Degree & Certificate Building Blocks for Career Success

With CSU-Global, career advancement doesn't have to wait until after graduation. Your career is happening now, so you should choose an educational path that meets your current and long-term goals.

Stackable Credentials

CSU-Global designed its online certificates, specializations, and degrees to work together as the building blocks of a personalized education plan that will bring you closer to your career goals. Higher education calls these "stackable credentials". What it means to you is that you can add programs and gain expertise in the most career-relevant skills you need for your current job, while still working toward your long-term career.

How It Works

- 01 Start by thinking about what you specifically want to accomplish in your career.
- 02 Work with a CSU-Global enrollment counselor, advisor, or industry career coach to layout the educational building blocks that are right for you.

Example Plan

Patricia wants to be an IT Director at the hospital where she works. She'll start with a shorter-term certificate program and then create a custom degree plan with her advisor — using the credits she's already earned.

Certificate

Certificate in Information Technology Operations

Certificate

Certificate in Project Management

Bachelor's

Bachelor's Degree in Healthcare Administration

Specialization

Specialization in Organizational Leadership
