| Amy Weinstein For themselves | I have been an employer and see no reason why there is a need to retain or confiscate anyone's government-issued ID card. The ID card belongs to the person it was issued to, not the employer or anyone else. An employer should be able to make a copy for their purposes. That is it. There is no good reason for anyone having someone else's ID in their possession. For this reason, I am for this prohibition. |
| Virginia GEBHART For themselves | Please vote yes to protect the people of Colorado from the invading army of ICE agents who act with impunity to disrupt the lives of our families, friends and co-workers. |
