Matthew Fallon Against themselves	The whole issue and topic of gender and sex was never an issue of concern until the likes of John Money in the mid 20th century made it such. This ideology has now become an insanity being pushed onto everyone. Sincerely, it's fair to say the majority of this population of humans on this earth doesn't care what someone else does until what that someone else is doing is being pushed onto society as a whole and asking society as a whole to bend a knee, to surrender to it. This is not about human rights, this is about taking away the freedom to NOT participate in something that conflicts with one's morals, values. I am absolutely against everything that this bill proposes. Everything this bill proposes stems from a lie. Truth is, there are only two sexes. There are infinite personalities. Genders do not exist. If one has a concern or issue with someone being transgender, that is not a body problem upon which one should start changing pronouns as you address that person, or inject them with chemicals and toxins that castrate them, rather this is a mind issue. This person's mind needs addressing. It is a mental health issue.
Alisha Campton Against themselves	As a single mother to three girls under the age of ten, I am opposed to the passing of this bill. Please let our children be children and make that decision when they are capable of making it on their own. Can't buy alcohol until you're 21? Don't change gender until you're 21, if they even still want to.
