Aahana Paul For Youth Healthacre Alliance	For me, school based healthcare was a means by which my peers could access a universal need that they otherwise would not have the opportunity to use. One friend especially close to me lived well below the poverty line and could not afford health insurance. When her school opened a free health clinic, her entire family was able to access care in a way they had never been able to before. Especially because she came from a title 1 school, having the center was a pivotal role in providing that community with necessary resources. I witnessed firsthand the immense impact this clinic had in her life and ever since have become deeply enthralled by the impact that free clinics can hold. Especially given socioeconomic disparities that are still prevalent in Colorado, I believe that school based healthcare is step towards improving living conditions for all and ensuring greater equity in resources for our future generations. It is for these reasons that I think school based healthcare is an amazing resource for many and one that can truly change lives in the fight for healthcare justice. I really appreciate you reviewing my comments and hope you consider supporting SB 034.
Cathy Gardino Against colorado parents for education options	yesterday I was attacked online in a comments section of a local newspaper article by a group of county democrats that believe they are in control of everything our children may or may not see. these people posted comments like this: Emily Von Cathy Gardino library books did not make your grandchild a trans person. Stop deflecting your personal pain into politics. Here is some advice for you, go heal your relationships. .Emily Von Cathy Gardino Facts: You have a trans granchild whom you refer to by their dead name. Facts: You attend local board meeting spreading misinformation and is rooted in re-shared posts you have read from telegram. Facts: I am a parent who is tired of non sensical "grand

	parents" jeopardizing my children's education because you spew slander about public education teachers. I have receipts. How much do you want it to circulate online and beyond? Emily Von Cathy Gardino the game was never a secret. If it had to be spelled out in ABC format then you are too incompetent to stop what was blatantly occurring around you for several years now. We tolerate you for the circus show you perform. Emily Von Cathy Gardino your property taxes? This is a joke right? Most parents in D20 are paying 5-8x the property taxes on the assessed value of their home. This is truly entertaining. Go ahead and play victim, Karen. "I'm a tax payer" says the homestead exemption boomer. (posted a copy of my property value assessment.) the point being 1) these people stalk and try to intimidate, not to mention verbally abuse taxpaying citizens... 2) These Democrat people have a very clear agenda for taking our kids away to where ever they please and 3) these democrat communist people need these kinds of abusive laws to finalize their agenda of tearing kids away from families. Bottom line... WE ARE REAL FAMILIES and those that would try to take our place will have a real fight on their hands. FIRM NO on this overreach by the Marxists and the Communists in Colorado's state house.
