

Colorado West Nile Virus Human Cases 2003-2023

Source:
CDPHE
2024

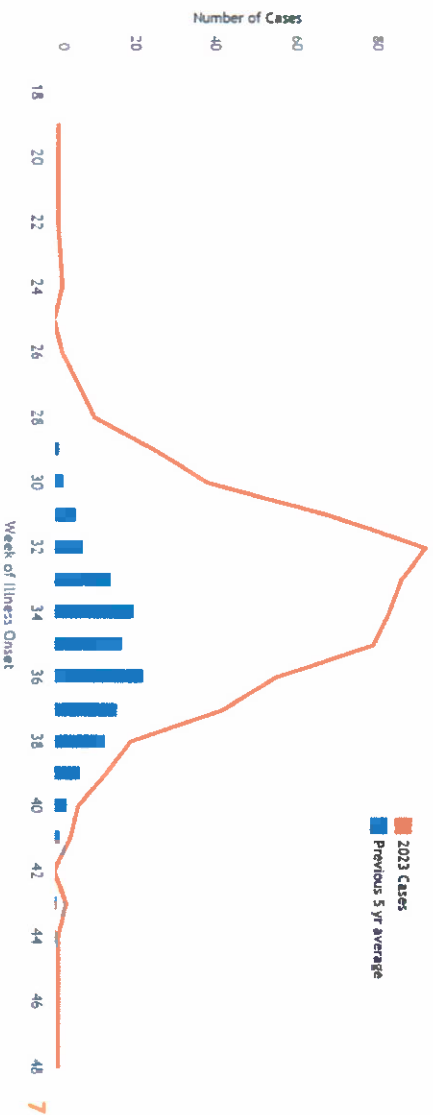

2023 West Nile Virus Statistics

People affected by West Nile virus, 2023 Case map and demographics 2023 mosquito testing data Previous years human infection data

West Nile virus became reportable in Colorado in 2003. A typical season runs from May through October.

This graph changes as new cases are investigated and information is entered about when symptoms started for each case. Date of illness onset is usually obtained after public health is able to investigate a case.

People affected: 631
Affected people who died: 50
Affected people with neurologic symptoms: 315
Affected people requiring hospitalization: 383

CLICK HERE for more information about West Nile virus in Colorado

CLICK HERE if you are a healthcare provider and would like to report a case of WNV

Last updated 1/3/2024 3:31:11 PM

