Political subdivision" means a municipality, county, city and county, town, or school district in this state.

(7) "State agency" means each principal department within the executive branch, including each board, division, unit, office, or other subdivision within each department, each office or agency within the governor's office, each state-supported institution of higher education, and each local district college; except that "state agency" shall not include any department, agency, board, division, unit, office, or other subdivision of a department that does not collect unit records.

24-37.5-703. Government data advisory board - created - duties - repeal. (1) (a) There is hereby created in the office of information technology the government data advisory board, which shall consist of the members specified in this subsection (1).

(b) On or before October 1, 2009, the governor shall appoint four members of the advisory board as follows:

(I) An employee of a city, county, or city and county that collects and maintains unit-level records, which employee has expertise in data sharing and information technology;

(II) A person who is serving on a school district board of education in this state;

(III) An employee of a school district in this state who has expertise in data sharing and information technology; and

(IV) A person from an institution of higher education or a nongovernmental organization that, in the course of conducting research, routinely requests data from government agencies, which person has expertise in data sharing and information technology.

(c) The chief information officer, or his or her designee, shall serve as an ex officio member and chair of the advisory board.

(d) (I) The remaining membership of the advisory board shall consist of a person from each of the following departments who is either an expert in information technology or responsible for data administration within the member's respective department and who is selected by the head of the member's respective department to participate on the advisory board at the invitation of the chief information officer:

(A) The department of education;

(B) The department of higher education;

(C) The department of human services;

(D) The department of health care policy and financing;

(E) The department of public health and environment;

(F) The department of labor and employment;

(G) The department of public safety;

(H) The department of corrections; and

(I) The department of revenue.
(II) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), at the invitation of the chief information officer, additional members who meet the qualifications specified in said subparagraph (I) may be selected to participate on the advisory board as follows:

(A) The governor, as he or she deems appropriate, may direct the executive director of one or more of the departments that are not specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) to select a member from his or her department or may select a member from one or more political subdivisions of the state, including a city, county, city and county, or special purpose authority;

(B) The secretary of state, attorney general, and state treasurer, as he or she deems appropriate, may select a member from his or her department;

(C) The chief justice of the supreme court, as he or she deems appropriate, may select a member from the judicial branch; and

(D) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may jointly select a member from the legislative branch, including a representative, senator, or employee. On and after July 1, 2013, if a vacancy arises for the legislative branch position, the jointly selected member shall be a member of the joint technology committee created in section 2-3-1702, C.R.S.

(2) The members of the advisory board appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall:

(a) Serve four-year terms; except that two of the members appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall initially serve two-year terms;

(b) Serve at the will of the governor. If a vacancy arises during a member's term, the governor shall appoint a person meeting the same qualifications to serve the remainder of the term.

(c) Serve without compensation and without reimbursement for expenses.

(3) (a) The chief information officer, or his or her designee, shall schedule the first meeting of the advisory board and schedule succeeding meetings of the advisory board as necessary to complete the advisory board's duties specified in this section.

(b) The office shall provide technical assistance and support, to the extent practicable within existing resources, to assist the advisory board in completing the duties specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The advisory board shall have the following duties:

(a) To advise the chief information officer regarding the ongoing development, maintenance, and implementation of the interdepartmental data protocol;

(b) To advise the chief information officer concerning best practices in sharing and protecting data in state government;

(c) To recommend to the chief information officer rules and procedures that a state agency shall follow in requesting, or responding to a request for, data from another state agency, including but not limited to strategies for enforcing said rules;

(d) To advise the chief information officer concerning rules and procedures for responding to data requests submitted by an entity outside of state government;

(e) To recommend to the chief information officer a schedule of fees that the office may charge to state agencies to supervise and administer interdepartmental and external data requests, that a state agency may charge another state agency in responding to an interdepartmental data request, and that a state agency may charge to respond to a data request submitted by an entity.
outside of state government. In recommending the fee schedule, the advisory board shall ensure that the fee amounts do not exceed the direct and indirect costs incurred by the office or by the state agency that is responding to a data request.

(f) Upon request by the chief information officer, to advise the chief information officer on other issues pertaining to data sharing.

(5) The advisory board shall ensure that the recommendations made pursuant to subsection (4) of this section comply with the interdepartmental data protocol.

(6) On or before January 15, 2010, and on or before January 15 each year thereafter, the advisory board shall submit to the chief information officer its recommendations for developing and implementing protocols for sharing data among state agencies and entities and with local governments and nongovernmental entities. The chief information officer shall review the recommendations and take them into account in preparing a report concerning implementing protocols for sharing data among state agencies and entities and with local governments and nongovernmental entities. The chief information officer shall submit the report to the general assembly on or before March 1, 2010, and on or before March 1 each year thereafter.

(7) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2019. Prior to such repeal, the advisory board shall be reviewed as provided in section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

24-37.5-703.5. Education data subcommittee - created - duties - repeal. (1) The education data subcommittee is hereby created as a subcommittee of the advisory board. The education data subcommittee shall consist of the following members:

(a) The advisory board members appointed pursuant to section 24-37.5-703 (1)(b)(II) and (1)(b)(III) to represent school districts;

(b) A person serving on the education data advisory committee created pursuant to section 22-2-304, C.R.S., which person is appointed by the governor;

(c) The advisory board member selected from the department of education;

(d) The advisory board member selected from the department of higher education;

(e) The advisory board member selected from the department of human services; and

(f) At least ten members appointed by the governor with expertise in data sharing by education agencies, including at least one representative from each of the following groups:

(I) Information officers employed by the school districts in the state;

(II) Charter schools authorized by school districts pursuant to part 1 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S.;

(III) The state charter school institute created in part 5 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S.;

(IV) The boards of cooperative services created pursuant to article 5 of title 22, C.R.S.;

(V) Information officers employed within the state system of community and technical colleges established pursuant to section 23-60-201, C.R.S.;

(VI) The governing boards of the state institutions of higher education;

(VII) Early childhood councils established pursuant to section 26-6.5-103, C.R.S., and early childhood care and education councils established pursuant to section 26-6.5-106, C.R.S.;
(VIII) Institutions of higher education or nongovernmental organizations that, in the course of conducting research, routinely request data from state agencies;

(IX) Nonprofit advocacy groups that work in children's issues and routinely request data from state agencies; and

(X) Statewide membership organizations of education professionals and local boards of education.

(2) The governor shall make the initial appointments to the education data subcommittee no later than October 1, 2009.

(3) The members of the education data subcommittee appointed by the governor shall:

(a) Serve terms of four years; except that, of the members initially appointed, the governor shall select approximately one-third of the members to serve two-year terms and approximately one-third of the members to serve three-year terms;

(b) Serve at the will of the governor. If a vacancy arises during a member's term, the governor shall appoint a person meeting the same qualifications to serve the remainder of the term.

(c) Serve without compensation and without reimbursement for expenses.

(4) (a) The advisory board member selected from the department of education shall schedule the first meeting of the education data subcommittee. At the first meeting, the education data subcommittee shall elect a chair from among its members to serve for a term not exceeding two years, as determined by the subcommittee. A member shall not be eligible to serve as chair for more than two successive terms.

(b) The education data subcommittee shall meet as often as necessary, at the call of the chair, to complete its duties.

(c) The office, to the extent practicable within existing resources, shall provide technical assistance and support to the education data subcommittee to assist the subcommittee in completing its duties pursuant to this section.

(5) The education data subcommittee shall have the following duties:

(a) To recommend to the chief information officer and the advisory board protocols and procedures for sharing education data among charter schools, school districts, boards of cooperative services, the department of education, the department of higher education, and state institutions of higher education;

(b) To recommend to the chief information officer and the advisory board appropriate information technology and reporting formats for education data;

(c) To recommend data element standards for individual student records for use by charter schools, school districts, boards of cooperative services, the department of education, the department of higher education, and state institutions of higher education;

(d) To recommend electronic standards by which charter schools, school districts, boards of cooperative services, the department of education, the department of higher education, and state institutions of higher education may share data currently being shared through other means, including but not limited to interoperability standards, standards and protocols for transfer of records including student transcripts, and the use of data-exchange transcripts;

(e) To recommend the design and continuing development of a statewide comprehensive P-20 education data system that may include, but need not be limited to, implementation of an interoperability data framework and protocols and standards for data input and for making and responding to data requests to ensure that preschool through postsecondary education entities throughout the state can share education data;

(f) Upon request by the chief information officer, to advise the chief information officer on other issues pertaining to education data sharing; and

(g) To identify a method or methods, if feasible, for assigning a unique student identifier as part of the department of education record integration tracking system or an alternative tracking system employing interagency data-sharing, for each person enrolled in an adult basic education program or a high school equivalency examination program.

(6) (a) The education data subcommittee shall ensure that its recommendations conform with the interdepartmental data protocol and are in compliance with all state and federal laws and regulations concerning the privacy of information, including but not limited to the federal "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974", 20 U.S.C. sec. 1232g.

(b) The education data subcommittee shall ensure that its recommendations for the statewide comprehensive P-20 education data system include the elements required in the federal "America COMPETES Act", 20 U.S.C. sec. 9801 et seq., in order to qualify for the maximum amount of federal funding available through the "American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009", Pub.L. 111-5.

(7) On or before December 1, 2009, and at least every six months thereafter, the education data subcommittee shall submit to the chief information officer and the advisory board its recommendations prepared pursuant to subsection (5) of this section. The chief information officer shall review the recommendations and take them into account in preparing a report concerning protocols and procedures for sharing student data among preschool through postsecondary education entities, including but not limited to the creation of a statewide comprehensive P-20 education data system. The chief information officer shall combine the report with the report prepared pursuant to section 24-37.5-703 (6) and submit the combined report to the general assembly on or before March 1, 2010, and on or before March 1 each year thereafter.

(8) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2019. Prior to such repeal, the education data subcommittee shall be reviewed as provided in section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

Editor's note: Subsection (7) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2013. (See L. 2010, p. 247.)
24-37.5-704. Interdepartmental data protocol - contents. (1) The chief information officer, working with the advisory board, shall oversee the implementation of the interdepartmental data protocol, which at a minimum shall include protocols and procedures to be used by state agencies in data processing, including but not limited to collecting, storing, manipulating, sharing, retrieving, and releasing data. In implementing the interdepartmental data protocol, the chief information officer and the advisory board shall monitor compliance with the timelines by which the state agencies shall implement the interdepartmental data protocol.

(2) The interdepartmental data protocol shall be designed to enable each state agency to accurately and efficiently collect and share data with the other state agencies. At a minimum, the interdepartmental data protocol shall be designed to ensure that data collected by different state agencies can be matched and discrepancies in the data processing reconciled to accurately identify data pertaining to the same record without allowing any permanent sharing of personal identifying information among state agencies without express authorization from the executive directors of the originating and receiving state agencies.

(3) The protocols and procedures included in the interdepartmental data protocol by which state agencies may share data and by which a state agency may release data to a political subdivision or to a nongovernmental entity or an individual shall, at a minimum:

(a) Establish the circumstances under which and the reasons for which a state agency may share information with another state agency, with a political subdivision, or with a nongovernmental entity or an individual;

(b) Establish the format in which a state agency may release data to a political subdivision, a nongovernmental entity, or an individual;

(c) Ensure compliance with all state and federal laws and regulations concerning the privacy of information, including but not limited to the federal "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974", 20 U.S.C. sec. 1232g, and the federal "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996", 42 U.S.C. sec. 1320d to 1320d-9; and

(d) Ensure that a state agency does not permanently share personal identifying information with another state agency without express authorization from the executive directors of the originating and receiving state agencies or with a political subdivision, a nongovernmental entity, or an individual, other than the individual who is the subject of the information.

(4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the interdepartmental data protocol shall not nullify any memoranda of understanding existing as of January 1, 2008, nor prohibit the creation of memoranda of understanding after said date, between or among state agencies concerning data sharing or any other data sharing practices.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the interdepartmental data protocol shall not prohibit the release to or sharing of data with nongovernmental entities or individuals if the release or sharing is otherwise required, permitted, or allowed by the provisions of part 2 of article 72 of this title or other state or federal law, or if the release or sharing occurs pursuant to contract or other agreement with a state agency.

24-37.5-705. Data sharing - authorization. (1) With the implementation of the interdepartmental data protocol, except as specifically prohibited by statute, each state agency is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of the interdepartmental data protocol, to share with the following entities data collected in the course of performing its powers and duties:

(a) Other state agencies;
(b) Agencies within the legislative and judicial departments;
(c) Political subdivisions; and
(d) Nongovernmental entities and individuals.

24-37.5-706. Interdepartmental data protocol cash fund - created. (1) The chief information officer is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this part 7. All private and public funds received through gifts, grants, or donations shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the interdepartmental data protocol cash fund, which fund is hereby created and referred to in this section as the "fund". The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the office of information technology for the direct and indirect costs associated with the implementation of this part 7. The chief information officer and the office of information technology shall not be required to implement the provisions of this part 7 until such time as at least one hundred thirteen thousand five hundred dollars are credited to the fund. It is the intent of the general assembly that the provisions of this part 7 be implemented without the use of state moneys.

(2) Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this part 7 may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-37.5-707. Interdepartmental data protocol - report. The chief information officer shall submit to the governor and the state, veterans, and military affairs committees of the house of representatives and the senate, or any successor committees, a report on or before March 1, 2009, concerning development and implementation of the interdepartmental data protocol.

PART 8

REPORTS TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY

24-37.5-801. Information technology asset inventory - refresh cycle schedule - report. (1) On or before November 1, 2014, and on or before November 1 each year thereafter, the office shall submit a report to the members of the joint budget committee and the joint technology committee of the general assembly regarding the office's information technology asset inventory and the office's refresh cycle schedule, including cost projections. The office shall phase in the information to be included in the report over four years as follows:

(a) In the report due on or before November 1, 2014, the office shall include asset inventory and refresh cycle information for personal computers, including operating systems and productivity software;

(b) In the report due on or before November 1, 2015, the office shall include the information specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) and asset inventory and refresh cycle schedule information for network infrastructure;

(c) In the report due on or before November 1, 2016, the office shall include the information specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) and asset inventory and refresh cycle schedule information for servers; and

(d) In the report due on or before November 1, 2017, and in the report due on or before November 1 each year thereafter, the office shall include the information specified in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) and asset inventory and refresh cycle information for nonproductivity software.

24-37.5-802. Information technology budget requests - working group - report. (1) The office, in conjunction with the office of state planning and budgeting, shall create a working group to annually evaluate and prioritize all potential information technology-related budget requests from state executive branch agencies for the applicable fiscal year. The working group shall prioritize such requests prior to submitting funding proposals to the joint budget committee on November 1 of each year. The working group shall prioritize information technology-related requests beginning with requests for the 2015-16 fiscal year.

(2) On or before November 1, 2014, and on or before November 1 each year thereafter, the office shall submit a report to the joint budget committee and the joint technology committee that provides the prioritized list created pursuant to subsection (1) of this section of all information technology requests that state executive branch agencies submitted for the applicable fiscal year. The report shall include the following:

(a) The name of each project for which a request is made and the purpose of the project;

(b) The initial and continuing costs associated with each project for which a request is made; and

(c) The project's adherence to the standards and policies issued by the office.

24-37.5-803. State information technology resources - independent evaluation and recommendations - report - repeal. (1) The state auditor shall retain a qualified, independent third-party consulting firm to evaluate state agency information technology resources. The state auditor shall solicit qualified, independent third-party consulting firms with the necessary credentials to bid for the evaluation through a competitive solicitation process in accordance with the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title 24. The state auditor shall select a firm that has a history of unbiased, peer-reviewed results and shall not select a firm that has a known conflict of interest that may interfere with its ability to produce an objective evaluation.

Any firm that responds to the competitive solicitation shall disclose any impairments or potential impairments to its independence in conducting the evaluation. The state auditor shall enter into a contract with the selected firm by October 31, 2017.

(2) The firm retained pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall evaluate the following:

(a) The centralization of the management of state agency information technology resources in the office of information technology pursuant to Senate Bill 08-155, enacted in 2008, and whether the centralization has achieved the goals of the general assembly regarding the management of daily information technology operations, including but not limited to goals regarding:

(I) Information technology human resources, including but not limited to:
(A) Whether state agencies have transferred information technology human resources to the office of information technology;
(B) Whether state agencies have reduced the number of full-time employees providing information technology services; and
(C) Why reductions and transfers of employees have or have not occurred and what measures may help state agencies achieve such reductions and transfers if they have not occurred;

(II) Information technology infrastructure, including but not limited to:
(A) Whether state agencies have transferred information technology infrastructure to the office of information technology;
(B) Why transfers of information technology infrastructure have or have not occurred and what measures may help state agencies achieve such transfers if they have not occurred; and
(C) Whether software and hardware decisions made by the office of information technology have provided savings and efficiencies to the state and whether those savings can be quantified;

(III) Whether the office of information technology's practice of billing state agencies for information technology services has resulted in efficiencies or long-term cost savings for the state and what effect such practice has on accounting processes and employee costs for state agencies; and

(IV) Whether the office of information technology has a strategic plan, or its equivalent, to use consultants, vendors, or organizations such as the statewide internet portal authority to realize the original and ongoing objectives of centralizing the management of state agency information technology resources;

(b) Whether the executive branch has a strategic plan, or its equivalent, in place to guide its process for evaluating, prioritizing, and selecting information technology projects that require new or ongoing appropriations of state money, including but not limited to:

(I) The efficiency and effectiveness of the state's current process for information technology project evaluation, prioritization and selection, including a cost-benefit analysis, and whether the office of information technology, state agencies, the governor's office, or the joint technology committee or joint budget committee could make any changes or improvements to the process; and

(II) Whether the office of information technology's existing legislative review and reporting processes in connection with the joint budget committee and the joint technology committee are adequate;
(c) The opportunities the state has to interface with the public through information technology, including but not limited to whether the state can take advantage of new and emerging opportunities for future automation and online citizen interaction with government and, if so, how the state could proceed with such opportunities;

(d) The office of information technology's working relationship with state agencies, departments, offices, and institutions that were not included in the centralization of state agency information technology resources pursuant to Senate Bill 08-155, enacted in 2008, but rely on the office of information technology to provide certain information technology services or resources; and

(e) Consumer satisfaction, to be determined through a consumer satisfaction survey, among state agencies with the management of state agency information technology resources and access to state government via information technology resources.

(3) In June 2018, the qualified, independent third-party consulting firm retained pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall provide an update to the joint budget committee regarding the progress of the evaluation. The update need not include preliminary findings.

(4) On or before December 15, 2018, the qualified, independent third-party consulting firm shall submit a report to the legislative audit committee, the joint budget committee, the joint technology committee, and the office of information technology. The report shall include:

(a) Recommendations to the office of information technology for industry best practice standards that should be implemented;

(b) Recommendations to the office of information technology regarding changes that could be made, working with the general assembly, to:

(I) Realize the outcomes envisioned by the general assembly when it created the office of information technology and consolidated the management of state agency information technology resources and services;

(II) Improve the process for evaluating, prioritizing, and selecting information technology projects;

(III) Provide new and better opportunities for the state to interface with the public; and

(IV) Facilitate collaboration and communication between the office of information technology and state agencies, departments, offices, and institutions that were not included in the legislation to centralize state agency information technology resources but that rely on the office of information technology to provide information technology services or resources;

(c) Recommended future options for the state to solicit feedback from state residents regarding the public's opportunities to interface with state government; and

(d) Policy discussions directed toward the general assembly, including discussions regarding inter-committee processes between the joint budget committee and the joint technology committee for coordinating the review of information technology budget requests.

(5) After receiving the report required by subsection (4) of this section, the joint budget committee, the joint technology committee, the office of information technology, and any other office or department that was the subject of recommendations made in the report shall meet to discuss the implementation of the recommendations made in the report.

(6) This section is repealed, effective January 1, 2020.

ARTICLE 37.7

Statewide Internet Portal Authority

24-37.7-101. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Authority" means the statewide internet portal authority created pursuant to section 24-37.7-102.
(2) "Board" means the governing body of the authority created pursuant to section 24-37.7-102.
(3) "Electronic information, products, and services" means any data, information, product, or service that is created, generated, collected, maintained, or distributed in electronic form by a state agency, local government, or private enterprise to the public, state agencies, or local governments through electronic access.
(4) "Executive director" means the executive director of the statewide internet portal authority.
(5) "Local government" means the government of any county, city and county, home rule or statutory city, town, special district, school district, or other political subdivision of the state.
(6) "State agency" shall have the same meaning as provided in section 24-37.5-102 (4).
(7) "Statewide internet portal" means the officially designated electronic information delivery system by which electronic information, products, and services are provided via the internet.
(8) "Statewide internet portal integrator" means the private vendor selected to provide goods and services needed to implement and operate the statewide internet portal.

24-37.7-102. Statewide internet portal authority - creation - board. (1) There is hereby created an independent public body politic and corporate to be known as the statewide internet portal authority. The authority shall be a body corporate and a political subdivision of the state and shall not be an agency of the state government and shall not be subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, or agency of the state.
(2) The governing body of the authority shall be a board of directors that shall consist of the following fifteen voting members:
(a) The secretary of state;
(b) The head of one of the offices in the office of the governor appointed by the governor;
(c) The executive directors of three principal departments of the state appointed by the governor or the appointed executive director's designee. An appointed executive director of a principal department shall give written notice to the executive director of the authority of his or her designee.
(d) (I) Three members from the private sector who exhibit a background in information management and technology and who are users of electronic information, products, and services or information technology services that are offered through the private sector appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate.

(II) The members from the private sector shall serve for terms of four years each; except that, of those members first appointed to the board, the terms of office shall be as follows:
(A) One shall be appointed for two years; and
(B) One shall be appointed for three years.

(e) One member representing the judicial department of the state appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court. If the appointee of the chief justice is not able to attend a meeting of the board, a designee of the person appointed by the chief justice may serve on the board if designated in writing by the chief justice's appointee. The appointee of the chief justice shall give written notice to the executive director of his or her designee.

(f) Two members of the senate, one of whom is appointed by the president of the senate and one of whom is appointed by the minority leader of the senate, and two members of the house of representatives, one of whom is appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one of whom is appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives. Each of these four members shall exhibit a background in information management and technology or have experience as members of an oversight committee for information management and technology. The appointment of the members to the board by the minority leaders of the senate and house of representatives shall be made as soon as practicable after May 28, 2013.

(g) One member representing local government appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate; and

(h) The chief information officer of the office of information technology created in section 24-37.5-103, or the chief information officer's designee. The chief information officer shall give written notice to the executive director of his or her designee.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 915, § 12, effective May 17, 2007.)

(4) The board may appoint such additional nonvoting members to the board as it deems necessary. Additional members appointed pursuant to this subsection (4) shall not be included in determining whether a quorum is present.

(5) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), each member shall serve until his or her successor has been appointed and qualified. The person making the original appointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term.

(b) The terms of the members appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate and who are serving on May 28, 2013, are extended to and expire or terminate on the convening date of the first regular session of the seventieth general assembly. The terms of the members initially appointed by the minority leaders of the senate and house of representatives expire or terminate on the convening date of the first regular session of the seventieth general assembly. As soon as practicable after such convening date, the speaker, the president, and the minority leaders shall each appoint or reappoint one member in the same manner as provided in paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of this section. Thereafter, the terms of members appointed or reappointed by the speaker, the president, and the minority leaders shall expire on the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly, and all subsequent appointments and reappointments by the speaker, the president, and the minority leaders shall expire on the convening date of each general assembly.
leaders shall be made as soon as practicable after such convening date. Members appointed or reappointed by the speaker, the president, and the minority leaders shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and shall continue in office until the member's successor is appointed.

(6) The board shall annually elect a chairperson of the authority from the members of the board and shall annually elect another member as secretary. The board shall not elect the designee of an executive director of a principal department, of the chief information officer, or of the appointee of the chief justice as an officer of the board.

(7) Any appointed member of the board may be removed by his or her appointing authority for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three-fourths of the meetings of the board in any one calendar year.

(8) Neither the members of the authority nor any person authorized by the authority to act in an official capacity shall be held personally liable for any act undertaken pursuant to the provisions of this article.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (2)(f) by House Bill 13-1079 and House Bill 13-1324 were harmonized.

24-37.7-103. Meetings of board - quorum - expenses. (1) All meetings of the board of directors shall be subject to the provisions of section 24-6-402. No business of the board of directors shall be transacted except at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the total voting membership of the board is present. Any action of the board of directors shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-2-326, C.R.S., members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this article. Any payments to board members pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be paid from moneys of the authority.

24-37.7-104. Powers of the statewide internet portal authority. (1) In addition to any other powers granted to the authority in this article, the authority shall have the following powers:

(a) To have the duties, privileges, immunities, rights, liabilities, and disabilities of a body corporate and political subdivision of the state;

(b) To have perpetual existence and succession;
(c) To adopt, have, and use a seal and to alter the same at its pleasure;
(d) To sue and be sued;
(e) To enter into any contract or agreement not inconsistent with this article or the laws of this state and to authorize the executive director to enter into contracts, execute all instruments, and do all things necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers granted in this article and to secure the payment of bonds;
(f) To borrow money and to issue bonds evidencing the same;
(g) To purchase, lease, trade, exchange, or otherwise acquire, maintain, hold, improve, mortgage, lease, sell, and dispose of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, or any interest therein; and to purchase, lease, trade, exchange, or otherwise acquire real property or any interest therein and to maintain, hold, improve, mortgage, lease, or otherwise transfer such real property, so long as such transactions do not interfere with the mission of the authority as specified in section 24-37.7-105;
(h) To acquire space, equipment, services, supplies, and insurance necessary to carry out the purposes of this article;
(i) To deposit any moneys of the authority in any banking institution within the state or in any depository authorized in section 24-75-603, and to appoint, for the purpose of making such deposits, one or more persons to act as custodians of the moneys of the authority, who shall give surety bonds in such amounts and form and for such purposes as the board of directors requires;
(j) To contract for and to accept any gifts, grants, or loans of funds, property, or any other aid in any form from the federal government, the state, any state agency, or any other source, or any combination thereof, and to comply, subject to the provisions of this article, with the terms and conditions thereof;
(k) To have and exercise all rights and powers necessary or incidental to or implied from the specific powers granted in this article, which specific powers shall not be considered as a limitation upon any power necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes and intent of this article;
(l) To fix the time and place or places at which its regular and special meetings are to be held. Meetings shall be held on the call of the presiding officer, but no less than six meetings shall be held annually.
(m) To adopt and from time to time amend or repeal bylaws and rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this article; except that article 4 of this title shall not apply to the promulgation of any policies, procedures, rules, or regulations of the authority;
(n) To appoint a treasurer of the board and such other officers as the board of directors may determine and provide for their duties and terms of office;
(o) To appoint an executive director and such agents, employees, and professional and business advisers as may from time to time be necessary in its judgment to accomplish the purposes of this article, to fix the compensation of such executive director, employees, agents, and advisers, and to establish the powers and duties of all such agents, employees, and other persons contracting with the authority;
(p) To waive, by such means as the authority deems appropriate, the exemption from federal income taxation of interest on the authority's bonds, notes, or other obligations provided by the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, or any other federal statute providing a similar exemption;
(q) To make and execute agreements, contracts, or other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers and functions of the authority under this article, including but not limited to contracts with any person, firm, corporation, state agency, local government, or other entity. All state agencies and local governments are hereby authorized to enter into and do all things necessary to perform any such arrangement or contract with the authority.

(r) To arrange for guaranties or insurance of its bonds, notes, or other obligations by the federal government or by any private insurer, and to pay any premiums therefor.

(2) The authority shall not enter into a contract with a statewide portal integrator unless the statewide portal integrator was chosen by the authority pursuant to a request for proposals issued by the authority.

(3) Any current or pending action by the office of information technology relating to a request for proposals for the statewide internet portal shall be void.

(4) State agencies shall coordinate and cooperate with the authority for purposes of the delivery of electronic information, products, and services by the authority.

24-37.7-105. Mission of the authority. (1) The mission of the authority is to:

(a) Develop the officially recognized statewide internet portal that provides one-stop access to electronic information, products, and services in order to give members of the public, state agencies, and local governments an alternative way to transact business with the state;

(b) Provide electronic access for members of the public, state agencies, and local governments to electronic information, products, and services through the statewide internet portal;

(c) Develop and annually update a strategic business plan for the implementation, maintenance, and enhancement of the statewide internet portal;

(d) Issue requests for bids or proposals to or contracts with any public or private parties for the design, implementation, operation, and improvement of the distribution of electronic information, products, and services or for the services described in paragraph (e) of this subsection (1), or both;

(e) Enter into a contract with a statewide internet portal integrator for the development, support, maintenance, and enhancement of the equipment and systems utilized for the statewide internet portal;

(f) Provide appropriate administration and oversight of the statewide internet portal integrator;

(g) Enter into contracts for the provision of new services related to the distribution of electronic information, products, and services through the statewide internet portal;

(h) Explore ways and means of expanding the amount and kind of electronic information, products, and services provided, increasing the utility of the electronic information, products, and services provided and the form in which it is provided, and, where appropriate, implementing such expansion or increase;
(i) Explore technological means of improving access for members of the public, state agencies, and local governments to electronic information, products, and services, and, where appropriate, implement such technological improvements; and

(j) Explore options for expanding the statewide internet portal and its services to members of the public, state agencies, and local governments by providing add-on services such as access to other information, products, services, and databases or by providing electronic mail and calendaring to subscribers.

24-37.7-106. Fees and charges - no modification - new services. (1) The authority shall not increase or decrease the amount of any charge or fee that a state agency or local government is authorized by law to impose for electronic information, products, and services.

(2) Access to electronic information, products, and services through the statewide internet portal shall be consistent with any law governing such access.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed as providing the authority with exclusive access to electronic information, products, and services.

(4) Repealed.

24-37.7-107. Financing. (1) The authority shall fund its operations from:
(a) Federal moneys granted or allocated to the authority;
(b) Website advertising;
(c) Moneys, goods, or in-kind services donated from public or private sources;
(d) Moneys loaned to the authority by any person or entity;
(e) Moneys derived from the issuance and sale of bonds; or
(f) Moneys derived from the sale of services, products, or information.

24-37.7-108. Bonds and notes. (1) The authority may, from time to time, issue bonds and notes for any of its corporate purposes. The bonds and notes shall be issued pursuant to resolution of the board and shall be payable solely out of all or a specified portion of the revenues of the authority as designated by the board.

(2) Bonds of the authority, as provided in the resolution of the authority under which the bonds are authorized or as provided in a trust indenture between the authority and any commercial or trust company having full trust powers, may:
(a) Be executed and delivered by the authority in the form, in denominations, upon the terms and maturities, and at the times established by the board;

(b) Be subject to optional or mandatory redemption prior to maturity with or without a premium;

(c) Be in fully registered form or bearer form registerable as to principal or interest or both;

(d) Bear such conversion privileges and be payable in such installments and at such times not exceeding twenty years from the date of issuance as established by the board;

(e) Be payable at such place or places whether within or without the state as established by the board;

(f) Bear interest at such rate or rates per annum, which may be fixed or vary according to index, procedure, or formula or as determined by the authority or its agents without regard to any interest rate limitation appearing in any other law of the state;

(g) Be subject to purchase at the option of the holder or the board;

(h) Be evidenced in the manner established by the board, and executed by the officers of the authority, including the use of one or more facsimile signatures so long as at least one manual signature appears on the bonds, which may be either of an officer of the authority or of an agent authenticating the same;

(i) Be in the form of coupon bonds that have attached interest coupons bearing a manual or a facsimile signature of an officer of the authority; and

(j) Contain any other provisions not inconsistent with this article.

(3) The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices, in the manner, and at the times as determined by the board, and the board may pay all fees, expenses, and commissions that it deems necessary or advantageous in connection with the sale of the bonds. The power to fix the date of sale of the bonds, to receive bids or proposals, to award and sell bonds, to fix interest rates, and to take all other action necessary to sell and deliver the bonds may be delegated to an officer or agent of the authority. Any outstanding bonds may be refunded by the authority pursuant to article 56 of title 11, C.R.S. All bonds and any interest coupons applicable thereto are declared to be negotiable instruments.

(4) The resolution or trust indenture authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes may pledge all or a portion of the property or revenues of the authority, may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of holders of any of the bonds or notes as the authority deems appropriate, may set forth the rights and remedies of the holders of any of the bonds or notes, and may contain provisions that the authority deems appropriate for the security of the holders of the bonds or notes, including but not limited to provisions for letters of credit, insurance, standby credit agreements, or other forms of credit ensuring timely payment of the bonds or notes, including the redemption price or the purchase price.

(5) Any pledge of revenues or property made by the authority or by any person or governmental unit with which the authority contracts shall be valid and binding from the time the pledge is made. The revenues or property so pledged shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery or further act, and the lien of such pledge shall be valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the pledging party, regardless of whether the party has notice of such lien. The instrument by which the pledge is created need not be recorded or filed.
(6) Neither the members of the board, employees of the authority, nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(7) Bonds and notes issued by the authority shall not constitute or become an indebtedness, a debt, or a liability of the state. The bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to such effect.

(8) The authority may purchase its bonds or notes out of any available moneys and may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell such bonds and notes subject to and in accordance with agreements with the holders thereof.

(9) Any bonds, notes, or other securities issued pursuant to this section and the income therefrom, including any profit from the sale thereof, shall be exempt from all taxation of the state or any agency, political subdivision, or instrumentality of the state.

24-37.7-109. Agreement of the state not to limit or alter rights of obligees. The state hereby pledges and agrees with the holders of any bonds or notes issued under this article and with those parties who enter into contract with the authority that the state will not limit, alter, restrict, or impair the rights vested in the authority or the rights or obligations of any person with which it contracts to fulfill the terms of any agreements made pursuant to this article. The state further agrees that it will not in any way impair the rights or remedies of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority until such bonds or notes have been paid or until adequate provision for payment has been made. The authority may include this provision and undertaking for the state in such bonds or notes.

24-37.7-111. Bonds eligible for investment. All banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, executors, administrators, guardian trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any moneys within their control in any bonds issued under this article. Public entities, as defined in section 24-75-601 (1), may invest public funds in such bonds only if the bonds satisfy the investment requirements established in part 6 of article 75 of this title.

24-37.7-113.  Annual report. (Repealed)

24-37.7-113.5.  Annual report. (1) On or before November 1, 2013, and on November 1 of each year thereafter, the authority shall submit a report to the members of the joint technology committee and the joint budget committee of the general assembly and to the members of the business, labor, and technology committee of the senate and the business affairs and labor committee of the house of representatives, or any successor committees, that includes the following:

(a) A complete and detailed operating and financial statement of the authority during the preceding fiscal year;

(b) The total amount of charges or fees imposed by each state agency for accessing electronic information, products, and services through the statewide internet portal made in the preceding fiscal year pursuant to section 24-37.7-106; and

(c) The total amount of receipts and revenue derived by the authority from the transactions described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) for the preceding fiscal year.

(2) The report required pursuant to subsection (1) of this section must also include any recommendations regarding additional legislation or other action that may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the authority.

(3) The authority shall present the information contained in the report to the members of the joint technology committee of the general assembly at a regular meeting of the committee and shall present such information to any other legislative committee upon request of the committee.

(4) This section is exempt from the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11), and the annual reporting requirements of this section are effective until changed by the general assembly acting by bill.

24-37.7-114.  Financial and performance audits. (1) (a) If a financial audit of the authority is conducted by an independent certified public accountant pursuant to a contract with the authority, any statements, records, schedules, working papers, and memoranda prepared by the certified public accountant shall be made available to the state auditor's office and shall be kept confidential unless a majority of the members of the legislative audit committee vote to open such documents.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1297), ch. 269, p. 1224, § 5, effective June 2, 2011.)

(2) Upon the completion of a financial or performance audit described in subsection (1) of this section or in section 2-3-103 (1)(b), C.R.S., the state auditor shall submit a written report to the legislative audit committee, together with any findings and recommendations.

(3) The cost of each such financial audit shall be paid by the authority. The cost of any such performance audit shall be paid from annual appropriations made by the general assembly to the office of the state auditor.

ARTICLE 38

Government Efficiency

24-38-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that state agencies should be authorized and encouraged to improve their services and save money wherever possible.

Source: L. 98: Entire article added, p. 1308, § 1, effective August 5.

24-38-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Agency" means every agency in the executive branch of state government that is required by the constitution or statutes of the state to exercise discretion or to perform judicial or quasi-judicial functions. The term includes, but is not limited to, any board, bureau, commission, department, institution, division, section, or office of the state.

(2) "Cost savings" means any money that an agency does not expend from its general fund appropriations for a given fiscal year that is a direct result of cost-cutting measures, including an action that would result in a base reduction due to permanent reductions in spending. In no case shall "cost savings" include or be a result of a case load reduction or personal services contracts that the agency entered into under a managed competition process; except that "cost savings" does include savings realized from personal services contracts entered into pursuant to a public-private initiative agreement between the agency and a nonprofit entity in accordance with part 2 of this article.

24-38-103. Agency authority and incentives for budget savings. (1) Beginning with the 1998-99 fiscal year, any agency may implement measures that reduce the costs of delivering the agency's services and products below the amount of the agency's appropriations for a given fiscal year. Any agency that achieves cost savings under this subsection (1) may transfer twenty percent of the amount of the cost savings from one item of appropriation made to the agency in the general appropriation act or any supplemental appropriation act to another item of appropriation made to the same agency in said act. The following limitations shall apply only to transfers made pursuant to this subsection (1):

(a) In no case shall an agency use any of the amount transferred as a result of cost savings to add employment positions or for personal services.

(b) All transfers made pursuant to this subsection (1) shall be between items of appropriations made for the fiscal year in which the cost savings were achieved.

(c) Prior to expending any moneys so transferred, the agency that achieved the cost savings shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the joint budget committee that details how the agency will spend the transferred moneys.

(d) Any moneys transferred to an agency as the result of cost savings may be spent only for reinvestment in technology or other capital projects related to the item of appropriation to which the moneys were transferred.

(1.5) Beginning with the 2004-05 fiscal year, an agency that achieves cost savings, as an alternative to the transfer authorized pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, may transfer fifty percent of the amount of the cost savings from one item of appropriation made to the agency in the general appropriation act or any supplemental appropriation act to the item for personal services in the appropriation made to the same agency for the purpose of paying performance-based awards to employees of the agency. The award shall be awarded in the fiscal year in which the cost savings are achieved and shall be made consistent with the performance review done in accordance with the merit pay system identified in section 24-50-104 (1)(c.7). Prior to the end of the state fiscal year in which a transfer is made pursuant to this subsection (1.5), an agency shall submit written notice to the joint budget committee, the office of state planning and budgeting, and the state controller of the amount of the cost savings achieved by the agency during the state fiscal year.

(2) The general assembly may reduce an agency's appropriations for the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the agency achieved the cost savings by the amount of such cost savings if the general assembly determines that the agency is no longer maintaining the measures the agency used to achieve the cost savings or that such cost savings is sustainable for more than one fiscal year. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (2), the general assembly shall not use a one-time cost savings an agency achieves in a given fiscal year to justify reducing any item of appropriation or the total amount of appropriations the agency may receive in the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the agency achieved the cost savings.
However, nothing in this subsection (2) shall affect the general assembly's authority to reduce an agency's appropriations for any reason other than cost savings.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow an agency to avoid any power or duty required by law that otherwise applies to the agency's actions.

PART 2

PUBLIC-PRIVATE INITIATIVES

24-38-201. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that state government should deliver public services in the most cost-effective and efficient manner, that nonprofit entities that contract for public services leverage the use of public funds with private donations, and that increasing opportunities for nonprofit entities to contract with state agencies will further the cost-effective and efficient delivery of public services. It is the intent of the general assembly in enacting this part 2 only to provide flexibility to state government so that it can deliver public services more cost-effectively and efficiently and not to establish or authorize the establishment of new programs.

Source: L. 2010: Entire part added, (HB 10-1010), ch. 90, p. 304, § 1, effective August 11.

(1) "Nonprofit contribution" means the supply by a nonprofit entity of resources to accomplish all or any part of the work on a project or the implementation or administration of a program.

(2) "Nonprofit entity" means a corporation or organization authorized to do business in the state that is exempt from taxation pursuant to section 501 (a) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (a), as amended, and is listed as an exempt organization in section 501 (c)(3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (c)(3), as amended.

(3) "Public benefit" means an agency grant of a right or interest in or concerning an agency project or program.

(4) "Public-private initiative" means a nontraditional arrangement between an agency and one or more nonprofit entities that provides for:

(a) Acceptance of a nonprofit contribution to an agency project or service in exchange for a public benefit concerning the project or service other than only a money payment;

(b) Sharing of resources and the means of providing projects or services;

(c) Cooperation in researching, developing, and implementing projects or services.

(5) "Unsolicited proposal" means a written proposal for a public-private initiative that is submitted by a nonprofit entity for the purpose of entering into an agreement with an agency but that is not in response to a formal solicitation or request issued by the agency.

Source: L. 2010: Entire part added, (HB 10-1010), ch. 90, p. 304, § 1, effective August 11.
24-38-203. Unsolicited proposals. (1) An agency may consider, evaluate, and accept an unsolicited proposal only if the proposal complies with all of the requirements of this section.

(2) An agency may consider an unsolicited proposal only if the proposal:
(a) Will assist the agency in carrying out its duties in a cost-effective and efficient manner without replacing existing state employees;
(b) Is independently originated and developed by the proposer;
(c) Is prepared without agency supervision;
(d) Includes sufficient detail and information to allow the agency to evaluate the proposal in an objective and timely manner and to determine if the proposal benefits the agency;
and
(e) Is not an advance proposal for a known agency requirement that can be acquired by competitive methods unless:
(I) The agency has not established a timetable for satisfying the known requirement; or
(II) The proposal is likely to significantly shorten a timetable for satisfying the known requirement.

(3) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit an agency from encouraging the submission of unsolicited proposals that are well-developed and consistent with the agency's general policy priorities by providing written or oral information to any person regarding the policy priorities or the requirements and procedures for submitting an unsolicited proposal.

(4) If an unsolicited proposal does not meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the agency shall return the proposal without further action. If an unsolicited proposal meets all of the requirements of subsection (2), the agency may further evaluate the proposal pursuant to this section.

(5) An agency shall base its evaluation of an unsolicited proposal on the following factors:
(a) Unique and innovative methods, approaches, or concepts demonstrated by the proposal;
(b) Scientific, technical, or socioeconomic merits of the proposal;
(c) Potential contribution of the proposal to the agency's mission;
(d) Capabilities, related experience, facilities, or techniques of the proposer or unique combinations of these qualities that are integral factors for achieving the proposal objectives;
(e) Cost savings, efficient delivery of services, or enhanced quality of service delivered to the recipient; and
(f) Any other factors appropriate to a particular proposal.

(6) An agency may accept an unsolicited proposal only if:
(a) The unsolicited proposal receives a favorable evaluation; and
(b) The agency makes a written determination based on facts and circumstances that the unsolicited proposal is an acceptable basis for an agreement to obtain services either without competition or, if applicable, after the agency takes the actions required by subsection (7) of this section.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, if an unsolicited proposal requires an agency to spend public moneys in an amount that is reasonably expected to exceed fifty thousand dollars in the aggregate for any fiscal year, the agency shall take the following actions before accepting the unsolicited proposal:
(a) Provide public notice that the agency will consider comparable proposals. The notice shall:

(I) Be given at least fourteen days prior to the date set forth therein for the opening of proposals through any reasonable method, which may include publication on the agency's internet website, posting on the state's bid information and distribution system, or publication in a newspaper of general circulation;

(II) Be provided to any nonprofit entity that expresses, in writing to the agency, an interest in a public-private initiative that is similar in nature and scope to the unsolicited proposal;

(III) Outline in summary form the general nature and scope of the unsolicited proposal, including the work to be performed on the project and the terms of any nonprofit contributions offered and public benefits requested concerning the project;

(IV) Request information to determine if the proposer of a comparable proposal has the necessary experience and qualifications to perform the public-private initiative; and

(V) Specify the address to and the date by which comparable proposals must be submitted, allowing a reasonable time to prepare and submit the proposals;

(b) Determine, in its discretion, if any submitted proposal is comparable in nature and scope to the unsolicited proposal and warrants further evaluation;

(c) Evaluate each comparable proposal, taking relevant factors into consideration; and

(d) Conduct good faith discussions and, if necessary, negotiations concerning each comparable proposal.

(8) The actions required by subsection (7) of this section do not apply to an unsolicited research proposal if an agency reasonably determines that the actions would improperly disclose either the originality of the research or proprietary information associated with the research proposal.

(9) An agency may accept a comparable proposal submitted pursuant to subsection (7) of this section if the agency determines that the comparable proposal is the most advantageous to the state in comparison to an unsolicited proposal or other submitted proposals. In making the determination, the agency shall use only the proposal evaluation criteria specified in this section and shall not use the methods of source selection set forth in part 2 of article 103 of this title.

(10) If an unsolicited proposal is accepted or if a comparable proposal is accepted pursuant to subsection (9) of this section, the accepting agency shall use the proposal as the basis for negotiation of an agreement.

(11) Subject to the requirements of this section, each agency shall determine its own process for considering, evaluating, and accepting or rejecting unsolicited proposals. If the agency determines that an unsolicited proposal is an acceptable basis for negotiation of an agreement pursuant to this section, the agency's procurement officer shall be responsible for taking the action required by subsection (10) of this section. Before an agency considers an unsolicited proposal or a comparable proposal under this part 2, the agency shall adopt either rules promulgated in accordance with article 4 of this title or other written policy guidelines that it determines are necessary or appropriate to implement this part 2, including rules or guidelines on the evaluation of unsolicited proposals and the receipt, content, and proper handling of unsolicited or comparable proposals. The rules or guidelines shall also require both the nonprofit entity and the agency to disclose any individual or organizational conflicts of interest related to the public-private initiative and to document and properly manage any disclosures.
(12) At the time a principal department of state government submits its annual budget request to the joint budget committee of the general assembly, the department shall report to the committee regarding any public-private initiative agreement then in effect that the department or an agency within the department has entered into pursuant to this part 2. The information reported shall include, at a minimum, a brief description of the purpose and terms of the agreement, the amount of public moneys required to be expended by the state under the terms of the agreement, and the identity of the private partner that is a party to the agreement.

24-38-204. Public-private initiative agreements - cost savings. (1) An agency shall enter into an agreement for each public-private initiative that it accepts.

(2) An agency shall include terms and conditions in the agreement that it determines are appropriate in the public interest.

(3) If an agency achieves cost savings in a fiscal year by entering into a public-private initiative agreement, the agency shall be eligible to retain a portion of any cost savings resulting from the agreement as provided in section 24-38-103.

(4) An agency that enters into a public-private initiative agreement with a nonprofit entity is not a partner or a joint venturer with the nonprofit entity for any purpose.

ARTICLE 38.5
Colorado Energy Office
PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

24-38.5-101. Colorado energy office - creation. (1) There is hereby created within the office of the governor the Colorado energy office, the head of which shall be the director of the Colorado energy office. The director of the office shall be assisted by a deputy director and a staff to fulfill the office's mission to:
(a) Sustain the Colorado energy economy and promote all Colorado energy;
(b) Promote economic development in Colorado through energy-market advances that create jobs;
(c) Encourage Colorado-based clean and innovative energy solutions that include traditional, clean, and renewable energy sources in order to encourage a cleaner and balanced energy portfolio;
(d) Promote energy efficiency;
(e) Increase energy security;
(f) Lower long-term consumer costs; and
(g) Protect the environment.
(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2012)

24-38.5-102. Colorado energy office - duties and powers. (1) The Colorado energy office shall:
(a) Work with communities, utilities, private and public organizations, and individuals to promote:
(I) The renewable energy standard established in section 40-2-124, C.R.S.;
(II) Clean and renewable energy, such as wind, hydroelectricity, solar, and geothermal;
(III) Cleaner energy sources such as biogas and biomass;
(IV) Traditional energy sources such as oil and other petroleum products, coal, and natural gas;
(V) Energy efficiency technologies and practices;
(VI) Cleaner technologies by utilizing traditional, Colorado-sourced energy; and
(VII) New energy technologies as described in section 40-2-123, C.R.S.
(b) Develop programs to promote high performance buildings for commercial and residential markets;
(c) Make state government more energy efficient;
(d) Promote technology transfer and economic development;
(e) Advance innovative energy efficiency, renewable energy, and efficiency throughout the state as specified in sections 24-38.5-102.4 and 24-38.5-102.5;
(f) Implement and administer a wind for schools project pursuant to article 89 of title 22, C.R.S.;
(g) Work with the Colorado energy research institute to provide grants to advance energy-efficient design and construction as specified in section 23-41-114 (4)(b)(VI), C.R.S.;
(h) Repealed.
(i) Send an office representative to the pollution prevention advisory board assistance committee pursuant to section 25-16.5-105.5 (2)(c)(III), C.R.S.;
(j) Ensure that information explaining the requirements of energy codes is available and provide technical assistance concerning the implementation and enforcement of energy codes to both counties and municipalities as specified in sections 30-28-211 (7) and 31-15-602 (7), C.R.S.;
(k) Collaborate with the state board of land commissioners regarding renewable energy resource development as specified in section 36-1-147.5 (4), C.R.S.;
(l) Provide home energy efficiency improvements for low-income households as specified in section 40-8.7-112 (3)(b), C.R.S., and prepare and submit to the general assembly an annual report as specified in section 40-8.7-112 (3)(f), C.R.S.;
(m) Establish and manage a program to improve energy efficiency in public schools as provided in section 39-29-109.5, C.R.S.;
(n) Provide public utilities with reasonable assistance, if requested, in seeking and obtaining support and sponsorship for an IGCC project as defined in section 40-2-123 (2)(b)(I), C.R.S., and manage and distribute to the utility some or all of any funds provided by the state or by the United States government to the state for purposes of study or development of an IGCC project as specified in section 40-2-123 (2)(j), C.R.S.; (o) Collaborate with the department of higher education to develop energy curricula that will serve the work force needs of all energy industries. Such collaboration may include research institutions, state colleges, community colleges, and trade organizations in an effort to develop a means by which the state may address all facets of work force demands in developing a balanced energy portfolio. Institutions may also partner in the development of curricula with organizations that have existing energy curricula and training programs.
(p) Annually report to the senate agriculture, natural resources, and energy committee and the house agriculture, livestock, and natural resources committee, or their successor committees;
(q) Administer the electric vehicle grant fund;
(r) Implement and administer the renewable energy and energy efficiency for schools loan program pursuant to article 92 of title 22, C.R.S.;
(s) Repealed.
(t) Assist the executive director of the department of local affairs in allocating revenues from the geothermal resource leasing fund to eligible entities pursuant to section 34-63-105, C.R.S.
(2) Repealed.
(3) The Colorado energy office shall notify the house of representatives and senate committees of reference to which the office is assigned pursuant to section 2-7-203 (1), C.R.S., as part of its "State Measurement for Accountable, Responsive, and Transparent (SMART) Government Act" hearing required by section 2-7-203 (2), C.R.S., if it has made any changes to:
(a) Any performance plans and performance evaluations required pursuant to section 2-7-204, C.R.S.; (b) Office policies related to energy transmission; and
(c) Office policies that positively or negatively impact the energy sector.

24-38.5-102.4. Clean and renewable energy fund - creation - use of fund - definitions. (1) (a) (I) The clean and renewable energy fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund shall consist of moneys transferred to the fund from the general fund, moneys transferred to the fund at the end of the 2006-07 state fiscal year and at the end of each succeeding state fiscal year from moneys received by the Colorado energy office, moneys received pursuant to the federal "American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009", Pub.L. 111-5, or any amendments thereto, or from revenue contracts, court settlement funds, supplemental environmental program funds, repayment or return of funds from eligible public depositories, and gifts, grants, and donations, and any other moneys received by the Colorado energy office. Interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of moneys in the clean and renewable energy fund shall be credited to the fund. Moneys in the fund at the end of any state fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited to the state general fund or any other fund. Moneys in the fund shall not be transferred to the innovative energy fund created in section 24-38.5-102.5.
(II) and (III) Repealed.
(b) For purposes of this section, "Colorado energy office" means the Colorado energy office created in section 24-38.5-101.
(2) (a) All moneys in the clean and renewable energy fund are continuously appropriated to the Colorado energy office for the purposes of advancing energy efficiency and renewable energy throughout the state.
(b) The Colorado energy office may expend moneys from the clean and renewable energy fund:
(I) To attract renewable energy industry investment in the state;
(II) To assist in technology transfer into the marketplace for newly developed energy efficiency and renewable energy technologies;
(III) To provide market incentives for the purchase and distribution of energy efficient and renewable energy products;
(IV) To assist in the implementation of energy efficiency projects throughout the state;
(V) To aid governmental agencies in energy efficiency government initiatives;
(VI) To facilitate widespread implementation of renewable energy technologies; and (VII) In any other manner that serves the purposes of advancing energy efficiency and renewable energy throughout the state.

(c) (I) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c), the moneys in the clean and renewable energy fund may also be used by the Colorado energy office to make grants or loans to persons, as defined in section 2-4-401 (8), C.R.S., for use in carrying out the purposes of this section. The Colorado energy office shall consider the following information in determining whether to make a grant or loan:
(A) The amount of the grant or loan;
(B) The quantified impact on energy demand or amount of clean energy production generated as a result of the grant or loan;
(C) The potential economic impact of the grant or loan; and
(D) The public benefits expected to result from the grant or loan.
(II) The Colorado energy office may establish terms and conditions for making grants or loans pursuant to this section and in accordance with the objectives of the office as set forth in section 24-38.5-102.

January 1, 2017. (See L. 2012, p. 965.)

24-38.5-102.5. Innovative energy fund - creation - use of fund - definitions. (1) (a)
The innovative energy fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund shall consist of moneys transferred to the fund by the general assembly, moneys transferred at the end of each state fiscal year from moneys received by the Colorado energy office, moneys received pursuant to section 39-29-108 (2), C.R.S., or from revenue contracts, court settlement funds, supplemental program funds, repayment or return of funds from eligible public depositories, and gifts, grants, and donations, and any other moneys received by the Colorado energy office.
Interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of moneys in the innovative energy fund shall be credited to the fund. Moneys in the fund at the end of any state fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited to the state general fund or any other fund. Moneys in the fund shall not be transferred to the clean and renewable energy fund created in section 24-38.5-102.4.
(b) For purposes of this section:
(I) "Colorado energy office" means the Colorado energy office created in section 24-38.5-101.
(II) "Innovative energy" means an existing, new, or emerging technology that:
(A) Enables the use of a local fuel source;
(B) Establishes a more efficient or environmentally beneficial use of energy; and
(C) Helps to create energy independence or energy security for the state.
(2) (a) All moneys in the innovative energy fund are continuously appropriated to the Colorado energy office for the purposes of advancing innovative energy efficiency throughout the state; except that the moneys are limited to efficiency projects and any other projects related to the severance of minerals subject to taxation under article 29 of title 39, C.R.S.

(b) The Colorado energy office may expend moneys from the innovative energy fund:

(i) To overcome market barriers facing emerging and cost-effective energy technologies;

(ii) To promote robust research, development, commercialization, and financing of innovative energy technologies;

(iii) To educate the general public on energy issues and opportunities;

(iv) To attract innovative energy industry investment in the state;

(v) To assist in technology transfer into the marketplace for newly developed innovative energy efficiency technologies;

(vi) To provide market incentives for the purchase and distribution of efficient innovative energy products;

(vii) To assist in the implementation of innovative energy efficiency projects throughout the state;

(viii) To aid governmental agencies in innovative energy efficiency government initiatives;

(ix) To facilitate widespread implementation of innovative energy technologies; and

(x) In any other manner that serves the purposes of advancing innovative energy efficiency throughout the state.

(c) (i) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph (c), the moneys in the innovative energy fund may also be used by the Colorado energy office to make grants or loans to persons, as defined in section 2-4-401(8), C.R.S., for use in carrying out the purposes of this section. The Colorado energy office shall consider the following information in determining whether to make a grant or loan:

(A) The amount of the grant or loan;

(B) The quantified impact on energy demand or amount of innovative energy production generated as a result of the grant or loan;

(C) The potential economic impact of the grant or loan; and

(D) The public benefits expected to result from the grant or loan.

(ii) The Colorado energy office may establish terms and conditions for making grants or loans pursuant to this section and in accordance with the objectives of the office as set forth in section 24-38.5-102; except that the grants or loans shall be limited to innovative energy efficiency projects and policy development.

24-38.5-102.7. Colorado energy saving mortgage program - definitions. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Accredited home energy rating provider" means a person who RESNET has accredited through the mortgage industry national home energy rating system accreditation standard as a rating provider and who appears on RESNET's national registry of accredited rating providers or a person who meets other rating provider requirements adopted in guidelines by the Colorado energy office pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section.

(b) "Certified home energy rater" means an individual who an accredited home energy rating provider has certified as a RESNET home energy rater to inspect and evaluate a home's energy features, assign a HERS index score to the home, and recommend energy efficiency improvements or an individual who meets other rater certification requirements adopted in guidelines by the Colorado energy office pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section.

(c) "Colorado energy saving mortgage program" or "program" means the Colorado energy star/energy saving mortgage program administered by the Colorado energy office as of January 1, 2013, as modified by this section or by any program changes implemented by the Colorado energy office within the limitations specified in this section, or any successor program.

(d) "Energy efficient home" means a home that a certified home energy rater has certified as having a HERS index score of not more than fifty or that meets other requirements for being an energy efficient home that the Colorado energy office adopts in guidelines pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(e) "Energy saving mortgage" means a mortgage issued to a borrower by a participating lender through the Colorado energy saving mortgage program for the purpose of financing:
   (I) The purchase of a newly built energy efficient home; or
   (II) Improvements to an existing home that:
      (A) Are made in accordance with recommendations made by or approved by the Colorado energy office following a residential energy audit of the home; and
      (B) Are confirmed by post-installation verification conducted by the Colorado energy office or a vendor, including but not limited to a participating utility, under contract with the office to have improved the energy efficiency of the home to the extent required by the Colorado energy office.

(f) "HERS index" means the home energy rating system index established by RESNET to measure the energy efficiency of a home.

(g) "Participating lender" means a bank, credit union, other financial institution, or independent mortgage broker that participates in the Colorado energy saving mortgage program by issuing energy saving mortgages and contributing funding that reduces the total cost of the mortgages to the borrowers.

(h) "Participating public utility" means a public utility, as defined in section 40-1-103, C.R.S., including any municipality that operates an electric utility and any cooperative electric or gas association or nonprofit electric corporation or association, that:
   (I) Provides electricity or natural gas to residential customers, without regard to whether the utility, association, or corporation is subject to or exempt, in whole or in part, from the "Public Utilities Law", articles 1 to 7 of title 40, C.R.S.;
   (II) Chooses to participate in the Colorado energy saving mortgage program by meeting all requirements for participation set forth in guidelines adopted by the Colorado energy office; and
   (III) If it is required to comply with the provisions of article 3.2 of title 40, C.R.S., has, prior to its initial participation in the Colorado energy savings mortgage program, had the public utilities commission approve a participation plan.
"RESNET" means the residential energy services network that is a recognized national standards-making body for building energy efficiency rating and certification systems in the United States.

(2) The Colorado energy office may spend any available moneys to fund energy saving mortgages subject to the following limitations:

(a) To the extent feasible, the Colorado energy office shall spend money evenly on energy saving mortgages that finance purchases of newly built energy efficient homes and energy saving mortgages that finance improvements to existing residences;

(b) Each energy saving mortgage may include funding that reduces the total cost of the mortgage to the borrower from both a participating public utility and a participating lender. The Colorado energy office may adopt guidelines to specify minimum percentages of total funding for an energy saving mortgage that each nonstate source of funding must provide.

(c) If a utility chooses to participate in the Colorado energy savings mortgage program by providing demand-side management program moneys, such moneys may only be used towards energy savings attributable to energy efficiency improvements and not towards energy savings attributable to renewable energy or on-site energy generation improvements.

(d) If a utility has existing demand-side management programs for residential new construction or whole-house existing retrofits, the utility must identify, in a demand-side management plan approved by the public utilities commission prior to the utility's initial participation in the Colorado energy mortgage savings program, how it will track participation in all programs, including the Colorado energy savings mortgage program, to ensure that customers do not receive multiple incentives.

(e) The Colorado energy office may only approve an energy saving mortgage that finances improvements to an existing home if the improvements are made by or approved by the office following a residential energy audit of the home and are confirmed by post-installation verification to have increased the energy efficiency of the home to the extent required by the office. The office may adopt guidelines that specify requirements for energy efficiency increases and the conduct of residential energy audits and post-installation testing.

(f) Subject to the following maximum value limitations, the Colorado energy office may adopt energy savings-based guidelines that set forth the maximum total value to the borrower in terms of reduction in the total costs of an energy saving mortgage:

(I) For an energy saving mortgage that finances the purchase of a new energy efficient home, the maximum total value to the borrower in terms of reduction in the total costs of an energy saving mortgage is:

   (A) For a home that has a HERS index score of zero, eight thousand dollars or any lower amount that the Colorado energy office establishes in guidelines; or

   (B) For a home that has a HERS index score that is greater than zero but no more than fifty, any lower amounts that the Colorado energy office establishes in guidelines subject to the limitation that if the office establishes multiple lower amounts, those amounts must increase as the HERS index score of a home decreases;

   (II) For an energy saving mortgage that finances improvements to an existing home, the maximum total value to the borrower in terms of reduction in the total costs of an energy saving mortgage is the lesser of any energy savings-based amount adopted in guidelines by the Colorado energy office or eight thousand dollars.
(g) The Colorado energy office may spend moneys contributed by a participating public utility only for energy saving mortgages for homes within the service area of the participating public utility.

(h) If demand-side management moneys contributed by a participating utility, when combined with moneys from all other sources, yield an incentive amount that exceeds the incremental cost of the energy saving improvements, the utility must set forth the treatment of the demand-side management moneys in its demand-side management plan and have that treatment approved by the public utilities commission.

(i) If the participation of a participating utility causes additional energy savings improvements to be made, due to the matching Colorado energy office and lender moneys, the public utilities commission may include the additional energy savings benefits and exclude the additional leveraged moneys from the benefit-cost ratio calculation described in section 40-1-102 (5)(b), C.R.S.

(3) A participating public utility receives credit for its participation in the program towards any demand side management program targets, contingent upon public utilities commission approval, pursuant to article 3.2 of title 40, C.R.S., or may receive credit towards any greenhouse gas emissions requirements that may be established in the future.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if another index or measure supersedes the HERS index as the industry standard for measuring building energy efficiency, the Colorado energy office may adopt guidelines that:

(a) Adopt the other index or measure as the standard for determining the energy efficiency of a new home or existing residence;

(b) Specify values on the new index or measure that are comparable to the HERS index scores and point improvements specified in this section and are to be used to determine eligibility for and the maximum value of energy saving mortgages; and

(c) Specify the requirements and procedures, including any required accreditation of rating providers or certification of raters, that must be complied with in rating a new home or existing residence under the other index or measure.

24-38.5-103. Electric vehicle grant fund - creation - administration - legislative declaration. (1) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the electric vehicle grant fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall be used to provide grants to state agencies, public universities, public transit agencies, local governments, landlords of multi-family apartment buildings, private nonprofit or for-profit corporations, and the unit owners' associations of common interest communities as defined in article 33.3 of title 38, C.R.S., to install recharging stations for electric vehicles. The grants shall be prioritized based upon:

(I) The prospective recipients' potential for, and commitment to, energy efficiency;

(II) The extent to which the proposed recipients' charging locations are likely to effectively serve existing electric vehicles or encourage the acquisition of additional electric vehicles; and

(III) The extent to which one or more charging stations would not be installed but for the financial assistance provided by a grant from the fund.
(b) The general assembly declares that while the intent of this section is to provide assistance and additional incentive where needed to encourage the installation of charging stations rather than to fully fund the installation of any station, thereby maximizing the number of stations that can be installed using the limited resources available from the fund, the Colorado energy office may grant the full cost of an installation in a location that is especially advantageous for support of the electric vehicle market but where other revenues are not and will not foreseeably be available to defray the costs of installation.

(2) The Colorado energy office is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this section. All private and public funds received through gifts, grants, or donations shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly. Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purposes of this section may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-38.5-104. Photovoltaic installer qualifications - cooperation with department of regulatory agencies. (1) Effective July 1, 2011, all photovoltaic installations funded wholly or partially through state or federal grants, including grants under the federal "American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009", Pub.L. 111-5, shall be subject to the requirements set forth in section 40-2-128, C.R.S.

(2) If the governor, by executive order, appoints a committee to study the desirability of credentialing of solar installers, the committee, or the Colorado energy office on the committee's behalf, is specifically authorized to submit a proposal for such credentialing to the department of regulatory agencies pursuant to section 24-34-104.1 (2). In addition, the committee may study and make recommendations concerning the scope-of-work provisions of section 40-2-128, C.R.S., specifically including enforcement of the supervision and worker ratio requirements of section 40-2-128 (1)(c) and (1)(d), C.R.S.

24-38.5-105. Clean energy improvement debt reserve fund - authorization - use. (1) (a) The clean energy improvement debt reserve fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund shall consist of up to ten million dollars of legally available moneys from nonstate sources under the control of the Colorado energy office, which the state treasurer shall promptly credit to the fund if instructed in writing to do so by the director of the Colorado energy office, and any fees paid to the state treasurer in accordance with subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (1). All interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund, and all unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall remain in the fund. The fund is hereby continuously appropriated to the state treasurer, who may expend moneys from the fund solely for the purposes of paying principal and interest on bonds issued by a local improvement district or other special district as specified in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) and defraying any direct and indirect costs incurred by the state treasurer in executing duties required by this section.

(b) (I) If the Colorado energy office instructs the state treasurer to credit moneys from nonstate sources to the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund, with prior written authorization from the director of the Colorado energy office and the state treasurer and after agreeing to pay fees to be credited to the fund to the state treasurer as specified in subparagraph
(II) of this paragraph (b), a local improvement district or other special district that imposes special assessments on real property and issues bonds payable from the revenues generated by the special assessments to generate the moneys needed to pay the up-front costs of making renewable energy improvements or clean energy improvements as authorized by part 6 of article 20 of title 30, C.R.S., or any other provision of law may rely on the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund as a backup source of moneys that may be used, after the depletion of any district debt service reserve fund, for the payment of principal and interest owed to holders of the district's bonds.

(II) A local improvement district or other district that issues bonds and that wishes to rely on the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund as a backup source of moneys for the payment of principal and interest owed to holders of the bonds shall enter into a written agreement with the Colorado energy office to pay to the state treasurer for crediting to the fund such fees for the privilege of relying on the fund as the Colorado energy office may require. Fees to be paid by a district as required by the Colorado energy office shall be deemed to be a portion of the amount of the interest rate savings resulting from more favorable financing terms attributable to the reliance upon the fund. The Colorado energy office may, in its discretion, require that fees be paid on an annual basis, commencing and calculated on the date of issuance of the bonds and on each one-year anniversary of the issuance of the bonds thereafter while the bonds remain outstanding, in an amount equal to a number of basis points of the principal amount of the bonds outstanding as of each calculation date agreed upon by the office and the district.

(c) Whenever the paying agent responsible for making payments to the holders of any bonds issued by a district that has relied upon the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund as a backup source of repayment for the district's bonds has not received payment of principal or interest on the bonds on the tenth business day immediately prior to the date on which such payment is due and any debt service reserve fund for the local improvement district or other special district that issued the bonds has been depleted, the paying agent shall so notify the state treasurer and the district by telephone, facsimile, or other similar communication, followed by written verification, of such payment status. The state treasurer shall immediately contact the district and determine whether the district will make the payment by the date on which it is due and, if the state treasurer confirms that the district will not make the payment, the state treasurer shall expend moneys from the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund to make the payment in a timely manner. If the amount of moneys in the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund is not sufficient to cover the entire amount of the payment, the state treasurer shall pay only so much of the payment as can be paid from available moneys in the fund. If payments on more than one series of bonds issued in reliance upon the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund as a backup source of moneys for repayment are required to be made from the fund at the same time and the amount of moneys in the fund is not sufficient to cover the entire amount of the payments, the state treasurer shall pay from available moneys in the fund only an equal percentage of the amount of each payment due.

(2) This section shall not be construed to create any state debt, to require the state to make any bond payments on behalf of any local improvement district or other special district from any source of moneys other than the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund, or to require the state to fully pay off any outstanding bonds of a district that cannot make scheduled bond payments.

(3) In accordance with section 11 of article II of the state constitution, the state hereby covenants with the purchasers of any outstanding bonds issued in reliance upon the existence of the clean energy improvement debt reserve fund that the state will not repeal, revoke, or rescind the provisions of this section concerning the fund or modify or rescind the same so as to limit or impair the rights and remedies granted by this section to the purchasers of such bonds and that any moneys in the fund shall not revert to the general fund.

24-38.5-106. Financing of capital projects to make state government more energy efficient - lease-purchase agreements - legislative declaration - definition. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "utility cost-savings contract" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 24-30-2001 (6).

(2) (a) In order to make state government more energy efficient in accordance with section 24-38.5-102, the Colorado energy office may propose a prioritized list of projects associated with current utility cost-savings contracts that will improve the energy efficiency of state buildings or facilities and that are proposed to be constructed or improved using financing provided in accordance with subsection (3) of this section. If the Colorado energy office creates a prioritized list, the prioritized list shall include an estimate of the total amount of annual utility cost savings expected if all of the projects on the prioritized list are completed; descriptions of the projects, the affected buildings, and the impact of the projects on tenants; a timeline for implementation; a detailed budget for each project; a list of properties recommended for use as collateral, which shall include only properties operated and maintained by agencies that are responsible for the operation and maintenance of at least one state building or facility for which a project is being financed in accordance with subsection (3) of this section; estimates of the amount of annual utility cost savings expected for each of the projects; and expected annual payments for each project, including the expected funding sources for such payments. The Colorado energy office shall submit the prioritized list and referenced supporting documents to the office of state planning and budgeting for review and approval or disapproval. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the office of state planning and budgeting shall submit any projects on the prioritized list that it approves to the capital development committee of the general assembly for review and approval or disapproval. Subject to the limitations specified in subsection (3) of this section, if the capital development committee determines after reviewing the projects submitted to it for its review and approval or disapproval that it is appropriate to authorize the state treasurer to pursue financing provided in accordance with subsection (3) of this section to fund some or all of the projects or if the office of state planning and budgeting has approved projects for buildings or facilities operated and maintained by the department of transportation and submitted such projects to the committee for informational purposes only pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the committee shall provide a letter to the Colorado energy office, the office of state planning and budgeting, the joint budget committee of the general assembly, and the state treasurer that specifies the final approved priority of the projects.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), any projects on the prioritized list proposed by the Colorado energy office and approved by the office of state planning and budgeting for buildings or facilities operated and maintained by the department of transportation shall be deemed to be finally approved and shall be included on the prioritized list submitted to the capital development committee for informational purposes only.

