Anna Mitchell Against themselves	The Colorado constitution provides for marriage between one man and one woman. This is as God intended. It does not need to be banned.
Michael Neil For themselves	SB25-014 Thank you Chair Mabrey, Vice-Chair Carter, and members of the House Judiciary Committee. Thank you Representatives Garcia and Titone for bringing this bill before us. My name is Michael Neil, and I am writing in strong support of SB25-014. In truth, I did not always see the need for this bill. I and many others had done our duty and called, persuaded, and discussed Amendment J and voters in almost every House district followed and enshrined marriage equality in the Colorado State Constitution. I was discussing the matter of why this bill was necessary with a friend at One Colorado and she informed me that state statute had to conform to the new amendment. With that knowledge, I ask you to finish the job that campaigners and voters began last fall and finally enshrine marriage equality. I ask for an 'Aye" vote on SB25-014.
