

|                                    | COST / PRICE for an Epipen 2-pack   | Description  |
|------------------------------------|--|---|
| Manufacturer                | $8  | Average cost to produce and distribute an epipen 2-pack   |
| HB23-1002 Price Cap         | $60   | Available to all Coloradans who need it   |
| Mylan affordability program | For few able to access program: $390-650 OR For most unable to access program: $690 | Affordability program delivers discounts of 10-45% if eligible. Program participants must have insurance and undergo a credit check. Mylan receives full price from the insurer. Most Coloradans on private insurance (~65%) are in high deductible plans, decreasing impact of Mylan program on family budgets |
| No insurance                | $690  | Coloradans without insurance are not eligible for affordability programs. Uninsured consumers are often low-wage workers, undocumented people, and gig-economy workers.   |
| Medicare / Medicaid         | $3  | Medicare / Medicaid participants are not eligible for affordability programs.   |

**Note: Affordability program prices are completely at the manufacturer's discretion and may change at any time, without warning.