(3) (a) Upon receipt of the letter from the capital development committee regarding its review pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the state treasurer may enter into one or more lease-purchase agreements on behalf of the state in order to generate the proceeds needed to complete the projects. A lease-purchase agreement:

(I) May be entered into with any for-profit or nonprofit corporation, trust, or commercial bank as a trustee, as lessor;
(II) Shall be limited to a total par value, including costs of issuance, of all such instruments issued, distributed, and sold of no more than seventy-three million dollars;
(III) Shall include provisions that:
(A) Specify that all payment obligations of the state under the lease-purchase agreement are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly and that obligations shall not be deemed or construed as creating an indebtedness of the state within the meaning of any provision of the state constitution or the laws of the state concerning or limiting the creation of indebtedness by the state;
(B) Indicate that if the state does not renew the agreement, the sole security available to the lessor shall be the property that is the subject of the nonrenewed agreement; and
(C) Allow the state to receive title to the real and personal property that is the subject of the agreement on or prior to the expiration of the entire term of the agreement, including all optional renewal terms;
(IV) May include:
(A) Provisions for the issuance, distribution, and sale of instruments evidencing rights to receive rentals and other payments made and to be made under the agreement. Such instruments shall not be notes, bonds, or any other evidence of indebtedness of the state within the meaning of any provision of the state constitution or the laws of the state concerning or limiting the creation of indebtedness by the state.
(B) Such other terms, provisions, and conditions as the state treasurer may deem appropriate.
(b) Only a building or facility subject to an energy performance contract, as defined in section 24-30-2001 (1), that is under consideration by the office of the state architect as of thirty days following June 10, 2010, may be the subject of a lease-purchase agreement entered into by the state treasurer pursuant to this subsection (3).

(c) The state, acting by and through the state treasurer, may enter into ancillary agreements and instruments deemed necessary or appropriate in connection with a lease-purchase agreement authorized pursuant to this subsection (3), including but not limited to deeds, leases, subleases, easements, or other instruments relating to the real property on which the facilities are located.

(d) The provisions of section 24-30-202 (5)(b) shall not apply to a lease-purchase agreement or any ancillary agreement or instrument authorized pursuant to this subsection (3). Any provision of the fiscal rules promulgated pursuant to section 24-30-202 (1) and (13) that the state controller deems to be incompatible or inapplicable with respect to such a lease-purchase agreement or ancillary agreement or instrument may be waived by the controller or his or her designee within the office of the state controller.

(e) Interest paid under a lease-purchase agreement, including interest represented by such instruments, shall be exempt from state income tax.

(f) Notwithstanding the authority of the capital development committee of the general assembly to authorize, after approval by the office of state planning and budgeting, the state treasurer to enter into lease-purchase agreements on behalf of the state, in order to ensure that lease-purchase agreements are entered into under favorable financial market conditions, the state treasurer shall have sole discretion to determine the timing of the state treasurer's entry into any lease-purchase agreement on behalf of the state pursuant to this subsection (3).

(g) The state treasurer shall coordinate with the office of state planning and budgeting in regard to the schedule of lease payments required in connection with any lease-purchase agreement.

(h) Once a lease-purchase agreement has been executed, the state treasurer shall submit the schedule for annual payments to the office of state planning and budgeting and the joint budget committee of the general assembly. The office of state planning and budgeting shall submit a budget request to the joint budget committee to reduce any corresponding operating appropriations for state capital facilities realizing utility cost savings from projects financed by lease-purchase agreements and to appropriate annual payments in the capital construction section of the budget for those facilities for which operation and maintenance is funded in whole or in part with moneys that are subject to state appropriation. Upon receipt of the budget request from the office of state planning and budgeting, the joint budget committee shall recommend to the general assembly an appropriation for annual payments in the capital construction section of the budget and a reduction of the same amount in the applicable utilities line item of the operating budget. The office of state planning and budgeting and the joint budget committee recommendation shall also include an appropriation of the original funding sources of the utility line item equal to the identified savings for transfer to the energy efficiency project proceeds fund created in subsection (4) of this section unless such transfer is prohibited by the requirements of the original funding source. It is the intent of the general assembly that the utilities line item reduction be permanent, and that any future appropriated increases be defended in relation to the balance for utilities that remain in the line.

(4) The energy efficiency project proceeds fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund shall consist of moneys received by the state in connection with any lease-purchase agreements entered into pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and any other legally available moneys that may be appropriated or transferred to the fund. All interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund. Moneys in the fund that were received by the state in connection with any lease-purchase agreement and that are trustee funds may be expended by the state treasurer, and other moneys in the fund not identified for funding annual payments or to be used to defray any incremental costs incurred by the state controller in managing accounting and reporting requirements related to lease-purchase agreements entered into pursuant to subsection (3) of this section are hereby continuously appropriated to the state treasurer, for the purpose of making disbursements necessary to complete projects associated with current utility cost-savings contracts that are authorized to be financed through lease-purchase agreements entered into by the state treasurer on behalf of the state pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. Moneys in the fund shall also be subject to appropriation by the general assembly for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on and defraying any incremental costs incurred by the state controller in managing accounting and reporting requirements related to such lease-purchase agreements.

24-38.5-107. Colorado energy office - subject to audit. No later than January 15, 2017, the state auditor shall complete a performance audit of the Colorado energy office. The state auditor shall present the performance audit report to the legislative audit committee. After the performance audit report is released by the legislative audit committee, the state auditor shall provide copies, in accordance with section 24-1-136 (9), to the house agriculture, livestock, and natural resources committee, the senate agriculture and natural resources committee, and the joint budget committee.

24-38.5-108. State agency coordination of review of federal license and license exemption applications for hydroelectric energy projects - legislative declaration - definitions - guidelines. (1) Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
(a) Hydroelectric energy is a reliable, affordable, and sustainable energy source and is the largest source of clean energy in the United States;
(b) As of 2005, there were sixty-two operating hydroelectric energy facilities throughout Colorado, with a combined capacity of one thousand one hundred sixty-two megawatts;
(c) According to a recent bureau of reclamation study, Colorado currently has more than thirty sites on which new hydroelectric energy facilities could be placed and a federal department of energy report identifies another eleven potential sites. If all of the identified sites were constructed, they could power over sixty-five thousand homes each year.
(d) (I) To construct, operate, or maintain a nonfederal hydroelectric energy facility, a person must apply to FERC for a license or a license exemption if the facility is located on...
navigable waters in the United States, occupies lands of the United States, utilizes surplus water or water power from a United States government dam, or, under some circumstances, is located on a stream over which the United States congress has commerce clause jurisdiction;

(II) As part of FERC's licensing process, an applicant for a hydroelectric energy facility license or license exemption must meet specific pre-filing consulting requirements, including a requirement to consult with relevant state agencies about the proposed project and to provide those agencies with an opportunity to comment on the application and request any studies that may be relevant to the proposed project;

(III) To promote the construction and operation of new hydroelectric energy facilities, the United States congress passed the "Hydropower Regulatory Efficiency Act of 2013", federal Public Law 113-23, as amended, which exempts certain hydroelectric energy facilities that have an installed capacity of fewer than ten thousand kilowatts from the licensing requirements and streamlines the approval process for hydroelectric energy facilities generally; and

(e) To further promote the construction and operation of new hydroelectric energy facilities in Colorado, the role of state agencies in consulting on a hydroelectric energy facility application for a federal license or license exemption should be streamlined. To that end, the general assembly designates the office as the coordinating state agency to facilitate the timely state agency review of a proposed project.

(2) Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Applicant" means a person applying for a FERC license or license exemption for a hydroelectric energy facility.

(b) "FERC" means the federal energy regulatory commission.

(c) "Hydroelectric energy" means the generation and delivery to the interconnection meter of any source of electrical or mechanical energy by harnessing the kinetic energy of water. "Hydroelectric energy" includes pumped hydroelectricity, as defined in section 40-2-123 (3.2)(c)(II), C.R.S.

(d) "Office" means the Colorado energy office.

(3) Coordination of state agency review by the Colorado energy office. (a) An applicant in Colorado must contact, and submit relevant documentation to, the office for the purpose of obtaining state agency review of his or her FERC application, as required as part of the consultation requirements set forth in 18 C.F.R. 4.38 concerning FERC license and license exemption procedures.

(b) The office shall coordinate state agency review of the application by providing the following to all relevant state agencies with potential interest in the applicant's hydroelectric energy project:

(I) Notice via e-mail of the application;

(II) Electronic copies of any documentation received from the applicant;

(III) A general description of the FERC review process; and

(IV) The deadline by which the other state agencies must submit any comments about the application to the office. The office shall set a deadline that is sufficiently in advance of the expiration of the comment period provided for by FERC to allow the office to compile other agencies' comments and its own comments for timely submission to FERC.

(c) Upon the expiration of the deadline set by the office for other agencies to review an application, the office shall compile any comments from other agencies and its own comments and submit the comments to FERC before the expiration of the comment period established by FERC. Thereafter, the office shall serve as a liaison between FERC and the other state agencies concerning any discussion of the comments submitted.

(d) The office shall provide information on its website about the streamlined review process set forth in this section.

(e) The director of the office may establish guidelines concerning the process and deadlines for disseminating information to other state agencies and collecting other state agencies' comments.

24-38.5-109. Aggregation of efficiency or renewable energy projects in small or rural schools and small or rural communities in order to attract private sector investment through performance contracting - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Performance contracting is an important tool that has been utilized by the state for over fifteen years. The state has established powerful working relationships with private sector energy performance contracting professionals, known as energy service companies, to finance energy savings upgrades for state agencies, school districts, special districts, counties and municipalities, and even at the state capitol building.

(b) Some small or rural communities lack the opportunity for the benefits of performance contracting, so engaging such communities through education and existing resources is sound policy;

(c) Such small or rural communities often lack assets or building inventory to attract performance contracting capital;

(d) Since much of the infrastructure in small or rural communities is outdated, costly to maintain, and energy intensive, efficiency upgrades are needed for buildings, mechanical equipment, electrical systems, lighting, water, motor vehicle fleets, and community entity-owned fueling stations for such motor vehicle fleets;

(e) Regional identification of efficiency projects and renewable energy projects in small or rural communities is important;

(f) Aggregating efficiency projects or renewable energy projects in small or rural communities into a dynamic multidimensional portfolio of an acceptable size to attract private sector financing to such communities without creating an obligation of the state will open up the financial market for performance contracting in such communities, will engage the use of local contractors, and will create local jobs; and

(g) As a result of such aggregation, small or rural community leaders will be supported in their pursuit to make Colorado more energy efficient, equip such communities with much needed modernized infrastructure, and reduce life-cycle costs for taxpayer-supported entities.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Community entity" means a school district, special district, or county or municipality in a small or rural community in the state.

(b) "Diverse" means a range of efficiency projects and renewable energy projects based on geography, size, long-term and short-term payback periods, overall cost, and types of efficiency projects and renewable energy projects.
(c) "Efficiency projects" means one or more projects of a community entity that results in the more efficient use of energy or resources, such as:
   (I) Installing equipment and related infrastructure that will help defray energy costs;
   (II) Improving the energy efficiency of a building including but not limited to addressing lighting issues, improving mechanical systems and equipment, improving the building envelope, or improving operations management;
   (III) Reducing water usage or consumption;
   (IV) Re-engineering or improving water or wastewater treatment facilities; or
   (V) Improving the energy usage of motor vehicle fleets or community entity-owned fueling stations for such motor vehicle fleets, including but not limited to increasing the use of alternative fuel vehicles in such motor vehicle fleets.

(d) "Office" means the Colorado energy office created in section 24-38.5-101.

(e) "Performance contract" means a contract similar to the contracts described in section 24-30-2001 or 24-38.5-106; except that a performance contract allowed pursuant to this section may not create a financial obligation to the state.

(f) "Renewable energy projects" means one or more projects of a community entity to install equipment and related infrastructure for renewable energy generation, including, but not limited to geothermal, hydroelectric, wind, solar, or biomass energy.

(3) In an effort to simplify the process for small and rural communities, the office shall consult with the energy service companies on its list of prequalified energy service companies and have a list available of those prequalified energy service companies that are interested and prepared to work in each region where the department of local affairs maintains a regional office and field staff.

(4) (a) Without creating a financial obligation to the state, the office may, within existing resources, work together with its prequalified energy service companies to ascertain efficiency projects or renewable energy projects that can be aggregated to create a larger portfolio of diverse efficiency projects or renewable energy projects with costs totaling an amount that in a favorable financial market will attract the investment of private sector banks or investors through performance contracts. In the event such a larger portfolio of diverse efficiency projects or renewable energy projects is established pursuant to this subsection (4) and financed, the financing documents must include a cost of issuance fee payable to the department of local affairs of a percentage of the issuance, not to exceed one percent, that must be credited to the efficient schools and communities performance contracting fund.

(b) Once there is sufficient money in the efficient schools and communities performance contracting fund from the cost of issuance fee described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), in the event a community entity's efficiency project or renewable energy project is not financed, the department of local affairs shall consult with the office in cooperation with the prequalified energy service companies determined to work within that community entity's region as described in subsection (3) of this section to review the community entity's need and, if approved, award a grant to such community entity for a reimbursement of a portion of the technical energy audit completed by the community entity from the cost of issuance fees credited to the fund pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4). A prequalified energy service company may also seek and the department of local affairs, in consultation with the office, may award a grant from the cost of issuance fees credited to the fund for a portion of the energy service company's costs if an efficiency project or renewable energy project is not financed. All grants awarded by the department of local affairs pursuant to this paragraph (b) must be prioritized by need and may not exceed the available cost of issuance fees.

(5) The office shall provide facilitation and technical support for community entities that have been aggregated as described in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section and shall create and provide standardized documents to support local performance contracts.

(6) The office may consult with nonprofit organizations and the department of local affairs to provide education and outreach to community entities regarding the advantages of performance contracting for purposes of completing efficiency projects or renewable energy projects in such community entities.

(7) There is hereby created in the state treasury the efficient schools and communities performance contracting fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", consisting of the cost of issuance fees credited to the department of local affairs pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section. The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated by the general assembly to the department of local affairs for awarding grants as specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section. In the event the department of local affairs cannot implement the grant program within existing resources, then the department of local affairs may expend up to five percent annually of the moneys in the fund to offset the costs incurred in implementing the grant program. The state treasurer may invest any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this section as provided by law. The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

PART 2

GREEN BUILDING INCENTIVE PILOT PROGRAM

24-38.5-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) An incentive-based green building pilot program will strive to reduce electricity, gas, and water use in older homes while providing an incentive for homebuyers to purchase new residential construction that meets stringent energy efficiency standards;

(b) Providing incentives for new residential construction that meets stringent energy efficiency standards and improving energy efficiency in existing residences can stimulate local and state economies and provide opportunities for job growth in green jobs and industries that are focused on improving energy efficiency of both new and existing residences; and

(c) An incentive-based green building pilot program will benefit homebuyers who are attempting to purchase highly energy efficient new residential construction and retrofit existing homes in an attempt to reduce energy and water consumption.
24-38.5-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Energy code" means the 2006 international energy conservation code, or any successor edition, published by the international code council or any state or local energy code that has more recent or more stringent requirements.
(2) "Energy efficiency improvement" means:
(a) An upgrade to a structure, appliance, fixture, plumbing, heating or cooling system, or water heater in any existing residence that is intended to reduce the consumption of electricity, natural gas, water, or any other fuel or energy source; and
(b) The installation or upgrade of building insulation, air sealing measures, and duct sealing in any existing residence.
(3) "Existing residence" means a residence, either single-family detached or multi-family, that:
(a) Is located in Colorado;
(b) Is used as the qualified homebuyer's primary residence; and
(c) Has a current home energy rating, as determined by a recognized green building rating system, that is below minimum standards, as determined by the energy code.
(4) "Green building incentive pilot program" or "pilot program" means the green building incentive pilot program described in section 24-38.5-203.
(5) "Highly efficient new residential construction" means a new single-family detached residence or new multi-family residence located in Colorado that is designed and constructed to be at least twenty-five percent more efficient than the energy code's requirements, as documented by a recognized green building rating system.
(6) "Home energy audit" means an inspection, survey, and analysis of a home's structure and systems in order to quantify the building's projected energy consumption.
(7) "Home energy rating" means an objective and standard measurement of a home's energy efficiency relative to standards contained in an energy code, such as those developed by the residential energy services network or any successor organization.
(8) "Qualified homebuyer" means a person that has entered into a sales contract to purchase highly efficient new residential construction and will be selling the person's existing residence in order to purchase the highly efficient new residential construction as the person's primary residence.
(9) "Recognized green building rating system" means a system of rules for comparing the performance of a whole building or building system to the energy code, to a problem, or to a test case that serves as a basis for evaluation or comparison. "Recognized green building rating system" includes, but is not limited to:
(a) The federal energy star program, jointly operated by the United States environmental protection agency and the United States department of energy, or its successor program;
(b) The January 2008 version, or any successor standard, of the "LEED for Homes Rating System" administered by the United States green building council or its successor organization;
(c) The national green building standard, commonly cited as ANSI/ICC 700-2008, established by the national association of home builders and the international council code, or any successor standard; and

(d) Energy audits that are performed by the electric utility, or its designee, providing service to the residence.

24-38.5-203. Green building incentive pilot program. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of subsection (9) of this section, the Colorado energy office shall establish and administer a green building incentive pilot program in accordance with the requirements established in this part 2.

(2) (a) A qualified homebuyer may submit an application, provided by the Colorado energy office, to the Colorado energy office for a grant to make energy efficiency improvements to the homebuyer's existing residence that the homebuyer is selling in preparation for purchasing a highly efficient new residential construction.

(b) The Colorado energy office shall award a larger grant to a qualified homebuyer with an existing residence that has a home energy rating or home energy audit showing greater inefficiency.

(3) The energy efficiency improvements shall be performed by contractors approved by the Colorado energy office as specified in subsection (6) of this section.

(4) The Colorado energy office shall require the qualified homebuyer to submit documentation:

(a) That the home energy rating of the qualified homebuyer's existing residence is below the energy code's requirements;

(b) That the qualified homebuyer has entered into a sales contract to purchase a highly efficient new residential construction;

(c) Of the estimated completion date of the qualified homebuyer's highly efficient new residential construction;

(d) Of the name or names of the contractors that will perform the energy efficiency improvements on the existing residence; and

(e) That the highly efficient new residential construction meets the definition specified in section 24-38.5-202 (5). The qualified homebuyer may seek such documentation from the home builder, who may then submit the documentation on behalf of the qualified homebuyer.

(5) Energy efficiency improvements made to an existing residence shall be completed in a manner that is consistent with a home energy rating or a home energy audit, and shall result in improved energy efficiency. Retrofits and upgrades to improve the energy efficiency of a qualified homebuyer's existing residence shall be completed before the closing of the sale of the residence.

(6) The Colorado energy office shall create a list of contractors eligible to perform energy efficiency improvements to a qualified homebuyer's existing residence.

(7) In order to confirm that the qualified homebuyer met the requirements of the pilot program, the qualified homebuyer shall submit to the Colorado energy office copies of closing documentation for the highly efficient new residential construction no later than thirty days after the construction is complete. If construction is delayed and not completed by the estimated completion date, the Colorado energy office may grant a waiver or extension for submission of this documentation.

(8) If the purchase of the highly efficient new residential construction is not finalized for any reason, including but not limited to the cancellation of the sale by the qualified homebuyer or the failure of the qualified homebuyer to secure financing, the qualified homebuyer shall reimburse the total amount of the grant to the Colorado energy office within thirty days after such cancellation or failure.

(9) (a) Funding for the pilot program shall be provided from federal funds transferred to the Colorado energy office that the Colorado energy office has already received prior to August 10, 2011, or may receive after August 10, 2011. The Colorado energy office may require additional documentation or information from the qualified homebuyer as required to secure any additional federal funds.

(b) The Colorado energy office shall not establish the pilot program set forth in this part 2 if federal funds are not available.

ARTICLE 38.7
Colorado Clean Energy Finance Program

PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

24-38.7-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Clean Energy Finance Program Act".

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 1309, § 1, effective May 27.

24-38.7-101.5. Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that energy-efficiency improvements for existing buildings are one of the wisest investments that any individual or business can make. However, many Coloradans may be under the mistaken impression that the cost of such improvements is out of reach for them or that financing would be difficult to obtain. Therefore, the general assembly encourages all Coloradans to investigate the possibility of financing energy-efficiency improvements by contacting their current lenders, including banks, mortgage lenders, credit unions, and other financial institutions. Nothing in this article is intended to affect lending requirements or limitations nor to alter the scope of lending as currently defined between banks and credit unions or other lenders.
24-38.7-102. Definitions. As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Area median income" means the median income of the county in which the primary residence of a qualified borrower is located in relation to family size, as published annually by the United States department of housing and urban development.

(2) "Certified contractor" means:
   (a) A contractor, including but not limited to a general, heating, air conditioning, or lighting contractor, certified by the program administrator to market the program to potential qualified borrowers and make clean energy improvements that may be financed by clean energy loans; and
   (b) A manufacturer or dealer of manufactured homes, as defined in section 24-32-3302, who is certified by the program administrator to market the program to potential qualified borrowers and make clean energy improvements that may be financed by clean energy loans.

(3) "Clean energy improvement" means:
   (a) Any repair of or addition or improvement to residential real property completed by or under the supervision of a certified contractor that improves the energy efficiency of the property or replaces all or a portion of the energy from nonrenewable sources used in connection with the property with energy from renewable sources; and
   (b) Any installation of, or connection with, equipment that produces or conducts recycled energy or renewable energy resources, as defined in section 40-2-124, C.R.S., or solar heating and cooling systems, for use on residential or commercial real property if such installation or connection is completed by or under the supervision of a certified contractor.

(4) "Clean energy loan" means a loan in a maximum amount of twelve thousand five hundred dollars originated by a participating public lender or a participating private lender, including but not limited to a bank or mortgage lender, to a qualified borrower for the purpose of financing one or more clean energy improvements to the borrower's primary residence, rental property, or place of business; except that, if the qualified borrower is a nonprofit corporation or local government housing authority that provides units in a multi-unit housing project as homes to individuals or families who meet the income qualifications of first tier or second tier qualified borrowers, the maximum amount of a loan shall be twelve thousand five hundred dollars multiplied by the number of units in the multi-unit housing project provided to the individuals or families.

(5) "First tier qualified borrower" means a qualified borrower whose income is less than eighty percent of area median income.

(6) "Office" means the Colorado energy office.

(7) "Program" means the Colorado clean energy finance program.

(8) "Program administrator" or "administrator" means one or more entities selected by the office to:
   (a) Market the program;
(b) Recruit, train, and certify contractors;
(c) Measure and verify, in accordance with standards established by the office, energy, emissions, and gross and net cost savings resulting from clean energy improvements financed by clean energy loans originated and serviced by participating public lenders and private lenders;
(d) Encourage homeowners to participate in utility demand side management programs where applicable; and
(e) Perform such other duties as may be authorized in this article or required by the office.

(9) "Program fund" means the clean energy program fund created in section 24-38.7-103 (2)(a).

(10) "Public lender" means a county, municipality, district, authority, or other political subdivision of the state authorized to make economic development, affordable housing, or housing rehabilitation loans.

(11) "Qualified borrower" means an individual or family who owns his, her, or their primary residence and satisfies lending guidelines established by the program administrator or a Colorado charitable nonprofit corporation exempt from taxation under section 501 (c)(3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, or county or municipal housing authority that provides homes for ownership or rental to homeowners or renters who meet the income qualifications of first tier or second tier qualified borrowers.

(12) "Second tier qualified borrower" means a qualified borrower whose income is eighty percent or more, but less than one hundred twenty percent, of area median income.

(13) "Third tier qualified borrower" means a qualified borrower whose income is one hundred twenty percent or more of area median income.

Cross references: In 2009, the introductory portion to this section and subsections (2), (3), and (4) were amended by the "Renewable Energy Financing Act of 2009". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 157, Session Laws of Colorado 2009.

24-38.7-103. Colorado energy office - powers and duties - program - fund created.
(1) The Colorado clean energy finance program is hereby created. The office shall oversee the program and the program administrator and shall, in addition to exercising any other powers and performing any other duties specified in this article:
(a) Select the program administrator in accordance with the provisions of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title. In selecting the program administrator, the office shall consider the extent to which a potential program administrator has demonstrated experience in recruiting, training, and certifying contractors or can otherwise establish that it will be able to perform such functions.
(b) Directly market the program to the general public or contract with the program administrator for the marketing of the program to the general public;
(c) Develop and operate or contract with the program administrator for the development and operation of a quality assurance, measurement, and verification program to:

(I) Monitor the quality of clean energy improvement installations;

(II) Measure and report on energy, emissions, and gross and net cost savings resulting from clean energy improvements financed by clean energy loans; and

(III) Authorize participating lenders, certified contractors, and qualified borrowers on whose property clean energy improvements are made to use the "Colorado Clean & Green" logo or other logo and marketing materials prepared in accordance with section 24-38.7-105.

(d) Determine, in consultation with the state treasurer, when the administrative and procedural framework for the program and the available administrative and financial resources for the program are sufficiently developed to allow the office to effectively oversee the program. No clean energy loan shall be marketed to a potential qualified borrower, applied for by a potential qualified borrower, or made to a qualified borrower until the office has determined that it is ready to effectively oversee the program and instructed certified contractors to begin marketing clean energy loans.

(e) Exercise such other powers and perform such other duties necessary or incidental to or implied from the specific powers and duties specified in this article.

(2) (a) The clean energy program fund is hereby created in the state treasury, and the following accounts are hereby created in the fund:

(I) The loan buy-down account; and

(II) The loan loss reserve account.

(b) The program fund and the accounts of the program fund shall consist of such moneys as the general assembly may appropriate thereto from the innovative energy fund created in section 24-38.5-102.5, the clean and renewable energy fund created in section 24-38.5-102.4, and any gifts, grants, or donations that may be made to the program fund. In accordance with section 24-36-113 (1)(a), which requires the state treasurer, in making investments, to use prudence and care to preserve the principal and to secure the maximum rate of interest consistent with safety and liquidity, if the general assembly chooses not to appropriate moneys to the program fund or to the accounts of the program fund, nothing in this article shall be deemed to require the state treasurer to credit any moneys to the program fund or the accounts of the program fund. All interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of moneys in the program fund and the accounts of the program fund shall be used for the loan buy-down account and the loan loss reserve account. Moneys in the loan buy-down account and loan loss reserve account of the program fund shall remain in the accounts and shall not be transferred to the general fund or any other fund at the end of any fiscal year.

(3) (a) All moneys in the program fund are continuously appropriated to the office, and the office shall make payments from the loan buy-down account of the program fund to participating public lenders and private lenders to compensate the lenders for the reduction in the amount of future interest payments resulting from the provision of clean energy loans to first tier and second tier qualified borrowers at the below-market interest rates determined pursuant to section 24-38.7-104 (2). The office shall pay the compensation for each clean energy loan by paying to the lender a lump sum equal to the present value of the reduction in future interest payments on the date the loan closes.

(b) The office shall make payments from the loan loss reserve account of the program fund to compensate participating public lenders and private lenders for the uncollectible amount of clean energy loans any such lenders have written off. The office shall pay the compensation for each uncollectible clean energy loan by paying to the lender a lump sum equal to the present value of the uncollectible portion of the loan on the date the lender wrote it off.

(c) The state treasurer shall periodically transfer moneys from the loan buy-down account of the program fund to the loan loss reserve account of the program fund to ensure that the balance of the loan loss reserve account is at least five percent of the total principal amount of outstanding clean energy loans made by participating public lenders and private lenders. The administrator shall update the state treasurer regarding outstanding clean energy loans originated by such lenders as required by the state treasurer so that the state treasurer can accurately determine the appropriate amount and timing of transfers.

(d) The state treasurer may invest up to a total amount of forty million dollars of state moneys in bonds or notes issued by participating public or private lenders for the purpose of funding clean energy loans under this part 1 and under part 2 of this article during the 2008-09, 2009-10, and 2010-11 fiscal years subject to the following conditions:

(I) The state treasurer may invest no more than fifteen million dollars during the 2008-09 fiscal year and no more than a total amount of twenty-five million dollars during the 2008-09 and 2009-10 fiscal years; and

(II) Such investments shall be subject to the state treasurer's discretion and shall comply with the qualifications for state investments listed in section 24-36-113.

Cross references: In 2009, subsection (1)(c)(III) was added and subsection (3)(d) was amended by the "Renewable Energy Financing Act of 2009". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 157, Session Laws of Colorado 2009.

24-38.7-104. Program administrator - training and certification of contractors - reporting. (1) In accordance with terms contractually agreed to by the program administrator and the office, acting on behalf of the state, the program administrator shall implement and administer the program by:

(a) Recruiting, selecting, screening, training, and certifying contractors, including but not limited to general, heating, air conditioning, and lighting contractors, to be certified contractors capable of marketing the program and completing clean energy improvements. The program administrator may charge contractors a reasonable fee for training and certification, and the recruiting, selection, screening, training, and certification process shall include, at a minimum:

(I) Direct marketing of the program to contractors;

(II) Financial and business practices background checks of contractors seeking to become certified contractors; and

(III) Initial training that includes:

(A) Education regarding the elements of the program, the financial and environmental benefits of clean energy improvements, including but not limited to specific education regarding products qualified to bear the federal energy star label, and recommended means of marketing the program to potential program customers; and

(B) The provision of information regarding additional required training and other requirements for contractors who may wish to become preferred contractors under the federal home performance with energy star program.

(b) Issuing annual reports regarding the administration of the program as specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A potential qualified borrower shall apply for a clean energy loan by completing an initial loan application. The office or, at the discretion of the office, the program administrator or participating public lenders and private lenders shall prescribe the form of the loan application and shall determine, based on the application and such other information as the administrator may reasonably require from the applicant, whether the applicant is a qualified borrower and, if so, whether the qualified borrower is a first tier, second tier, or third tier qualified borrower. However, a participating public lender may only originate clean energy loans for first tier and second tier qualified borrowers. A qualified borrower may choose a loan term of up to ten years. The state treasurer shall, using a formula tied to a regularly published interest rate index selected by the state treasurer, determine a base annual rate of interest to be charged on loans made to third tier qualified borrowers. The state treasurer shall set an annual rate of interest for loans to second tier qualified borrowers by subtracting a number of basis points selected by the state treasurer from the base annual rate and shall set an annual rate of interest for loans to first tier qualified borrowers by subtracting a number of basis points selected by the state treasurer from the annual rate of interest for loans to second tier qualified borrowers. The interest rate charged to a qualified borrower that is a nonprofit corporation or a housing authority shall be the interest rate charged to second tier qualified borrowers; except that the interest rate charged to a nonprofit corporation or housing authority shall be the interest rate charged to first tier qualified buyers if the nonprofit corporation or housing authority only provides the housing for which the loan will finance clean energy improvements to individuals or families who are first tier qualified borrowers.

(2,5) (a) The office shall not issue a clean energy loan under this article for the installation of solar photovoltaic equipment to a qualified borrower until the borrower certifies that:

(I) (A) The performance of all photovoltaic electrical work, the installation of photovoltaic modules, and the installation of photovoltaic module mounting equipment is subject to on-site supervision by a certified photovoltaic energy practitioner as designated by the North American board of certified energy practitioners (NABCEP) or a licensed master electrician, licensed journeyman electrician, or licensed residential wireman, as defined in section 12-23-101, C.R.S.

(B) In the case of building-integrated photovoltaic technology, if the type of building-integrated photovoltaic technology installed or the scope of the building-integrated photovoltaic installation involved does not require a licensed master electrician, licensed journeyman electrician, or licensed residential wireman to perform the installation work and the installation work concerns the installation of roofing materials, the on-site supervision may be performed by a certified solar energy installer, as designated by NABCEP or roof integrated solar energy (RISE).
For a building-integrated photovoltaic installation, a licensed master electrician, licensed journeyman electrician, or licensed residential wireman must perform the installation work for any stage of the installation after the installation materials penetrate the roof, a structural wall, or another part of the building, or any stage of the installation in which the building-integrated photovoltaic materials transition to a surface-mounted junction box and utilize types of conduit and building wire that are approved by the national electrical code, as defined in section 12-23-101 (3.2), C.R.S.

By submitting an initial application for funding or an initial contract proposal, the applicant assumes responsibility for employing or contracting with one or more certified energy practitioners or licensed master electricians, licensed journeyman electricians, or licensed residential wiremen to supervise the installation and as necessary to maintain the three-to-one ratio required by subparagraphs (II) and (III) of this paragraph (a), including during any off-site, pre-installation assembly. To receive final payment for the work, the applicant must supply the name and certification number of each certified energy practitioner or the license number of each master electrician, journeyman electrician, or residential wireman who actually provided on-site supervision or was present to maintain the three-to-one ratio required by subparagraphs (III) and (IV) of this paragraph (a).

All work performed on the alternating-current side of the inverter will be performed by an electrical contractor who employs a licensed journeyman electrician or a licensed residential wireman who will perform the work. All electrical work that pertains to article 23 of title 12, C.R.S., will be performed by an electrical apprentice registered with the appropriate state regulatory agency, a licensed journeyman electrician, or a licensed residential wireman. The appropriate ratio of no less than one journeyman or residential wireman for every three electrical apprentices will be maintained.

On a system with a direct current design capacity of more than five hundred kilowatts:

(A) During any photovoltaic electrical work, the ratio of the number of persons who are assisting with the work and who are neither licensed electricians nor registered electrical apprentices to the number of persons who are certified as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) shall never exceed three to one, and a person who is both licensed and certified shall not count double for purposes of measuring this ratio; and

(B) There shall be at least one on-site supervisor who is certified as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) during the installation of photovoltaic modules, the installation of photovoltaic module mounting equipment, and any photovoltaic electrical work; except that, if at any time during any of these stages, there are more than twelve persons on the work site who are neither licensed electricians nor registered electrical apprentices and who are not certified as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), there shall be at least two persons who are certified as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) present on the work site and providing direct supervision.

On a system with a direct current design capacity of five hundred kilowatts or less:

(A) During the installation of photovoltaic modules, the installation of photovoltaic module mounting equipment, and any photovoltaic electrical work, the ratio of the number of persons who are assisting with the work and who are neither licensed electricians nor registered electrical apprentices to the number of persons who are certified as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2.5) shall never exceed three to one, and a person who is both licensed and certified shall not count double for purposes of measuring this ratio; and

(B) There shall be, at all times, at least one on-site supervisor who is certified as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(b) As used in this subsection (2.5), the terms "photovoltaic electrical work" and "photovoltaic module mounting equipment" shall have the meanings set forth in section 40-2-128, C.R.S.

(3) (a) No later than one year from the date of issuance of the first clean energy loan by a participating public lender or private lender pursuant to this article, and no later than the same date each subsequent year, the program administrator shall provide to the office a report detailing its administration of the program since its inception and for the prior fiscal year. The report shall include, at a minimum:

(I) A detailed accounting of the financial status of the program, including statements regarding:

(A) The total number and principal amount of clean energy loans originated and the number and principal amount of clean energy loans originated to first tier, second tier, and third tier qualified borrowers;

(B) The total amount of outstanding principal and interest on clean energy loans owed by qualified borrowers and the amount of such principal and interest owed by first tier, second tier, and third tier qualified borrowers;

(C) The total number and principal and interest amounts of any uncollectible clean energy loans written off by participating public lenders and private lenders and the number and principal amounts of such loans issued to first tier, second tier, and third tier qualified borrowers;

(D) The total amount of bonds or other notes in which the state treasurer has invested as authorized by section 24-38.7-103 (3)(d), the payments made on such bonds or other notes, and the payments to be made in the future on such bonds or other notes; and

(E) The amounts paid to participating public lenders and private lenders by the office pursuant to section 24-38.7-103 (3)(a) and (3)(b) and any contracts entered into by the state and the administrator as authorized by this article;

(II) Estimates of the total energy, emissions, and gross and net cost savings resulting from clean energy improvements financed by clean energy loans; and

(III) Any recommended program improvements.

(b) Subject to the limitation set forth in section 24-1-136 (11), no later than January 30, 2010, and no later than each January 30 thereafter, the office shall report to the transportation and energy committee of the house of representatives and the agriculture, natural resources, and energy committee of the senate, or any successor committees, regarding the program. The report shall include the information provided to the office in the program administrator's annual report and whatever additional information the office deems relevant to fully apprise the committees regarding the status of the program.

24-38.7-105. Administration - "Colorado Clean & Green" designation - cash funding. (1) The office, or the administrator under the direction of the office, may produce or cause to be produced a suitable design or drawing, referred to in this section as the "logo", to be used in the marketing of clean energy loans and clean energy improvements. The logo may, but is not required to, contain the slogan "Colorado Clean & Green" or other words or symbols as the office in its discretion may deem appropriate.

(2) The title to the logo and copyrights for all marketing materials using the logo shall at all times remain in and be reserved to the office.

(3) The logo, or any reproduction, copy, or facsimile thereof, may not be used in any advertising, display, labeling, or identification without prior written permission from the office.

(4) A lender, certified contractor, or qualified borrower that complies with this article and the office's qualifications for use of the logo shall be permitted to use the logo in advertising, labeling, or marketing of products and services.

(5) The cost of the design and production of the logo shall be recovered through license fees. The office or administrator may condition the design and production of the logo on the receipt of gifts, grants, donations, or advance deposits in an amount sufficient to defray the costs of design and production.

Cross references: In 2009, this section was added by the "Renewable Energy Financing Act of 2009". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 157, Session Laws of Colorado 2009.

PART 2

THIRD-PARTY COMMERCIAL SOLAR ENERGY INSTALLATIONS

Cross references: In 2009, this part 2 was added by the "Renewable Energy Financing Act of 2009". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 157, Session Laws of Colorado 2009.

24-38.7-201. Legislative declaration. This part 2 is intended to complement part 1 of this article by facilitating clean energy loans for larger-scale commercial, industrial, and institutional installations of solar heating or cooling and solar electric generation facilities, which hold great potential for clean energy development but in which the size limitations, economic incentives, and industry practices applicable to small residential installations either cannot be duplicated or are not economically feasible.

24-38.7-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:
"Clean energy improvement" means an installation of solar heating, solar cooling, or solar electric generation equipment and any related controls, meters, wiring, and other facilities on commercial, industrial, or government-owned real property.

"Clean energy loan" means a loan originated by a participating public lender or a participating private lender, including but not limited to a bank or mortgage lender, for the purpose of financing one or more clean energy improvements to commercial, industrial, or government-owned real property, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The loan may, but need not, be to an independent third party rather than to the owner of the property or to a public utility.

(b) The loan may be for a fixed term of twenty years.

(c) The loan may be a fully assumable, nonrecourse loan and may not be subject to any prepayment penalty.

(d) The amount of the loan may exceed the amount stated in section 24-38.7-102 (4).

(3) "Office" means the Colorado energy office.

(4) "Public lender" means a county, municipality, district, authority, or other political subdivision of the state authorized to make economic development, affordable housing, or housing rehabilitation loans. "Public lender" includes, without limitation, the Colorado housing and finance authority.

24-38.7-203. Colorado energy office - administrator - state treasurer - powers and duties - statement of intent. (1) The office and the administrator shall administer this part 2 substantially in accordance with part 1 of this article, except with regard to:

(a) The definitions of terms common to both part 1 of this article and this part 2, as such definitions are modified in this part 2; and

(b) Provisions that, in the judgment and discretion of the office, the administrator, and the state treasurer, are appropriate only in the context of small residential installations under part 1 of this article.

(2) The provisions of part 1 of this article and of article 36 of this title concerning the type and quality of investments made by the state treasurer shall continue to apply. The general assembly intends that the extension of the program under this part 2 be accomplished as seamlessly as possible, within existing appropriations, and with minimal disruption to the current practices of the office, the administrator, and the state treasurer.

Commission of Indian Affairs

24-44-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds and declares that the affairs of the two Indian tribes whose reservations are largely within the state of Colorado, the Southern Ute tribe and the Ute Mountain Ute tribe, include matters of state interest and that the state of Colorado recognizes the special governmental relationships and the unique political status of these tribes with respect to the federal government and, further, that it is in the best interest of all the people of Colorado that there be an agency providing an official liaison among all persons in both the private and public sectors who share a concern for the establishment and maintenance of cooperative relationships with and among the aforesaid tribes and Indian peoples.

24-44-102. Establishment of commission. There is hereby established in the office of the lieutenant governor the Colorado commission of Indian affairs, referred to in this article as the "commission".

24-44-103. Duties and powers of commission. (1) It is the duty of the commission:
(a) To coordinate intergovernmental dealings between tribal governments and this state;
(b) To investigate the needs of Indians of this state and to facilitate the provision of technical assistance in the preparation of plans for the alleviation of such needs;
(c) To cooperate with and secure the assistance of the local, state, and federal governments or any agencies thereof in formulating and coordinating programs regarding Indian affairs adopted or planned by the federal government so that the full benefit of such programs will accrue to the Indians of this state;
(d) To review all proposed or pending legislation affecting Indians in this state;
(e) To study the existing status of recognition of all Indian groups, tribes, and communities presently existing in this state; and
(f) To employ and fix the compensation of an executive director of the commission, who shall carry out the responsibilities of the commission.
(g) to (k) Repealed.
(2) The commission has the following powers:
(a) To petition the general assembly for funds to effectively administer the commission's affairs and to expend funds in compliance with state regulations;
(b) To accept and expend gifts, funds, grants, donations, bequests, and devises for use in furthering the purposes of the commission;
(c) To contract with public or private bodies to provide services and facilities for promoting the welfare of Indian peoples;
(d) To make legislative recommendations;
(e) To form committees as needed to respond to and address the needs of tribal governments and Indian peoples of this state; and
(f) To make and publish reports of findings and recommendations.

2, effective March 22.

24-44-104. Membership - term of office - chairperson - compensation. (1) (a) The commission consists of the following eleven voting members:
(I) The lieutenant governor;
(II) The executive directors of:
(A) The department of human services;
(B) The department of public health and environment;
(C) The department of natural resources; and
(D) The department of local affairs;
(III) Two official representatives each from Southern Ute and Ute Mountain Ute tribes;
and
(IV) Two at-large members who shall be selected by the commission at its first meeting and triennially thereafter.
(b) The governor may, from time to time as he or she deems appropriate to respond to the needs of tribal governments and Indian peoples of the state, appoint representatives of federal, state, or local governmental agencies to serve as ex officio nonvoting members and representatives of nongovernmental entities that handle issues facing the tribes and Indian peoples of Colorado as nonvoting advisory members of the commission.
(c) The commission shall consult with other persons as it deems appropriate, including representatives of other principal departments of state government, political subdivisions, organizations with experience in American Indian legal matters, or other such entities.
(2) (a) Members serving by virtue of their office within state government may appoint a designee and shall serve so long as they hold that office. Members representing Ute Indian tribes shall be designated by their respective tribal governing bodies. Members appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section serve as long as they hold the position in the governmental agency or nongovernmental entity they held when originally appointed.
(b) The lieutenant governor shall serve as chairperson of the commission and shall, subject to section 24-44-105 and the ratification of a majority of the voting members of the commission, appoint an executive director.
(3) Commission members shall not be compensated for their services rendered for the commission.

282, § 41, effective June 29. L. 94: (1) amended, p. 2696, § 240, effective July 1. L. 2013: Entire section amended, (HB 13-1198), ch. 64, p. 212, § 3, effective March 22.

24-44-105. Executive director. The commission may employ an executive director to carry out the day-to-day responsibilities and business of the commission. The executive director is an ex officio member of the commission and must be an enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

24-44-106. Meetings - quorum - proxy vote prohibited. (1) The commission shall meet quarterly and at any other such time as it deems necessary. Meetings may be called by the chairperson or by a petition signed by a majority of the voting members of the commission. Ten days' notice shall be given in writing prior to the meeting date.
(2) Two voting Indian members of the commission and two voting members serving by virtue of their office within state government constitute a quorum.
(3) Proxy voting is not permitted.

24-44-107. Reports. (Repealed)

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 1996 act repealing this section, see section 1 of chapter 237, Session Laws of Colorado 1996.

24-44-108. Fiscal records. The executive director or his or her designee shall keep fiscal records, which records are subject to annual audit by the state auditor. The audit reports shall become a part of the annual report and shall be submitted in accordance with the regulations governing preparation and submission of the annual report.

Colorado Advisory Council for Persons with Disabilities

24-45.5-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Nearly a half million Coloradans have one or more physical, mental, or developmental disabilities;
(b) Persons with disabilities are often subject to discrimination in the areas of telecommunications, public services, public accommodations operated by private entities, and employment;
(c) The federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., as amended, established principles and guidelines regarding persons with disabilities;
(d) It is in the best interest of the state of Colorado to strive to ensure equality of opportunity, independent living, and economic self-sufficiency for all of the state's citizens, including persons with disabilities.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 2186, § 1, effective June 5.

24-45.5-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Council" means the Colorado advisory council for persons with disabilities created in section 24-45.5-103.
(2) "Person with a disability" means a person who:
(a) Has a physical or mental impairment or chronic medical condition that substantially limits one or more of his or her major life activities;
(b) Has a record of such an impairment; or
(c) Is regarded as having such an impairment.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 2187, § 1, effective June 5.

24-45.5-103. Colorado advisory council for persons with disabilities - creation - appointments - meetings. (1) There is hereby created in the office of the governor the Colorado advisory council for persons with disabilities.
(2) The council shall consist of no more than twenty members and shall reflect statewide participation and a commitment to the inclusion of persons with disabilities. Membership shall include at least seven persons appointed from state agencies serving persons with disabilities, and the remaining members shall represent persons with disabilities from business and industry, disability advocacy organizations, and other nonprofit organizations.

(3) The governor shall appoint the initial council members on or before August 1, 2008. The governor shall appoint the council chair at the time of appointment. The terms of the council members shall expire at the pleasure of the governor. Upon the expiration of a council member's term, the council member shall continue to serve until a successor is appointed as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill a vacancy on the council for the remainder of any unexpired term. If the governor does not appoint a person to fill the vacancy within sixty days after the date the vacancy arises, the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate, within ninety days after the date the vacancy arises, shall jointly appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. If the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate do not appoint a person to fill the vacancy within the ninety-day period, the council, by a majority vote, shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy.

(5) The council shall convene its first meeting no later than September 1, 2008, and meet at least quarterly thereafter. The meetings of the council shall also be held on call of the chair or at the request of at least three members of the council.

(6) Council members shall not receive compensation for their time but may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses pursuant to section 24-45.5-105 (2).

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 2187, § 1, effective June 5.

24-45.5-104. Powers and duties of the council. (1) The council shall have the following powers, functions, and duties:

(a) Coordinating with state boards, advisory councils, and commissions established for or related to persons with disabilities;
(b) Advising the governor and general assembly on legislation and state policy affecting persons with disabilities;
(c) Issuing an annual report to the governor and general assembly on the state's programs, services, and policies affecting and addressing persons with disabilities;
(d) Monitoring the state's implementation of Title II of the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990", 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., as amended, including oversight pursuant to Olmstead v. L.C., 527 U.S. 581 (1999);
(e) Acting as an additional entry point for public grievances regarding disability issues and referring those grievances to the appropriate state agency or personnel; and
(f) Developing procedures relating to the council's internal operations.

24-45.5-105. Gifts, grants, and donations - reimbursement. (1) The council is authorized to receive and expend gifts, grants, and donations from individuals, private organizations, foundations, or any governmental unit; except that the council may not accept a gift, grant, or donation if it is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this article or any other law of this state.

(2) Council members shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties, including an allowance for mileage as provided in section 24-9-104 (2) and any reasonable and necessary expenses associated with providing accommodations for a council member's disability.

Economic Development

PART 1

COLORADO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

24-46-101. Legislative declaration

The general assembly hereby finds and declares that, in light of current economic conditions in Colorado, it is in the best interests of the people of this state that measures be taken to encourage, promote, and stimulate economic development and employment in Colorado. To that end, it is the purpose of this article to bring together people representing a broad spectrum of interests, including higher education, agriculture, advanced technologies, finance and banking, venture capital, energy, and industry, to review the economic condition of Colorado, to develop and implement programs for the promotion of economic development in Colorado, and to ensure that such economic development programs create employment opportunities for Colorado residents and benefit Colorado companies.

24-46-102. Colorado economic development commission - creation - membership - definition

(1) Effective July 1, 1996, the Colorado economic development commission is abolished and the terms of the members of the commission serving as such immediately prior to June 30, 1996, are terminated.

(2) There is hereby created the Colorado economic development commission in the Colorado office of economic development, referred to in this article as the "commission".

(3) (a) The commission shall consist of the governor or the governor's designee and eight members who shall be appointed no later than August 1, 1996, as follows: Four members shall be appointed by the governor; two members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; and two members shall be appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) On and after September 1, 2013, the commission includes two additional members to represent advanced industries. The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall each appoint one member, and these members must have advanced industry business and research experience. In making these appointments, the speaker and the president shall give preference to a person whose experience is in more than one advanced industry.

(c) No member of the general assembly shall be appointed as a member of the commission. The governor shall appoint at least one person from west of the continental divide and one person from the eastern slope predominately from the rural area. Members shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing authority.

(d) As used in this subsection (3), "advanced industry" means the following industries:
   (I) Advanced manufacturing;
   (II) Aerospace;
   (III) Bioscience;
   (IV) Electronics;
   (V) Energy and natural resources;
   (VI) Infrastructure engineering; and
   (VII) Information technology.

Cross references: In 2013, subsection (3) was amended by the "Colorado Advanced Industries Acceleration Act". For the short title, see section 1 of chapter 227, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-46-103. Commission - organization - meetings. (1) The commission shall adopt its own rules of procedure, shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman from its membership, and shall keep a record of its proceedings.

   (2) The commission shall meet at least once each quarter. Members shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Source: L. 87: Entire article added, p. 1026, § 1, effective July 8.

24-46-104. Powers and duties of commission. (1) The commission has the following powers and duties:

   (a) To adopt an annual budget;
   (b) To develop operating guidelines relating to the manner and forms of financial assistance such as loans, grants, and local match requirements to be provided for various types of projects;
   (c) To review the economic needs of the various geographical regions of Colorado;
(d) To identify the types of businesses which need the most support in terms of economic development;

(e) and (f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 823, § 1, effective March 29, 1991.)

(g) To make information and assistance available for businesses interested in relocating or expanding their operations in the state of Colorado;

(h) To receive and expend donations or grants from the private sector;

(i) To contract for those services, including personnel services, and materials required by the activities of the commission;

(j) To review and recommend to the governor expenditures of moneys of the fund for economic incentives and marketing, as provided in section 24-46-105, for reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses of the commission, as authorized in section 24-46-103 (2), and for operational expenses of the commission;

(k) To exercise any other powers or perform any other duties which are consistent with the purposes for which the commission was created and which are reasonably necessary for the fulfillment of the commission's assigned responsibilities;

(l) and (m) Repealed.

(n) To contract with the Colorado housing and finance authority, created in part 7 of article 4 of title 29, C.R.S., for the operation of a Colorado credit reserve program for the purpose of increasing the availability of credit to small businesses in Colorado;

(o) To oversee the Colorado office of film, television, and media loan guarantee program pursuant to section 24-48.5-115 and the performance-based incentive for film production in Colorado pursuant to section 24-48.5-116; and

(p) To consult with the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to section 24-48.5-117.

(2) The commission shall report to the general assembly no later than November 1 of each year regarding the work of the commission. The report shall include the information required to be collected by the commission pursuant to section 24-46-105.1.

Editor's note: Subsection (1)(l) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(l), effective January 1, 1998. (See L. 97, p. 588.)

Cross references: (1) For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act adding subsection (1)(o), see section 1 of chapter 186, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-46-104.3. Transferable income tax credits for certain businesses located in the state - definitions. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
(a) "Business" means a person doing business in the state.
(b) "Department" means the Colorado department of revenue.
(c) "Income tax credit" means the income tax credits allowed to a business no sooner than the income tax year commencing January 1, 2019, in section 39-22-531, 39-30-104, 39-30-105.1, or 39-30-105.5.
(d) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.
(e) "Period" means ten consecutive income tax years starting with the business' income tax year that commences immediately following the date the business receives precertification from the commission authorizing the income tax credits to be treated differently pursuant to this section.
(f) "Precertification" means the written precertification the commission may issue as allowed in subsection (2)(a) of this section that must set forth the income tax credits a business may treat differently and the total estimated value of the income tax credits that the business may treat differently pursuant to this section.
(g) "Strategic capital investment" means a capital investment totaling not less than one hundred million dollars that the commission finds will be significant to the state and is expected to be productive over many years.
(h) "Twelve-month interval" means each twelve-month interval from July 1, 2017, through June 30, 2020, during which the commission may issue precertifications.

(2) (a) (I) Subject to the limitations specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section, commencing July 1, 2017, through June 30, 2020, if a business intends to make a strategic capital investment in the state, the commission may issue a written precertification to the business to grant the business the authority to treat its allowed income tax credits during the business' period differently as specified in this section. The strategic capital investment must be initiated after the issuance of the precertification and completed before the end of the business' period; except that, if a business makes a strategic capital investment that could result in allowed income tax credits with a total value greater than the precertification limitations set forth in subsection (2)(b) of this section, the commission may issue a second or third written precertification to the same business in the following twelve-month intervals for the same strategic capital investment, even if the strategic capital investment has already been initiated or completed. If, after precertification and during the business' period, the business meets the requirements of one or more of the income tax credits as set forth in the statutory sections pertaining to each credit, then once the income tax credits are allowed, the business may elect, by filing a written election as specified in subsection (2)(a)(III) of this section, to:
(A) Use the income tax credits as an offset against the business' income taxes in the income tax year that the income tax credit is allowed;
(B) Carry forward the income tax credits to be used against the business' income tax liability for no more than five years, except as provided in subsection (2)(a)(II) of this section, using the carried forward income tax credits in the earliest income tax years possible; or

(C) Transfer the income tax credits during the carry-forward period described in subsection (2)(a)(I)(B) of this section and as allowed in subsection (4) of this section.

(II) The five-year carry-forward period commences when the income tax credit is allowed and is not limited by the end of the business' period described in this section.

(III) If a business elects to treat its allowed income tax credits differently as specified in this section and as allowed in the precertification, the business must file a written election with the office. If the business files the written election, then, except as provided in subsection (2)(b)(II) of this section, the business may not elect to receive a refund as allowed in section 39-30-104 (2.6).

(b) (I) All precertifications issued by the commission in each twelve-month interval may not exceed ten million dollars of estimated total value of all income tax credits. Any portion of the ten million dollars not precertified in a twelve-month interval may not be carried forward to the next twelve-month interval.

(II) If the actual value of the income tax credits that a business is allowed exceeds the precertification's estimated value of the income tax credits, then the business may not treat the difference between the estimated value of the income tax credits and the actual value of the income tax credits differently as specified in this section. Instead, the difference must be treated as specified in the statutory sections for each income tax credit.

(3) The business shall notify the commission when the business has met the requirements of one or more of the income tax credits in the period, shall provide the commission with verifiable evidence that the strategic capital investment was made, and shall submit an audit opinion from an independent certified public accountant attesting that the income tax credit or income tax credits have been properly calculated. If the commission agrees that the business has satisfied the terms of the precertification, then the office shall notify the department in writing of the different treatment of the business' income tax credits for the business' period.

(4) (a) If the business chooses to transfer its allowed income tax credits, then the income tax credits are freely transferable and assignable, subject to the commission's issuance of the precertification pursuant to this section, and subject to any notice and verification requirements to be determined by the office; except that the business may only transfer the portion of the income tax credits that were not applied against the business' income tax imposed by article 22 of title 39.

(b) The transferee may use all or a portion of the transferred income tax credit as an offset against the transferee's income tax imposed by article 22 of title 39. Any unused portion of the transferred income tax credit may be carried forward and used as an income tax credit against the transferee's subsequent years' income tax liability for an interval not to exceed three additional income tax years from the date of the transferee's acquisition and shall be applied first to the earliest income tax years possible. The transferee may transfer any unused portion of the acquired income tax credit to a secondary transferee in that three income tax year interval, but the secondary transferee may only offset its acquired income tax credit against its income tax imposed by article 22 of title 39 for the remainder of the three income tax year intervals from the date of the first transferee's acquisition.
With respect to the income tax credit set forth in section 39-30-104, if the business seeks a waiver of the limitation specified in section 39-30-104 (2)(c) and as allowed in section 39-30-104 (2)(c)(II), and the commission approves such waiver, then the approved waiver of the limitation must be reflected in the precertification and applies to any transferee of the business' income tax credit allowed under section 39-30-104.

The office shall establish notice and verification requirements for transferred income tax credits.

The transferor and the transferee of the income tax credits shall jointly file a copy of the written transfer agreement with the office within thirty days after the transfer. Any filing of the written transfer agreement with the office perfects the transfer.

The office shall develop a system to track the transfers of income tax credits and to certify the ownership of the income tax credits. A certification by the office of the ownership and the amount of income tax credits may be relied on by the department and the transferee as being accurate to the extent the data supplied by the business is accurate, and the office shall not adjust the amount of income tax credits as to the transferee. The office, the department, and any other state agency retain any remedies they may have against the business and any other taxpayer that misrepresents the value of the transferable income tax credit in a transfer. The office shall establish policies to permit verification of the ownership and amount of the income tax credits and shall post those policies on the office's website; except that the policies may not unduly restrict or hinder the transfer of the tax credits as allowed in this section.

The office shall provide a report to the department specifying the ownership and transfers of income tax credits as allowed in this section. The report must be provided on a schedule to be determined by the department and the office.

The commission and the office shall post on the office's website all nonconfidential information related to the precertification and approval of the treatment of the income tax credits as specified in this section. Nothing in this section may be construed to abrogate the confidentiality provisions set forth in section 39-21-113.

The commission shall include information regarding any transferability authorized pursuant to this section, including the names of the businesses and the amounts transferred, in its annual report required to be presented to the general assembly pursuant to section 24-46-104 (2). The commission shall annually report the same information to the finance committees of the house of representatives and the senate, or such successor committees, notwithstanding the limitations in section 24-1-136 (11).

24-46-104.5. Statewide enterprise zone - existing enterprise zones - recommendations to the general assembly - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (4) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 15, 2011. (See L. 2009, p. 1760.)
24-46-105. Colorado economic development fund - creation. (1) There is hereby created a fund to be known as the Colorado economic development fund, referred to in this part 1 as the "fund", which shall be administered by the commission and which shall consist of all moneys that may be available to the commission. The commission may transfer to the fund any general fund money appropriated to the commission and the commission may expend such money without further appropriation.

(2) The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly, except as provided in subsection (2.5) of this section, for the purposes of this part 1. Any moneys not expended or encumbered from any appropriation at the end of any fiscal year shall remain available for expenditure in the next fiscal year without further appropriation. Any interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund shall not be credited to the general fund of the state but shall instead be credited to the revolving account created in subsection (2.5) of this section. Contributions of money, property, or services may be received from any state agency, county, municipality, federal agency, person, or corporation for use in carrying out the purposes of this part 1.

(2.5) (a) The moneys in the fund may be used by the commission to make grants or loans to both public and private persons and entities for use in carrying out the purposes of this part 1, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2.5) and subsections (3) and (4) of this section. In determining whether to make a grant or loan, the commission shall consider each of the following guidelines:

(I) The amount of the grant or loan;
(II) The number of jobs that are likely to be generated in the state as a direct or indirect result of the facility or operation the grant or loan would fund and ancillary facilities thereto;
(III) The quality and wage level of jobs created;
(IV) The extent to which a person or entity establishing or expanding a business operation or facility intends to employ Colorado residents at the new or expanded operation or facility the grant or loan would fund and ancillary facilities thereto;
(V) The extent to which a person or entity establishing or expanding a business facility or operation intends to contract with Colorado residents and Colorado-based companies for services and goods at the new or expanded operation or facility the grant or loan would fund and ancillary facilities thereto; and
(VI) The extent of the public benefits expected to result from the grant or loan.

(b) The commission may establish whatever terms and conditions it deems appropriate in making grants or loans pursuant to this section; except that the terms and conditions established by the commission shall meet or exceed the requirements established in subsection (4) of this section for a grant or loan awarded in part or in whole based on a private person's or entity's creation of full-time permanent new jobs in the state. The loan amount and any interest earned thereon shall be paid back to the commission, and such moneys shall be credited to a special account in the fund to be known as the revolving account. In accordance with subsection (2) of this section, interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the economic development fund shall also be credited to the revolving account. All moneys in the revolving account may be used by the commission to make loans and grants as provided in this subsection (2.5) without further appropriation by the general assembly. The commission shall not approve grants or loans to state departments or agencies for specific projects which are typically considered by the general assembly in the general appropriation bill or in supplemental appropriation bills unless the joint budget committee approves the application for such grants or loans.

   (3) The governor is not authorized to expend moneys from the fund unless such expenditure has been reviewed and recommended by the commission. The governor may reject any recommendations by the commission.

   (4) (a) The commission shall award a grant or loan from moneys in the fund based in part or in whole on a private person's or entity's creation of full-time permanent new jobs in the state, only if the person or entity:

   (I) Pays all of its new employees hired on or after August 3, 2007, a minimum wage as determined by the commission;

   (II) Creates one or more new jobs and maintains the jobs for at least one year; and

   (III) (A) Has not been adjudicated to be in violation of any federal, state, or local laws affecting the health, safety, or working conditions of employees for at least the prior five years, as certified by the person or entity; or

   (B) Has been adjudicated to be in violation of a federal, state, or local law affecting the health, safety, or working conditions of employees within five years of applying for a grant or loan pursuant to this section, but can provide evidence to the commission that it has corrected the violation or has taken steps to correct the violation and can provide an estimated date by which the violation will be corrected.

   (b) The provisions of this subsection (4) do not apply to the following:

   (I) A nonprofit entity; or

   (II) An intern or trainee who is under the age of twenty-one and who is employed for a period of not longer than three months.

   (c) No person or entity shall pay an employee through a third party or treat an employee as a subcontractor or independent contractor to avoid the requirements of this subsection (4). The provisions of this paragraph (c) shall not apply to a person or entity that hires subcontractors or independent contractors in the normal course of the person's or entity's business.

24-46-105.1. Reporting requirement - new jobs created. (1) Every private person or entity that receives a grant or loan from the commission pursuant to this article, awarded in part or in whole on the basis of the person's or entity's creation of full-time permanent new jobs with wage requirements shall file a progress report with the commission. The progress report shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

Colorado Revised Statutes 2017    Page 1114 of 2289    Uncertified Printout
(a) The name of the person or entity that received the grant or loan and, if the recipient is an entity, the name of the chief officer of the entity;

(b) The business address and business phone number of the person or entity that received the grant or loan;

(c) The amount of the grant or loan awarded to the person or entity by the commission;

(d) A statement of the number of new full-time permanent jobs that the person or entity that received the grant or loan has created to date;

(e) Payroll or other data to verify the number of new jobs created by the person or entity;

(f) The average annual compensation level of new full-time permanent employees of the new jobs created;

(g) A statement as to whether the person or entity that received the grant or loan reduced employment at any other site controlled by the person or entity in the state as a result of automation, merger, acquisition, corporate restructuring, or other business activity; and

(h) Any other information reasonably required by the commission to evaluate the progress of the person or entity that received the grant or loan and the effectiveness of awarding the grant or loan.

(2) The progress report submitted to the commission shall include a signed certification by the private person who received the grant or loan or, if the recipient is a private entity, the chief officer of the entity that received the grant or loan as to the accuracy of the progress report.

(3) Any private person or entity that receives a grant or loan pursuant to this article based in part or in whole on the person's or entity's creation of full-time permanent new jobs in the state shall file the progress report required pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The commission shall include the information collected each year pursuant to subsection (1) of this section in the commission's report to the general assembly pursuant to section 24-46-104 (2). The commission's report shall also include a statement as to whether the private person or entity that received the grant or loan has achieved the person's or entity's job creation and wage requirement.

(5) The commission shall inform a private person or entity that receives a grant or loan based in part or in whole on the person's or entity's creation of full-time permanent new jobs in the state that the person or entity is required to comply with the requirements of this section at the time the commission awards the grant or loan.

24-46-105.3. Economic development incentives - employers in compliance with federal law - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the commission encourages, promotes, and stimulates economic development and employment in Colorado by awarding economic development incentives to employers in the form of grants, loans, and performance-based incentives. The general assembly further finds that it is in the best interest of the people of the state to ensure that United States citizens and others lawfully present in the state are the beneficiaries of employment opportunities that are made possible through moneys awarded to employers the commission. The general assembly recognizes that many local governments also participate in programs to develop new businesses, expand existing businesses, promote economic development within their jurisdictions, and create employment opportunities... for Colorado. The general assembly further recognizes that it would be in the best interest of the people of the state if local governments would take steps to ensure that United States citizens and others lawfully present in the state are the beneficiaries of employment opportunities created through economic development incentives offered at the local level. Therefore, the general assembly hereby encourages all local governments that participate in economic development incentive programs to develop standards to ensure that all employers who are awarded economic development incentives employ only United States citizens or people who are lawfully present in the state and have the authority to work.

(2) In addition to the requirements specified for any employer to receive a grant, loan, performance-based incentive, or other economic development incentive pursuant to the provisions of this article, an employer shall be in compliance with the provisions of 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a in order to be eligible to receive such economic development incentive. The commission shall develop a procedure by which an employer that receives an economic development incentive pursuant to this article shall provide proof to the commission that each employee employed by the employer within the United States is a United States citizen or, if not a United States citizen, is lawfully present in the state and authorized to work.

(3) During the process of awarding a grant, loan, performance-based incentive, or other economic development incentive to an employer, the commission shall have the discretion to determine when to verify that the employer is in compliance with the provisions of 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a.

(4) If the commission determines that an employer who receives an economic development incentive pursuant to this article is not in compliance with the provisions of 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a, or is unable to prove that it is in compliance with the requirements of 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a, the commission shall notify the employer by certified mail of the commission's determination of noncompliance. The employer shall repay the total amount of money received as an economic development incentive to the commission within thirty days of receipt of the notice.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, any employer that has been issued a notice of noncompliance pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall be ineligible to qualify for a grant, loan, performance-based incentive, or other economic development incentive awarded pursuant to this article for five years after the date that the employer has repaid the commission in full pursuant to the requirements of subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Upon determination that an employer is ineligible to receive an economic development incentive pursuant to this section, the commission shall allow the employer to appear at a hearing before the commission and to establish proof that the employer is in compliance with the provisions of 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a. The commission shall satisfy the requirements of this subsection (6) within existing resources.

(7) This section shall be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.

24-46-105.5. Local economic development - participation in federal programs. Any local government may participate in federal programs to develop new business, expand existing business, or promote economic development within its jurisdiction. Any local government participating in such programs may enter into contracts for the administration of such programs and expend moneys as required for participation in such programs.

(1) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 943, § 1, effective August 5, 2008.)
(2) On or after January 1, 2006, but prior to January 1, 2011, any employer that satisfies the criteria that the commission has established for an employer to qualify for a grant or a loan from the commission pursuant to section 24-46-105 (2.5) may be eligible to receive a performance-based incentive from the commission from the moneys in the new jobs incentives cash fund created in this section.

(3) An employer that qualifies to receive a performance-based incentive for new jobs created pursuant to this section and that qualifies for an income tax credit pursuant to section 39-30-105, C.R.S., shall be allowed to receive the incentive allowed pursuant to this section and claim the credit allowed pursuant to section 39-30-105, C.R.S.

(4) (a) and (b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 943, § 1, effective August 5, 2008.)
(c) The commission shall develop procedures for the administration of this section, including establishing a procedure for employers to apply for performance-based incentives and for the commission to issue payment of the incentives.

(5) On or before March 1, 2007, and on or before March 1 of each year thereafter, the commission shall report to the business affairs and labor committee of the house of representatives and the business affairs, labor, and technology committee of the senate, or any successor committees, regarding the performance-based incentives awarded pursuant to this section. The report shall include but need not be limited to the number of employers that received the performance-based incentive pursuant to this section and the total amount of all incentives received during the most recent fiscal year for which such information is available.

(6) The total amount of performance-based incentives that the commission issues pursuant to this section in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount appropriated to the commission to be used for the purposes of this section in the applicable fiscal year. The commission shall issue incentives to applicants at the commission's discretion until the amount appropriated has been expended.

(7) (a) The commission shall not allow any employer that has been approved to receive a performance-based incentive for the creation of new jobs prior to June 5, 2006, to claim an incentive pursuant to this section for the same jobs for which the previous incentive was approved.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 943, § 1, effective August 5, 2008.)

(8) Of the total amount appropriated by the general assembly to the commission to be used for the purposes of this section, an amount equal to fifteen percent of the amount appropriated shall be used by the commission to award performance-based incentives pursuant to this section to employers who open a new business or expand or relocate an existing business and create new jobs in an enterprise zone that is not within the boundaries of the counties of Denver, Boulder, Douglas, Arapahoe, Jefferson, or Broomfield.
(9) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the new jobs incentives cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall consist of:

(I) Moneys transferred to the fund in accordance with section 12-47.1-701 (2), C.R.S.; and

(II) Any moneys appropriated to the fund by the general assembly.

