. Lucky225 Against themselves	This does not add actual victims in the address confidentiality program to "protected persons" and gives elected officials more protection than victims, and it's going to infringe on people's first amendment as happened with both Regan Benson and Elvis Martinez, particularly Elvis was exposing an elected official not living in her district, PPD thought this bill was already law and tired to charge him with personal information on the internet of ELECTION officials. This bill needs amending. As written true threats are not defined and mens rea intent is not required which is how Regan Benson was found guilty joking about a pigs roast at a cops house.
