Maryann Dey For themselves	We need to have in place remedies to prevent human trafficking. People need to be protected.
Jeany Rush For themselves	TO: COMMITTEE FOR HOUSE STATE, CIVIC, MILITARY, AND VETERANS AFFAIRS 3-7-24 RE: HB24-1261 CIVIL REMEDIES TO PREVENT HUMAN TRAFFICKING SPONSOR BOTTOMS FROM: JEANY RUSH, COLORADO SPRINGS CONCERNED CONSTITUENT BRAVE ACT 2024 BATTLING TO RESTORE, ADVOCATE, AND VANQUISH EXPLOITATION VOTE: YES FOR THIS BILL As a grandparent, as a woman, as a human being, I cannot imagine anything more exploitative than being trafficked, harmed, and used, and / or even killed in this vile enterprise of trafficking. This bill has been put together in a very thoughtful manner, incorporating many firewalls of safety, and also walls of accountability. There was a day when we thought we could trust our elected representatives and those they employ to work on our collective behalf. That day is gone!!!!!!!!!! The partisan and monetary gain function of politics has taken over, and has in my opinion, become criminal. Hence, the many avenues to create responsibility in this bill to assure that recompense comes to the victims and those assisting them. It is what we would want our elected folks to honor and champion. I welcome any bi-partisan efforts to think more deeply about who they are serving, and how that could even impact their very own

	families in the future. We treasure all young kids, and want to put an end to these criminal, and horrible crimes against humanity.