(b) The moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated by the general assembly for the purposes of this section. All moneys not expended or encumbered, and all interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund, shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year. Any moneys not expended or encumbered from any appropriation at the end of any fiscal year shall remain available for expenditure in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

(1) to (3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1010), ch. 419, p. 2332, § 3, effective July 1, 2009.)

(4) Repealed.

(5) and (6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1010), ch. 419, p. 2332, § 3, effective July 1, 2009.)

Editor's note: (1) Senate Bill 10-158 repealed subsection (4)(a), effective July 1, 2010, but that repeal did not take effect due to the repeal of subsection (4), effective January 1, 2010.

(2) Subsection (4)(d) provided for the repeal of subsection (4), effective January 1, 2010. (See L. 2009, p. 2332.)

24-46-106. Repeal of part. This part 1 is repealed, effective July 1, 2025.

PART 2

VENTURE CAPITAL PROGRAM

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2004 act enacting this part 2, see section 1 of chapter 11, Session Laws of Colorado 2004.

24-46-201. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Authority" means the venture capital authority created in section 24-46-202.

(2) "Certified capital" means an amount of cash that is contributed by a qualified taxpayer to the authority that is deposited in a venture capital fund.

(3) (a) "Distressed urban community" means an area within a city or city and county:

(I) Where a qualified business would not be a qualified rural business; and

(II) That has been designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to article 30 of title 39, C.R.S.

(b) If a distressed urban community's enterprise zone status is terminated pursuant to article 30 of title 39, C.R.S., a certified investment shall nevertheless continue to be considered an investment in a qualified business that has its principal business operation located in a distressed urban community if the location was in an enterprise zone at the time of the first qualified investment by the fund manager in the business.

(4) "Enterprise fund" means the enterprise fund created in section 24-46-202.

(5) "Fund manager" means a partnership, corporation, trust, or limited liability company that invests cash in qualified businesses or qualified rural businesses and is selected through the authority's competitive selection process to establish and manage one or more venture capital funds as described in this part 2. A fund manager shall have at least two years of money management experience in the venture capital industry or the equivalent as determined by the authority.

(6) "Premium tax liability" means the liability imposed by section 10-3-209 or 10-6-128, C.R.S., or, in the case of a repeal or reduction by the state of the liability imposed by section 10-3-209 or 10-6-128, C.R.S., any other tax liability imposed upon an insurance company by the state.

(7) "Proceeds" means any revenues arising from the use of certified capital, including, but not limited to, income generated from qualified investments and income generated from all certified capital not currently invested in qualified investments.

(8) (a) "Qualified business" means a business that, subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection (8), meets all of the following criteria as of the time of a fund manager's first qualified investment in the business and as otherwise determined by the authority:

(I) The business:
(A) Is headquartered in this state and its principal business operations are located in this state; or
(B) Has entered into a contract with a fund manager to comply, within nine months after finalization of the contract, with sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) and the contract contains enforceable provisions requiring a return of any investment of certified capital and any other revenues required to be paid in the event of noncompliance with this subsection (8) or a contract provision;
(II) Is a small business;
(III) Is not a business predominantly engaged in:
(A) Professional services provided by accountants, doctors, or lawyers;
(B) Banking; lending; real estate development; insurance; oil and gas exploration; direct gambling activities, which do not include ancillary gambling businesses such as manufacturers of gaming equipment and others as defined by the authority; or
(C) Making loans to or investing in a fund manager or affiliates of a fund manager;
(IV) Does not receive an investment from a venture capital fund that exceeds fifteen percent of the venture capital fund's aggregate total of certified capital; and
(V) Maintains its business in this state for at least five years after first receiving an investment of certified capital and has entered into a contract with a fund manager to comply with this requirement. The contract shall contain enforceable provisions requiring a return of any investment of certified capital and any other revenues required to be paid in the event of noncompliance with this subparagraph (V) or a contract provision.
(b) If a business meets some, but not all, of the criteria set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), the business may nevertheless be deemed to be a qualified business if the authority determines that the investment of certified capital in the business proposed by a fund manager pursuant to this part 2 will further the economic development of the state.
(c) Any business that is classified as a qualified business at the time of the first qualified investment in the business by a fund manager shall remain classified as a qualified business, and may receive continuing qualified investments from a venture capital fund. The continuing investments shall be qualified investments even though the business may not meet the definition of a qualified business at the time of the continuing investments; except that a qualified business shall comply with subparagraph (V) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) for at least five years after an initial qualified investment to remain a qualified business and to receive continuing qualified investments.
(9) "Qualified distribution" means any distribution out of certified capital from a venture capital fund for expenses related to managing and operating the fund. Qualified distributions shall not exceed two and one-half percent annually of the total amount of certified capital allocated to each venture capital fund unless authorized by the authority after a review of extraordinary items. "Qualified distribution" does not include the use of certified capital for litigation challenging the validity, implementation, or effect of this part 2 or article 3.5 of title 10, C.R.S., lobbying, or governmental relations.
(10) (a) "Qualified investment" means, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection (10), the investment of certified capital by a fund manager in a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, for the purchase of any debt, debt participation, equity, or hybrid security, including a debt instrument or security that has the characteristics of debt but provides for conversion into equity or equity participation instruments, including, but not limited to, options or warrants; except that a fund manager shall use certified capital only to make seed and early-stage investments in qualified businesses or qualified rural businesses, as applicable; except that the authority may allow a qualified investment in a qualified rural business that is not a seed or early-stage investment if the investment is appropriate and later-stage capital investments are not otherwise available to the qualified rural business. An investment shall be deemed to be a qualified investment only if the qualified business or qualified rural business in which the investment is made expends the qualified investment within Colorado; except that this limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the purchase of services or goods from outside of Colorado if such services are performed and such goods are used in Colorado.

(b) A fund manager shall not make a loan to a qualified business or qualified rural business unless the business has received two written loan rejection letters from two different commercial banks headquartered or chartered in Colorado that make small business loans, one of which shall be a preferred lender designated by the federal small business administration. Any such loan by a fund manager shall not be made through or in connection with any guaranteed loan program.

(11) (a) "Qualified rural business" means a qualified business that has its principal business operations in any county, but not any city and county, in this state that, as of June 9, 2001, has a population of not more than one hundred fifty thousand people and, if the county's population exceeds twenty thousand people, that has a growth rate that does not exceed the statewide average for the period of 1990-2000 by more than twenty-five percent as defined in the two most recent decennial censuses. Additionally, a qualified rural business shall be located in an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to article 30 of title 39, C.R.S., unless the authority waives this requirement.

(b) Any business that is classified as a qualified rural business at the time of the first qualified investment in the business by a fund manager shall remain classified as a qualified rural business and may receive continuing qualified investments from a venture capital fund. The continuing investments shall be qualified investments even though the business may not meet the definition of a qualified rural business at the time of the continuing investments; except that, to remain a qualified rural business and to receive qualified investments, a qualified rural business shall comply with subparagraph (V) of paragraph (a) of subsection (8) of this section for at least five years after an initial qualified investment.

(12) "Qualified taxpayer" means an insurance company that has contributed certified capital to the authority and received a tax credit certificate from the authority pursuant to section 24-46-204; except that, upon payment of certified capital by a qualified taxpayer, the qualified taxpayer may transfer or sell all or a portion of its venture capital tax credits to another insurance company, in which case "qualified taxpayer" shall be deemed to refer to such insurance company. A transfer or sale of venture capital tax credits by a qualified taxpayer shall not affect the schedule for taking the venture capital tax credits as provided in this part 2.

(13) "Seed and early-stage investment" means the first investment from a professional venture capital firm to a qualified business. A seed investment is made to a qualified business that has not yet fully established commercial operations or that involves continued research and product development. An early-stage investment is made to a qualified business for product development or initial marketing, manufacturing, or sales activities.

(14) "Venture capital fund" means one or more rural venture capital funds, one or more distressed urban community venture capital funds, or one or more statewide venture capital funds as described in section 24-46-203 (1), located outside of the state treasury, containing certified capital that is managed by a fund manager to make qualified investments.

(15) "Venture capital tax credit" or "tax credit" means the tax credit created by section 24-46-204 that a qualified taxpayer may claim pursuant to this part 2.

24-46-202. Venture capital authority - board - staffing fund - bonds - enterprise fund - distribution of proceeds. (1) (a) There is hereby created as a special purpose authority, as defined in section 24-77-102 (15), the venture capital authority. The authority shall be a body corporate, a political subdivision of the state, and a public instrumentality, and its exercise of the powers conferred by this part 2 shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function; except that the authority shall not be an agency of state government and shall not be subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, or agency of the state. The authority shall constitute an enterprise for the purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution so long as it retains the authority to issue revenue bonds and receives less than ten percent of its total annual revenues in grants, as defined in section 24-77-102 (7), from all Colorado state and local governments combined. The authority shall not be a district for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(b) (I) The governing body of the authority shall be a board of directors consisting of nine members, of whom five shall be appointed by the governor, two shall be appointed by the president of the senate, and two shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. Board members shall be residents of this state. Board members shall have experience in venture capital, investment banking, institutional investment, fund management, or banking. A board member shall not have a business relationship with a current or proposed fund manager in the previous three years or for at least three years after an allocation of certified capital. Each member shall serve until a successor has been appointed and qualified. Any member shall be eligible for reappointment. The person making the original appointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term.

(II) (A) Subject to sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (II), the members of the board shall serve four-year terms, expiring on May 5 of each year.

(B) The speaker and the president shall each appoint one member with an initial term of two years and one member with an initial term of three years. Of the members appointed by the governor, two shall have initial terms of one year, two shall have initial terms of two years, and one shall have an initial term of three years.

(c) Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance, willful neglect of duty, or other cause, after notice and a public hearing, unless the notice and hearing have been expressly waived in writing.

(d) (I) The board of directors of the authority shall adopt its own rules of procedure, shall elect a chair and a vice-chair from its membership, and shall keep a record of its proceedings. The authority may hire staff as it deems necessary or convenient to administer this part 2. The Colorado office of economic development and the Colorado economic development commission shall cooperate with the authority in such administration. The authority shall pay the office in advance as agreed upon by the authority and the office for all costs incurred by the office in providing staffing for the authority, including but not limited to the costs of compensation for employees staffing the authority and administration related to such staffing. The office shall credit any payment received from the authority to the venture capital authority staffing fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund is continuously appropriated to the office to pay costs incurred by the office in providing staffing for the authority. Interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred to the general fund or any other fund at the end of any fiscal year.

(II) The authority shall meet at least once each quarter. Members shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(2) (a) The authority may, by resolution that meets the requirements of subsection (3) of this section, authorize and issue revenue bonds in an amount not to exceed five million dollars in the aggregate for expenses of the authority. Bonds may be issued only after approval by both houses of the general assembly acting either by bill or joint resolution and after approval by the governor in accordance with section 39 of article V of the state constitution. Bonds shall be payable only from the enterprise fund.

(b) All bonds issued by the authority shall provide that:

(I) No holder of bonds may compel the state or any subdivision thereof to exercise its appropriation or taxing power; and

(II) The bonds do not constitute a debt or financial obligation of the state and are payable only from the net revenues allocated to the authority for expenses as designated in the bonds.

(3) (a) Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this section shall state:

(I) The date of issuance of the bonds;

(II) A maturity date or dates during a period not to exceed twenty years after the date of issuance of the bonds;

(III) The interest rate or rates on, and the denomination or denominations of, the bonds; and

(IV) The medium of payment of the bonds and the place where the bonds will be paid.

(b) Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this section may:

(I) State that the bonds are to be issued in one or more series;

(II) State a rank or priority of the bonds; and

(III) Provide for redemption of the bonds prior to maturity, with or without premium.

(4) Any bonds issued pursuant to the terms of this section may be sold at public or private sale. If bonds are to be sold at a public sale, the authority shall advertise the sale in any manner the authority deems appropriate. All bonds issued pursuant to the terms of this section shall be sold at a price not less than the par value thereof, together with all accrued interest up to the date of delivery.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all bonds issued pursuant to this section are negotiable.

(6) (a) A resolution pertaining to issuance of bonds under this section may contain covenants as to:

(I) The purpose to which the proceeds of sale of the bonds may be applied, and the permissible use and disposition thereof;

(II) Such matters as are customary in the issuance of revenue bonds, including, without limitation, the issuance and lien position of other or additional bonds; and
(III) Books of account and the inspection and audit thereof.

(b) Any resolution made pursuant to the terms of this section shall be deemed a contract with the holders of the bonds, and the duties of the authority under the resolution shall be enforceable by any appropriate action in a court having jurisdiction.

(7) Bonds issued under this section and bearing the signatures of the board members of the authority in office on the date of the signing shall be deemed valid and binding obligations regardless of whether, prior to delivery and payment, any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be members of the board.

(8) (a) Except as otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds, all bonds of the same issue under this section shall have a prior and paramount lien on the net revenues pledged therefor. The authority may provide for preferential security for any bonds, both principal and interest, to be issued under this section to the extent deemed feasible and desirable by the authority over any bonds that may be issued thereafter.

(b) Bonds of the same issue or series issued under this section shall be equally and ratably secured, without priority by reason of number, date, sale, execution, or delivery, by a lien on the net revenue pledged in accordance with the terms of the resolution authorizing the bonds.

(9) The authority may accept grants from any source and shall deposit the grants in the enterprise fund, which fund is hereby created in the authority. The enterprise fund shall be a revolving fund administered by the authority as a government-owned business that provides oversight concerning the investment of revenues in the enterprise fund pursuant to this part 2. Revenues earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the enterprise fund shall be credited to the enterprise fund.

(10) (a) The authority shall utilize the enterprise fund:

(I) As a revolving, evergreen fund to provide continued seed and early-stage investment capital to qualified businesses and qualified rural businesses, and for this purpose the authority shall transfer revenues in the fund to one or more venture capital funds for the purpose of enabling a fund manager to make qualified investments; and

(II) For its direct and indirect expenses in administering this part 2, including repayment of revenue bonds and payment for costs of staffing the authority paid to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section.

(b) The authority shall deposit revenues from the following sources in the enterprise fund:

(I) Distributions of an amount equal to one hundred percent of certified capital prior to the distribution of any remaining proceeds;

(II) Distributions of all remaining proceeds according to the authority's contract with each fund manager;

(III) Fees; and

(IV) Assessed penalties.

24-46-203. Venture capital funds - managers - qualified investments - contract - distributions. (1) The authority shall establish procedures and additional selection criteria for, and shall conduct, a competitive process for the selection of one or more fund managers to establish and manage one or more rural venture capital funds and to establish and manage one or more statewide venture capital funds. The authority shall establish and publicize the deadlines for the competitive selection process. The authority may establish reasonable application fees. In conducting the competitive process, the authority shall not be subject to the requirements of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title. The authority shall select fund managers by December 31, 2004, and thereafter as necessary. When selecting a fund manager, the authority shall place a significant emphasis on:

(a) The total amount of venture capital managed by the applicant in Colorado and elsewhere;
(b) The applicant's historical return on investment, with an emphasis on returns from seed and early stage investments;
(c) The percentage of proceeds to be retained by the applicant in comparison with the percentage of proceeds to be distributed to the enterprise fund.

(2) The authority shall allocate:

(a) Twenty-five percent of certified capital to one or more fund managers for the establishment and management of one or more rural venture capital funds for the purpose of making qualified investments in qualified rural businesses;
(b) Fifty percent of certified capital to one or more fund managers for the establishment and management of one or more statewide venture capital funds for the purpose of making qualified investments in other qualified businesses; and
(c) Twenty-five percent of certified capital to one or more fund managers for the establishment and management of one or more distressed urban community venture capital funds for the purpose of making qualified investments in qualified businesses whose principal business operations are located in a distressed urban community.

(3) As soon as practicable after the selection date, the authority and each fund manager shall enter into a contract whereby the fund manager shall establish and manage the venture capital funds pursuant to this part 2 and shall comply with other requirements established by the authority. The contract shall specify that the fund manager shall make qualified investments according to the following schedule:

(a) By January 1, 2006, the fund manager shall have made at least one qualified investment.
(b) Within the period ending three years after an allocation date, a fund manager shall have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to at least thirty percent of the certified capital allocated to it on such allocation date.
(c) Within the period ending five years after an allocation date, a fund manager shall have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to at least fifty percent of the certified capital allocated to it on such allocation date.
(d) Within the period ending ten years after an allocation date, a fund manager shall have made qualified investments cumulatively equal to at least one hundred percent of the certified capital allocated to it on such allocation date.

(4) A fund manager may, before making a proposed qualified investment in a specific business, request from the authority a written opinion that the business in which it proposes to invest is located in a distressed urban community or should be considered a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable. Upon receiving a request, the authority shall have thirty working days to determine whether the business is located in a distressed urban community or the business meets the definition of a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable, and notify the fund manager of its determination with an explanation of the determination. If the authority fails to notify the fund manager of its determination within thirty working days, the business in which the fund manager proposes to invest shall be deemed to be located in a distressed urban community or to be a qualified business or qualified rural business, as applicable.

(5) A fund manager shall invest all certified capital not currently invested in qualified investments in:

(a) Cash that is deposited in a federally insured financial institution;
(b) Certificates of deposit in a federally insured financial institution;
(c) Investment securities that are obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities or obligations that are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest by the United States;
(d) Debt instruments rated at least "AA" or its equivalent by a nationally recognized credit rating organization, or issued by, or guaranteed with respect to payment by, an entity whose unsecured indebtedness is rated at least "AA" or its equivalent by a nationally recognized credit rating organization, and that are not subordinated to other unsecured indebtedness of the issuer or the guarantor, as the case may be;
(e) Obligations of this state, any municipality in this state, or any political subdivision thereof;
(f) Interests in money market funds, the portfolios of which are limited to cash and obligations described in this subsection (5); or
(g) Any other investments approved in advance and in writing by the authority.

(6) (a) The authority's contract with a fund manager shall state the terms governing the distribution, other than a qualified distribution, of certified capital and proceeds. Unless authorized by its contract with the authority and until it has made the distribution specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), a fund manager shall not make any distributions from:
(I) Certified capital other than qualified distributions; or
(II) Proceeds.
(b) (I) The fund manager shall distribute to the authority an amount equal to one hundred percent of certified capital allocated to venture capital funds managed by the fund manager prior to making distributions pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b). The authority shall deposit the distribution in the enterprise fund.
(II) After the distribution made pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) has occurred, the fund manager shall distribute all remaining certified capital and proceeds on a prorated basis between the authority and the fund manager as negotiated in the contract by the authority and as certified capital and proceeds become available. The authority shall deposit the distributions to the enterprise fund.

(7) (a) In addition to other items as specified by the authority, on or before January 31 of each year, each fund manager shall report the following to the authority:
(I) The balance of certified capital at the end of the immediately preceding calendar year for each venture capital fund managed by the fund manager;
(II) The number of jobs created in Colorado from qualified investments made by the fund manager and the amount of proceeds, if any, received by the fund manager from the investments;

(III) The amount of qualified distributions made by the fund manager from certified capital during the immediately preceding calendar year; and

(IV) All qualified investments made by the fund manager from certified capital during the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) Annually, and within ninety days after the close of its fiscal year, each fund manager shall provide to the authority an audited financial statement that includes the opinion of an independent certified public accountant. The audit shall address the methods of operation and conduct of the business of the fund manager to determine whether the fund manager is complying with this part 2 and the authority's contract and whether the certified capital received by the fund manager has been invested as required under this part 2 and the authority's contract.

(8) Venture capital fund offering materials shall include the following statement:

The state of Colorado does not endorse the quality of management or the potential for earnings of such fund and is not liable for damages or losses to any investor in the fund or any other entity. Selection by the Colorado Venture Capital Authority to participate in this program does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the venture capital fund or its investments by the Colorado Venture Capital Authority.

(9) If a fund manager violates any applicable provision of this part 2 or any material provision of the authority's contract with the fund manager, the authority may require the fund manager to make a payment in an amount up to the amount of certified capital received by the fund manager in addition to penalties as determined by the authority. The payments shall be deposited in the enterprise fund. The authority may use additional remedies, as specified in its contract with a fund manager, to ensure appropriate oversight of the venture capital program. The authority shall conduct an annual review of each fund manager to determine its compliance with the requirements of this part 2 and its contract with the authority.

24-46-204. Venture capital tax credits - contributions to authority - report. (1) For tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2005, but no later than January 1, 2014, and subject to the requirements and limitations of this section, there shall be allowed to any qualified taxpayer a venture capital tax credit to be used against the taxpayer's premium tax liability. The authority shall issue tax credit certificates to qualified taxpayers with a total value of fifty million dollars to be taken by one or more qualified taxpayers at the rate of up to five million dollars per year for each of the calendar years from 2005 through 2014; except that if H.B. 04-1206 is enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, becomes law, and is subsequently declared to be unconstitutional by a final judgment that invalidates the tax credits enacted by such bill, the authority shall issue tax credit certificates to qualified taxpayers with a total value of one hundred million dollars to be taken by one or more qualified taxpayers at the rate of up to ten million dollars per year for each of the remaining calendar years through 2014. A qualified taxpayer shall submit the tax credit certificate with the taxpayer's tax return.
(2) Upon completion of the authority's competitive selection process for fund managers pursuant to section 24-46-203, but no earlier than January 31, 2004, and no later than December 1 of each year from 2005 until 2014, the authority shall issue a tax credit certificate to a qualified taxpayer pursuant to subsection (5) of this section and shall allocate certified capital contributed to the authority by the qualified taxpayer to one or more fund managers selected by the authority in accordance with section 24-46-203 (2).

(3) If the amount of the tax credit claimed by a qualified taxpayer exceeds the amount due on its premium tax liability in the tax year for which the tax credit is being claimed, the amount of the tax credit not used to offset taxes may be carried forward for up to ten years as tax credits against the qualified taxpayer's subsequent years' premium tax liability.

(4) A qualified taxpayer claiming a tax credit against premium tax liability earned through a contribution of certified capital to the authority shall not be required to pay any additional or retaliatory tax as a result of claiming the credit.

(5) (a) An insurance company shall become a qualified taxpayer if all of the conditions of the tax credit certificate and the following conditions are met:

(I) Pursuant to a form established by the authority, the insurance company shall make a timely and irrevocable offer, contingent only upon the authority's issuance to the insurance company of a tax credit certificate, to make a specified contribution of certified capital to the authority on dates specified by the authority. The offer shall include the requested amount of tax credits, the year for which the tax credits are requested, the insurance company's specified contribution for each tax credit dollar requested, which contribution shall be no less than eighty percent of the requested amount of tax credits, and any other information required by the authority.

(II) The authority shall issue a tax credit certificate to the insurance company. The tax credit certificate shall state the date by which cash contributions shall be made by the qualified taxpayer, the date by which tax credits shall be available for use by the qualified taxpayer, penalties and any other remedies for noncompliance, and any other requirements deemed necessary by the authority as a condition of issuing the tax credit certificate.

(III) Pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, the insurance company timely makes the contribution of certified capital to the authority specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(b) The authority shall establish and publicize to insurance companies:

(I) Deadlines for submitting irrevocable offers for contributions and for issuing tax credit certificates;

(II) Forms and requirements for offers and the content requirements of such offers; and

(III) Any other requirement determined to be necessary by the authority.

(c) (I) A tax credit certificate shall specify:

(A) An amount of money that a qualified taxpayer may claim as a tax credit pursuant to this section;

(B) The amount of certified capital that the qualified taxpayer has contributed or will contribute by the dates specified in the tax credit certificate;

(C) The calendar year in which the tax credits may be used against the qualified taxpayer's premium tax liability;

(D) Penalties and remedies in the event of noncompliance by the qualified taxpayer; and

(E) Other conditions deemed necessary by the authority.
(II) The authority shall continue to issue tax credit certificates in the order of the insurance companies that have offered to contribute the next highest value per tax credit dollar requested until the authority has issued five million dollars of tax credit certificates per year, or if H.B. 04-1206 is enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-fourth general assembly, becomes law, and is subsequently declared to be unconstitutional, until the authority has issued ten million dollars of tax credit certificates per year; except that the authority may issue tax credit certificates on an annual basis, a multi-year basis, or periodically as it deems necessary.

(6) On or before January 31, 2006, and on or before each succeeding January 31 until January 31, 2015, the authority shall provide a report to the division of insurance in the department of regulatory agencies. The report shall identify each qualified taxpayer for the tax year that ended during the prior calendar year by name and identifying number issued by the national association of insurance commissioners, or any analogous successor organization, and shall list the amount of the tax credits allowed to the qualified taxpayer.

(7) (a) To become a qualified taxpayer, an insurance company shall pay the specified amount of certified capital to the authority when due.

(b) (I) If an insurance company fails to make a payment of certified capital to the authority when due, the authority shall provide the insurance company with a notice by certified mail that the insurance company has fifteen working days to cure the defect. The fifteen-day period shall begin on the date the notice is postmarked.

(II) Failure by an insurance company to make the payment of certified capital by the end of the fifteenth working day shall result in an immediate forfeiture of any right to claim the tax credits. The authority shall be authorized to reallocate such tax credits to other qualified taxpayers as deemed necessary by the authority. Reallocation shall not diminish the authority's ability to use penalties and remedies as stated in the tax certificate.

(III) The authority shall assess penalties against a qualified taxpayer that fails to make the payment of certified capital by the end of the fifteenth working day as stated in the tax credit certificate and may pursue other remedies and actions as stated in the tax certificate.

Editor's note: House Bill 04-1206 referenced in subsections (1) and (5)(b)(II) was signed by the governor and became effective March 3, 2004.

24-46-205. Administrative expenses. All direct and indirect expenditures incurred by the authority in carrying out the responsibilities assigned in this part 2 shall be paid from the enterprise fund without the necessity of an appropriation by the general assembly.

24-46-206. Office - report. The office of economic development shall assist the authority in administering this part 2. The authority shall submit a report to the state auditor on February 1 of each year regarding the results of the implementation of this part 2.

24-46-207. Conflict of interest. No member or employee of the executive branch shall become an officer, director, employee, or consultant of or receive any compensation from the authority or a fund manager either during the term of the member or employee's employment with the executive branch or for six years after such term ends. However, this section shall not prohibit any employee of the Colorado office of economic development from staffing the authority or prohibit the authority from paying the office for costs of staffing the authority incurred by the office in providing staffing for the authority as required by section 24-46-202 (1)(d)(I).

PART 3

COLORADO REGIONAL TOURISM ACT

24-46-301. Short title. This part 3 shall be known and may be cited as the "Colorado Regional Tourism Act".

24-46-302. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
(a) The health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state of Colorado are enhanced by a diverse revenue stream, and the people of the state would benefit from an expansion of opportunities for investment in large-scale regional tourism projects that will attract significant investment and revenue from outside the state;
(b) Diversification of the state's economic base can contribute to much-needed economic stability;
(c) Colorado is in competition with other states to attract large-scale regional tourism projects;
(d) It is in the best interests of the people of the state to provide a financing mechanism for attracting, constructing, and operating large-scale regional tourism projects that will attract significant investment and revenue from outside the state; and
(e) In keeping with Colorado's tradition of local governments playing a significant role in land use and development projects, regional tourism projects should be proposed by a local government or by one or more local governments working together.

24-46-303. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Base year revenue" means the state sales tax revenue collected during the twelve-month period immediately prior to the month in which a regional tourism project is authorized, as determined by the department of revenue.
(1.5) "Baseline growth rate" means the forecasted growth in state sales tax revenue above the base year revenue that would be collected in a proposed regional tourism zone if the proposed regional tourism project did not occur, as determined pursuant to section 24-46-304 (1.5).

(2) "Commission" means the Colorado economic development commission created in section 24-46-102.

(3) "Director" means the director of the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

(4) "Eligible costs" means the costs of designing, constructing, financing, and maintaining eligible improvements designated by the commission as part of an approved regional tourism project, including but not limited to costs of engineering, construction engineering, surveying, construction surveying, construction labor and materials, design, planning, legal services, accounting, overhead or administrative staffing, financing, bond issuance or reissuance, underwriting, interest payments, loan origination fees, and similar necessary and convenient costs incurred by the financing entity in exercising its powers pursuant to this part 3. Moneys advanced by private developers within the regional tourism project to the financing entity for eligible improvements, whether pursuant to loans or contractual funding and reimbursement agreements, together with reasonable interest thereon, shall be eligible costs. In addition, the financing entity's costs for purchasing eligible improvements constructed and owned by third parties either prior to or subsequent to designation of the regional tourism project shall be eligible costs. Costs and expenses incurred by the financing entity pursuant to section 24-35-118 and in complying with its annual report and audit obligations under this part 3 shall be eligible costs.

(5) "Eligible improvements" means the specific improvements authorized by the commission as part of an approved regional tourism project, whether publicly or privately owned, including but not limited to storm sewer and sanitary sewer collection, conveyance, distribution, treatment, and related facilities and real property interests necessary or convenient thereto; potable and nonpotable water supplies and collection, conveyance, distribution, treatment, and related facilities and real property interests related thereto; roads; streets; state highways; rights-of-way; lighting; traffic signals and signs; direction and location signage and similar signage; land acquisition; surveying, engineering, soils testing, site planning, grading, and similar activities necessary or convenient for site preparation and development; park and recreational facilities; trails and paths; public safety facilities; landscaping; tourism and entertainment facilities; transportation facilities; surface and structured parking facilities; and any other facilities or improvements necessary to or convenient for the completion of an approved project.

(6) "Financing entity" means the entity designated by the commission in connection with its approval of a regional tourism project to receive and utilize state sales tax increment revenue. A financing entity may be a metropolitan district created pursuant to title 32, C.R.S., an urban renewal authority created pursuant to part 1 of article 25 of title 31, C.R.S., or any regional tourism authority to be formed pursuant to this part 3.

(7) "Financing term" means the aggregate period authorized by the commission pursuant to this part 3 within which the financing entity is authorized to receive and utilize state sales tax increment revenue to finance eligible costs.
"Gambling-related activities" means any betting, wagering, or payments made on or in connection with one or more games that qualify as gambling as defined in section 18-10-102 (2), C.R.S., or limited gaming as defined in section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution and section 12-47.1-103 (19), C.R.S.

"Local government" means a city, county, city and county, or town or a group of contiguous cities, counties, city and counties, or towns.

"Regional tourism authority" or "authority" means a corporate body organized pursuant to this part 3 for the purposes, with the powers, and subject to the restrictions set forth in this part 3 and the formation of which has been approved by the commission pursuant to this part 3.

"Regional tourism project" or "project" means a development project that is planned to include a tourism or entertainment facility together with ancillary uses, structures, and improvements, and that has been approved by the commission pursuant to this part 3.

"Regional tourism zone" means the geographic area defined by the commission as part of an approved regional tourism project. A regional tourism zone shall not extend into the territorial boundaries of any local government except for the local government that is requesting the designation of the regional tourism zone. A regional tourism zone may be limited to portions of a local government and may include noncontiguous tracts or parcels of property.

"State sales tax increment revenue" means the portion of the revenue derived from state sales taxes, including any revenue attributable to the baseline growth rate and not including any sales taxes for remote sales as specified in section 39-26-104 (2), C.R.S., collected within a designated regional tourism zone in excess of the amount of base year revenue.

"Tourism or entertainment facility" means a facility or group of interrelated facilities constructed primarily for use as a tourism or entertainment venue that is reasonably anticipated to draw a significant number of regional, national, or international patrons. A tourism or entertainment facility may include but need not be limited to museums, stadiums, arenas, major sports facilities, performing arts theaters, theme or amusement parks, conference center or resort hotels, or other similar venues. "Tourism or entertainment facility" shall not include any facility or group of interrelated facilities that directly or indirectly offer, make available, or facilitate in any manner one or more gambling-related activities.

24-46-304. Regional tourism project - application - requirements. (1) Any local government may apply for approval of a regional tourism project, including designation of a regional tourism zone, the creation of a regional tourism authority, and designation of a financing entity to receive, utilize, and disburse state sales tax increment revenue for eligible costs.
(a) Before a local government submits an application for a regional tourism project to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the local government shall submit a map showing the proposed boundaries of the proposed regional tourism zone to the office of state planning and budgeting. The office of state planning and budgeting, in conjunction with the Colorado office of economic development, shall determine the baseline growth rate for the area included in the proposed regional tourism zone. In determining the baseline growth rate, the office of state planning and budgeting and the Colorado office of economic development shall consider the growth rate in the area included in the proposed regional tourism zone during the previous five calendar years at a minimum.

(b) The office of state planning and budgeting may charge a local government a submission fee of up to three thousand dollars per submission for the costs incurred in determining the baseline growth rate.

(c) The local government and the third-party analyst retained pursuant to paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of this section shall use the baseline growth rate in their assumptions and economic analyses for the purpose of calculating the total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of the state sales tax increment revenue that can be dedicated to the proposed regional tourism project as required by paragraphs (h) and (i) of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A local government shall submit an application for a regional tourism project to the Colorado office of economic development in a form and manner to be determined by the commission. The office shall provide the commission with each application received after the director's review pursuant to section 24-46-305. The application shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) Maps of the proposed project area showing both current conditions and a conceptual rendering of the proposed project in its anticipated built condition;

(b) A map showing the proposed boundaries of the proposed regional tourism zone;

(c) A narrative description of the proposed project, including the location and estimated overall cost, estimated eligible costs, anticipated scope and phasing of eligible improvements, and the infrastructure existing or needed in connection with the project;

(d) A discussion of each of the application criteria and how the project will meet each of the criteria, including an economic analysis detailing projected economic development, impact on future state sales tax revenue during and after the financing term, the number of new jobs to be created by the project by job category as defined by the Colorado department of labor and employment occupational employment statistics survey and the wages and, to the extent that it is reasonably possible, information on health benefits for jobs in each category, market impact, anticipated regional and in-state competition, the ability to attract out-of-state tourists, the fiscal impact to local governments within and adjacent to the regional tourism zone, an analysis of the impact to local school districts and an estimate of the percentage of total program that the state will become responsible to fund through the state's share of total program pursuant to section 22-54-106, C.R.S., in the event that an urban renewal authority is the financing entity for the regional tourism project and uses property tax revenue to finance the project, and any other information reasonably requested by the commission;

(e) A description of the proposed financing entity, a general description of the financing entity's plan for financing the eligible costs and providing the eligible improvements, and whether authorization of a regional tourism authority is requested. A request for authorization of a regional tourism authority shall include a description of the proposed authority's geographic boundaries, requested powers, and anticipated sources of revenue, if any, in addition to state sales tax increment revenue.

(f) If it is anticipated that the financing entity will enter into contractual arrangements with one or more urban renewal authorities, metropolitan districts, local governments, or private parties with respect to the method of financing the eligible costs and providing eligible improvements, a general description of such contemplated contractual arrangements;

(g) If it is anticipated that the eligible improvements will be constructed in phases or that financing of the eligible costs will be accomplished in phases, a description of the contemplated phases and anticipated timing of the phases;

(h) The proposed financing term, the total cumulative dollar amount of revenue that can be allocated to the financing entity, the percentage of state sales tax increment revenue to be allocated to the financing entity, and the portion of the financing term during which such percentage is to be allocated to the financing entity. No single debt issuance of the financing entity shall have a maturity date in excess of thirty years; except that the financing term may exceed thirty years to the extent that the financing entity anticipates issuing a series of bonds or other forms of debt and provided that the financing entity shall have the ability to consolidate or refinance previously issued debt or bonds with a maturity date for such consolidated or refinanced debt or bonds not to exceed thirty years.

(i) Along with the economic analysis submitted with the application, a report by a third-party analyst who is an expert in the field of economic or public financial analysis calculating the total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of the state sales tax increment revenue that can be dedicated to the regional tourism project to be set by the commission pursuant to section 24-46-305 (3)(d). The applicant shall share its data and reasoning with the third-party analyst, and the analyst shall rely on such data and reasoning as it deems appropriate in the exercise of its independent judgment. An applicant dissatisfied with such report may revise its application and request report revisions. The reviewing third-party analyst shall be chosen through a request for proposals issued by the office of state planning and budgeting to ensure an independent and thorough analysis, and the third-party analyst shall report to that office. The office of state planning and budgeting shall charge an application fee to the applicant to pay the costs for the third-party analyst to:

(I) Assess the assumptions used in the application to estimate net new tourism revenues to Colorado;

(II) Calculate the total anticipated sales tax increment revenue in the proposed regional tourism zone;

(III) Calculate the amount and percentage of the total regional tourism zone sales tax increment revenue that each county and municipality that is a party to a multi-party application is eligible to receive; and

(IV) Assess the probability of the proposed project moving forward without funding from tax increment financing.

(3) An application by a local government for designation as a regional tourism project shall be approved by the commission upon a finding by the majority of the commissioners participating in the review of the application that the application demonstrates that each of the following criteria are materially met:
(a) The project is of an extraordinary and unique nature and is reasonably anticipated to contribute significantly to economic development and tourism in the state and the communities where the project is located;

(b) The project is reasonably anticipated to result in a substantial increase in out-of-state tourism;

(c) A significant portion of the sales tax revenue generated by the project is reasonably anticipated to be attributable to transactions with nonresidents of the state. An exception to this requirement may apply if a significant portion of the sales tax revenue generated by the project is reasonably anticipated to be attributable to residents of the state but the revenue would otherwise leave the state due to a lack of a similar project or facility in the state.

(d) The local government has provided reliable economic data demonstrating that, in the absence of state sales tax increment revenue, the project is not reasonably anticipated to be developed within the foreseeable future.

(4) The general assembly shall appropriate fifty thousand dollars to the office of state planning and budgeting for the 2014-15 state fiscal year to be used by the office for necessary and additional analytical work related to the proposed regional tourism projects.

24-46-305. Regional tourism project approval - director - commission - review. (1)

Upon receipt of a local government's application for a regional tourism project, the director or the director's designee shall review the application and shall make an initial determination regarding whether the application has met the criteria for a regional tourism project specified in section 24-46-304.

(2) (a) Upon review of each application for completeness, the director shall forward the application to any county or counties where the regional tourism project will be implemented and to municipalities adjacent to where the regional tourism project will be implemented for an opportunity to review the application and submit comments to the commission. The director shall provide such counties and municipalities with the application at least thirty days prior to the public hearing held pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. The director shall also forward the application to the commission with a recommendation that the commission approve or deny the application or approve the application with conditions; except that the commission shall not approve any project that, if approved, would likely create a state sales tax revenue dedication of more than fifty million dollars to all regional tourism projects in any given year.

(b) The commission shall not approve more than two initial projects pursuant to this subsection (2).

(c) On or after May 31, 2014, but prior to January 1, 2016, the commission may approve two new regional tourism projects.

(3) The commission shall hold a public hearing, subject to the provisions of the "Colorado Sunshine Act of 1972", article 6 of this title, to review and consider the application. After the hearing has been held, the commission shall review each application and give consideration to the director's recommendations. The commission shall take action on the application within a reasonable time after submission. If the commission approves the application, it shall adopt a resolution specifying the following:

(a) The local government that has been approved to undertake a regional tourism project;
(b) The area of the regional tourism zone;
(c) Whether the commission has authorized the creation of a regional tourism authority;
and

(d) The total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of the state sales tax increment revenue that will be dedicated to the regional tourism project. Such percentage shall be set at a value that in the best estimation of the commission will result in only the net new revenue likely created by the project and related development being dedicated to the financing entity and shall exclude any sales tax revenue the state would likely have received without the project and development. The total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of the sales tax increment revenue that can be dedicated to the regional tourism project shall not exceed the third-party analyst's calculation of the total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of sales tax increment revenue that can be dedicated to the regional tourism project, as reported pursuant to section 24-46-304 (2)(i), by more than fifty percent; except that the commission may determine a total cumulative dollar amount and percentage of the sales tax increment revenue that can be dedicated to the regional tourism project that exceeds the third-party analyst's calculations by more than fifty percent by a unanimous vote of all members of the commission.

(4) As part of the approval of a regional tourism project, the commission shall authorize the department of revenue to collect the percentage of the state sales tax increment revenue set by the commission pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of this section on behalf of the approved financing entity and shall authorize the financing entity to receive and utilize the state sales tax increment revenue for the duration of the financing term. In implementing such authorization, the department of revenue shall remit such revenue to the financing entity on a monthly basis promptly after collection. The commission shall authorize the utilization of the state sales tax increment revenue by the financing entity pursuant to this part 3 and any conditions of approval imposed by the commission and incorporated in writing into the commission's resolution of approval.

(4.5) The total amount of state sales tax increment revenue dedicated to the regional tourism project for the entire duration of the project shall not exceed the total cumulative dollar amount specified by the commission pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of this section.
The department of revenue shall track the annual and cumulative state sales tax increment revenue remitted to the financing entity for the project and shall notify the commission when cumulative payments approach the limits set by the commission for the commission's concurrence regarding the dollar limits. After the department of revenue has cumulatively remitted such total cumulative dollar amount to the financing entity pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, the department of revenue shall not remit any additional sales tax increment revenue from the state to the financing entity, even if the approved financing term is not completed. The department of revenue shall notify the commission if it is no longer remitting sales tax increment revenue to the financing entity because the financing entity has reached its total cumulative dollar amount of sales tax increment revenue.

(5) Following the commission's approval of an application, the commission shall promptly transmit written notice and a copy of the approval to the executive director of the department of revenue. Such transmittal shall include any information deemed necessary by the department of revenue to fulfill its obligations pursuant to this part 3.

and (3)(d) amended and (2)(c) and (4.5) added, (HB 14-1350), ch. 301, p. 1258, § 4, effective
May 31.

24-46-306. Regional tourism authority - board - creation - powers and duties. (1)
The commission shall not deny a request to authorize the creation of a regional tourism authority if the commission otherwise approves an application for a regional tourism project that includes a request for the formation of a regional tourism authority.

(2) A regional tourism authority, if authorized, shall be governed by a board consisting of the following members:

(a) If the applicant is a single local governmental entity, two members appointed by the commission who are owners of commercial property within the regional tourism zone and three members appointed by the local governmental entity. Of the members appointed by the local governmental entity, at least one member shall be a locally elected official and at least one member shall represent the community at large.

(b) If the applicant is two local governmental entities, three members appointed by the commission who are owners of commercial property within the regional tourism zone and two members appointed by each of the local governmental applicants. Of the members appointed by the local governmental applicants, at least one member shall be an elected official of the local government and at least one member shall represent the community at large.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection (2), if the applicant is more than two local governmental entities, a single member who is an elected official and a single member who represents the community at large appointed by each local governmental entity and one less than an equal number of commercial property owners within the tourism zone appointed by the commission.

(d) If the applicant is more than two local governmental entities that consist of more than two counties, a single member who is an elected official and a single member who represents the county at large appointed by each county governmental entity and one less than an equal number of commercial property owners within the regional tourism zone who are appointed by the commission.

(3) Unless limited by the commission's conditions of approval, each authority shall have all of the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effect the purposes and provisions of this part 3, including but not limited to the following powers:

(a) Perpetual existence and succession;
(b) To adopt, have, and use a corporate seal;
(c) To sue and be sued and to be a party to suits, actions, and proceedings;
(d) To undertake regional tourism projects;
(e) To enter into contracts and agreements affecting the affairs of the regional tourism authority as necessary to complete a regional tourism project;
(f) To receive, invest, pledge, spend, and otherwise utilize and expend state sales tax increment revenue in accordance with an approved regional tourism project;
(g) To assign and pledge to any metropolitan district or urban renewal authority having all or any portion of the regional tourism zone within its boundaries or service area the authority's right to receive and utilize state sales tax increment revenue to support bonds or other financing instruments issued or entered into by the metropolitan district or urban renewal authority for eligible costs or to acquire eligible improvements, including but not limited to loans or funding and reimbursement agreements with developers involved in the regional tourism project or other third parties;

(h) To borrow money and incur indebtedness and evidence the same by certificates and note and debentures, to issue bonds, and to invest any moneys of the authority not required for immediate disbursement in property or in securities in which public bodies may legally invest funds subject to their control pursuant to part 6 of article 75 of this title;

(i) To deposit any moneys not required for immediate disbursement in any depository authorized in section 24-75-603 and, for the purpose of making such deposits, to appoint by written resolution one or more persons to act as custodians of the moneys of the authority, which person or persons shall give surety bonds in the amounts and form and for the purposes as the authority requires;

(j) To make such appropriations and expenditures of its funds and to set up, establish, and maintain such general, separate, or special funds and bank accounts or other accounts as it deems necessary or convenient to carry out and effect the purposes and provisions of this part 3;

(k) To accept on behalf of the regional tourism authority real or personal property for the use of the authority and to accept gifts and conveyances made to the authority upon such terms or conditions as the board of the authority may approve;

(l) To adopt, amend, and enforce bylaws and rules that are not in conflict with the constitution and laws of the state for carrying out the business, objects, and affairs of the authority;

(m) To have and exercise all rights and powers necessary or incidental to or implied from the specific powers granted to the regional tourism authority by this part 3. Such specific powers shall not be considered as a limitation upon any power necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes and intent of this part 3; and

(n) To authorize the use of electronic records or signatures and to adopt rules, standards, policies, and procedures for use of electronic records or signatures pursuant to article 71.3 of this title.

(4) A regional tourism authority shall not have the power of eminent domain and shall not have the power to impose or levy any sales tax, use tax, property tax, or any other tax.

24-46-307. State sales tax increment revenue. (1) In order to implement the collection of state sales tax increment revenue, the resolution adopted by the commission approving a regional tourism project shall state that state sales taxes, if any, levied and collected after the effective date of the commission's approval of the project shall be divided and distributed by the department of revenue as follows:

(a) The portion of state sales taxes collected within the boundaries of the regional tourism zone equal to the base year revenue shall be paid into the state treasury as such state sales taxes are normally collected and paid; and

(b) The portion of sales tax revenue in excess of the base year revenue shall be allocated to and, when collected, paid into a special fund established by the financing entity. The financing entity shall segregate such revenue from other moneys of the financing entity, if any, and shall utilize such sales tax revenue solely to finance eligible costs incurred for the purpose of constructing the eligible improvements and implementing the regional tourism project. The special fund may be used, without limitation, to pay the principal of, the interest on, and any premiums due in connection with the bonds of, loans or advances to, or indebtedness incurred by, whether funded, refunded, assumed, or otherwise, such financing entity for financing or refinancing, in whole or in part, a regional tourism project. Any excess state sales tax collections not allocated pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall be paid into the funds of the state treasury.

(2) State sales tax increment revenue, together with any investment income earned thereon, shall be construed and treated for all purposes as being assigned to, the property of, and the revenue of the applicable financing entity and shall not be construed or treated for any purpose as revenue or property of the state.

24-46-308. Annual report - audit. (1) Within ninety days of the end of the first full state fiscal year after the commission approves a regional tourism project and on the same date each year thereafter, the financing entity shall prepare and submit to the commission an annual report detailing the total amount of state sales tax increment revenue that the regional tourism project has collected over the past year, how such revenue has been spent, projected revenue for the remainder of the period for which the regional tourism project may collect state sales tax increment revenue, and a summary of the status of construction of the eligible improvements. If any information provided in the annual report is a trade secret, proprietary, or otherwise entitled to protection pursuant to article 72 of this title, it shall be so designated and shall be kept confidential by the state. The governing body of the financing entity shall attest to the accuracy of the information provided in the annual report.

(2) With the annual report, a financing entity shall submit an independent audit of its financial status that is prepared by a certified public accountant attesting to the accuracy of the annual report. In the report, the financing entity shall state whether any state sales tax increment revenue is being used for purposes other than for eligible costs, and any other financial information that is reasonably required by the commission.

(3) If the audit finds that state sales tax increment revenue has been used for unauthorized purposes, the financing entity shall be liable for the repayment of such state sales tax increment revenue to the project or to the general fund of the state. The repayment may be made from moneys of the financing entity derived from sources other than state sales tax increment revenue, if any, by offset against future state sales tax increment revenue that otherwise would be disbursed to it by the department of revenue, or from other moneys that are legally available to the financing entity for such purpose.
(4) If the financing entity is a metropolitan district or an urban renewal authority, it may comply with the requirements of this section by submitting to the commission a copy of the report that the metropolitan district or urban renewal authority is otherwise required to submit to a local government pursuant to law. Such copy shall be delivered to the commission concurrently with the delivery of the annual report and audit when otherwise required by law.

(5) The Colorado office of economic development and the department of revenue shall prepare a report to be submitted by the office no later than November 1 of the applicable fiscal year to the finance committees of the house of representatives and senate, the business and economic development committee of the house of representatives, and the business, labor, and technology committee of the senate, or any successor committees. The report shall present information on all tax expenditures for regional tourism economic development during the prior fiscal year and shall include information from the reports required pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(6) (a) Each year, no later than September 1, the department of revenue shall report the aggregate amount of state sales tax increment revenue diverted to financing entities for approved projects.

(b) Every two years, no later than September 1, the Colorado office of economic development and the department of revenue shall report detailed information on each project approved to receive state sales tax increment revenue, including but not necessarily limited to:

(I) The name, address, and contact for each recipient;
(II) The amount of sales tax revenue diverted for the project;
(III) The boundaries of the approved regional tourism zone and narrative for the project;
(IV) The proposed term of financing and the percent of the new net revenue that is approved for the project;
(V) The actual state sales tax revenue collected within the zone compared to the projected revenues contained in the approved application;
(VI) The number of net new jobs directly created by the project in each category as defined by the Colorado department of labor and employment occupation employment statistics survey and the wages and health benefits for jobs in each category; and
(VII) An assessment of the overall effectiveness of the project.

24-46-309. Commencement of development. (1) Substantial work on a regional tourism project, including but not limited to the financing entity's issuance of bonds or other debt instruments, the repayment of which is secured by a pledge of the state sales tax increment revenue or the commencement of actual development or predevelopment, such as erecting permanent structures, excavating the ground to lay foundations, mass grading of the site, or work of a similar description that manifests an intention and purpose to complete the project shall commence within five years from the date of approval of the project by the commission.

(2) If substantial work on the regional tourism project toward the goals specified in the application pursuant to section 24-46-304 does not commence within five years of approval by the commission, the commission may revoke or modify its approval of the financing entity or the regional tourism project. Revocation of approval may be appealed to the commission, which may reinstate its approval upon a showing of good cause for the delay. Any state sales tax increment revenue that the regional tourism project has generated from the time of the original approval for the project may remain dedicated to the project to the extent that it has been previously expended or pledged by the financing entity for the financing of eligible costs. If substantial work on the regional tourism project does not commence within one year of reinstatement of approval from the commission, the commission shall revoke approval of the project.

(3) If the commission revokes its approval of the financing entity or the regional tourism project, the commission may require that any state sales tax increment revenue collected during that period, together with investment income earned thereon, that was not previously expended or pledged by the financing entity for the financing of eligible costs shall be refunded to the state treasurer, and no further moneys shall be remitted by the state.

(4) In evaluating whether substantial work has been commenced for purposes of administering this section, the commission shall rely on the information and data supplied in the annual reports submitted pursuant to section 24-46-308. The commission shall have authority to revoke its approval of a financing entity or a regional tourism project only pursuant to this section.

24-46-310. Issuance of bonds by a financing entity. (1) A financing entity may issue bonds from time to time in its discretion to finance any eligible improvements with respect to a regional tourism project and may also issue refunding or other bonds of the financing entity from time to time in its discretion for the payment, retirement, renewal, or extension of any bonds previously issued by the financing entity under this section and to provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed, or mutilated bonds previously issued under this section.

(2) (a) Bonds issued under this section may be general obligation bonds of the financing entity, the payment of which, as to principal and interest and premiums, if any, the full faith, credit, and assets, acquired and to be acquired, of the financing entity are irrevocably pledged.

(b) Bonds issued under this section may be special obligations of the financing entity that, as to principal and interest and premiums, if any, are payable solely from and secured only by a pledge of any income, proceeds, revenues, or funds of the financing entity, including, without limitation, state sales tax increment revenue.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any bonds issued under this section may be additionally secured as to the payment of the principal and interest and premiums, if any, by a mortgage of any regional tourism project, or any part thereof, title to which is then or thereafter in the financing entity or of any other real or personal property or interests therein then owned or thereafter acquired by the financing entity.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, general obligation bonds issued under this section may be additionally secured as to the payment of the principal and interest and premiums, if any, as provided in subsection (2) of this section, with or without being also additionally secured as to payment of the principal and interest and premiums, if any, by a mortgage as provided in subsection (3) of this section or a trust agreement as provided in subsection (5) of this section.
(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any bonds issued under this section may be additionally secured as to the payment of the principal and interest and premiums, if any, by a trust agreement by and between the financing entity and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state.

(6) Bonds issued under this section shall not constitute an indebtedness of the state or of any county, municipality, or public body of the state other than the financing entity issuing such bonds and shall not be subject to the provisions of any other law or of the charter of any municipality relating to the authorization, issuance, or sale of bonds.

(7) Bonds issued under this section shall be authorized by a resolution of the financing entity and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date, be payable upon demand or mature at such time, bear interest at such rate, be in such denomination, be in such form, either coupon or registered or otherwise, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in the name of the financing entity in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, be payable at such place, be subject to such callability provisions or terms of redemption, with or without premiums, be secured in such manner, be of such description, contain or be subject to such covenants, provisions, terms, conditions, and agreements, including provisions concerning events of default, and have such other characteristics as may be provided by such resolution or by the trust agreement, indenture, or mortgage, if any, issued pursuant to such resolution. The seal, or a facsimile thereof, of the financing entity shall be affixed, imprinted, engraved, or otherwise reproduced upon each of its bonds issued under this section. Bonds issued under this section shall be executed in the name of the financing entity by the manual or facsimile signatures of such officials as may be designated in said resolution or trust agreement, indenture, or mortgage; except that at least one signature on each such bond shall be a manual signature. Coupons, if any, attached to such bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of such official of the financing entity as may be designated as provided in this subsection (7). Said resolution or trust agreement, indenture, or mortgage may provide for the authentication of the pertinent bonds by the trustee.

(8) Bonds issued under this section may be sold by the financing entity in such manner and for such price as the financing entity, in its discretion, may determine, at par, below par, or above par, at private sale or at public sale after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having general circulation in the municipality, or in such other medium of publication as the financing entity may deem appropriate, or may be exchanged by the financing entity for other bonds issued by it under this section.

(9) If any of the officials of the financing entity whose signatures or facsimile signatures appear on any of its bonds or coupons issued under this section cease to be such officials before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures or facsimile signatures, as the case may be, shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officials had remained in office until such delivery.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any bonds that are issued pursuant to this section are fully negotiable.

(11) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond that is issued under this section or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the financing entity in connection with a regional tourism project or any activity or operation of the financing entity under this part 3 shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes; and such regional tourism project or such operation or activity, as the case may be, shall be conclusively deemed to have been initiated, planned, located, undertaken, accomplished, and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this part 3.

(12) Pending the preparation of any definitive bonds under this section, a financing entity may issue its interim certificates or receipts or its temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for such definitive bonds when the latter have been executed and are available for delivery.

(13) A person retained or employed by a financing entity as an advisor or a consultant for the purpose of rendering financial advice and assistance may purchase or participate in the purchase or distribution of its bonds when such bonds are offered at public or private sale.

(14) No commissioner or other officer of a financing entity issuing bonds under this section and no person executing such bonds is liable personally on such bonds or is subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(15) No commissioner or other officer of a regional tourism authority issuing bonds pursuant to this part 3 and no person executing such bonds shall be liable personally on such bonds or shall be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds.

(16) Bonds that are issued pursuant to this part 3 are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempted from all taxes.

ARTICLE 46.1

Economic Development
Central Information System

24-46.1-101. Economic development central information system - information - availability. (1) There shall be coordinated by the state library and adult education office of the department of education an economic development central information system. The system shall provide access to information as available pursuant to subsection (3) of this section that would be useful to the economic community, businesses and industries making investment and employment decisions, local chambers of commerce, county and municipal governments, planning agencies, real estate brokers, small business owners, researchers, and others providing data and information services in this state. The system may include information that the state departments and agencies listed in subsection (2) of this section provide for general public use.

(2) The following state departments and agencies may identify the information set forth in subsection (3) of this section that the department or agency provides for general public use:

(a) Repealed.
(b) The department of agriculture;
(c) The department of education;
(d) The department of health care policy and financing;

(m) Natural resource, mining, and forestry data;
(n) Application and licensing requirements;
(o) All state licensed, registered, or certified businesses or individuals;
(p) Calendars of events, training, or other state business services; and
(q) All other public business and economic development information requested of the state library and adult education office by those using the central information system.
(4) On or before July 1, 1997, each department or agency may provide the information such as that identified in subsection (3) of this section that it provides for general public use to the state library and adult education office of the department of education for inclusion in the central information system and distribution through the access Colorado library and information network. Each department or agency shall provide the information in an open system architecture in cooperation with the office of information technology, created in section 24-37.5-103, and shall update the information as needed to keep the information current.

(5) Any department or agency collecting a fee prior to October 1, 1995, for information that the department or agency will include in the central information system may continue to charge that fee for the information after it is included in the system.

(6) The state library and adult education office of the department of education shall work with the office of information technology, created in section 24-37.5-103, to ensure each department or agency supplies its data to the access Colorado library and information network in the open system architecture, the confidentiality of proprietary information, and the integrity of state computer system security.

(7) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
(a) "Access Colorado library and information network" means a network of decentralized computer servers providing access to library and government information resources for the general public with access points distributed throughout the state.
(b) "Central information system" means state government information, organized for public access through an integrated menu, whether the information is located on one computer server or a series of connected computer servers.

PART 1

WORK FORCE DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL
24-46.3-101. State work force development council - creation - membership - funding through gifts, grants, and donations - talent pipeline cash fund. (1) There is hereby created within the department of labor and employment, also referred to in this article as the "department", the state work force development council, also referred to in this article as the "state council". The state council shall be established as a state work force development board in accordance with the federal "Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act", 29 U.S.C. sec. 3101 et seq., as amended, also referred to in this article as the "federal act".

(2) Membership of the state council must include:
(a) The governor;
(b) Two members of the house of representatives from different political parties one appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; and two members of the senate from different political parties, one appointed by the president of the senate and one appointed by the minority leader of the senate;
(c) Representatives of business in the state, appointed by the governor, who are:
(I) Owners of businesses, chief executives or operating officers of businesses, and other business executives or employers with optimum policy-making or hiring authority, including members of local work force investment boards as specified in part 2 of article 83 of title 8, C.R.S.;
(II) Representatives of businesses with employment opportunities that reflect the employment opportunities in the state;
(III) Representatives that are appointed from among individuals nominated by state business organizations and business trade associations;
(d) Other members appointed by the governor, who are:
(I) Local elected officials;
(II) Representatives of labor organizations, nominated by state labor federations;
(III) Representatives of organizations and individuals that have experience with respect to youth activities;
(IV) Representatives of organizations and individuals that have experience and expertise in the delivery of work force investment activities, including chief executive officers of community colleges, area technical colleges, and community-based organizations in the state;
(V) The lead state agency officials with responsibility for the programs and activities authorized in the federal act for the establishment of one-stop systems and carried out by the partners at the one-stop career centers. If no lead state agency official has responsibility for such programs or activities, membership shall include a representative in the state with expertise relating to such programs or activities.
(VI) Such other representatives as the governor may designate, including persons with disabilities who can represent statewide cross-disability issues, which may include nonvoting members.

(3) For the purposes of determining a conflict of interest by any member of the state council, a member of the state council may not vote on matters under consideration by the state council regarding the provision of services by such member that would provide direct financial benefit to such member or the immediate family of such member, or engage in any other activity determined by the governor to constitute a conflict of interest as specified in the state plan.
(4) Members of the state council that represent organizations, agencies, or other entities shall be individuals with optimum policy-making authority within such organizations, agencies, or entities. The members of the state council shall represent diverse regions of the state, including urban, rural, and suburban areas.

(5) A majority of the voting members of the state council shall be representatives of business as described in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section. The governor shall appoint a chairperson of the state council from one of the representatives of business as described in said paragraph (c).

(6) In order to create a small-voting-member state council consistent with the requirements of the federal act, state council members may be appointed to satisfy more than one of the membership categories specified in the federal act for the state work force investment board.

(7) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7), the voting state council members that are members of the general assembly shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker of the house of representatives and president of the senate and shall continue in office until the member's successor is appointed. Lead state agency officials and nonvoting members shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. All other members shall initially serve for staggered terms of one, two, and three years, as designated by the governor upon their appointment.

(b) The terms of the members appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate and who are serving on March 22, 2007, shall be extended to and expire on or shall terminate on the convening date of the first regular session of the sixty-seventh general assembly. As soon as practicable after such convening date, the speaker and the president shall appoint or reappoint members in the same manner as provided in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section. Thereafter, the terms of the members appointed or reappointed by the speaker and the president shall expire on the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly, and all subsequent appointments and reappointments by the speaker and the president shall be made as soon as practicable after such convening date. The person making the original appointment or reappointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term.

(8) The staff of the department, in consultation with the state council and governor, shall establish an annual budget for basic state council functions, activities, meetings, travel, per diem, reports, and staff. Funding for the state council's budget shall come from a portion of the administrative money available to the mandatory and additional federal partner programs specified in 29 U.S.C. sec. 3151 (b)(1) and (b)(2). The amount of the administrative money from each mandatory and additional federal partner program to be transferred to the state council shall be determined by the office of state planning and budgeting, proportionate to the annual federal partner program or activity grant amounts to the state and appropriated by the general assembly. In addition to the federal partner programs grant funding, the state council shall seek other federal, state, and private grants, gifts, and contributions to fund state council special duties, demonstration projects, and initiatives.

(9) The members of the state council appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section are entitled to receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses as provided in section 2-2-326, C.R.S.

(10) The state council is authorized to seek and accept gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of this article; except that the state council may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this article or any other law of the state. The state council shall transmit all private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the talent pipeline cash fund created in subsection (11) of this section.

(11) (a) The talent pipeline cash fund, referred to in this subsection (11) as the "fund", is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of any moneys that the state council receives from gifts, grants, or donations pursuant to subsection (10) of this section.

(b) The moneys in the fund are annually appropriated to the state council to provide action grants to talent pipeline projects.

(c) All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund are credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund.

(12) (a) The members of the executive committee of the state council shall serve as members of the Colorado opportunity scholarship initiative advisory board created pursuant to section 23-3.3-1004, C.R.S.

(b) The executive committee of the state council shall identify staff members within the department of education created pursuant to section 24-1-115, the department of higher education created pursuant to section 24-1-114, and the department of labor and employment created pursuant to section 24-1-121 who shall be charged with assisting the state council in fulfilling its duties pursuant to this subsection (12).

Editor's note: The effective date for amendments to this section by House Bill 12-1120 (chapter 27, Session Laws of Colorado 2012) was changed from August 8, 2012, to June 1, 2012, by House Bill 12S-1002 (First Extraordinary Session, chapter 2, p. 2432, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.)

24-46.3-102. Transfer of functions. (1) The staff of the department shall, on and after July 1, 2008, execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested in the office of work force development prior to said date concerning the duties and functions transferred to the staff of the department pursuant to this section.

(2) (a) On and after July 1, 2008, the officers and employees of the office of work force development prior to said date whose duties and functions concerned the duties and functions transferred to the staff of the department pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the department.

(b) Any such employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolition of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and regulations.

(3) On July 1, 2008, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the office of work force development prior to said date pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the staff of the department pursuant to this section, are transferred to the department and become the property thereof.

(4) Whenever the office of work force development is referred to or designated by a contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the staff of the department pursuant to this article, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the department. All contracts entered into by the office of work force development prior to July 1, 2008, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the staff of the department pursuant to this section are hereby validated, with the department succeeding to all the rights and obligations of such contracts. Any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to such contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to the department for the payment of such obligations.

24-46.3-103. Key industries talent pipeline working group. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) Colorado's economy is diverse and constantly changing and its key industries are dependent on an accurately skilled workforce to continue to thrive;

(II) Colorado's key industry employers continue to lack the skilled workers they need to stay and grow in the state;

(III) Coloradans miss opportunities for good jobs in growing industries because they do not have access to the right education, training, or adequate hands-on experience at the right time to secure employment;

(IV) Providing clear access to industry-driven career pathways for education and employment advancement can result in long-term improvements in the economic well-being of Coloradans and will provide industries with the talent pipeline needed to thrive now and in the future;

(V) Creating a coordinated system to advance the skills and educational attainment of Coloradans across workforce development and education, in alignment with economic development goals, and in partnership with industry is the most promising way to advance Coloradans and supply industry with the talent it demands;

(VI) Deep, authentic, and ongoing employer engagement and input is critical to ensure that education and training programs are aligned with the real and current needs of industry; and
(VII) Sector partnerships are a proven, established model of engaging employers and coordinating workforce development, economic development, and education in response to the needs of industry and on behalf of workers seeking good jobs.

(b) The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that it will be beneficial to create a working group with the state council comprised of representatives from the relevant state departments and offices to discuss and determine the most effective way to use sector partnerships at the regional level to align workforce development, economic development, and education in the state to the needs of key industries.

(2) The state council, the department of higher education, the department of labor and employment, and the Colorado office of economic development shall work collaboratively to:

(a) Discuss and determine needs across key industries and occupations including challenges and opportunities in developing and growing relevant talent pipelines;

(b) Ensure that the talent pipeline development infrastructure includes:
   (I) A listening process to collect workforce needs for key industries' employers;
   (II) Curriculum alignment for high-demand occupation skill needs;
   (III) Occupation-aligned education and training options with a clearly articulated progression;
   (IV) Skills assessments; and
   (V) Academic career counseling;

(c) Utilize sector partnerships to:
   (I) Advise the development of career pathway programs for critical occupations in key industries; and
   (II) Ensure the coordination of education and workforce initiatives to develop a strong talent pipeline; and

(d) Utilize existing measures and data systems to improve systems alignment and inter-agency communication.

(3) (a) In doing the work specified in subsection (2) of this section, the state council, in partnership with the department of higher education, the department of education, the department of labor and employment, and the Colorado office of economic development, shall coordinate the production of an annual Colorado talent report. In preparing the annual Colorado talent report, the state council, the departments, and the office may use previously collected data and are not required to collect new data for the purposes of the report. The talent report shall:
   (I) Take into consideration the data contained in the annual job skills report produced by the department of higher education and use such data to inform workforce development issues across key industries;
   (II) Utilize state-level data generated from state-level sources whenever possible;
   (III) Utilize and, as appropriate, expand existing data-sharing agreements between agencies and partners;
   (IV) Provide a progress report on the status of career pathway programs targeted at key industries;
   (V) Provide an analysis of data regarding the skills required for key industry jobs;
   (VI) Include recommendations related to advancing talent pipeline and career pathways development;
Include recommendations regarding the alignment and consistency of data nomenclature, collection practices, and data-sharing. The recommendations shall not allow the disclosure of the personally identifiable information of a student enrolled in kindergarten or one of grades one through twelve without informed written permission from the student's parent or legal guardian. The recommendations may disclose de-identified, anonymous, or aggregate kindergarten-through-twelfth-grade student data without permission from a parent or legal guardian.

Include the report and recommendations from the department of labor and employment regarding pre-apprenticeship and apprenticeship in Colorado, prepared as required by section 8-15-101, C.R.S.; and Include the report regarding the industry infrastructure grant program, prepared as required by section 24-46.3-405.

(b) The heads of the department of higher education, the department of education, the department of labor and employment, and the Colorado office of economic development shall include the recommendations from the state council, and any comments they may wish to add concerning the recommendations, to the house of representatives and senate committees of reference with jurisdiction over business issues by January 1, 2015. The heads of the departments shall annually present such recommendations and comments during the legislative hearings required pursuant to the "State Measurement for Accountable, Responsive, and Transparent (SMART) Government Act", part 2 of article 7 of title 2, C.R.S.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsections (3)(a)(VI) and (3)(a)(VII) by HB 16-1287 and HB 16-1288 were harmonized.

24-46.3-104. Career pathways - design - definitions - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds that creating industry-driven career pathways for education assists students in entering the work force and provides industries with the talent pipeline necessary to fuel Colorado's economy. Recognizing the need for the coordinated development of career pathways for students, the general assembly enacted section 24-46.3-103 in 2014, tasking the state council to work collaboratively with the department of higher education, the department of education, the department of labor and employment, and the Colorado office of economic development to create the talent pipeline development infrastructure for use in creating career pathways for students. Creating career pathways for growing Colorado industries with occupations in high demand will:

(a) Increase the number of Colorado citizens accessing postsecondary education and apprenticeships;
(b) Increase the number of Colorado citizens completing degrees, apprenticeships, and other credentials;

(c) Decrease the need for remediation at the postsecondary level;

(d) Increase entry into employment and increase wages over time;

(e) Create better transitions for students in the career pathways from high school, community colleges, or adult education programs to apprenticeships, higher education, or into the work force;

(f) Create better connections between postsecondary and work force readiness initiatives in high school and adult work force programs; and

(g) Through partnerships with industry, assist students in obtaining work experience and employment during and after participation in educational programs.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Apprenticeship" means a registered apprenticeship program with a written plan that is designed to move an apprentice from a low- or no-skill entry-level position to full occupational proficiency. The program must comply with the parameters established under the "National Apprenticeship Act", 29 U.S.C. sec. 50, as amended, and its promulgating regulations, and administered by the United State's department of labor's office of apprenticeship. An individual business, an employer association, or a labor organization sponsors a registered apprenticeship. Upon finishing a training program, the apprentice earns a "completion of registered apprenticeship" certificate, which is an industry-issued and nationally recognized credential that validates proficiency in a apprenticeable occupation.

(b) "Career pathway" means a series of connected education and training strategies and support services that enable individuals to secure industry-relevant skills and certification where applicable, to obtain employment within an occupational area, and to advance to higher levels of future education and employment.

(c) "Critical occupations" means top jobs or employment in jobs that lead to top jobs.

(d) "Growing industries" means industries that are projected to create new jobs annually for at least the next ten years.

(e) "Partners" means, at a minimum, state agencies and organizations described in section 24-46.3-103, the state board for community colleges and occupational education created in section 23-60-104, C.R.S., and interested postsecondary education providers.

