

Passage of HB23-1160 in its current or amended form will mean the following entities will receive founded findings (left side) and those on the right side will not (until the appeal is exhausted).

