2 "SECTION 7. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 18-7-201.3, repeal
3 (1) as follows:

4 18-7-201.3. Affirmative defense - human trafficking -
5 expungement of record protective order - definitions. (1) A person 6 charged with prostitution, as described in section 18-7-201 or any 7 corresponding municipal code or ordinance, for an offense committed on 8 or after July 1, 2015, which offense was committed as a direct result of 9 being a victim of human trafficking, may assert as an affirmative defense
10 that he or she is a victim of human trafficking as defined in subsection (4)
11 of this section. To assert the affirmative defense pursuant to this 12 subsection (1), the person charged with the offense must demonstrate by 13 a preponderance of the evidence that he or she was a victim of human 14 trafficking at the time of the offense. An official determination or 15 documentation is not required to assert an affirmative defense pursuant 16 to this subsection (1), but official documentation from a federal, state, 17 local, or tribal government agency indicating that the defendant was a 18 victim at the time of the offense creates a presumption that his or her 19 participation in the offense was a direct result of being a victim."

20 Renumber succeeding sections accordingly.