(f) "State council" means the Colorado work force development council created in section 24-46.3-101.

(g) "Top jobs" means jobs that have strong projected average openings per year for ten years and pay a living wage as defined in the Colorado talent pipeline report prepared pursuant to section 24-46.3-103.

(3) (a) The state council, in collaboration with its partners and after consulting with local work force boards, and a task force within the department of education consisting of leadership from the department of education and superintendents of local school districts, shall design integrated career pathways for students within industry sectors identified in the annual Colorado talent report prepared pursuant to section 24-46.3-103 that are growing industries and that have critical occupations that are without clearly articulated career pathways.

(b) (I) In collaboration with its partners pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the state council shall:
(A) Design at least one career pathway that is ready for implementation by or before the 2016-17 academic year for critical occupations in a growing industry; and

(B) Design at least two career pathways that are ready for implementation at the beginning of each subsequent academic year for critical occupations in growing industries.

(II) Based on the top jobs listing in the talent pipeline report prepared in January 2014, the first three growing industries for design of a career pathway are construction and related skilled trades, information technology, and health care.

(c) Industry, through regional sector partnerships, and statewide trade associations shall review each career pathway annually to ensure that the career pathway remains relevant to the industry and shall provide input for ongoing adjustments to the career pathway to meet workforce needs.

(d) Career pathways designed pursuant to this section shall include:

(I) Apprenticeship and other work-based learning options when relevant to the career pathway and available in the state;

(II) Direct alignment with postsecondary and workforce readiness and individual career and academic plans in high schools. The department of education and local school districts through postsecondary and workforce readiness coordinators shall partner with the state council to achieve the alignment.

(III) Initiatives for adult and out-of-school youth when relevant to the career pathway and available.

(4) In designing career pathways, the state council shall:

(a) Coordinate the career pathway work group made up of all partners' subject matter experts to ensure that career pathways are comprehensive and integrated across secondary, postsecondary, workforce, and industry education and training programs and to ensure that all partners are engaged in the design of the career pathways; and

(b) Use the sector partnership model and relationships with statewide trade associations to ensure that all career pathways are industry driven and relevant. A career pathway shall not be designed without active industry engagement throughout the process, from the beginning of the process through the final career pathway that is ready for implementation.

(5) The state council and partners shall use the model developed to create the manufacturing career pathway pursuant to section 23-60-1003, C.R.S., including any improvements to the model based upon the implementation of the manufacturing career pathway. Consistent with the manufacturing career pathway, career pathways created pursuant to this section must have the components described in section 23-60-1003 (2), C.R.S., as they relate to the specific career pathway being created.

(6) Once a career pathway is completed pursuant to this section, the state council shall facilitate outreach and training related to advising students on the career pathways for all partners involved in implementing the career pathway, as well as other local, regional, or state entities that are interested in promoting the career pathway to students.

(7) (a) Once a career pathway is completed pursuant to this section, the state council shall collaborate with the department of higher education and the department of labor and employment to create a microsite concerning the career pathway on a state-provided, free online resource. At a minimum, the following information must be included:

(I) Industry-sector career awareness;

(II) Salary and wage information for the industry-sector career;
(III) The industry-sector employment forecast;
(IV) Information on programs within the career pathway, services provided, and financial aid opportunities for students; and
(V) Online student support services.

(b) The state council may use moneys credited to the talent pipeline cash fund, created in section 24-46.3-101, to add additional information and tools to a career pathways microsite, similar to the information and tools provided in the microsite relating to the manufacturing career pathway.

24-46.3-105. Innovative industries workforce development program - legislative declaration - definitions - appropriation - repeal. (1) (a) The general assembly finds and declares that:
(I) Innovative industries have high projected growth rates and are a critical component of the state's economic development and job creation;
(II) Finding qualified employees can be a challenge for innovative-industry businesses;
(III) Many twenty-first-century jobs in the innovative industries require formalized postsecondary training or education;
(IV) Students in Colorado high schools and colleges could benefit from exposure to career employment opportunities in the innovative industries;
(V) Internships are a recognized way to build a talent pipeline and career pathway to align education, training, and work-based learning;
(VI) Internships create opportunities for businesses to find, train, and evaluate potential long-term employees and for students to get real-world work experience while exploring career options;
(VII) Internships create opportunities for historically underrepresented communities to participate in innovative industries and thereby fully contribute to one of Colorado's fastest growing economic sectors;
(VIII) By offering incentives to businesses to create internships, the state will encourage businesses to create more opportunities for students to obtain work experience in the innovative industries.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly to create a new program to partially reimburse companies that offer high-level internships in the innovative industries.

(2) As used in this section:
(a) "Department" means the department of labor and employment.
(b) "Division" means the division of employment and training in the department, created in section 8-83-102, C.R.S.
(c) "Innovative industry" means advanced manufacturing, aerospace, bioscience, construction, electronics, energy and natural resources, engineering, and information technology industries, and any other innovative industry as determined by the department.
(d) "Intermediary" means an association that represents an innovative-industry sector that has entered into an agreement with the state council under subparagraph (II) of paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section.
(e) "Program" means the innovative industries workforce development program created in subsection (3) of this section.

(f) "Qualifying internship" means an internship that meets the requirements under subsection (4) of this section.

(g) "State council" means the state work force development council established in section 24-46.3-101.

(3) (a) The innovative industries workforce development program is created in the department for the purpose of providing reimbursement for qualifying internships. The program is jointly administered by the state council and the division, with the state council providing oversight and strategic administration and the division providing operational administration.

(b) (I) Beginning October 1, 2015, the division may reimburse a business for up to one-half of its expenses related to a qualifying internship, subject to available appropriations. At least eighty percent of the businesses receiving reimbursement moneys must have less than one hundred employees. A business may be reimbursed for up to five interns per location and up to ten interns total at all locations, but the maximum amount that a business may be reimbursed for each internship is five thousand dollars. At least half of the reimbursement amount must be paid to the intern. To be reimbursed, a business must receive approval for the reimbursement from the division prior to the start of the qualifying internship. The division shall pay the business at least the preapproved amount for a qualifying internship but may not make the payment until after the internship has been completed. The state council shall:

(A) Provide technical assistance to the division and integrate the program with existing workforce development, secondary education, postsecondary education, and economic development infrastructure and resources, including producing links to and from the state council's and division's websites; and

(B) Establish a partnership with secondary and postsecondary educational institutions, including community colleges, and workforce centers to market the program to interested students and assist with identification of students and verification of appropriate course work.

(II) The state council may enter into an agreement with one or more intermediaries to facilitate outreach to employers, market the program, develop the intern curriculum, and identify work experience opportunities in their respective innovative industries. The state council may provide for each intermediary to be paid up to ten thousand dollars for its services. The state council may not use more than one intermediary for each innovative-industry sector. The division shall pay an intermediary for its services, as directed by the state council.

(III) The division shall develop a program schedule for the initial and final application processes and reimbursement. The division shall create an initial application form for reimbursement that includes the following information about the internship:

(A) Names of the business and intern;

(B) Location;

(C) Number of employees;

(D) Focus area;

(E) Description of the internship curriculum;

(F) Duration;

(G) Information identifying that it is a qualifying internship;

(H) The amount the intern will be paid; and
The total of all other expenses related to the internship for which the business seeks reimbursement.

The division shall create a final application form in which a business may identify any new or changed information from the initial application form. Based on the combination of the forms received, the division shall determine whether the internship is a qualifying internship. If accepted into the program, the business may be required to pay a fee of up to seven hundred fifty dollars.

The division shall:

(A) Identify qualifying internships;
(B) Match interns with businesses;
(C) Provide assessments of the program to the state council; and
(D) To the extent possible, identify job placements for the interns.

To qualify for reimbursement, an internship must:

(I) Be in an innovative industry;
(II) Be for at least one hundred thirty hours and last up to six months;
(III) Allow students to gain valuable work experience in at least two of the following occupational areas:
   (A) Computer systems, including software development and information technology support;
   (B) Production, including fabrication, assembly, and quality assurance;
   (C) Engineering;
   (D) Business and financial operations, including supply chain management;
   (E) Customer service, sales, and marketing, including proposal development;
   (F) Research, preclinical, clinical, and commercial development;
   (G) Installation, maintenance, and repair of machinery and equipment;
   (H) Executive management and business strategy; and
   (I) A skilled trade;
   (IV) Pay the intern at least ten dollars per hour;
   (V) Provide a mentor or supervisor that will work closely with the intern;
   (VI) Not be for the purpose of meeting required residency or clinical hours for the intern;
   (VII) Be with a business that is eligible under paragraph (b) of this subsection (4); (VIII) Be for a student who is eligible under paragraph (c) of this subsection (4); and
   (IX) Along with all other internships, constitute less than fifty percent of the business's workforce located in the state.

To be eligible for reimbursement, a business must be in an innovative industry and have a physical operation facility in the state. The business may be a for-profit or nonprofit organization but may not be a governmental entity or an institution of higher education. An eligible business is responsible for workers’ compensation coverage associated with an internship, and such coverage may be reimbursed under the program.

To be eligible to participate in an internship in the program, a person must be:

(I) (A) Enrolled full-time in a secondary school;
   (B) Enrolled in an adult basic education program or a high school equivalency program;
(C) Enrolled full-time in a state, public, or private nonprofit institution of higher education and pursuing a certificate, associate degree, or bachelor's degree;

(II) A resident of the state who is enrolled as a full-time undergraduate at an institution of higher education outside of the state; or

(III) A graduate from a school or institution listed in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (c), if the internship begins within six months after graduation.

d) To be eligible to participate in an internship in the program, a person must not:

(I) Be a current or past employee of a participating business or a relative of an owner or operator of a participating business; or

(II) Displace a current employee of the business.

e) (I) If there are more businesses seeking preapproval than can be reimbursed, the state council, in collaboration with the intermediaries, shall determine who the division shall preapprove. In making this determination, the state council shall give preference to a business that has an intern who is:

(A) In a career and technical education program;

(B) Pursuing an industry-endorsed license, registration, or certification;

(C) Enrolled in technology-, manufacturing-, or engineering-related associates of applied science degree programs;

(D) Pursuing a degree in the categories of science, technology, engineering, or mathematics;

(E) Gaining valuable work experience in more than two occupational areas; or

(F) Earning college credit for the internship.

(II) The state council shall develop a priority for applying the reimbursement preferences.

(5) On or before November 1, 2016, and November 1 of the next two years thereafter, the state council shall submit a report to the finance and the business affairs and labor committees of the house of representatives and to the business, labor, and technology and the finance committees of the senate, or any successor committees, summarizing program activities during the preceding fiscal year, including the information in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section, the number of companies and interns who participated, the occupational areas the interns participated in, the number of interns who obtained related employment, and any information identified by the division from this subsection (5). The division shall assist the state council in completing the annual report.

(6) For the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2015, the general assembly shall appropriate four hundred fifty thousand dollars from the general fund to the division to be used for program reimbursements. For the next two years thereafter, the general assembly may appropriate moneys from the general fund to the division to be used for program reimbursements. In addition, the general assembly shall annually appropriate moneys from the general fund to the department for its expenses administering the program, including any payments to intermediaries. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys from an appropriation made pursuant to this subsection (6) remain available for expenditure by the department in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

(7) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2020.

PART 2
HOSPITALITY CAREER SECONDARY EDUCATION GRANT PROGRAM

24-46.3-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the hospitality industry:
   (a) Plays a vital role in Colorado's economy;
   (b) Is diverse, with employers throughout the state;
   (c) Employs more than two hundred forty thousand people in Colorado;
   (d) Produces more than ten billion dollars in annual sales in Colorado;
   (e) Creates sales that generate more than six hundred million dollars in state and local taxes annually; and
   (f) Is an essential element of Colorado's economy.

   (2) Therefore, the general assembly finds and declares that developing a hospitality career secondary education grant program for Colorado citizens will:
       (a) Increase the number of Colorado citizens accessing postsecondary education;
       (b) Increase the number of Colorado citizens completing degrees and other credentials;
       (c) Decrease the need for remediation at the postsecondary level;
       (d) Increase entry into employment and increase wages over time; and
       (e) Create better transitions in educational programs for students in the hospitality career pathway from high school to college.

24-46.3-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (1) "Department" means the department of labor and employment created in section 24-1-121.
   (2) "Fund" means the hospitality career secondary education fund created in section 24-46.3-204.
   (3) "Grant program" means the hospitality career secondary education grant program established in section 24-46.3-203.
   (4) "Hospitality industry" means Colorado restaurants, hotels, and attractions.
   (5) "Hospitality program" means a hospitality secondary education program that, at a minimum:
       (a) Includes a curriculum that teaches career- and college-readiness skills that are pertinent to the hospitality industry;
       (b) Offers secondary-level students the opportunity to work in the hospitality industry and earn wages while in the program;
       (c) Offers hospitality industry-validated certificates of completion;
       (d) Is approved by the office in the Colorado community college system that administers high school career and technical education programs for use in Colorado high schools;
(e) Has been administered in at least one Colorado high school for a minimum of three years;
(f) Is endorsed and supported by at least one Colorado and one national hospitality trade association; and
(g) Upon successful completion, will result in the issuance of a certificate to the student that articulates credits for postsecondary education.

24-46.3-203. Hospitality career secondary education grant program - established. (1) There is established in the department the hospitality career secondary education grant program. The purpose of the grant program is to accelerate growth and improve and expand the development of hospitality programs. The department shall administer the grant program through the acceptance and review of applications submitted pursuant to this section and the awarding of grants. The department shall develop application guidelines and establish deadlines for the grant program.

(2) The department shall award the first grants of the grant program for the 2015-16 academic year, so long as moneys are appropriated to the cash fund created for implementation of the grant program. Grants must be awarded annually thereafter, based on available appropriations.

(3) A hospitality program may apply for a grant from the grant program based on the guidelines and deadlines established by the department in subsection (1) of this section. To be eligible for a grant, a hospitality program shall include, at a minimum, the following information in its application:
(a) A description of how the grant will be used;
(b) A description of the hospitality program, including the number of years it has been in operation and the high schools in which it has been implemented;
(c) A nonduplicative, clearly articulated course progression from one level of instruction to the next;
(d) A description of the available opportunities for students to earn postsecondary credit;
(e) Verification of industry-validated credentials;
(f) Demonstration of partnerships with hospitality industry members where students have the opportunity to earn income; and
(g) Verification that the hospitality program aligns with established Colorado academic standards.

(4) The department shall disperse all of the moneys appropriated in a given year to the fund to applicants that are approved for a hospitality secondary education grant.

24-46.3-204. Hospitality career secondary education fund - creation. (1) There is created in the state treasury the hospitality secondary education fund, consisting of any moneys that may be appropriated to the fund by the general assembly. The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the department for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing this part 2. The state treasurer may invest any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this part 2 as provided by law. The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund to the fund.

(2) The department may expend up to two percent of the moneys annually appropriated from the fund to offset the costs incurred in implementing this part 2.

(3) Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

24-46.3-205. Reporting - repeal. (1) On or before December 15, 2016, and on or before each December 15 thereafter, the department shall prepare an annual report on the grant program that includes, but is not limited to, the number and amounts of grants awarded, a list of hospitality programs that received grants, and the total number of students impacted through hospitality programs that received grants for the grant cycle most recently completed. The department shall provide a copy of the report to members of the business, labor, economic, and workforce development committee of the house of representatives and the business, labor, and technology committee of the senate, or any successor committees.

(2) This section is repealed, effective December 16, 2019.

PART 3

POSTSECONDARY AND WORK FORCE READINESS
STATEWIDE COORDINATOR

24-46.3-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Apprenticeship program" means a Colorado-based apprenticeship training program that is registered with the office of apprenticeship in the United States department of labor.

(2) "Area technical college" has the same meaning as provided in section 23-60-103, C.R.S.

(3) "College preparation program" means a program provided by a nonprofit organization to assist students in preparing for and succeeding in postsecondary programs.

(4) "Community college" means an institution that is included in the state system of community and technical colleges pursuant to section 23-60-205, C.R.S., Colorado mountain college, and Aims community college.

(5) "Local education provider" means a school district organized and existing as provided by law, a board of cooperative services created pursuant to article 5 of title 22, C.R.S., the state charter school institute established in section 22-30.5-503, C.R.S., a charter school authorized by a school district pursuant to part 1 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S., or an institute charter school authorized by the state charter school institute pursuant to part 5 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S.
"Postsecondary and workforce readiness" means the knowledge and skills that a student should have attained before or upon attaining a high school diploma, as adopted by the state board of education and the Colorado commission on higher education pursuant to section 22-7-1008, C.R.S.

"Statewide coordinator" means the postsecondary and workforce readiness statewide coordinator whose position is created in section 24-46.3-302.

24-46.3-302. Postsecondary and work force readiness statewide coordinator - position created - duties. (1) (a) There is created the position of postsecondary and work force readiness statewide coordinator to work under the direction of the state work force development council. The statewide coordinator works with and helps to coordinate the efforts of local education providers, businesses, industry, area technical colleges, community colleges, apprenticeship programs, the department of education, the work force development council, the career and technical education division within the Colorado community college system, the department of higher education, college preparation programs, and other appropriate entities to raise the level of postsecondary and work force readiness that Colorado high school graduates achieve, especially with regard to readiness upon high school graduation for skilled career positions in business and industry.

(b) The executive committee of the state work force development council shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the commissioner of education as necessary to enable the statewide coordinator to collaborate with the office of postsecondary readiness and other appropriate offices and divisions within the department of education in implementing initiatives to increase the level of postsecondary and work force readiness that high school graduates achieve.

(2) (a) The statewide coordinator shall assist local education providers in:

(I) Developing and implementing initiatives to increase the level of postsecondary and work force readiness that high school graduates achieve, which may include but need not be limited to specialized, industry-based curricula and programs; apprenticeship programs; and internships and externships;

(II) Implementing concurrent enrollment programs as provided in article 35 of title 22, C.R.S., and in entering into concurrent enrollment agreements with area technical colleges, community colleges, and four-year institutions of higher education;

(III) Identifying local industry and work force needs and existing educational tools, programs, and resources to help prepare middle and high school students to meet those needs upon graduating from high school;

(IV) Working with state and federal programs that provide career and work force development opportunities for students enrolled in middle and high school and in accessing any state or federal moneys that are available to local education providers to support and implement the programs;

(V) Promoting opportunities for industry to engage in the classroom with students enrolled in grades six through twelve;
(VI) Engaging students with the manufacturing career pathway created pursuant to section 23-60-1003, C.R.S.; and

(VII) Developing partnerships with businesses, industry, unions, area technical colleges, community colleges, apprenticeship programs, and other entities to create opportunities for students to participate in educational and training programs that lead to obtaining a career entry-level credential.

(b) The statewide coordinator shall collaborate with the department of education, the department of higher education, and the Colorado community college system to develop and maintain a set of electronic tools and a network of statewide support to provide guidance for local education providers in providing work force readiness programs and initiatives.

24-46.3-303. Annual report. The state work force development council and the department of education shall annually review the work of the statewide coordinator in implementing the duties described in section 24-46.3-302. The state work force development council shall include a summary of the review in the Colorado talent report prepared pursuant to section 24-46.3-103 (3).

PART 4

INDUSTRY INFRASTRUCTURE GRANT PROGRAM

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in HB 16-1288, see section 1 of chapter 185, Session Laws of Colorado 2016.

24-46.3-401. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) (a) "Eligible nonprofit entity" means an entity that:
(I) Collaborates with the Colorado work force development council to administer the industry infrastructure grant program;
(II) Partners with business entities to ensure access to training opportunities for students;
(III) Provides support to industry associations and training partners;
(IV) Coordinates multi-industry lead competency identification to inform the development of workplace learning curriculum;
(V) Serves as a translational medium between government, education, and businesses in order to create a common nomenclature; and
(VI) Provides documentation demonstrating a funding commitment of at least three hundred thousand dollars and a signed affidavit indicating that the funding commitment shall be used for the purposes listed in section 24-46.3-403.
(b) "Eligible nonprofit entity" does not include an organization exempt from federal taxation under section 501(c)(4) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended.

(2) "Industry-defined competencies" means the specific knowledge, skills, and abilities that industry leaders, including, but not limited to, employer associations, labor unions, or state and local labor federations have collectively identified as being critical to a specific occupation or group of occupations effectively. These competencies are both foundational and task-specific.

(3) "State council" means the state work force development council created in section 24-46.3-101.

24-46.3-402. Industry infrastructure grant program - creation. The industry infrastructure grant program is hereby created in the state council. The purpose of the program is to partner with eligible nonprofit entities to develop and maintain the industry competency standardization needed to support businesses in their implementation of work site training programs. The state council shall establish and publish guidelines for the administration of the grant program, disbursement of money, and confirmation of private funding commitments.

24-46.3-403. Use of grant money. (1) An eligible nonprofit entity may only use grant money to:
   (a) Identify industry-specific standards and assessments for accountability and implementation of competencies within work force programs;
   (b) Implement industry-defined competencies within work force programs;
   (c) Assist businesses and industry associations with human resources training and development; and
   (d) Collaborate with entities to facilitate training and education between the classroom and businesses.

24-46.3-404. Industry infrastructure fund - creation. (1) The industry infrastructure fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund consists of gifts, grants, and donations to the fund and any other money that the general assembly may appropriate or transfer to the fund.

(2) The state treasurer shall credit all interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of money in the fund to the fund.

(3) State money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the state council to administer the industry infrastructure grant program.

(4) The state treasurer shall transfer all unexpended and unencumbered state money in the fund on July 1, 2019, to the general fund.
(5) On September 1, 2016, and on September 1 of the subsequent two years, the state treasurer shall transfer three hundred thousand dollars from the general fund to the industry infrastructure fund created in this section.

24-46.3-405. Reporting. (1) On or before January 1, 2017, and on or before January 1 of the next three years thereafter, the state council shall prepare a report on the grant program that includes information on:
   (a) The eligible nonprofit entity, if any;
   (b) Industry sectors identified;
   (c) A list of competencies in each sector;
   (d) Uses of an eligible nonprofit entity's committed private funding;
   (e) The number of apprentices in each industry that utilized the industry-defined competencies created in section 24-46.3-402; and
   (f) Any other measurable outcomes the state council deems appropriate. The state council shall include the report in the annual Colorado talent report, described in section 24-46.3-103 (3)(a).

24-46.3-406. Applicability of other laws. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the work force development council and the expenditure of money pursuant to this part 4 is not subject to the provisions of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title.

24-46.3-407. Repeal. This part 4 is repealed, effective July 1, 2021.

ARTICLE 46.5

Colorado Business Incentive Fund

Editor's note: The act enacting this article, contained in chapter 2 from the First Extraordinary Session in 1991, was subject to an interrogatory submitted to the Colorado Supreme Court by the Governor. The Colorado Supreme Court held that the act was constitutional on its face. See In re House Bill 91S-1005, 814 P.2d 875 (Colo. 1991).
24-46.5-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares:
   (a) That the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state are dependent upon the continued encouragement, development, and expansion of opportunities for employment in the private sector in this state;
   (b) That the economic history of this state has been characterized by a "boom and bust" cycle resulting in severe social and economic dislocation and dramatic fluctuation in economic activity and public revenues;
   (c) That diversification of the state's economic base will contribute to much-needed economic stability;
   (d) That it is vital to the continued development of economic opportunity in this state, including the development of new businesses and the expansion of existing businesses, that this state provide additional incentives to entities making a commitment to build and operate new business facilities which will result in substantial and long-term expansion of new employment within this state; and
   (e) That the public purpose to be served by the passage of this article outweighs all other individual interests.

24-46.5-102. Colorado business incentive fund. For the purposes of promoting the economic development of this state, there is hereby created in the state treasury the Colorado business incentive fund. The fund shall consist of moneys transferred in accordance with the provisions of section 43-10-110, C.R.S. No intergovernmental agreement which is funded from the Colorado business incentive fund shall be funded from general fund moneys or other state moneys. Moneys in such fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly. Through the creation of this fund, it is the intent of the general assembly to create an enhanced and stable revenue source for moneys to expend for economic development purposes.

Source: L. 91, 1st Ex. Sess.: Entire article added, p. 10, § 1, effective July 5.

24-46.5-103. Intergovernmental agreements. (1) (a) The state of Colorado is hereby authorized to enter into intergovernmental agreements with local governments or the Colorado housing and finance authority, or both, under which moneys from the Colorado business incentive fund shall be expended for economic development purposes. No intergovernmental agreement shall be entered into by the state pursuant to this section prior to the approval of such agreement by the attorney general of the state as to form. For purposes of this section, the state of Colorado shall be represented by the Colorado economic development commission created pursuant to section 24-46-102 and, in addition to any other duties or powers imposed by law, said commission shall review and recommend to the governor expenditures of moneys of the Colorado business incentive fund for the financing of incentives pursuant to this article.
   (b) (I) Any entity establishing a new business facility or operation and participating in the provisions of this article shall give due consideration to the provision of intrastate air service to all areas of Colorado. Any such entity shall file reports as required under section 24-46.6-103.
The state shall consider each of the following guidelines in determining whether to enter into an intergovernmental agreement:

(A) The significance of the support and financial incentives to be provided by the local jurisdiction in which the new business facility or operation is to be located;

(B) The significance of the number of jobs in the state which are likely to be generated directly or indirectly as a result of the new business facility or operation and ancillary facilities thereto;

(C) The extent to which the entity establishing the new business facility or operation intends to employ Colorado residents at the new business facility or operation and ancillary facilities thereto;

(D) The extent to which the entity establishing the new business facility or operation intends to contract with Colorado residents and Colorado-based companies for services and goods at the new business facility or operation and ancillary facilities thereto; and

(E) The extent of the public benefits to be derived from the agreement.

(II) The guidelines set forth in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) shall not be a basis for challenging or voiding all or any portion of any intergovernmental agreement.

(2) At a minimum, any intergovernmental agreement relating to the establishment of a new business facility shall be subject to the following requirements:

(a) No intergovernmental agreement shall be entered into unless there is an agreement between the local government or the Colorado housing and finance authority, or both, and the entity which is to establish a new business facility that the entity will operate the facility for no less than thirty years;

(b) The terms of the intergovernmental agreement shall provide that the entity shall employ no less than three thousand employees at the new business facility by July 1 of the tenth year following the effective date of such agreement for the operation of said facility and that the average annual salaries of all employees at the facility at the time specified in the agreement shall be at least forty-five thousand dollars. The terms of such agreement shall further provide for sanctions, including but not limited to termination of the agreement or any benefits thereunder, if the entity fails to meet reasonable projections of the rate of growth in the number of employees.

(c) The terms of the intergovernmental agreement shall provide that the entity shall employ no less than a total of two thousand employees at ancillary facilities within Colorado to the facility by July 1 of the tenth year following the effective date of such agreement for the operation of said facility and that the average annual salaries of all employees at such ancillary facility at the time specified in the agreement shall be at least twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars. The terms of such agreement shall further provide for sanctions, including but not limited to termination of the agreement or any benefits thereunder, if the entity fails to meet reasonable projections of the rate of growth in the number of employees.

(d) An intergovernmental agreement shall provide that the agreement between the local government or the Colorado housing and finance authority, or both, and the entity include procedures and remedies to enforce the terms of such agreement including, but not limited to, the forfeiture of real and personal property rights and interests or liens upon real and personal property, or both.

(3) Effective January 1, 1992, local governments may enter into intergovernmental agreements in relation to the establishment of new business facilities which shall employ a substantial number of new employees receiving an average annual salary of no less than the average annual salary for such local government. Said local governments shall apply to the state of Colorado in order to qualify for financing pursuant to this article; except that no intergovernmental agreement shall be entered into or financed by the state pursuant to this subsection (3) if the person or entity which would benefit from such agreement is establishing a new business facility for which financing could have been received under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section or has established a new business facility for which financing was received pursuant to said subsection (1). The general assembly may appropriate such moneys as may be available for purposes of funding intergovernmental agreements entered into pursuant to this subsection (3).

(4) As used in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, "salary" means the total compensation paid or stipulated to be paid by the entity to employees, before deductions, for services rendered while on the payroll of the entity. "Salary" does not include any amount paid by the entity on behalf of employees for fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, contributions for group health or life insurance, employee retirement, social security, and workers' compensation. For determining the average annual salaries of the employees at the new business facility and ancillary facilities, each employee's salary shall only be counted up to the amount of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars.

(5) The amount of incentives financed for any person or entity under intergovernmental agreements under this article by the Colorado business incentive fund shall not exceed one hundred fifteen million dollars.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a city, town, or county, whether home rule or statutory, or a city and county may contribute moneys for the financing of incentives from the Colorado business incentives fund pursuant to this section.

ARTICLE 46.6

Intrastate Air Service within the State of Colorado

24-46.6-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares:
(a) That the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state are dependent upon the continued existence and expansion of intrastate air service in this state;
(b) That the recent opening of the Denver International Airport (DIA) has permanently changed intrastate air travel in Colorado since the increased costs of operating out of DIA has forced air carriers to drop or significantly reduce service on their less profitable intrastate routes;
(c) That limited and undependable intrastate air service has adversely impacted the economic well-being of the state through underutilization of DIA as a regional transportation hub, requiring travelers to make a greater investment in travel time and costs, and creating more obstacles to conducting business efficiently;
(d) That it is vital to the continued development of economic opportunity in this state, and especially on the western slope of the state, that the state provide incentives to air carriers that provide intrastate air services; and

(e) That the public purpose to be served by the passage of this article outweighs all other individual interests.

24-46.6-102. Study on intrastate air service in Colorado - funding.
(1) Repealed.
(2) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Colorado intrastate air service study fund. The fund shall consist of moneys received as a result of an intergovernmental agreement between the city and county of Denver and the division of aeronautics, which is hereby authorized to enter into such agreement, or moneys transferred in accordance with the provisions of section 43-10-110 (2)(a)(I), C.R.S., as applicable. Moneys in the fund shall be used to fund a study of intrastate air service in Colorado as provided in subsection (1) of this section. Any moneys received as a result of an intergovernmental agreement between the city and county of Denver and the division of aeronautics remaining in the fund as of July 1, 1997, shall be returned to the city and county of Denver. Any moneys transferred in accordance with the provisions of section 43-10-110 (2)(a)(I), C.R.S., remaining in the fund as of July 1, 1997, shall be transferred to the governmental entity operating the largest airport in the state during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1996.

24-46.6-103. Intrastate air carriers - on-time performance - oversales - reports to aeronautics division.
(1) (a) Any air carrier that provides intrastate air service within Colorado shall file a semiannual report with the aeronautics division regarding the on-time performance and the number of passengers denied boarding on intrastate flights by the air carrier during the six-month period covered by the report. The report shall be submitted within thirty days after the end of the six-month period covered by the report with the six-month period ending June 30 and December 31.

(b) Any air carrier that fails to file a report when due, as required by this subsection (1), and that fails to cure such failure within thirty days after notification by the division of such failure may, after notice and hearing conducted by the aeronautical board pursuant to section 24-4-105, be subject to the imposition of a monetary penalty of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars for each violation. Moneys collected pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the aviation fund, created in section 43-10-109, C.R.S.

(c) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "air carrier" means any person undertaking by any means, directly or indirectly, to provide intrastate air transportation in aircraft with seating capacity for one hundred or fewer passengers.
(2) The report filed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall include the following information for each flight by the air carrier during the six-month period covered by the report that originated and terminated at points within Colorado:

(a) The air carrier and flight number;
(b) The origination point and termination point of the flight;
(c) The departure and arrival time for each scheduled operation of the flight, as published in the official airline guide, computer reservation systems, or other service publications;
(d) The scheduled departure and arrival time for each scheduled operation of the flight as listed in a computer reservation system regulated by 14 CFR part 255;
(e) The actual departure and arrival time for each operation of the flight;
(f) The date and day of the week of the scheduled flight operation;
(g) The amount of departure delay, if any, for each operation of the flight;
(h) The amount of arrival delay, if any, for each operation of the flight;
(i) The total number of passengers holding confirmed reserved space, as defined by 14 CFR 250.1, on each operation of the flight that were denied boarding voluntarily;
(j) The mechanical defects discovered and repairs made for each operation of the flight;
(k) For delayed or canceled flights, any weather conditions contributing to the delay or cancellation.

ARTICLE 47
Colorado International Trade Office

24-47-101. Colorado international trade office - created - staff. (1) There is hereby created within the office of the governor the Colorado international trade office, the head of which shall be the director of the Colorado international trade office, which office is hereby created. The director shall be assisted by an associate director and a staff assistant, which offices are hereby created.

(2) The Colorado international trade office shall:
(a) Encourage, promote, and assist in the expansion of Colorado exports, including both goods and services, to international markets;
(b) Develop the ability and resources to deal effectively with and encourage foreign investment in this state;
(c) Endeavor to attract and assist reputable international companies which are interested in establishing facilities in this state which provide jobs for Colorado residents;
(d) Utilize traditionally effective international promotion techniques which are designed to create new channels of distribution for Colorado firms which have no export market, which techniques shall include, but need not be limited to, state-sponsored international trade shows and trade missions where many companies may participate at low cost and guidance in the mechanics of exporting through major seminars, identification of target markets, export troubleshooting, and important trade leads;
(e) Review and analyze proposed international trade agreements to assess their impact on goods and services produced by Colorado businesses and the possibility that Colorado statutes could be determined to be an impermissible barrier to free trade or market access;

(f) Provide input to the office of the United States trade representative in the development of international trade, commodity, and direct investment policies and agreements that reflect the needs of the state of Colorado;

(g) Inform the general assembly about ongoing trade negotiations, trade development, and the possible impacts on Colorado's economy and laws. The director or the director's designee shall submit a report on such matters by November 1 of each year to the finance committees, or their successor committees, of the senate and house of representatives and shall make available to all members of the general assembly a copy of all materials provided to those committees by the state trade representative.

(h) Coordinate with other state and local government economic development entities.

(3) The Colorado international trade office may establish official trading relationships among the state and other international trading nations.

(4) It is the intent of this section that the cost-effective assistance given by the Colorado international trade office result in a broadened state economy with a quantifiable increase in Colorado commodities which are exported, a quantifiable increase in Colorado firms entering the international export market, a quantifiable increase in export-related jobs in Colorado, and such other measurable increases related to international trade as are the result of the efforts of said office.

24-47-102. Satellite trade or investment offices and presences in other nations. (1) The Colorado international trade office is authorized to establish satellite trade or investment offices or presences in other nations as designated in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section for the purpose of implementing the provisions of section 24-47-101; except that no more than one office or presence shall be established in each nation.

(2) (a) A satellite trade or investment office is an office established by the Colorado international trade office in a foreign country, which office is operated solely for purposes of implementing the provisions of section 24-47-101.

(b) A presence is the designation by the Colorado international trade office of a specified entity in a foreign country to act as an agent of the Colorado international trade office for purposes of implementing the provisions of section 24-47-101.

(c) (I) A satellite trade or investment office or presence may be established in Taipei, Taiwan, in Seoul, Korea, and in Tokyo, Japan, and the People's Republic of China.

(II) After June 30, 1988, the Colorado international trade office is authorized to designate additional locations for satellite trade or investment offices or presences in other nations.

(3) The Colorado international trade office is authorized to receive and expend contributions, grants, services, and in-kind donations, including but not limited to office space, from public sources other than the state and from private sources and may use such donations to pay for the direct and indirect costs of establishing or operating satellite trade or investment offices or presences in other nations.

(4) (a) The general assembly shall make an annual appropriation to pay for the direct and indirect costs of establishing and operating a satellite trade or investment office established in another nation in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section. The annual direct and indirect costs of establishing and operating such office shall be obtained in part from those sources described in subsection (3) of this section; the value of all donations as described in subsection (3) of this section, including the value of all services and in-kind donations, shall be computed in determining the total amount provided to each office by such sources.

(b) The general assembly shall make an annual appropriation to pay for the direct and indirect costs of establishing and operating each presence in another nation authorized by paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section.

24-47-103. Advanced industry - export acceleration program - definitions - repeal.
(1) Legislative declaration. (a) The general assembly finds and declares that:
(I) Most consumers live outside of the United States of America;
(II) The international monetary fund forecasts that over the next five years eighty-seven percent of world economic growth will occur outside of this country;
(III) It is difficult for Colorado businesses, particularly small and mid-sized ones, to become exporters because of a lack of the requisite information and market research and other challenges related to international trade;
(IV) The Colorado international trade office has several exporting programs that enjoy significant returns on investment as measured by a business's international sales per dollar received.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly to create a new program that combines financial resources, training, and consulting services to provide a robust and comprehensive trade export promotion service for Colorado businesses.

(2) Definitions. As used in this section:
(a) "Advanced industry" means the following industries:
(I) Advanced manufacturing;
(II) Aerospace;
(III) Bioscience;
(IV) Electronics;
(V) Energy and natural resources;
(VI) Infrastructure engineering; and
(VII) Information technology.
(b) "Fund" means the advanced industries export acceleration cash fund created in paragraph (a) of subsection (8) of this section.
(c) "Office" means the Colorado international trade office created in section 24-47-101.
(d) "Program" means the advanced industries export acceleration program created in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The advanced industry export acceleration program is created in the Colorado international trade office. The program is administered by the office and includes export expense reimbursement, export training, and global network consultation.

(4) International export development expense reimbursement. (a) Beginning January 1, 2014, the office may reimburse a qualifying business under paragraph (c) of this subsection (4) for up to one-half of its international export development expenses.

(b) The maximum amount that a business may be reimbursed under this subsection (4) is fifteen thousand dollars. The office may conditionally approve an expense prior to the business incurring it.

(c) In order to be eligible for an international export development expense reimbursement from the office, a business must:

(I) Be in an advanced industry;

(II) Be new to exporting or expanding into a new export market;

(III) Employ fewer than two hundred employees globally;

(IV) Have its headquarters located in Colorado or have at least fifty percent of its employees based in Colorado;

(V) Have at least two years of domestic sales experience;

(VI) Show a profit during the last fiscal year;

(VII) Be registered and in good standing with the Colorado secretary of state; and (VIII) Have a product or service that is ready to be exported.

(d) Eligible international export development expenses include:

(I) Participation in an overseas trade mission;

(II) Participation in an international or domestic trade show;

(III) An international market sales trip;

(IV) Legal fees related to a contract, intellectual property protection, or other issues relating to exporting goods or services;

(V) Design or production of international marketing materials;

(VI) Due diligence on, or credit reviews of, potential international buyers and distributors;

(VII) Compliance with international requirements for labeling, packaging, or shipping;

(VIII) Translation services for a contract, an official document, marketing materials, or a website;

(IX) Quality or environmental certifications; and

(X) Preparation of product documents, product registration, or assembly or maintenance instructions.

(e) The office shall not reimburse a business under this subsection (4) for any expense that a state agency would be prohibited under state law to reimburse an employee for.

(f) The office may establish conditions based on export sales under which the office receives payments from a business that received an international export development expense reimbursement. The office shall transfer any moneys so received to the state treasurer for deposit in the fund.

(g) On or before December 1, 2013, the office shall establish procedures and timelines for reimbursement applications; criteria for determining reimbursement amounts; recipient reporting requirements; and any other program policies. The office may amend these policies at any time.

(5) Export training. (a) The office shall provide export training for advanced industry businesses to learn about the fundamentals of exporting. The office may collaborate with private trade organizations and federal export assistance organizations to conduct the training. To the extent possible, the office shall tailor the curriculum to the needs and demands of each type of advanced industry.

(b) Export training may include conferences, seminars, and workshops on trade-related topics, which include challenges and opportunities in international trade. The conferences may include trade experts, exporting businesses, industry partners, and the office.

(c) The office may charge reasonable fees for a business to attend a training session. The office shall transfer these fees to the state treasurer for deposit in the fund.

(6) Global network consultation. (a) The office shall develop a global network of trade consultants in key international markets to assist the office in accelerating advanced industries exports. The types of services the office may utilize the consultants for include:

(I) Market research and other insights about the local markets;

(II) In-country introductions;

(III) Developing market entry strategies;

(IV) Matching Colorado companies with potential trade partners and distributors;

(V) Conducting due diligence on potential trade partners;

(VI) Helping companies define their competitive advantages;

(VII) Understanding a country's importation process, including licensing requirements, tariffs and taxes, and applicable regulations; and (VIII) Translation services and cultural interpretation.

(b) The office may match a Colorado business with a consultant for the services identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), and other services. The office may pay the consultant on behalf of the business, and then may charge the business receiving the consulting service for some or all of the costs of the consultation. The office shall transfer any of these fees to the state treasurer for deposit in the fund.

(7) Reporting. (a) On or before November 1, 2014, and November 1 of the next four years thereafter, the office shall submit a report to the finance and the business, labor, economic, and workforce development committees of the house of representatives and to the business, labor, and technology and the finance committees of the senate, or any successor committees, summarizing program activities during the preceding fiscal year.

(b) Section 24-1-136 (11) does not apply to the report required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (8).

(8) Fund. (a) The advanced industries export acceleration cash fund is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of:

(I) Payments credited to the fund pursuant to paragraph (e) of subsection (4) of this section;

(II) Fees credited to the fund pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (5) and paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section;

(III) Any gifts, grants, or donations credited to it pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (8);

(IV) Any moneys that the general assembly appropriates to it; and
(V) Three hundred thousand dollars, which the state treasurer shall transfer from the general fund to the fund on July 1, 2014, and July 1 of the next three years thereafter.

(b) (I) The office is authorized to seek, accept, and expend gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of the program; except that the office may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this section or any other law of the state. The office shall transmit all private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund.

(II) The general assembly finds that the implementation of this program does not rely entirely or in any part on the receipt of adequate funding through gifts, grants, or donations. Therefore, the office is not subject to the notice requirements specified in section 24-75-1303 (3).

(c) The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the office for the purpose of administering the program. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys from an appropriation made pursuant to this paragraph (c) remain available for expenditure by the office in the next fiscal year without further appropriation. The office's administrative expenses for the program in a fiscal year shall not exceed five percent of the moneys transferred or appropriated to the fund in the fiscal year. The office shall make all export expense reimbursements from moneys in the fund.

(d) As provided by law, the state treasurer may invest any unexpended moneys in the advanced industries acceleration cash fund. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund are credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund; except that any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund upon the repeal of this section are transferred to the general fund.

(9) Repeal. This section is repealed, effective January 1, 2019.

ARTICLE 47.5

Colorado Energy Research Authority

24-47.5-101. Colorado energy research authority - creation - legislative declaration.

(1) (a) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) The production and efficient use of energy will continue to play a central role in the future of this state and the nation as a whole; and

(II) The development, production, and efficient use of clean energy will advance the security, economic well-being, and public and environmental health of this state, as well as contributing to the energy independence of our nation.

(b) The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that the authority and powers conferred under this article, as well as the expenditures of public money made pursuant to this article, will serve a valid public purpose and that the enactment of this article is expressly declared to be in the public interest.
(2) There is hereby created the Colorado energy research authority, referred to in this article as the "authority", which is a body corporate and a political subdivision of the state. The authority is not an agency of state government, nor is it subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state, except to the extent provided by this article.

(3) (a) The powers of the authority shall be vested in a board of directors.

(b) The board consists of three members appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, plus the following four ex officio members: The presidents of the Colorado school of mines and Colorado state university, the chancellor of the university of Colorado at Boulder, and the director of the national renewable energy laboratory, or their designees.

(c) The terms of the appointed members of the board shall be four years. An appointed member shall be eligible for reappointment. Each member shall hold office until a successor has been appointed and the senate has confirmed the appointment. A vacancy in the membership occurring other than by expiration of term shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment, but for the unexpired term only. Each appointed member may be removed from office by the governor for cause, after a public hearing, and may be suspended by the governor pending the completion of such hearing.

(4) The members of the board shall elect a chair and a vice-chair. The members of the board shall also elect a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be members, and the same person may be elected to serve as both secretary and treasurer. The powers of the board may be vested in the officers from time to time. Four members shall constitute a quorum. No vacancy in the membership of the board shall impair the right of a quorum of the members to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the board.

(5) Each member of the board not otherwise in full-time employment of the state shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars for each day actually and necessarily spent in the discharge of official duties, and all members shall receive traveling and other necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of official duties.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2008 act amending subsection (3)(b), see section 1 of chapter 125, Session Laws of Colorado 2008.

24-47.5-102. Colorado energy research authority - powers and duties. (1) Except as otherwise limited by this article, the authority, acting through the board, has the power:

(a) To have the duties, privileges, immunities, rights, liabilities, and disabilities of a body corporate and political subdivision of the state;

(b) To sue and be sued;

(c) To have an official seal and to alter the same at the board's pleasure;

(d) To make and alter bylaws for its organization and internal management and for the conduct of its affairs and business;

(e) To maintain an office at such place or places within the state as it may determine;

(f) To acquire, hold, use, and dispose of its income, revenues, funds, and moneys;
(g) To make and enter into all contracts, leases, and agreements that are necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the exercise of its powers under this article;

(h) To deposit any moneys of the authority in any banking institution within or outside the state;

(i) To fix the time and place or places at which its regular and special meetings are to be held; and

(j) To do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and exercise the powers given and granted in this article.

(1.5) The authority shall direct the allocation of state matching funds to the extent required to support one or more activities or proposals of the Colorado energy research collaboratory, which consists of the Colorado school of mines, Colorado state university, university of Colorado at Boulder, and the national renewable energy laboratory, and which is referred to in this article as the "collaboratory", for federal energy research funding and energy-related research funding from federal agencies and other public and private entities.

(2) The authority may:

(a) Promote the activities of the collaboratory in order to increase the federal energy research funding and energy-related research funding;

(b) Promote rapid transfer of new technologies developed by the collaboratory to the private sector to attract and promote clean energy businesses in Colorado;

(c) Develop educational and research programs for Colorado state colleges in collaboration with the collaboratory that will translate into high-technology employment opportunities for Colorado students and residents;

(d) Become a regional resource and clearing house for clean energy information, to be available to the general public and to engineering, architectural, and design professionals. The authority shall not construct a headquarters or other building for its own use.

(e) Support development of the collaboratory, including funding of any joint institute or other entity created by the Colorado school of mines, Colorado state university, and university of Colorado at Boulder or the collaboratory to jointly pursue clean energy research.

(3) On or before September 1, 2014, and each September 1 thereafter, the authority shall submit a report to the Colorado office of economic development summarizing the energy research projects that received funding under this article in the preceding calendar year. At a minimum, the report shall specify the following information:

(a) A description of each project that received funding under this article, including the amount of the funding, and the principal persons or entities involved in the project;

(b) The total amount of moneys that the authority allocated for all projects;

(c) The results achieved by the project, including intellectual property, licensing and commercialization activities, and any other economic benefits to the state; and

(d) The total amount of federal and private funds that were received by projects that received funding under this article.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 383, § 3, effective April 10, 2008.)

ARTICLE 48.5

Office of Economic Development

PART 1

OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

24-48.5-101. Colorado office of economic development - creation - duties - report. (1) There is hereby created within the office of the governor the Colorado office of economic development, the head of which shall be the director of the office of economic development, which office is hereby created. The director of the office, who shall also serve as the special assistant to the governor for economic development, shall be assisted by an assistant director, which office is hereby created, and a staff for economic development, including but not limited to small business, finance, and marketing.

(2) The Colorado office of economic development shall:
   a) Encourage the expansion and retention of Colorado businesses through business recruitment, retention, and expansion assistance;
   b) Coordinate the marketing of Colorado as a site for expansion or relocation projects for companies in other states or countries;
   c) Coordinate job training and management and financial assistance to existing Colorado companies or to out-of-state companies which are considering expansion or relocation in Colorado;
   d) Provide services to small businesses in Colorado in order to help them expand or remain in business;
   e) Provide technical assistance and research support for business recruitment, retention, and expansion assistance programs supported by local government and private-public partnerships;
   f) Foster a positive business climate by advising the governor and the general assembly on issues affecting the business community;
   g) Repealed.
   h) In its business recruitment, retention, and expansion assistance activities, provide information on the state's program of tax incentives, state and local government procurement policies, and economic development incentives that are available to business enterprises engaged in recycling and waste diversion activities, including research and development efforts and the development of markets for reusable, source-reduced, recycled, and composted products and materials in all forms.

(3) The Colorado office of economic development shall advise and provide guidance to the small business navigator described in section 24-48.5-102 and shall advise and provide guidance to coordinate activities of small business development centers and the business advancement center operated by the university of Colorado.

(4) The Colorado office of economic development shall provide staff support for the gateway computer network.

(5) The Colorado office of economic development shall encourage investment of public pension funds in economic development activities in this state.

(6) It is the intent of the general assembly in enacting this section that the Colorado economy be broadened as a result of a quantifiable increase in the number of Colorado companies receiving technical and job training assistance and other assistance in business development.

(7) (a) On or before November 1, 2012, and, notwithstanding section 24-1-136 (11), on or before November 1 each year thereafter, the director of the office of economic development, or the director's designee, shall submit a report to the general assembly. The report shall include a review and summary of the activity, information, and data on all the programs that the office administered during the prior fiscal year.

   (b) In order to minimize the costs associated with preparing the report required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (7), the office of economic development is authorized to incorporate or append to such report any other reports it is required by law to develop.
24-48.5-102. Small business assistance center. (1) (a) In addition to the powers and duties specified in section 24-48.5-101, the Colorado office of economic development shall include the small business assistance center, which shall provide comprehensive information on the federal, state, and local requirements necessary to begin a business and shall make this information available to the public. The office shall also have available comprehensive information on the forms and merits of employee ownership and the revolving loan program described in section 24-48.5-124 (4).

(b) (I) The small business assistance center shall also create a small business navigator that shall provide a single point of contact for small businesses in order to facilitate and assist small businesses by:

(A) Diagnosing problems;

(B) Providing information and streamlining referrals to small business development centers, the Colorado credit reserve program, the federal small business credit initiative, or other such centers or organizations;

(C) Providing information regarding state government contracting offices and processes;

(D) Providing assistance with state rules; and

(E) Conducting any follow-up with the small business as needed.

(II) On or before January 15, 2012, and on or before each January 15 thereafter, the Colorado office of economic development shall submit a report to the business, labor, and technology committee of the senate and the economic and business development committee of the house of representatives, or such successor committees, which report shall include the number of small businesses being served by the small business navigator.

(2) The small business assistance center shall have the authority to accept and expend moneys from sources other than the state of Colorado for the purpose of performing specific projects, studies, or procedures, or to provide assistance. Such projects, studies, procedures, or assistance shall be reviewed and approved by the Colorado office of economic development and shall be consistent with the duties, authority, and purposes of the Colorado office of economic development as established in this article. Any receipt and expenditure of funds shall be reported to the general assembly as part of the office's annual budget request.

(3) The services rendered by the center shall be made available without charge; except that the applicant shall not be relieved from any part of the fees or charges established for the review and approval of specific permit applications, from any of the apportioned costs of a consolidated hearing conducted under this section, or from the costs of any contracted services as authorized by the applicant under this section.

(4) Any person who provides information developed by the center and charges any fee for such information shall disclose in at least ten-point type, before any obligation is incurred, that such information is available at no cost from the center. Any person who knowingly fails to make the disclosure required by this subsection (4) commits a class 3 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

24-48.5-102.5. Appropriations for small business development centers - report - legislative declaration - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (3) provided for the repeal this section, effective July 1, 2016. (See L. 2013, p. 620.)

24-48.5-102.7. Economic gardening pilot project - small business development centers - economic gardening pilot project fund - created - annual report - definitions - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (7) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2017. (See L. 2013, p. 1386.)

24-48.5-103. Motion picture and television advisory commission abolished - reestablished. (Repealed)

Editor's note: This section was similar to former § 24-32-308 as it existed prior to 2000.

24-48.5-104. Functions of commission - legislative declaration. (Repealed)
24-48.5-105. Transfer of functions - Colorado customized training program - Colorado economic development commission - contracts - continuation of regulations. (1) On and after July 1, 2000, the Colorado office of economic development shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations previously vested in the following programs and commissions concerning the duties and functions transferred to the office pursuant to this section:

(a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2005, p. 207, § 2, effective August 8, 2005.)

(b) The Colorado economic development commission, a commission currently in the department of local affairs.

(2) On July 1, 2000, employees of the Colorado economic development commission whose principal duties and functions concern the duties and functions transferred to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to this section and whose employment in said office is deemed necessary by the director of such office to carry out the purposes of this article shall be transferred to such office and shall become employees thereof. Any employees who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits under the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with the state personnel system laws and rules.

(3) On and after July 1, 2000, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the Colorado economic development commission pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to this section are transferred to said office and become property thereof.

(4) Whenever the motion picture and television advisory commission, as it existed prior to August 8, 2005, or Colorado economic development commission is referred to or designated by any contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to this section, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to such office. All contracts entered into by the motion picture and television advisory commission, as it existed prior to August 8, 2005, or Colorado economic development commission prior to July 1, 2000, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to said office pursuant to this section are hereby validated, with such office succeeding to all the rights and obligations of such contracts. Any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred pursuant to such contracts are hereby transferred and appropriated to such office for the payment of said obligations.

(5) On and after July 1, 2000, the Colorado office of economic development shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations previously vested in the department of local affairs concerning the joint administration of the Colorado customized training program, a program within the state board for community colleges and occupational education.
24-48.5-106. Certified capital companies - rules. (1) The Colorado office of economic development shall carry out the responsibilities delegated to it pursuant to article 3.5 of title 10, C.R.S., related to certified capital companies.

(2) The director of the Colorado office of economic development shall promulgate rules necessary to carry out the provisions of article 3.5 of title 10, C.R.S., by September 30, 2001. Such rules shall provide that the Colorado office of economic development shall begin accepting applications for certification as a certified capital company no later than October 31, 2001. Such rules shall further provide that any certified capital company may file premium tax credit allocation claims on behalf of its certified investors at any time on or after it becomes certified by the Colorado office of economic development, but in no case earlier than January 31, 2002, for premium tax credits that may be taken beginning in tax year 2003, and no earlier than January 31, 2004, for premium tax credits that may be taken beginning in tax year 2005, and that premium tax credits shall be earned by and vested in certified investors at the time of such investment of certified capital, although such premium tax credits may not be claimed or utilized until the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2003, with respect to investments of certified capital made subsequent to January 31, 2002, but prior to January 31, 2004, or until the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2005, with respect to investments of certified capital made subsequent to January 31, 2004.

(3) All direct and indirect expenditures incurred by the Colorado office of economic development in carrying out the responsibilities assigned to the office in this section shall be paid from the division of insurance cash fund, created in section 10-1-103 (3), C.R.S.

(4) Repealed.

24-48.5-107. Film production companies - contact - registration - definitions. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Commercial advertising production" means the production of a film that is created to promote specific brands, products, services, retailers, or advocacy positions. Commercial advertising production does not include the production of a film that is for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of a candidate or supporting or opposing a ballot issue or ballot question.

(b) "Film" means any visual or audiovisual work that contains a series of related images, that is fixed on photographic film, videotape, computer disc, laser disc, or a similar recording medium from which it can be viewed or reproduced, and that is a commercial advertising production or is shown in theaters, licensed for television broadcasting, or licensed for the home viewing market.

(c) "Production activities" means the shooting of a film, support activities related to such shooting, and any preshooting or postshooting activities that are necessary to produce a finished film, including but not limited to editing and the creation of sets, props, costumes, and special effects.
(d) "Production company" means a person, including a corporation or other business entity, that engages in production activities for the purpose of producing all or any portion of a film in Colorado.

(2) The Colorado office of economic development, or a designee of the director of the office, shall serve as the initial contact for any production company that is engaged in production activities in the state for the purpose of producing all or any portion of a film in the state. The office, or a designee of the director of the office, shall aid any production company in obtaining required permits, coordinating necessary state resources, scheduling the use of state highways or other state-owned property, ensuring that any fees imposed by any department, division, or entity of state government are waived for the production company pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, and shall otherwise assist a production company in filming all or a portion of a film in the state.

(3) Notwithstanding requirements otherwise specified in law, any permit fee that is imposed by any department, division, or entity of state government shall be waived for any production company that is participating in production activities in the state.

(4) The Colorado office of economic development shall satisfy the requirements of this section within the existing resources of the office.

(5) The director of the Colorado office of economic development may designate a person, a public or private entity, or a venture between public and private entities to be responsible for fulfilling the requirements of this section.

(Repeated)

Editor's note: (1) Amendments to subsection (5)(a) by Senate Bill 11-047 and Senate Bill 11-159 were harmonized, effective July 1, 2012.

(2) Subsection (6) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 2, 2015. (See L. 2013, p. 1078.)

24-48.5-109. STEM after-school education pilot grant program - fund - report - repeal.

(Repeated)

Editor's note: Subsection (8) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2010. (See L. 2007, p. 668.)

24-48.5-110. Administration of enterprise zone program - transfer of employee. (1) On and after July 1, 2008, any employee of the department of local affairs prior to said date whose duties and functions concerned the administration of the enterprise zone program assumed by the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to article 30 of title 39, C.R.S., shall be transferred to the office and shall become an employee thereof.

(2) Any employee transferred to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to subsection (1) of this section who is a classified employee in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their service shall be deemed to have been continuous.

(3) After the separation or termination of employment of any person transferred to the Colorado office of economic development pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, any employee hired by the office to assume the duties and functions concerning the administration of the enterprise zone program shall not become a classified employee in the state personnel system and instead shall be hired pursuant to the procedures established by the office.

24-48.5-111. Clean technology discovery evaluation grant program - clean technology research - evaluation - fund - definitions - repeal. (Repealed)

Cross references: In 2013, this section was repealed by the "Colorado Advanced Industries Acceleration Act". For the short title, see section 1 of chapter 227, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-48.5-112. Advanced industry investment tax credit - administration - definitions - repeal. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Advanced industry" has the same meaning as set forth in section 24-48.5-117 (2)(a).

(b) "Advanced industry investment tax credit" or "tax credit" means the credit against income tax created in section 39-22-532, C.R.S.

(c) "Affiliate" means any person or entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person or entity. For purposes of this paragraph (c), "control" means the power to determine the policies of an entity whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(d) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

(e) "Qualified investment" means an investment made at any time on or after July 1, 2014, but before January 1, 2023, in an equity security that meets all of the following requirements:
(I) The equity security is common stock, preferred stock, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company, a security that is convertible into an equity security, a convertible debt investment, or other equity security as determined by the office;

(II) The investment is at least ten thousand dollars;

(III) The qualified investor and its affiliates do not hold, of record or beneficially, immediately before making an investment, equity securities possessing more than thirty percent of the total voting power of all equity securities of the qualified small business; and

(IV) The qualified investor and its affiliates hold, of record or beneficially, immediately after making the investment, equity securities possessing less than fifty percent of the total voting power of all equity securities of the qualified small business.

(f) "Qualified investor" means an individual, limited liability company, partnership, S corporation, as defined in section 39-22-103 (10.5), C.R.S., or other business entity that makes a qualified investment in a qualified small business. "Qualified investor" does not include a C corporation, as defined in section 39-22-103 (2.5), C.R.S.

(g) "Qualified small business" means a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other business entity that:

(I) Is in an advanced industry;

(II) Has its headquarters located in Colorado or has at least fifty percent of its employees based in Colorado;

(III) Has received less than ten million dollars from third-party investors, not including grants, since the business was formed; and

(IV) Has annual revenues of less than five million dollars or has been actively operating and generating revenue for less than five years.

(V) Repealed.

(2) (a) The office shall receive and evaluate applications that are submitted by qualified investors to receive an advanced industry investment tax credit for qualified investments made in a qualified small business.

(b) To be eligible for an advanced industry investment tax credit, a qualified investor must file a completed application with the office within ninety days after making a qualified investment. The office shall prescribe the manner and form of the application. The office shall note the time and date of each application received. In addition to any other requirements established by the office, the application must include the name, address, and federal income tax identification number of the applicant, the number of new employees hired by the qualified small business as a result of the qualified investment, and any additional information that the office requires.

(c) A business may request the office to determine whether it is a qualified small business. Upon receiving the request or upon receipt of an application for an advanced industry investment tax credit from a qualified investor, the office shall determine whether the business that is named in the application or written request is a qualified small business. After determining the qualifications, the office shall certify the qualified small business as being eligible to receive qualified investments for purposes of this section. The certification for a qualified small business that is certified after July 1, 2014, is valid until January 1, 2023; except that the certification is revoked if the business no longer meets the qualifications. A business shall notify the office within thirty business days from the date that it no longer meets the qualifications. If the certification is revoked, the office may assess a penalty against the business. that is equal to the amount of the advanced industry investment tax credits authorized after the date that the business no longer meets the qualifications. The state treasurer shall deposit the penalty into the state general fund. If the certification is revoked, subsequent investments in the business do not qualify for a tax credit. All tax credits issued before the revocation of the certification remain valid. The office shall not deny any application for a tax credit on the basis of the revocation of the certification if the investment was made before the date of the revocation.

(d) As part of the application for an advanced industry investment tax credit, the applicant and the qualified small business that receives the investment must each provide written authorization to permit the department of revenue to provide tax information to the office for the purpose of determining if there are any misrepresentations on the application. The authorization is limited to disclosure of income tax information for the latest two years for which returns were filed with the department of revenue preceding the date the application is filed and for all tax years through the year in which the investment was made for which a return was not filed as of the date of the application. The applicant must also provide in the written authorization income tax information for all tax years in which the applicant actually claims a tax credit or carries forward a tax credit on a return filed with the department of revenue. An applicant with an individual ownership interest as a co-owner of a business and that may be entitled to a pro rata share of the tax credit pursuant to section 39-22-532 (5), C.R.S., must provide a written authorization with content similar to the authorization, and in the same manner, as any other applicant is required to provide. If an applicant or qualified small business fails to comply with this paragraph (d), an applicant is ineligible for a tax credit.

(e) As part of the application for an advanced industry investment tax credit, the applicant must state that the tax credit was a significant factor in the applicant's decision to make the investment and that without the tax credit, the applicant would not have made the investment or would have made an investment at a substantially lower level.

(f) The office shall review and make a determination with respect to each application for an advanced industry investment tax credit within ninety days after receiving the application.
The office may request additional information from the applicant in order to make an informed decision regarding the eligibility of the qualified investor or qualified small business.

(3) (a) Subject to the limitations set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), the office shall authorize an advanced industry investment tax credit for each qualified investor who makes a qualified investment in a qualified small business. The amount of the tax credit is twenty-five percent of the amount of the qualified investment or thirty percent of the qualified investment if the qualified small business is located in a rural area or economically distressed area of the state as determined by the office. The office shall issue a tax credit certificate to the qualified investor for each qualified investment stating the amount of the tax credit that is authorized for purposes of section 39-22-532, C.R.S. A tax credit certificate is nontransferable.
The office shall certify to the department of revenue the name of each qualified investor who receives a tax credit certificate, the amount of the tax credit, and other relevant information relating to the tax credit.

(b) (I) The total amount of the advanced industry investment tax credits shall not exceed three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars for the 2014 calendar year; and seven hundred fifty thousand dollars for each calendar year from 2015 through 2022; except that, if the total amount of the credits for 2018 or a later calendar year is less than the maximum amount, then the maximum amount for the next year is increased by an amount equal to the remaining, unused tax credits from the prior year. The office shall authorize the tax credits in the order that applications are received by the office and shall deny any application received after the limit has been met.
The office may partially authorize the last tax credit that is awarded up to the limit.

(II) The total amount of the tax credit for each qualified investment shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars. A qualified investor may not claim more than one tax credit per qualified small business, but may be eligible for a tax credit for qualified investments in different qualified small businesses in the same or a different year.

(c) To claim an advanced industry investment tax credit, a qualified investor must submit a copy of each tax credit certificate as part of a tax return to the department of revenue in accordance with section 39-22-532 (3), C.R.S., by the due date of the return, including extensions, for the tax year during which the qualified investment was made. If the qualified investor fails to timely file the tax credit certificate, the tax credit expires for that taxable year and there is no carry forward of the expired tax credit. The office shall not reissue a tax credit certificate for a credit that expires or that otherwise is not timely used by the qualified investor.

(4) No later than April 30 of each year following a year during which the office authorizes an advanced industry investment tax credit, the office shall provide to the department of revenue an electronic report that includes the information set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) and paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section and any other information required to administer section 39-22-532, C.R.S. If the office subsequently discovers that an applicant who received a tax credit misrepresented information on the application, the office shall immediately notify the department of revenue and provide the department of revenue all information that relates to that applicant.

(5) Repealed.

(6) On November 1, 2017, the office shall submit a first report to the finance and the business, labor, and economic and workforce development committees of the house of representatives; to the business, labor, and technology and the finance committees of the senate, or any successor committees; and to the joint budget committee summarizing all of the tax certificates issued since July 1, 2014. At a minimum, the report must include the amount of the capital invested by qualified investors and the tax credit that each qualified investor received, a description of the qualified businesses that received the qualified investment, a projection of the number of new employees hired by the qualified small businesses as a result of the qualified investment, the geographic distribution of the jobs, and any other economic impacts that resulted from the qualified investment. Notwithstanding section 24-1-136 (11), the office shall submit a second report on November 1, 2022, to the same legislative committees summarizing all of the tax certificates issued after January 1, 2018. The second report must include the same information as the first report.

24-48.5-113. Limit on solar device fees - repeal. (1) An agency, institution, authority, or political subdivision of the state shall:

(a) Not charge permit, application review, or any other related or associated fees to install an active solar electric or solar thermal device or system that, in aggregate, exceed:

(1) The lesser of the actual costs in issuing the permit or reviewing the application or five hundred dollars for a residential application or two thousand dollars for a nonresidential application if the device or system produces fewer than two megawatts of direct current electricity or an equivalent-sized thermal energy system; or

(II) The actual costs in issuing the permit if the device or system produces at least two megawatts of direct current electricity or an equivalent-sized thermal energy system.

(b) Clearly and individually identify all fees and taxes assessed on an application subject to this subsection (1) on the invoice.

(2) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2025.

24-48.5-114. Film, television, and media - definitions. As used in this section and sections 24-48.5-115 and 24-48.5-116, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) (a) "Film" means any visual or audiovisual work, including, without limitation, a video game, television show, or a television commercial, that contains a series of related images, regardless of the medium by which the work is fixed and from which it can be viewed or reproduced, and that is primarily intended to be either:

(I) Commercially exploited by being shown in theaters or on television licensed for the home or international market, or otherwise; or

(II) For internal industrial, corporate, or institutional use.

(b) "Film" does not include an obscene film.

(2) "Obscene" has the same meaning as set forth in section 18-7-101 (2), C.R.S.

(3) "Office" means the Colorado office of film, television, and media created pursuant to section 24-48.5-115.

(4) "Originates" means the production company has been a resident of the state or registered with the secretary of state for at least twelve consecutive months; except that, if the production company creates a business entity for the sole purpose of conducting production activities in the state, then such business entity need not be registered with the secretary of state for twelve consecutive months, but the owner of the business entity must be a resident of the state for at least twelve consecutive months.

(5) "Production activities" means the shooting of a film, support activities related to such shooting, and any preshooting or postshooting activities that commence on or after July 1, 2009, and that are necessary to produce a finished film, including but not limited to editing and the creation of sets, props, costumes, and special effects.

(6) "Production company" means a person, including a corporation or other business entity, that engages in production activities for the purpose of producing all or any portion of a film in Colorado.

(7) "Qualified local expenditure" means a payment made by a production company operating in Colorado to a person or business in Colorado in connection with production activities in Colorado. "Qualified local expenditure" shall include, but need not be limited to:

(a) Payments made in connection with developing or purchasing the story and scenario to be used for a film;

(b) Payments made for the costs of set construction and operations, wardrobe, accessories, and related services;

(c) Payments made for the costs of photography, sound recording and synchronization, lighting, and related services;

(d) Payments made for the costs of editing, post-production, music, and related services;

(e) Payments made for the costs of renting facilities and equipment, including location fees, leasing vehicles, and providing food and lodging to people working on the film production;

(f) Payments for airfare purchased through a Colorado-based travel agency or company;

(g) Payments for insurance and bonding purchased through a Colorado-based insurance agent;

(h) Payments for other direct costs incurred by the film production company that are deemed appropriate by the office; and

(i) Payments of up to one million dollars per employee or contractor, made by a production company to pay the wages or salaries of employees or contractors who participate in the production activities. In order for any wage or salary to be considered a qualified local expenditure, all Colorado income taxes shall be withheld and paid either by the production company or the individual. Any payments in excess of one million dollars per employee or contractor shall be excluded.
24-48.5-115. Film, television, and media - duties - loan guarantee program. (1) There is hereby created within the Colorado office of economic development the Colorado office of film, television, and media, the head of which shall be the director of the Colorado office of film, television, and media. The director of the office shall be assisted by a staff to fulfill the office's mission to promote Colorado as a location for making films. Beginning on July 1, 2012, the director of the office shall report to the director of the office of economic development.

(2) The office shall:

(a) Market Colorado as a destination for making feature films, television shows, television commercials, still photography, music videos, and new media projects;

(b) Assist production companies that are interested in conducting production activities in Colorado in scouting appropriate locations in the state for the production company's film;

(c) Assist state and local government agencies and organizations in the creation of permitting criteria for production companies that plan to conduct production activities on state or local government property;

(d) Assist production companies in determining the appropriate state or local government agencies to contact to apply for a permit to conduct production activities on state or local government property;

(e) Serve as a general liaison for production companies and assist in coordination efforts among production companies, any state or local government agency, and local businesses and individuals before, during, and after the production company conducts production activities in Colorado;

(f) Serve as a resource for local governments and communities around Colorado when a production company approaches the local government or community regarding the possibility of conducting production activities on the property of the local government or within the community;

(g) Administer the performance-based incentive for film production in Colorado as specified in section 24-48.5-116;

(h) Administer the loan guarantee program as specified in subsection (3) of this section;

(i) Conduct educational seminars to promote the film industry and people working in the film industry in Colorado; and

(j) Perform any other duties in furtherance of the office's mission as deemed necessary by the director of the office and the director of the office of economic development.

