2 substitute:

3 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
4 assembly finds and declares that:

5 (a) On April 19, 1775, during the battles of Lexington and 6 Concord in the American Revolutionary War, there was a "shot heard 7 round the world" that was prompted by a "long train of abuses and 8 usurpations" imposed on the American colonies by a tyrannical
9 government;

10 (b) On December 20, 1775, the American colonies and their 11 principles were encapsulated in a flag that depicted a coiled rattlesnake,
12 which is a species native to the Americas, and the inscription "Don't 13 Tread on Me";

14 (c) The "Don't Tread on Me" flag symbolized the unwavering
15 resolve of the American people to not be trifled with and the American 16 people's commitment to defend their rights and liberties;

17 (d) The "Don't Tread on Me" flag is of immense significance to 18 the United States military, especially the Navy, which flew the "Don't 19 Tread on Me" emblem, also known as the "First Navy Jack", on the main 20 mast of ships in December of 1775 and adorned the emblem on 21 ceremonial attire and other military accoutrements;

22 (e) The "Don't Tread on Me" symbol is currently commemorated
23 in twelve states and on August 29, 2023, Colorado's Governor Polis
24 referred to the symbol as a "proud symbol of the American Revolution
25 and a[n] iconic warning to ... any government not to violate the liberties 26 of Americans"; and

27 (f) The "Don't Tread on Me" symbol and its significance is part of 28 the United States' revolutionary history and heritage and serves as a
29 representation of the American spirit of independence, an unwavering 30 resistance to tyranny, and a vivid reminder of the principles and values
31 upon which the United States was founded.

32 (2) The general assembly further declares that a "Don't Tread on 33 Me" special license plate will preserve American history and commend 34 American unity, independence, civility, and courage.
