

In the 2012 election, over half of the campaign events were in three states: Florida, Virginia, and Ohio. Most states are completely left out.

2012 General-Election Campaign Events

In the 2016 general election, over half (218 of 399) of the general-election events were in only 4 states: Florida, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, and Ohio). Notice that many states received no events at all.

2016 General-Election Campaign Events