(3) (a) The office, with prior approval from the Colorado economic development commission created in section 24-46-102, may enter into a contract or other agreement, or both a contract and other agreement, with a production company to guarantee loans obtained for purposes of financing the production activities, not to exceed twenty percent of the entire budget for the production activities.
(b) The office shall employ the following criteria in determining whether to award a loan guarantee:
   (I) The experience, professional qualifications, and business background of the production company shall be such as to give the production activities a reasonable chance of success;
   (II) The production company shall be bonded by a major bonding company;
   (III) The production company shall have contracted with a major sales company with experience and standing in the film industry, and such sales company shall provide sales estimates that support full repayment of the loan to be guaranteed; and (IV) The film and the production activities shall result in a positive reflection on the state.
   (c) The office may reject any application for a loan guarantee pursuant to this subsection (3).
   (d) The office may provide loan guarantees for production activities; except that such loan guarantees shall be limited to twenty percent of the entire budget for the production activities. Loan guarantees may only be provided to feasible production activities for an amount that is the least amount necessary to cause the production activities to occur, as determined by the office, with prior approval from the Colorado economic development commission. The office may structure the loan guarantees in a way that facilitates the production activities and also provides for a compensatory return on investment or loan guarantee facility fee to the office based on the risk of the production activities.
   (e) The office may charge a loan guarantee facility fee calculated on the outstanding principal, which fee shall be collected from the eligible borrower by the eligible lender and paid to the office. Moneys collected shall be deposited in the Colorado office of film, television, and media operational account cash fund created in section 24-48.5-116 (5).
   (f) Moneys paid to satisfy a defaulted loan made pursuant to this subsection (3) shall only be paid out of the Colorado office of film, television, and media operational account cash fund created in section 24-48.5-116 (5).
   (g) No guarantee agreement made by the office pursuant to this subsection (3) shall constitute or become an indebtedness, a debt, or a liability of the state, nor shall such loan guarantee the giving, pledging, or loaning of the full faith and credit of the state.
   (4) No later than July 1, 2017, the state auditor shall complete a performance audit of the office, the performance-based incentive program for film production in Colorado specified in section 24-48.5-116, and the loan guarantee program specified in subsection (3) of this section.
       The state auditor shall present the performance audit report to the legislative audit committee.
       After the performance audit report is released by the legislative audit committee, the state auditor shall provide copies, in accordance with section 24-1-136 (9), to the finance committees of the house of representatives and senate.

Source: L. 2012: Entire section added, (HB 12-1286), ch. 186, p. 705, § 2, effective July

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.5-310 as it existed prior to 2012.
(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, on or after July 1, 2012, any production company employing a workforce for any in-state production activities made up of at least fifty percent Colorado residents shall be allowed to claim a performance-based incentive in an amount as follows:

(a) For a production company that originates production activities in Colorado, an amount equal to twenty percent of the total amount of the production company's qualified local expenditures if the total of such expenditures equals or exceeds one hundred thousand dollars; and

(b) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b), for a production company that does not originate production activities in Colorado, an amount equal to twenty percent of the total amount of the production company's qualified local expenditures if the total of such expenditures equals or exceeds one million dollars.

(II) For a production company that produces a television commercial or video game and that does not originate production activities in Colorado, any production company employing a workforce for any in-state production activities made up of at least fifty percent Colorado residents shall be allowed to claim a performance-based incentive in an amount equal to twenty percent of the total amount of the production company's qualified local expenditures if the total of such expenditures equals or exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(2) (a) In order for a production company to claim a performance-based incentive for production activities in Colorado pursuant to this section, the production company shall apply to the office, in a manner to be determined by the office, prior to beginning production activities in the state. The application shall include a statement of intent by the production company to produce a film in Colorado for which the production company will be eligible to receive the incentive. The production company shall submit, in conjunction with the application, any documentation necessary to demonstrate that the production company's projected qualified local expenditures will satisfy the expenditures specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of this section, as applicable.

(b) The office shall review each application submitted by a production company before the production company begins work on a film in Colorado. Based on the information provided in the production company's application, the office shall make an initial determination of whether the production company will be eligible to receive a performance-based incentive and estimate the amount of the incentive that will be due to the production company. The office, with approval of the Colorado economic development commission created in section 24-46-102, shall grant conditional written approval to a production company that, based on the information provided by the production company and based on an analysis of such information by the office and the Colorado economic development commission, will satisfy the requirements of this section and be eligible to claim an incentive.

(c) Upon completion of production activities in Colorado, a production company that received conditional approval for a performance-based incentive from the office shall retain a certified public accountant to review and report in writing, and in accordance with professional standards, regarding the accuracy of the financial documents that detail the expenses incurred in the course of the film production activities in Colorado. If the production company provides a copy of the certified public accountant's written report and the production company certifies in writing to the office that the amount of the production company's actual qualified local expenditures equals or exceeds the minimum total amount of the production company's qualified local expenditures as specified in subsection (1) of this section, the office shall issue an incentive to the production company.

(II) (A) For purposes of this paragraph (c), "certified public accountant" means a certified public accountant licenced to practice in this state or a certified public accounting firm that is registered in this state.

(B) Any services of a certified public accountant provided to meet the requirements of this paragraph (c) shall be performed in Colorado.

(d) The office shall develop procedures for the administration of this section, including application guidelines for production companies applying to receive a performance-based incentive and for the office to issue payment of the incentives pursuant to this section.

(3) The office shall include data regarding the number of production companies that claimed the performance-based incentive pursuant to this section and the total amount of all incentives claimed during the most recent fiscal year for which such information is available in an annual report to the general assembly.

(4) The total amount of performance-based incentives that the office issues pursuant to this section in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount appropriated to the office for the performance-based incentive for film production in Colorado as specified in subsection (1) of this section and any moneys not expended or encumbered from previous fiscal years that were appropriated to the office to be used for the purposes of this section.

(5) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Colorado office of film, television, and media operational account cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund shall consist of:

(I) Moneys transferred to the fund in accordance with section 12-47.1-701 (2), C.R.S.;

(II) Moneys transferred to the fund, including three million dollars that shall be transferred on July 1, 2012, from the general fund to the Colorado office of film, television, and media operational account cash fund; and

(III) Any gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources that the office is hereby authorized to seek and accept.

(b) The moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated to the office for the performance-based incentive for film production in Colorado as specified in subsection (1) of this section, and for the loan guarantee program as specified in section 24-48.5-115 (3).

(c) All moneys not expended or encumbered, and all interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund, remain in the fund and do not revert to the general fund or any other fund at the end of any fiscal year. Any moneys not expended or encumbered from any appropriation at the end of any fiscal year remain available for expenditure in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.5-311 as it existed prior to 2012.

24-48.5-117. Advanced industry - grants - fund - definitions - repeal.

1) Legislative declaration. (a) The general assembly finds and declares that Colorado is home to a network of assets and resources, which include research universities, community colleges, federal laboratories, innovative companies, manufacturing infrastructure, work force training institutions, and entrepreneurs. To drive growth in Colorado's economy, the state must focus on increasing the capacity and competitiveness of these assets and resources and thereby attract greater investment and provide a competitive advantage for Colorado's advanced industries. Investment in advanced industries will build public-private partnerships, drive innovation, and increase capital investment in Colorado's economy.

(b) The general assembly further finds and declares that investment in advanced industries will:

(I) Drive growth in high-paying, high-skill jobs;
(II) Align educational institutions to create the work force for advanced industry needs;
(III) Increase exports and competitiveness in global markets;
(IV) Accelerate the commercialization of technologies; and
(V) Promote research and development capabilities across research universities, community colleges, and federal laboratories.

(c) The general assembly recognizes the value of cross-sector collaboration and partnerships with research institutions and industry and encourages the Colorado office of economic development to play an active role in aligning resources to create and implement strategic initiatives across advanced industries.

2) Definitions. As used in this section:

(a) "Advanced industry" means the following industries:

(I) Advanced manufacturing;
(II) Aerospace;
(III) Bioscience;
(IV) Electronics;
(V) Energy and natural resources;
(VI) Infrastructure engineering; and
(VII) Information technology.

(b) "Fund" means the advanced industries acceleration cash fund created in paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of this section.

(c) "Office of economic development" or "office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

(d) "Office of technology transfer" means an office that:

(I) Is affiliated with a research institute;
(II) Is responsible for technology transfers; and
(III) Arranges for the sale or licensure of an advanced industry project to a private entity.

(e) "Program" means the advanced industries acceleration grant program created in subsection (3) of this section.
(f) "Research institution" means an institution located and operating in Colorado that is a:

(I) Public or private, nonprofit institution of higher education or teaching hospital;

(II) Federal laboratory;

(III) Private technology and research center; or

(IV) Private, nonprofit medical and research center.

(3) Program. (a) The advanced industries acceleration grant program is created within the office of economic development. The purpose of the program is to accelerate economic growth through grants that improve and expand the development of advanced industries, facilitate the collaboration of advanced industry stakeholders, and further the development of new advanced industry products and services. The office of economic development shall administer the program, which includes proof-of-concept grants, early-stage capital and retention grants, and infrastructure funding grants. All grants are from moneys in the advanced industries acceleration cash fund created in subsection (7) of this section. Except for the reporting requirement in subsection (6) of this section, the program ends on July 1, 2024, and all grants must be disbursed prior to that date.

(b) (I) The office of economic development may award a proof-of-concept grant for an advanced industry research project to an eligible office of technology transfer.

   (II) To be eligible for a proof-of-concept grant, an office of technology transfer must:

      (A) Submit a description of the advanced industry research project;

      (B) Provide an analysis demonstrating that the project will provide significant economic impact or competitive advantage for the state and advanced industries and that it will accelerate the pace of applied research leading to rapid commercialization of products and services resulting from the project; and

      (C) Have a dedicated, matching source of moneys from its affiliated research institution that is greater than or equal to one-third of the amount of the requested grant.

   (III) In selecting the recipients of a proof-of-concept grant, the office of economic development shall give preference to projects sponsored by an office of technology transfer that:

      (A) Include impacts across more than one advanced industry;

      (B) Involve more than one research institution or advanced industry stakeholder; or

      (C) Originate from a nonprofit research institution.

   (IV) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, the maximum amount of a proof-of-concept grant is one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

   (V) A recipient of a proof-of-concept grant shall use the grant only to accelerate product or service commercialization and shall not use the grant to support basic research.

(c) (I) The office of economic development may award an early-stage capital and retention grant to an eligible company for the purpose of accelerating the commercialization of advanced industry products or services to be manufactured or performed in Colorado.

   (II) To be eligible for an early-stage capital and retention grant, a company must:

      (A) Be in an advanced industry;

      (B) Have its headquarters located in Colorado or have at least fifty percent of its employees based in Colorado;

      (C) Have received less than twenty million dollars from other grants and third-party investors;

      (D) Have annual revenues of less than ten million dollars;
(E) Provide an analysis demonstrating that the scope of the project is required to enhance the commercialization of one or more advanced industry products or services within the state; and

(F) Have a dedicated, matching source of moneys that is greater than or equal to twice the amount of the requested grant.

(III) In selecting the recipient of an early-stage capital and retention grant, the office of economic development shall give preference to a company whose technology or research and development has application to more than one advanced industry.

(IV) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, the maximum amount of an early-stage capital and retention grant is two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(d) (I) The office of economic development may award an infrastructure funding grant for an advanced industry project that builds or utilizes infrastructure to support or enhance the commercialization of advanced industry products or services or that contributes to the development of an advanced industry work force.

(II) To be eligible for an infrastructure funding grant, a project must:

(A) Substantially increase alignment between private companies within an advanced industry and research institutions; and

(B) Have a matching source of moneys that is greater than or equal to twice the amount of the requested grant.

(III) In selecting recipients for the infrastructure funding grants, the office of economic development shall give preference to projects that:

(A) Accelerate economic growth in more than one advanced industry or include more than one research institution or advanced industry stakeholder;

(B) Originates from nonprofit research institutions;

(C) Focus on applied research and development, technology acceleration, or production-oriented or manufacturing-oriented facilities; or

(D) Focus on work force development that addresses the advanced industries' work force skills that are needed to facilitate commercialization of products or services.

(IV) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, the maximum amount of an infrastructure funding grant is five hundred thousand dollars.

(4) Common grant policies. Any grant awarded pursuant to subsection (3) of this section is subject to the following:

(a) In order to be eligible for a grant, a grant applicant must:

(I) Identify the number of jobs that will be created or retained in the state, anticipated capital invested or retained in the state, and any other projected economic impacts that will result from the grant; and

(II) Submit any information required by the office of economic development to be eligible for a grant;

(b) A limit on the maximum amount of grants does not apply to any applicant that qualifies for a preference identified in subsection (3) of this section;

(c) The office of economic development shall not pay a grant to a recipient unless the recipient has received the matching source of moneys that is required for the grant;

(d) (I) Upon completion of a project that was the basis of a grant, a recipient shall identify how the grant was used, the number of jobs created or retained in the state, capital invested or retained in the state, and any other economic impacts that resulted from the grant; and

(II) Return any unused grant moneys to the office of economic development, which shall transfer the moneys to the state treasurer for deposit in the advanced industries acceleration cash fund.

(5) Grant administration. (a) On or before September 1, 2013, the office of economic development shall establish procedures and timelines for grant applications; criteria for determining grant amounts, including how preferences will be applied; grantee reporting requirements; and any other program policies. The office may amend these policies at any time.

(b) Prior to awarding a grant, the office of economic development shall consult with the economic development commission about all of the potential grants and other monetary incentives that an office of technology transfer, company, or project is eligible to receive from the state.

(c) The office of economic development shall consult with Colorado-based advanced industries associations or other representatives from advanced industries about the program. This consultation must include reviewing of program grant applications and monitoring and evaluating the grantees and the advanced industry projects.

(d) Subject to the available moneys, there is no limit on the number of grants that the office of economic development may annually award.

(e) (I) In the 2014 calendar year, the office of economic development shall award, at a minimum, an amount equal to one-half of the amount credited to the fund on March 1, 2014, pursuant to section 39-22-604.3, C.R.S., for program grants to clean technology companies or projects.

(II) In the 2015 calendar year and each calendar year thereafter, the office of economic development shall award, at a minimum:

(A) Five million five hundred thousand dollars for program grants to bioscience companies or projects; and

(B) An amount equal to one-half of the amount credited to the fund during the year pursuant to section 39-22-604.3, C.R.S., for program grants to clean technology companies or projects.

(III) The office of economic development may use any moneys in the fund that are not required for the mandatory grants under subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (e) for program grants to companies or projects from any of the seven advanced industries.

(f) The office of economic development shall award at least fifteen percent of the total program grants in a calendar year to each of the three types of grants. If the office is unable to award this percentage in a given year due to a lack of qualified applicants, the deficiency does not roll forward to the next year.

(6) Reporting. (a) On or before November 1, 2014, and November 1 of the next ten years thereafter, the office of economic development shall submit a report to the finance and the business, labor, and economic and work force development committees of the house of representatives and to the business, labor, and technology and the finance committees of the senate, or any successor committees, summarizing all of the grants awarded in the program during the preceding fiscal year. At a minimum, the report must include the amount that each recipient received, a description of each recipient's use of the grant, the number of jobs created or retained in the state, capital invested or retained in the state, and any other economic impacts that resulted from the grant.

(b) Section 24-1-136 (11) does not apply to the report required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (6).

(7) Fund. (a) The advanced industries acceleration cash fund is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of:

(I) Moneys transferred to it pursuant to section 24-48.5-108 (5)(c), as said section existed prior to its repeal in 2015;

(II) Moneys credited to it pursuant to section 39-22-604.3, C.R.S.;

(III) Moneys transferred to it pursuant to section 12-47.1-701 (2), C.R.S.;

(IV) Five million dollars, which the state treasurer shall transfer from the general fund to the fund on July 1, 2015, and July 1, 2016;

(V) Moneys credited to it pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of this section;

(VI) Any gifts, grants, or donations credited to it pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (7); and

(VII) Any other moneys that the general assembly appropriates to it.

(b) (I) The office of economic development is authorized to seek, accept, and expend gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources for the purposes of the program; except that the office may not accept a gift, grant, or donation that is subject to conditions that are inconsistent with this section or any other law of the state. The office shall transmit all private and public moneys received through gifts, grants, or donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the fund.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2014.)

(c) (I) The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the office of economic development for the purpose of awarding grants allowed by this section and for its administrative costs associated with the program. The office's administrative expenses for the program in a fiscal year shall not exceed eight percent of the moneys transferred or appropriated to the fund in the fiscal year.

(II) Repealed.

(d) As provided by law, the state treasurer may invest any unexpended moneys in the advanced industries acceleration cash fund. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund are credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund; except that any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund upon the repeal of this section are transferred to the general fund.

(e) The transfers to the fund from the general fund moneys that are required by subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) must be included for informational purposes in the annual general appropriation act.

(8) Repeal. This section is repealed, effective January 1, 2025.

Editor's note: Subsection (7)(c)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (7)(c)(II), effective July 1, 2016. (See L. 2014, p. 857.)

Cross references: In 2013, this section was added by the "Colorado Advanced Industries Acceleration Act". For the short title, see section 1 of chapter 227, Session Laws of Colorado 2013.

24-48.5-118. Procurement technical assistance task force - members - duties - legislative declaration - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (10) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 1, 2014. (See L. 2013, p. 1391.)

24-48.5-119. Procurement technical assistance centers - funding for 2013-14 fiscal year - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (2) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 1, 2014. (See L. 2013, p. 1391.)

24-48.5-120. Energy research cash fund - creation - distributions - report - definitions - repeal. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (a) "Authority" means the Colorado energy research authority created in section 24-47.5-101 (2).
   (b) "Fund" means the energy research cash fund created in subsection (2) of this section.
   (c) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

   (2) (a) The energy research cash fund is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of the transfers required pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and any other moneys that the general assembly appropriates to it. The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the office for the purpose of distributing moneys to the authority for use as state matching funds in accordance with section 24-47.5-102 (1.5), and for other authority activities authorized under subsection (2) of said section. The office shall not distribute any moneys to the authority for use as state matching funds unless the office receives written confirmation from a financial officer at one of the collaboratory institutions that federal or private funding for the project has been received in an amount equal to or greater than the amount of the matching funds to be distributed.

   (b) The moneys in the fund are also continuously appropriated to the office for its administrative expenses associated with this section, which shall not exceed five percent of the moneys transferred or appropriated to the fund in the fiscal year.
As provided by law, the state treasurer may invest any unexpended moneys in the fund. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund are credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund; except that on July 1, 2019, the state treasurer shall transfer any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund to the general fund.

(3) On July 1, 2014, and July 1, 2015, the state treasurer shall transfer one million dollars to the fund.

(4) (a) On November 1, 2015, and November 1 of the next four years thereafter, the office shall submit a report to the finance and the business, labor, and economic and workforce development committees of the house of representatives and to the business, labor, and technology and the finance committees of the senate, or any successor committees, summarizing all of the distributions made during the preceding fiscal year. At a minimum, the report must include any information provided to the office by the authority pursuant to section 24-47.5-102 (3).

(b) Section 24-1-136 (11) does not apply to the report required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(5) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2020.

24-48.5-121. Procurement technical assistance program - fund - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) Legislative declaration. (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) Colorado businesses need the capability and capacity to compete for government contracts at the federal, state, and local levels;

(II) Government contracting, at all levels, is a competitive and complex process;

(III) A procurement technical assistance program offers education, counseling, and technical assistance to businesses to compete for government contracts; and

(IV) The federal government will match the state's investment in a program to provide procurement technical assistance.

(b) The general assembly further finds and declares that:

(I) The creation of a procurement technical assistance fund and operating terms are necessary to ensure that the state procurement technical assistance program receives federal matching moneys and provides efficient and effective statewide procurement technical assistance resources to Colorado businesses;

(II) The procurement technical assistance program in Colorado is a public-private partnership with a target budget of at least eight hundred thousand dollars in each contract year to provide procurement technical assistance to businesses throughout the state, of which fifty percent is provided through the state by the state's investment and fifty percent is provided by the federal government; and

(III) It is the general assembly's intent that, in each contract year, the office and the qualified entity together obtain at least four hundred thousand dollars for the state's investment in the procurement technical assistance program, which will be matched by the federal government and shall be used for the purposes of the program.

(2) Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Contract year" means one year of the term of the contract entered into pursuant to this section.

(b) "Minority business office" means the minority business office created in section 24-49.5-102.

(c) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

(d) "Procurement technical assistance program" means a program that provides, through a procurement technical assistance center funded in part with federal moneys, government procurement consulting services at no cost to clients who are responding to government contract opportunities.

(e) "Qualified entity" means one or more organizations exempt from taxation under section 501 (c)(3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, that have been designated, by the federal defense logistics agency, as a federal defense logistics agency grantee serving Colorado for the procurement technical assistance program to provide procurement technical assistance statewide. The organizations shall have no other mission or deliverables that are not consistent with federal eligibility criteria for the procurement technical assistance program.

(f) "Small business development center" means the small business development center based in Colorado, hosted by the office, and funded jointly by the state, the federal small business administration, and other private sources.

(g) "State's investment" means the funding for the procurement technical assistance program that is from the state general fund or any other source of state moneys and from cash and in-kind donations obtained by the qualified entity through gifts, grants, and donations.

(3) Contract. On or before September 15, 2014, the office shall enter into a contract with the qualified entity or entities that were selected by the federal defense logistics agency to provide procurement technical assistance statewide. The contract term and requirements shall be in effect for up to six years and shall align with the federal defense logistics agency requirements for such contract.

(4) State's investment. (a) It is the general assembly's intent that in each contract year, the office and the qualified entity obtain at least four hundred thousand dollars for the state's investment in the procurement technical assistance program, which will be matched by the federal government and shall be used for the purposes of the program.

(b) In each contract year, the state, through the office, shall contribute the lesser of the qualified entity's contribution to the previous contract year's state's investment or two hundred thousand dollars to the total amount of the state's investment in the procurement technical assistance program for the then-current contract year. Therefore, the general assembly shall provide not more than two hundred thousand dollars from the state general fund or from any other source of state moneys in each contract year.

(c) (1) The qualified entity shall contribute at least fifty percent to the total amount of the state's investment. Therefore, the qualified entity shall obtain, through the solicitation of gifts, grants, and donations, at least two hundred thousand dollars in each contract year.
(II) The gifts, grants, or donations that the qualified entity obtains may be comprised of both cash and in-kind contributions; except that, of the two hundred thousand dollars that the qualified entity is required to obtain in each contract year, at least the following percentages shall be in the form of cash:

(A) For the first contract year, at least fifteen percent;
(B) For the second contract year, at least twenty percent; and
(C) For the third through sixth contract years, at least twenty-five percent.

(III) If, in any contract year, the qualified entity obtains more than the minimum required percentage of cash contributions for the applicable contract year, the qualified entity may apply the excess cash to the minimum required cash contribution for the next contract year.

(d) (I) By November 1 of each contract year, the office shall determine whether the qualified entity obtained at least two hundred thousand dollars in gifts, grants, or donations and the minimum required cash contribution as specified in paragraph (c) of this subsection (4) for the previous contract year. If the office determines that the qualified entity failed to obtain the total required amount of gifts, grants, and donations and the minimum required cash contribution for the previous contract year, the office shall notify the state treasurer, and the state treasurer shall transfer an amount equal to the amount of the shortfall from the moneys that the state treasurer transferred to the procurement technical assistance fund pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (8) of this section for the then-current contract year to the general fund.

(II) The office shall ensure that by December 1 of the third contract year, the qualified entity is projected to provide at least a cumulative amount of six hundred thousand dollars of the state's investment for the first through third contract years, of which amount at least one hundred twenty thousand dollars is in the form of cash. If, based on the office's review, the qualified entity is not projected to satisfy such requirements, the office shall notify the members of the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction over business issues, and the general assembly may determine whether to continue the annual appropriation to the office for the purposes of the procurement technical assistance program.

(5) Qualified entity's contract requirements. (a) In addition to the minimum amount that the qualified entity is required to contribute to the state's investment in each contract year, the qualified entity is required to perform the following in each contract year:

(I) Provide procurement technical assistance to at least one hundred businesses that are either new or active clients of the qualified entity;

(II) Provide procurement technical assistance in the form of counseling to businesses for at least one thousand five hundred hours; and

(III) Sponsor or participate in at least sixty-five events to inform the business community of the services and assistance that the procurement technical assistance program provides.

(b) On or before October 1 of each contract year, the qualified entity shall report the following information to the office:

(I) The number of new and active businesses that the qualified entity served, the number of counseling hours it provided, and the number of events that it attended during the prior contract year;

(II) Whether the qualified entity obtained at least two hundred thousand dollars in gifts, grants, or donations toward its share of the total state's investment during the prior contract year, whether the qualified entity obtained the required minimum amount of such contributions in cash pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section, and what portion of the gifts, grants, and donations the qualified entity used during the prior contract year; and

(III) Any other information requested by the office.

(6) Reporting. In each contract year, the office shall include in the annual report submitted to the general assembly pursuant to section 24-48.5-101 (7) the information that the qualified entity provided to the office pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of this section.

(7) Memorandum of understanding. The minority business office, the small business development center, and the qualified entity shall enter into a memorandum of understanding to address the following issues in connection with the procurement technical assistance program:

(a) The nature and delivery of the programs and services that will be offered by the qualified entity through the procurement technical assistance program and the method by which those programs will be aligned with the programs offered by the small business development center and the minority business office;

(b) A schedule for periodic meetings between the directors of the qualified entity, the small business development center, the minority business office, and any other relevant entities within the office at the state and regional levels;

(c) A method for tracking the cross-referral of clients between the qualified entity, the small business development center, and the minority business office;

(d) A method for coordinating and organizing the joint participation of the qualified entity, the small business development center, and the minority business office at outreach events and through other marketing opportunities;

(e) A plan for the qualified entity, the small business development center, and the minority business office to share locations, where possible, throughout Colorado; and

(f) Anything else deemed necessary and appropriate by the qualified entity, the small business development center, and the minority business office.

(8) Fund. (a) The procurement technical assistance cash fund is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of:

(I) Two hundred twenty thousand dollars that the state treasurer is required to transfer from the general fund to the fund on July 1, 2015, and July 1 of the next four years thereafter; and

(II) Any moneys that the general assembly appropriates to the fund.

(b) To allow alignment between state and federal fiscal years, the moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the office to be used for the procurement technical assistance program. The office may use the moneys in the fund to pay for the costs of administering the procurement technical assistance program; except that the office's administrative expenses for the program in a fiscal year shall not exceed nine percent of the moneys transferred to the fund in a fiscal year pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8).

(c) All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund are credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

(d) The transfers to the fund from the general fund moneys that are required by subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) must be included for informational purposes in the annual general appropriation act.

24-48.5-122. Local business mobile application software - creation - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the Colorado office of economic development is directed to contract for the development of local business mobile application software in order to:

(a) Assist consumers in the state who wish to find and patronize local businesses;
(b) Allow such businesses to publicize their Colorado affiliations; and
(c) Consistent with the office's duties, promote economic growth through the expansion of businesses in the state.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
(a) "Local business" means a business that is owned, located, or headquartered in, or manufactures in, Colorado.
(b) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in this part 1.

(3) (a) The office shall contract for the creation, management, operation, and maintenance within the office of mobile application software to be known as the "By Colorado App", which software enables users to learn about local businesses that elect to participate in the software.
(b) The software developed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) must be operational on or before January 1, 2015.
(c) The office shall make the local business mobile application software searchable by the types of goods or services offered, location, the type of Colorado affiliation described under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section that qualifies the businesses as a "local business", and any other factors the office deems appropriate.
(d) The office shall make the data in the local business mobile application database available to other application developers. In so doing, the office shall take all appropriate steps to maintain the security of the database and the information used therein.
(e) The office may register a trademark with the United States patent and trademark office or file a trademark with the Colorado secretary of state for the "By Colorado App" developed under this section.

(4) The office is authorized to accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations for information technology costs incurred in creating, managing, operating, and maintaining the mobile application software developed pursuant to this section. The general assembly finds that the implementation of this section is not entirely dependent on the receipt of any gifts, grants, and donations.

24-48.5-123. Maintain relationship with United States armed forces - legislative declaration. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
(I) The defense sector is one of the state's largest economic sectors, with an impact exceeding ten billion dollars per year;
(II) The United States military presence in the state is directly responsible for the majority of the economic activity in connection with the defense sector;

(III) The defense sector, unlike most sectors of the state's economy, is disproportionately impacted by decisions made in Washington, D.C.;

(IV) The branches of the United States armed services are facing multiple years of declining budgets and are making important decisions about where to conduct necessary activities and programs;

(V) States across the country are placing greater focus on the defense sector and are creating stronger competition for jobs tied to that sector; and

(VI) The defense industry is experiencing consolidations and also making decisions about where it will continue to operate.

(b) The general assembly further finds and declares that the Colorado office of economic development is able to help the state protect and grow its economy by being fully engaged in supporting the defense sector.

(2) In addition to the powers and duties specified in section 24-48.5-101, the Colorado office of economic development shall protect and grow the state's economy by being fully engaged in supporting the defense sector and influencing the defense sector decision-making processes that occur at the federal level. The office shall maintain the state's positive interactions with the United States armed forces by advocating for the state's involvement in current and potential military missions, supporting private Colorado businesses that bid for contracts with the United States armed forces, and assisting the state's congressional delegation in protecting Colorado's current United States armed forces commands from future military base realignments or closures.

24-48.5-124. Preserving small businesses through employee ownership - legislative declaration - definitions - repeal. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) In Colorado, nearly one million workers are employed by small businesses which equals about half of our workforce;

(b) According to the United States census bureau, nearly sixty-six percent of small businesses are owned by so-called "baby boomers", people who began turning sixty-five years old in 2011;

(c) Many small business owners in both urban and rural areas of the state do not have a succession plan for their retirement, and as these business owners retire there will be, nationally, approximately ten trillion dollars in assets up for sale;

(d) Studies have shown that employee ownership is one successful solution to this problem because it allows small business owners to strategize an exit that keeps the business and jobs in the community and keeps the business owner's legacy intact;

(e) There are over one hundred eighty employee-owned businesses in the state;

(f) Encouraging broader use of employee ownership is a highly cost-effective way to retain and create jobs, increase wealth for a broad sector of workers, strengthen communities, and expand economic growth;
Local community economies benefit from employee ownership through an enhanced tax base, maintained property values, and higher instances of on-time repayment of loans;

Companies that are partially or fully employee-owned and democratically managed offer the following advantages:

(I) Owners have a succession plan in place to ensure that the company continues to add value to the communities it serves;

(II) Employees are invested in their place of employment and get to enjoy the fruits of their labor;

(III) Employee and management goals are aligned, allowing for a stronger and more resilient company; and

(IV) Employees have the opportunity to be an entrepreneur without all of the risk;

The following statistics indicate the positive attributes of employee ownership:

(I) Only one and three-tenths percent of employees at employee-owned companies were laid off in 2014 compared to nine and one-half percent at other companies;

(II) Employers at companies that have an employee stock ownership plan contributed seventy-five percent more to each employee's retirement plan compared to companies with traditional plans;

(III) The annual sales advantage of an employee-owned company with an average of two hundred employees over a traditional company is nine million dollars;

(IV) Employees of employee-owned businesses earn five to twelve percent higher wages than their counterparts at other businesses;

(V) After five years, employee-owned businesses are sixty-six percent more likely to still be in business than their counterparts; and

(VI) Over a ten-year study, employee-owned businesses had twenty-five percent higher job growth than comparable businesses that were not employee-owned; and

(j) Establishing a revolving loan program through the office will be an integral part of the small business loan package needed to incentivize employee ownership. Borrowers will benefit from flexible and favorable terms, resulting in new jobs, new businesses, and a healthier local economy.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Employee-owned business nonprofit organization" or "nonprofit" means a nondepository Colorado nonprofit organization that supports and promotes the employee-owned business model.

(b) "Existing business" means a business that:

(I) Is at least two years old;

(II) Has at least three employees;

(III) Sees annual net revenues equal to or less than five million dollars;

(IV) Offers the employee ownership opportunity to every employee; and

(V) Plans to enter or has entered into an employee-ownership agreement with at least half of its employees.

(c) "Office" means the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101.

(d) "Program" means the revolving loan program created in subsection (4) of this section.
(e) "Technical assistance" means professional services, including accounting, legal, and business advisory services for the transition of an existing business to an employee-owned business.

(3) (a) No later than September 1, 2017, the office shall engage with an employee-owned business nonprofit organization to educate the staff at the office on the forms and merits of employee ownership in order for the office to be able to promote employee ownership as specified in section 24-48.5-102 (1)(a).

(b) The office may enter into a contract with an employee-owned business nonprofit organization to promote employee ownership as described in subsection (3)(a) of this section if necessary. The selection of the nonprofit must be made following an open and competitive process.

(4) (a) (I) Except as provided in subsection (4)(a)(II) of this section, the office shall establish and administer a revolving loan program to assist transitions of existing businesses to employee-owned businesses.

(II) If the office determines it would be more efficient and effective to contract out the program, the office may enter into a contract with an employee-owned business nonprofit organization, a bank, or a nondepository community development financial institution to establish and administer the program. The selection of such nonprofit, bank, or nondepository community development financial institution must be made following an open and competitive process.

(III) The office may work with the Colorado housing and finance authority, created in part 7 of article 4 of title 29, to assist in offering loans under the program.

(b) The program is only available for existing businesses.

(c) Loans offered as part of the program:

(I) Must be used to obtain technical assistance or for transition purposes and may not be used to pay off other debt, for general operating expenses, or for capital expenditures;

(II) May not be in an amount greater than fifty percent of the cost of transition, not to exceed ten thousand dollars; and

(III) Must be held by the owner of the existing business.

(d) (I) The office may accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations to capitalize the program, and may annually keep the first fifteen percent of the money raised for administration purposes. The office shall transmit all money received through gifts, grants, and donations to the state treasurer, who shall credit the money to the revolving loan program cash fund, which fund is hereby created. The money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the office. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of money in the fund remains in the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year remains in the fund and may not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund.

(II) If the office has contracted with a nonprofit, bank, or nondepository community development financial institution, the office may advance money in the form of a grant or payment to the nonprofit, bank, or nondepository community development financial institution prior to loans actually being made.

(e) As part of administering the program, the office, or, if contracted out, the nonprofit, the bank, or the nondepository community development financial institution, shall establish an application fee, an origination fee, and closing cost policies, set its own underwriting and risk management policies, and shall determine interest rates, loan terms, and maximum assistance levels in guidelines adopted by the office and posted on its website; except that the program shall be administered with a goal of generating enough return to replenish the program for future loan allocations.

(5) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2022.

PART 2

COLORADO OFFICE OF FILM, TELEVISION, AND MEDIA

24-48.5-201 to 24-48.5-203. (Repealed)

Editor's note: This part 2 was added in 2009 and was not amended prior to its repeal in 2010. For the text of this part 2 prior to 2010, consult the 2009 Colorado Revised Statutes. The provisions of this part 2 were relocated to part 3 of this article. For the location of specific provisions, see the editor's notes following each section in said part 3 and the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

PART 3

CREATIVE INDUSTRIES DIVISION

Editor's note: This part 3 was added with relocations in 2010. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated. For a detailed comparison of this part 3, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

24-48.5-301. Creative industries division - creative industries cash fund - creation - definition. (1) There is hereby created within the Colorado office of economic development the creative industries division, which shall be referred to in this part 3 as the "division". The director of the division shall be the person who is appointed director of the council on creative industries by the director of the Colorado office of economic development. The division shall be comprised of the council on creative industries and the art in public places program, and the director of the division shall oversee such council and program.

(2) (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the creative industries cash fund, referred to in this section as the "fund". The fund consists of:

(I) Repealed.

(II) Moneys transferred to the fund in accordance with section 12-47.1-701 (2)(a)(V), C.R.S.;

(II.5) Repealed.
(III) Moneys credited to the fund by the state treasurer for purposes of the art in public places program pursuant to section 24-48.5-312 (8);

(IV) Moneys appropriated to the fund by the general assembly, including, but not limited to, moneys appropriated for the purpose of providing need-based funding for infrastructure development within creative districts as authorized by section 24-48.5-314 (5)(b); and

(V) Any gifts, grants, or donations from private or public sources that the division is hereby authorized to seek and accept.

(b) The moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated to the division for the operation of the division, and for the following:

(I) For purposes of the council on creative industries, including the administration of the council;

(II) Repealed.

(III) For the purchase of works of art pursuant to the art in public places program, taking into consideration the artist's preliminary site visit, the design fee, the total costs of construction and installation of the work of art, jury expenses, and program administration in compliance with the provisions of section 24-48.5-312 (6); and

(IV) For need-based funding for infrastructure development in creative districts as authorized by section 24-48.5-314 (5)(b), to the extent that the general assembly appropriates moneys to the fund for that purpose.

(c) All moneys not expended or encumbered, and all interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund, shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund at the end of any fiscal year. Any moneys not expended or encumbered from any appropriation at the end of any fiscal year shall remain available for expenditure in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

(3) As used in this part 3, "infrastructure development" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Installation and maintenance of temporary and permanent art in public spaces;

(b) Professional services related to the development of a creative district, including strategic plan development and architectural, engineering, and design services;

(c) Support of networking, resource, and professional development and branding and marketing skill development training; and

(d) Community engagement and coalition-building strategies.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration in the 2012 act amending subsections (1) and (2)(a)(II), adding subsection (2)(a)(II.5), and repealing subsection (2)(b)(II), see section 1 of chapter 186, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-48.5-302. Council on creative industries - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares:
   (a) That encouragement and support of the arts and humanities, while primarily a matter for private and local initiative, is also an appropriate matter of concern to the state government;
   (b) That many of our citizens lack the opportunity to view, enjoy, or participate in living theatrical performances, musical concerts, operas, dance and ballet recitals, art exhibits, examples of fine architecture, and the performing and visual arts generally;
   (c) That, with increasing leisure time, the practice and enjoyment of the arts and humanities are of increasing importance;
   (d) That many of our citizens possess talents of an artistic and creative nature that cannot be utilized to their fullest extent under existing conditions;
   (e) That the general welfare of the people of the state will be promoted by giving further recognition to the arts and humanities as a vital part of our culture and heritage and as an important means of expanding the scope of our community life;
   (f) That it is desirable to establish a council on creative industries and to provide such recognition and assistance as will encourage and promote the state's artistic and cultural progress;
   (g) That it is the policy of the state to cooperate with private patrons, private and public institutions, and professional and nonprofessional organizations concerned with the arts and humanities to ensure that the role of the arts and humanities in the life of our communities will continue to grow and to play an ever more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens and to establish the paramount position of this state in the nation and in the world as a cultural center;
   (h) That all activities undertaken by the state in carrying out the policy set out in this section shall be directed toward encouraging and assisting, rather than in any way limiting, the freedom of artistic expression that is essential for the well-being of the arts and humanities.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.8-102 as it existed prior to 2010.

24-48.5-303. Council on creative industries - establishment of council - members - term of office - chair - compensation. (1) There is hereby established within the division a council on creative industries, referred to in this part 3 as the "council". The council shall consist of eleven members, including the chair, to be appointed by the governor. The members of the council shall be broadly representative of the major fields of the arts and humanities and related creative industries and shall be appointed from among private citizens who are widely known for their competence and experience in connection with the arts and humanities and related creative industries, as well as their knowledge of community and state interests. In making these appointments, the governor shall seek and consider those recommended for membership by persons or organizations involved in civic, educational, business, labor, professional, cultural, ethnic, and performing and creative arts fields, as well as those with knowledge of community and state interests. At least one such person from each area designated shall be a member of the council, the membership to include both men and women.

(2) On and after July 1, 1990, members appointed to the council, except the chair, shall hold office for terms of three years, commencing on July 1 of the year of appointment. Members of the council, except the chair, shall not be eligible to serve for more than two consecutive terms nor be eligible for reappointment to the council during the three-year period following the expiration of the second of two consecutive terms. Members of the council shall hold office until the expiration of the appointed terms or until successors are duly appointed. Any vacancy occurring on the council other than by expiration of term shall be filled by the governor by the appointment of a qualified person for the unexpired term.

(3) The governor shall appoint a chair of the council who is a person widely recognized for his or her knowledge, experience, and interest in the arts and humanities, as well as his or her knowledge of community and state interests. The chair shall serve at the pleasure of the governor, but not longer than six consecutive years, and shall not be eligible for reappointment during the three-year period following the expiration of such six-year period. The chair shall advise the governor with respect to the development in the arts and humanities in the state of Colorado. If any vacancy occurs in the office of the chair, the governor shall fill within sixty days the vacancy by the appointment of a qualified person in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-2-326, C.R.S., members of the council shall serve without compensation, but each member shall be reimbursed for his or her necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of his or her official duties.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.8-103 as it existed prior to 2010.

24-48.5-304. Council on creative industries - meetings of council - quorum. The council shall meet at the call of the chair, but not less than twice during each calendar year. Five members of the council shall constitute a quorum. All meetings of the council shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the council. The chair shall vote only in case of a tie on any question voted on by the council.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.8-104 as it existed prior to 2010.

24-48.5-305. Council on creative industries - powers of the council. (1) The council has the powers necessary to carry out the duties imposed upon it by this part 3, including, but not limited to, the power:
(a) To employ such administrative, technical, and other personnel, subject to the corstitution and state personnel system laws of this state, as may be necessary for the performance of its powers and duties;
(b) To hold hearings, make and sign any agreements, and perform any acts that may be necessary, desirable, or proper to carry out the purposes of the council;
(c) To request from any department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other agency of the state such reasonable assistance and data as will enable it properly to carry out its powers and duties under this part 3;
(d) To appoint such advisory committees as it deems advisable and necessary to the performing out of its powers and duties under this part 3;
(e) To accept, on behalf of the state of Colorado, and expend any federal funds granted by act of congress or by executive order for all or any of the purposes of the council; except that the council may expend such funds only upon appropriation by the general assembly if the federal funds require matching state contributions or capital outlay or create a commitment for future state funding;
(f) To accept any gifts, grants, donations, or bequests for all or any of the purposes of the council;
(g) To propose methods and processes to encourage private and public initiatives that recognize and enhance the role that the arts and humanities play in creative industries;
(h) To advise and consult with national foundations and other local, state, and federal departments and agencies on methods by which to coordinate and assist existing resources and facilities, with the purpose of fostering artistic and cultural endeavors toward the use of the arts and humanities both nationally and internationally, in the best interest of Colorado.

24-48.5-306. Council on creative industries - duties of the council. (1) The duties of the council shall be:
(a) To stimulate and encourage throughout the state the study and development of the arts and humanities, as well as public interest and participation therein;
(b) To take such steps as may be necessary and appropriate to encourage public interest in the cultural heritage of our state and to expand the state's cultural resources;
(c) To encourage and assist freedom of artistic expression essential for the well-being of the arts and humanities;
(d) To assist the communities and organizations within the state in originating and creating their own cultural and artistic programs;
(e) To make such surveys as may be deemed advisable of public and private institutions engaged within the state in artistic and cultural activities, including, but not limited to, humanities, music, theater, dance, painting, sculpture, photography, architecture, and allied arts and crafts, and to make recommendations concerning the appropriate methods to encourage participation in and appreciation of the arts and humanities in order to meet the legitimate needs and aspirations of persons in all parts of the state;
(f) To submit a report to the governor not later than ninety days after the end of each fiscal year and at such other times as the governor requests or the council deems appropriate.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-48.8-107 as it existed prior to 2010.

24-48.5-307. Council on creative industries - interference by council prohibited. In carrying out its duties and powers under this part 3, the council shall never by action, directly or indirectly, interfere with the freedom of artistic expression of the established or contemplated cultural programs in any local community or institution, nor shall it make any recommendations that might be interpreted to be a form of censorship.

24-48.5-312. Art in public places program - allocations from capital construction costs - guidelines - fund created - definitions. (1) (a) The state of Colorado, in recognition of its responsibility to create a more humane environment of distinction, enjoyment, and pride for all of its citizens and in recognition that public art is a resource that stimulates the vitality and economy of the state's communities and that provides opportunity for artists and other skilled workers to practice their crafts, declares it to be a matter of state policy that, when appropriate, a portion of each capital construction appropriation be allocated for the acquisition of works of art to be placed in public places.

(b) There is hereby established an art in public places program to be administered by the council; except that, on and after July 1, 2010, the program shall be administered by the director of the division. All works of art purchased and commissioned under the art in public places program shall become a part of the state art collection developed, administered, and operated by the council. All works of art purchased or commissioned under this section prior to March 19, 1987, shall be considered a part of the state art collection to be administered by the council.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Architect" means the person or firm designing the public construction project. "Architect" includes architects, landscape architects, interior designers, and other design professionals.

(b) "Artist" means a practitioner in the visual arts generally recognized by peers or critics as a professional who produces works of art. "Artist" does not include the architect of a public building under construction or any member of the architect's firm.

(b.5) "Capital construction" has the same meaning as in section 24-30-1301 (2)(a), (2)(b), and (2)(c).

(c) "Public construction project" means a capital construction project subject to the provisions of section 24-30-1303 (3).

(d) "Works of art" means all forms of original creations of visual art including, but not limited to:

(I) Sculpture, in any material or combination of materials, whether in the round, bas-relief, high relief, mobile, fountain, kinetic, or electronic;
(II) Painting, whether portable or permanently fixed, as in the case of murals;
(III) Mosaics;
(IV) Photographs;
(V) Crafts made from clay, fiber and textiles, wood, glass, metal, plastics, or any other material, or any combination thereof;
(VI) Calligraphy;
(VII) Mixed media composed of any combination of forms or media;
(VIII) Unique architectural stylings or embellishments, including architectural crafts;
(IX) Environmental landscaping; and
(X) Restoration or renovation of existing works of art of historical significance.

(3) (a) (I) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a), each appropriation for a capital construction project must include as a nondeductible item an allocation of not less than one percent of the state funded portion of the total construction costs to be used for the acquisition of works of art.

   (B) An appropriation for professional services may include planning for acquisition of works of art as required under sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I). Such appropriation may be applied to the funding specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I).

   (II) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a), commencing after August 11, 2010, any capital construction project that is the subject of a lease-purchase agreement, as defined in section 24-82-801 (4), that provides for lease payments from moneys that have been appropriated in full or in part by the state must include as a nondeductible item in the project budget an allocation of not less than one percent of the total construction costs to be used for the acquisition of works of art.

   (B) An appropriation for professional services may include planning for acquisition of works of art as required under sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (II). Such appropriation may be applied to the funding specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (II).

   (III) The requirements specified in this paragraph (a) do not apply to:

(A) Capital construction appropriations covered by section 24-48.5-313;
(B) Agricultural facilities where livestock are housed or agricultural products are grown;
(C) Capital construction appropriations for controlled maintenance as defined in section 24-30-1301 (4);
(D) Any lease-purchase agreements entered into by the state treasurer on behalf of the state pursuant to article 43.7 of title 22, C.R.S.; (E) Any construction by the Colorado department of public health and environment for cleanup and redevelopment of contaminated sites;
(F) Any state appropriation for charter school capital construction pursuant to part 4 of article 30.5 of title 22, C.R.S.; (G) Capital construction appropriations for capital renewal as defined in section 24-30-1301 (3); and

(H) Any capital construction projects that the capital development committee, in consultation with the council, agrees do not meet the original purpose of the requirement specified in this paragraph (a), and determines by affirmative vote that the project meets one of the exceptions allowed in sub-subparagraphs (A) to (G) of this subparagraph (III).
(a.5) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that exceptions from the requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) must be determined by the general assembly, through the capital development committee, not by individual state agencies, institutions of higher education, or the council.

(b) If the allocation provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) is equal to or greater than one thousand dollars, the council shall select a jury as described in paragraph (a) of subsection (6) of this section.

(c) If the allocation provided for in subsection (3)(a) of this section is less than one thousand dollars, the council may, at its discretion, either select a jury or direct that the funds be held within the creative industries cash fund described in subsection (8) of this section for the acquisition of works of art for the state agency for which the capital construction project is to be constructed. Whenever the funds for any state agency equal or exceed one thousand dollars, the council shall select a jury as described in subsection (6)(a) of this section.

(d) The works of art acquired under this part 3 shall be placed in a publicly accessible location within the state agency for which the capital construction project is to be constructed. A collection of works of art may be selected for placement within the state agency and, at the discretion of the state agency and the council, made available for loan, circulation, and exhibition in other public facilities.

(4) The office of state planning and budgeting is responsible for insuring compliance with the provisions of subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The administration of the art in public places program includes supervision of the jury process that convenes to select the site and the artwork, contracting, purchase, commissioning, and reviewing of design, execution, and placement. Acceptance of works of art shall be the responsibility of the council. These activities shall be conducted in consultation with the executive directors of the respective state agencies. The administration of the art in public places program shall not include bearing the costs of maintaining or insuring the works of art. Such costs shall be the responsibility of the respective state agencies.

(6) All works of art acquired with funds allocated under subsection (3) of this section shall be contracted for separately from all other items in the original construction plans pursuant to the following guidelines:

(a) Selection of artists shall be by the jury method. The council shall select jury members and convene juries. Jury recommendations shall be presented to the council for review and final approval. Any significant changes in the design or construction of the work of art occurring after such final approval of the artist shall be subject to the approval of both the jury and the council. The council shall determine which changes shall be considered significant for the purposes of this paragraph (a). Each jury shall contain at least the following:

(I) A representative from the contracting state agency for which the capital construction project is to be constructed;

(II) The architect;

(III) A professional artist;

(IV) A representative from each community in which a capital construction project is to be constructed;

(V) A member of the council;

(VI) A representative from the contracting state agency who is a tenant or future tenant of the capital construction site;
(VII) A member of the state house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house; and (VIII) A member of the state senate to be appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Residents of Colorado shall be the participants of this program except for artists from other states and territories who have achieved national recognition in their specific forms of expression.

(c) Jury members who are not state employees shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in fulfilling their duties under this section. Such expenses shall be deducted from the one percent allocation for art.

(7) Repealed.

(8) For the 2010-11 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, all moneys allocated for the acquisition of works of art pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the creative industries cash fund created in section 24-48.5-301.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the placement of works of art in public places other than those placed pursuant to this section.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former § 24-80.5-101 as it existed prior to 2010.

(2) Subsection (7)(e) provided for the repeal of subsection (7), effective July 1, 2011. (See L. 2010, p. 1006.)

Cross references: (1) For the legislative declaration in the 2010 act amending subsection (3)(a), see section 1 of chapter 230, Session Laws of Colorado 2010.

24-48.5-313. Art in public places - works of art in correctional and juvenile facilities. (1) Each capital construction appropriation for a correctional facility shall include as a nondeductible item an allocation of not less than one-tenth of one percent of the capital construction costs to be used for a prison inmate art fund. The moneys in such fund shall be used for materials to allow inmates to create works of art to be included in the construction of or to be placed permanently in such facility. The department of corrections shall administer by rule a competitive program among the inmates of such facility in order to determine which art projects and inmates shall receive an incentive award not to exceed two hundred dollars each. The council shall appoint one of its members to serve in an advisory capacity to the department of corrections on the implementation of this subsection (1).
(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, "correctional facility" means any state facility in which persons are or may be lawfully held in custody as a result of conviction of a crime.

(3) (a) On and after January 1, 1998, each capital construction appropriation for a juvenile correctional facility shall include as a nondeductible item an allocation of not less than one-tenth of one percent of the capital construction costs to be used for a juvenile art fund. The moneys in such fund shall be used for materials to allow juveniles housed by the department of human services to create works of art to be included in the construction of or to be placed permanently in juvenile facilities. The council shall appoint one of its members to serve in an advisory capacity to the department of human services on the implementation of this subsection (3).

(b) As used in this subsection (3), "juvenile correctional facility" means any facility operated by or under contract with the department of human services pursuant to section 19-2-403, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-80.5-102 as it existed prior to 2010.

24-48.5-314. Creative districts - creation - certification - powers of coordinator and division - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) A creative district is a well-recognized, designated mixed-use area of a community in which a high concentration of cultural facilities, creative businesses, or arts-related businesses serve as the anchor of attraction. In certain cases, multiple vacant properties in close proximity may exist within a community that would be suitable for redevelopment as a creative district. Creative districts may be found in all sizes of communities, from small and rural to large and urban. Creative districts may be home to both nonprofit and for-profit creative industries and organizations.

(II) The arts and culture transcend boundaries of race, age, gender, language, and social status. Creative districts promote and improve their communities in particular and the state more generally in many ways. Specifically, such districts:

(A) Attract artists and creative entrepreneurs to a community, thereby infusing the community with energy and innovation, which enhances the economic and civic capital of the community;

(B) Create a hub of economic activity that helps an area become an appealing place to live, visit, and conduct business, complements adjacent businesses, and results in the creation of new economic opportunities and jobs in both the cultural sector and other local industries. Cultural resources attract businesses and assist in the recruitment of employees.

(C) Are a highly adaptable economic development tool that is able to take a community's unique conditions, assets, needs, and opportunities into account, thereby addressing the needs of large and small and rural and urban areas;
(D) Establish marketable tourism assets that highlight the distinct identity of communities, attract in-state, out-of-state, and even international visitors, and become especially attractive destinations for cultural, recreational, and business travelers;

(E) Revitalize and beautify neighborhoods, cities, and larger regions, reverse urban decay, promote the preservation of historic buildings, and facilitate a healthy mixture of business and residential activity that contributes to reduced vacancy rates and enhanced property values; and

(F) Provide a focal point for celebrating and strengthening a community's unique cultural identity, providing communities with opportunities to highlight existing cultural amenities as well as mechanisms to recruit and establish new artists, creative industries, and organizations.

(b) By enacting this section, the general assembly intends that the state provide leadership and a helping hand to local communities desirous of creating their own creative districts by, among other things, certifying districts, offering available incentives to encourage business development, exploring new incentives that are directly related to creative enterprises, facilitating local access to state assistance, enhancing the visibility of creative districts, providing technical assistance and planning help, ensuring broad and equitable program benefits, and fostering a supportive climate for the arts and culture, thereby contributing to the development of healthy communities across the state and improving the quality of life of the state's residents.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Coordinator" means the person employed on the professional staff of the division who is responsible for overseeing the duties and responsibilities of the division under this section and performing the specific tasks delegated to such person under this section.

(b) "Creative district" or "district" means a land area designated by a local government in accordance with this section that contains either a hub of cultural facilities, creative industries, or arts-related businesses or multiple vacant properties in close proximity that would be suitable for redevelopment as a creative district.

(c) "Local government" means a city and county, county, city, or town.

(d) "State-certified creative district" means a creative district whose application for certification has been approved by the division pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(3) (a) A local government may designate a creative district within its territorial boundaries subject to certification as a state-certified creative district by the division pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(b) In order to receive certification as a state-certified creative district under this section, a district must satisfy the criteria specified in this paragraph (b) and any additional criteria required by the division pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section. At a minimum, the district must:

(I) Comprise a geographically contiguous area;

(II) Be distinguished by physical, artistic, or cultural resources that play a vital role in the quality and life of a community, including its economic and cultural development;

(III) Be the site of a concentration of artistic or cultural activity, a major arts or cultural institution or facility, arts and entertainment businesses, an area with arts and cultural activities, or artistic or cultural production; and

(IV) Be engaged in the promotional, preservation, and educational aspects of the arts and culture of the community and contribute to the public through interpretive, educational, or recreational uses.
(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), in special circumstances a creative district may obtain certification by the division if the land area proposed for certification as a district contains multiple vacant properties in close proximity that would be suitable for redevelopment as a creative district. It shall not be a requirement of certification that the proposed district contain any precise mix of for-profit or nonprofit industries or organizations.

(d) Two or more local governments may jointly apply for certification of a creative district that extends across a common boundary.

(4) (a) (I) Not later than July 1, 2012, the coordinator shall create a process for the review of applications submitted by local governments for certification of state-certified creative districts. The application shall be submitted on a standard form developed and approved by the division. The coordinator shall make a recommendation to the division for action on each application for certification.

(II) After reviewing an application for certification, the division shall approve or reject the application or send it back to the applicant with a request for changes or additional information. Rejected applicants may reapply without prejudice.

(III) Certification shall be based upon the criteria specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section as well as any additional criteria required by the division that in its discretion will further the purposes of this section. The division may request that an applicant provide relevant information supporting an application. Any additional eligibility criteria shall be posted by the division on its public website.

(IV) If the division approves an application for certification, it shall notify the applicant in writing and shall specify the terms and conditions of the division's approval, including the terms and conditions set forth in the application and as modified by written agreement between the applicant and the division.

(b) Upon approval by the division of an application for certification by a local government, a creative district shall become a state-certified creative district with all of the attendant benefits under this section.

(c) The division may remove a certification previously granted under this section for failure by a local government to comply with the requirements of this section or any agreement executed thereunder.

(5) (a) The coordinator shall:

(I) Review applications for certification and make a recommendation to the division for action pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section;

(II) Administer and promote an application process for the certification of creative districts;

(III) With the approval of the division, develop standards and policies for the certification of state-certified creative districts in accordance with paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section and subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section. Any approved standards and policies shall be posted on the division's public website.

(IV) Require periodic written reports from any creative district that has received certification as a state-certified creative district for the purpose of reviewing the activities of the district, including the compliance of the district with the policies and standards developed under this section and with the conditions of an approved application for certification.
(V) Identify available public and private resources, including any applicable economic development incentives and other tools, that support and enhance the development and maintenance of creative districts and, with the assistance of the division, ensure that such programs and services are accessible to such districts; and

(VI) With the approval of the division, develop such additional procedures as may be necessary to administer this section. Any approved procedures shall be posted on the division's public website.

(b) In addition to any powers explicitly granted to the division under this section, the division shall have such additional powers as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. Where authorized by law, such powers may include offering incentives to state-certified creative districts to encourage business development, including, but not limited to, incentives in the form of need-based funding for infrastructure development in state-certified creative districts, exploring new incentives that are directly related to creative enterprises, facilitating local access to state economic development assistance, enhancing the visibility of state-certified creative districts, providing state-certified creative districts with technical assistance and planning aid, ensuring broad and equitable program benefits, and fostering a supportive climate for the arts and culture within the state; except that, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a creative district created pursuant to this section shall not be eligible to receive any form of financial incentive that is derived from moneys allocated to the local government limited gaming impact fund created in section 12-47.1-1601 (1)(a), C.R.S., without the consent of the applicable eligible local governmental entity or entities, as defined in section 12-47.1-1601 (4)(b), C.R.S., inside the territorial boundaries of which the creative district is located.

(6) The creation of a district under this section may not be used to prohibit any particular business or the development of residential real property within the boundaries of the district or to impose a burden on the operation or use of any particular business or parcel of residential real property located within the boundaries of the district.

24-48.5-315. Creative district community loan fund - creation - use of fund - reporting. (1) The creative district community loan fund is created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund consists of moneys appropriated or transferred to the fund by the general assembly, matching moneys leveraged by the division from any community development financial institution, as described in section 38-38-100.3 (20)(j), C.R.S., with which the division enters into a memorandum of understanding regarding loan participation and administration of the fund, and any other moneys leveraged in the fund by any foundation or other public or private person. All interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of the fund and all unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year remain in the fund unless expended as authorized by paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) (a) Subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly and subject to the following limitations, the division may make or participate in loans or loan guarantees from the creative district community loan fund to any person who is developing, constructing, or redeveloping commercial real estate, mixed-use projects, community facilities, or infrastructure... such as sidewalk improvements, pathways for wayfaring, and signage, within a state-certified creative district or a proposed creative district that is a candidate for certification that will support the purposes or growth of the district:

(I) The maximum amount that the division may loan from the fund for any single project is two hundred fifty thousand dollars;

(II) One or more public or private entities must provide matching moneys or in-kind contributions of property, or both, with a total value equal to at least three times the amount loaned by the fund;

(III) The division shall give higher priority to a loan or loan guarantee application for a project that is identified in or compatible with a district's strategic plan.

(b) The division may retain up to eight percent of the moneys transferred or appropriated by the general assembly to the creative district community loan fund in a fiscal year to offset its administrative costs under this section.

(c) Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys from an appropriation made pursuant to this subsection (2) remain available for expenditure by the division in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

(d) The priority of any liens filed in connection with a loan made by, participated in, or guaranteed by the division as authorized by paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) is determined exclusively by the order in which the liens were filed.

(3) The office of economic development shall include in its annual report submitted to the general assembly pursuant to section 24-48.5-101 a summary of all loans and loan guarantees made or participated in pursuant to subsection (2) of this section during the preceding fiscal year. The summary must include, at a minimum:

(a) The amount of each loan or loan guarantee;

(b) A description of the project for which the division made each loan or loan guarantee including a description of the recipient's use of the loan made or guaranteed;

(c) A description of any economic impacts, including but not limited to job creation or retention and capital investment or retention in the state resulting from the loan or loan guarantee.

ARTICLE 49.5

Minority Business Office

24-49.5-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby declares that it is in the best interest of the people of Colorado to promote the interests of minority business by assisting minority business enterprises in establishing information networks with both government and the private sector, assuring a greater flow of information about minority business enterprises and the opportunities available to minority businesses, and providing economic research and information with the ultimate goal of providing the best opportunities for minority business enterprises to enter the mainstream of Colorado's economy.

Source: L. 90: Entire article added, p. 1244, § 1, effective July 1.

24-49.5-102. Creation of the minority business office - director. There is hereby created the minority business office within the office of the governor, referred to in this article as the "office". The office shall be in the charge of a director who shall be appointed by the governor. The director and employees of the office shall not be subject to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.
24-49.5-103. Authority and responsibility of the director. (1) In furtherance of the policy expressed in section 24-49.5-101, the director shall:
   (a) Promote the business development of new and existing minority business enterprises in coordination with state economic development activities;
   (b) Establish networks among governmental entities, the private sector, and minority business in an effort to promote joint business activities;
   (c) Promote minority business participation in federal, state, and local procurement, purchasing, financing, and contracting, in accordance with existing federal and state statutes;
   (d) Promote self-sufficiency and survival of minority businesses with the intent of aiding such minority businesses in their attempts to enter the mainstream of Colorado's economy;
   (e) Enhance the access of information on international trade opportunities to minority businesses in conjunction with Colorado's international trade activities;
   (f) Provide economic research and information on minority businesses for the use of federal and local governmental agencies, private industry, labor, and professional and other groups. The office shall make efforts to recover the costs associated with this paragraph (f) through user fees.

(2) The director may receive funds from the private sector for the purposes of conducting or implementing projects and other necessary operations of the office. All funds received shall be placed in the minority business fund created in section 24-49.5-104.

(3) The director shall develop and implement performance and accountability standards. Such standards shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:
   (a) The fees established pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section;
   (b) The number of businesses by race and ethnicity including the protected groups known as African Americans, Hispanic Americans, Asian Americans, Native Americans, and any other minority ethnic groups assisted by the office and the actual moneys associated therewith;
   (c) The type of assistance provided to the businesses assisted;
   (d) The number of new jobs created;
   (e) The number of existing jobs retained;
   (f) An overview of the minority business office's successes and failures;
   (g) The amount of revenues added to the state's economy due to the efforts of the minority business office;
   (h) The year-end annual report of the minority business office;
   (i) The types of businesses assisted;
   (j) The geographical location of businesses assisted;
   (k) Any suggestions for greater minority participation in the state's economy; and 24-49.5-104. Minority business fund - created. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund to be known as the minority business fund, which shall be administered by the director of the minority business office.

(2) All moneys received from user fees pursuant to section 24-49.5-103 (1)(f) and any other moneys received by the office shall be placed in said fund.

(3) The general assembly shall make annual appropriations of the moneys in the fund to the minority business office for administering the provisions of this article.

(4) Any moneys in the fund not appropriated shall remain in the fund and shall not be transferred or revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any fiscal year.

(5) The general assembly may from time to time make appropriations from the general fund for the use of the minority business office in carrying out the purposes of this article.

24-49.5-105. Historically underutilized businesses - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Businesses owned by minorities and women are among the fastest growing in the state but are historically underutilized in government contracts.

(b) Securing government procurement contracts is a major determinant in the success of businesses owned by minorities and women.

(c) The owners of historically underutilized businesses can benefit from surety technical assistance programs that help those businesses qualify for the performance bonds that are required for businesses to bid on public projects.

(d) It is the intent of the general assembly to assist historically underutilized businesses by creating a surety technical assistance program.

(2) In addition to the responsibilities of the director of the minority business office specified in section 24-49.5-103, the director shall establish a program to provide surety technical assistance services for the benefit of historically underutilized businesses and may contract with insurance companies, surety companies, agents, or brokers for the purpose of implementing the program.

(3) The director of the minority business office shall compile a centralized directory of all historically underutilized businesses that have obtained the contract performance and payment bonds required in order to be awarded a government procurement contract. The director shall ensure that the directory is accessible to governmental entities that enter into procurement contracts.

(4) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "historically underutilized business" means an entity that qualifies as a small business pursuant to 13 CFR 121 and that is a profit-making corporation, sole proprietorship, partnership, or joint venture in which more than fifty percent of the shares of stock or other equitable securities are owned by one or more persons who are members of the following groups:

(a) African American;
(b) Hispanic American, including but not limited to all persons of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish or Portuguese culture or origin, regardless of race;

(c) Asian American, including but not limited to persons whose origins are from Japan, China, Taiwan, Korea, Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, the Philippines, Samoa, the United States territories of the Pacific, or the Northern Mariana Islands; and subcontinent Asian American, including but not limited to persons whose origins are from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, or Nepal;

(d) Native American, including but not limited to persons who are American Indians, Eskimos, Aleuts, or Hawaiians of Polynesian descent; or

(e) Women, including women of any group specified in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subsection (4).

ARTICLE 49.7

Colorado Tourism Office

24-49.7-101. Legislative declaration - policy. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the tourism and travel industries are vital to the general welfare, economic well-being, and employment opportunities of the state and its communities and citizens and that the continued health and expansion of these industries requires a long-term and continuing investment by the state in the planning, promotion, coordination, and development of Colorado as a quality national and international tourist and travel destination.

(2) The general assembly therefore declares it to be the policy of this state to guide, stimulate, and promote the coordinated, efficient, and beneficial development of tourism and travel in Colorado. In addition, it is the policy of this state to provide a long-term and continuing investment in tourism and travel promotion and to support such investment with general fund revenues.

(3) The general assembly further finds and declares that the promotion and development of tourism and travel requires a unified, consistent, and positive statewide effort to be successful and that it is the policy of the state that all levels of state government participate in attaining the state policies expressed in this section. To this end, all state departments shall cooperate with the Colorado tourism office created in this article and shall, to the extent possible, assist the office in its efforts by making property and services available to the office that will facilitate or reduce the costs of such promotion and development. In addition, the Colorado tourism office and all state departments shall cooperate with the tourism and travel industries to further the policies expressed in this section.

(3) "Fund" means the Colorado travel and tourism promotion fund created in section 24-49.7-106 (1).
(4) "Member" means a member appointed to the board pursuant to section 24-49.7-103.
(5) "Office" means the Colorado tourism office created in section 24-49.7-103.

Source: L. 2000: Entire article added, p. 664, § 1, effective May 22.

24-49.7-103. Colorado tourism office - creation - board of directors - definitions. (1) In order to implement the state policies declared in this article, there is hereby created within the office of the governor the Colorado tourism office. The office shall be governed by a board of directors.

(2) (a) The board shall consist of fifteen members. It is the intent of the general assembly that members on the board shall represent diverse geographic areas, statewide associations, and small business owners who can show a direct correlation between the success of the statewide efforts of the office and the economic support of their community and the industry they represent.

(b) Eleven members shall be appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. Two of such members shall represent small business owners and two shall be residents of a small community. For the purposes of this subsection (2), "small business" shall be defined for each representative industry by the association that represents that industry and "small community" shall mean a city or town with fewer than fifty persons employed full-time in tourism-based industries in such city or town or a permanent population of less than fifteen thousand people. The governor shall appoint the initial members of the board on or before August 1, 2000. Of the members appointed by the governor, two shall be appointed at large from tourism-based industries and one member shall be appointed from each of the following industries and groups from lists submitted by such industries and groups:
   (I) The hotel, motel, and lodging industry;
   (II) The food, beverage, and restaurant industry;
   (III) The ski industry;
   (IV) Private travel attractions and casinos;
   (V) Other outdoor recreation industries;
   (VI) Tourism-related transportation industries;
   (VII) The tourism-related retail industry;
   (VIII) The destination marketing industry; and (IX) Cultural event and facility groups.

(c) Two members shall be from the house of representatives to be appointed as follows: One member shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives. Two members shall be from the senate to be appointed as follows: One member shall be appointed by the president of the senate, and one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate. The four legislative members shall be appointed as soon as practicable after the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly; except that the initial four legislative members appointed from the sixty-fifth general assembly shall be appointed no later than August 1, 2005.
Terms of members appointed pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall expire on the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly. Subsequent appointments or reappointments shall be made as soon as practicable after such convening date, and members shall continue in office until the member's successor is appointed. Legislative members may be appointed for succeeding terms as long as they are serving as members of the general assembly. The person making the original appointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term.

(3) The term of each member appointed by the governor shall be four years; except that, of such members initially appointed, two shall be appointed for a term of one year, three shall be appointed for a term of two years, three shall be appointed for a term of three years, and three shall be appointed for a term of four years. A member appointed by the governor to fill a vacancy arising other than by expiration of a member's term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member whom he or she is to succeed and any such appointment shall be made within ninety days after the vacancy occurs. Any member appointed by the governor shall be eligible for reappointment for one additional four-year term.

(4) A member shall serve at the pleasure of his or her appointing authority. The chairperson of the board shall be elected annually by members of the board at their first meeting held after the commencement of each state fiscal year. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for conducting the business of the board. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the members present at the meeting shall be the act of the board.

(5) The board shall meet quarterly or at such other times as the chairperson may determine.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-2-326, C.R.S., members shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The board shall adopt such rules governing its procedure as it may consider necessary or advisable and shall keep a record of its proceedings, which record shall be open to inspection by the public at all reasonable times.

24-49.7-104. Powers and duties of the board. (1) The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt an annual operating budget for the office;

(b) To set and administer policies regarding expenditures from the fund and the additional source fund for travel and tourism promotion, written and graphic materials, cooperative and matching promotional efforts, and other travel and tourism developmental and promotional activities benefitting the state;

(c) To annually gather and disseminate statistical information on the travel and tourism marketing effort, the amount and manner of expending public and private moneys in promoting travel and tourism, and the economic effect of the travel and tourism marketing effort upon the state. Such information shall be provided to the general assembly and the travel and tourism industry as a benchmark to measure the regional and statewide success of the prior year's efforts and to guide the efforts of subsequent years.

(d) To plan for the promotion and development of the travel and tourism industries;
(e) To cooperate with other public and private agencies and organizations in the development and promotion of Colorado's travel and tourism industries;
(f) To gather and disseminate information on Colorado's travel and tourism industries and to operate state visitors' centers for the purpose of disseminating such information;
(g) To purchase or lease real and personal property deemed necessary for the operation of visitors' centers or for any other activities of the board;
(h) To contract for those services and materials required by the activities of the board. Such services may include any administrative, secretarial, clerical, or other staff or personnel services deemed necessary.
(i) To expend moneys in the fund and the additional source fund for the planning, advertising, promotion, assistance, and development of tourism and travel industries in this state, for reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses of the board as authorized in section 24-49.7-103, and for operational expenses of the board;
(j) To accept and administer federal grant-in-aid moneys and to accept and administer donations and gifts of other moneys, property, or services devoted to the development and promotion of tourism and travel in the state;
(k) To finance and govern the operation and development of a toll-free telephone number and an internet site promoting travel and tourism in the state and the state visitors' guide as state-owned assets;
(l) To engage in activities for which private moneys can be secured and used for promotional activities including, but not limited to, telecommunications promotions, publication of privately financed electronic and paper visitor guides, and similar activities;
(m) To ensure that contracts involving the expenditure of moneys from the fund and the additional source fund are granted on a fair and equitable basis and that the purchasing value of such moneys is maximized to the fullest extent possible;
(n) To sue and be sued as a board, without individual liability, for acts of the board within the scope of the powers conferred upon it by this article;
(o) To take appropriate actions to establish the office and to facilitate the transfer of travel and tourism promotional activities from the Colorado tourism board and the Colorado travel and tourism authority to the office;
(p) To exercise any other powers or perform any other duties that are consistent with the purposes for which the office was created and that are reasonably necessary for the fulfillment of the board's assigned responsibilities.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that, in addition to its other duties, the board attempt to initiate joint efforts between public and private entities, joint marketing programs, and privately financed tourism promotional ventures when such activities are consistent with the powers and duties of the board.

24-49.7-105. Administrative costs - transfer of employees. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, any administrative expenses and any staffing or other resource requirements associated with the office or the expenditure of moneys from the fund and the additional source fund shall be met with existing employees transferred from the department of local affairs and the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101 pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and with a combination of existing staff, office space, and resources of the office of the governor at the time the office is created.

(2) The board may expend moneys in the additional source fund for administrative expenses associated with the office or the expenditure of moneys from the fund or the additional source fund.

(3) (a) On and after August 1, 2000, employees of the department of local affairs prior to said date whose duties and functions concerned the duties and functions assumed by the office pursuant to this section and whose employment in the office is deemed necessary by the administrator of the office to carry out the purposes of this article shall be transferred to the office and become employees thereof.

(b) On and after March 18, 2003, three full-time equivalent personnel positions of the Colorado office of economic development created in section 24-48.5-101 shall be transferred to the Colorado tourism office created in section 24-49.7-103. The employees shall be employees appointed by the governor and not classified employees in the state personnel system.

(4) Any employees transferred to the office pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section who are classified employees in the state personnel system shall retain all rights to the personnel system and retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions in the state personnel system shall be made and processed in accordance with state personnel system laws and regulations.

section amended, p. 626, § 1, effective March 18. L. 2005: (3)(b) amended, p. 208, § 3, effective August 8.

24-49.7-106. Colorado travel and tourism promotion fund - Colorado travel and tourism additional source fund - creation - nature of funds. (1) There is hereby created a fund in the state treasury to be known as the Colorado travel and tourism promotion fund, which shall be administered by the board and which shall consist of:

(a) All moneys transferred thereto in accordance with sections 12-47.1-701 (2) and 38-13-116.7 (3), C.R.S.; and

(b) Any moneys appropriated thereto by the general assembly.

(2) There is hereby created a fund in the state treasury to be known as the Colorado travel and tourism additional source fund, which shall be administered by the board and which shall consist of:

(a) Any grants, donations, gifts, or other moneys provided to the state for the promotion of travel or tourism in the state; and

(b) All moneys that otherwise may be made available to the additional source fund or the office to be expended for the purposes set forth in this article.

(3) (a) The moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated by the general assembly for the purposes of this article. All moneys not appropriated, including interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund, shall remain in the fund and shall not revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any fiscal year. Any moneys not expended or encumbered from any appropriation at the end of any fiscal year shall remain available for expenditure in the next fiscal year without further appropriation.

(b) The moneys in the additional source fund shall be continuously appropriated for the purposes of this article. All moneys not expended, including interest earned on the investment or deposit of moneys in the fund, shall remain in the additional source fund and shall not revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any fiscal year.

(4) and (5) Repealed.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section to the contrary, on June 30, 2011, the state treasurer shall deduct two million five hundred thousand dollars from the Colorado travel and tourism promotion fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2004 act amending subsection (1)(a) and enacting subsection (4), see section 1 of chapter 322, Session Laws of Colorado 2004.

24-49.7-107. Exemption from procurement code. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the office and the expenditure of moneys from the fund and the additional source fund shall not be subject to the provisions of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title.

24-49.7-108. Audit requirements. On or before August 1, 2002, and not less than every five years thereafter, the state auditor shall review or cause to be reviewed the manner in which moneys from the fund and the additional source fund are expended, any contracts entered into pursuant to this article, and the activities of the board and the office to ensure compliance with the provisions of this article. Upon completing such audit, the state auditor shall provide a report to the governor and the general assembly reviewing the findings of the audit and making recommendations for statutory changes, if any.

ARTICLE 49.9
24-49.9-101. Colorado channel authority - creation - legislative declaration. (1) (a) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that:

(I) It is beneficial to the citizens of Colorado for sessions of the general assembly to be televised via cable television and webcast and that audio of these sessions be broadcast via the internet;

(II) Televising and broadcasting the proceedings of the general assembly will make Colorado state government more open and accessible to the citizens of this state; and

(III) It is desirable for a governmental entity to be created to coordinate programming and televising sessions of the general assembly as well as programming and televising for other state purposes and making audio recordings of these sessions available.

(b) The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that the authority and powers conferred under this article, as well as the expenditures of public money made pursuant to this article, will serve a valid public purpose and that the enactment of this article is expressly declared to be in the public interest.

(2) There is hereby created the Colorado channel authority, referred to in this article as the "authority", which shall be a body corporate and a political subdivision of the state. The authority shall not be an agency of state government, nor shall it be subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state, except to the extent provided by this article.

(3) (a) The powers of the authority shall be vested in a board of directors, also referred to in this article as the "board".

(b) The board consists of the following nine members:

(I) Three members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, at least one of whom is a registered voter in this state who is unaffiliated, as that term is defined in section 1-1-104, C.R.S., and at least one of whom has experience in the business operations of broadcast journalism;

(II) One member appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court;

(III) One member, serving in the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives;

(IV) One member, serving in the house of representatives, appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives;

(V) One member, serving in the senate, appointed by the president of the senate;

(VI) One member, serving in the senate, appointed by the minority leader of the senate; and

(VII) One member appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives who has experience in the operation of a business or fundraising for nonprofit organizations, or both.

(c) (I) Of the members initially appointed to the board, the members appointed by the governor each serve for terms of two years; the member appointed by the chief justice serves for a term of two years; the members of the house of representatives and the senate appointed by the minority leaders of the house of representatives and the senate each serve for a term of three years so long as they also serve as members of the house of the general assembly from which they are appointed; the members of the house of representatives and the senate appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate each serve for a term of four years so long as they also serve as members of the house of the general assembly from which they are appointed; and the member appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives serves for a term of two years.

(II) Thereafter, members of the board appointed under subparagraph (III), (IV), (V), or (VI) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) serve for terms of four years so long as they also serve as members of the house of the general assembly from which they are appointed, and other members of the board serve for terms of four years.

(III) (A) A vacancy in the members of the board appointed under subparagraph (III), (IV), (V), or (VI) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment, but for the remainder of the unexpired term only; except that these members must at all times consist of a member from each major political party in each house of the general assembly and be appointed by the appropriate appointing authority under subparagraph (III), (IV), (V), or (VI) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), as appropriate, to ensure that a member from each major political party in each house is a member of the board.

(B) A vacancy in the membership of other members of the board occurring other than by expiration of term shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment, but for the remainder of the unexpired term only.

(IV) An appointed member shall be eligible for reappointment. Members of the board may be removed by the appointing authorities for cause, after a public hearing, and may be suspended by the appointing authority pending the completion of the hearing.

(4) The members of the board shall elect a chair and a vice-chair. The members of the board shall also elect a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be members of the board, and the same person may be elected to serve as both secretary and treasurer. The powers of the board may be vested in the officers from time to time. Five members shall constitute a quorum. No vacancy in the membership of the board shall impair the right of a quorum of the members to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the board.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-2-326, C.R.S., if the board determines that the authority has sufficient financial resources, each member of the board not otherwise in full-time employment of the state or a state official shall receive a per diem of one hundred dollars for each day actually and necessarily spent in the discharge of official duties, and all members shall receive reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of official duties.

24-49.9-102. Colorado channel authority - powers and duties - fiscal year. (1)
Except as otherwise limited by this article, the authority, acting through the board, has the power to:

(a) Have and exercise all rights, duties, privileges, immunities, liabilities, and disabilities of a body corporate and a political subdivision of the state;
(b) Sue and be sued;
(c) Have an official seal and to alter the same at the board's pleasure;
(d) Make and alter bylaws for its organization and internal management and for the conduct of its affairs and business;
(e) Maintain an office at such place or places within the state as it may determine;
(f) Acquire, hold, use, and dispose of property, real and personal, and its income, revenues, funds, and moneys;
(g) Receive and expend gifts, grants, and donations;
(h) Make and enter into all contracts, leases, and agreements, including intergovernmental agreements, that are necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the exercise of its powers under this article;
(i) Deposit any moneys of the authority in any banking institution within or outside the state;
(j) Fix the time and place or places at which its regular and special meetings are to be held;
(k) Hire a chief executive officer of the authority and authorize the chief executive officer to hire such other staff as deemed necessary for the operation of the authority; and
(l) Do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out its purposes and exercise the powers given and granted in this article.

1.5 Notwithstanding section 29-1-102 (9), C.R.S., for fiscal year 2010-11 and thereafter, the fiscal year of the authority shall be the period commencing July 1 and ending June 30.

2 The authority shall televise the proceedings of the Colorado house of representatives and senate and such other programming of a state governmental nature as the board may approve, including making available audio recordings of proceedings of the general assembly.

3 All electronically recorded proceedings of any public body of the state, as defined in section 24-6-402, and of all other types of meetings, sessions, conferences, or public events televised by the Colorado channel authority shall be the property of the state of Colorado and shall be public records under article 72 of this title. The Colorado channel authority and any other person or entity acting under contract with the authority shall be the official custodian under article 72 of this title of all such materials. Pursuant to section 24-72-205, the Colorado channel authority and, with the permission of the authority, any other person or entity acting under contract with the authority may charge reasonable fees for making materials subject to this subsection (3) available upon specific request. All electronically recorded proceedings of the judicial branch televised by the Colorado channel authority shall be subject to any rules promulgated by the supreme court or by the order of any court pursuant to section 24-72-204 (1)(c) or 24-72-305 (1)(b).

PART 1

DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL

24-50-101. Short title - legislative declaration - terminology. (1) This article shall be known and may be cited as the "State Personnel System Act". It is the purpose of this article and the personnel rules adopted pursuant to this article to provide a sound, comprehensive, and uniform system of personnel management and administration for the employees within the state personnel system as defined by the constitution of the state of Colorado and laws enacted pursuant thereto, including all employees of the state colleges and universities not otherwise exempted by law.

(2) Whenever, in any law of this state relating to state employees, reference is made to the civil service, the state civil service, or the classified service, such terms shall be deemed to refer to the state personnel system. Whenever reference is made to the civil service commission in any law of this state relating to the administration of the state personnel system, such term shall be deemed to refer to the state personnel director. Whenever reference is made to the civil service commission in any law of this state relating to rule-making powers, administrative appeals, or any power vested by the state constitution in the state personnel board, such term shall be deemed to refer to the state personnel board.

(3) (a) It is the purpose of the state personnel system, as a merit system, to assure that a qualified and competent work force is serving the residents of Colorado and that any person has an equal opportunity to apply and compete for state employment. Recruitment shall be from appropriate sources.

(b) It is the duty of the state personnel board to provide fair and timely resolution of cases before it.

(c) It is the duty of the state personnel director to establish the general criteria for adherence to the merit principles and for fair treatment of individuals within the state personnel system. It is the responsibility of the state personnel director to provide leadership in the areas of policy and operation of the state personnel system as well as to provide consultant services to executive branch agencies and institutions of higher education to further their professional management of human resources in state government. The state personnel director, pursuant to the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of this title, shall provide necessary directives.
and oversight for the management of the state personnel system and in the discharge of his constitutional duty to administer the state personnel system.

(d) The heads of principal departments and presidents of colleges and universities shall be responsible and accountable for the actual operation and management of the state personnel system for their respective departments, colleges, or universities. Such operation and management shall be in accordance with rules and directives of the state personnel director who may conduct a review of such operation and management. Presidents of colleges and universities shall be the appointing authorities for employees of their respective institutions. The appointing authority for a principal department is specified in section 13 (7) of article XII of the state constitution.

(e) The state personnel director shall establish and administer an affirmative action program, including annual documentation by appointing authorities listing methods of remedying, within a time period established by the director, the underutilization of persons covered by part 4 of article 34 of this title.

(4) It is also the policy of the state to base employee advancement and compensation on demonstrated ability and quality of performance in order to encourage and achieve high levels of performance and productivity by state employees.

24-50-102. Department of personnel - state personnel director. (1) Pursuant to section 14 of article XII of the state constitution, there is hereby created the department of personnel, the head of which shall be the state personnel director, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The state personnel director shall be qualified by education and experience in the field of public or private personnel administration or industrial relations and shall be of known sympathy with the merit principle.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the state constitution, the state personnel director shall have those powers, duties, and functions prescribed for heads of principal departments in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968". Any assistants and employees of the department shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

(3) The state personnel director shall prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to the provisions of section 24-1-136, a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the department of personnel.

(4) Publications by the state personnel director circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136.

(5) Repealed.

24-50-103. State personnel board. (1) The state personnel board, referred to in this article as the "board", is created pursuant to the provisions of section 14 of article XII of the state constitution. The board consists of five members to be selected in the manner provided in the state constitution and this section.

(2) The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions under the department of personnel and the state personnel director as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 1 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.

(3) (a) In the year 2015 and every third year thereafter and in the year 2016 and every third year thereafter, an election shall be held for a member of the board in the manner provided in this subsection (3).

(b) The elected members of the board shall be elected by persons certified to classes and positions in the state personnel system in accordance with rules promulgated by the board, in consultation with the secretary of state and pursuant to section 24-4-103; except that the ballots for such elections shall be distributed to each employee qualified to vote with any payroll or other type of distribution otherwise made to said employees. However, such distribution shall be no later than fifteen days before the ballots are to be submitted by the voters.

(c) (I) The election of any person declared duly elected to the position of a member of the board may be contested:

(A) When the candidate is not eligible to be a member of the board;

(B) When illegal votes have been received or legal votes rejected at the time of the election in sufficient numbers to change the outcome of the election;

(C) For any error or mistake on the part of the board administrator in conducting, counting, or declaring the result of the election, if such error or mistake would be sufficient to change the outcome of the election;

(D) For misconduct, fraud, or corruption on the part of the board administrator, if such misconduct, fraud, or corruption would be sufficient to change the outcome of the election;

(E) For any other cause which shows that another individual was the legally elected board member.

(II) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-50-125.4 (3), an action to contest an election under this subsection (3) shall be brought pursuant to rule 106 (a)(3) of the Colorado rules of civil procedure; except that the action shall be brought only in the Denver district court and only after the contesting party has complied with the rules of the board concerning prior notice and opportunity to cure, and the provisions of rule 106 concerning district attorneys shall not apply to this subsection (3).

(d) The general assembly shall appropriate to the board sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this subsection (3).

(4) A vacancy in office shall be filled in the manner used for the selection of the person vacating the office and for the unexpired term. Elected member vacancies shall be filled within... three months after the date of the vacancy, and, in the event of a vacancy for an elected member position, the governor shall request a supplemental appropriation in an amount sufficient to conduct the election, and the general assembly shall appropriate such amount for that purpose.

(5) A member of the board may be removed in accordance with section 14 (2) of article XII of the state constitution.

(6) An action of the state personnel director or an appointing authority which is appealable to the board pursuant to this article or the state constitution may be reversed or modified on appeal to the board only if at least three members of the board find the action to have been arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to rule or law. Unless otherwise limited by this article or the state constitution, a decision of the board shall be subject to review pursuant to section 24-50-125.4.

(7) The board may authorize administrative law judges, who shall be lawyers with at least five years' experience, to conduct hearings on any matter within the jurisdiction of the board upon terms and conditions determined by the board and subject to the provisions of article 4 of this title. The board shall employ such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of its duties, including an administrator who shall serve as secretary to the board. The administrator shall maintain full records of the proceedings of the board and shall be responsible for any other duties as the board may assign. Funds for these purposes shall be appropriated by the general assembly.

(8) Members of the board shall be compensated at the rate of seventy-five dollars per day for each day in which they are actually engaged in the performance of their duties plus reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The board shall meet as often as necessary to conduct its business. The board shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman, one of whom shall be a gubernatorial appointee, from among its members. Meetings shall be called by the chairman or a majority of the board. All members of the board shall be given reasonable notice of all meetings, and three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The affirmative vote of at least three members of the board shall be necessary to reverse or modify any action of the state personnel director or appointing authority.

(9) The board and any political subdivision of the state may contract for the furnishing of personnel services by the department of personnel to such subdivision.

Editor's note: Section 14 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that amendments to subsections (1), (3)(a), and (5) are effective upon proclamation of the vote by the governor only if House Concurrent Resolution 12-1001 is passed by a vote of the people at the next general election. That resolution was approved by a vote of the registered electors of Colorado on November 6, 2012. Subsections (1), (3)(a), and (5) were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, January 1, 2013. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

YES: 1,276,432
NO: 988,542

Cross references: In 2012, subsections (1), (3)(a), and (5) were amended by the "Modernization of the State Personnel System Act". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.

24-50-103.5. Department of personnel - review. (1) The general assembly finds that state government actions have produced a substantial increase in numbers of agencies, growth of programs, and proliferation of rules and regulations and that the whole process developed without sufficient legislative oversight, regulatory accountability, or a system of checks and balances. The general assembly further finds that by establishing a system for review, it will be in a better position to evaluate the need for modification of the department of personnel, referred to in this section as the "department", and for modification of the rules and regulations of the board.

(2) (a) The legislative audit committee shall cause to be conducted a performance audit of the department and the board. The performance audit shall be completed at least seven months prior to July 1, 1981. In conducting the audit, the legislative audit committee shall take into consideration, but not be limited to considering, the factors listed in paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section. Upon completion of the audit report, the legislative audit committee shall hold a public hearing for purposes of review of the report.

(b) A further performance audit as required in this section shall be completed at least seven months before July 1, 2020, and shall be completed thereafter at the discretion of the state auditor.

(3) (a) Committees of reference in each house of the general assembly shall hold public hearings, receiving testimony from the public, the state personnel director, and the chairman of the board, and in such a hearing the department and the board shall have the burden of demonstrating the extent to which a change in the administration, rules and regulations, or operations of the department or the board may increase the efficiency of administration or operation of the department or the board.

(b) In such hearing, the committee shall take into consideration the following factors, among others:

(I) The extent to which the department and the board have operated in the public interest and economy, and the extent to which their operations have been impeded or enhanced by existing statutes, procedures, and any other circumstances, including budgetary, resource, and personnel matters;

(II) The extent to which the department and the board have recommended statutory changes to the general assembly which would benefit the public as opposed to the persons they regulate;

(III) The extent to which the board has adopted rules and regulations, procedures, or practices which enhance or impede the efficiency or economy of state government;
(IV) The efficiency with which formal complaints filed with the department or the board concerning regulation policies, procedures, or practices have been processed to completion by the department or the board and the decisions thereof;

(V) The effectiveness of the department and the board in implementing incentive systems to reward and encourage excellence in public service, particularly in middle and top management levels;

(VI) The effectiveness of the department or the board in filling job vacancies;

(VII) The effectiveness of staffing levels of the department, particularly in view of the decentralization of functions of the department to other departments of state government;

(VIII) The effectiveness of the department and the board as perceived by executive directors of other departments of state government and members of the general assembly;

(IX) The extent to which changes are necessary in the enabling laws of the department or the board to adequately comply with the factors listed in this paragraph (b); and

(X) The extent to which the authority of the department or the board should be or has been restricted by the annual general appropriation bill.

24-50-103.7. Model child care program study. (Repealed)

24-50-104. Job evaluation and compensation - state employee reserve fund - created - definitions - repeal. (1) Total compensation philosophy. (a) (I) It is the policy of the state to provide prevailing total compensation to officers and employees in the state personnel system to ensure the recruitment, motivation, and retention of a qualified and competent work force. For purposes of this section, "total compensation" includes, but is not limited to, salary, group benefit plans, retirement benefits, merit pay, incentives, premium pay practices, and leave. For purposes of this section, "group benefit plans" means group benefit coverages as described in section 24-50-603 (9).

(II) The state personnel director shall establish technically and professionally sound survey methodologies to assess prevailing total compensation practices, levels, and costs. Except as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a), for purposes of this paragraph (a), to determine and maintain salaries, state contributions for group benefit plans, and merit pay that are comparable to public and private employment, the state personnel director shall annually review the results of appropriate surveys by public or private organizations, including surveys by the state personnel director. Any surveys provided on a confidential basis shall not be revealed except to the state auditor's office and the private firm conducting the audit required in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section. The state personnel director shall adopt appropriate procedures to determine and maintain other elements of total compensation, including the payment of incentive awards to employees in the state personnel system. The state personnel director's review and determination of total compensation practices shall not be subject to appeal except as otherwise authorized by law or state personnel director procedures.

(III) (A) The methodologies used for purposes of determining and maintaining prevailing compensation for state law enforcement officers employed by the Colorado state patrol shall be the same as the methodologies established pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a); except that the amount of salary shall be at least ninety-nine percent of the actual average salary provided to the top three law enforcement agencies within the state that have both more than one hundred commissioned officers and the highest actual average salary.

(B) As used in this subparagraph (III), "state law enforcement officer" means the chief and any commissioned or noncommissioned officer and trooper of the Colorado state patrol.

(b) The state personnel director shall use a systematic approach to objectively determine classes of positions and the uniform alignment of classes and occupational groups for all jobs in the state personnel system. The state personnel director shall conduct timely, ongoing, and technically sound evaluation and analyses of jobs in order to group similar duties and responsibilities into clearly distinguished classes and occupational groups that relate to the compensation structure through the assignment of appropriate pay grades. If the state personnel director proposes or the department of personnel recommends any changes to classes or occupational groups or to the pay grades for such classes or groups as a result of the evaluation and analyses required under this paragraph (b), the director shall notify all affected employees and employee organizations of such changes. Upon request of any affected employee or employee organization, the state personnel director shall meet and confer in good faith with such employee or organization regarding the proposed or recommended changes prior to finalizing and implementing any such change.

(c) (I) The state personnel director shall establish a merit pay system in order to provide periodic salary increases for employees in the state personnel system. The purpose of the merit pay system is to provide salary increases for employees based on performance evaluations and salary placement within the appropriate salary range. The state personnel director shall develop the merit pay system so that a merit pay increase is based on the relationship of performance rating distribution and salary range distribution. The merit pay system must include the following characteristics:

(A) Salary range is divided into quartiles, except as set forth in subparagraph (I.1) of this paragraph (c);

(B) The lowest quartile or distribution zone in relation to the midpoint has the highest rate of merit pay, and the rate for each successive quartile or distribution zone is less than the preceding quartile or distribution zone, except as provided in sub-subparagraph (E) of this subparagraph (I);

(C) Performance evaluations are divided into three performance categories, except as set forth in subparagraph (I.1) of this paragraph (c);

(D) The highest performance category has the highest rate of merit pay, and the rate for each lower performance category is less than the preceding category, except as provided in sub-subparagraph (E) of this subparagraph (I); and

(E) Employees who receive an unsatisfactory performance evaluation are not eligible for merit pay.
(I.1) On or after September 1, 2015, the state personnel director shall review the effectiveness of the use of quartiles for salary range and three performance categories in the merit pay system. Based on the review, the state personnel director may adjust the number of distribution zones or performance categories to be used in the system. Thereafter, the state personnel director shall conduct a biennial review of the distribution zones and performance categories and may adjust the number of distribution zones or performance categories based on the review. The minimum number of distribution zones the state personnel director may establish is three, and the maximum number is six.

(I.2) If a state department or institution of higher education has a performance review system that has a different number of performance categories than the number used by the state personnel director in the merit pay system, the state personnel director shall establish a method for converting the departmental or institutional categories into the categories used in the merit pay system.

(I.3) Based on professionally sound survey methodologies, the state personnel director shall establish annually one or more priority groups of employees that have priority to receive merit pay based on available moneys. The priority groups must be based on length of service, relation to the salary range midpoint, performance, recruitment, retention needs, and other factors established by the director. The amount of merit pay that an employee in the state personnel system may receive depends first on the employee's priority group and then on the amount of merit pay, if any, associated with the employee's performance category and salary range.

(I.5) (A) Except as set forth in sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (I.5), the merit pay system applies uniformly across state departments and institutions of higher education subject to the provisions of subparagraph (I.9) of this paragraph (c). For each state fiscal year the state personnel director shall determine the appropriate merit pay rates that apply to all state departments and institutions and the priority group or groups that receive merit pay.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, an institution of higher education may enact its own merit pay system, so long as the system is consistent with the provisions of this subsection (1).

(I.7) An employee who is at or above the maximum amount for his or her salary range is not eligible for a merit pay salary increase, but is eligible for a merit pay payment that is nonbase building.

(I.9) Merit pay is subject to available appropriations. Except as set forth in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (j) of this subsection (1), the general assembly shall appropriate any moneys for merit pay in the annual general appropriation act in suitable personal services line items or other line items that include salary appropriations.

(II) In addition to any other requirements set forth in this paragraph (c), the department of personnel shall develop the merit pay system so that it:

(A) Is simple and understandable to employees in the state personnel system;
(B) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1931, § 5, effective May 22, 2003.)
(C) Is developed with input from employees in the state personnel system, managers, and other affected parties;
(D) Emphasizes planning, management, and evaluation of employee performance; and
(E) Repealed.
(F) Prohibits a forced distribution of performance ratings.
(G) Repealed.

(III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1931, § 5, effective May 22, 2003.)

(IV) Each state department and institution of higher education shall ensure that it has a performance review system that can be used to implement a merit pay system. The state personnel director shall encourage state departments and institutions of higher education to implement performance evaluations of employees that are as objective as possible and that, as soon as possible and wherever feasible, include an assessment from multiple sources of each employee's performance. Such sources shall include, where applicable, the employee's self-assessment; the employee's superiors, subordinates, and peers; and any other applicable sources of an employee's performance. The state personnel director shall adopt procedures to establish a process to resolve employee disputes related to performance evaluations that do not result in corrective or disciplinary action against the employee. Each program established by a state department or institution of higher education pursuant to this subparagraph (IV) shall be subject to the director's approval.

(c.5) (I) The state personnel director shall provide for the evaluation of employee performance. Each employee shall be evaluated at least once a year. The evaluation of performance shall be used as a factor in compensation, promotions, demotions, removals, reduction of force, and all other transactions as determined by the state personnel director in which considerations of quality of service are properly a factor.

(II) A supervisor, including a supervisory state employee not within the state personnel system, who does not evaluate subordinate employees in the state personnel system as required by this paragraph (c.5) on at least an annual basis shall be suspended from work without pay for a period of not less than one workday. The provisions of this subparagraph (II) shall only apply to supervisors who are state employees.

(III) The head of each principal department and each state-supported institution of higher education, respectively, shall determine annually on May 1 whether each supervisor in the department or institution has completed the mandatory performance evaluation required for each employee in the state personnel system during the preceding twelve months. If any evaluations have still not been completed by July 1, the supervisor may be subject to demotion. If a supervisor has not timely completed annual performance evaluations for two consecutive years, the supervisor shall be demoted to a nonsupervisory position.

(IV) The state personnel director shall adopt procedures for the implementation of the provisions of this paragraph (c.5). Nothing in this paragraph (c.5) shall be construed to limit the ability of the state personnel director to provide for additional sanctions for noncompliance with the provisions of this paragraph (c.5).

(V) (A) The state personnel director shall monitor compliance with the requirements of this paragraph (c.5) and paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) and shall annually report the director's findings pertaining to the prior fiscal year no later than January 1 of the following fiscal year to the joint budget committee of the general assembly. The report shall include, by department or institution, the number of supervisors who were suspended or demoted, the percentage of all supervisors who complied with the requirements of this paragraph (c.5), the total amount of dollars that were awarded to employees for merit pay, the total amount of those dollars awarded for each priority group and each salary range and performance category, any reversion amounts that were transferred for the prior state fiscal year pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (j) of this subsection (1), the line item appropriation related to each reversion amount, and the balance in the department's account within the state employee reserve fund as of the date of the report.

(B) This subsection (1)(c.5)(V) is repealed, effective January 1, 2020.

(c.7) In addition to the periodic salary increases authorized by paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), the performance review component of the merit pay system established pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) shall be used for the purpose of determining eligibility for a performance-based award permitted pursuant to section 24-38-103 (1.5). The award shall be in addition to any other compensation authorized by law, and it shall not affect the compensation that the employee is entitled to receive in subsequent years.

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 1117, § 1, effective May 26, 2000.)

(e) The state personnel director shall sustain an employee's base salary in the event such employee's position is placed in a lower pay range due to an allocation of such employee's position, a system maintenance study of all positions in a class, a general job evaluation study of the state personnel system, or the annual compensation survey for a period not to exceed three years from the effective date of such placement.

(f) Initial hiring shall typically be at the minimum rate in the pay grade. On a showing of recruiting difficulty or other unusual condition, the appointing authority may authorize the appointment of a person at a higher base salary within the pay grade.

(g) Benefits shall include insurance, retirement, and leaves of absence with or without pay and may include jury duty, military duty, or educational leaves. The state personnel director shall prescribe procedures for the types, amounts, and conditions for all leave benefits that are typically consistent with prevailing practices, subject to the provisions governing the benefits provided in subsection (7) of this section. The general assembly shall approve any changes to leave benefits granted by statute before such changes are implemented. The state personnel director shall prescribe by procedure any nonstatutory benefits.

(h) The state personnel director may, following consultation with the state auditor and consistent with article III and sections 13, 14, and 15 of article XII of the state constitution, establish special procedures for classifying those employees of the state auditor's office who are within the state personnel system in order to take into consideration the special situations, circumstances, and duties unique to such employees. Such special procedures shall incorporate the directives, requirements, and elements of sections 13, 14, and 15 of article XII of the state constitution, including, but not limited to, the grading and compensation of persons in the state personnel system according to standards of efficient service that are the same for all persons having like duties.

(i) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1926, § 1, effective May 22, 2003.)

(j) (I) As used in this paragraph (j), unless the context otherwise requires:
(A) "Department" means a principal department of the executive branch of state government specified in section 24-1-110.
(B) "Eligible department" means a department that received an appropriation for which there is a reversion amount.
(C) "Fund" means the state employee reserve fund created in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (j).
(D) "Personal services-related line item" means a line item entitled "personal services", "group health, life, and dental insurance", "short-term disability insurance", "amortization equalization disbursements", "supplemental amortization equalization disbursements", "salary survey", or "shift differential".

(E) "Qualifying cash fund" means a cash fund for which there is express authorization for a reversion pursuant to this paragraph (j) from the cash fund to the state employee reserve fund.

(F) "Reversion amount" means the final, adjusted amount of state moneys appropriated from the general fund or a qualifying cash fund for a state fiscal year in a personal services-related line item, a line item entitled "operating expenses", or any successor line item designated by the joint budget committee for the same purposes in the annual general appropriation act to a department that is unexpended and unencumbered as of the date the state controller publishes the comprehensive annual financial report of the state for the state fiscal year. The joint budget committee shall notify the state controller and state treasurer of a successor line item from which there may be a reversion amount. There is no "reversion amount" related to any line item that moneys are transferred from or to pursuant to section 24-75-108.

(II) (A) The state employee reserve fund is hereby created in the state treasury. Within the fund there is an account dedicated to each department. A department's account consists of moneys transferred pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (j) and any transfers directed by the governor pursuant to subparagraph (VI) of this paragraph (j). Moneys within a department's account are continuously appropriated to such department for the purpose of providing merit pay to certified employees as provided in this subsection (1). A department may not expend any moneys from its account without the approval of the director of the office of state planning and budgeting.

(B) Repealed.

(III) (A) Any money in the fund not expended as provided in subsection (1)(j)(II) of this section may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of money in a department's account shall be credited to the same account. Except as set forth in subsection (1)(j)(III)(B) of this section, any unexpended and unencumbered money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

(B) On July 1, 2017, the state treasurer shall transfer twenty-six million three hundred thousand dollars from the fund to the general fund.

(IV) On the date the state controller publishes the comprehensive annual financial report of the state, the state controller and state treasurer shall transfer an amount of moneys equal to a reversion amount from the general fund or a qualifying cash fund to the state employee reserve fund to be allocated to the eligible department's account.

(V) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the state treasurer shall not transfer any moneys from a qualifying fund if:

(A) The reversion is required pursuant to section 24-37.5-112 (2); or

(B) There are insufficient moneys in the fund for the full transfer. In such case, the state treasurer shall transfer as much as is available.

(VI) In order to provide moneys to a department that is unable to generate substantial reversion amounts because of the manner in which moneys are appropriated to the department or other factors, the governor may direct the state treasurer to reallocate moneys among department accounts in the fund. The total amount reallocated pursuant to this subparagraph (VI) during a state fiscal year shall not exceed two million dollars. No other reallocation of moneys among accounts is permitted.

(2) Records. To facilitate the reporting of estimated costs required of the state personnel director pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section, the records of all positions in the state personnel system shall be current and included in the state personnel data system by January 1 of each year.

(3) Repealed.

(4) Annual compensation process. (a) The purpose of the annual compensation process is to determine any necessary adjustments to state employee salaries, state contributions for group benefit plans, and merit pay. The annual compensation survey, based on an analysis of surveys by public or private organizations, including surveys by the state personnel director, shall include a fair sample of public and private sector employers and jobs, including areas outside the Denver metropolitan area. In order to establish confidence in the selection of surveys, the state personnel director shall meet and confer in good faith with management and state employee representatives.

(b) (I) The state personnel director shall prepare an annual compensation report based on the analysis of surveys conducted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4). The purpose of the annual compensation report shall be to reflect all adjustments necessary to maintain the salary structure, state contributions for group benefit plans, and merit pay for the upcoming fiscal year. For the merit pay component, the state personnel director shall include a description of the amount necessary for merit pay for all eligible state employees, as well as the amount necessary for each priority group of state employees. The state personnel director shall also include a detailed analysis of salary ranges for all employees in the state personnel system and how employees' salaries are distributed within these ranges. Each department may provide the state personnel director with a recommendation regarding the amount of moneys that should be appropriated to the department for merit pay for the upcoming fiscal year. The state personnel director shall establish deadlines for the recommendations and shall include a summary of all the recommendations he or she receives in the annual compensation report. The state auditor is responsible for contracting with a private firm to conduct a performance audit of the procedures and application of data, including any survey conducted by the state personnel director. Beginning January 1, 2005, the audits shall be conducted every four years. A report shall be submitted to the governor and the general assembly by the June 30 immediately following the completion of the audit.

(II) The general assembly reviewed the reporting requirements to the general assembly in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) during the 2008 regular session and continued the requirements.

(c) By September 15, 2017, and by September 15 of each year thereafter, the state personnel director shall submit the annual compensation report and recommendations and estimated costs for state employee compensation for the next fiscal year, covering salaries, state contributions for group benefit plans, and merit pay, to the governor and the joint budget committee of the general assembly. The recommendations shall reflect a consideration of the results of the annual compensation survey, fiscal constraints, the ability to recruit and retain state employees, appropriate adjustments with respect to state employee compensation, and those costs resulting from implementation of section 24-50-110 (1)(a). The recommendations for state contributions for group benefit plans shall specify the annual group benefit plan year established pursuant to section 24-50-604 (1)(m). The annual compensation report shall include the results of the surveys of public or private employers and jobs for prevailing total compensation and the reasons for any deviation from prevailing total compensation in the recommendations submitted to the governor and the joint budget committee. The state personnel director shall also publish such report. This subsection (4)(c) is exempt from the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11), and the periodic reporting requirements of this section are effective until changed by the general assembly acting by bill.

(d) (I) For fiscal years commencing prior to the 2003-04 fiscal year and after the 2003-04 fiscal year, the recommended changes to salaries and any adjustments to the recommended changes made by the general assembly in the annual general appropriation act shall be effective on July 1 of the ensuing fiscal year unless the general assembly, acting by bill, establishes a different effective date for that fiscal year or the governor orders otherwise pursuant to section 24-50-109.5 and such order is adopted by the general assembly through a joint resolution declaring a fiscal emergency and approved by the governor in accordance with section 39 of article V of the Colorado constitution.

(II) For the 2003-04 and 2004-05 budget years, to the extent such changes are funded, the recommended changes in state contributions for group benefit plans and any adjustments to the recommended changes made by the general assembly in the annual general appropriation act for the next fiscal year shall be effective January 1 of the next fiscal year. For the 2005-06 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, to the extent such changes are funded, the recommended changes in state contributions for group benefit plans and any adjustments to the recommended changes made by the general assembly in the annual general appropriation act for the next fiscal year shall be effective on the first day of the annual group benefit plan year established pursuant to section 24-50-604 (1)(m).

(IV) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1181), ch. 351, p. 1624, § 13, effective June 7, 2010.)

(f) Any moneys appropriated pursuant to this subsection (4) shall not be used to achieve parity for employees outside the state personnel system.

(5) Pay plans. (a) The state personnel director shall establish pay plans as technically and professionally necessary and shall establish any procedures and directives required to implement the state's prevailing total compensation philosophy as defined in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) No employee in any pay plan may exceed an established maximum salary amount for such plan, except as provided in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section. The maximum monthly salary for any employee whose position is assigned to a nonmedical pay plan in effect prior to July 1, 1991, shall be calculated based on the 1991 maximum of five thousand seven hundred ninety-four dollars, plus the subsequent adjustments made under this paragraph (b) since July 1, 1991; except that classes in the medical pay plan requiring licensure as a physician or dentist shall be subject to a maximum monthly salary calculated on the basis of the 1991 maximum of seven thousand eight hundred twelve dollars, plus the subsequent adjustments made under this paragraph (b) since July 1, 1991. Effective July 1, 2010, the maximum monthly salary in the medical pay plan shall be seventeen thousand nine hundred twenty-seven dollars, plus any subsequent adjustments made under this paragraph (b). Such amounts shall be adjusted by the state personnel director in accordance with the change in the employment cost index for the preceding calendar year or the percentage increase in state general fund appropriations in relation to such appropriations for the preceding fiscal year, whichever is greater. In no event shall such amounts exceed the maximum found in the market as determined by the annual compensation survey. The maximum monthly salary for the senior executive service plan shall not exceed the maximum monthly salary of any nonmedical pay plan by more than twenty-five percent.

(c) The senior executive service is limited to one hundred twenty-five positions. The state personnel director shall establish criteria for inclusion in the senior executive service and shall review each nominated position before it is placed in the pay plan for the senior executive service. The head of the department or agency or state auditor for employees of the state auditor's office shall make appointments to the senior executive service based on competitive selection and is responsible for the management of the employees in such plan. Any person in the senior executive service has no right to any position within the state.

(d) In the medical pay plans, there are no anniversary-based merit increases. The salaries in such pay plans are based on the negotiation of an annual contract between the employee and the department head or the state auditor, when appropriate, and the amount of such salaries may increase, decrease, or remain unchanged from year to year. Any employee dismissed for failure to perform under such contract may only appeal directly to the state personnel board.

(e) In the pay plans for the senior executive service and those positions specified in section 13 (2)(a)(XI) of article XII of the state constitution, there are no anniversary-based merit increases. The salaries in such pay plans are based on policies set forth by the state personnel director. The amount of such salaries may increase, decrease, or remain unchanged from year to year.

(6) Job evaluation.

(a) System maintenance studies involving the assignment of classes to increased pay grades shall be incorporated into the annual total compensation request reported to the general assembly and shall be effective on July 1 of each year unless otherwise ordered by the governor acting pursuant to section 24-50-109.5.

(b) (I) The state personnel director shall allocate individual positions to the proper classes based on an objective evaluation of the job assignment.

(II) Any employee directly affected by the allocation of the employee's position to a class in a lower pay grade under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) may file a written appeal with the state personnel director within ten days after receiving the notice of allocation of positions. The state personnel director, or the director's designee, shall review the appeal in summary fashion on the basis of written material that may be supplemented by oral argument at the sole discretion of the director or designee. At the director's discretion, an advisory panel of qualified job evaluators may be convened to assist the director in making a decision. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (b), the director shall issue a written decision within ninety calendar days after the receipt of a timely appeal. If the director does not issue a decision within ninety calendar days after receipt of a timely appeal, the original allocation decision shall be final. An allocation decision may be overturned only if the director finds it to have been arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to rule or law. The state personnel director shall establish a process for timely resolving appeals within the ninety-day period and the criteria for selection of and method of service upon an advisory panel. Any decision shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to section 24-4-106.
(III) When an employee who has filed an appeal with the state personnel director pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) also files an appeal with the state personnel board pursuant to section 24-50-123 or the Colorado civil rights division pursuant to section 24-50-125.3, the ninety-day period specified in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) shall be tolled until there is a final agency action by the board only if the appeal filed with the board or the civil rights division arises out of the same incident as the appeal filed with the director, is filed before the expiration of the ninety-day period, and is filed before the director has issued a written decision.

(7) Leaves. (a) No employee shall earn more than ten days of sick leave per fiscal year. No employee may retain accumulated sick leave in excess of forty-five days at the end of any fiscal year; except that any employee who had accumulated sick leave prior to July 1, 1988, shall retain such leave and may accumulate a maximum of forty-five additional days. Any excess accumulation may be converted to annual leave at the rate of five days of sick leave to one day of annual leave up to a total of two days per fiscal year. A medical certificate form from a health care provider shall be required for absences of more than three full consecutive working days, or the use of sick leave shall be denied.

(b) The procedures of the state personnel director shall provide that no more than two days of paid leave per fiscal year shall be granted for organ, tissue, or bone marrow donation for transplants. Such leave may not be accumulated.

(c) The state personnel director may establish procedures to allow the transfer of annual leave between employees when one employee, or an immediate family member of the employee, experiences an unforeseeable life-altering event beyond the employee's control. The recipient of any annual leave shall have a minimum of one year of state service and exhausted all applicable paid leave, including any compensatory time.

(d) An employee certified as a disaster service volunteer of the American red cross may be granted paid leave for specialized disaster relief services. Such leave shall not exceed five days for a local disaster or fifteen days for a national disaster in a twelve-month period. Such leave may not be accumulated. During this period of leave, an employee shall not be deemed to be an employee for purposes of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", as provided in articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S. The leave authorized by this paragraph (d) shall run concurrent with and shall not be in addition to any paid leave of absence required by law for service by a member in a Colorado civil air patrol mission as provided in section 28-1-104, C.R.S., or for qualified volunteer service in a disaster as provided in section 24-33.5-825.

(7.5) Repealed.

(8) Payroll. (a) For pay periods beginning before July 1, 2017, salaries for positions in the state personnel system paid on a monthly basis shall be paid as of the last working day of the month; except that:

(I) Salaries for the month of June shall be paid on the first working day of July; and

(II) For state personnel employees in the department of transportation hired before August 5, 1998, as amended, salaries for the month of December shall be paid on the first working day in January, unless any such employee informs the controller of the department of transportation of the employee's desire to be paid in the same manner as other employees in the state personnel system as provided in this subsection (8), in which case, the employee shall be paid in such manner.
(a.5) For pay periods beginning before July 1, 2017, for state employment positions that are not in the state personnel system and that are not otherwise covered by paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), salaries paid on a monthly basis for the month of June shall be paid on the first working day of July.

(a.6) For pay periods beginning before July 1, 2017, for state employment positions that are not otherwise covered by paragraph (a) or (a.5) of this subsection (8), whether or not the positions are in the state personnel system:

(I) and (II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2015.)

(III) Effective July 1, 2012, and for pay periods beginning before July 1, 2017, salaries paid on a biweekly basis shall be paid fourteen days after the last day of the fourteen-day pay period.

(b) For pay periods beginning on or after July 1, 2017, salaries for employees paid through the state's payroll system shall be paid twice a month as follows:

(I) For work performed from July 1, 2017, to July 15, 2017, employees shall be paid on July 31, 2017. For work performed from July 16, 2017, to July 31, 2017, employees shall be paid on August 15, 2017.

(II) Except as otherwise specified in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (b), for all pay periods after the pay periods specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), for work performed from the first day of the month to the fifteenth day of the same month, employees shall be paid on the last day of that month. For work performed from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the same month, employees shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the following month.

(III) For work performed from June 1, 2018, to June 15, 2018, employees shall be paid on July 1, 2018, and for work performed from June 1 to June 15 each year thereafter, employees shall be paid on July 1 of the applicable year.

(c) (I) Any state employee may apply to the department of personnel for a one-time loan to assist the employee in covering expenses in July 2017. The amount of the loan shall not be more than an amount equal to the employee's net pay for a one-half month pay period.

(II) An employee who receives a loan from the state pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall repay the loan as specified in this subparagraph (II). An employee may repay the loan early with no prepayment penalty. If an employee separates from state employment prior to the full loan repayment, the balance of the loan shall be deducted from the employee's last paycheck. An employee shall repay the loan over a three-year period with an after-tax deduction in each paycheck equal to one seventy-second of the loan amount plus simple interest at the state treasury's incremental borrowing rate.

(d) Monthly salaries shall be converted to annual salary as the basis for calculating amounts due for periods other than monthly.

(e) The state personnel director or the director's designee shall regulate, approve, and review all payroll deductions other than those expressly authorized by statute or state-sponsored for all state employees. The state personnel director may assess a charge to the organization that receives the benefit from such a payroll deduction to offset the cost to the state for this service.

(f) No payroll deduction shall be made on behalf of a state employee without prior written authorization from the state personnel director or the director's designee. The state personnel director or the director's designee may authorize a payroll deduction only after receiving a written request for such payroll deduction from the employee, a department or agency representative, or an organization.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection (8), if the state personnel director determines that, due to circumstances in connection with the implementation of the human resources information system, it will not be possible on July 1, 2017, to begin paying salaries twice monthly for employees paid through the state's payroll system as otherwise required in this subsection (8), the director shall, on or before June 1, 2017, notify employers that pay employees through the state's payroll system, employees who are paid through the state's payroll system, and the general assembly that the department will not meet the July 1, 2017, deadline and include in the notice the new date on which the implementation of the twice monthly payroll system will begin. In addition, if the implementation of the twice monthly payroll system is delayed, the director shall allow any state employee to apply to the department of personnel for a one-time loan to assist the employee in covering expenses in the first month in which employees will be paid twice monthly, rather than for the month of July 2017, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (8).

(9) Liability. (a) Except for gross negligence or fraud, no state employee responsible for calculating pay shall be in any manner liable for overpayment or underpayment of salaries.

(b) No employee whose salary may be increased by an allocation of the employee's position to a class in a higher pay grade shall have any claim against the state unless the final allocation decision is made effective more than one year from the time the written allocation request was received by the appropriate personnel office. In such case, the employee is entitled to the difference between the salary of the old grade and the new salary for such period over twelve months.

(10) Total compensation study including retirement benefits. (a) By January 15, 2015, and by January 15 every eighth year thereafter, the state personnel director shall submit to the governor and the joint budget committee, along with the annual compensation report required pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, an addendum with a total compensation study that includes retirement benefits.

(b) The state personnel director shall contract with a third-party compensation consulting firm with actuarial expertise and national standing to perform the total compensation study that includes retirement benefits required pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10). The study must compare total and component costs and values of the state's total compensation against similar workforce structures, including private companies and other states.

(c) For purposes of the addendum to the annual compensation report required pursuant to this subsection (10), the public employees' retirement association created in article 51 of this title shall provide access to official association member information and data under a confidentiality agreement with the third-party compensation consulting firm.

(d) The state personnel director shall notify the joint budget committee of the general assembly if he or she determines that the amount appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose of the study required pursuant to this subsection (10) is insufficient to procure a vendor to complete the scope of the work required.

24-50-104.5. Compliance with federal laws.

1. The state personnel director shall establish the general criteria and processes necessary for the state personnel system to fully comply with all applicable federal employment laws. Holidays and periods of authorized paid leave falling within a regularly scheduled workweek shall be counted as work time in determining overtime for employees performing essential law enforcement, highway maintenance, and other support services directly necessary for the health, safety, and welfare of patients, residents, and inmates of state institutions or state facilities.

(2) The state personnel director may establish an internal review process of alleged violations of such federal laws. Such a review shall be conducted in summary fashion on the basis of written material. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the state personnel director shall issue a written decision within ninety days after receipt of the written complaint. Any aggrieved party may also seek judicial review as specified by the applicable law.

(3) When an employee who has sought a review with the state personnel director pursuant to subsection (2) of this section also files an appeal with the state personnel board pursuant to section 24-50-123 or the Colorado civil rights division pursuant to section 24-50-125.3, the ninety-day period specified in subsection (2) of this section shall be tolled until there is a final agency action by the board only if the appeal filed with the board or the civil rights division arises out of the same incident as the review sought with the director, is filed before the expiration of the ninety-day period, and is filed before the director has issued a written decision.

24-50-109.5. Fiscal emergencies - emergency orders. (1) As used in this section, "fiscal emergency" means any crisis concerning the fiscal condition of state government which is caused by a significant general fund revenue shortfall or significant reductions in cash or federal funds received by the state, which threatens the orderly operation of state government and the health, safety, or welfare of the citizens of the state, and which is declared a fiscal emergency by joint resolution adopted by the general assembly and approved by the governor in accordance with section 39 of article V of the state constitution.

(2) With the advice and assistance of the state personnel director, the governor shall take such actions as necessary to be utilized by each principal department and each institution of higher education, including the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., to reduce state personnel expenditures in the event of a fiscal emergency. Such actions shall include, but need not be limited to, separations, voluntary furloughs, mandatory furloughs, suspension of increases in salary and state contributions for group benefit plans, suspension of merit pay, job-sharing, hiring freezes, forced reallocation of vacant positions, or a combination thereof. Any suspension of salary increases or increases in state contributions for group benefit plans shall apply statewide to all employees in the state personnel system. If mandatory furloughs are utilized in any principal department or institution of higher education, including the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., such furloughs shall be implemented by each appointing authority so that all employees under such authority, regardless of status, position, or level of employment, are furloughed for the same length of time, consistent with section 24-2-103 (2). Employees of the following agencies and employees with duties as described shall not be subject to mandatory furlough: The Colorado state patrol, correctional officers, police officers, employees of the department of human services providing hands-on care, and employees providing hands-on nursing care.

(3) Promptly after the adoption of a joint resolution declaring a fiscal emergency, the head of each principal department and the governing board of each institution of higher education and the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., shall order into effect, on an emergency basis and in accordance with the actions taken by the governor pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, those measures they find necessary and appropriate to reduce the personnel expenditures of their departments or institutions to enable them to operate within available revenues. No such order shall have an effect beyond the time period specified in the joint resolution declaring the fiscal emergency.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (2) by House Bill 12-1081 and House Bill 12-1321 were harmonized.
24-50-110. Budget control - personal services. (1) In order to provide controls and proper identification of personal services costs necessary to carry out the policy of the state regarding compensation of state employees, the following administrative and fiscal procedures shall apply:

(a) Whenever the authorities or responsibilities within state government are altered by the general assembly, executive order of the governor, or action of an executive director of a principal department or whenever in the course of administering the state personnel system the state personnel director conducts a study of positions or classes in the state personnel system, the state personnel director shall estimate the increased costs of personal services, if any, resulting from such actions and shall submit such estimated costs to the joint budget committee of the general assembly and to the office of state planning and budgeting.

(b) In their annual budget requests, the heads of all principal departments of state government shall set forth separately the projected costs of personal services arising from anticipated classification reviews, promotions, and other increases in compensation or bonuses for employees in their departments. The costs of personal services shall include any merit pay.

(c) No funds appropriated to any principal department for purposes other than personal services shall be used for personal services; except that the head of a principal department may use such funds for temporary personal services upon a showing of emergency or unusual circumstances where such use is necessary to the proper functioning of the department. Each such use shall be approved in advance by the governor and shall be reported to the general assembly.

(d) (I) Except as set forth in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), each principal department shall annually reconcile the number of positions it has authorized for the prior fiscal year with the number of appropriated full-time equivalent employees for the same fiscal year. On or before September 1 of each year, a department shall submit a copy of such reconciliation to the department of personnel. On or before October 1 of each year, the department of personnel shall prepare a report that consolidates all of the departmental reconciliations and provide the report to the office of state planning and budgeting and the joint budget committee. The department of personnel has the authority to abolish any nonappropriated or vacant classified positions identified in this reconciliation.

(II) On or before September 1 of each year, the department of higher education shall report to the department of personnel the number of positions authorized at each institution of higher education, but the department is not subject to the reconciliation requirement set forth in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d).

(III) This paragraph (d) is exempt from the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11), and the periodic reporting requirements of this section are effective until changed by the general assembly acting by bill.

24-50-111. Appointments and promotions to offices - competitive examinations. (Repealed)

Editor's note: This section was relocated to § 24-50-112.5 (5)(a) in 2001.

24-50-112. Examinations - when held - standards - eligible list. (Repealed)

24-50-112.5. Selection system. (1) (a) The state personnel director shall establish procedures and directives necessary to implement a merit-based statewide selection system to be used uniformly by all principal departments. Such procedures and directives shall include, but are not limited to, procedures for acceptance of applications, job qualification standards for candidates, extension of eligible lists, consistent evaluation and examination procedures for equivalent job classifications, and development and administration standards for the comparative analysis process.

(b) Appointments and promotions to positions shall be based on a fair and open comparative analysis of candidates based on objective criteria. Selections shall be made without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, marital status, or political affiliation and without regard to sex or disability except as otherwise provided by law.

(2) Employment lists. (a) Employment lists shall be used in the following order of priority: Departmental reemployment lists, promotional eligible lists, and eligible lists. Where there is no departmental reemployment list, an appointing authority may consider another department's reemployment list, together with eligible lists. Departmental reemployment lists shall contain the names of certified employees in a given department laid off for lack of work, lack of funds, or reorganization.

(b) Candidates shall be placed on an eligible list and ranked based on the comparative analysis. Qualified candidates shall receive veterans' preference as prescribed by section 15 of article XII of the state constitution and subsection (7) of this section. The person to be appointed to any position under the state personnel system shall be one of the six persons ranking highest on the eligible list or such lesser number as qualify.

(3) Comparative analysis of candidates. (a) Each appointing authority shall develop the comparative analysis of candidates based on objective criteria to be used by the appointing authority. A comparative analysis must be a professionally accepted standard that compares specific job-related knowledge, skills, abilities, behaviors, and other competencies. A comparative analysis may include, but is not limited to, a written examination, oral board, or search committee. Only qualified applicants shall be included in a comparative analysis process. Applicants shall not be rejected solely because they do not have the education required, except where education is a prerequisite for a profession or is required by law. Where education is not a prerequisite or is not required by law, an applicant's experience shall be considered.

(b) Promotional comparative analysis shall be limited to qualified employees, including persons on reemployment lists. Performance evaluations may be utilized as part of a promotional comparative analysis plan.

(4) Appeals. (a) Any person directly affected by the selection and comparative analysis process action may file a written appeal with the state personnel director. The appeal must be filed within ten days after the administration of the comparative analysis. The director or a designee of the director shall review the appeal in summary fashion on the basis of written material submitted in connection with such appeal, which may be supplemented by oral argument at the discretion of the director or designee.

(b) The state personnel director may convene an advisory panel of qualified human resource selection professionals, with one member selected by the aggrieved person, to assist the director in making a decision. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection (4), the director shall issue a written decision within ninety days after receipt of a timely appeal. The selection and comparative analysis process action may be overturned only if the director finds the action to have been arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to rule or law. If the director fails to issue a decision within said ninety-day period, the original comparative analysis and outcome shall be final. A written decision on any appeal filed pursuant to this subsection (4) or the outcome of an appeal resulting from the failure to issue such a decision shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to section 24-4-106, unless the matter is appealed to the state personnel board pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subsection (4).

(c) The state personnel director shall establish a process for timely resolving appeals within the ninety-day period and criteria for advisory panel selection and service. The process for resolving appeals shall specify that if an employee who has filed an appeal with the state personnel director also files an appeal with the state personnel board pursuant to section 24-50-123 or the Colorado civil rights division pursuant to section 24-50-125.3, only if the appeal filed with the board or the civil rights division arises out of the same incident as the appeal filed with the director, and if the appeal is filed before the expiration of the ninety-day period and before the director has issued a written decision, the ninety-day period shall be tolled until there is a final agency action by the board. The board shall establish rules for certification of a person to a position when an appeal is pending relative to the selection and comparative analysis process for that position.

(d) When an employee who has filed an appeal with the state personnel director pursuant to this subsection (4) also files an appeal with the state personnel board pursuant to section 24-
50-123 or the Colorado civil rights division pursuant to section 24-50-125.3, the ninety-day period specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) shall be tolled until there is a final agency action by the board only if the appeal filed with the board or the civil rights division arises out of the same incident as the appeal filed with the director, is filed before the expiration of the ninety-day period, and is filed before the director has issued a written decision.

(e) After the state personnel director's final decision pursuant to this subsection (4), any person directly affected by the comparative analysis process may file a written appeal with the state personnel board. The petition must be filed within ten days after the state personnel director's final decision has been received by the affected person. The board may grant the petition only when it appears that the decision of the appointing authority violates the comparative analysis standards set forth in this section, in any other provision of law, or in any rules or procedures relating to the comparative analysis process. The board shall review and summarily grant or deny a petition within one hundred twenty days of receipt of the petition. Any petition granted shall be determined in accordance with section 24-50-125.4.

(5) Appointments. (a) Only a qualified candidate shall be appointed to a position in the state personnel system. A qualified employee may transfer between positions in the same class or to a different class at the same pay grade. The gaining organization shall assume all liability for the employee's base salary, credited leave accruals, and other applicable personnel system benefits.

(b) The board shall establish probationary periods for all persons who are initially appointed or promoted into a different position or who are in a position reallocated to a higher pay grade. The probationary period shall not exceed twelve months for any class or position. The person shall be certified to such class or position after satisfactory completion of any probationary period as demonstrated by performance evaluations. Unsatisfactory performance shall be grounds for dismissal of the person by the appointing authority during such probationary period without right of appeal. Any certified employee who is promoted to a different class or position and who fails to perform satisfactorily during the probationary period shall be reverted to a position in the former certified class or be disciplined.

(6) State auditor's employees. The state personnel director may, following consultation with the state auditor and consistent with the principles of separation of powers, establish special procedures governing appointment and promotion of employees of the state auditor's office. The procedures shall address the special situations, circumstances, and duties unique to employees of the state auditor's office. All procedures shall be consistent with sections 13, 14, and 15 of article XII of the state constitution.

(7) Veterans' preference for spouse. (a) If a candidate is the spouse of a disabled veteran who is unable to work, and who can provide proof of such disability pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (7), and who is eligible for preference in hiring pursuant to section 15 of article XII of the state constitution, the candidate is eligible for preference in hiring as follows:

(I) If a numerical method is used for the comparative analysis of candidates, five points shall be added to the comparative analysis score of the candidate.

(II) If a nonnumerical method is used for the comparative analysis of candidates, the candidate shall be added to the interview eligible list.

(b) To be eligible for preference pursuant to this subsection (7), a candidate who is the spouse of a disabled veteran must provide a letter, obtained by the disabled veteran from the United States department of veterans affairs, certifying that the veteran is a disabled veteran and is unable to work due to the nature of his or her disability as determined by the United States department of veterans affairs. For purposes of this subsection (7), the certification letter is valid for twelve months following the date of issuance by the United States department of veterans affairs. In addition, the candidate must provide proof that he or she is the legally recognized spouse of the veteran who obtained the letter pursuant to this paragraph (b).

(c) A candidate is not eligible for preference pursuant to this subsection (7) with respect to a promotional opportunity. Any promotional opportunity that is also open to persons other than employees for whom such appointment would be a promotion shall be considered a promotional opportunity for the purposes of this paragraph (c).

Editor's note: (1) This section was added in 2001 and contains provisions, with amendments, formerly contained in §§ 24-50-111, 24-50-113, 24-50-115 (1), (2), (5), and (6), and 24-50-121.

(2) Section 14 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that amendments to this section are effective upon proclamation of the vote by the governor only if House Concurrent Resolution 12-1001 is passed by a vote of the people at the next general election. That resolution was approved by a vote of the registered electors of Colorado on November 6, 2012. The amendments to this section were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, January 1, 2013. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

YES: 1,276,432
NO: 988,542

Cross references: (1) For the legislative declaration contained in the 2008 act amending subsection (1)(b), see section 1 of chapter 341, Session Laws of Colorado 2008.

24-50-113. Promotions. (Repealed)

Editor's note: This section was relocated to § 24-50-112.5 (3)(b) in 2001.
24-50-114. Temporary appointments - term - tenure. (1) Pending the availability of an eligible list determined by the state personnel director to be appropriate for a class, the appointing authority, with the prior approval of the state personnel director, may fill a vacancy for a permanent position by temporary appointment of a qualified, certified employee in accordance with the promotional policy established by the board. In the absence of such an eligible employee, temporary appointments of qualified persons may be made from without the state personnel system. A temporary appointment shall not exceed nine months in length, except for personal services contracts as permitted by part 5 of this article. An appointing authority must wait at least four months between temporary appointments for the same position that are made pursuant to this subsection (1). If the vacancy is for a permanent position, an eligible list shall be established within the nine-month period following the temporary appointment.

(2) The state personnel director may, by rule, authorize principal department heads and presidents of colleges and universities to employ persons from outside the state personnel system on a temporary basis while an eligible list is being provided or in emergency or seasonable situations nonpermanent in nature, but in each case the period of employment shall not exceed nine months, except for personal services contracts as permitted by part 5 of this article.

(3) Temporary appointees from outside the state personnel system shall have none of the protection of tenure afforded by this part 1 to certified employees.

(4) In case of emergency threatening the public health, welfare, or safety, a temporary appointment may be made without prior approval of the state personnel director, but such appointment may not continue without such approval for more than fifteen days.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the prior approval of all temporary appointments to permanent positions shall be obtained from the state personnel director before such temporary appointments are made. The director may not delegate the authority to approve such temporary appointments. If any such appointment is made before the prior approval of the director is obtained, the appointment shall be considered void from the beginning and the person appointed to such position shall be immediately terminated.

Editor's note: Section 14 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that amendments to subsections (1) and (2) are effective upon proclamation of the vote by the governor only if House Concurrent Resolution 12-1001 is passed by a vote of the people at the next general election. That resolution was approved by a vote of the registered electors of Colorado on November 6, 2012. Amendments to subsections (1) and (2) were effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, January 1, 2013. The vote count for the measure was as follows:

Editor's note: This section was relocated to § 24-50-112.5 (5)(a) in 2001.

24-50-122. Opportunities for training - professional development center cash fund - creation - rules. (1) The state personnel director shall be responsible for the establishment and maintenance of training programs for employees in the state personnel system. He or she shall identify training needs for current and anticipated classes of positions within the classified system, shall identify and recommend to the governor and the general assembly the most economical and effective means of meeting those training needs, and shall regularly assess the effectiveness of such training as may be conducted. State funds shall not be expended for the training of employees in the state personnel system without the approval of the state personnel director.

(2) The executive director of the department of personnel shall establish any fees necessary to pay for the direct and indirect costs of the training programs specified in subsection (1) of this section. All moneys collected shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the professional development center cash fund, which fund is hereby created. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the direct and indirect costs of establishing and maintaining the training programs specified in subsection (1) of this section. All interest derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or any other fund.

24-50-123.  Grievances - review.  (1)  The board shall, by rule promulgated in accordance with article 4 of this title, adopt uniform procedures to be used by all principal departments and institutions of higher education in developing grievance processes for their employees. The grievance procedures shall provide an orderly system of review for all grievances and shall define matters that are subject to such grievance procedures.

(2) Matters arising under sections 24-50-125 and 24-50-104 (1)(c) shall not be subject to a grievance procedure under this section.

(3) The decision of the appointing authority shall be final; except that an employee may petition the board for review. The board may grant the petition only when it appears that the decision of the appointing authority violates an employee's rights under the federal or state constitution, part 4 of article 34 of this title, article 50.5 of this title, or the grievance procedures adopted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The board shall review and summarily grant or deny a petition within one hundred twenty days of receipt of the petition; except that petitions filed with the board that result in an investigation pursuant to section 24-50-125.3 or 24-50.5-104 are exempt from the one-hundred-twenty-day review requirement. Any petition granted shall be determined in accordance with section 24-50-125.4.

24-50-124.  Reduction of employees - definition.  (1) (a) When certified employees who, as of January 1, 2013, are within five years from being eligible for full retirement pursuant to section 24-51-602 (1)(a) are separated from state service, they shall be separated or demoted according to procedures established by rule. Such procedures shall require that consideration be given to performance evaluations of the employees and seniority within the total state service. Such employees shall have retention rights throughout the principal department in which they are employed unless the head of the department requests, and the board approves, in advance, limitation of retention rights to major divisions, institutions, or colleges within the principal department.

(b) The state personnel director shall establish procedures, by rule, for the separation or demotion of any certified employees not covered by paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) from state service due to lack of work, lack of funds, or reorganization. Such procedures shall require that consideration be given to performance evaluations of an employee and seniority within the total state service.

(c) The appointing authorities from all departments shall consider placing a certified employee who has been identified pursuant to the procedures established pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) as a person to be separated from state service into a funded, vacant position for which the employee is qualified. The state personnel director shall establish by rule procedures for such placements.

(d) (I) The state personnel director shall establish by rule a layoff plan that may be used by a department to provide postemployment compensation or other benefits for certified employees separated from state service. The plan may include, but is not limited to, a hiring preference, payment towards the continuation of health benefits for a specified time after separation, tuition or educational training vouchers, severance pay, or placement on a departmental reemployment list.

(II) The postemployment compensation or other benefits may be offered through a separation agreement.

(III) In no case shall the total value of the postemployment compensation and other benefits authorized pursuant to this paragraph (d) exceed an amount equal to one week of an employee's salary for every year of his or her service, up to a maximum of eighteen weeks of the employee's salary.

(IV) A certified employee is not entitled to receive any postemployment compensation or other benefits pursuant to this paragraph (d).

(2) A certified employee who is separated from state service shall be placed on a departmental reemployment list for a period of not less than one year, unless the employee waives the right to be so placed as part of a separation agreement.

(3) As used in this section, "separated from state service" means separated from state service due to lack of work, lack of funds, or reorganization.

Cross references: In 2012, this section was amended by the "Modernization of the State Personnel System Act". For the short title and the legislative declaration, see sections 1 and 2 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012.
good cause shown, the employee may petition the board for a hearing upon the action taken. Upon receipt of such petition, the board shall grant a hearing to the employee. If the employee fails to petition the board within ten days or within such additional time granted by the board, the action of the appointing authority shall be final and not further reviewable.

(4) The hearing shall be held within ninety days of receipt of the employee's appeal pursuant to the provisions of section 24-50-125.4. The employee shall be entitled to representation of his or her own choosing at his or her own expense, consistent with the rules of the Colorado supreme court concerning the unauthorized practice of law. The board shall cause a verbatim record of the proceedings to be taken and shall maintain the record. At the conclusion of the hearing, but not later than forty-five days after the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall make public written findings of fact and conclusions of law affirming, modifying, or reversing the action of the appointing authority, and the appointing authority shall thereupon promptly execute the findings of the board.

(5) In addition, upon request by the employee or the employee's representative and within the period provided in section 24-50-125.4 (2), the board shall hold a hearing on an appeal for any certified employee in the state personnel system who protests any action taken that adversely affects the employee's current base pay as defined by board rule, status, or tenure. A probationary employee shall be entitled to all the same rights to a hearing as a certified employee; except that such probationary employee shall not have the right to a hearing to review any disciplinary action taken pursuant to subsection (1) of this section while a probationary employee. This subsection (5) shall not apply to appeals brought pursuant to section 24-50-104.

(6) Disciplinary hearings shall be limited to those specified in this section.

(7) Failure, without good cause, of an employee or his representative to appear at a hearing shall be deemed a withdrawal of his appeal, and the action of the appointing authority shall be final. Failure, without good cause, of the appointing authority or his representative to appear at a hearing shall be deemed cause to dismiss the case and to award the employee all rights, salaries, and benefits as though the employee had won the appeal.

Cross references: For protection of state employees from disciplinary actions under certain circumstances, see article 50.5 of this title.

24-50-125.3. Discrimination appeals. An applicant or employee who alleges discriminatory or unfair employment practices, as defined in part 4 of article 34 of this title, in the state personnel system may appeal within ten days of the alleged practice by filing a complaint in writing with the board or the Colorado civil rights division in the department of regulatory agencies, which shall investigate such complaint on behalf of the board pursuant to the procedures and time limits set forth in section 24-34-306. In an appeal involving the civil rights division, the state personnel board shall contract with a third party to investigate the complaint. If, after said civil rights division or third party has found no probable cause or has attempted after a finding of probable cause to resolve the complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, the applicant or employee remains dissatisfied, such person shall have ten days from the date he is notified of the civil rights division's or third party's action in which to appeal to the board. The board may set the complaint for hearing or adopt the findings of the civil rights division or third party as its own. If the complaint is set for hearing, it shall be subject to the same time limits as other appeals heard by the board. If the board adopts a no probable cause finding as its own, such action shall not operate to deny an employee a hearing to which he is otherwise entitled by law or rule.

24-50-125.4. Hearings. (1) Except for discrimination appeals that may also be filed with the Colorado civil rights division in the department of regulatory agencies, all appeals from actions of the state personnel director, appointing authorities, and agencies that are specifically appealable to the board under the state constitution or this article shall be filed with the board within ten days of receipt of notice of such action.

(2) The board shall give written notice of the time and place of a hearing to the parties involved at least twenty days before the date set for the hearing. The hearing shall commence not later than ninety calendar days after submission of the appeal to the board and may be continued only once for good cause for no longer than thirty days with the approval of the board.

(3) The board or an administrative law judge for the board shall issue a written decision within forty-five calendar days after the conclusion of the hearing and the submission of briefs. Any party may appeal the decision of the board to the court of appeals within forty-nine days in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11).

(4) If an administrative law judge conducts a hearing on behalf of the board, any party who seeks to modify the initial decision must file an appeal with the board within thirty days of the initial decision pursuant to section 24-4-105 (14). Within sixty days after the record is designated in accordance with section 24-4-105 (15)(a), the board shall certify the record. The board shall conduct its review in accordance with section 24-4-105 (15)(b) and issue its final decision within ninety days after the record has been certified.

(5) If any party is responsible for any inexcusable delay in conducting the hearing or in the issuance of a decision, the responsible party shall pay the opposing party's costs, including attorney fees.

(6) The board or an administrative law judge for the board may give any written notices or issue any written decisions required in this section by either regular or electronic mail or by facsimile. The board shall promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of this title to establish a uniform system for service of written notices and decisions.

24-50-125.5. Recovery for improper personnel action. (1) Upon final resolution of any proceeding related to the provisions of this article, if it is found that the personnel action from which the proceeding arose or the appeal of such action was instituted frivolously, in bad faith, maliciously, or as a means of harassment or was otherwise groundless, the employee bringing the appeal or the department, agency, board, or commission taking such personnel action shall be liable for any attorney fees and other costs incurred by the employee or agency against whom such appeal or personnel action was taken, including the cost of any transcript together with interest at the legal rate. Reimbursement of such attorney fees and other costs shall be made by the employee or the department, agency, board, or commission upon presentation by the employee or agency of a statement of the attorney fees and other costs incurred which has been approved by the state personnel board, and any such claim approved by the state personnel board against an agency shall be a charge on moneys appropriated to the department, agency, board, or commission. Each department, agency, board, or commission shall report to the joint budget committee each year concerning the number of claims made and the amount of moneys paid by the department, agency, board, or commission under this section during the previous fiscal year.

24-50-126. Resignation - procedure and effect. (1) An employee may resign by filing his reasons in writing with the appointing authority.

(2) Qualified employees who have resigned in good standing may be reinstated under conditions which the board shall prescribe by rule.

(3) The board shall by rule prescribe the conditions under which absence without leave will be construed to be an automatic resignation.

24-50-127. Employee records - release of location information concerning individuals with outstanding felony arrest warrants - state personnel director's duties. (1) The state personnel director shall maintain the examination record of every candidate and the employment record of every employee. In addition, the state personnel director shall establish and maintain a personnel data inventory of all employees in the personnel system, which inventory shall contain such items as education, training, skills, and other pertinent data. The state personnel director shall make available such data to department heads for the most efficient utilization of the state's manpower.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any provision of state law to the contrary and to the extent allowable under federal law, at the request of the Colorado bureau of investigation, the state personnel director or the director's designee shall provide the bureau with information concerning the location of any person whose name appears in the division's records who is the subject of an outstanding felony arrest warrant. Upon receipt of such information, it shall be the responsibility of the bureau to provide appropriate law enforcement agencies with location information obtained from the division. Location information provided pursuant to this section shall be used solely for law enforcement purposes. The state personnel director or the director's designee and the bureau shall determine and employ the most cost-effective method for obtaining and providing location information pursuant to this section. Neither the state personnel director, the director's designee, nor the division's employees or agents shall be liable in civil action for providing information in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (a).

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), "law enforcement agency" means any agency of the state or its political subdivisions that is responsible for enforcing the laws of this state. "Law enforcement agency" includes but is not limited to any police department, sheriff's department, district attorney's office, the office of the state attorney general, and the Colorado bureau of investigation.

24-50-128. Certification required before salary paid. (1) No salary shall be paid to any officer or employee of the state within the state personnel system as provided by the constitution unless the state personnel director has certified that the employment is in accordance with this part 1.

(2) and (3) Repealed.

24-50-129. Appointing authority's salary liability. If any appointment is willfully made contrary to the provisions of this part 1, the appointing authority shall be personally responsible for any salary liability incurred.

24-50-130. Form of records and reports. The state personnel director shall prescribe the form of records and reports required to give effect to this article, and all appointing authorities shall maintain and submit the reports and records required.

24-50-131. Subpoena powers. The board, its administrative law judges, and the state personnel director, in the performance of their duties under this article, shall have the power of subpoena over persons and records, and such powers shall be enforceable by the courts.

24-50-132. Political considerations and prohibited activities. Employees in the state personnel system shall be selected without regard to political considerations, shall not use any state facility or resource or the authority of any state office in support of any candidate, and shall not campaign actively for any candidate on state time or in any manner calculated to exert the influence of state employment.

24-50-134. Moving and relocation expenses. (1) When an employee in the state personnel system is required by any appointing authority, because of a change in assignment or a promotion or for any other reason related to his duties, to change his place of residence, such employee shall be allowed his moving and relocation expenses incurred by reason of such change of residence, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) As used in this section, "promotion" means changing an employee from one class of work to a different class of work at a higher pay grade.

(3) As used in this section, "household effects" means and includes only household or personal effects such as furniture, clothing, musical instruments, household appliances, foods, and other items which are usual and necessary for the maintenance of a household.

(4) In addition to the allowances specified under subsections (5.1) and (6) of this section, state payment for moving expenses shall be limited to one of the following methods:

(a) Necessary expenses incurred for the packing, insurance, transportation, storage in transit not to exceed thirty days, unpacking, and installation at the new location of an employee's household effects shall be allowed subject to the provision that state payment shall not be made for household effects in excess of ten thousand pounds net weight for those with dependents and five thousand pounds net weight for those without dependents. Any expenses, including insurance, for household effects exceeding these weight limitations shall be borne by the employee being moved.

(b) Repealed.

(b.1) State payment shall be allowed for rental of trailers or trucks from commercial establishments for movement of household effects and for charges by commercial establishments for towing of house trailers containing the household effects of an employee. If such costs exceed an amount set by fiscal rule promulgated by the controller which fiscal rule may not authorize a sum in excess of one thousand dollars, the claim shall be accompanied by at least two competitive bids, and state payment shall be made at the rates proposed in the lowest bid.

(c) Repealed.
An employee, at his option, may pack and unpack his own household effects and move himself by rental trailer or truck. The employee shall be compensated an amount set by fiscal rule promulgated by the controller, which fiscal rule may not authorize a sum in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars, and paid for the truck and trailer rental as prescribed in paragraph (b.1) of this subsection (4).

(5) Repealed.

(5.1) Mileage allowance for one personal automobile shall be authorized and reimbursed at the current rate.

(6) When an employee is required by any appointing authority, because of a change in assignment or a promotion or for any other reason related to his duties, to change his place of residence, such employee shall receive his per diem allowance up to a maximum of thirty days for necessary expenses incurred while locating a permanent residence at the new location. He may exclude at his option interruptions caused by sick leave, vacation, other authorized leave of absence, or ordered travel. The rates of reimbursement under this subsection (6) shall not exceed the rates fixed by executive order.

Editor's note: Subsections (4)(b), (4)(c), and (5) provided for the repeal of those provisions, effective June 30, 1985. (See L. 83, p. 859.)

Cross references: For mileage allowances, see § 24-9-104.

24-50-135. Exemptions from personnel system. (1) Administrators employed in educational institutions and departments not charitable or reformatory in character shall be exempt from the state personnel system. For purposes of this section, "administrators employed in educational institutions and departments" means:

(a) Officers of an educational institution and their executive assistants; employees in professional positions, including the professional employees of a governing board; and any other employees involved in the direct delivery of academic curriculum;

(b) and (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 419, § 1, effective August 4, 2004.)

(d) and (e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1301), ch. 297, p. 1425, § 19, effective August 10, 2011.)

(f) Professional officers and professional staff of the department of higher education; and

(g) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 419, § 1, effective August 4, 2004.)

(h) Employees in positions funded by grants, gifts, or revenues generated through auxiliary activities. For purposes of this paragraph (h), "auxiliary activities" means institutional activities managed and accounted for as self-supporting activities.

(2) (a) The president of each educational institution or a person designated by the president shall determine which administrative positions in that institution are exempt from the state personnel system under subsection (1) of this section, subject to an appeal to the board;
except that a position shall not be determined to be exempt while it is held by an existing employee in the state personnel system. The president of an educational institution may decide not to exempt a position funded through auxiliary activities if the president determines that exempting the position is not in the best interests of the institution.

(b) The executive director of the Colorado commission on higher education shall determine which administrative positions in the department of higher education other than administrative positions in educational institutions are exempt from the state personnel system under subsection (1) of this section, subject to an appeal to the board.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1301), ch. 297, p. 1425, § 19, effective August 10, 2011.)

(d) No later than December 31 of each year, the executive director of the Colorado commission on higher education shall submit a report to the state personnel director, in the form prescribed by the director, listing all positions in the department of higher education, other than positions at educational institutions, that are exempt from the state personnel system in accordance with this section.

(3) For purposes of this section, a person is in a professional position or is a professional employee or professional staff if the person is in a position that involves the exercise of discretion, analytical skill, judgment, personal accountability, and responsibility for creating, developing, integrating, applying, or sharing an organized body of knowledge that characteristically is:

(a) Acquired through education or training that meets the requirements for a bachelor's or graduate degree or equivalent specialized experience; and

(b) Continuously studied to explore, extend, and use additional discoveries, interpretations, and applications and to improve data, materials, equipment, applications, and methods.

(4) The state personnel director shall establish procedures to approve the exemption of an employee from the state personnel system pursuant to section 13 (2)(a)(XI) and (2)(a)(XII) of article XII of the state constitution.

Editor's note: (1) Subsection (1)(g) was amended in House Bill 04-1362. Those amendments were superseded by the amendment of the section in Senate Bill 04-007, effective August 4, 2004.

(2) Section 14 of chapter 260, Session Laws of Colorado 2012, provides that subsection (4) is effective upon proclamation of the vote by the governor only if House Concurrent Resolution 12-1001 is passed by a vote of the people at the next general election. That resolution was approved by a vote of the registered electors of Colorado on November 6, 2012. Subsection (4) was effective upon the proclamation of the Governor, January 1, 2013. The vote count for the measure was as follows:
24-50-136. Persons brought into the personnel system. (1) Whenever a person currently or previously employed by the state of Colorado, not within the state personnel system, enters or is brought into the state personnel system, the person shall be credited with his or her former state service for purposes of accumulated leave, leave earning rates, seniority, and other benefits, excluding retirement credit, afforded an employee in the state personnel system. Previous employment with the state shall include any period of employment for which an officer or employee received compensation not limited solely to expense reimbursement. Credit for previous state employment shall not be given for temporary employment, including student employment at an institution of higher education or the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., or service as a member of a part-time board or commission.

(2) Whenever, by reason of constitutional amendment, legislative enactment, executive order, or action of an executive department functions outside state government are assumed by state government, persons performing such functions shall be credited with the years of service in their former positions for purposes of accumulated leave, leave earning rates, seniority, and other benefits, excluding retirement credit, afforded an employee in the state personnel system.

(3) Whenever employees enter the state personnel system from political subdivisions of the state with merit systems similar to the state personnel system as a result of a formal arrangement with that merit system, the state personnel director shall, by rule adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title, establish rates and conditions of accumulated leave carry-over, leave earning rates, seniority, and other benefits, excluding retirement credit, afforded an employee in the state personnel system. Such rates and conditions shall fairly recognize the employees' prior employment and provide a recruitment incentive to those persons who might benefit state government.

24-50-137. Persons holding exempted positions.

(1) and (2) Repealed.

(3) (Repeal provision deleted by revision.)

(4) Any certified employee of the personnel system who accepts an appointment to an exempt position at the request of the governor or other elected or appointed officials of this state shall be granted leave without pay from his personnel system position for the initial period of appointment to the exempt position. Upon termination of the initial period of such appointment, such employee shall be reinstated to his former position with no loss of any rights or benefits accruing to that position in his absence and with restoration of all accrued unused leave which he had at the time of acceptance of the exempt appointment. In the event his former position no longer exists, the layoff procedure shall be followed. If such employee does not apply to return to his personnel system position within a thirty-day period of his termination from the exempt position, he shall be deemed to have resigned.

Editor's note: Subsection (3) provided for the repeal of subsections (1) and (2), effective on the second Tuesday of January 1975, and is therefore deleted by revision as obsolete.

24-50-138. Effect of transfer of powers, duties, and functions. (1) The department of personnel to which powers, duties, and functions of the civil service commission are transferred shall be the successor in every way with respect to such powers, duties, and functions, subject to the provisions of the state constitution. Every act performed in the exercise of such powers, duties, and functions by the department of personnel shall be deemed to have the same force and effect as if performed by the civil service commission prior to July 1, 1971. Whenever the civil service commission is referred to or designated by any law, contract, insurance policy, bond, or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the state personnel board or the state personnel director, as the case may be, in which the powers, duties, and functions of the civil service commission are vested.

(2) No suit, action, or other proceeding, judicial or administrative, lawfully commenced by or against the civil service commission or by or against any officer or member of the civil service commission in his official capacity or in relation to the discharge of his official duties shall abate by this part 1. The court may allow the suit, action, or other proceeding to be maintained by or against the state personnel board or the state personnel director, as the case may be, or any officer affected.

(3) No criminal action commenced or which could have been commenced by the state shall abate by the taking effect of this part 1.

24-50-139. Administrative law judges - duties - qualifications - repeal. (Repealed) amended, p. 282, § 42, effective June 29. L. 94: Entire section amended, p. 93, § 4, effective March 15. L. 2004: (2) added by revision, pp. 1695, 1704, §§ 33, 49.

Editor's note: Subsection (2) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2005. (See L. 2004, pp. 1695, 1704.)

24-50-140. Reports on other employment systems. In order to provide for the coordination of the state personnel system with other systems of state employees, no later than November 15 of each year, each department or agency of state government having employees who are not within the state personnel system, including but not limited to the state institutions of higher education and the judicial department, shall submit to the joint budget committee and any member of the general assembly so requesting such copy a classification plan for those employees not within the state personnel system, including a preliminary estimate of the number of such employees and their salary levels for the ensuing fiscal year and a statement of the pay increase policies and procedures utilized by the department or agency. No later than January 1 next following, each such department or agency shall transmit to the joint budget committee and any member of the general assembly so requesting such copy a final estimate of the number of such employees and their salary levels for the ensuing fiscal year.

24-50-141. Rules and regulations - limitations - affirmative action corrective remedies - implementation. (1) It is the intent of the general assembly to encourage the implementation of equal employment opportunities and affirmative action corrective remedies within the state personnel system which preserve the merit principles contained in section 13 of article XII of the state constitution and this article and which disavow and prohibit the imposition of a mandatory quota system. Until January 1, 1980, and while underutilization of and invidious discrimination against members of ethnic and racial minorities and women exist and continue to exist within the state personnel system, the board is authorized to adopt and implement rules and regulations which carry out the intent of this section. Such rules and regulations shall be implemented only upon written findings by the state personnel director in each instance that the following conditions exist with reference to specific appointments and promotions within the state personnel system:

(a) The appointing authority has voluntarily requested referrals for affirmative action purposes;

(b) There is discriminatory underutilization of members of the ethnic or racial minority group or women for which the referral has been requested, within the agency, in the class for which an appropriate eligible list or combination of eligible lists has been compiled; and

(c) The test or selection devices for the compilation of such eligible list or lists have not been validated according to applicable employee selection guidelines.

(2) Rules and regulations of the state personnel system adopted and implemented in accordance with this section, except rules and regulations relating to grievance and appeal procedures within the state personnel system and based on allegations of discrimination, are repealed, effective January 1, 1980, and the authority of the board to adopt and implement any affirmative action corrective remedy or rule, which allows or provides for, or incorporates by reference, requisitions or referrals which are in addition to the names of the three persons ranking highest on the appropriate eligible list or combination of such lists, is terminated on such date.

(3) Repealed.

24-50-142. Repayment of debts to state-supported institutions of higher education by state employees. (1) When a state employee has an outstanding obligation due to a state-supported institution of higher education, the board shall include provision for referral and collection of the loan or outstanding obligation to the controller pursuant to section 24-30-202.4.

(2) An applicant for employment under the state personnel system shall declare whether he has any outstanding loan or obligation due to a state-supported institution of higher education and whether such loan or obligation is past-due.

Editor's note: Subsection (3) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 1996. (See L. 96, p. 704.)

24-50-145. Agency-based human resource innovation and management processes - legislative declaration - definitions - guidelines and goals. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares:

(a) That the state personnel system must ensure that the process of staffing state government is based on merit and fitness, independent of the political system;

(b) That the public is entitled to a state personnel system that protects the basic merit principles prescribed by the constitution and that constantly improves through innovation, flexibility, and responsiveness to changing human resource management needs;

(c) That a state personnel system based on and pursuing these fundamental goals is essential in order to maintain the confidence of the public in the state personnel system, to attract the best possible applicants for public employment, to create a workplace environment where state employees are motivated to excel, and to encourage long-term careers in state service;

(d) That the state personnel system is designed, in part, to pursue these goals by allowing agencies to implement processes for human resource innovation and management, including, but not limited to, processes for employee recruitment, appointment, promotion, individual position allocation, performance evaluation, and dispute resolution within those agencies that operate within the constitutional framework for the state personnel system.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "agency" means any department, board, bureau, commission, division, institution, or other agency of the state, including institutions of higher education.

(3) Each agency is hereby authorized to develop with the state personnel director or the personnel board, as appropriate, and subject to the Colorado constitution, applicable statutes, personnel board rules, and procedures of the state personnel director, processes for human resource innovation and management applicable to such agency. The state personnel director or the personnel board, as appropriate, shall provide assistance to any agency with implementation and coordination of agency processes for human resource innovation and management and shall consult with agencies to ensure that such processes are administered in adherence to the Colorado constitution, applicable statutes, personnel board rules, and procedures of the state personnel director. The agency processes for human resource innovation and management shall be formulated utilizing the input of the agency's management and nonmanagement employees. The head of an agency developing processes for human resource innovation and management shall be responsible for implementing such processes in that agency and submitting to the state personnel director or the personnel board, as appropriate, a written statement describing any human resource innovation and management processes implemented by the agency. Each written statement shall be submitted to the state personnel director or the personnel board commensurate with the implementation of the processes by the agency. The written statement shall be updated by the head of the agency upon modification or revision of the agency's human resource innovation and management processes.

PART 2

RETIREMENT OF PERSONNEL

24-50-201. Legislative declaration. It is declared to be the policy of this state to encourage able and qualified persons to enter the state personnel system with a view toward acquiring the experience and in-service training and demonstrating the increased capabilities and responsibility necessary for progressive advancement. The policy of this state is to hold out to employees, subject to the provisions of the state constitution and to the rules and procedures of the state personnel system, the hope and expectation of being able to earn promotions in accordance with their individual capabilities and performance, and thereby the state seeks to encourage its more able employees to make their careers in government service.

24-50-202. Establishment of procedure. (Repealed)

24-50-203. Preretirement education and counseling. The state personnel director shall provide a continuous preretirement education and counseling program for employees in the state personnel system, which program is to be carried out at strategic geographic locations throughout the state. All employees in the state personnel system may participate on a voluntary basis. Each appointing authority shall be responsible for implementing the preretirement program in his organization, in cooperation with the state personnel director.
24-50-204. Retirement. (Repealed)

24-50-205. State personnel director - notice. (Repealed)

24-50-206. Cooperation of public employees' retirement association. The public employees' retirement association shall cooperate with the state personnel director by furnishing any requested information regarding the rights and benefits to which any employee may be entitled.

24-50-207. Retirement - accumulated sick leave. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (2) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 1, 1990. (See L. 88, p. 963.)

24-50-208. Voluntary separation incentive program. The state personnel director may adopt procedures establishing a program for voluntary separation incentives available to all state employees in lieu of layoffs based on a determination by the head of a principal department or institution of higher education, including the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., that the program is necessitated by a shortage of work, shortage of funds, or a reorganization. Any program established pursuant to this section shall not conflict with laws, rules, or procedures governing the state personnel system or the public employees' retirement association. A voluntary separation incentive shall not be considered a perquisite for purposes of section 24-30-202 (22).

EMPLOYEES IN MILITARY SERVICE

24-50-301. Status while in military service. Whenever any officer or employee of this state in the state personnel system under the provisions of section 13 of article XII of the state constitution and laws and rules and regulations pursuant thereto enters active military service, including active service for training purposes, with the armed forces of the United States or other branch of service engaged in the national defense, such officer or employee shall retain all state personnel system rights and privileges and shall retain such status in the state personnel system as held by him at the time of entering the armed forces, with the seniority and promotional rights and benefits provided for in section 24-50-302.

24-50-302. Rights. (1) The rights, privileges, and status retained by such officer or employee shall specifically include the right to reoccupy the place, employment, or position held by him at the time of entering the armed forces upon the expiration of the period of initial service, plus any period of additional service imposed by law, and for one year thereafter; except that, if such officer or employee served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during any period and if he was separated or served under honorable conditions, the period of such service shall be considered as service in the personnel system of the state of Colorado for the purposes of seniority and for the purposes of promotion from one pay grade to another as well as movement from one step of the pay plan to a higher step in the pay plan and if the place, employment, or class held by such officer or employee at the time of entering the armed forces has been increased in pay grade during the time of such service, such officer or employee shall be entitled to reoccupy such place, employment, or position at such increased pay grade.

(2) Said rights, privileges, and status retained by such officer or employee shall also specifically include the right to remain upon and hold his place upon any list of persons certified as eligible for appointment to places, employment, or positions in the state personnel system at the time of entering the armed forces during such period of initial service, plus any period of additional service imposed by law, and for one year thereafter, regardless of the expiration date of any such list of certified persons; except that, if such officer or employee has not acquired a certified state personnel system status but has been employed by this state for a period of one year or less, such officer or employee shall have the right to reoccupy the place, employment, or position held by him at the time of entering the armed forces upon the expiration of the initial period of service, plus any period of additional service imposed by law, and for one year thereafter, with the right to hold said place, employment, or position for the full term of his probationary period from the date of his reoccupying the same or until an examination is held therefor and a person is duly certified thereto.

24-50-303. No compensation - rights of National Guard. (1) The provisions of this part 3 shall not be interpreted as requiring the payment by this state or any of its departments, agencies, or officers of the compensation of any officer or employee during the period of service as provided in this part 3 or the period within which such officer or employee retains his status after such service.

(2) Any officer or employee of this state who was a member of the National Guard at the time of entering into the armed forces of the United States shall receive his usual and regular salary or compensation from the state in the year when he first entered the armed forces for a period of time equivalent to the annual encampment period, not exceeding fifteen days.

24-50-304. Applicability. The provisions of this part 3 shall apply to any officer or employee of the state personnel system who entered the armed forces of the United States or other branch of service engaged in national defense on or after August 5, 1964.

PART 4

APPOINTMENTS AND OFFICE HOURS

24-50-401. Office hours of state offices. (1) All offices in the executive and judicial departments of the state government shall be and remain open for business daily, except on Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, from the hour of 8:30 a.m. until the hour of 5:00 p.m.; except that nothing in this section shall affect the validity of any act performed by either of said departments before or after the hours specified in this section.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, when a city or city and county and the suburban area within a ten-mile radius of the boundaries thereof have a population in excess of fifty thousand inhabitants, the offices of any executive department of the state government located therein may vary its business hours from those indicated in subsection (1) of this section whenever the executive director of the principal department, with the approval of the governor, determines that such adjustment of hours will help alleviate peak traffic conditions and provide a more even flow of traffic for the purpose of creating safer highway conditions.

(3) Written notice of the variance permitted under subsection (2) of this section shall be given to the local news media of such cities or cities and counties not less than two weeks preceding the effective date of such variance.

(4) Employees in the state personnel system who are required to work on general election day during the hours the polls are open pursuant to section 1-7-101, C.R.S., shall be granted two hours' administrative leave in which to vote pursuant to the provisions of section 1-7-102, C.R.S. The state personnel director shall promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of this title for the implementation of this subsection (4).

24-50-402. Appointment by outgoing officers prohibited. No state, county, or city appointive office, the term of which expires on or after the time fixed by law for the qualification of the officer having the authority to make such appointment, shall be filled by the outgoing appointing officer.

PART 5

CONTRACTS FOR PERSONAL SERVICES

24-50-501. Legislative declaration. Recognizing that the adoption of section 20 of article X of the state constitution at the 1992 general election has imposed strict new constraints on state government, it is hereby declared to be the policy of this state to encourage the use of private contractors for personal services to achieve increased efficiency in the delivery of government services, without undermining the principles of the state personnel system requiring competence in state government and the avoidance of political patronage. The general assembly recognizes that such contracting may result in variances from legislatively mandated pay scales and other employment practices that apply to the state personnel system. In order to ensure that such privatization of government services does not subvert the policies underlying the civil service system, the purpose of this part 5 is to balance the benefits of privatization of personal services against its impact upon the state personnel system as a whole. The general assembly finds and declares that, in the use of private contractors for personal services, the dangers of arbitrary and capricious political action or patronage and the promotion of competence in the provision of government services are adequately safeguarded by existing laws on public procurement, public contracts, financial administration, employment practices, ethics in government, licensure, certification, open meetings, open records, and the provisions of this part 5. Recognizing that the ultimate beneficiaries of all government services are the citizens of the state of Colorado, it is the intent of the general assembly that privatization of government services not result in diminished quality in order to save money.

24-50-502. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Contract" means any type of state agreement, regardless of what it may be called, for the acquisition of services.
(2) "Personal services" means services acquired for the state's direct benefit in its operations.
(3) "Purchased services" means the acquisition of services which directly benefit specific groups or individuals in the public at large as defined by law, from public or private entities licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized by statute to provide such services.
(4) "Services" means the furnishing of labor, time, or effort.

Source: L. 93: Entire part added, p. 281, § 1, effective April 7.
24-50-503. Personal services contracts implicating state personnel system - no separation of existing classified employees. (1) Contracts for personal services that create an independent contractor relationship and that are not authorized under the provisions of section 24-50-504 are nevertheless permissible under this section to achieve increased efficiency in the delivery of government services when the state personnel director determines that all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The contracting agency clearly demonstrates that the proposed contract will result in overall cost savings to the state and that the estimated savings will not be eliminated by contractor rate increases during the term of the contract, subject to the following:

(I) In comparing costs, there shall be included the state's cost of providing the same service as proposed by a contractor. The state's costs shall include the salaries and benefits of staff that would be needed and the cost of space, equipment, and material needed to perform the function.

(II) In comparing costs, there shall not be included the state's indirect overhead costs unless the costs can be attributed solely to the function in question and would not exist if that function were not performed in state service. For such purpose, "Indirect overhead costs" means the pro rata share of existing administrative salaries and benefits, rent, equipment costs, utilities, and materials.

(III) In comparing costs, there shall be included in the cost of a contractor providing a service any continuing state costs that would be directly associated with the contracted function. These continuing state costs shall include, but need not be limited to, those for inspection, supervision, and monitoring.

(IV) In comparing costs, there shall not be included any savings to the state attributable to lower health insurance benefits provided by the contractor.

(b) The contracting agency clearly demonstrates that the proposed contract will provide at least the same quality of services as that offered by the contracting agency.

(c) The contract includes specific provisions pertaining to the qualifications of the staff that will perform the work under the contract.

(d) The contract contains nondiscrimination provisions required by law to be included in state contracts.

(e) The contract contains provisions for termination by the state for breach of the contract by the contractor.

(f) The potential economic advantage of contracting is not outweighed by the public's interest in having a particular function performed directly by state government. In assessing the public's interest, the state personnel director shall take into account:

(I) The consequences and potential mitigation of improper or failed performance by the contractor;

(II) Whether performance of the contract involves the improper delegation of a policy-making function;

(III) The extent to which the contracting preserves the principles of competence in government and the avoidance of political patronage. For such purpose, there shall be considered the applicability of other laws, including those as enumerated in section 24-50-506, that aid in safeguarding the fundamental principles underlying the state personnel system.

(2) The state personnel director shall not approve a personal services contract under this section if the contract would result directly or indirectly in the separation of certified employees from state service. However, nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent the separation of certified employees from state service pursuant to any other provision of law, including but not limited to the provisions of section 24-50-124, for reasons other than privatization.

(3) Repealed.

Editor's note: Subsection (3)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (3), effective July 1, 2014. (See L. 2011, p. 484.)

24-50-504. Personal services contracts not implicating state personnel system. (1) Personal services contracts for employees or independent contractors are permissible when the functions contracted are otherwise performed by persons exempt from civil service by section 13 of article XII of the state constitution or by statutes enacted pursuant thereto.

(2) Personal services contracts that create an independent contractor relationship are permissible when the state personnel director determines that any of the following conditions are met:

(a) The contract is for an existing state program that has never been performed by employees in the state personnel system, or the contract is for an existing state program that involves duties similar to duties currently or previously performed by classified employees but the contracted program is different in scope or policy objectives from the programs carried out by such classified employees. For the purposes of this paragraph (a), an "existing state program" is a state program that was in effect and performed by contract prior to April 7, 1993.

(b) The contract is for a new state program, and the general assembly has statutorily authorized the performance of the program by independent contractors. A program is not a new state program within the meaning of this paragraph (b) solely because it is performed at a new facility or location.

(c) The services contracted are not available within the state personnel system, cannot be performed satisfactorily by employees of the state personnel system, or are of such a highly specialized or technical nature that the necessary expert knowledge, experience, and ability are not available through the state personnel system.

(d) The services are incidental to a contract for the purchase or lease of real or personal property. Contracts under this criterion, known as "service agreements", include, but are not limited to, agreements to service or maintain equipment, computers, or other products that are entered into in connection with their original lease or purchase.

(e) The legislative, administrative, or legal goals and purposes cannot be accomplished through the utilization of persons selected pursuant to the state personnel system. Contracts are permissible under this criterion to protect against a conflict of interest or to ensure independent and unbiased findings in cases where there is a clear need for a different, outside perspective. These contracts include, but are not limited to, obtaining expert witnesses in litigation.
(f) The contractor will provide equipment, materials, facilities, or support services that could not feasibly be provided by the state in the location where the services are to be performed.

(g) The contractor will conduct training courses for which appropriately qualified state personnel system instructors are not available.

(h) The services are of an urgent, temporary, or occasional nature.

(3) Contracts for purchased services, as determined by the state personnel director, that create an independent contractor relationship are permissible.

24-50-504.7. Commission on the privatization of personal services - creation. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (2) provided for the repeal of this section, effective November 1, 1997. (See L. 96, p. 1306.)

24-50-505. Liability and immunity. (1) The contractor shall assume all liability arising from its own acts or omissions under all contracts entered into pursuant to this part 5.

(2) The sovereign immunity and governmental immunity of the contracting agency shall not extend to the contractor, except as otherwise provided by law. Neither the contractor nor the insurer of the contractor may plead the defense of sovereign immunity or governmental immunity in any action arising out of the performance of the contract.

24-50-506. Applicability of other laws. (1) In addition to the other provisions of this part 5 that are intended to safeguard the fundamental principles underlying the state personnel system, personal services contracts entered into pursuant to this article are subject to all other applicable laws, which may include but are not necessarily limited to the following:

(a) State procurement laws, including the following:
(I) The provisions of part 14 of article 30 of this title; and
(II) The "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of this title;
(b) Laws governing fiscal administration by the state controller, including the provisions of part 2 of article 30 of this title and the fiscal rules promulgated thereunder;
(c) Laws governing the management of state moneys by the state treasurer, including the provisions of article 36 of this title;
(d) The provisions of article 18 of this title establishing standards of conduct for state officers and employees.

24-50-507. Conflict of interest. (1) In addition to any other applicable laws, the provisions of this section shall apply to contracts entered into pursuant to this part 5.

(2) (a) The following individuals shall not solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, any personal benefit or promise of a benefit from an entity or a person negotiating, doing business with, or planning, within the individual's knowledge, to negotiate or do business with the contracting agency:

(I) A member of, or any other person or entity under contract with, any governmental body that exercises any functions or responsibilities in the review or approval of the undertaking or carrying out of the project, including but not limited to any employee of the contracting agency or any person serving as the monitor of a personal services contract; or

(II) A member of the immediate family of any individual described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(b) No individual described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall use his or her position, influence, or information concerning such negotiations, business, or plans to benefit himself or herself or another.

(3) A contractor shall agree that, at the time of contracting, the contractor has no interest and shall not acquire any interest, direct or indirect, that would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the contractor's services. The contractor shall further covenant that, in the performance of the contract, the contractor shall not employ any person having any such known interests.

24-50-508. Intergovernmental agreements - agreements by state institutions of higher education - excluded. (1) The following contracts are not subject to the provisions of this part 5:

(a) In accordance with section 18 (2) of article XIV of the state constitution, contracts between the state and its political subdivisions or the government of the United States, or any combination thereof; and

(b) Contracts entered into by a state institution of higher education or the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., so long as the chief executive officer of the institution or the center, or his or her designee, has determined that the conditions set forth in section 24-50-503 are met for those contracts that implicate the state personnel system.

24-50-509. Review of individual contracts by state personnel director - when not required. The state personnel director may approve the use of contracts without the necessity of reviewing the individual contracts, if the contracts are of the same type and if the state personnel director determines that such contracts meet the requirements of this part 5.

24-50-510. Annual report of contracts. (Repealed)

24-50-511. State personnel director procedures. The state personnel director shall promulgate procedures to implement the policies of this part 5. Such procedures shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for consideration of contractors that utilize a preference for hiring veterans of military service and an annual certification process for ongoing personal services contracts. In promulgating procedures governing the analysis of cost savings pursuant to section 24-50-503 (1), the state personnel director shall consider the recommendations of the office of state planning and budgeting.

24-50-513. Contracts of six months or less - permitted. Contracts for a term of six months or less that are not expected to recur on a regular basis are permissible and are not subject to this part 5.

24-50-514. Repeal of part. (Repealed)

PART 6

STATE EMPLOYEES GROUP BENEFITS ACT

Editor's note: This part 6 was added with relocations in 1994 containing provisions of some sections formerly located in part 2 of article 8 of title 10. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following the sections that were relocated.

24-50-601. Short title. This part 6 shall be known and may be cited as the "State Employees Group Benefits Act".

Source: L. 94: Entire part added with relocations, p. 1122, § 1, effective May 19.
Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-201.

24-50-602. Legislative declaration. (1) It is declared that the purpose of this part 6 is as follows:
   (a) To enable the state to attract and retain qualified employees by providing group benefits similar to those commonly provided in private industry;
   (b) To recognize and protect the state's investment in each nontemporary employee by promoting and preserving good health among state employees;
   (c) To recognize the service to the state by elected and appointed officials by extending to them the same group benefits as are provided in this part 6 for state employees; and
   (d) To provide each employee with benefit choices and education to customize a benefit package that is responsive to each employee's diverse needs.

Source: L. 94: Entire part added with relocations, p. 1122, § 1, effective May 19.

Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-202.

24-50-603. Definitions. As used in this part 6, unless the context otherwise requires:
   (1) "Cafeteria benefits" means "flexible benefits" as defined in subsection (8) of this section.
   (2) "Carrier" means an insurer, health maintenance organization ("HMO"), third-party administrator, or other entity with whom the state contracts to provide or administer, or both provide and administer, the group benefit plans.
   (3) "COBRA" means the continuation of certain benefits as provided by the federal "Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985", as amended.
   (4) Repealed.
   (5) "Dependent" means:
      (a) An employee's legal spouse; each unmarried child, including adopted children, stepchildren, and foster children, through the end of the month in which the child turns nineteen years of age, for whom the employee is the major source of financial support or for whom the employee is directed by court order to provide coverage; each unmarried child nineteen years of age, through the end of the month in which that child is no longer a full-time student in an educational or vocational institution, but no longer than through the end of the month in which the full-time student turns twenty-four years of age, and for whom the employee is the major source of financial support or for whom the employee is directed by court order to provide coverage; or an unmarried child of any age who has either a physical or mental disability, as defined by the carrier, not covered under other government programs, and for whom the employee is the major source of financial support or for whom the employee is directed by court order to provide coverage;
      (b) Any person authorized by the director to be a dependent in response to statutory changes made to mandated coverage for group benefits insurance pursuant to title 10, C.R.S.;
      (c) An employee's domestic partner, as authorized by the director by rule adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title, who has submitted documentation demonstrating a domestic partnership with an employee as required by such rules;
(c.5) An employee's partner in a civil union who has submitted documentation demonstrating the creation of a civil union with the employee;

(d) Any additional dependents specified by the director by rule adopted in accordance with article 4 of this title.

(6) "Director" means the state personnel director.

(6.5) "Domestic partner" means an adult, at least eighteen years of age:

(a) Who is of the same gender as the employee;

(b) With whom the employee has shared an exclusive, committed relationship for at least one year with the intent for the relationship to last indefinitely;

(c) Who is not related to the employee by blood to a degree that would prohibit marriage pursuant to section 14-2-110, C.R.S.; and

(d) Who is not married to another person.

(7) "Employee" means any officer or employee under the state personnel system of the state of Colorado whose salary is paid by state funds or any employee of the department of education, the Colorado commission on higher education, or the Colorado school for the deaf and the blind whose salary is paid by state funds, or any member of the military employed pursuant to section 28-3-904, C.R.S. "Employee" includes any officer or employee of the legislative or judicial branch, any elected or appointed state official or employee who receives compensation other than expense reimbursement from state funds, any elected state official who does not receive compensation other than expense reimbursement from state funds, and includes any member of the board of assessment appeals. "Employee" does not include persons employed on a temporary basis; except that it shall include a member of the military employed pursuant to section 28-3-904, C.R.S., for more than thirty consecutive days.

(8) "Flexible benefits" means an array of group benefit plans from which an employee can select using the state's contribution, the employee's own funds, or a combination of both, to pay for such benefits.

(9) "Group benefit plans" means any group benefit coverages contracted for or administered by the director, including but not limited to, medical, dental, life, and disability benefits. For purposes of section 24-50-104 (1)(a)(I), "group benefit plans" includes any group benefit coverages offered by a state institution of higher education to employees of such institution who are in the state personnel system.

(10) "Medicaid" means federal insurance or assistance as such is provided by the provisions of Title XIX of the federal "Social Security Act" and the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act", articles 4, 5, and 6 of title 25.5, C.R.S.

(11) "Medical benefits" includes, but is not limited to, hospital room and board; other hospital services; certain out-patient benefits; maternity benefits; surgical benefits, including obstetrical care; in-hospital medical care; diagnostic X rays; laboratory benefits; physician services; prescription drugs; behavioral, mental health, and substance use disorder services; comparable medical benefits for employees who rely solely on spiritual means for healing; and such other similar benefits as the director deems reasonable and appropriate for eligible employees and dependents.

(12) "Medicare" means federal insurance or assistance as such is provided by the "Health Insurance for the Aged Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 1395, or as such act may be amended.
"Short-term disability plan" means a group policy or contract provided by a carrier for the purpose of providing short-term disability income replacement to be provided to any eligible employee who has completed any required waiting period.

24-50-604. Powers and duties of the director. (1) The director shall administer and manage the state employees group benefit plans and, subject to the provisions of this part 6, has the following powers and duties:
(a) The preparation of specifications for the group benefit plans contracted for by the director;
(b) The authority and responsibility to enter into contracts with carriers for group benefit plans and to negotiate and enter into amendments to existing contracts as appropriate. Payments by the state, pursuant to such contracts, are subject to the amounts authorized in sections 24-50-104 (4) and 24-50-609.
(c) The determination of the methods of claims administration;
(d) The determination of the eligibility of employees and their dependents to participate in group benefit plans;
(e) The determination of the amount of employee payroll deductions and the responsibility for collecting such deductions;
(f) The establishment of a grievance procedure by which the director shall act as an appeals authority for complaints by employees and COBRA participants regarding the allowance and payment of claims, eligibility, and other matters;
(g) The establishment, administration, and operation of the group benefit plans reserve fund established pursuant to section 24-50-613;
(h) The continuing study of the operation of group benefit plans, including but not limited to, such matters as gross and net costs, administrative costs, benefits, plan design, utilization, and claims administration;
(i) The authority to negotiate and enter into amendments to existing contracts providing group benefit plans in order to provide appropriate coverage for employees and their dependents who may become eligible for coverage after the effective date of said contracts and to provide for the enrollment thereof;

(j) The authority to contract with persons, firms, or associations for benefits consulting, including but not limited to, actuarial services, the preparations of specifications for group benefit plans, and other specialized services that cannot be performed by the director or by state employees. Expenditures for these contracts shall be under section 24-50-613 (2).

(k) (I) The authority to establish and operate an employee assistance program intended to address personal problems and workplace issues faced by state employees and employers before the problems and issues severely impact the productivity, safety, work relationships, absenteeism, and accident rates of state employees in the workplace. The program may provide services to state employees and their employers, which may include, without limitation:

(A) Conflict resolution;
(B) Crisis intervention;
(C) Anger management classes;
(D) Employer and employee mediation;
(E) Consultations with supervisors and managers regarding problem employees;
(F) Violence in the workplace training;
(G) Sexual harassment training; and
(H) Any other facilitated groups and workshops addressing workplace issues.

(II) Any state agency or institution that does not make contributions for participation in any employee assistance program established and operated pursuant to this paragraph (k) shall not be allowed to participate in the program. However, nothing in this subparagraph (II) shall be construed to limit the ability of:

(A) Any state employee to participate in the program regardless of whether the state agency or institution that employs the state employee makes contributions to participate in the program; and

(B) Any state agency or institution to participate in the program in the event of a crisis or emergency situation in the workplace regardless of whether the state agency or institution makes contributions to participate in the program.

(III) Dependents of a state employee are not eligible to be the sole and direct recipient of services in any employee assistance program established and operated pursuant to this paragraph (k); except that an employee assistance program may allow a dependent or any other person who is not a state employee to participate in an employee assistance program if such participation is necessary to provide effective counseling and assistance to a state employee.

(IV) Any employee assistance program established and operated pursuant to this paragraph (k) shall be set forth in procedures adopted in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of this title, and such procedures shall specify, without limitation, the services to be offered by the program, the eligibility guidelines for participation in the program, and the sources of funding for the program, which, for the 2003-04 fiscal year and any fiscal year thereafter, may include, but need not be limited to, the group benefit plans reserve fund created in section 24-50-613, the risk management fund created in section 24-30-1510, and interest derived from the investment of said funds.
(V) For the 2002-03 fiscal year, any employee assistance program established and operated pursuant to this paragraph (k) shall be funded through a combination of the following resources as determined by the director:

(A) Voluntary assessments against each state agency or institution based on the agency or institution's full-time equivalency count as of August 1, 2002, with the amount of the assessment to be determined by the director and such amount to be identical for each agency and institution;

(B) Until November 30, 2003, mandatory assessments against an employee's share of the medical benefits premium for employees enrolled in group benefit plans that include enrollment in medical benefits, with the amount of the assessment to be determined by the director and such amount to be identical for each employee; and

(C) If necessary, moneys from the group benefit plans reserve fund created in section 24-50-613.

(l) The authority and responsibility to enter into contracts or renewals for group benefit plans that are self-funded, if feasible as determined by the state personnel director;

(m) The authority to establish the annual group benefit plan year for the plan year commencing in the next fiscal year.

(2) The director, pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of this title, shall adopt such procedures consistent with the provisions of this part 6 as the director deems necessary to carry out his or her statutory duties and responsibilities.

(3) The director shall have the authority to adopt procedures to determine benefit eligibility requirements and the percentage of the state contribution to health benefits for all employees, as defined in section 24-50-603 (7), who work less than full time, are governed by the rules established pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and are hired on or after January 1, 2005. The director shall include any proposed changes to the group benefits policy in the annual compensation report and recommendations submitted to the governor and the joint budget committee of the general assembly pursuant to section 24-50-104 (4)(c).

Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-205.

24-50-605. Group benefit plans - specifications - contracts. (1) (a) The specifications drawn by the director for any group benefit plans include those benefits as determined by the director or as otherwise specifically provided in this part 6. Such specifications shall include provisions for noncancellation for reasons of health of any individual employee by the carrier and transferability to other group benefit coverages or individual policies with the same carrier by the employee, if such provisions do not limit the ability of the director to prepare specifications including a lifetime maximum benefit per employee or employee's covered dependents.
(b) At any time the director seeks to contract with any carriers under this section, the director shall first give written notice of such intent through an announcement in a publication with statewide circulation.

(c) Specifications and related data shall be prepared by the director for submission to carriers which indicate their interest in preparing proposals for any group benefit plans.

(d) Contracts awarded under this section by the director shall be to the lowest, most responsive offerors, according to criteria predetermined by the director, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section and articles 101 to 111 of this title. The director may accept a responsive proposal for combined group benefit plans.

(e) The director shall review the group benefit plans at least once each year and shall solicit and receive proposals on the group benefit plans at least once every five years.

(f) The specifications drawn by the director for any group benefit plans shall include the mandated coverages required by section 10-16-104, C.R.S.

(2) (a) In order to permit each eligible employee individual selection of a flexible benefits or cafeteria benefits package, the director may establish a variety of group benefit plans.

(b) The director shall enter into contracts with the carriers selected to provide group benefit plans. Such contracts shall include all policy provisions, the premium rates to be charged during the term of the contract, specifications on the method of claims administration, a grievance procedure provision, and such other matters as the director deems necessary. In the director's discretion and based on the plan's experience, the premium rates applying during the first contract term may be adjusted during subsequent contract terms. Changes may also be negotiated in the method of claims administration, the amount to be retained by the carrier, and other matters.

(c) Each contract entered into with a carrier shall be available to be inspected or copied by any employee at the offices of the director, except for proprietary information of carriers as determined by the director.

(d) Every carrier shall prepare and provide the director with reports and financial data as stated in the contract.

(e) Financial data will be available to be inspected or copied by any employee at the offices of the director, except for proprietary and confidential information of carriers and information regarding specific employees. The director shall not enter into contracts with carriers that do not comply with paragraphs (c) to (e) of this subsection (2).

(3) The director shall include the following statement in medical benefit materials, in bold-faced type:

Warning: If you are insured under a separate group medical insurance policy, you may be subject to coordination of benefits as explained in this booklet.

(4) Repealed.

(5) The director shall evaluate the feasibility of offering a high deductible health plan that would qualify for a health savings account as described in 26 U.S.C. 223, as amended, for state employees. The director shall forward the findings based on such evaluation to the members of the health, environment, and institutions and business affairs and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate no later than October 1, 2004. In the director's findings, the director shall list any impediments to implementing such high deductible health plans and any measures taken to implement such plans for state employees.
24-50-606. Choice of medical plans requirement - requirement for inclusion of essential providers. (Repealed)

Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-206.5.

24-50-607. Employees - eligibility - election of coverage. (1) Any state employee eligible as determined by the director for membership in a group benefit plan contracted for pursuant to section 24-50-604 (1)(b) upon the effective date of such plan shall be enrolled in the plan upon making application according to the director's procedures.

(2) The manner and form of election and acceptance by state employees of group benefit plans contracted for pursuant to section 24-50-604 (1)(b) shall be in compliance with procedures established for that purpose by the director.

Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-207.

24-50-608. Dependents - eligibility - election of coverage. (1) Any eligible employee may elect to have the employee's dependents covered by the group benefit plans. Such election shall be made at the time the employee becomes enrolled in the plan under such procedures as the director shall establish. If dependent coverage is not elected at the time that an employee becomes enrolled in an appropriate plan, any subsequent election of dependent coverage shall be made under such conditions as the director may impose.

(2) Any employee who elects coverage, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, and who has a change in the number of dependents may, at the time of such change, increase or decrease the number of dependents covered by the group benefit plans under procedures established by and subject to the approval of the director.

(3) Any employee who has no eligible dependents at the time the employee becomes enrolled in the group benefit plans and who later has an eligible dependent may, at the time the dependency status changes, elect appropriate coverage for such dependent under procedures established by and subject to the approval of the director.

(4) If a dependent is no longer eligible for coverage because the dependent turned twenty-five years old, the director shall remove the dependent from the group benefit plan by the end of the month in which the dependent turned twenty-five years old. If the director fails to remove the ineligible dependent, the employee and the employee's department shall not be directly financially liable for the premiums paid for the dependent coverage if no claims have been paid for the ineligible dependent. If the director fails to remove the ineligible dependent and a claim has been paid for the ineligible dependent, the employee and the employee's department shall not be directly financially liable for the paid claim. The costs for premiums and claims paid may be paid from the group benefit plans reserve fund established in section 24-50-613.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 10-8-210 as it existed prior to 1994.

24-50-609. State contributions - supplemental state contribution fund - creation.
(1) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1934, § 10, effective May 22, 2003.)
(2) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1934, § 10, effective May 22, 2003.)
(b) (I) The total premium for each particular group benefit plan offered to state employees pursuant to this part 6 and for each tier of said plan shall be the same for all eligible employees. The amount of the state contribution for each tier shall be determined by the director in accordance with section 24-50-104 (4) and shall be the same for all eligible employees within the state personnel system; except that, beginning with the 2008-09 state fiscal year, the state contribution shall be supplemented for eligible state employees, as defined in section 24-50-609.5 (2)(a), in accordance with section 24-50-609.5. For purposes of this section, "tier" means the particular coverage options offered to eligible employees, including single employee, employee with one covered dependent, and employee with two or more covered dependents.
 (II) Effective December 1, 2002, for the 2003 calendar year, the state of Colorado shall contribute an amount necessary to pay one hundred sixty-six dollars and twelve cents per month per single employee, two hundred thirty-nine dollars and fifteen cents per month per employee with one covered dependent, and three hundred twenty-eight dollars and eighty-seven cents per month per employee with two or more covered dependents for each employee enrolled in group benefit plans that include enrollment in medical benefits. The amounts specified in this subparagraph (II) may be adjusted for future years in accordance with subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) and section 24-50-104 (4).
(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1934, § 10, effective May 22, 2003.)
(4) For purposes of this section, "employee" does not include elected state officials who do not receive compensation other than expense reimbursements from state funds.
(5) The supplemental state contribution fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The principal of the fund consists of tobacco litigation settlement moneys transferred by the state treasurer to the fund pursuant to section 24-75-1104.5 (1.7)(j). The principal of the fund is continuously appropriated to the department of personnel and shall be expended in its entirety in each fiscal year by the department to pay the costs of increased nonsupplemental state contributions, as defined in section 24-50-609.5 (3)(c)(II), and supplement the state contribution, as defined in section 24-50-609.5 (2)(d), for each eligible state employee, as defined in section 24-50-609.5 (2)(a), enrolled in a qualifying group benefit plan, as defined in section 24-50-609.5
(2)(c), as required by section 24-50-609.5; except that the department shall expend no more than the amount needed to pay the costs of increased nonsupplemental state contributions and reduce the employee contribution, as defined in section 24-50-609.5 (2)(b), of each eligible state employee for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero. The principal of the fund remains in the fund until expended and shall not be transferred to the general fund or any other fund. Interest and income earned on the deposit and investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund, shall not be transferred to the general fund or to any other fund, and shall be used by the department, subject to annual appropriation, solely to pay the costs of the department related to the supplementation of the state contribution for each eligible state employee required by section 24-50-609.5.

Editor's note: This section was formerly numbered as 10-8-211.

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 2001 act amending this section, see section 1 of chapter 4, Session Laws of Colorado 2001, Second Extraordinary Session.

24-50-609.5. Supplemental state contribution for eligible state employees - legislative declaration - definitions. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(I) It is the intent of the general assembly that all children in the state, including lower-income children, have access to affordable and adequate health insurance.

(II) The children of state employees are ineligible for existing federal and state programs, including medicaid and the children's basic health plan, that provide health insurance to lower-income children whose families are not otherwise able to afford health insurance.

(III) Although the state pays a portion of the health insurance premiums for those state employees who enroll in a health insurance plan offered by the state, many lower-income state employees nonetheless cannot afford to pay the required employee contribution to the plan premiums for any plan or the higher employee contribution to a plan with a low deductible and therefore decline to enroll in a health insurance plan or enroll in a high deductible plan, leaving their children without adequate health insurance coverage.

(IV) In order to ensure that children of lower-income state employees have access to affordable and adequate health insurance, it is necessary, appropriate, and in the best interests of the state to encourage lower-income state employees who have dependents other than their spouses to enroll in health insurance plans offered by the state by supplementing the state contribution to their plan premiums in order to reduce the amount of their required employee contributions to plan premiums or to encourage them to enroll in low deductible plans.

(V) (A) By using disease management programs to reduce the costs of health care for state employees who are enrolled in state group benefit plans that provide medical benefits, the state can provide the group benefit plans to more state employees for less money and achieve better outcomes.

(B) National data indicates that the establishment of disease management programs can reduce by fifty percent asthma-related hospital admissions and thereby help the state provide lower cost group benefit plans for all state employees.

(C) The establishment of a pilot disease management program that includes, but is not limited to, a pilot childhood asthma program will maximize the use of moneys allocated for the purpose of supplementing existing health insurance plans for lower-income state employees.

(b) The general assembly further finds and declares that the intent of the general assembly in providing supplements as specified in this section, and the expectation of the general assembly with respect to the executive administration of the provision of supplements, is:

(I) To provide access to affordable and adequate health insurance to as many children of lower-income state employees as possible; and

(II) Because the high deductibles typical of health insurance plans that offer lower premiums can impair or destroy the economic self-sufficiency of lower-income families when health problems arise, to encourage lower-income state employees with dependents other than their spouses to enroll in higher premium plans with low deductibles.

(2) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Eligible state employee" means an employee, as defined in section 24-50-603 (7), who:

(I) Is eligible, by virtue of his or her state employment, to enroll in a group benefit plan that provides medical or dental benefits;

(II) Has an annual household income of less than three hundred percent of the federal poverty line; and

(III) Has at least one dependent other than the employee's legal spouse.

(b) "Employee contribution" means the amount contributed by an eligible state employee to pay part of the premium for a qualifying group benefit plan in which the eligible state employee is enrolled.

(c) "Qualifying group benefit plan" means a group benefit plan that provides medical or dental benefits.

(d) "State contribution" means the amount contributed by the state to pay part of the premium for a qualifying group benefit plan in which a state employee is enrolled.

(3) (a) For the 2008-09 state fiscal year and for each state fiscal year thereafter, the state, after first allocating the interest and income and next allocating the principal of the supplemental state contribution fund created in section 24-50-609 (5) to pay the costs of increased nonsupplemental state contributions, shall expend the available principal of the state supplemental contribution fund to pay a monthly supplement to the state contribution for each eligible state employee who timely applies for the supplement pursuant to subsection (4) of this section and enrolls in a qualifying group benefit plan in order to reduce the eligible state employee's employee contribution by the amount of the supplement. The amount of the supplement shall be the amount that reduces the aggregate amount of the eligible state employee's employee contribution by the amount of the supplement.
employee's employee contribution for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero; except that, if the available principal of the supplemental state contribution fund is insufficient to provide full supplements for all eligible state employees as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3):

(I) The available principal shall first be used to provide each eligible state employee who has an annual household income of less than two hundred percent of the federal poverty line a supplement in an amount equal to the lesser of the equivalent percentage of the applicable employee contribution for each such eligible state employee that uses all of the available principal or the amount needed to reduce the employee contribution of each such eligible state employee for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero.

(II) Remaining available principal next shall be used to provide each eligible state employee who has an annual household income of two hundred percent or more of the federal poverty line but less than two hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty line a supplement in an amount equal to the lesser of the equivalent percentage of the applicable employee contribution for each such eligible state employee that uses all of the available principal or the amount needed to reduce the employee contribution of each such eligible state employee for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero.

(III) Remaining available principal last shall be used to provide each eligible state employee who has an annual household income of at least two hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty line a supplement in an amount equal to the lesser of the equivalent percentage of the applicable employee contribution for each such eligible state employee that uses all of the available principal of the fund or the amount needed to reduce the employee contribution of each such eligible state employee for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero.

(b) All supplements shall be paid from the available principal of the supplemental state contribution fund created in section 24-50-609 (5). The total amount of all supplements paid for any given fiscal year shall be the lesser of the amount of all available principal of the supplemental state contribution fund or the amount of the available principal needed to reduce the employee contribution of each eligible state employee for all qualifying group benefit plans to zero. If an eligible state employee who receives a supplement is enrolled in separate qualifying group benefit plans for medical and dental benefits, the state shall supplement the state contribution to the plan that provides medical benefits until the employee contribution for that plan is reduced to zero before supplementing the state contribution to the plan that provides dental benefits.

(c) For purposes of this subsection (3):

(I) "Available principal of the supplemental state contribution fund" or "available principal" means, for any given fiscal year, the sum of the amount of tobacco litigation settlement moneys transferred by the state treasurer to the fund on July 1 of the fiscal year and any other principal of the fund minus the amount of principal allocated during the fiscal year to pay the costs of increased nonsupplemental state contributions pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3).

(II) "Increased nonsupplemental state contributions" means, for any given fiscal year, the aggregate amount of increases in state contributions, excluding supplements, resulting from:

(A) Enrollment in qualifying group benefit plans of eligible state employees who applied for supplements for the fiscal year and were not enrolled in qualifying group benefit plans during the prior fiscal year; and
(B) Addition of dependents who were not covered by a qualifying group benefit plan during the prior fiscal year to the qualifying group benefit plans of eligible state employees who applied for supplements during the fiscal year.

(4) A state employee shall apply to the department of personnel for a supplement. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the director, and the employee shall provide any supporting information that the director may reasonably require to allow the department to verify that the state employee is an eligible state employee. A state employee shall file an application for a supplement annually during the open enrollment period or open enrollment grace period for enrolling in group benefit plans for the next state fiscal year, and, if the applicant is an eligible state employee and enrolls in a qualifying group benefit plan, the applicant shall receive a supplement for the next state fiscal year. A newly hired state employee shall not be eligible for a supplement in the state fiscal year in which he or she is hired, but may apply for a supplement during the open enrollment period or open enrollment grace period for enrolling in group benefit plans for the next state fiscal year.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-1-136 (11)(a), no later than January 15, 2009, and no later than each succeeding January 15, the department of personnel shall report to the health and human services committees of the house and senate and the joint budget committee of the general assembly or any successor committees regarding the supplemental state contribution program established in this section. The report shall include, at a minimum, information regarding:

(a) The number of eligible state employees receiving supplements in the current state fiscal year and any prior state fiscal years in which supplements were provided;

(b) The total amount of supplements that have been or will be paid in the current state fiscal year and that were paid in any prior state fiscal years in which supplements were provided;

(c) The average monthly and yearly amounts of the individual supplements provided for the current state fiscal year and for any prior state fiscal years in which supplements were provided;

(d) The number of dependent children of eligible state employees receiving supplements covered by a qualifying group benefit plan during the current state fiscal year and for any prior state fiscal years in which supplements were provided;

(e) The amount of increased nonsupplemental state contributions, as defined in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section, for the current state fiscal year and for any prior state fiscal years in which supplements were provided.

24-50-610. Payroll deductions - employees. The amount of monthly contributions, if any, to be made by employees enrolled in group benefit plans shall be deducted from the salaries of such employees and remitted to the department of personnel. The procedure for such deductions and remittances, including a procedure for determination of the appropriate amount and collection and remittance of monthly contributions from elected state officials who do not receive compensation other than expense reimbursement from state funds, shall be established by the department of personnel; except that the department of personnel shall not establish any method of collection and remittances of monthly contributions from elected state officials who do not receive compensation other than expense reimbursement from state funds from any entity other than from such individual state officials.

24-50-612. Administrative duties.

(1) It is the duty of the department of personnel to provide such assistance and to perform such duties as are necessary to carry out the state's administrative, accounting, and clerical responsibilities in connection with the operation of group benefit plans.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The director shall hold a public hearing prior to the acceptance of any proposal for a group benefit plan. Notice of the hearing shall be given at least fourteen days in advance by mailing such notice to persons on the list maintained by the department of personnel pursuant to section 24-4-103 (3)(b).

24-50-613. Group benefit plans reserve fund. (1) There is hereby established the group benefit plans reserve fund. The state treasurer shall be ex officio treasurer of this fund, and the state treasurer's general bond to the state shall cover all liabilities for acts as treasurer of the fund. The director shall remit to the treasurer for deposit in the group benefit plans reserve fund all payments received by the director for group benefit plans premium costs from employees and the state as employer. The director shall also remit to the treasurer for deposit in the group benefit plans reserve fund any payments received by the director from the carriers of group benefit plans. Such payments shall not be included in the general revenues of the state of Colorado and shall not be general assets of the state. At the end of the fiscal year, any unexpended funds shall not revert to the general fund but shall be held by the state treasurer in custodial capacity, to be used subject to direction from the director.

(2) (a) Expenditures shall be made from the group benefit plans reserve fund, upon certification by the director, for the payment of premiums, claims costs, and other administrative fees and costs associated with the group benefit plans.

(b) In the event that the director enters into contracts or renewals for group benefit plans that are self-funded, the moneys in the group benefit plans reserve fund shall be expended only for premiums, claims costs, other administrative fees and costs associated with the group benefit plans, and for the purposes of subsection (3) of this section. The moneys in the group benefit plans reserve fund shall not be appropriated by the general assembly or expended by the director for any other purpose.

(3) A premium stabilization reserve account shall be established within the group benefit plans reserve fund the purpose of which is to offset unexpected year-end deficits and extraordinary fluctuations in annual premiums. The moneys in the account shall not be included in the general revenues of the state and shall not be general assets of the state. The moneys in the account shall be expended for purposes of such fund and shall not be appropriated by the general assembly or expended by the director for any other purpose.

(4) The state's cost of administering group benefit plans, other than the costs provided for in subsection (2) of this section, is subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly based on the submission by the director of a budget request containing detailed information on current and projected administrative costs, which include, but are not limited to, personal services, operating expenses, travel expenses, utilization review, and implementation of a flexible benefits plan.

(5) The director, from time to time, shall certify in writing to the state treasurer for investment such portions of the group benefit plans reserve fund as in the director's judgment may not be needed for the payment of premiums and claims costs to the carriers. Such investments shall be made as determined by the state treasurer and shall be limited to those securities authorized for investment by the board of trustees of the public employees' retirement association pursuant to section 24-51-206. Interest on the investment of the group benefit plans reserve fund shall be credited to the fund.

24-50-614. State payments - authority of controller. The state contributions to group benefit plans shall be paid monthly to the director by the state controller, who shall make a charge against the accounts of the state departments, agencies, and institutions for this purpose. Such charges shall be the amounts necessary to cover the state contributions, as defined in section 24-50-609, for employees and shall be made against both general revenue fund accounts and specific cash fund accounts as required.
24-50-615. Continuation of previously existing benefits for persons absorbed by the state personnel system. Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, the director shall continue, as a benefits option, the existing group life and health benefits of any person employed by a state agency if such person has been or will be brought or assimilated into the state personnel system on or after January 1, 1972, until such time as similar benefits offered by the director to state employees pursuant to this part 6 are equivalent in benefit and economic cost to the benefits held by said person.

24-50-616. Group benefit plans pilot program - designated area - report - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (6) provided for the repeal of this section, effective December 31, 2002. (See L. 2001, 2nd Ex. Sess., p. 14.)

24-50-617. Group benefit plans statewide pilot program - director's duties - audit - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor's note: Subsection (5) provided for the repeal of this section, effective January 1, 2008. (See L. 2002, p. 1308.)

24-50-618. Group benefit plans - institutions of higher education. (1) A state institution of higher education, which, for the purposes of this section, shall include the Auraria higher education center established in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S., or a group of state institutions may establish and offer one or more group benefit plans, in addition to or in lieu of a plan contracted for by the director pursuant to this part 6, to employees of the institution or institutions who are in the state personnel system.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (1) of this section to the contrary, a state institution of higher education or group of institutions shall consult with the governor's office and provide to the director at least twelve months' written advance notice before the institution or group of institutions may:
(I) Cease offering to institutional employees in the personnel system one or more group benefit plans that the director contracted for and that the institution or group of institutions offered in the preceding plan year; or

(II) Offer to institutional employees in the personnel system one or more group benefit plans that were contracted for by the director and that the institution or group of institutions did not offer in the preceding plan year.

(b) If the director concludes on the basis of actuarial data that ceasing to offer one or more group benefit plans as described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) is likely, in the first year in which it is not offered, to result in an increase in costs for that plan or any other plan contracted for by the director, the institution or group of institutions may not cease to offer the plan or plans unless specifically authorized to do so by the governor. The director shall provide the conclusion, in writing and with copies of the actuarial data upon which it is based, to the governor's office and the affected institution or group of institutions no later than one hundred eighty days after the date on which the institution or group of institutions provides the notice required in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(3) It is the intent of the general assembly that the director will provide for employees of the state institutions of higher education and for all other state employees the most cost-competitive group benefit plans available.

PART 7

AGENCY-BASED PERSONNEL PILOT PROGRAM

24-50-701 to 24-50-706. (Repealed)

Editor's note: (1) This part 7 was added in 1995. For amendments to this part 7 prior to its repeal in 1999, consult the 1998 Colorado Revised Statutes and Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

(2) Section 24-50-706 provided for the repeal of this part 7, effective December 31, 1999. (See L. 95, p. 992.)

PART 8

STATE EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE PROGRAM

24-50-801. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that it is the policy of this state to concentrate on improving the efficiency and effectiveness of state government in order to provide better service to the citizens of the state of Colorado, to increase state government productivity, and to decrease state government costs. The general assembly recognizes that one method of achieving a more efficient and effective state government is to encourage the involvement of state employees in the development of innovative ideas that will increase the productivity and service level of state government while increasing the productivity and service level of state government. The general assembly realizes that employee incentive programs that reward state employees for innovations by allowing the employees to share the cost savings resulting from such innovations will help encourage employee involvement in making state government more efficient and effective. The general assembly further recognizes that rewarding state employees may also increase employee morale and enthusiasm, decrease employee turnover, and improve customer service.

Source: L. 2004: Entire part added, p. 302, § 1, effective April 7.

24-50-802. Definitions. As used in this part 8, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) (a) "Employee" means any employee within the state personnel system except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1).
(b) "Employee" does not mean:
(I) An employee of the office of state planning and budgeting, the office of the state auditor, the joint budget committee, or the department of personnel;
(II) An elected official or member of the general assembly; or (III) The executive directors and budget officers of principal departments and their deputies or the presidents of any college or university and their deputies.
(2) "State agency" means any department, board, bureau, commission, division, institution, or other agency of the state, including institutions of higher education.

24-50-804. Development of recommendations for an employee incentive program.
(1) In developing recommendations for the implementation of an employee incentive program, the state personnel director shall consult with representatives from the state personnel board, the office of state planning and budgeting, the office of the state auditor, and the four largest employee organizations representing employees in the state personnel system. The director shall also solicit input from employees and managers in the state personnel system and other affected parties.
(2) The state personnel director shall include the following elements in the recommendations for an employee incentive program:
(a) Criteria for eligibility for the employee incentive program;
(b) A formula for calculating and distributing cost savings;
(c) Employee protections against retaliation for initiating or participating in an employee incentive program;
(d) A means of providing public recognition and financial compensation to employees whose innovations result in cost savings to the state;
(e) A method for the centralized or departmental administration of the employee incentive program; and

(f) A mechanism for returning an amount equal to fifty percent of the cost savings realized by any department as a result of an employee's cost-savings innovation to the Colorado taxpayers and for allowing the department in which the employee is employed to retain an amount equal to fifty percent of such cost savings.

24-50-805. Institutions of higher education - alternative employee incentive programs. Notwithstanding any provision of this part 8 to the contrary, the chief executive officer of a state institution of higher education may establish and implement an incentive program for employees, including classified employees, of the institution. At a minimum, the incentive program shall include the elements described in section 24-50-804 (2)(a) to (2)(e). An incentive program implemented pursuant to this section shall not be subject to approval by the state personnel director.

PART 9

STATE EMPLOYEES' IDEAS THAT IMPROVE STATE GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS

24-50-901. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that it is the policy of this state to concentrate on improving the efficiency and effectiveness of state government in order to provide better service to the residents and taxpayers of the state of Colorado, to increase state government productivity, and to decrease state government costs and waste. The general assembly recognizes that one method of achieving a more efficient and effective state government is to encourage the involvement of state employees in the development of innovative ideas that will increase the productivity and service level of state government while decreasing the costs of state government. The general assembly realizes that employee incentive programs that reward state employees for innovative ideas by allowing and incentivizing the employees to share the cost savings resulting from such innovative ideas will help encourage employee involvement in making state government more efficient and effective. The general assembly further recognizes that rewarding state employees' ideas may also increase employee morale and enthusiasm, decrease employee turnover, and improve customer service.

24-50-902. Definitions. As used in this part 9, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) (a) "Employee" means, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), all state employees, including those employees within the state personnel system and those exempt from the state personnel system as specified in section 13 (2) of article XII of the state constitution.

(b) "Employee" does not include:

(I) An employee of the office of state planning and budgeting, the office of the state auditor, the joint budget committee, or the department of personnel;

(II) An elected official or member of the general assembly;

(III) The executive director, program manager, division director, or budget officer of a principal department; or

(IV) An employee of a governing board of an institution of higher education or a higher education institutional system, an employee of an institution of higher education or of a higher education institutional system, or an employee of the Auraria higher education center created in article 70 of title 23, C.R.S.

(2) "Executive director" means a state agency's executive director or similar senior level manager or managing director.

(3) "Idea application" means the application described in section 24-50-903 (1)(a).

(4) "Projected savings" means an amount calculated by a state agency that may be realized by the agency directly as a result of an employee's idea application.

(5) "Savings realized" means an amount calculated by a state agency that was actually realized by the agency directly as a result of an employee's idea application.

(6) "State agency" means any department, board, bureau, commission, division, institution, office, or other agency of the executive, legislative, and judicial branch of the state government. "State agency" shall not include an institution of higher education.

24-50-903. State employee idea application. (1) (a) (I) No later than October 1, 2010, the state personnel director, or his or her designee, shall create and make publicly available to all employees on the department of personnel's website an idea application, substantially similar to the Air Force form AF 1000, to allow employees to suggest state agency improvements that may result in cost savings at the state agency where the employee works. Each state agency executive director shall create agency-specific supplemental submission materials to the idea application if such materials are deemed necessary by the executive director to manage the submission process. Each state agency shall post such materials on its respective website.

(II) The idea application shall not be used for ideas that:

(A) Would result from obvious and progressive normal business practices, such as a foreseeable expectation that the idea would be implemented in a reasonable time frame as a result of evolving business or industry practice;

(B) Are obvious solutions to mandated budget cuts, such as abolishing vacant funded positions or reducing staff through layoffs;

(C) Result in cost avoidance as the method of documenting cost savings, such as no or lowered increases in costs for staff, supplies, or equipment;
(D) Result in revenue enhancement as the method of documenting cost savings, such as new or increased fees for services; or

(E) Simply shift the cost from one state agency to another.

(b) No later than October 1, 2010, the state personnel director, or his or her designee, shall establish standard evaluation criteria substantially similar to the evaluation criteria used to evaluate the Air Force form AF 1000, by which all idea applications shall be evaluated. The state personnel director, or his or her designee, shall make such criteria available to all executive directors. Each state agency executive director may establish additional evaluation criteria specific to his or her agency if such criteria are deemed necessary by the executive director to manage the submission process.

(c) (I) Any employee may complete an idea application. For processing, the employee shall submit the idea application to the executive director of the employee's state agency. An employee shall not be retaliated against for submitting an idea application.

   (II) The identity of an employee who submits an idea application shall remain confidential and shall be redacted from the application until the employee has been determined to be eligible for an honorary award as specified in paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of this section, except that the identity of the employee may be made known to the executive director, or his or her designee, for purposes of obtaining reasonably necessary additional information related to the idea application.

   (III) (A) The executive director, or his or her designee, shall provide notification of receipt of the idea application to the employee within fifteen days after submission of such application. The executive director, or his or her designee, may automatically deny an idea application if he or she deems such application to be duplicative of another application that was submitted within the prior twelve-month period or duplicative of a recommendation contained in an audit report from the office of the state auditor or any privately contracted auditor, a joint budget committee staff document, or any other published evaluation of Colorado state government. The executive director, or his or her designee, shall provide notice of an automatic denial within fifteen days pursuant to this sub-subparagraph (A).

   (B) The executive director, or his or her designee, shall cause, within forty-five business days from the date of submission of an idea application that was not automatically denied for reasons listed in this section or agency-specific evaluation criteria as developed by an executive director, a projected savings calculation to be made.

   (C) The executive director shall respond with a decision either approving or denying the employee's idea application within sixty business days after the date of submission of the idea application. For any idea application that is approved, the executive director, or his or her designee, shall identify, to the extent possible, any state laws or rules that would need to be changed as part of the review and approval process. The executive director, or his or her designee, shall submit a request for legislation to the committee of reference assigned to such executive director's state agency regarding any approved idea application that requires legislation for implementation. Idea applications that do not require legislation for implementation shall be implemented by the state agency as soon as reasonably possible, and no later than July 1 of the fiscal year following acceptance of the idea application.

   (IV) A copy of any employee's idea application that is not approved, along with a copy of the executive director's response, and any document indicating the projected savings shall be submitted by the director to the office of state planning and budgeting created in section 24-37-within sixty business days after submission of the idea application for the office of state planning and budgeting to review.

(V) The executive director, or his or her designee, shall maintain copies of all idea applications that are submitted, along with the following information for approved idea applications:

(A) A description of the innovative idea implemented;
(B) The total savings achieved in the first fiscal year or first full twelve-month period after full implementation;
(C) The total dollars awarded as an incentive to the employee who submitted the idea application;
(D) Any affected general appropriations act line item, if applicable; and
(E) An evaluation of the effectiveness in achieving the goals set forth in section 24-50-901 of the implemented idea and the honorary award to the employee.

(2) Commencing on or after October 1, 2010, all state agencies shall advertise that the idea application is available on the department of personnel's website on any type of electronic payroll statements issued to employees and in any electronic broadcast communication made to employees, so long as the advertisement for the idea application occurs at least monthly.

(3) The idea application and the advertisement described in subsection (2) of this section shall include information related to the honorary award specified in paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of this section that an employee may earn.

(4) (a) Once an idea application is submitted, reviewed, and accepted by the executive director, or his or her designee, the employee shall be informed of the honorary award he or she may earn.

(b) Thirteen months after the innovative idea described in the idea application is fully implemented, the executive director shall calculate the savings realized for the first twelve months of full implementation. All documentation of the savings realized calculation satisfying the requirements of paragraph (f) of this subsection (4) shall be forwarded to the state auditor for review and verification no later than two months after the twelve months of full implementation of the innovative idea described in the idea application. The state auditor shall have one hundred twenty days from receipt of the savings realized calculation to:

(I) Conduct the review and verification of the savings realized calculation; and
(II) Submit a report with his or her findings, recommendations, and conclusions to the legislative audit committee, which shall hold a public hearing for the purposes of a review of the report.

(c) The state auditor's report described in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) shall be submitted to the executive director who approved the idea application and to any members of the general assembly who carried any legislation to implement the idea.

(d) (I) Except as provided in subparagraphs (II), (III), and (IV) of this paragraph (d), and unless otherwise prohibited, the savings realized as verified by the state auditor as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) shall be distributed, no later than the last day of the eighteenth month following the implementation of the innovative idea, as follows:

(A) Five percent, up to five thousand dollars, of the savings realized as a one-time honorary award to the employee who submitted the idea application;
(B) Twenty-five percent, up to twenty-five thousand dollars, of the savings realized to the state agency that the employee's idea application directly affects; and
(C) The remainder after distributions are made pursuant to sub-subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this subparagraph (I) to the state general fund.

(II) For a state agency that constitutes an enterprise for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution, the savings realized as verified by the state auditor as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) shall be distributed, no later than the last day of the eighteenth month following the implementation of the innovative idea, as follows:

(A) Five percent, up to five thousand dollars, of the savings realized as a one-time honorary award to the employee who submitted the idea application;

(B) The remainder, after the distribution made pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (II), to the state agency and to the general fund. The amount distributed to the general fund shall be the same percentage of the savings realized that the state agency receives in total annual revenues from the state general fund.

(III) If the savings realized result in savings of federal moneys, the federal moneys saved shall not be distributed as specified in this paragraph (d) but shall either be used for a reallocation of moneys within the state agency or shall revert, depending on the use specified for those particular federal moneys.

(IV) If the savings realized result in savings of moneys from public or private grants, gifts, awards, or donations where the use of such moneys is restricted, such restricted moneys shall not be distributed as specified in this paragraph (d) but shall either be used for a reallocation of moneys within the state agency or shall revert, depending on the use specified for such particular restricted moneys.

(e) (I) Except as provided in subparagraphs (II) and (III) of this paragraph (e), the state agency may use the distribution specified in sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (4) for any projects that would increase that state agency's efficiency or improve services provided to state residents, but the distribution shall not be used to hire additional full-time equivalent employees or for personnel services expenditures other than the distribution specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (4).

(II) Any savings realized distributed to the department of transportation pursuant to sub-subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (4) shall be transferred to the state highway fund created in section 43-1-219, C.R.S., and shall only be used for material costs of road and bridge repairs.

(III) This paragraph (e) shall not apply to a state agency that constitutes an enterprise for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the state auditor shall only be required to undertake the review and verification required by paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) where the executive director has made a determination that the savings realized for the first twelve months of full implementation of the innovative idea described in the idea application equals ten thousand or more dollars.

(5) Nothing in this part 9 shall be construed to provide employees with any grievance, dispute resolution, or appeals process with regard to any idea application submitted by the employee.
ARTICLE 50.3

State Administrative Support Services -
Department of Personnel

Cross references: For the legislative declaration contained in the 1995 act enacting this article, see section 112 of chapter 167, Session Laws of Colorado 1995.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

24-50.3-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the merger of the department of administration, which is responsible for providing specific administrative support services to state agencies, into the department of personnel, which is responsible for the administration of the state personnel system, will result in increased efficiency, reduced costs, increased accountability, and improvements in the provision of services to state agencies and the public. It is for this purpose that the general assembly has enacted this article.

24-50.3-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) "Department" means the department of personnel.
(2) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of personnel.

Source: L. 95: Entire article added, p. 627, § 6, effective July 1.

24-50.3-104. Powers and duties of executive director. (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to diminish the responsibility of the executive director in administering the state personnel system as required by the state constitution or statutes.
(2) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the executive director by this article or any other law, the executive director shall:
(a) Study and make recommendations to the governor regarding improvements in techniques used by state agencies for management specialties, including, but not limited to, accounting, purchasing, maintenance of state buildings and grounds, records management, and data processing management;

(b) Coordinate and provide services used by more than one state agency;
(c) Review agencies' programs and management in order to identify problems and suggest improvements to the governor;
(d) Report annually to the governor concerning all findings and recommendations;
(e) Review the accounts of all state agencies with respect to the status of debts owed to the state through any agency, other than taxes recoverable by the department of revenue, and devise methods to increase the efficiency of the agencies and the controller in the collection of such debts;
(f) Supervise the provision of maintenance and other related services to all buildings and grounds in the capitol buildings group.
(3) In order to perform these duties, the executive director shall have the power to:
(a) Promulgate rules and regulations;
(b) Examine the books, accounts, and employees of the various state agencies;
(c) Conduct public or private hearings on any matter relating to the functions of the executive director;
(d) Establish standards for the executive branch regarding the allocation of office space to various functions, the size and density of occupancy of office space, and the amount and quality of office furnishings;
(e) After consultation with other state agencies, promulgate rules and regulations which set out the methods to be employed by state agencies in the collection of debts due the state.
Rules and regulations shall be uniform wherever possible for all state agencies and shall include such things as the classification of debts by type, amount, time status as to delinquency, circumstances of debtor, possibility of error, and any other method of classification which aids an agency in efficient efforts to recover amounts due the state. Such rules and regulations shall also specify the requirements for a debt to be classified as "referable to controller" for further collection.
(f) Promulgate rules and regulations for the controller in the collection of debts referred to that office, including such matters as referrals to collection agencies or practicing attorneys for out-of-state collection of debts; authority to write off, release, or compromise debts; authorization of suit filings; and methods of collection of judgments;
(g) Promulgate procedural rules governing the conduct of hearings before the office of administrative courts.
(4) The executive director shall have such other powers, duties, and functions as are prescribed for heads of principal departments in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of this title.
(5) Every state department, its officers, and its employees shall cooperate with the executive director in the performance of the executive director's duties.
(6) The executive director shall have the responsibility for the analysis of all state agency programs; the appraisal of the quantity and quality of services rendered by each principal department and by the divisions, sections, and units thereunder; and the development of plans for improvements and economies in the organization and operation of the principal departments and for reporting thereon to the governor and the general assembly.
(7) The executive director may establish such divisions, sections, and other units within the department of personnel as are necessary for the proper and efficient discharge of the powers, duties, and functions of the department. The executive director may allocate, as necessary, such powers, duties, and functions to the divisions, sections, or other units established by the executive director.

(8) Repealed.

L. 98: (7) amended, p. 226, § 1, effective August 5; (8) repealed, p. 677, § 7, effective August 5. L. 2005: (3)(g) amended, p. 858, § 22, effective June 1.

24-50.3-105. Transfer of functions - employees - property - records. (1) On and after July 1, 1995, the department of personnel shall execute, administer, perform, and enforce the rights, powers, duties, functions, and obligations vested prior to July 1, 1995, in the department of administration.

(2) (a) On and after July 1, 1995, all positions of employment in the department of administration concerning the duties and functions transferred to the department of personnel pursuant to section 24-1-128, this article, and article 30 of this title and determined to be necessary to carry out the purposes of these articles by the executive director shall be transferred to the department of personnel and shall become employment positions therein. The executive director shall appoint such employees as are necessary to carry out the duties and exercise the powers conferred by law upon the department and the office of the executive director. Any appointment of employees and any creation or elimination of positions of employment necessary to carry out the purposes of these articles shall be consistent with the plan for reorganizing state support services as set forth in part 2 of this article and shall be implemented after the plan or relevant portion of the plan has been presented to the state support services reorganization committee pursuant to section 24-50.3-202. Appointing authority may be delegated by the executive director as appropriate.

(b) On and after July 1, 1995, all employees of the department of administration whose duties and functions concerned the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the department of personnel pursuant to section 24-1-128, this article, and article 30 of this title, regardless of whether the position of employment in which the employee served was transferred, shall be considered employees of the department of personnel for purposes of section 24-50-124. Such employees shall retain all rights under the state personnel system and to retirement benefits pursuant to the laws of this state, and their services shall be deemed continuous.

(3) On July 1, 1995, all items of property, real and personal, including office furniture and fixtures, books, documents, and records of the department of administration pertaining to the duties and functions transferred to the department of personnel are transferred to the department of personnel and shall become the property thereof.

(4) On and after July 1, 1995, whenever the department of administration is referred to or designated by any contract or other document in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the department of personnel, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the department of personnel. All contracts entered into by the said departments prior to July 1, 1995, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the department of personnel. All contracts entered into by the said departments prior to July 1, 1995, in connection with the duties and functions transferred to the department of personnel shall be deemed to apply to the department of personnel.
personnel are hereby validated, with the department of personnel succeeding to all rights and obligations under such contracts. Any cash funds, custodial funds, trusts, grants, and any appropriations of funds from prior fiscal years open to satisfy obligations incurred under such contracts shall be transferred and appropriated to the department of personnel for the payment of such obligations.

(5) On and after July 1, 1995, unless otherwise specified, whenever any provision of law refers to the department of administration, said law shall be construed as referring to the department of personnel.

(6) All rules, regulations, and orders of the department of administration adopted prior to July 1, 1995, in connection with the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the department of personnel shall continue to be effective until revised, amended, repealed, or nullified pursuant to law. On and after July 1, 1995, the executive director shall adopt rules necessary for the administration of the department and the administration of the administrative support services transferred to the department pursuant to section 24-1-128, this article, and article 30 of this title. Any rules proposed by the executive director on and after July 1, 1995, necessary to carry out the purposes of these articles shall be consistent with the plan for reorganizing state support services as set forth in part 2 of this article and shall be adopted after the plan or relevant portion of the plan has been presented to the state support services reorganization committee pursuant to section 24-50.3-202.

(7) No suit, action, or other judicial or administrative proceeding lawfully commenced prior to July 1, 1995, or that could have been commenced prior to such date, by or against the department of administration or any officer thereof in such officer's official capacity or in relation to the discharge of the officer's duties, shall abate by reason of the transfer of duties and functions from said department to the department of personnel.

(8) (a) The executive director, or a designee of the executive director, may accept and expend, on behalf of and in the name of the state, gifts, donations, and grants for any purpose connected with the work and programs of the department. Any property so given shall be held by the state treasurer, but the executive director, or the designee therefor, shall have the power to direct the disposition of any property so given for any purpose consistent with the terms and conditions under which such gift was created.

(b) Pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), the executive director, or a designee of the executive director, may expend gifts, donations, and grants that are custodial funds without further appropriation by the general assembly. Any gifts, donations, and grants accepted by the executive director, or the designee thereof, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) that are not custodial funds are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly.

Editor's note: The internal references in subsections (2)(a) and (6) to part 2 of this article and section 24-50.3-202 refer to those provisions as they existed prior to the repeal of part 2 of this article on July 1, 1996.

24-50.3-106. Authority of revisor of statutes to amend references to department - affected statutory provisions. (1) The revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to change all references in the Colorado Revised Statutes to the department of administration from the department of administration to the department of personnel with respect to the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the department. In connection with such authority, the revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to amend or delete provisions of the Colorado Revised Statutes so as to make the statutes consistent with the powers, duties, and functions transferred pursuant to section 24-1-128, this article, and article 30 of this title.

(2) On and after July 1, 1996, the revisor of statutes is hereby authorized to change all references in the Colorado Revised Statutes to the divisions of purchasing, state archives and public records, accounts and controls, telecommunications, central services, risk management, and general government computer center, from said references to the department of personnel and to change all references to the directors of said divisions, except the state controller, to the executive director of the department of personnel with respect to the powers, duties, and functions transferred to the department and the executive director. In connection with such authority, the revisor is hereby authorized to amend or delete provisions of the Colorado Revised Statutes so as to make the statutes consistent with the powers, duties, and functions transferred pursuant to section 24-1-128, this article, and article 30 of this title.

PART 2

REORGANIZATION OF STATE SUPPORT SERVICES

24-50.3-201 to 24-50.3-204. (Repealed)

ARTICLE 50.5

State Employee Protection

Editor's note: In Ward v. Industrial Comm'n, 699 P.2d 960 (Colo. 1985), the supreme court set forth how the burden of proof is to be allocated in the examination of possible violations of this statute. In determining whether reduction of terminated state employees' unemployment benefits would violate the protection granted by the statute, the claimant must establish that his or her disclosures fell within the protection of the statute and that they were a substantial or motivating factor in the employer's opposition to his receipt of benefits, and, if the claimant makes such initial showing, then the employer must establish by the preponderance of the evidence that it would have reached the same decision even in the absence of the protected conduct.

Cross references: For private enterprise employee protection, see article 114 of this title.

24-50.5-101. Legislative declaration - repeal. (1) The general assembly declares that the people of Colorado are entitled to information about the workings of state government in order to reduce the waste and mismanagement of public funds, to reduce abuses in government authority, and to prevent illegal and unethical practices. The general assembly further declares that employees of the state of Colorado are citizens first and have a right and a responsibility to behave as good citizens in our common efforts to provide sound management of governmental affairs. To help achieve these objectives, the general assembly declares that state employees should be encouraged to disclose information on actions of state agencies that are not in the public interest and that legislation is needed to ensure that any employee making such disclosures shall not be subject to disciplinary measures or harassment by any public official.

(2) (a) The general assembly further declares that the purpose of the creation of whistleblower review agencies in this article is to provide a mechanism for determining whether information about state operations or conduct provided by a state employee may be made public by a state employee whistleblower, either to members of the general assembly or ultimately to the public, while protecting that state employee from punitive action and while maintaining the confidential nature of information where required by law.

(b) This subsection (2) is repealed, effective May 15, 2018.

Source: L. 79: Entire article added, p. 965, § 1, effective June 15. L. 2016: Entire section amended, (SB 16-056), ch. 294, p. 1194, § 1, effective June 10.

24-50.5-102. Definitions - repeal. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Disciplinary action" means any direct or indirect form of discipline or penalty, including, but not limited to, dismissal, demotion, transfer, reassignment, suspension, corrective action, reprimand, admonishment, unsatisfactory or below standard performance evaluation, reduction in force, or withholding of work, or the threat of any such discipline or penalty.

(2) "Disclosure of information" means the written provision of evidence to any person, or the testimony before any committee of the general assembly, regarding any action, policy, regulation, practice, or procedure, including, but not limited to, the waste of public funds, abuse of authority, or mismanagement of any state agency.

(3) "Employee" means any person employed by a state agency.

(4) "State agency" means any board, commission, department, division, section, or other agency of the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of state government.

(5) "Supervisor" means any board, commission, department head, division head, or other person who supervises or is responsible for the work of one or more employees.
(6) (a) "Whistleblower review agency" means the director of the office of legislative legal services under part 5 of article 3 of title 2, C.R.S., or the director's designee, the attorney general under article 31 of this title, or the attorney general's designee, or the state court administrator under section 13-3-101, C.R.S., or the state court administrator's designee.

(b) This subsection (6) is repealed, effective May 15, 2018.

24-50.5-103. Retaliation prohibited - repeal. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, an appointing authority or supervisor shall not initiate or administer any disciplinary action against an employee on account of the employee's disclosure of information. This subsection (1) does not apply to an employee who discloses:

(a) Information that he or she knows to be false or who discloses information with disregard for the truth or falsity of the information;

(b) Information from public records that are closed to public inspection pursuant to section 24-72-204; or

(c) Without lawful authority, information that is confidential under any other provision of law or closed to public inspection under section 24-72-204 (2)(a)(I) and (2)(a)(VIII).

(2) An employee who wishes to disclose information under the protection of this article is obligated to make a good-faith effort to provide to his or her supervisor or appointing authority or member of the general assembly the information to be disclosed prior to the time of its disclosure.

(2.5) An appointing authority or supervisor shall not initiate or administer any disciplinary action against an employee on account of the employee's disclosure of information to the fraud hotline administered by the state auditor in accordance with section 2-3-110.5; except that this subsection (2.5) does not apply to an employee who discloses information with disregard for the truth or falsity of the information.

(3) Subsection (2) and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to an employee who discloses information to a whistleblower review agency.

(4) An employee shall disclose information under subsection (3) of this section to the attorney general or the attorney general's designee unless the information disclosed involves an officer or employee of the department of law. If the information disclosed under subsection (3) of this section involves an officer or employee of the department of law, an employee may disclose the information to any whistleblower review agency. Access to information received by a whistleblower review agency under this section is limited to only those persons conducting the review.

(5) (a) (I) Within thirty days after receipt of any information disclosed under subsection (3) of this section, a whistleblower review agency shall determine in writing whether or not the information is:

(A) Closed to public inspection under section 24-72-204; or

(B) Confidential under any other provision of law.

(II) Each whistleblower review agency shall maintain the confidential nature of any information determined to be closed to public inspection or confidential under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).
(b) If a whistleblower review agency determines that any information disclosed under subsection (3) of this section includes trade secrets, or confidential commercial, financial, geological, or geophysical data, the whistleblower review agency shall maintain the confidential nature of the information.

(c) (I) If there is a substantial likelihood that information disclosed under subsection (3) of this section to a whistleblower review agency will be released to the public for reasons including that the whistleblower review agency determines in writing that the information is not confidential, that a request for inspection of the information exists under part 2 of article 72 of this title, or that a person requests a court to compel release of the information, the whistleblower review agency shall immediately give written notice to the owner of the information that the whistleblower review agency is in possession of the information in connection with a disclosure of information under subsection (3) of this section. Written notice under this paragraph (c) tolls the time period for the inspection of records under section 24-72-203 (3) until a reasonable time after the thirty-day time period specified in subsection (6) of this section and the conclusion of any legal proceedings under subsection (6) of this section. A whistleblower review agency shall not release any information subject to a notice under this paragraph (c) until thirty days after the date that written notice is given to the owner of the information under this paragraph (c).

(II) The written notice must contain the determination of the whistleblower review agency with respect to whether the information is confidential and the circumstances constituting a substantial likelihood that the information will be released to the public.

(III) The written notification requirement of this paragraph (c) does not apply if a whistleblower review agency makes a good-faith effort to locate the owner of the information and reasonably determines that the owner cannot be located.

(6) Any person notified under paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of this section who could be harmed by the release of information described under paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of this section and disclosed under subsection (3) of this section to a whistleblower review agency may, within thirty days after receiving notice under paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of this section, file an action under rule 65 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure against the whistleblower review agency in possession of the information in the district court for the city and county of Denver for injunctive relief prohibiting release of the information.

(7) (a) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, immediately after receiving any information under subsection (3) of this section, a whistleblower review agency shall notify the supervisor or appointing authority of the employee that the whistleblower review agency has received the information and that no retaliatory action may be taken against the employee except under the limited circumstances described in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section.

(b) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, within sixty days after receiving any information under subsection (3) of this section, a whistleblower review agency may confer with and transfer the information to the entity having jurisdiction or authority to investigate any allegation of unlawful behavior.

(8) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, if a whistleblower review agency determines that the information or a portion of the information received is not prohibited from disclosure under section 24-72-204 or is not otherwise confidential under any other provision of law, that information may be released to the general assembly or the public upon request. Each whistleblower review agency shall maintain records of information disclosed to the whistleblower review agency under subsection (3) of this section and of the action of the whistleblower review agency with respect to the information.

(9) Each whistleblower review agency shall designate a person or persons as a point of contact for functions under this section and shall make the contact information for that person or those persons public, both on the website of the whistleblower review agency and by any other appropriate means.

(10) If the person or persons designated under subsection (9) of this section become aware that information from public records that are closed to public inspection under section 24-72-204 or information that is otherwise confidential under the law is determined to have been disclosed at any time without lawful authority, the person or persons designated in subsection (9) of this section shall make reasonable efforts to notify the owner of the information within a reasonable time.

(11) Subsections (3) to (10) of this section and this subsection (11) are repealed, effective May 15, 2018.

24-50.5-104. Complaints by state personnel system employees - limitation period.

(1) Any employee in the state personnel system may file a written complaint with the state personnel board within ten days after the employee knew or should have known of a disciplinary action alleging a violation of section 24-50.5-103 if the employee demonstrates that reasonable communication to the employee's supervisor, appointing authority, or member of the general assembly has occurred in regard to the alleged violation. Within ten days after receiving the complaint, the state personnel board shall send a copy of the complaint to the affected state agency and shall provide the employee with written notice that the complaint has been received and docketed and that sets forth the process for reviewing such complaint. The affected state agency shall submit a written response to the complaint within forty-five days after the date the complaint was filed with the state personnel board. The state personnel board shall set the matter for review in accordance with section 24-50-123 or for hearing to commence not later than ninety days after the receipt of the written response filed by the agency. The hearing date may be continued once only for good cause shown for no longer than thirty days with the approval of the state personnel board. Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall take precedence over any other matter pending before the state personnel board.

(2) If the state personnel board after hearing determines that a violation of section 24-50.5-103 has occurred, the state personnel board shall order, within forty-five days after such hearing, the appropriate relief, including, but not limited to, reinstatement, back pay, restoration of lost service credit, and expungement of the records of the employee who disclosed information, and, in addition, the state personnel board shall order that the employee filing the complaint be reimbursed for any costs, including any court costs and attorney fees, if any, incurred in the proceeding. Such reimbursement shall be made out of moneys appropriated to the agency that employs such employee. Judicial review of any determination by the state personnel board under this subsection (2) may be had in accordance with section 24-4-106.
(3) It shall be a defense in any grievance or appeal before the state personnel board that the disciplinary action against an employee was initiated in violation of section 24-50.5-103, and the issue of the violation of section 24-50.5-103 shall be determined by the state personnel board as a part of the related grievance or appeal. The failure to raise any such defense shall bar any subsequent cause of action for a violation of section 24-50.5-103 arising out of the same set of facts at issue in the related grievance or appeal.

(4) Whenever the state personnel board determines that an appointing authority or supervisor has violated section 24-50.5-103, the appointing authority or supervisor shall receive a disciplinary action which shall remain a permanent part of the appointing authority's or supervisor's personnel file, and a copy of the disciplinary action shall be provided to the employee. The disciplinary action shall be appropriate to the circumstances, from a mandatory minimum of one week suspension or equivalent up to and including termination. In considering the appropriate disciplinary action pursuant to this subsection (4), the appointing authority or supervisor of the appointing authority or supervisor who has committed such violation shall consider the nature and severity of the retaliatory conduct involved.

(5) The state personnel board shall promulgate rules consistent with the provisions of this article that establish the procedures for filing complaints with the state personnel board under this section and that identify the rights and obligations of employees under this article.

24-50.5-105. Civil action. Any employee not in the state personnel system, or any employee in the state personnel system who filed a complaint under section 24-50.5-104 (1) but the state personnel board determined after review or hearing that no violation of section 24-50.5-103 occurred, may bring a civil action in the district court alleging a violation of section 24-50.5-103. If the employee prevails, the employee may recover damages, together with court costs, and the court may order such other relief as it deems appropriate.

24-50.5-106. Notice to state auditor. Whenever the state personnel board finds that a violation of section 24-50.5-103 involving the disclosure of information concerning waste of public funds or mismanagement of a state agency has occurred, it shall transmit a copy of the investigation report to the state auditor, who shall proceed in accordance with section 2-3-101 (3)(e), C.R.S.

Source: L. 79: Entire article added, p. 967, § 1, effective June 15.

24-50.5-107. Reports to the governor. The state personnel board shall report annually to the governor concerning the complaints filed, hearings held, and actions taken pursuant to this article.
24-50.5-108. Working group - broadening protections for state employee whistleblowers - confidential information subject of whistleblowing - preserving confidentiality of confidential information - repeal. (1) The governor shall convene a working group on broadening protections for state employee whistleblowers who may be required to disclose confidential information that is the subject of whistleblowing. The working group consists of the following:
   (a) A representative of the office of the governor, designated by the governor;
   (b) The executive director of the department of personnel or the executive director's designee;
   (c) A representative of the office of the attorney general, designated by the attorney general;
   (d) The director of the office of legislative legal services or the director's designee.

(2) (a) The working group shall examine the whistleblower protection laws of the federal government and of other states and compare those laws to Colorado's whistleblower protection law as contained in this article. The working group shall determine means of broadening the whistleblower protections in Colorado law for situations where the subject of whistleblowing involves confidential information that would need to be disclosed in some manner in order to bring to light activities including the waste of public funds, abuse of authority, or mismanagement. The working group shall determine methods by which confidential information could be disclosed while preserving the confidential nature of the information. The working group shall include input from advocacy organizations including business, privacy advocates, and employee advocates.

   (b) Meetings of the working group are subject to part 4 of article 6 of this title, and the working group is subject to the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of this title.

(3) By November 1, 2016, the working group shall report its recommendations to the committee on legal services and to the joint budget committee of the general assembly.

(4) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2018.

PART 1

DEFINITIONS

24-51-101. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires and except as otherwise defined in part 17 of this article:

(1) "Actuarial equivalent" means an amount equal to a specified benefit based on an assumed interest rate and life expectancy.

(2) "Actuarial investment assumption rate" means the assumed rate of return from investments as set by the board with the advice of the actuary.

(3) "Actuarial valuation" means the determination, as of a valuation date, of the normal cost, actuarial accrued liability, actuarial value of assets, and related actuarial present values of the plan.

(4) "Actuary" or "actuaries" means the professional consultants retained by the board to review statistics and make periodic evaluations of the finances needed for the payment of future retirement benefits, survivor benefits, and health care subsidies.

(5) "Amortization period" means the number of years which is required to gradually extinguish the unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities of the plan if future actuarial experience exactly matches the assumptions set by the board.

(6) "Association" means the public employees' retirement association created pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-201.

(6.5) "Base benefit" means the initial benefit for a benefit that becomes effective after March 1, 2009. (7) "Benefit" means the monthly payment for service retirement, disability retirement, or survivor benefits. A refund pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-405 or a single payment to a survivor is not a "benefit".

(8) "Benefit recipient" means a retiree, spouse, cobeneficiary, qualified child, or dependent parent receiving monthly service retirement, disability retirement, or survivor benefits. "Benefit recipient" does not include a person who has received a refund pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-405 or a single payment.

(9) "Board" means the board of trustees created pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-202 which has such duties and powers authorized by this article for the management of the association.

(10) "Cobeneficiary" means:

(a) The person or supplemental needs trust selected by the member or ordered by court decree prior to retirement to be the person selected under option 2 or 3 pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-801 to receive a continuing benefit upon the retiree's death; or
(b) The person or supplemental needs trust designated by a member eligible for service retirement or ordered by a court decree prior to retirement to be the person selected to receive option 3 upon the member's death pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-906.

(11) Repealed.

(12) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 779, § 2, effective March 1, 2001.)

(13) "Contributions" means the total of employer and member contributions paid to the association.

(13.5) "Deferred compensation plan" means an eligible deferred compensation plan established and administered pursuant to the provisions of 26 U.S.C. sec. 457 (b), as amended.

(14) "Dependent parents" means, for survivor benefits purposes, parents who received fifty percent or more of their support from the member at the time of the member's death. "Dependent parents" also means parents who receive fifty percent or more of their support from a benefit recipient at the time they request eligibility for the health care program.

(15) "Dependents" means the spouse, qualified children, and dependent parents of a benefit recipient.

(16) "Disability" means mental or physical incapacitation as determined pursuant to part 7 of this article.

(17) "Disabled" means mentally or physically incapacitated as determined pursuant to part 7 of this article.

(18) "Division" means the state, school, local government, judicial, or Denver public schools division, each of which is identified by a separate trust fund, amortization period, and membership.

(18.2) "DPS" means Denver public schools.

(18.3) "DPS member" means any person who has an existing member account in the DPS plan on December 31, 2009, or has an existing member account based on service performed prior to January 1, 2010, for which such member received compensation on or after January 1, 2010.

(18.5) "DPS plan" means the Denver public schools retirement system retirement and benefit plan enacted by the Denver public schools board of education pursuant to section 22-64-202, C.R.S., and governed by article 64 of title 22 and related plan documents, as amended, from inception to the repeal of said article. After May 21, 2009, the DPS plan may be amended solely for the purposes of complying with the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and such amendments shall be included in the DPS plan.

(18.7) "DPS retiree" means a person who is receiving a service retirement or disability benefit from the association pursuant to part 17 of this article.

(19) "Effective date of retirement" means the date after termination of employment on which the member becomes eligible for benefits.

(20) "Employer" means the state of Colorado, the general assembly, any state department, board, commission, bureau, agency, or institution, the Colorado association of school boards, the Colorado high school activities association, the Colorado association of school executives, the fire and police pension association, the special districts association, the Colorado water resources and power development authority, the public employees' retirement association, the Colorado consortium for earth and space science education, all school districts in Colorado, and any political subdivision, city, municipality, county, housing authority, special district, library district, regional planning commission, public hospital, county or district public. health agency, state university, state college, state local district college, or other public entity that is affiliated with the plan.

(21) "Employer contribution" means the money paid by an employer to the association pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-401 (1.7) for all member salaries paid and other required employer contributions made pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-402.

(21.5) "Erroneous contribution" means an amount contributed in error to a member contribution account based on compensation that is not salary as defined in subsection (42) of this section.

(22) "Former member" means an individual who received a refund upon termination of employment pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-405.

(23) "Fund" means the total assets of the association which are credited to the various trust funds established and invested by the association pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(24) "Health care" means the program provided for in part 12 of this article.

(25) (a) "Highest average salary" means:

(I) One-twelfth of the average of the highest annual salaries upon which contributions were paid, whether earned from one or more employers, that are associated with three periods of twelve consecutive months of service credit;

(II) For a member who does not have the requisite three years of service credit, one-twelfth of the average of the total annual salaries earned during membership upon which contributions were paid;

(III) For benefits which become effective on or after January 1, 1982, where the individual earned less than one year of service credit after December 31, 1980, one-twelfth of the average of the highest annual salaries upon which contributions were paid which were associated with five consecutive years of service credit; or

(IV) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (a) to the contrary, for members of the judicial division retiring on or after July 1, 1997, one-twelfth of the highest annual salary upon which contributions were paid for twelve consecutive months.

(b) (I) In calculating highest average salary pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (25), for a member who was a member, inactive member, or retiree on December 31, 2006, and who has an effective date of retirement before January 1, 2009, if any annual salary used in said calculation was associated with service credit earned during the last three years of membership, each annual salary increase shall be limited to fifteen percent. This limitation shall not apply to salary decreases.

(II) In calculating highest average salary pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (25), for a member who was a member, inactive member, or retiree on December 31, 2006, and who has an effective date of retirement before January 1, 2009, if all annual salaries used in said calculation were associated with service credit earned prior to the last three years of membership, no fifteen percent limit shall be applied to the salary differences.

(III) In calculating highest average salary for a member who was a member, inactive member, or retiree on December 31, 2006, and who has an effective date of retirement on or after January 1, 2009, the association shall determine the highest annual salaries associated with four periods of twelve consecutive months of service credit. The lowest of such annual salaries shall be the base salary. The first annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred fifteen percent of the base salary. The second annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred fifteen percent of the first annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation. The third annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred fifteen percent of the second annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation.

(IV) In calculating highest average salary for a member who was not a member, inactive member, or retiree on December 31, 2006, the association shall determine the highest annual salaries associated with four periods of twelve consecutive months of service credit. The lowest of such annual salaries shall be the base salary. The first annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the base salary. The second annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the first annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation. The third annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the second annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation.

(V) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (b), in calculating highest average salary for a member or inactive member not eligible for service or reduced service retirement on January 1, 2011, the association shall determine the highest annual salaries associated with four periods of twelve consecutive months of service credit. The lowest of such annual salaries shall be the base salary. The first annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the base salary. The second annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the first annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation. The third annual salary to be used in the highest average salary calculation shall be the actual salary reported up to one hundred eight percent of the second annual salary used in the highest average salary calculation. This subparagraph (V) shall not apply to members of the judicial division, except for DPS members of the judicial division who have exercised portability pursuant to section 24-51-1747 and selected the Denver public schools benefit structure. This subparagraph (V) shall apply to DPS members in accordance with section 24-51-1702 (17).

(c) For retirements on or before January 1, 1989, if a member had a rate of pay reduction occur within any calendar year used in the calculation of highest average salary, the calculation shall be the average of the highest three periods of twelve consecutive months of salary if this results in a higher average salary.

(d) (I) If a member has a rate of pay reduction resulting from the furloughing of such member during the 2002-03 or 2003-04 state fiscal years and the reduction occurs during any period of twelve consecutive months used to calculate the member's highest average salary, the member may pay during the three months prior to the effective date of retirement the full member contribution upon and be credited with an amount equal to any such reduction for the period used in the calculation of highest average salary. If a member pays the member contribution pursuant to this paragraph (d), the employer shall forward to the association the full amount of the employer contribution on the amount of pay reduction within ten business days following notice by the association of the amount due. The rate of employer and employee contributions shall be as set forth in section 24-51-401 (1.7).

(II) Each employer shall forward to the association a list of its retired employees who had a furlough from July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2003. The list shall show the amount of pay reduction that resulted from the furlough of such employee for each month during that period. The retiree may pay the member contribution on such amount in full within thirty days of the date the association notifies the retiree of the amount due. If the employee pays that contribution, then the employer shall forward to the association the full amount of the employer contribution on the amount of pay reduction within ten business days following notice by the association of the amount due pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d). Upon receipt of both contributions, the association shall include the amount of pay reduction that resulted from the furlough for the period used in the calculation of highest average salary.

(26) "Inactive member" means a person who has terminated membership and is not making member contributions but who has money in a member contribution account. "Inactive member" includes persons making continuing payments in lieu of member contributions pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-606 (2). Inactive members are not "members" as defined in subsection (29) of this section.

(27) "Initial benefit" means the first full monthly benefit paid to the benefit recipient or the first full monthly benefit paid to a benefit recipient after recalculation of the benefit pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-51-1103 and 24-51-1104.

(28) "Interest" means:
(a) The actuarial investment assumption rate compounded annually for any interest charged to a member or benefit recipient pursuant to the provisions of this article;
(b) The applicable actuarial investment assumption rate compounded annually for any interest charged to an employer pursuant to the provisions of this article; and
(c) The rate established by the board for each calendar year pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-407 for interest on member contributions.

(28.5) "Matching employer contributions" means:
(a) The portion of employer contributions used together with the member contribution account to determine the amount of a member's money purchase retirement benefit pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-51-408 (1) and 24-51-605.5 (2); and
(b) The portion of employer contributions paid together with the refund of the member contribution account to members who have terminated membership pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-51-405 and 24-51-408 (2).

(29) "Member" means any employee of an employer defined in subsection (20) of this section who works in a position which is subject to membership in the association and for whom contributions are made. "Member" includes such employee during leaves of absence without pay during which the employer-employee relationship continues if the period of leave is certified to the association by the employer. "Member" also includes any person hired by an employer affiliated with the Denver public schools division who is not a DPS member, unless otherwise indicated. "Member" does not include persons who have terminated employment or died.

(30) "Member contribution" means the money paid to the association that equals a percentage of the member's salary as determined pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-401 (1.7). "Member contribution" does not include working retiree contributions as defined in subsection (53) of this section.

(31) "Member contribution account" means an account maintained for each member in the member contribution reserve to which member contributions, interest on member contributions, payments in lieu of member contributions, and payments and interest made for purchases of service credit are credited.
"Members of the judicial division" means justices of the supreme court and judges of the court of appeals, district courts, county courts, probate courts, and juvenile courts.

"Named beneficiary" means any person designated in writing by a member to receive a single payment upon the death of the member when survivor benefits are not payable.

"Plan" means the design of the association which is established for the purpose of providing employers, members, and cobeneficiaries and named beneficiaries of such members, such rights, obligations, and duties as provided for in the provisions of this article.

"Portability" means the provisions of section 24-51-1747.

"Premium" means the total amount charged by a life insurer, health insurer, health maintenance organization, health care provider, or by the association for each participant and shall be equal to the total of the amount paid by the participant and the premium subsidy, if any, paid by the plan.

"Projected service credit" means the service credit which would have been earned if the retiree receiving disability retirement benefits had continued membership until reaching sixty-five years of age; except that a member's service credit, including any projected service credit, cannot exceed twenty years.

"Qualified children" means natural or adopted children of a member who are unmarried and under eighteen years of age or who are unmarried and eighteen years of age or older but under twenty-three years of age if enrolled full time in an accredited school within six months after the date of death of such member. "Qualified children" includes any children who become mentally or physically incapacitated prior to attaining such age or marital status which precludes them from obtaining gainful employment, and such children shall continue to be considered qualified children so long as such disability continues.

Repealed.

"Retiree" means a person who is receiving a service or disability retirement benefit from the association pursuant to part 6 or 7 of this article.

"Retirement" means the time when the retiree is receiving retirement benefits pursuant to part 6 or 7 of this article.

"Retirement benefit" means the monthly service retirement benefit or the disability retirement benefit provided for in this article.

(a) "Salary" means compensation for services rendered to an employer and includes: Regular salary or pay; any pay for administrative, sabbatical, annual, sick, vacation, or personal leave; pay for compensatory time or holidays; payments by an employer from grants; amounts deducted from pay pursuant to tax-sheltered savings or retirement programs; amounts deducted from pay for a health savings account as defined in 26 U.S.C. sec. 223, as amended, or any other type of retirement health savings account program; performance or merit payments, if approved by the board; special pay for work-related injuries paid by the employer prior to termination of membership; and retroactive salary payments pursuant to court orders, arbitration awards, or litigation and grievance settlements.

(b) "Salary" does not include: Commissions; compensation for unused sick leave converted at any time to cash payments; compensation for unused sick, annual, vacation, administrative, or other accumulated paid leave contributed to a health savings account as defined in 26 U.S.C. sec. 223, as amended, or a retirement health savings program; housing allowances; uniform allowances; automobile usage; insurance premiums; dependent care assistance; reimbursement for expenses incurred; tuition or any other fringe benefits, regardless of federal taxation; bonuses for services not actually rendered, including, but not limited to, early retirement inducements, Christmas bonuses, cash awards, honorariums and severance pay, damages, except for retroactive salary payments paid pursuant to court orders or arbitration awards or litigation and grievance settlements, or payments beyond the date of a member's death.

(c) Compensation received by DPS members on or before December 31, 2009, shall be governed by part 17 of this article for purposes of determining includable salary. On and after January 1, 2010, compensation received by DPS members shall be governed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (42) for purposes of determining includable salary. Any adjustments to compensation shall be governed by the provisions in effect for the period for which the adjustment applied.

(43) "Service credit" means the total of all earned, purchased, projected, and uniformed service credit; however, it does not necessarily equal the number of years employed.

(44) "Service credit purchase agreement" means the agreement between the member and the association with regard to the service credit eligible for purchase, the cost of the purchase, the date the payment is to begin and end, and the method of payment.

(45) "Single payment" means the one-time payment of the moneys credited to the member contribution account of a deceased member or deceased inactive member, together with matching employer contributions. A "single payment" is not a benefit.

(46) "State trooper" means an employee of the Colorado state patrol, Colorado bureau of investigation, or successors to these agencies, who is vested with the powers of peace officers as provided for in section 24-33.5-409.

(46.5) "Supplemental needs trust" means a valid third-party special needs trust established for a member's or retiree's child as the beneficiary of the trust that complies with the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act", articles 4 to 6 of title 25.5, C.R.S., and the federal "Social Security Act", as amended. The department of health care policy and financing shall review any trust established during the determination or redetermination of an individual's eligibility for medical assistance and specifically as to the effect of any trust on such eligibility for medical assistance. The trust must be for the benefit of a single beneficiary and must be coterminous with the lifetime of such beneficiary.

(47) "Surviving spouse" means the surviving spouse of a deceased member or a deceased inactive member and includes a widow and a widower.

(48) "Survivor benefits" means the monthly benefit payable pursuant to part 9 of this article upon the death of a member or inactive member prior to retirement but does not include a single payment made upon the death of a member or inactive member.

(49) "Termination of employment" means the last day of employment for which a member receives compensation on which contributions are remitted, including payment for accumulated sick or annual leave, or the last day of a period of unpaid leave of absence, whichever is later.

(50) "Termination of membership" means the loss of membership which occurs on the date the member terminates employment, retires, or dies.

(51) "Vested benefit" means an entitlement to a future monthly benefit which is earned upon completion of five years of service credit.

(52) "Voluntary investment program" means a voluntary tax-deferred investment program established and administered pursuant to the provisions of 26 U.S.C. sec. 401 (k), as amended.
"Working retiree contributions" means an amount paid to the association that equals the percentage of salary that would be paid as member contributions pursuant to section 24-51-401 (1.7)(a); except that working retiree contributions shall not be considered member contributions and shall not be deposited in the member contribution account.

ADMINISTRATION
24-51-201. Public employees' retirement association - creation. (1) There is hereby created the public employees' retirement association, for the purpose of providing the benefits and programs specified in this article, which shall be a body corporate with the right to sue and be sued and the right to hold property for its use and purposes. Notwithstanding the applicability of article 54.8 of this title and sections 2-3-103, 24-4-103, 24-6-202, and 24-6-402, C.R.S., as provided for in this article, the association shall not be subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state. The association is an instrumentality of the state.

(2) The public employees' retirement association, created pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, shall consist of the following divisions:
(a) The state division;
(a.5) The school division;
(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 771, § 5, effective July 1, 1997.)
(c) The local government division;
(d) The judicial division; and
(e) The Denver public schools division.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-51-102 as it existed prior to 1987.

Cross references: For the provisions that designate the public employees' retirement association as a "special purpose authority" for purposes of section 20 of article X of the Colorado constitution, see § 24-77-102 (15).

24-51-202. Board of trustees - creation. There is hereby created the board of trustees of the association, which shall have the responsibilities, duties, and authorities as set forth in this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-103, 24-51-209, and 24-51-606 as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

24-51-203. Board - composition and election. (1) The board shall consist of the following fifteen trustees:
(a) The state treasurer;
(b) Four members of the state division elected by the members of that division, at least one of whom shall be an employee of a state institution of higher education and at least one of whom shall not be an employee of a state institution of higher education until, on or after January 1, 2007, one of those trustee positions, unless it is the sole position held by an employee of a state institution of higher education, is vacated and thereafter there shall be three members of the state division elected by the members of that division, at least one of whom shall be an employee of a state institution of higher education and at least one of whom shall not be an employee of a state institution of higher education;

(c) Five members of the school division elected by the members of that division until, on or after January 1, 2007, one of those trustee positions is vacated and thereafter there shall be four members of the school division elected by the members of that division;

(d) Two members of the local government division elected by the members of that division until, on or after January 1, 2007, one of those trustee positions is vacated and thereafter there shall be one member of the local government division elected by the members of that division;

(e) One member of the judicial division elected by the members of that division;

(f) Two retirees, one of whom shall be elected by those members who have retired from the local government division, the judicial division, or from the state division and one of whom shall be elected by those members who have retired from the local government division, the judicial division, or the school division; except that both retiree trustees cannot have retired from the same division; and

(g) Three trustees appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate who shall not be members, inactive members, or retirees of the association and who shall have significant experience and competence in investment management, finance, banking, economics, accounting, pension administration, or actuarial analysis. Of the three trustees appointed by the governor, no more than two shall be from the same political party.

(1.5) In addition to the board members specified in subsection (1) of this section, there shall be one ex officio board member from the Denver public schools division. The first term of the ex officio board member appointed pursuant to this subsection (1.5) shall be from May 21, 2009, until December 31, 2009, and the person to serve such term shall be appointed by the Denver public schools retirement system board of trustees. The second term of the ex officio member shall be from January 1, 2010, through June 30, 2012, and the person to serve such term shall be appointed by the Denver public schools board of education. The ex officio board member to serve for the term starting July 1, 2012, and each term thereafter shall be elected by the Denver public schools division through a Denver public schools division member election administered by the association. The Denver public schools division ex officio member position shall exist so long as the Denver public schools division remains as a separate division of the association. The Denver public schools division ex officio member shall be a member or retiree of the Denver public schools division and shall be treated like all other members of the board, subject to the following:

(a) The ex officio member may sit with the board and participate in discussions of agenda items, but shall not be allowed to vote on any matter coming before the board or any committee of the board, or to make any motion regarding any matter before the board or any committee of the board;

(b) The ex officio member may be reimbursed for his or her actual and necessary expenses incurred in the execution of his or her duties as an ex officio member of the board, subject to the same requirements and restrictions as apply to reimbursement of expenses of statutory members of the board;
(c) The ex officio member's fiduciary obligations and responsibilities shall be the same as any other board member, shall flow to the entire association membership, and are not limited to those of the Denver public schools division;

(d) The ex officio member shall be provided the same board and committee meeting materials as are provided to other members of the board, including any information that may be deemed confidential;

(e) The ex officio member shall be allowed to participate in or attend executive or closed sessions of the board or of any committee of the board subject to all association board rules, regulations, and policies, including, but not limited to, confidentiality and conflict of interest;

(f) The ex officio member may not be elected as an officer of the board;

(g) At the request of the ex officio member, the chair of the board may appoint the ex officio member as an ex officio member of any standing committee of the board;

(h) The ex officio member shall be allowed to attend and participate in any open meeting discussion at any board or committee meeting; and

(i) The ex officio member shall observe all rules, regulations, and policies applicable to members of the board and any other conditions, restrictions, or requirements established or directed by vote of a majority of the members of the board.

(2) The board shall set the time and manner for the elections of trustees representing members and retirees. Elected trustees may be reelected to the board for an unlimited number of terms but, except for the state treasurer, no term for any trustee shall exceed four years.

(3) The term for each of the initial three appointed trustees shall be determined by the governor and shall be staggered with a one-year term, a two-year term, and a three-year term with no trustee assigned the same term length. After each of the initial terms conclude, the term for appointed trustees shall be four years. Appointed trustees may be reappointed to the board for an unlimited number of terms.

(4) When a vacancy occurs on the board among the elected trustees, the person who received the next highest number of votes in the most recent election of trustees shall be appointed to serve as trustee until the next election of trustees. If the person who received the next highest number of votes is unwilling to serve as a trustee or if the trustee who created the absence ran unopposed, the board shall appoint a trustee. In either case, the appointed trustee shall be from the same division as the trustee whose absence created the vacancy.

(5) When a vacancy occurs among the three appointed trustees, the governor shall appoint, with consent of the senate, a new trustee with the experience and competence specified in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of this section to serve the remainder of any unexpired term. Such appointee may serve on a temporary basis if the general assembly is not in session when he or she is appointed until the general assembly is in session and the senate is able to consent to such appointment.

(6) The elected trustees shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed by the association for any necessary expenses incurred in the conduct of their official duties and shall suffer no loss of salary from an employer for service on the board.

(7) The appointed trustees shall be compensated by the association for their service on the board.

(8) No person can be or can continue to be a trustee of the board who has been adjudicated of having violated any provisions of this article or who has been convicted of a felony or any crime involving the misappropriation of funds.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-51-103 as it existed prior to 1987.

24-51-204. Duties of the board. (1) The trustees shall elect from among themselves a chairman and any other officers as may be necessary for the board to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

(2) The board shall set the time and place for meetings and conduct those meetings in accordance with the provisions of part 4 of article 6 of this title and shall maintain a record of its proceedings.

(3) No vote of the board shall take place without a quorum present.

(4) The board shall appoint and set the compensation for an executive director to administer the association.

(5) The board shall adopt and promulgate such rules for the administration of the association and to specify the factors to be used in actuarial determinations or calculations required by this article. All rules shall be promulgated in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-103, and such rules shall be consistent with the provisions of this article or other provisions of law.

(6) The board shall submit to and the state auditor shall conduct or cause to be conducted financial and performance audits of all financial transactions and accounts kept by or for the association in a manner consistent with the requirements set forth in section 2-3-103, C.R.S.

(7) (a) The board or its designated agent shall submit an annual actuarial valuation report to the legislative audit committee and the joint budget committee of the general assembly, together with any recommendations concerning such liabilities that have accrued.

(b) In the annual actuarial valuation, the board shall first determine the total aggregate actuarial funded ratio of the association, apply the adjustments pursuant to section 24-51-1009.5, and then determine the actuarial funded ratio of each division separately.

(8) The board or its designated agent shall prepare and transmit annually a report to the governor regarding the policies, financial condition, and administration of the association.

(9) The board shall obtain, and the association shall pay for, insurance or shall self-insure against liability which arises out of, or in connection with, the performance of duties by any trustee or employee of the association.

(10) The board shall perform all duties imposed on it by law, including but not limited to administering the provisions of the DPS plan for qualifying DPS members. The board shall not be liable for actions of members that do not comply with court orders.

(11) The board shall be immune from claims arising from the enforcement and implementation of laws regarding the consolidation or merger of retirement plans under its administration that are made a part of the association.

24-51-205. General authority of the board. (1) The board shall have the authority to determine membership status within the state, school, local government, judicial, and Denver public schools divisions; exemptions from membership; eligibility for benefits, life insurance, health care, the voluntary investment program, the association’s defined contribution plan, and the deferred compensation plan; and service credit and salary to be used in calculations pursuant to the provisions of this article. Such decisions by the board may be appealed through the administrative review procedures set forth in the board rules. Such final decision by the board shall be subject only to review by proper court action.

(2) The board is authorized to accept on behalf of the association any moneys or properties received in the form of donations, gifts, appropriations, bequests, forfeitures, or otherwise, or income derived therefrom. The provisions of this subsection (2) shall not be interpreted to allow the board to accept or retain moneys held by the association that are presumed to be abandoned pursuant to the provisions of section 38-13-108.5, C.R.S.

(3) The board is authorized to recover, through legal process or offset, any amount paid as benefits, refunds, single payments, premium subsidies, or other payments, to which the recipient is not entitled, with interest, plus attorney fees and costs associated with such recovery. If it is determined that the recipient was entitled to the amount paid, the recipient shall be entitled to the attorney fees and costs that he or she incurred in defending the legal action or offset initiated by the board.

(3.5) The board is authorized to settle or compromise any dispute on behalf of the association. The board may consider relevant factors regarding any dispute, including but not limited to the cost of litigation, the likelihood of success on the merits, the cost of delay in resolving the dispute, and the actuarial impact on the fund, in determining whether to settle or compromise the dispute.

(4) The board is authorized to use and hold property in a nominee partnership composed of trustees or employees of the association, designated by the board through appropriate resolution, to facilitate investment sale and exchange transactions. The partners of the nominee partnership shall be insured pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-204 (9).

(5) The board may hold discussions in executive sessions which shall be closed to the public, in accordance with the provisions of section 24-51-204 (2).

(6) (a) The board may delegate any of its responsibilities, duties, and authorities as set forth in this article to the executive director of the association or to designated agents of the association. Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), the executive director may correct an administrative error made by the board, the executive director, or the employees of the association and may make any appropriate correcting adjustments upon receiving written documentation of the following:

(I) That the error was an administrative error of the plan;

(II) That the error was not caused or contributed to in whole or in part by an employer, member, retiree, or other person eligible to receive payments from the association; and

(III) That the error was discovered on or after July 1, 1997.

(b) The executive director shall file a report monthly with the board setting forth the administrative errors corrected pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6). Such corrections shall be subject to board review after which the board may take any action it deems appropriate with regard to such errors.

(7) The board is authorized to purchase and maintain appropriate annuity contracts for the purpose of providing a voluntary contribution program to qualified employees of affiliated employers pursuant to section 403 (b) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and to create a separate trust fund to hold the assets of the program.

Editor's note: (1) The provisions of this section are similar to provisions of several former sections as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

(2) Amendments to subsection (1) by Senate Bill 09-066 and Senate Bill 09-282 were harmonized.

24-51-206. Investments. (1) The board shall have complete control and authority to invest the funds of the association. Preference shall be given to Colorado investments consistent with sound investment policy.

(2) Investments may be made without limitation in the following:
   (a) Obligations of the United States government;
   (b) Obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States government;
   (c) State and municipal bonds;
   (d) Corporate notes, bonds, and debentures whether or not convertible;
   (e) Railroad equipment trust certificates;
   (f) Real property;
   (g) Loans secured by first or second mortgages or deeds of trust on real property; except that the origination of mortgages or deeds of trust on residential real property is prohibited. For the purposes of this paragraph (g) "residential real property" means any real property upon which there is or will be placed a structure designed principally for the occupancy of from one to four families, a mobile home, or a condominium unit or cooperative unit designed principally for the occupancy of from one to four families.
   (g.5) Investments in stock or beneficial interests in entities formed for the ownership of real property by tax-exempt organizations pursuant to section 501 (c)(25) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended; except that the percentage of any entity's outstanding stock or bonds owned by the association shall not be limited by the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section;
   (h) Participation agreements with life insurance companies; and
   (i) Any other type of investment agreements.
(3) Investments may also be made in either common or preferred stock with the following limitations:

(a) The aggregate amount of moneys invested in corporate stocks or corporate bonds, notes, or debentures which are convertible into corporate stock or in investment trust shares shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the then book value of the fund.

(b) No investment of the fund in common or preferred stock, or both, of any single corporation shall be of an amount which exceeds five percent of the then book value of the fund, nor shall the fund acquire more than twelve percent of the outstanding stock or bonds of any single corporation.

(c) (I) Each investment firm offering for sale to the board corporate stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, or a mutual fund that contains corporate securities, shall disclose, in any research or other disclosure documents provided in support of the securities being offered, to the board whether the investment firm has an agreement with a for-profit corporation that is not a government-sponsored enterprise, whose securities are being offered for sale to the board and because of such agreement the investment firm:

(A) Had received compensation for investment banking services within the most recent twelve months; or

(B) May receive compensation for investment banking services within the next three consecutive months.

(II) For the purposes of this paragraph (c), "investment firm" means a bank, brokerage firm, or other financial services firm conducting business within this state, or any agent thereof.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-107 and 24-51-605 as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

24-51-207. Standard of conduct. (1) The trustees of the board shall be held to the standard of conduct of a fiduciary specified in subsection (2) of this section in the discharge of their functions. Their functions shall include any duty, obligation, power, authority, responsibility, right, privilege, activity, or program specified in this article in connection with the association.

(2) (a) As fiduciaries, such trustees shall carry out their functions solely in the interest of the members and benefit recipients and for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits and defraying reasonable expenses incurred in performing such duties as required by law. The trustees shall act in accordance with the provisions of this article and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence in light of the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims by diversifying the investments of the association so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless in light of such circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so.
(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the mere settlement or compromise of any dispute by the board pursuant to the authority granted under section 24-51-205 (3.5) is not per se a violation of the fiduciary duties of any trustee.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the consolidation or merger of a plan created under part 2 of article 64 of title 22, C.R.S., prior to its repeal in 2010, into the association and the board's administration of that division following the effective date of the merger shall not be considered a breach of the board's duties or standards of conduct. No claims shall lie against the board, association, or the trustees arising from the consolidation or merger or the specific terms imposed by law.

(3) The trustees of the board shall not engage in any activities which might result in a conflict of interest with their functions as fiduciaries for the association.

(4) The trustees of the board, the executive director, the deputy executive directors, and any employee of the association who is in a fiduciary position shall be subject to and shall make financial disclosures pursuant to the provisions of section 24-6-202.

(5) Any person who is in a fiduciary position with the association and who is adjudicated of violating any provisions of this article shall be personally liable to pay to the association an amount equal to any losses resulting from such violation and shall be subject to such equitable or remedial relief as the court deems appropriate. The court may enjoin any act or practice which violates any provision of this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-51-107 as it existed prior to 1987.

24-51-208. Allocation of moneys. (1) The moneys of the association shall be divided into several trust funds, including, but not limited to:

(a) The state division trust fund, which consists of contributions, payments, and interest paid by members and employers of the state division, in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(a.5) The school division trust fund, which consists of contributions, payments, and interest paid by members and employers of the school division, in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 97, p. 772, § 7, effective July 1, 1997.)

(c) The local government division trust fund, which consists of contributions, payments, and interest paid by members and employers of the local government division, in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(d) The judicial division trust fund, which consists of contributions, payments, and interest paid by members and employers of the judicial division, in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(d.5) The Denver public schools division trust fund, which consists of contributions, payments, and interest paid by members, DPS members, and employers of the Denver public schools division, in addition to the proportional share of investment income earned thereon and the assets of the DPS plan trust funds as of January 1, 2010;
(e) Repealed.

(f) The health care trust fund, created pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-1201 (1), which consists of a portion of the employer contributions equal to one and two one-hundredths percent of member salaries; a portion of the amount paid by members to purchase service credit relating to noncovered employment as determined pursuant to section 24-51-505 (7); thirty percent of the amount of any reduction in the employer contribution rates as determined in section 24-51-408.5 (5) to amortize any overfunding in each division's trust fund; deductions of premium amounts from monthly benefits of participating benefit recipients; premiums paid directly to the trust fund by participating benefit recipients, members, and dependents; monthly payments made by employers on behalf of participating benefit recipients, members, and dependents; and interest; in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(f.5) The Denver public schools division health care trust fund, created pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-1201 (2), which consists of a portion of the employer contributions equal to one and two one-hundredths percent of member salaries; a portion of the amount paid by members to purchase service credit relating to noncovered employment as determined pursuant to section 24-51-505 (7); deductions of premium amounts from monthly benefits of participating benefit recipients; premiums paid directly to the trust fund by participating benefit recipients, members, and dependents; monthly payments made by employers on behalf of participating benefit recipients, members, and dependents; and interest; in addition to a proportional share of investment income earned thereon;

(g) The voluntary investment program trust fund, which consists of voluntary contributions made pursuant to 26 U.S.C. sec. 401 (k), as amended, and part 14 of this article and any investment income earned thereon;

(h) The common operating fund, which consists of proportional allocations of money from the division trust funds and allocations from the other trust funds to meet the budget set by the board and any investment income earned thereon;

(i) The association's defined contribution plan trust fund pursuant to part 15 of this article and any investment income earned thereon;

(j) The deferred compensation plan trust fund, which shall hold assets of the plan established under 26 U.S.C. sec. 457 (b), as amended, and part 16 of this article and any investment income earned thereon.

(2) Within each of the state division, school division, local government division, judicial division, and Denver public schools division trust funds, the following reserves shall exist:

(a) Member contribution reserve;
(b) Employer contribution reserve;
(c) Retirement benefits reserve; and
(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1176, § 3, effective May 25, 2006.)
(e) Survivor benefits reserve.
(f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 1176, § 3, effective May 25, 2006.)

(2.5) Within each of the state division, school division, local government division, and judicial division trust funds, an annual increase reserve shall exist on and after January 1, 2007, and within the Denver public schools division trust fund, an annual increase reserve shall exist on and after January 1, 2010.
(3) Within the member contribution reserve, there shall exist individual member contribution accounts.

(4) At the time a benefit is paid, the association shall transfer to the retirement benefits reserve or survivor benefits reserve of the division from which the benefit is paid, whichever is applicable, one hundred percent of the present value of the actuarially determined liability of such benefit. Each division in which the account has contributions shall fund its proportionate share of the benefit liability based on the percentage of the member contribution account balance from that division as it relates to the total member contribution account balance.

Editor's note: The provisions of this section are similar to provisions of several former sections as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

24-51-209. Disbursements. Disbursements from the trust funds authorized in section 24-51-208 shall be subject to the approval of the board and shall be made only for the benefits, health care subsidies, investments, refunds, single payments, payments of remaining member contributions pursuant to the provisions of section 24-51-801, payments pursuant to the provisions of part 17 of this article, and expenses of the association.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-106 and 24-51-1411 as they existed prior to 1987.

24-51-210. Allocation of assets and liabilities. (1) The assets and liabilities of the association shall be divided equitably on an historical accumulative basis among the several trust funds specified in section 24-51-208 (1).

(2) Repealed.

Editor's note: Subsection (2)(b) provided for the repeal of subsection (2), effective March 2, 1994. (See L. 93, p. 479.)

24-51-211. Amortization of liabilities. (1) An amortization period for each of the state division, school division, local government division, judicial division, and Denver public schools division trust funds shall be calculated separately. A maximum amortization period of thirty years shall be deemed actuarially sound. Upon recommendation of the board, and with the advice of the actuary, the employer or member contribution rates for the plan may be adjusted by the general assembly when indicated by actuarial experience.

(2) On or before November 1, 2009, the board shall submit specific, comprehensive recommendations to the general assembly regarding possible methods to respond to the decrease in the value of the association's assets, including real estate, private equity, and other investments, to decrease the amortization period of each division of the association, and to ensure that each division of the association will become and remain fully funded.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-105 and 24-51-206 as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

(2) Amendments to this section by House Bill 97-1082 and House Bill 97-1114 were harmonized.

24-51-211.5. Notice of possible change in benefits - actuarial necessity. The association shall provide written notice to each member, DPS member, and inactive member of the association that the possibility of an actuarial necessity could occur in the future, and the general assembly may modify by bill the benefits allowed to members of the defined benefit plan.

24-51-212. Funds not subject to legal process. (1) Except for federal tax liens on distributions payable by the association, for Colorado tax distrainst and liens pursuant to section 39-21-114, C.R.S., on distributions payable by the association, for assignments for child support purposes as provided for in sections 14-10-118 (1) and 14-14-107, C.R.S., as they existed prior to July 1, 1996, for income assignments for child support purposes pursuant to section 14-14-111.5, C.R.S., for writs of garnishment that are the result of a judgment taken for arrearages for child support or for child support debt, for payments from the association in compliance with a properly executed court order approving a written agreement entered into pursuant to section 14-10-113 (6), C.R.S., and for restitution that is required to be paid for the theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, or wrongful conversion of public property or in the event of a judgment for a willful and intentional violation of fiduciary duties pursuant to section 24-51-207 where the offender or a related party received direct financial gain, none of the moneys, trust funds, reserves, accounts, contributions pursuant to parts 4, 5, 14, 15, 16, and 17 of this article, or benefits referred to in this article shall be assignable either in law or in equity or be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, bankruptcy proceedings, or other legal process. Member contributions are subject to garnishment resulting from a judgment taken for arrearages for child support or for child support debt, for restitution that is required to be paid for the theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, or wrongful conversion of public property or in the event of a judgment for a willful and intentional violation of fiduciary duties pursuant to section 24-51-207 where the offender or a related party received direct financial gain, only if the membership has terminated and the member is not vested.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, upon service to the association of orders, injunctions, or warrants issued pursuant to sections 18-17-105 and 18-17-106 or section 16-3-301, C.R.S., applicable to a member contribution account based upon allegations of theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, or wrongful conversion of public property, a member who terminates membership is prohibited from receiving a refund of the member's contribution account and matching employer contributions pursuant to section 24-51-405 or a refund of member contributions pursuant to part 17 of this article, until a court order or the issuing authority releases the member contribution account from said orders, injunctions, or warrants.

Editor's note: (1) This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-120, 24-51-219, and 24-51-613.5 as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

(2) Amendments to this section by Senate Bill 96-002 and Senate Bill 96-204 were harmonized.

(3) Amendments to subsection (1) by Senate Bill 09-066 and Senate Bill 09-282 were harmonized.

24-51-213. Confidentiality. (1) All information contained in records of members, former members, inactive members, DPS members, DPS retirees, benefit recipients and their dependents, including those from the Denver public schools division, participants in the voluntary investment program established pursuant to part 14 of this article, participants in the defined contribution plan established pursuant to part 15 of this article, and participants in the deferred compensation plan established pursuant to part 16 of this article shall be kept confidential by the association.
(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2607, § 2, effective June 5, 2003.)

(3) Information regarding real estate, private equity, private debt, timber, and mortgage investments by the association may be kept confidential until the transaction is completed if it is determined by the board that disclosure of such information would jeopardize the value of the investment.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (1) by Senate Bill 09-066 and Senate Bill 09-282 were harmonized.

24-51-214. Benefits not offset by workers' compensation benefits. Benefits paid under this article shall be in addition to any benefits paid to the benefit recipients pursuant to the provisions of the "Workers' Compensation Act of Colorado", articles 40 to 47 of title 8, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 24-51-118, 24-51-218, and 24-51-613 as they existed prior to 1987. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

24-51-215. Insurance and banking laws not applicable. None of the laws of this state regulating insurance, insurance companies, or banking institutions shall apply to the association or any of its trust funds.
